County Will Seek $50,000 To Make Survey of Facilities For Dispersed Agency Here

Prince William soon will ask for $50,000 in Federal money with which to conduct a survey of this County with a view toward recommending sites for a dispersed government agency, it was learned last week. J. Carl Kincheloe, Prince William Supervisor and representative to the Northern Virginia Regional Planning Commission, told the Supervisors last week that this amount would be needed if a survey of facilities is to be made.

The National Capital Parks and Planning Commission has asked northern Virginia areas to answer certain questions regarding their suitability as sites for dispersed government agencies, but the questions cannot be answered without a survey, Kincheloe said. The survey would make plans, and reports of this County available to the National Capital Parks and Planning Commission, which in turn will recommend to the General Services Administration sites for the location of dispersed government agencies.

Questions which Kincheloe was asked to answer in regard to this area and the answers he submitted are as follows:

1. Are existing land use maps available and has a zoning plan been adopted? No.
2. Is there a general plan for the location of future highways and thoroughfares, especially of the expressway and parking type which would be of value in the location of new Federal projects? No.
3. Are subdivision regulations in force and adequate to control extensive local development which may result from a dispersal program? Is there an approved highway plan with which subdivision plans must conform? No.
4. Is there a map of existing public lands in the area and a plan showing the estimated future land requirements for parks, parkways, recreation areas, schools, public institutions? No.
5. Are plans or reports available covering such problems as future water supply, sewage collection, and disposal, such as would be required for any extensive local development stimulated by the dispersal program? No.
6. In general, are base maps and planning data sufficiently up to date and complete to be useful in revising existing plans for thoroughfares, population, distribution, public and private land use, community facilities and services? No.
7. Are existing subdivision and zoning controls adequate to regulate new developments which will be stimulated when dispersal decisions are made? Are they adequate when dispersal decisions are made? Are they adequate to bring about sound community growth and prevent haphazard roadside development? Prince William County subdivision and strip zoning ordinances are in the hands of the local planning board.
8. Will it probably be necessary to make entirely new studies or plans for community facilities, such as schools, water supply, sewage disposal, etc. Yes.
9. Roughly, what costs would be involved in meeting the above problems and can local financial resources meet the initial planning program? No. About $50,000 would be needed.

New Jail Not Coming; School Need Is Greater

The Prince William Board of Supervisors today were expected to ask for an extension of the March 1 deadline on closing the present jail. Supervisors in adjacent Loudoun County took similar action last week, stating that it was impossible to make other provisions for prisoners by that time.

It is regarded as highly unlikely that the Board will approve construction of a new jail here and members are reported to feel that money cannot be spared for building a new jail when new schools are badly needed. A new jail would cost approximately $50,000.

One Supervisor estimated this week that the jail could be repaired to meet State specifications for about $1,500. New steel bars would replace the present "soft iron" ones which prisoners have sawed through twice in two months. This, in addition to a steel fence topped with barbed wire would prevent further escapes, the official thought.

However, the State Board of Institutions and Welfare also has scored the present jail as a "fire-trap" and other construction would be necessary to comply with State fire regulations.

Dimes From Lions

J. E. Bradford, Jr., president of the Manassas Lions Club is shown above as he signs a check for $426.30, which was the amount collected by Lions during the recent March of Dimes drive here. The money, along with other contributions to the polio fund, will be turned over to the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. Looking over Bradford's shoulder are (left to right) G. C. Whitmer, secretary of the Lions Club; George B. Cooke, chairman of the Prince William chapter of the National Foundation; Reuben B. Hicks, head of the Manassas March of Dimes drive; and Jack Merchant, vice-president of the Lions.

Auxiliary Cops Appointed To Meet C-D Need

A further step in providing civilian defense facilities for this area was taken this week with the organization of an auxiliary police force for Manassas. Captain Tiffany, County civilian defense co-ordinator announced yesterday.

In the event of defense emergency he auxiliary police will work in co-operation with the Manassas police department and other County law enforcement officers, under the direction of Sheriff John Kerlin, whom Tiffany has appointed to head County police defense activities.

Names of the auxiliary police are: C. Lacey Compton, W. Hill Brown Jr., Stanley A. Owens, E. B. Moncre, Ralph Hesse, Frank Cox, R. E. Brumback, W. E. Trusler, A. J. Peterson, John Parrish, George Englehard, Paul Madill, Charlie Caviness, Eugene Davis, John Mallard, P. A. Lewis, and the Rev. E. Guthrie Brown.

Air Raid Alarm Testing Tuesday

Manassas' air raid alarm system will be tested at noon next Tuesday. Hutton Tiffany, Prince William civilian defense co-ordinator announced yesterday. The test raid alarm blasts will replace the regular noon testing of the fire siren on that day.

