Milk Bottle Hoarders May Hit Manassas

Unless purchasers from the strike-bound Washington area return the milk bottles they take their milk away in, Manassas customers of the Birmingham Dairy may find themselves secondary victims of the metropolitan milk tie-up. This was revealed this week when officials of the dairy said that Birmingham is doing about four times normal business and has extended its day of operation from eight to 20 hours. There has been no disruption of home delivery service, but the dairymen said that if bottles are not returned, Birmingham has taken stop-gap measures against such eventualities by getting bottles from Baltimore and Fredericksburg. It was indicated, however, that these sources of bottles are not inexhaustible. Early this week, the dairy was averaging 6,000 gallons of milk processed daily. The dairy is having no difficulty getting raw milk for processing. A spokesman said the Maryland-Virginia Milk Producers Association is furnishing all the milk the dairy can handle.

One Cow to Acre Clubs Being Formed in State

One cow to an acre of Virginia pasture is just as possible and practical as 100 bushels of corn on one acre, according to P. H. DeHart, extension agronomist of V. P. I., who has issued a report on the development of Virginia Pasture Clubs which are being organized throughout the state and are starting contests to prove Mr. DeHart's contention. The accomplishment of one cow to each acre of pasture would add $75,000,000 to the purchasing power of Virginia farmers, considering increased production of all forms of livestock, according to Mr. DeHart. Membership in the Virginia pasture club requires that a farmer have at least 5 percent of his open land in pasture that will provide grazing for one cow to the acre for the equivalent of 200 days.

Pat McNair Is Leading All Big Car Racers

Currently leading the National Automobile Racing Association's big car drivers in cumulative points, Pat McNair of Manassas says he's got the racing "bug" and plans to continue indefinitely his hazardous way of making a living.

The 26-year-old driver, who has behind him less than 4 years of experience is now enjoying about a 20 point lead over his closest competitor in NARA races this season.

Last Sunday he set a new track record at Indian Head, Md. the first time he ever held the wheel of a borrowed Canadian Monarch Hot Rod. With a taste of track records, McNair says he is going to be out to set a record at Longview this Saturday night.

McNair says he has been pretty lucky and has never had a serious accident, but has "gone through the fences plenty of times." Mrs. McNair, he says, does not object to his racing.

Liberty Bell Parade Spurs Fund Drive

Preceded by State Representative Frank P. Mopcore, State Senator Andrew Clarke, and Mayor Harry P. Davis, and the Fort Belvoir army band, Virginia's Liberty Bell was paraded down Center Street and displayed at ceremonies on the courthouse lawn last Monday.

The bell is one of 54 replicas of the historic Liberty Bell of Philadelphia currently touring America as part of the 1950 Independence Savings Bond drive.

Miss Nancy Leigh Didlake, representing "Miss Liberty," rode on the float beside the symbol of America's independence, accompanied by her attendants, Nancy McBryde and Mary Tish Kinchele.

Ceremonies at the courthouse before an audience of 150 included an invocation by Rev. E. Guthrie Brown and talks by the Messrs. Mopcore, Clarke and Davis. The bell, whose tone is supposed to exactly duplicate that of the original, was rung by Nancy McBryde and Mary Tish Kinchele.

In urging the purchase of savings bonds Mr. Mopcore said "unless we do everything in our power to preserve our liberty we may wake up some morning to find that it is gone, and then, though the glorious sun still shines on America it will have to permeate an atmosphere of heathenism and distrust."

In the parade were E. Deb. Goshwaite, president of the Kiwanis Club which is sponsoring the local drive; William A. Barbee, chairman of the 1950 savings bond drive for Prince William County; R. Jackson Ratcliffe, president of the Manassas Chamber of Commerce; E. E. Rohr, president of the Manassas volunteer fire company, who rode in one of the company's engines; and a color guard from American Legion Post 158.

