Early Start on '51 Sheriff Race Develops as Kerlin Fires Deputy Wheeling Will Seek Boss' Job

The 1951 campaign for sheriff of Prince William County broke into the open this week, a year and half early, with the firing of Deputy Sheriff Turner Wheeling, 35, by Sheriff John P. Kerlin, 72.

Kerlin, who has been sheriff of Prince William County for more than a quarter of a century, has demanded the resignation of Wheeling, effective March 15. A brief letter of resignation dated March 1, Wheeling sent to the Sheriff immediately.

On his Monday, Sheriff Kerlin gave Wheeling the following letter of recommendation:

"To Whom It May Concern:

This is to certify that the undersigned, John P. Kerlin, Sheriff of Prince William County, Virginia, has been personally acquainted with Turner D. Wheeling, of Manassas, Prince William County, Virginia, for the period of nine years, and that since the 15th day of July 1944 he has served under me as Deputy Sheriff of Prince William County, Virginia, during which time his work has been thoroughly competent.

"Mr. Wheeling is a person of highest character and integrity; he is a public spirited citizen and he enjoys an excellent reputation in the community in which he lives, not only as a law enforcement officer but also as a private citizen.

J. P. Kerlin,
Sheriff, Prince William County, Virginia."

The letter was reportedly composed by Arthur Sinclair, Manassas attorney, at the request of Sheriff Kerlin.

Reached by The Journal after his return earlier this week from Richmond, where a bill for the increase of sheriff's salaries was under consideration in the House, Kerlin refused flatly to "make any comment to the papers." Under more specific questioning, however, he said:

"Among the girls listed on the roll of Mary Washington College for last semester are Betty Louise Harpino, of Nokesville, a major in French, and Dorothy White of Loudon, a senior in biology."

Miss Duffries, P. T. A. heard at recent meeting that the school law is being broken by many parents in the lower county area. The children have been killed as a result of negligence on the part of drivers.

Health Officer Dr. Walter R. Johnson announces that there is present in the County a mild "epidemic" of virus infections believed to be of the influenza variety. There are no serious individual cases, however. State Health authorities in Virginia are three or four times greater than usual for winter months.

The fringe in the pockets of Manassas policemen will be a little louder hereafter. The town council has voted to raise the pay of three officers from $185 to $200 monthly. Sergeant Charles Simms already receives the higher rate.

Daggett Hits at Concrete Work Sewage Treatment Plant

Councilman Roy Daggett, whose physical appearance suggests he could take on Dempsey, Louis or Tunney any day, chose up sides at Town Council meeting Monday night and tangled briefly with the biggest thing in town—the new sewage disposal plant.

Starting off slowly in the first round with the remark that the plant was a "long way from being a good job," Daggett predicted trouble and expense for the town and ended up charging that the taxpayers aren't getting what they paid for.

"The battle went to 'no decision' when consideration of the $13,000 still outstanding as payments on the sewage plant was tabled until a special called meeting next Tuesday.

2 Are Named By Kiwanians

The Kiwanis Club of Manassas has elected J. Carl Kincheloe and Edgar Parrish delegates to the 35th annual Kiwanis International Convention.

The convention, set for May 7-11 at Miami, Fla., is expected to attract about 10,000 people. Speakers will include Defense Secretary Louis Johnson and Gen. Carlos P. Romulo, president of the UN general assembly.

At Friday's meeting Manassas Kiwanians heard a program on Canadian-American relations, presented by Dan Kelso. Mr. Kelso also showed three sound-films on Canadian fishing, "The Road to Gaspe," "Rocky Mountain Trout," and "Famous Fish I Have Known." The films were produced by the National Film Board of Canada and lent by the Canadian Embassy.

Chief Warns on Brush Fire

Following numerous field fires in the area Manassas Fire Chief Raymond J. Davis and County Fire Warden Edwin G. Cornell have both issued warnings to citizens regarding the danger of lighting outdoor fires at this season. They quote the brush burning law as follows: "A fine up to $100 may be imposed for setting a fire during the period of March 1 to May 15 to any brush or other inflammable material, unless the fire is set between 4 p.m. and midnight and is not closer than 300 feet to any woodland."

Too Hot to Chop, Too Cold to Drink

In case there are any hermits living in air-conditioned caves in Prince William county, it is only fair to report that this area has been experiencing a cold snap. After coming in like a lamb on the Wednesday, the month's weather became lion-like that same afternoon. Since then the water in ponds and runs hereabouts has been, as the headline above says, "Too hot to chop, too cold to drink."

A sprinkling of snow fell Thursday morning but soon vanished under a sun that gave more light than heat.

PENCE-SNEAD RITES
Miss Janet Pence, daughter of G. H. Pence of Manassas, was married to George C. Snead, of Clover, in Asbury Methodist Church, Richmond, on Saturday, Feb. 25, at 8 p.m. A reception followed at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. W. J. Smith in Richmond. Bridesmaids included Miss Doris Muddiman of Manassas.

News from Prince William Communities

Quantico

By Lee Roy Peters

The sewer on Potomac Avenue backed up and caused extensive damage to the basement of the Quantico Bank and the Marine Sundry Shop. The extent of the damage was about $500.00 to the heating system in the basement of the bank. Small heaters were used to keep the employees from suffering from the cold. So if you received any cold cash from the bank during the last week that is the reason.

Raymond Moyers' "Old Fashion Minstrel" is shaping up and the first rehearsal will be held this week. The Professor tells me that he still needs a few more people to help out he is especially interested in getting a piano player, any one interested in helping out is asked to call Triangle 70. Al-

County-Wide Drive Begins For Red Cross

The American Red Cross 1950 fund campaign gets under way this week in Prince William County under the chairmanship of Mrs. Joseph Mills Hanson, Manassas. During the intensive period of the campaign, March 1 to 15, special moving pictures will be shown at Pitts theatre in Manassas and at the Lyric theatre in Occoquan. Also two 16mm films will be available for showing at meetings of service clubs and other organizations during the campaign period. Requests for the use of these 16mm films should be addressed to Mrs. Frank Cox, publicity chairman for the campaign, Mrs. Hanson states.