Tiffany said the test will consist of a two-stage public warning code, the first announcing imminent attack and the second an All-Clear signal.

According to Virginia defense plans, the "Red Alert" public warning will be a signal of three-minute duration, consisting of a series of short warbling blasts of varying pitch. The All-Clear signal will be a series of three one-minute steady blasts, interrupted by silent periods of two minutes each.

Ava Burdette Enroute To Navy Duty In Hawaii

Ava A. Burdette, CTSN, U.S. Navy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Burdette of Woodbridge, is enroute to her new assignment in the Hawaiian Islands. Miss Burdette, a 1945 graduate of Occoquan High School and former teacher at Dumfries, enlisted in the WAVES in January, 1950 and has been stationed at Great Lakes, Norfolk, and Washington.

School Board Asks Approval For $350,000 Building Plan; Teacher Pay Raise Is Sought

Churches Plan "World Day Of Prayer" Observances

World Day of Prayer will be observed tomorrow evening in Manassas at services to be sponsored by the Prince William County Council of Churches at Grace Methodist Church.

Eight local churches will co-operate in presenting services at 8 p. m. on the theme, "Perfect Love Casts Out Fear." America is one of the 93 countries observing February 9 as World Day of Prayer.

The observance will begin at 7:30 p. m. tomorrow with ringing in unison of all church bells in Manassas, as a call to prayer. Hymns then will be played on the carillons at Grace Methodist and Trinity Episcopal Churches.

Participating churches are: Trinity Episcopal Church, Manassas, Manassas Baptist Church, First Baptist Church of Manassas, the Evangelical United Brethren Church of Manassas, the Presbyterian Church of Manassas, and the Church of the Brethren of Manassas. The Council of Churches this week asked everyone to stop his activities when the observance begins and offer a prayer. The following excerpt from the order of these services was suggested as a guide for individual prayers:

We kneel, yearning for peace in our distraught minds, and peace among the nations; We rise, knowing each must pay a price for peace.

We kneel, yearning for unity in the church—Christ's body; We rise with the will to do the deed we left undone.

We kneel, blinded with pride of race and culture; We rise, scales dropped from eyes, enabled to see strength and beauty in all.

We kneel, wrapped about with personal grievances; We rise, filled with gratitude for gifts of God everywhere about us.

We kneel in fear; We rise with faith.

School Classroom Additions Planned for Occoquan, Bennett

A one-year solution to Prince William County's problem of overcrowded schools was to be presented today to the Board of Supervisors by Division Superintendent of Schools Peters, along with plans to increase teacher salaries by $60 to $200 per year.

County Soils, Crops Meeting Here Tuesday

An all-day Soils and Crops School with VPI extension agronomists as speakers, will be held next Tuesday at Pitts Theater, Manassas. Frank Cox, county agent, announced this week.

Featured at the meeting will be discussions of such subjects as crop variety, fertilizers, increased crop yield, pasture development, alfalfa, ladino and other legumes, rotations, grassland farming, and orchard grass seed production.

VPI extension agronomists Paul H. DeHart and William W. Lewis will lead the discussions and will present new developments in crop varieties and management practices.

Peters will present plans for a building program which will cost about $350,000 and will be financed partly from State funds available through the Battle plan for aid to schools construction. The plan includes additions to the Occoquan elementary school, Bennett School in Manassas, and possibly the Brentsville District High School in Nokesville.

This possible solution, which is subject to approval by the Board of Supervisors and the State Board of Education, came from a meeting of the School Board yesterday when Board members turned thumbs down on the proposition of temporary buildings to relieve the present classroom shortage. No money should be asked for the construction of temporary buildings at this time, the School Board decided.

The two most pressing school needs in the County are those for additional elementary classrooms in Manassas and Occoquan, Peters said. Under the new plan, an addition of six classrooms and a cafeteria would be built in Occoquan and an addition of 6 or 8 classrooms, a cafeteria and a shop would be constructed at Bennett School. The Occoquan project would cost $140,000, $150,000 and the Bennett addition would total $175,000.

Third priority would be given the Brentsville District High School in Nokesville, where three additional classrooms are needed. The School Board proposed two alternatives: reopen the three-room school at Aden which was closed following completion in 1945, or convert the present agricultural shop at the Nokesville high school into a three-classroom annex and build a new shop. Cost of a new shop would be about $25,000 and expense involved in re-opening the Aden school would be about $5,500 (the building would have to be purchased for about $3,500, since it was sold in 1945).

