A Man of Varied Interests Symphony Conductor Mitchell, Plans Advance For Vets Fair, Legion Show

Howard Mitchell, conductor of the National Symphony Orchestra, is a man of many and varied interests. He wields a magic baton on the podium, but he swings an accurate brassie on the golf course as well. Despite the countless hours required for rehearsals and the many concerts necessary for the many ensembles for which he is responsible, he finds time to play a good game of golf, shooting in the 70's against such players as Bing Crosby, Bob Hope, Arthur Godfrey, Gen. Hoyt Vandenberg and many Washington business men who take their golf seriously.

Plans for a fourth annual American Legion Exposition and for a second County Fair, the latter sponsored by the Veterans' Farm Club, were outlined to members of the Prince William Chamber of Commerce at their meeting Tuesday.

Both affairs were held at Longview Park last summer, and that will be the site again this year. The Legion exposition is composed chiefly of industrial and merchants' exhibits, while the Veterans' fair presents livestock, poultry and home economics displays as its main attraction, the speakers pointed out. Both will have entertainment features.

The Rev. E. Guthrie Brown, commander of Post 158, American Legion, told the Chamber that his organization has arranged for an exhibit tent twice as large as the one used last year. Floor space in the tent will total 20,000 square feet, providing more space in which local merchants will display their goods and services. Over one-half of the tent space is already rented, he declared.

Tentatively scheduled for the first week in July, the exposition is expected to draw much larger crowds of spectators than last year when rainy weather prevented a large attendance, he explained. Profits from the exposition are used to retire the debt on the Legion hall, located on Center Street, Manassas, the Rev. Mr. Brown said.

Joe Johnson, of the Veterans' Farm Club, also speaking before the Chamber, said his organization is preparing to increase the classes for livestock exhibition, and club members are hoping that the fair will attract a notable showing. Several of Prince William's prize dairy herds, which were not shown last year, will probably be entered in the competition this year, Johnson said.

Johnson added that the Veterans' club is planning to obtain a much better carnival show than the one last year which, he admitted, disappointed some people. The fair will be held in August.

A meeting of the Prince William County School Trustee Electoral Board will be held at Dumfries school on March 5 at 8 p. m. for the purpose of hearing individuals who may wish to propose candidates for the Dumfries Magisterial District seat on the School Board. Mrs. Purvis is reported to be backed by the Dumfries P-T-A spokesmen expected to propose Mrs. Purvis at that time.

School Board May Seek Federal Aid

Application for Federal aid for schools construction in Prince William County probably will be made soon, following a meeting of the School Board today, but bitter opposition to actual use of such funds is expected.

Estimates of just how much money would be available to this County from Federal sources range from $60,000 to $260,000. No accurate prediction is possible, according to Superintendent of Schools Peters.

Peters told the Journal that he thought it advisable to apply for the funds as soon as possible and then decide whether to use them. The money then would be available if the School Board approves use of it.

Most opposition to Federal aid to schools here is expected from people who fear non-segregated schools, despite the added expense of maintaining separate systems for white and Negro children. It is believed that the Federal government might order non-segregated attendance at schools built with Federal money.

Other opponents of Federal aid are alarmed by the possibility that the government might attempt to prescribe curricula.

Hoard Sues For Slander; Asks $10,000 From Doggett

Councilman Roy Doggett has been sued for slander by Steve Hoard, town electrician, following a January Council meeting when Doggett described Hoard as a "drunk." Hoard is asking $10,000 damages.

The suit, filed at the County Clerk's office by Attorney Paul Williams, charges that Doggett defamed the complainant when he told "Town Manager Ritter that 'if anything happened to Joe Corn (utility foreman) then our utility system would be in the hands of a drunk,' and when Doggett repeated the remark at a council meeting and called Hoard a "drunk."

The bill also charges that Doggett made the following statement at the meeting: "It is true that you were drunk a few days ago." However, Doggett was twice quoted in a local paper as having said, "Isn't it true that a few days ago you were drunk?" The remark is not in the official minutes of the meeting.

At a subsequent meeting, Councilman Ferris Guo, backed by Doggett, urged that Hoard be dismissed for incompetence and for misconduct at the earlier meeting. Councilman G. Wallace Hook assented, but no official action was taken. This week Town Manager Ritter stated that he considered Hoard was out of order when he jumped to his feet at the Council meeting and told Doggett: "You don't know what you're talking about," as the Councilman criticized work being done by town employees.

Ritter then asked a policeman to escort Hoard out of the meeting. The slander suit is expected to come before the Circuit Court at its April term.

By Mrs. Fred Shepherd and another good team to be announced later. Refreshments will be sold. Everyone in Brentsville District is expected to attend. Of course, outside district folks also will be welcomed. All proceeds will go to the finance work of the Religious Education in our District.

All interested persons, especially pastors, superintendents and teachers are urged to attend a meeting in Manassas on March 15 when Miss Longwell from the Virginia Council of Churches will be there with a new audio-visual library for Leadership Training. More about this later.

Don't forget PTA meeting will be held on Tuesday night, February 27. All patrons of the school are urged to be present.