The following persons have been asked to serve as district chairman, captains and solicitors in their respective communities:

No City Water For Outsiders

The Manassas Town Council has prohibited further city water and sewage connections by outsiders until more water becomes available. Action taken at the council meeting Monday night will not affect present out-of-town users of municipal facilities, but will prevent new users from joining the system.

A resolution, proposed by Councilman Roy Daggett, was carried by vote of Mayor Davis after Daggett and his second, Councilman J. E. Rife, were tied by the negative votes of Councilmen G. Wallace Hook and Frances Saunders. That annexation of outlying territories looms large in the minds of the council was made evident by discussion prior to the vote. Daggett expressed the belief that if out-of-town users already enjoying city water and sewage service they would have no incentive to agree to annexation. Hook, however, said that if the outlying areas were served with water and sewage facilities by the city, out-of-town property owners would have no valid objection to annexation.

Plant Dedication Postponed From 14th

Town Manager James Ritter told the Chamber of Commerce Tuesday the sewage disposal plant dedication banquet has been postponed from the proposed March 14 date. He gave as the reason the inability of Governor Battle to attend the ceremonies on that date. The Governor will now be asked to specify a date on which he could visit Manassas, and plans then made to hold the banquet on that day.

A Virginia Travel Council tour will visit Manassas' Battlefield museum on May 5, the Chamber of Commerce was told. The travelers will be here for only a short time before hurrying on to Culpeper, Charlottesville and Washington. The Chamber moved to make plans for welcoming the visitors.

Catharpin

By Mrs. Wallace Rion

Red Cross emblems are beginning to appear in Catharpin windows as works begin visits for the 1950 Red Cross fund drive. Mrs. Gordon Pattie, Red Cross representative, is in charge of the drive in the area. She will be assisted by two workers in making calls.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Casey were hosts at dinner Sunday to Mr. and the Rev. John Coleman, vicar of St. Timothy's Episcopal Chapel, and Mrs. Coleman, all of Washington. Mr. and Mrs. Casey and Holly recently were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Finlay MacLennan in Washington.

Elizabeth Lynn was the house guest last weekend of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Haydon in Manassas. Mr. and Mrs. Haydon also entertained (See CATHARPIN, Page 6.)

Marines Fire 200 Civilians At Quantico

Two hundred civilian employees, some of them with as much as 15 years seniority in civil service, have been fired in an "economy" move at the Marine Base, Quantico. The lay-off reportedly was ordered by the Marine Corps Headquarters in Washington.

A dry cleaning department at the base was eliminated at a single stroke, wiping out the jobs of some 30 employees. The remaining 170 workers had been employed as laborers, mechanics and helpers.

The mass layoff will result in a payroll reduction at the base of approximately $400,000 a year. The great majority of newly unemployed are residents of Prince William and Stafford counties.

Radio Cleric Hancock Ends 5th Year Here

Next Monday marks the fifth anniversary in Prince William County for Rev. R. J. Hancock, pastor of Manassas Full Gospel Church and Triangle Pentecostal Church.

During these five years Rev. Hancock has managed to have one church and a Sunday School building erected, has instituted regular services in a Quantico schoolhouse, originated a radio program, and watched his congregations increase rapidly.

At the present time he conducts weekly Sunday morning services in Full Gospel Church, services in Triangle Pentecostal Church each Sunday afternoon, and Thursday evening services in the Third Avenue schoolhouse, Quantico. Besides this, he manages to turn out 32 radio broadcasts a month. It is a busy schedule but Rev. Hancock passes the credit to "The fine people I have working with me." Closest of these is, of course, his wife, who is his music director. Mrs. Hancock plays, sings, and directs the girls' choir. She is music director for the "Hour of Faith" radio programs. Another valuable worker he finds, is his assistant Miss Marie Phillips, a graduate of Central Bible Institute and now training for mission work in India.

Symphony Is Here Friday

There are still a few tickets available for the National Symphony Orchestra to be heard in Osbourn High School auditorium Friday night.

The Orchestra, under the direction of Howard Mitchell, will present a program including works by Mozart, Beethoven, Darius, Dukas, Richard Strauss and Johann Strauss o begin at 8 p.m.

Tickets are available at the Journal office. Prices: adults $2, children $1.

Centreville Area Is Surveyed As Washington Air Terminus; Cost Estimated at $50 Million

Goal Is Seen In Dime Drive

Prince William County contributions to the March of Dimes may reach the quota of about $4,000 as soon as all money is counted, chairman Reuben C. Hicks announced this week.

The County has already reached 90% of its goal, which is a higher percentage than either the State or the nation is expected to achieve. It is believed to be higher than the percentage of any other Virginia county.

Mr. Hicks said the cooperation received from the citizens and workers of Prince William had been most excellent in aiding the County toward its goal.

Owens Given Health Report On Yorkshire

Dr. Walter R. Johnson, health officer, this week submitted to Commonwealth Attorney Stanley A. Owens a report of sanitary survey made recently at Yorkshire Acres at the direction of the Board of Supervisors. Text of Dr. Johnson's report follows:

"In accordance with the request of the Board of Supervisors of Prince William County, we have made a survey of the subdivision known as Yorkshire Acres, and we submit the following report of sanitary conditions as noted by this department.

"Number of homes constructed and under construction, 41; number of homes inhabited, 30; number of homes having approved septic tanks, 3; number of homes having septic tanks under construction, 2; number of homes having approved sanitary pit privies, 0; number of homes having unapproved pit privies, 22; number of homes having no sewage disposal systems, 6; number of homes having protected water supplies, 2; number of homes having unprotected water supplies, 3; number of homes having no water supply available, 31; number of water supplies classified as doubtful, 4. "In addition to the above information, we noted that there are several mosquito breeding areas, although no person interviewed complained of mosquitoes.

"Almost all of the residents of Yorkshire Acres informed us they had been promised water from a central supply by April 1, 1950. However, we understand that Yorkshire Acres has not made application to the Virginia State Health Department to secure a permit to operate a public water supply."

Budget Asks $124,310 for '51

A 1951 budget equivalent in cost to $60 for every man, woman and child in Manassas has been tentatively adopted by the Town Council and will come up for final decision in five weeks or so.