Re-opening of closed schools at Quantico and Brentsville was virtually assured yesterday. The Board saw in this a way to provide three additional classrooms which would accommodate about 90 elementary children. Both schools were closed several years ago following consolidation. About $1,000 would be needed to renovate the one-room school at Brentsville, and considerably less to re-open the two-room school at Quantico, since it has been adequately maintained during the time it has been closed.

The highest load in financing the construction projects will be borne by State funds for aid to school construction. Prince William County still has left a large portion of the $172,836.28 made available during the first year of the Battle plan. Only $25,000 has been committed (Washington - Reid Elementary School) and, in addition, $70,000 will be available from the State under a second year grant from the Battle plan. About $25,000 in State funds, then, the balance of $125,000 would have to be provided locally. Current revenue appears to be the only source for the money, if the Supervisors and the State Board of Education approve the plan.

Salary increases proposed for the County teachers will raise the minimum pay for those with collegiate professional certificates from $3,000 to $2,100 and will increase the yearly increment for all teachers from $50 to $60. Most Prince William teachers hold the collegiate professional certificate, but raises are also proposed for teachers with three of the other four types of certification. Teachers with a Master's degree will receive the maximum base pay increase of $200 per year. Teachers holding local permits will receive no base pay increase from their present $1,400 per year.

The pay increases, if approved, will result in an additional $28,400 needed for next year's school budget. However nine additional elementary teachers and two and one-half high school teachers who "retire" proposes to hire to meet the 300-350 increase in enrollment expected next year, will require an additional increase of about $28,000 in the budget.

Sgt. Embrey who is now serving his sixth year in the Army, was wounded in action in France during World War II. He attended Catlett High School and is unmarried.

State, Local Flu Toll Leads Other Communicable Diseases

Figures released this week by the State Health Department show that flu was the most common communicable disease in Virginia during 1950. Influenza also was the most prevalent disease in Prince William as 559 citizens here fell its victims.

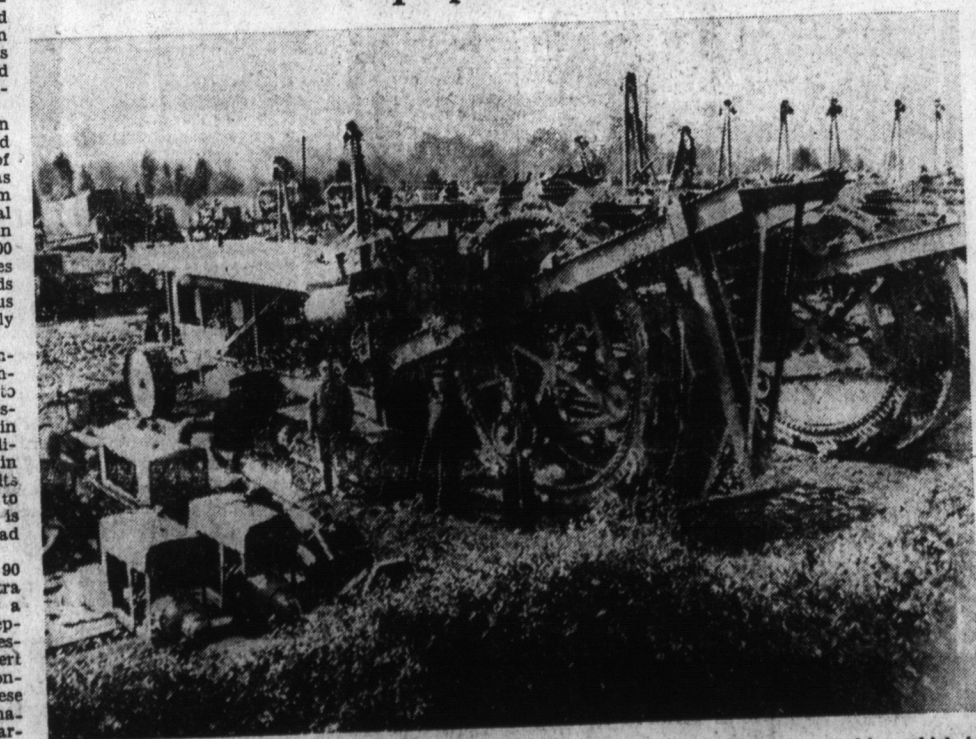

Percentage-wise, Prince William flu-victims represented 1.05 per cent of the State toll of 53,250, which indicates that this County received slightly more than its per capita share of the disease since Prince Williams 23,384 residents account for only 7 per cent of Virginia's 3,318,680 population.

Poliomyelitis represents the most critical problem for local health officers, the report indicates. With 15 reported polio cases during 1950 Prince William had 1.25 per cent of the State toll of 1,197 victims.