town, Fairmont, West Virginia, where she will attend summer school. Mrs. Berry hasn't decided whether or not she will return next year. Mr. John Devlin will do post graduate work at Radford College this summer. He will teach in a boys' school in New York next year. Mrs. Richard Reed won't be back next year, either. She says, "Just say I'm going to spend the summer in Brooke (Mr. Reed's home) and just fish, swim and garden all summer. Miss Barbara Ware is spending a week with her sister in Boston, Mass. Then she and Miss Alma Watts will be attending summer school at Madison College. Both will be back next year. The Barberas are storing their furniture this summer and Mrs. Barbera and the children will spend the summer with her folks at Bayard, West Virginia. They haven't decided where he will teach next year. Philip Reading plans to go to V. P. I. for six weeks but before he goes he has so much work at the cannery to do since the plans call for converting the cannery so that everyone can use glass "cans," also. The Gale Gibsons have secured an apartment in Leesburg where Mr. Gibson will be working next year. The new Librarian, Miss Moyer from Broadway will be coming the last of this month to start working. She will be living at the Bowmans this year. Our "Home" teachers, needless to say, will be very busy with their many, many, home duties and since July is the only month they don't have to go to school this year, the summer vacation will seem very short.

Mrs. Amos Corder entertained the ladies of the Presbyterian Church in her home on Tuesday afternoon. Miss Bernice Hooker arrived home by plane from Nashville, Tennessee for a two weeks' visit with her home folks. It seems so nice for Mrs. Hooker to have all four of her young folks home with her.

When the Senior Women's club met at the Fire Hall on Tuesday for their regular monthly meeting, Mrs. P. L. Trenis, Mrs. Charles Rice and Mrs. Billy Foley were the hostesses. The ladies decided to accept Mrs. Paul Cooksey's invitation to spend the day at the Cooksey cottage in Maryland sometime during July. The club will hold their annual picnic at the Bowman home the first week in August. The July meeting will be on July 5 when the club will take up glass etching and stool making. Mrs. Ted Shepherd and Mrs. Fred Shepherd gave a short demonstration on foods allowing those present to take home all the foods made. Those lucky enough to be drawn as winners were Mrs. Mary Nelson, Mrs. L. J. Bowman, Mrs. Slothuber, Mrs. Bertha Van Nort and Mrs. M. J. Club have donated their favorite recipe to be compiled into a cook booklet. Beginning next week we will share with you each week a favorite recipe.

Ann, eight year old daughter of Mrs. George Cowne, who has been in Emergency hospital in Washington has returned home. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller. Mr. and Mrs. Miller, who reside on Grant avenue, have gone to Texas City, Texas, to visit another daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Ragland.

The Brentsville "Wildcats" lost a close game to Lorton Reformatory at Brentsville last Sunday by a score of 12-11. It looked as though the game would be a runaway after Lorton's first three batters hit a double, triple, and home run in that order. But Brentsville surged ahead to lead 10-6 at the eighth and then watched Lorton score 6 runs in the final two innings.

County Supervisor J. Carl Kinchele has suggested that the Board of Supervisors meet twice a month instead of once. Prince William County has grown steadily, he said, and added business makes one meeting a month insufficient. The Board could meet twice a month upon order of Circuit Court Judge Paul E. Brown. Two meetings per month would bring additional compensation.

Guest Editorial
By Rev. Albert C. Wiles, Pastor, Potomac Rural Parish
In a previous article, we took the position that the farmer's life, for all its hardships, has certain spiritual and religious satisfactions that are beyond price. One of these is the satisfaction of living on the land. When people live on the land, they are at the root of things and they can grow roots of their own.
Speaking at V. P. I. last summer, Raymond Rossom, a county agent from Jonesboro, Tennessee, illustrated ed his lecture with a model pyramid. On top of the pyramid were such things as schools and roads. They were supported by a block labeled taxes. Taxes were supported by business and city homes. City homes were supported by farm homes. Farm homes were supported by farm animals and crops. And at the base of the pyramid, holding up everything, was a long block labeled the soil. Our whole culture, the commonwealth, life itself—all rest ultimately on the soil. The man who lives on the soil lives at the very root of things.