A total of $124,310 in receipts and $124,310 in expenditures were included in the budget presented Monday night by Town Manager James W. Ritter. Ritter said Tuesday he believed there were slightly over 2,000 residents in the town.

Main items in the budget were $22,100 for general government (up $1,400 from 1949); $15,270 for health, sanitation and promotion of cleanliness (down $970 from last year); $12,855 for the street department (a decrease of $6,955); $13,655 for the water department ($8,735 over last year); $42,805 for light and power department (up $3,921) and $9,000 for debt service and $8,625 for miscellaneous administration. The total budget is $7,134 higher than last year's.

Principal item of expenditure causing the increase is an entry of $6,000 for a new well.

A five-square-mile, $50,000,000 airport at or near Centreville looms as a major possibility in Washington's search for expanded air transport landing facilities. The Manassas Journal has learned. Aerial surveys, preliminary to land acquisition, have already been made in the Centreville area, according to reliable reports.

Civil Aeronautics officials in Washington, who must give the stamp of approval to any site selected. However, general criteria for an airport site, already made known by federal aviation authorities, are well fulfilled by the Centreville region. These are:

1. On or near a dual highway. Centreville, on U. S. 29-211, has direct access to Washington over a four-lane road that is divided throughout its length except for about 1000 yards northeast of Centreville and two miles through the outskirts of Fairfax town.

2. Not less than 20 and not more than 30 miles from the city. Centreville crossing is 23 miles from the Lincoln Memorial, about 25 miles from the White House, and approximately 18 airline miles from the present Washington National Airport.

3. Out of the "fog belt" of the Potomac River valley. Centreville, protected from the river basin by low hills, rarely experiences the low fogs that often blanket the present airport.

Area Would Boom

If Centreville is selected for the airport, a substantial increase in population in both Fairfax and Prince William Counties could be expected. Civil Air authorities in Washington say an airport the size of the new one would require the services of approximately 2,500 to 3,000 full-time employees. With their families, these wage earners would bring an estimated 10,000 new residents into the area. Manassas and Fairfax, each seven miles from Centreville, could be expected to undergo the greatest expansion from such an influx of workers, while Centreville, Haymarket, Gainesville and other smaller communities also would probably gain much population.

The estimates of five square miles in size and $50,000,000 in cost for the new airport are conceded to be not much more than estimates. The actual size and cost of the field would depend on several things: layout of the terrain, cost of real estate, drainage of the land, etc. It is known, however, that an airport styled to accommodate the larger, speedier, jet transport craft of the future could hardly cost less than $40,000,000 and might cost as much as seventy millions, though this top figure probably would not apply as far from Washington as Centreville is located.

Runways 2 Miles Long

The new field would be a tremendous layout, featuring main runways not less than 10,000 feet long, as compared with the 6,700-foot length of the north-south strip at National Airport. The airport probably would have parallel runways, instead of only one strip in a given direction.

Garden Club to Aid Another School Child

The Manassas Garden Club announced that it will again send a sixth grade school child to nature camp this summer.

The Club met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Russell Powell and voted to contribute $10 to the Red Cross drive, and announced that it has established a nature library in the assembly room of the Post Office.

Club members saw a film, "How Does Your Garden Grow," and heard reports of "good progress" on the sale of tickets to the National Flower Show to be held in Washington next month.

The American Horticultural Society and the National Tulip Society are inviting the Manassas Garden Club to join them, Mrs. E. H. Marsteller reported.

Marshall Boys, Occoquan Girls Loop Victors

Marshall High School boys and Occoquan High girls emerged as champions from the District G, Group III basketball tournament held in Osborn gym Friday and Saturday.

Marshall licked Quantico 57-43 in the first round and stomped Lincoln 44-20 in the Saturday night final. Occoquan first edged Marshall 24-21 Friday and then tripped Quantico 36-25 Saturday to get to the top of the girls' division.

In the Saturday afternoon consolation games Quantico boys outraced Occoquan 56-39 and the Marshall girls slipped by Leesburg 30-29 in the closest game of the tournament.

"Outstanding Player" awards went to Billy Caylor of Marshall and Beverly Brunell of Quantico. Members of the "All-Tournament" teams were voted to be:

Girls: Mary Louise Lohr and Frances Sanford of Occoquan; Beverly Brunell and Sue Powers, Quantico; Trudy Davis and Mary Willis of Marshall.

Boys: Billy Caylor and Jimmy Graham of Marshall; Jimmy Bishop, Occoquan; Warren Sprague, Quantico; and Jimmie Edmonston, Lincoln.

Sports Briefs

Off-the-record gossip at the Northern Virginia Baseball League meeting Tuesday had Raymond Davis, Manassas Fire Chief, as the logical candidate for the office of League Commissioner. Davis, when contacted by the Journal, stated that he will have to decline if offered the post. Lack of time was the reason he gave.

Here's a tip for District G, Group III basketball teams of next year. Watch out for Lincoln High School! The Lincoln squad went all the way to the finals of the tournament in Manassas last week, and the startling fact is not a single boy on the squad is a senior.

Nokes Cagers Hot as Pistol At Season-End

Two weeks ago Oather Fitzwater, manager, of the Nokesville Fire Department basketball team, said his boys would not lose another game in the Northern Virginia League. Some laughed at hearing this, but a look at the record convinces you that Mr. Fitzwater was not kidding.

Nokesville moved into the League lead Tuesday night by whipping Upperville A. C. 91-43 for a record of 15 wins and 3 losses. They have now won eight in a row since their loss to Middleburg February 2. With four games left to play (Manassas Legion, Manassas Hawks, Upperville A. C., and Warrenton) the firemen could make the boss' boast come true, unless they suddenly turn cold.

In their last six games Nokesville has averaged 90.6 points, while holding their opponents to an average of 45. In 18 games played this season they have averaged 75.2 points, which is probably the highest in the League by a considerable margin.