Communicable disease figures for 1950 and their relative incidence here follow:

Disease	Virginia 1950	Prince William 1950	Percentage of State Total
Chickenpox	3037	21	.69
Diarrhea & Dysentery	3742	1	.028
Influenza	53250	559	1.05

Three Acres of Equipment For Sale Here

Workmen shown above are dwarfed as they stand beside a huge ditch-digging machine, which is part of $2,000,000 worth of construction equipment used in laying the 30-inch Transcontinental Pipe Line from Texas to New York. O. E. Smith Contracting Corp. of Fort Worth, Texas, was contractor for the job in this area and Smith employees say that the equipment will sold to the highest bidder. Shipment of the equipment back to Fort Worth would cost $140,000, they said. The equipment fills a three-acre lot near Regional High School, Manassas.

Manassas Volunteer Firemen

The piercing blast of the fire siren in the bitter cold night announced just one more opportunity for Manassas Volunteer Fire Department to render invaluable public service to this community. And each sounding of the fire alarm provides our citizens with another opportunity to express gratitude for the firemen's unselfish service. Warm gratitude for this service certainly has been frequently expressed, but it cannot be repeated too often.

Approximately 35 men, members of the regular community stand ready to answer the alarm at any hour, in any emergency. Assuredly, it is a great inconvenience for these men to leave, at an instant's notice, their jobs, their meals, their homes in the evening, their beds, even a warm bath on a cold night (as has happened more than once), and rush to the scene of a fire. Often encountering great personal risk, they perform their self-appointed duties with consummate skill and energy—and for no pay. Only a genuine debt of gratitude is owed to these men for their service to their neighbors and community.

Evidence that the fire department is an inestimable asset to the community is not seen at the time of fires alone. Any worthy cause receives their full-hearted support. Their solicitation of $100 for the recent March of Dimes was just another instance of their varied service to the Manassas community.

Today the responsibilities of our local firemen continue beyond the single purpose for which they organized more than twenty years ago. With civilian defense plans and an added burden now will be placed on the shoulders of our firemen. In the event of a bombing, or other types of enemy attack, we undoubtedly will depend on the brawn, skill and courage of our firemen for our first-line defense against catastrophe and prevention of the spread of its terrifying effects. Expected, the firemen have declared a willingness to continue their utmost efforts in defense of their community. Manassas, indeed, ought to be proud of her firemen.

Vets and Civilian Defense

Local civilian defense planners are missing an excellent opportunity to strengthen their organization when they do not utilize World War II veterans. Many veterans in this community have received extensive training in just such skills as are required in any civilian defense program.

Defense officials here may be thinking that when things get bad that we really need a civilian defense organization. They are thinking that we need one now from a look at the budding development of the organization, then all the time will be back in uniform anyway. This may be true, but the other hand why not benefit now from the extensive training given these men while they were in uniform? Use them now and then replace them if they are drafted. The County would benefit, for a time at least, from the experience in war and defense. All the "dry-run" in the world is not worth the conditioning received in minutes' actual battle experience. There are far too many veterans in the defense set-up. In addition, there are many retired military personnel, some of high rank, living in this County. Apparently these professional soldiers have not been consulted even, much less given positions of authority. Unfortunately, the men best-fitted for the job are being overlooked.

Names of officers of the present civilian defense organization read like a list of patrons for some worthy civic project, but civilian defense is not likely to require the same kind of financial solicitation, for instance. Take the list of military policemen announced this week as an example: The men are at least six or seven men in this area who served as military policemen in the armed forces, they are included from the auxiliary police and the list looks like a directory of Center Street businessmen. To be sure, some of the auxiliary police have splendid records of military service and residence of this area will be considerably required to see them appointed auxiliary police. All the men are locally prominent, of course, but it is doubtful that any of them know anything about arms or police.

If we are going to have a civilian defense organization, we have the best men on the job. There are veterans here who know what bloody horror enemy attack brings and who are trained in dealing with it. From these men, with their hand experience and rational fears, we could recruit stout defenders of our society during possible enemy attack.

SAFEWAY

The story of a faith that paid off

YOU KNOW IT'S TRUE BECAUSE IT'S HAPPENED TO YOU AND YOUR FRIENDS AND NEIGHBORS

PROBABLY YOU'VE never thought of yourself as a maker of history. But you are. And here is how you, as a citizen of the United States, are creating the greatest success in all history.

Remember back in 1941 when the Defense Bonds you were buying suddenly had to become War Bonds? How you and your neighbors pitched in to buy them in ever-increasing numbers, to back our fighting men and to help bring closer the victory of World War II? After V-J Day, when those bonds became Savings Bonds, you continued to buy them because you had learned how regular saving could build security and contentment for yourself and those you love.