Around 50 young folks and their leaders enjoyed an afternoon of recreation, supper and an evening worship service on Sunday when the CBYF of Nokesville were hosts to the Manassas and Valley young people.

Rev. and Mrs. Ervin Block of Kingsport, Tennessee, have announced the arrival of a little son, John Ervin, born on February 13; he weighed 6 lbs. 13 oz. The little fellow's mother is the former Miss Ethel May and his grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Perry May.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Hopkins and Kathleen surprised the Harold Hopkins when they returned home from church on Sunday. The occasion was Louise's birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Miller drove to Charlottesville on Sunday afternoon to visit Mr. Miller's sister, Mrs. Leonard Herron, who has been very ill. She had just been removed from the hospital to her daughter's home and is reported to be improving.

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Powell and little "Corky" came to school on Wednesday afternoon and had a lovely party for their son, George and his little first-grade classmates. They planned the whole Valentine Day party and every minute was thoroughly enjoyed by the children. George's father is soon to leave to be stationed away from home so it seemed so nice for George to be able to "show off" his nice Daddy to his little playmates. The Powells are the folks who now own the former F. H. May place near Brentsville. Mrs. Powell is now a fellow-correspondent of ours, and is doing a fine job, we think!

Mrs. Will Herring is to be confined to her home for a while. We are sure she would welcome a card from any of her many friends. We who are well can't realize how important just a card can be to someone who is a shut-in.

Mr. and Mrs. Raleigh Nelson and little Gary entertained all of the Nelson family at a turkey dinner at their home on Sunday. The Nelson family now is composed of the following: Mr. and Mrs. Richard Dudley, Freddy, Mary Ellen, Richard and Bill. Mr. and Mrs. George Timberlake, Tim, Bill and Melanie, all of Silver Springs, Md., Mr. and Mrs. Russell Miller and Rusty of Yorkshire, Mr. and Mrs. John Brown and Johnnie of Manassas, Mother Nelson, Robert, Eddie and Ted of Nokesville.

Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Landes and daughter Melva spent Sunday visiting relatives around Harrisonburg.

Mr. and Mrs. John Carico and family are the new folks in the house next to Mr. and Mrs. Landes.

Quite a few Nokesville folks attended the Gregory-Aubrey wedding in Manassas on Sunday afternoon. To Alice Lee, another Nokesville girl, and her new husband, we say, "Best wishes for a happy married life."

Our sincerest sympathy goes to Mr. and Mrs. Carl Miller. Mrs. Miller's father passed away on Tuesday evening. Mr. Welmer was ill last week but had been brought home from the hospital and was doing well, so his death was a shock to the Miller family.

Miss Mary Hooker and Mr. Merle Krause, students from Bridgewater College spent Saturday and Sunday at the Hooker home. Mrs. Hooker and Bernice took them back to Bridgewater Sunday night.

Mrs. Frances Olmstead called me to say how overwhelmed she and all her family were at the generosity shown by her neighbors and friends here at Nokesville during their recent bereavement. I'm sure she would welcome a visit from any of us. So many people who she had never met yet had, she said, called or sent things. One of her sisters is staying with her for a while. Her mother, Mrs. B. S. Shepherd of Fairfax has been with her, but has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Shepherd, Mrs. A. W. Newland, Mr. Fred T. Shepherd, along with Mr. and Mrs. Max Shepherd and Mr. and Mrs. Avery Caister of Manassas, and Mrs. B. L. Seese and Mrs. Gerald Herring of Falls Church attended funeral services for their aunt, Mrs. Pearl Owen in Washington on Tuesday morning. She was laid to rest at Cedar Hill Cemetery. She is survived by her children, Miss Betty Jane Owen, Mrs. Josephine Taylor, and Jay and William Owen. Her only sister is Mrs. M. J. Shepherd of Sebring, Florida, and Nokesville. She has one brother, J. J. True, Jr., of B. J. Stone Gap and her father, J. J. True, Sr., who is now also living at B. J. Stone Gap. She had been in ill health for some time but it was thought her condition was much improved. Relatives and friends were shocked by her sudden death.

TIME AGES many things...but there's a "spirit" in the Southland that will never grow old!

It is as timeless as the courage and vision that enabled the war-ravaged South of 1865...alone and unaided...to lift itself "by its own bootstraps" out of the depths of destruction and despair.

It is as ageless as the optimism and faith with which the self-reliant, progressive men and women of the South today are building toward an even greater Southland.

Without this spirit, the South could never have grown up. With it, our beloved Southland will never stop growing.

Proudly, we say, "The Southern Serves the South"...because we are proud of the South we serve.

Privilege and Public Officers

It is difficult to imagine how ineffectual American legislative procedure would become, were it not for a protection, known as personal immunity, which is granted members of Congress. It is not uncommon for these important Americans to utter ungentlemanly terms of reproach and of colleagues, but, as long as the remarks are made on the floor of Congress, they are made without fear of being dragged into court as a consequence. While no one condones such outbursts, certainly no one would attempt to throttle Congress with a slender law. Without immunity no Congressman would dare utter a word for fear of being liable.