Nokesville's Sam Zavada, a Vint Hill soldier, is the League's highest scorer with an average of 28.6 points in 12 games. But the team can get along without him and his army pals (Beck, Calhoun, and Low) as it showed Thursday night in trampling Manassas Legion 83-40. Legionnaires had protested use of the soldiers and Fitzwater replied that Nokesville could beat the Legion with or without the Army. They have now done so—both ways.

Macs' Loop In Meeting Here

Representatives of teams in the Northern Virginia Baseball League met in Manassas Town Hall Tuesday night to make plans for the coming season, set to open April 30.

The ballplayers voted to strike out of their League constitution the article forbidding a team to pay its players. Last season, some asserted, many players on various teams were paid in spite of the constitutional prohibition.

Nine teams were represented at the meeting and a tenth, Nokesville, sent word to include them in any plans. This leaves two vacancies in the twelve-team set.

Osborn Fails In Final Try For Playoffs

Osborn High School blew their chances for a bid to the District tournament as they lost a playoff Wednesday to Thomas Dale of Chester 45-41. Osborn led 12-8 at the first quarter and 26-18 at the half, but watched Thomas Dale end regular season play with identical records and met in Frederickburg Wednesday to decide who was to fill the eighth position in the tournament. The District tourney begins today at Randolph-Macon gym in Ashland.

This was the last game in Osborn uniforms for six men, who graduate in June. The six, who represent almost the entire varsity squad, are: Gayle Swank, Jesse Reid, Jack Saylor, Junior Swank, Ted Peters, and John Breckon.

Saylor led the Osborn scoring with 16 points followed by Yates with 6, Reid and Peters, 4, J. Swank and Breckon 3 each, and G. Swank with 2.

NORTHERN VIRGINIA LEAGUE BASKETBALL

Mar. 4, Sat., Upperville Callahan at Manassas Legion, Upperville Callahan at Haymarket, Purcellville at Occoquan; Mar. 6, Mon., Upperville A.C. at Nokesville; Warrenton at Haymarket; Mar. 7, Tues., Upperville A. C. at Upperville Callahan; Occoquan at Lovettsville; Mar. 9, Thurs., Upperville Callahan at Manassas Hawks; Purcellville at Middleburg; Haymarket at Occoquan.

Several applications have been made but the League moved to defer decision until their next meeting on March 14. This is expected to give all interested teams a chance to make application with League President Cedric Saunders in Manassas.

The League approved the Washington Umpires Association to work their games for the coming season. The same umpire group was employed last year.

Representatives at the meeting were: Stuart Vetter, Manassas Macs; Paul Harvey, Catharpin; H. A. Bell, Marshall Tom Amidon, Triangle; Willie Grove, Bristersburg; E. A. O'Bannon, Hume; J. E. Gilliam, Occoquan; Norman Cockrell, Remington A. C. (Remington will be the Opal team of last year.)

Cage Pairings In N.V. Loop

Sixteen Northern Virginia teams sent representatives to Manassas Sunday for the drawing of pairings for the fourth annual American Legion Basketball Tournament to be held in Osborn gym.

The first round pairings were announced as follows:

March 21: Legion girls vs Hawk girls at 8:30; Hawks vs Middleburg at 7:30; Purcellville girls vs Upperville girls at 8:30; Leesburg vs. Legion at 9:30.

March 22: Leesburg girls vs Nokesville girls, 6:30; Haymarket vs Purcellville, 7:30; Middleburg girls vs by 8:30; Upperville vs Nokesville, 9:30.

Semi-finals are scheduled for March 23 with the finals on Saturday, March 25.

PAY EXHAUSTIONS

A rapid rise in the number of unemployed workers who have exhausted their jobless benefit rights is causing growing concern among Government officials. Latest figures compiled by the Labor Department's Bureau of Employment Security show that about 500 thousand persons ran out of their right to further unemployment compensation payments during the July-September period which is more than double the 216 thousand of the same period in 1943.

Support Is Asked For Teacher Pension

By Eugenia Osbourn.

The Virginia Retired Teachers Association has a bill before both house of the General Assembly to increase the pensions of retired teachers by a minimum of $600 a year.

This bill is worth the support of all those interested in the improvement of the school system. Few classes of people have been treated with so little justice as the teachers, and this is the reason for the precarious state of the schools today. The pressing need for buildings is not the only reason, but meager teacher salaries and pensions make it difficult to obtain teachers of any kind.

It is no wonder that Governor Battle in his inaugural address deplored the poor quality of some education. Others are making the same complaint. The situation is the outcome of a suicidal policy pursued by the State which requires relatively high educational standards from its school teachers and yet continues to pay them salaries less than those received by clerks and secretaries, and, in some cases, janitors. The pensions paid them are so small they would be better off if they went into pauper homes. The result has been a steady flow of the best teaching material into surrounding states and better paying positions.

Thomas Jefferson with his usual insight into social problems, saw with great clearness that if we were to build and perpetuate a democratic society we must have schools capable of developing a trained electorate.

Woodbine P.T. A. Holds Meeting

The regular monthly meeting of the Woodbine P.T.A. was held on the Feb. 24 with a large crowd attending. The meeting was opened with the singing of "America." After the reading of the minutes the President told of the four members attending the Northern Virginia P.T.A. Meeting. Also it was brought to the P.T.A.'s attention the stage that has been built since the last meeting by local carpenters. After the business meeting a play was given by the "Teen-Age Club" and fourth and fifth grades gave a physical education demonstration. The next meeting will be on March 24th.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Spittle and family visited Mr. and Mrs. Newman Hopkins on Sunday afternoon.

The Women of the four churches of the Potomac Parish met at Greenwich on Friday afternoon for the World Day of prayer meeting.

"If You Don't Want to Cooperate"

Mr. Thomasson asked the man, who did not give his name, if he wanted the information because he, instead of Mr. Thomasson, intended to pay the men's wages. To this the man replied, "If you don't want to cooperate, then someone will see you with whom you will want to cooperate."

The above paragraph, reproduced without change from last week's Manassas Journal, stands out clearly as the most startling news in that issue of the paper.

It concerns an anonymous hoodlum who visited a dairy farm with the expressed intention of "organizing" the farmer's help and who, failing to get what he considered a satisfactory answer to his impudent questions, uttered what can only be considered a threat against the dairyman:

"If you don't want to cooperate, then someone will see you with whom you will want to cooperate."