The face of the land has undergone some dramatic changes in those years since V-J Day. Now the landscape is dotted with new homes that Savings Bonds built. Thousands upon thousands of new automobiles travel the highways—Savings Bonds cars, bought with the product of individual thrift. On the farms, Bond-purchased equipment has helped produce bumper crops and prosperous years. Everywhere in America, man's urge to get into business for himself has become a bright reality. So has the ambition of loving parents to send their children through college. Time and time again, Savings Bonds have made those dreams come true.

You KNOW they've come true, because it's happened to you or to some of your own friends.

And this is only the beginning of the story. Even after accomplishing so much, millions of American families still enjoy the financial security of owning more than fifty billion dollars—fifty thousand million dollars in Savings Bonds. More than at the peak of war-time Bond holdings!

How much money is that? It's enough to build a new $10,000 mortgage-free home for every family in San Francisco—and Sacramento—and Salt Lake City—and Denver—and Kansas City—and St. Louis—and Indianapolis—and Cincinnati—and Pittsburgh—and New York City—and the whole state of Texas!

And every week, everywhere in America, new millions of dollars are added to the total—as crisp new Savings Bonds are typed up with your name on them.

Kind of a king-size success story, isn't it? Your success story because you and the millions of your neighbors are living it right now. Your own faith in America—your own desire for the warmth of family security and independence—have made the Savings Bonds story the thrift miracle of all time.

For your security, and your country's too, save now - through regular purchase of U.S. Savings Bonds

Miss Janet Emerson Wed To Mr. McGill

Palms, bouquets of tulips, iris, and snapdragons formed the background at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Collins at Stuart's Crossing, Va., near Centreville, on Saturday, January 27, at 2:30 p. m., for the marriage of Miss Janet Emerson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
Guy Libby Emerson of Beverly, Mass., to Mr. Vincent William Mc-Gill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore McGill of Harrisburg, Pa. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Walter C. Hook, and was followed by a reception at the scene of the wedding.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a street-length aqua velvet gown with a Juliet neckline, and a rust-colored Juliet feather cap adorned with rhinestones. She carried a bouquet of white violets.
Miss Eleanor Ebert was maid of honor, and wore a rose-beige jacket dress, the collar of which was encrusted with pearls and sequins, and a rose-colored plush hat. She carried a bouquet of purple violets.

The bride's mother was attired in a gown of purple crepe with a beaded bodice, and wore a rose-colored plush hat. She wore a lavender orchid corsage.

Mr. Wallace Roseberry was the groom's best man. Mr. David Jean served as usher.

The couple will make their home in Washington, D. C.

Mrs. McGill is an alumna of Beverly High School, Beverly, Mass., attended Mary Washington College, Fredericksburg, Va., and is at present attending George Washing-

By Nora M. Good
The Fashion Show at the school will be held February 21, from 8 p. m. to 10 p. m. The admission will be fifty cents for adults, and twenty-five cents for children. Refreshments will be served free of charge.

The WSCS will not hold its regular meeting this month at the home ton University. She is employed by the Department of State.

Mr. McGill attended the University of Mexico, and is now a senior at George Washington University.

Out-of-town guests came from Washington, D. C., Harrisburg, Pa., Beverly, Mass., and Minneapolis, Minn.

The palms which served as a backdrop for the ceremony are part of an extensive collection owned by Mr. and Mrs. John S.
Collins. Mr. and Mrs. McGill are the 10th couple to use the palms for nuptial decorations. Mrs. Collins has been collecting the plants for over 20 years, and has palms from all over the nation.

of Mrs. Spindle. The members have been invited to attend prayer week that night at the Truro Church in Fairfax. The March meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Spindle.

Sunday School Lesson

Jesus Meets Human Needs
Sunday School Lesson for Feb. 11
By T. H. CARRICO
Mark 6:34-44

Golden text: Jesus... was moved with compassion toward them, because they were as sheep not having a shepherd: and he began to teach them many things—Mark 6:34.

Jesus does not always meet our needs as we think that He should. He does not always answer our prayers the way we want them answered. What we want is not always best for us. He has promised never to leave nor forsake us. The need was never too small nor too great for Him to meet. He was, and is still willing to meet our needs. Oh, what a wonderful Saviour we have! One who understands all of our needs and is always willing to help. He is more willing to help than we are to be helped. He knows how weak we are. He has said, "Ask and ye shall receive, that your joy may be full." Think how anxious and how interested in people he was when he walked here on earth. He was never too busy nor too tired to help. He never turned anyone away. It is just as true today. Christ is always present to help in time of need.