Then, too, he can have roots of his own. Anyone who has lived upstairs in an apartment house knows what that means. Millions of people in our country don't own a square inch of soil, don't even have rental rights to a small front yard. Their children must play in doors, or be taken for a walk on a concrete sidewalk. They can't plant anything. They can't grow anything. It is little wonder that half of the people in our nation don't live now where they lived in 1940. They have no roots. They don't own anything. Why not move every year? Many of these people seldom vote. They don't participate in community activities. They're little good to the church. They have no stake in the Commonwealth. It is a great thing to be on the land, to have a stake, to put out roots.
Above and beyond all that, being on the soil is a religious matter. There is something holy about the soil. It is God's good earth. In the book of Leviticus we find a principle that is basic to an understanding of the land laws of the ancient Hebrews. "For the land is Mine," saith the Lord. The soil belongs to God, and the man who works it, works for God.

tra formed the garden setting in the Manassas Church of the Brethren last Saturday afternoon for the marriage of Miss Leona Margaret Kline, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
Howard E. Kline of Broadway, Va., to Raymond Wendell Barlow, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Barlow of St. Louis, Mo. The Rev. Conrad Snively performed the wedding ceremony and Mrs. Snively rendered the nuptial music.

The bride wore a rose beige gown with accessories to match and a corsage of magenta color carnations.
The ushers were John Champlin, nephew of the groom and Orrin Kline, Jr., a cousin of the bride.
A reception was given at the home of Major and Mrs. Paul Es-penehade on Main street following the wedding ceremony. Mrs. John Barrett and Mrs. A. O. Beane, assisted by Mrs. E. H. Kline, Mrs.
Harold Kline and Miss Anna Kline served the wedding cake and Mrs.
Higgs Lewis, Mrs. Francis Roszell, Mrs. Sedrick Saunders and Mrs.
Frank Wood presided at the punch bowl. The table was beautifully decorated with a centerpiece of bridal flowers.

Following the wedding reception Mr. and Mrs. Barlow left for a trip through the South, the bride wearing a blue suit with white accessories. They will be at home on Grant avenue after June 18.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Kline of Broadway, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kline of Staunton, Mr. Paul Kline and son of Edom, Miss Anna Kline of Harrisonburg, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Kline of Arlington, Mr.

Alexandria, Mrs. Louise Cooley of Staunton and Miss Eva Minix of Blacksburg.

Mrs. A. A. Hooff entertained the members of the bride's family at a luncheon at her home preceding the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Cox and their son have returned from a week's vacation at Westmoreland Beach. Frank Cox, Jr. entertained about twenty young friends on Sunday, June 4th, at a party celebrating his third birthday at his home on North Main Street.

P. W. and Manassas Shown Larger Than Loudoun, Leesburg

Prince William County overtook adjacent Loudoun County in population this year, and Manassas passed Leesburg in size, according to preliminary census figures released for both counties by Archie Miller, area census supervisor at Alexandria.

The count for Prince William was announced May 18, while that for Loudoun was made public this week.
The most that could be said for Leesburg's growth was that it was less than spectacular. In the ten years since the last census, the Loudoun County seat showed a population gain of exactly one. The new population of Leesburg is 1, 699, compared with 1,698 in 1940.
The county total for Loudoun is 21,063, an increase of 772 over the 1940 figure.

For comparison, the preliminary Manassas figure was 1,789 and that of Prince William County was 22,384.

In 1940, Loudoun County's population was 20,291, while that of Prince William was 17,738. Leesburg's size in 1940 was 1,698, compared with 1,302 for Manassas.

Other 1950 counts for this area are Alexandria City, 61,601; Fairfax County, 98,193; Falls Church City, 7,529; and Arlington County, 135,240.

Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Burchard and their son, Bob, have been spending a week at Westmoreland. They had with them for the weekend their daughter, Miss Ann Burchard of Washington and her roommate, Miss May Barkley of Massachusetts.

The next meeting of Alcoholics Anonymous will be held Thursday, June 22. Those desiring information about the organization may from China, will speak at a union service at the Valley Church of the JUNE MEETING OF U. D. C.

In a picturesque setting at the Battlefield museum amid decorations of flags and flowers in Confederate colors of red and white, the June meeting of the Manassas Chapter, U.D.C. was held. Miss Isabelle Hutchison, president, presided. Year Books were distributed by Mrs. W. A. Newman and Mrs.
Lewis J. Carper.

Miss Wanda Phipps Tomlinson was present to receive her certificate of membership and Mrs. E. B.
Giddings received a certificate of membership for her granddaughter, Mrs. John Alpaugh Whetzel.