This statement sounds suspiciously like what Al Capone's goons said to Giuseppe, the Halstead Street fruit peddler in the twenties; like what Brownshirt Konrad Henlein, the Sudeten German leader, said to the Czech government in the thirties; like what red Hungarian rowdies said to Ferenc Nagy in the forties; like what "Labor" everywhere is saying to businessmen in the fifties:

"If you don't want to cooperate, then someone will see you with whom you will want to cooperate."

The thugs and hoodlums work in different ways: Capone's boys added a "pineapple" to Giuseppe's stock of fruit; Hitler's hatchmen started street riots and murdered Jews; Stalin's goons kidnapped the kin of recalcitrants, "Labor's" history is as sordid: riots in Buffalo; insurrection in West Allis, Wis.; murder and defiance of law in Chicago—

"If you don't want to cooperate, then someone will see you with whom you will want to cooperate."

Since the AFL and CIO (with a deft assist from the Communist Party) captured the American workingman fifteen years ago, a man's business is no longer his own. He bares his soul each quarter to the bureaucrats of social security; each year he tells all to the income tax agents of the federal government; in between times he is supposed to discuss his private business affairs with any and all roughnecks who happen to be representing that loose confederation of con-men, convicts and communists wryly known as "Organized Labor."

What is in store for Mr. Thomasson, the dairy farmer, only the union knows. Perhaps a black sedan will roar up his driveway some night, its occupants will toss an incendiary grenade into his cow barn and the car will roar away, leaving the farmer a barn full of roast beef. Or possibly a truck, loaded with Mr. Thomasson's milk, will be overturned between Manassas and Washington.

Such barbarism is far from unknown in what is known as "labor unrest"—but which is actually anarchy—in other parts of the country. Whether it is the vigilance of the citizenry in Virginia, the relatively well-toothed laws of the state on the subject of lynch violence, or simply unaccountable good luck, Prince William County has not been subjected to such overt lawlessness.

This does not mean the county is immune. "If you don't want to cooperate, then someone will see you with whom you will want to cooperate."

The original meaning of the word "racket" was simple extortion: an effort to get money or other valuable consideration from a victim under threat of bodily harm. By this or any other definition, Mr. Thomasson's recent anonymous visitor was a racketeer; he would have been no less within his rights if he had backed up his request for information with a .45 calibre pistol. His misdeed was changed from the mortal sin of grievous pride to the felonious wrong of extortion when he said:

"If you don't want to cooperate, then someone will see you with whom you will want to cooperate."

Prince William County's roads are in bad shape. They could do with the attentions for several months of such menacing racketeers as the extortionist who offered Mr. Thomasson unnamed violence as the price of keeping his personal business to himself.

From the Pastor's Study

By Dewey D. Fleishman
Pastor, Nokesville and Valley Churches

"Where is your faith?" Luke 8:25. Jesus said to his disciples more than 1900 years ago, on the storm-swept water, "Where is your faith?" That is a question that needs to be asked very often, and it needs to be faithfully answered when we ask it, for it is about the most vital question of all.

The conquering weapon is faith. "Without faith it is impossible to please God." The Book tells us, "This is the victory that overcometh the world even our faith." The undoing sin of Christians is their lack of faith. It will not only be a misfortune, but it will be a sin, if with you and me our faith is not steadily strengthening and growing.

Faith may be misplaced. It is misplaced when we put it in human agency. Certainly, we are greatly tempted all along, and constantly, to put our faith in human agency. Many years ago, where I lived, a great drought hit our country. The farmers and the city and village folks became alarmed for fear the crops would perish and the water faucets would have no water. After awhile it was suggested that rain could be produced artificially. This could be done by throwing certain chemicals on the ground and from them moisture would be given off, making contact with the upper stratosphere, thus forming clouds and the result would be rain. This project was undertaken and it resulted in a little rain but not enough to revive the thirsty crops. What next could they do? The Christian people suggested that prayers be made. And all over the country there was a call to prayer. And in response the people turned out by the thousands. Folks turned out to that prayer meeting who had never before attended a prayer meeting. There was a great outpouring of God's people for rain and God heard and answered their prayer. Such is always the case when we put our faith in God and not in mere human agency.

Today we are faced with the "hard cases." The world has never had its back tighter against the wall. At no time has fear occupied a larger place in human hearts. Problems of economics, of labor, and of peace disturb the mind of men today as never before. We are standing as it were on the very brink of disaster. Quoting Mr. Einstein, "There is great danger of humanity being wiped off the map." We stand right in the shadows of the A-bomb and the H-bomb. It is evident that one wrong move would mean sudden destruction. Is this "case" hopeless? When we think of God, He asks us, "Is there anything to hard for God?" That was a mighty question Paul asked, why it should be thought a thing incredible with you, that God should raise the dead?"

Granted, a God who is all powerful in heaven and earth, and who formed the world by his power, and where is there any difficulty in God raising people from the dead? So that our faith about "hard cases" in God's sight is all out of place and grievous in His Holy Presence.

What are we to do? Is there anything we can do? Yes, there is. We can strengthen our faith in God. How can we strengthen our faith? That is what you and I want to know. If we would strengthen our faith we need to make it a matter of prayer. We read in the Scriptures where a group of men failed in their faith, and when they got Jesus alone they said, "Why was it we failed?" He answered, "This kind can come forth by nothing, but by prayer." If you are not a man or woman of prayer you are not a man or a woman of faith. Here is the place we need to work. For there is nothing too difficult when we work with God and keep in constant contact with Him in prayer. For he says, "If two of you shall agree on earth as touching anything, that they shall ask, it shall be done for them of my Father in heaven."

If we are to strengthen our faith we must also seek God's divine Spirit. God does guide his people. One can be and is led by the Spirit of God. This is the testimony of those who have experienced the leading of the Spirit. The Spirit of God does teach, guide and empower the servants of Christ. And we ought to be in earnestness, ask God to guide us in the work we are in, and to give us His wisdom and power at every step we take.