As we read in the golden text, "He was moved with compassion towards them." He loved us before we loved Him. Oh, the wonderful love of God! We can't understand why He loves us so. If this is so, we ask the question, "Why is it that man does not come to Him? Why would he be afraid to confess his sins?" God knows all about them. We cannot hide anything from Him. He only wants man to forsake them also. What makes man afraid of God? Only one thing—that is sin. Sin is what made Adam afraid. He tried to hide from God. He tried to cover his sins, but that was impossible. He made aprons out of fig leaves, which is a type of self-righteousness. What did God do? He killed an animal and clothed him with the skin. From the beginning it required blood as a covering for sin. Every man needs a covering, for God said in His word, "All have sinned and come short of the glory of God" and "There is none righteous, no not one." That includes you and me. God sent His Son into the world to die for our sins. Our sins must be covered with the blood of Jesus Christ, then we can stand in the presence of God, clothed in the righteousness of Jesus Christ; not our righteousness. For God said "Our righteousness is as filthy rags." Thus we see the wonderful love of God. Our salvation is paid for. All we can do is to believe and accept the free gift. For eternal life is a free gift. For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

As Jesus saw the multitude, which had gone ahead of Him to the place where He and His disciples hoped to find rest and seclusion, He was moved with compassion toward them. He saw them as helpless sheep that had no shepherd. In their need He began to minister unto them.

In verses 35 and 36 the night was approaching and there was nothing for the people to eat. The disciples suggested that Jesus send the people away to the villages to buy food. Christ never sends men away from Himself for the supply of need. He, Himself supplies man's need. Jesus said to the disciples, "Give ye them to eat"—verse 37. He said "Give" and the disciples said, "Send." If we, today, open our hearts and "give" the gospel to the multitude, there are those who will "Give" for eternity. He who is the Bread of Life thus fed all those present through the ministry of the disciples and the self-sacrifice of the lad. We see in all of this how Christ is the supply of humankind, but He works through us. We are expected to take the bread which He alone can supply and distribute it to the starving multitudes.

Verse 43 "And they took up twelve baskets full of the fragments, and of the fishes." There was more food left than when the meal began. We can see from this that there is no limit to the ability of Jesus to minister to human need, and He can fulfill our every need as we go forth to minister in His name.

The hunting season approaches but, so far, nobody has done anything about the guy who shoots when the bushes move.

GOOD HEALTH!

1. WHAT AGE GROUP DOES 'TB' HIT HARDEST?

2. IS THERE A DENTAL INSURANCE PLAN?

Answer to Question No. 1:
1. Contrary to popular belief, young women in their 20's are not the principal victims of tuberculosis. That was true in 1900, but is no longer. Today tuberculosis is most serious in older men from the age of 40 on. In 1944 the greatest number of tuberculosis deaths occurred among white males between the ages of 50 and 54.

Answer to Question No. 2:
2. The first voluntary insurance plan in the United States, by which dental care is given on a premium basis to 25,000 persons, has been started in New York City. Operating on very much the same principle as surgical, medical and hospital insurance plans now in operation, the plan will be tested for an experimental period of two years.

Answer to Question No. 3:
3. Two out of three babies in America are on breast feeding at the time they leave the hospitals where they were born. The milk of a healthy mother is the best possible food for the infant.

Nokesville

By Mrs. Fred Shepherd member, World Day of Prayer, it's being observed at the Nokesville Church of the Brethren women from the churches of the district taking part in the service. The service will begin at 10 a. m. and everyone is invited to put on a service of praise. It is under the direction of D. D. Fleishman and promised to be well worth your while to attend.

Senior Women's H. D. Club at the Firehall on Tuesday evening with Mrs. Blake Fleming as hostess. Mrs. J. G. Enoch as Mrs. J. G. Enoch, chairman of the district committee, considered the worship service. Mrs.
 R. Free presided at the business meeting. A sizeable donation was made to the Home Economics department for the purchasing of linen glassware. Mrs. Leona Barlow made the demonstration.

Mrs. Paul Stueve of Falls Church and Mrs. Jennie Wood-of Luray spent Saturday with Carl Miller.

Mrs. Allen Fleishman of Nokesville spent the weekend at home. Also spending midwinter with home families Jay Garman, Mary Hooker, Hooker, George Croushorn, Elizabeth Fitzwater.

Mrs. Frank Foster was moved to Physicians Hospital in Warren-on Thursday, where she is still ill. Also still at the same hospital is Mr. Will Herring, who is too ill to come home.

Mr. Willard Wilkins, the first of week, along with the Delmar of Arlington and Mr. and Arthur Henley of Glen Echo, went to Akron, Ohio to attend services for their little son, the smallest son of Mr.
 Mrs. Hugh Collier. The little son was killed while sled riding. injured was his older brother, who spent most of last summer with the Wilkins family. sincere sympathy goes to the family.