Mrs. George Hawkes Ayres was presented with Cross of Military Service, posthumously, for her son, George Hawkes Ayres, Jr., World War II. Miss Hutchison read the citation and gave the cross and certificate to Mrs. Ayres.

Mrs. Byrd reported on the program May 9 when the Texas Flag was planted on the Battlefield in memory of Gen. Bernard E. Bee.
The Chapter's participation in the Memorial Exercises, May 30 was told by Mrs. L. J. Carper. Mrs.
Ayres reported unusual interest in sale of Confederate flags at her home "Stone House" and the Inn.
Miss Hutchison, delegate to the 4th District meeting, U. D. C., gave a report of the meeting held in Alexandria, May 13th. Other members attending were Mrs. E.
Giddings, Mrs. Robert Whetzel, Mrs. C. B. Compton, Mrs. E. L.
Byrd and Mrs. Joseph Kincheloe from Manassas and Mrs. Robert Ryland of Arlington. Mrs. E. H.
Marsteller, Credential Chairman reported all applications signed by her committee, Mrs. C. B. Compton and Mrs. R. J. Wayland.

After the meeting the group returned to the terrace where Supp.
J. B. Myers had made comfortable arrangements for the guests and where the presentation of U. D. C. award, Crosses of Military Service took place. Promptly on the hour, General L. C. Shepherd, commandant, Marine Corps, Quantico, accompanied by his aide, Capt. Smith, arrived and was greeted by chapter representatives. The exercises began by Rev. Guthrie Brown, master of ceremonies leading the U.
D. C. Ritual. Pledge to the National Flag was given by Charles Lacey Compton, Jr. and salute to Confederate Flag by John William Fishpaw.

Frank Hoss, Dwight Knupp and Paul Royer of the High School Band gave the assembly call, call to colors and the National Anthem.
Maj. Joseph Mills Hanson in a very fine tribute introduced the honor guest, Gen. Shepherd who came forward and through the Confederate Service of his grandfather, John Camp Shepherd, Co. 1-15th Virginia Cavalry received Crosses of Military Service, World War I and II. Lt. Myers read the citation and Miss Hutchison pinned on the Crosses. Gen. Shepherd graciously responded and said "I am deeply touched that I should be singled out by the Manassas Chapter to receive these awards. I shall treasure these beyond words, I shall wear them and pass them on to my children and their children. I feel that this is hallowed ground. My forefathers fought here and the South won the battles on this sacred soil." Gen. Shepherd referred to his college days at V.

M. I and of the inspiring custom of saluting when passing the recumbent statue of Robert E. Lee.

An acknowledgement of the files of the Children of Confederacy, the Chapter is presenting flags, National and Confederate. On this occasion which was specially commemorative of Jefferson Davis, there were present three collateral descendants of the first and only president of the Confederate States, and one descendant of that gallant company, the Red Shirts of South Carolina. As the names of the recipients of the flags were called by the president, they came forward to receive at the hands of Gen. Shepherd. They were Charles Lacey Compton, Claude Thomason Compton, Bettie Louise Compton, children of Mr. and Mrs. C. Lacey Compton and Patricia Ruth Byrd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Byrd, Jr.

Mrs. E. D. Wissler and Mrs. R.
C. Powell hostesses of the afternoon served delicious, refreshing fruit punch.

—Mr. and Mrs. William N. Cooper have returned to Manassas from Indiana where they spent their vacation with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Roberts and daughter. Mr. and Mrs. Roberts are former residents of Manassas.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Oh—My Aching Feet!

Other night just as I was settling down with a book and a mellow glass of beer, the wife calls down, "Joe—I almost forgot—you and I are going over to the High School and take dancing lessons!"

Now, I can waltz with the best of them, so I put up a quiet struggle against going but it was no use.
Turns out it was the class in square dancing. And from the look on some of the other men I judged I wasn't the only one there who had been taken by surprise!

Miss Williams and Curly Lawson taught us what to do with our feet, and before it was over, dance if I wasn't actually enjoying myself. Going back next week, too!

From where I sit, we sometimes get an idea into our head for against something and then hang onto it for dear life. Whether it's square dancing, or the right to enjoy temperate beer or ale now and then, we owe it to ourselves as Americans to take an open-minded attitude—that's even after we make up our minds about it!