"Where is your faith?" This is a good question in this "day of

Review Speed Limits, AAA Urges States

Studies of driver behavior under varying conditions indicate that there is no need for a re-appraisal of the entire philosophy of speed limits and speed control, George R. Hammond, safety and education director, D. C. division, American Automobile Association, declared today.

"It is becoming increasingly apparent that strict, to-the-letter enforcement of fixed maximum speed limits accomplishes little in the way of accident prevention," said Mr. Hammond. "A.A.A. National Headquarters at Washington recently released the results of a most interesting speed study conducted in several Illinois cities.

"In this study, speed limits were posted along a major thoroughfare. Later, signs calling for an entirely different speed limit were posted. Then the signs were removed all days."

"Come Holy Spirit, heavenly dove, With all thy quickening powers: Come shed abroad a Savior's love, And that shall kindle ours."

A&P Heavy Buyer Of Virginia Produce

NEW YORK—Virginia growers and shippers were paid $10,158,962 in 1949 for fresh fruits and vegetables purchased for A & P Food Stores, Harvey A. Baum, head of the company's produce buying affiliate, said today.

It was found that the signs had no effect whatever on traffic speed. Instead, traffic consistently ignored the posted speed limits and even the absence of limits and ran at speeds which the driver considered reasonable, convenient and safe under the existing conditions.

"Commissioner Thomas H. MacDonald, Chief of the U. S. Bureau of Public Roads, and a deep student of traffic matters, has suggested that the time has come to forget the emphasis on minor over-speeds and to concentrate on the real killers—the ones who pass in no-passing zones, who crowd the other driver's lane and otherwise create real traffic hazards. Chief MacDonald emphasizes that purely routine speed checking is futile and wasteful, of enforcement officers' time and ability, since it is a matter having a minimum relation to real traffic safety."

1950 MERCURY TOPS ALL WINNERS IN MOBILGAS GRAND CANYON RUN

1950 MERCURY WITH OVERDRIVE AMERICA'S "NO. 1 ECONOMY CAR"

Sets amazing new gasoline mileage record for gruelling 751 mile Grand Canyon run as it outperforms 30 other entries from America's leading car makers!

YES, now it's officially-proven! Pound for pound, the big new 1950 Mercury IS America's most economical car!

For, in the 751 Mile Mobilgas Grand Canyon Run conducted by the American Automobile Association last week, Mercury delivered grand-prize winning gasoline economy—over a rugged course which ranged from Death Valley to 7000 foot icy mountain passes!

This remarkable economy—made possible by the combination of Mercury's thrifty, V-type, 8-cylinder engine and its gas-saving "Touch-O-Matic" Overdrive—came as no surprise to Mercury owners. For many Mercury owners had repeatedly reported gasoline economy far above average expectations.

Yet this unusual economy is only one of the many reasons why thousands of owners are now choosing Mercury. Many say it's the smartest-looking car on the road. Others claim it's the smoothest-riding, most comfortable, too! And all agree it's the biggest value for the money!

Drive Mercury yourself—and see!

You bet it's "better than ever" — MERCURY

Youngest Catharpin residents are in excellent health, their parents report! Jane Alvey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Alvey, has almost doubled her birth weight, and is beginning to understand that babies are supposed to sleep at night. The slightly younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Bell is tipping the scales nicely too, and behaving pretty much as very young babies should.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert P. Anderson of New Orleans were Washington's birthday and overnight guests of the Wallace Rion's.

Raymond Byrnes, who is working in Washington now, attended a wedding in Richmond last Saturday. He reports that by Saturday night, almost two inches of snow and sleet had made driving conditions hazardous on U. S. 1 to Damfries, and that they passed several wrecks.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Guiffre had as their guest last weekend Miss Doris Bozopetti, of Washington. On Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Guiffre entertained the following guests from Washington at dinner: Mrs. Ugo Carusi, Mrs. Blanch Shaeffer, Mrs. Marguerite Small, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Arkar and children, Robert Kardaras, Miss Pat Mallon, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Poore, Thomas Lee, Mrs. Anne Murphy and children, and Pete Maneght.

Mrs. Fannie Jackson 1207 Sixth Street, S. W., Washington, mother of Mrs. C. L. Anderson and grandmother of Mrs. Earl DeVaughn, Washington, died Monday after an illness of several months. Her daughter, Mrs. Anderson, is ill in a Washington hospital. Mrs. Jackson, Mrs. Anderson, and Mrs. DeVaughn are well known in Catharpin.

Obituaries

SARAH CATHERINE FITZWATER

Another one of Nokesville's oldest residents, Mrs. Sarah Catherine (known to all who knew her as "Cass") Fitzwater, passed away at her home near Nokesville on Feb. 21 after being very ill for several weeks.

Mrs. Fitzwater was born at Orkney Springs, on July 2, 1865. She was united in marriage by Elder L. D. Caldwell to Samuel Fitzwater at Mathias, W. Va. on Jan. 12, 1890; more than sixty years ago. They came to "East" Virginia in 1909, where they have lived ever since. She is survived by her husband and three children, Brown of Arlington; Victor of Mitchellville, Md.; and Ada Carrio of Nokesville. Another son, Walter died on Jan. 2, 1919. There are 12 grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

Mrs. Fitzwater was united with the Church of the Brethren more than fifty years ago and remained faithful to her belief until the end. Shortly before her death she was anointed by two ministers of her church. She was baptized by Moses Moyer, ancestor of many Nokesville residents.

Funeral services were conducted at the Valley Church on the 23rd, with Rev. D. D. Fleishman and Rev. George Beahm giving words of comfort and faith with music by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Beahm, Mrs. Cleveland Flory, and David Kerlin accompanied by Mrs. Harry Miller. Pallbearers were Clarence and Esten Carrio, Clyde and Claude Albrite, Johnny Johnson and William Gregg. Interment was in the nearby cemetery beneath a mound of lovely flowers. Her husband, although he has been very ill, braved the cold weather so that he might come to fellowship with all those who had come to pay their last respects to a good friend and mother.