Mr. Otis W. Snyder, recently of Colorado, left there on day 8 to report for overseas duty. Dr. Snyder, along with over nurses and doctors, left from western port a week later. His family have now arrived at Oakland, Md., where they will spend the winter with Mrs.
 Snyder's sister.

Mrs. and Mrs. John Randall and family spent the weekend with the Smiths near Belton. Also spending the weekend at Belton Lee Yankey.

Some most of our news this week isn't happy news. There are people in the community who at any time this winter the next week I can say "everyone is much better."

Mr. G. Whetzel, Jr., returned home after being hospitalized in Washington for about a week.
 The S. D. Somers family has been anxious the past week because the critical illness of the smallest grandchild, baby Wells.

Miss Ella Brown, aunt of Mrs.
 Charles D'Agata returned to the D'Agata apartment from Physicians Hospital on Saturday. She had been suffering from a broken wrist and bruises received when she fell down the steps.

Mrs. Josephine Cowne spent Sunday with her daughter and family, the Herbert Wilsons at Catlett. It was Mrs. Cowne's first day out for a week. However, she did not feel strong enough to attend the Md.- Va. Milk Producers Association Banquet in Washington on Monday. It was the first time she had missed the affair for many, many years.

Among those from this community who attended the 31st Annual Banquet of the Association at the Statler on Monday were the Harry Millers, the George Cownes, the Harry Fitzwaters, the Fred Shepherds, the Harvey Smiths, Messrs.
 Robert, Dillon and Herbert Wood, Mr. Robert Manuel and Bobby, Mrs.
 Charles Fitzwater, Mrs. N. N. Free, Mr. E. L. Gough, Mr. Billy Fleming, and Mr. George Croushorn.

Mr. and Mrs. William L. Miller of Arlington visited the George Cownes on Sunday. Also visiting the Cownes on Sunday were the Frank Lakes of Midland.

Mrs. S. G. Whetzel, Sr., entertained her friends at a Stanley Party at her home at Aden on Monday night.

Mrs. Elmore Showalter, little Miss Shirley Godfrey, the Rev. and Mrs.
 G. W. Beahm, Misses Joyce and Dixie Payne and Mrs. L. J. Bowman were Friday dinner guests of the Fred T. Shepherds. The occasion celebrated the birthdays of Mrs. Showalter, Mrs. Beahm and the hostess.

Mr. Stanley Harpine, who has been teaching at an Arlington County School, after just five days "notice" is now stationed at Norfolk. This is the kind of "news" we'll be writing quite often, it seems, and how hard it is to write it! During the last war, we spent many hours keeping up with the addresses of more than twenty of our Nokesville boys to whom the Journal was sent each week and if need be it can be done again for the boys seemed to enjoy the paper so much.

 a position with Wheat Chevrolet in

County Agent

By CHARLES L. HALL, Jr.

Have you heard about the Green Pastures Essay Contest? This contest is designed to promote the development and improvement of pasture and forage crops in the states of Virginia, West Virginia, Delaware, Kentucky, and Tennessee.
 It is sponsored by Southern States Cooperative. The agricultural college and the Departments of Education in each of these states are co-operating. Awards for the contest are made available through the courtesy of Southern States Cooperative as evidence of its desire to give further impetus to the fine work that is being done in pasture improvement. Contestants will compete on a county, state, and regional level using the subject, "What a Balanced Pasture Program Will Mean to My Farm." Essays will emphasize the practical application of the principles of pasture development and management in terms of the contestant's own situation with less attention to the theoretical phases of the subject. Appropriate prizes, in the form of U. S. Government Savings Bonds, Series E, will be given the winning contestants at the county level. A college scholarship will be awarded the regional winner.

The Rules for this contest are:
 1. Farm boys and girls (white and work there.

Miss Anna Hooker had as her weekend guest her college roommate, Miss Muriel Moore of New Market.

Mr. Paul Theimer is quite ill with a spell of asthma. Several of the children also have been quite ill recently.

Mr. L. R. Cowne is confined to his home this week with the flu.

Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Williams are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a daughter, Elaine Lee, born January 23 at St. Luke's Hospital, Fargo, North Dakota. The baby weighed seven pounds, 11 and one-fourth ounces. The mother, the former Miss Anna Miller, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Miller of Nokesville.

Negro) under 18 years of age who are residents of the six states mentioned above, are eligible to compete in the contest, provided such youths are not enrolled in college and are living on a farm or participating in a farming activity. To meet the age requirement a contestant must not have reached his or her eighteenth birthday before February 1, 1951.