The Manassas Journal SHOPPERS GUIDE

Covering Quantico, Triangle, Occoquan, Dumfries and Woodbridge Areas

By MR. AND MRS. LEE ROY PETERS

This area, which includes Quantico, Triangle, Dumfries, Woodbridge and Occoquan, and usually known as the lower end of Prince William County, is growing mighty fast. We didn't know how fast it really is growing until we started out to call upon the merchants of these thriving communities. We not only found out a lot about its growth, but we found out about a lot of mighty nice people. Some of them appear as advertisers on this page, which is known as the Manassas Journal Shoppers' Guide. There will be others who will join them later and we will mention them from time to time. But this week we are writing of a group of business men who are not only progressive but who are doing real business and performing a service to the residents of this area that is worthy of being talked about.

There isn't any particular reason why we start off first with the Victor Music and Appliance Company, except perhaps that it might be because this firm is moving to a new location. It will be at 519 C Street in Quantico and here Victor Ferlazzo has fitted up a modern electric shop with the latest in equipment and a service department that is surpassed by none.

Then we think everyone will like to know about Esskay Franks which you can get at the Nation-Wide Grocery in Quantico and the Birdseye Brand of frozen foods, and fresh seafood and fresh poultry. Here is a store that we think is making the people of the lower end of the county real satisfied. We like them and think you will, too.

W. S. Bourne is the owner and a mighty fine person to deal with. Have you ever had a Dixie Grill Bar-B-Que? Well we have and let us tell you they are mighty fine. The Dixie Grill is open from 6 a. m. until 11 p. m. and Willie Williams will meet you with a smile and the attitude of a real host any time you drop in. We suggest you try doing just that. Of course it's in Quantico.

D. J. Martin, who is as well known as Quantico itself, is the up and coming dealer in Chevrolet and Oldsmobile cars. He has all the 1950 models on display and he knows better than anyone else the pulse of these growing communities. He talks to a lot of people and he sells a lot of people new cars.

Quantico Pharmacy, which is operated by Julius and Tony Ferlazzo, is famous for the Rexall products which are handled here. And Rexall drugs all of us know have a national reputation. Everywhere you go you can see a Rexall sign and the Ferlazzo Brothers were smart when they got that agency. But they have a lot of other things, too. Their soda fountain is a gathering place for young and old. And they sell all the latest magazines.

You undoubtedly have heard those radio announcements about the new Studebaker cars. Well you can see them, as we have, at Paris Auto Service in Quantico. They also handle the Pontiac. There is a guaranteed selection of used cars here and the smart buyer in the lower end of the county, or any other end of the county for that matter, will be doing a favor to himself if he visits the Paris Auto Service first.

Whoever you are or wherever you are, being ordinary folk, you must like to browse around department stores. Well Quantico has a real department store. It is known as Liming's and is owned by Gene and Ruby Davis, a husband and wife combination, who merchandise and know how to buy so the patrons get most for their money. Everything for the boys and girls, we found when we went in there, as we frequently do, and for the ladies and men too. And like a department store should be, there are household supplies of every kind. Gene and Ruby handle those fine Congoleum rugs that are advertised on television every Sunday night. One of the most prominent businessmen in the whole lower end of the county is Frank Hornbacker, of Occoquan. He owns the Auto Home Supply Co. over on the river. And he is the Frigidaire representative and according to popular report he has sold more television sets than any other dealer in the county. We haven't checked that statement but if he has sold his share of the sets that are indicated by the number of towers on the houses in the lower end of the county he has been a mighty busy man.

Anyone who travels Highway No. 1 has to pass through Triangle and in doing so it is impossible to miss Stephens' Drug Store, which has recently been opened by Frank Stephens. He is prompt in service and because of this people from all over the lower end of the county are bringing him their prescriptions to be filled. He is certainly correct when he advertises prompt and friendly service. It is our guess that Frank couldn't do otherwise because he is a friendly person to talk to.

The most popular place of entertainment in the whole southern end of the county is the Lyric Theater in Occoquan. In fact it is the only theater that is available to the general public here because civilians who used to be permitted to attend the theater on the Marine Post are longer allowed that privilege. The programs change every other day and there is a matinee on Saturday and the shows on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday are at 8 o'clock nightly and Friday at 7 and 9 and on Saturday at 2, 7 and 9. The pictures are the latest and Harold Wilcher, the manager, seems to know just what the people like to see and gives it to them.

Everyone is thinking of Easter and E. L. Ferlazzo who runs the Stevens Store in Quantico is away ahead of most everyone with his fine stock of Whitman and Norris candies which are going to be just the thing to send to her at Easter time. We never could understand why anyone has to wait until Easter to send candy as a evidence of thoughtfulness.

Before we forget it we should say something about the Self-Service Laundry in Quantico. When we're busy, like we are now, we take the laundry down there and it is finished in 30 minutes, and while we're waiting we can do a lot of writing about the things that go on in this area. In fact we wrote some of this column while we were waiting for the laundry. P. A. Brown and Bill Pearce had a good idea when they started this business.

Last but not least of our friendly dealers in Quantico is Fred Kitchen, who owns Fred's Electric Shop, which is known everywhere as the General Electric agency, because he handles all the General Electric Appliances. Fred, we hear, is branching out, and is starting another shop in Manassas. He has done so well here there is little doubt that his reputation has preceded him and that is why we expect that he will be doing the same good business there that he has been doing in Quantico. Whenever anything electrical is required Fred is generally the fellow in Quantico that people call. We expect that Fred knows his business pretty well or else General Electric would not have given him its agency, because big firms like General Electric aren't passing out agencies to anyone who can't deliver.

So much for the other folks in our column. This Shoppers' and Buyers' Guide is our idea. We handle the news of Quantico, and we do the advertising for the Manassas Journal and take orders for job printing. We are also the agents for The Journal subscriptions. We got the idea for this column and the Shoppers' and Buyers' Guide because the whole lower county is filled with people who can be described best by the popular song of the day, "Dear Hearts and Gentle People." Thanks a lot for reading us; see you next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Roy Peters.

Painting Done Cheap Is Jim's Specialty

Paint jobs done cheaply and while you wait are the stock-in-trade of Jim Rion of Catharpin, according to advice received this week from our Catharpin correspondent.
Mr. Rion, who is rather new to the painting trade, makes up in zeal what he lacks in skill and guarantees a surprising—if not necessarily satisfying—job. The Catharpin correspondent informs us that he specializes in green walls.
His first attempt, the reporter says, "was slightly spotty, but he got a nice even coat on his hands and clothes."
Jim is 19 months old, so his technique should improve as the years go by. The reporter in the case is his mother, Mrs. Wallace Rion.

Pericious Anemia Cannot Be Cured

Don't be misled by the quacks and charlatans who claim to cure pericious anemia. The most contemptible person in the world is the one who will sacrifice public health, comfort, and happiness for his own financial gain. A patient who has pericious anemia is deficient in red blood cells. New red blood cells can be developed by a process with which your physician is thoroughly familiar. The process is constant and does not effect a cure. It does, however, enable the patient to complete a normal span of life. Always consult your physician in times of illness. Then bring his prescriptions to us to be filled.

Haymarket - Gainesville Area

Mr. James R. Gossom and Mr. George W. Gossom, owners and operators of Gossom Brothers Store in Haymarket, are ready to give you the best of service and let you benefit from their combined 42 years of experience in the general store business.

Mr. George Gossom came to his present location in 1933 and was followed by his brother in 1935. Each had five years general store experience in their old home town of Hickory Grove before coming to Haymarket. In 1940 the Gossoms bought out their employers, made extensive alterations and improvements, and opened on Route 55 under the name Gossom Brothers.

After all these years of serving the Haymarket area, the Gossoms are practically natives. They have raised their families here and are fond of the community and the people. They invite you to stop by for choice meats, groceries, notions, dry goods, gas and oil, auto accessories, hardware, paints, seed, feed, and fertilizer.

Bloodmobile to Visit Nokesville Mar. 23

NOKESVILLE — The Red Cross bloodmobile unit will be at the Church of the Brethren here March 23 to receive donations of blood for the Red Cross Blood Bank.

This will be the first appearance of the bloodmobile in Brentsville District, according to Red Cross leaders here. Junior and Senior Women's organizations of the church will act as aides to the Red Cross personnel.

Blood donated to the Red Cross Blood Bank, it was emphasized, is available without charge to persons needing transfusions. The availability of a pint of blood often spells the difference between life and death for a person severely injured or suffering from serious disease.

TAX BOOKLET

A "new and improved edition" of the best-selling booklet in which the Government tries to explain its admittedly complicated income-tax laws to taxpayers is now on the market. The 138-page pamphlet, "Your Federal Income Tax," went on sale at the Government Printing Office on December 1. The price is 25 cents. Over 345,000 copies of the 1948 edition were distributed last year.

NOKESVILLE NEWS

ness were decided on when the Ladies Aid of the Church of the Brethren met on Wednesday afternoon. The ladies adopted a budget of $1,200 for 1950. This is several hundred dollars less than was made last year but the women felt they wanted a definite budget to work towards, and since this was the first time they had ever worked out one they felt they should not make it so high. Those in charge of the recent rummage and bake sale reported that $85.00 was made. (Approximately $150.00 was realized from the spaghetti supper on the 22nd). $20.00 was given toward the District budget of the Women's work. Plans are now being made to serve the lunch at the Zirkle sale on Thursday.

Story-book characters came to life again on Thursday evening when the school library was the center of attraction in observance of "Open House" for all patrons at the regular monthly meeting of the P. T. A. A large crowd of parents and friends of the school came to observe the different rooms. During the business period it was decided to contribute $30.00 toward the purchase of pingpong equipment.

As hostesses and hosts in the library where refreshments were served to all who visited there, Elizabeth Fitzwater was dressed very authentically as Scarlett O'Hara; Johnny Sinclair was Huckleberry Finn; Herbert Wood was Oliver Twist; Thomas Whetzel was Tom Sawyer; Christobelle Tolson and Eleanor Mayhugh were also in character. Miss Mayhugh in the absence of Miss Hattie Mae Partlow talked on the activities and needs of the library.

Don't forget the Music Institute at the Church of the Brethren this weekend. Prof. Nevin Fisher of Bridgewater College will be at the church Friday night, Saturday all day (for individual help and a meeting with the young people) and Sunday morning. Everyone, whether he can sing or not, is welcomed to these musical worship services.

The Cleve Godfreys are doing a lot of repair work on the former J. O. Bittle home with the idea of moving there in the future.

Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Fitzwater were a step ahead of this cold weather when they left on Sunday morning for an extended trip to Florida and Cuba. Don't we just wish we could all do the same? While they are gone, Elizabeth, Jr. will stay with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Armistead Sinclair, Sr., in Manassas, and will commute to school with Miss Hattie Mae Partlow.

Little Gary and Billy Foley of Manassas, spent Saturday with their aunt and uncle, the Ted Shephers. Their mother is back from the hospital and is improving very rapidly.

Mr. Russell Britton had the misfortune to saw into his right hand while working at his furniture business.

Mrs. Earhart of Yorkshre has been staying with the Allen Shaeffers while they have all been ill. Also on the sick list the past week have been Mrs. Gale Gibson and Mrs. Nunzio Barbera.

The Fred Whetzel entertained at Monday evening supper some of Faye's friends in honor of her eleventh birthday. Those enjoying a lovely supper and games were Peggy Shepherd, Delores Johnson, Ginny Ridgley, Betty Randall, and Myrna Dove.

There will be a "new face" greeting you three days a week when you go to the Post Office. Mrs. Mildred Gay is the new assistant.

The David Yankeys spent Sunday with little Jimmy at the Anderson Clinic near Alexandria. They expect to bring him home the last of the week. However, he will have to return for two more operations on his leg. Jimmy had a birthday last week.

The folks of the Church of the Brethren in Sebring, Florida, last week enjoyed having with them Dr. Warren D. Bowman, now head of Bridgewater College. He conducted a week of services at the church there.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald H. Falls Church said "Welcome" to return trip from a two week trip to Florida. Also along with the M. J. Shephers trip were Mr. and Mrs. Carter and little Terry who every minute the "big" folks jet him in the wonderful sunshine.