2. Each contestant's essay must be the result of his own efforts.
 Facts and working data may be secured from any source, but training in composition must be limited to the facilities afforded by the school from which the contestant comes or the groups with which he is affiliated in the community. A short objective test will be given each contestant to determine his or her knowledge of the subject and the source of materials used in the essay. Separate tests will be used at the county, state and regional levels.

3. The contest will run from February 1, 1951, through April 30, 1951. Each contestant must submit his essay to the chairman of his or her county committee on or before midnight of the closing date. Entries received after that date will not be accepted for the competition.

4. Essays must conform to the following standards:

a. Each contestant must write on the subject "What a Balanced Pasture Program Will Mean to My Farm." It is expected that the outline on page five of the booklet on the Rules and Plans of the Green Pastures Essay Contest will be used as a guide to the nature and scope of the subject, but the contestant should feel free to use his own originality and initiative to developing the subject.

b. Essays must be typewritten on white bond paper, double spaced, and should not exceed 1500 words in length.

c. Two copies of the essay must be submitted.
 d. A statement, signed by the contestant, certifying as to the originality of the essay must be attached to the essay. This statement should read as follows: "I certify that this essay is my own composition and no part of it was written by anyone else. When direct quotations are used they are enclosed in quotations or proper credit otherwise is given."

5. There must be a minimum of 20 contestants in a county to justify a county contest. Should the number be smaller, however, these contestants will be eligible for their respective state contest.

Awards will be as follows:
 County Contest: 1st prize $50 U. S. Savings Bond, 2nd prize $25
 U. S. Savings Bond.

State Contest: 1st prize $300 U. S. Savings Bond, 3rd prize $50
 U. S. Savings Bond.

Regional Contest—Grand prize $2,000.

The winner of the top award may also be awarded a scholarship to a college or university. The winner will be selected by a committee of judges. The committee will be composed of representatives of the agricultural colleges and the Departments of Education in the six states mentioned above.

Essays will be judged on the basis of the composition and cultural in accordance with the standards.

At the county level, essays will be judged by a committee of competent persons selected from the respective county.

The judging of the county winners will be done by a committee of judges. The committee will be composed of representatives of the agricultural colleges and the Departments of Education in the six states mentioned above.

The first prize winner (the first prize winner) will be selected by a committee of judges. The committee will be composed of representatives of the agricultural colleges and the Departments of Education in the six states mentioned above.

County awards will be made as follows: 1st prize $50 U. S. Savings Bond, 2nd prize $25 U. S. Savings Bond, 3rd prize $50 U. S. Savings Bond.

State awards will be made as follows: 1st prize $300 U. S. Savings Bond, 3rd prize $50 U. S. Savings Bond.

Regional awards will be made as follows: Grand prize $2,000.

The winner of the top award may also be awarded a scholarship to a college or university.

The winner will be selected by a committee of judges. The committee will be composed of representatives of the agricultural colleges and the Departments of Edu-
 above.

U. D. C.
 The February meeting of the Manassas Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, which was scheduled to be held Wednesday afternoon, February 7, at the National Battlefield Park, was postponed because of inclement weather.
 An announcement regarding a make-up meeting will be made at a future date.

The historical subjects that were slated to be featured at the postponed meeting were Sidney Lanier, famed Southern poet, musician, and soldier, and Gen. Richard Stoddert Ewell, Confederate officer of Prince William County and a grandson of the 1st Secretary of the Navy of the United States.

Both Lanier's and General Ewell's birthdays occur this month. Mr.
 J. B. Myers, Superintendent of the National Battlefield Park Museum, was to have spoken on the General.
 A portrait of General Ewell had been lent to the museum especially for the program.

The 4th District Conference of the Virginia Division of the United Daughters of the Confederacy will meet here in May. The speakers for the occasion will be Maj. R. M. Graham, former pastor of the Manassas Baptist Church. Major Graham is well known and popular in this area, and the U. D. C. is much pleased to have secured him as speaker, a member of the organization said this week.

TO THE CITIZENS OF THE TOWN OF MANASSAS

Your attention is called to the following State Law regarding the following or parking of vehicles

 GOOD AMERICANS!

"On my honor I will do my best—to do my duty to God and my country and to obey the Scout Law; to help other people at all times; to keep myself physically strong, mentally awake and morally straight."

MILLIONS of Americans are better citizens because they were once Boy Scouts.
 It would take a whole book to tell why; yet the real reason is summed up in the Scout oath and the twelve-point Scout Law. While they were written for boys, grown men would do well to commit these precepts to heart and live by them diligently.

Among the more than 4,000 VEPCOVIANS who share the interests of the communities in which they live and work, many are and have been identified with local Scouting. We are proud of them, and we salute them along with ALL the Boy Scouts of America!