This privilege of public officers extends right down the ladder of government and enables local officials to criticize superiors, colleagues and subordinates when the criticism is addressed to those with a valid interest in the matter. Taciturnity is often a disagreeable by-product of this guarantee of free expression, but that ought to be for the consideration of the speaker who presumably wishes to keep his

How else could a representative government function? If our elected representatives are not to be granted free expression, even the extent, when in good faith, of calling a public employee a drunk, a fruitful debate will be driven further into committees and closets, and the legislative process becomes a prey of opportunists and odious lobbyists, not concerned with the public good.

A slander suit filed here last week against Councilman Roy Doggett presents an attempt—unintentional perhaps, but an attempt nevertheless—to choke off free expression in Manassas Town Council meetings. Doggett, employed by the town as an electrician, charges that Councilman H. H. Sandered him by calling him a drunk at a January Council meeting, and by telling Town Manager Ritter that "if anything happens to my car in town, I'll sue your utility system." The latter remark was repeated at a later Council meeting.

Doggett's attorney probably will file a demurrer to this suit and the whole thing will come to nothing. There doesn't seem to be any question of slander when a Councilman, speaking on the floor, pertinently tells other Councilmen that an employee is incompetent. If the Councilman chooses to use strong, unmistakable language and if private citizens happen to be present, the situation is not altered one iota. According to law, the public official is presumed to be acting in good faith, unless proved otherwise. And it will be a discouraging task to attempt to prove that a public official is not acting in good faith, when he is in a situation which he believes needs correcting.

The case doesn't present much of a question for the courts, but it ought to result in an investigation of town employees. If any are found to have personal habits which render them incapable of performing their duties during work hours, they should be replaced by competent men.

Virginia Highway Swing Span to be Longest in the World

Like a mammoth erector set operation, this huge swing span section, pivoted in the middle, will be the sturdy roadbed support to carry vehicular traffic over the $9 million Yorktown Bridge now under construction. This member, resting on its side, swings to permit largest U. S. warships to pass up York River. It will be the world's longest highway swing span. Here at U. S. Steel's Virginia Bridge Company's Roanoke shops, workmen make certain all structural members fit with precision. Dismantled, it will be shipped to bridge site. Arrow points to workmen, dwarfed by 300-foot length of span, which, if raised vertically would rival the Washington Monument in height. The new bridge is scheduled for completion in early 1952 and will be the largest single project by the Virginia Department of Highways.

YOU KNOW IT'S TRUE BECAUSE IT'S HAPPENED TO YOU AND YOUR FRIENDS AND NEIGHBORS

PROBABLY YOU'VE never thought of yourself as a maker of history. But you are. And here is how you, as a citizen of the United States, are creating the greatest success in all history.

Remember back in 1941 when the Defense Bonds you were buying suddenly had to become War Bonds? How you and your neighbors pitched in to buy them in ever-increasing numbers, to back our fighting men and to help bring closer the victory of World War II? After V-J Day, when those bonds became Savings Bonds, you continued to buy them because you had learned how regular saving could build security and contentment for yourself and those you love.

The face of the land has undergone some dramatic changes in those years since V-J Day. Now the landscape is dotted with new homes that Savings Bonds built. Thousands upon thousands of new automobiles travel the highways—Savings Bonds cars, bought with the product of individual thrift. On the farms, Bond-purchased equipment has helped produce bumper crops and prosperous years. Everywhere in America, man's urge to get into business for himself has become a bright reality. So has the ambition of loving parents to send their children through college. Time and time again, Savings Bonds have made those dreams come true.

You KNOW they've come true, because it's happened to you or to some of your own friends.

And this is only the beginning of the story. Even after accomplishing so much, millions of American families still enjoy the financial security of owning more than fifty billion dollars—fifty thousand million dollars in Savings Bonds. More than at the peak of war-time Bond holdings!

How much money is that? It's enough to build a new $10,000 mortgage-free home for every family in San Francisco—and Sacramento—and Salt Lake City—and Denver—and Kansas City—and St. Louis—and Indianapolis—and Cincinnati—and Pittsburgh—and New York City—and the whole state of Texas!

And every week, everywhere in America, new millions of dollars are added to the total—as crisp new Savings Bonds are typed up with your name on them.

Kind of a king-size success story, isn't it? Your success story because you and the millions of your neighbors are living it right now. Your own faith in America—your own desire for the warmth of family security and independence—have made the Savings Bonds story the thrift miracle of all time.

For your security, and your country's too, save now - through regular purchase of U.S. Savings Bonds

LET'S SPRINGCLEAN THAT ELECTRIC RANGE

Why not include giving your Electric Range a thorough cleaning in your spring housecleaning program? This need not be the task you think it is if you follow some of these tips:

1. Clean the porcelain finish when it is cool by washing with mild soap and water followed with a clean rinse in clear water. Polish with a soft clean cloth or paper towel.

2. Restore the sparkle of chromium-plated parts by rubbing with a cloth dampened in soapy water and wipe with a cloth rinsed in hot clear water. Use chrome polish occasionally to remove stains and bring out the original luster of the metal.

3. Remove any greasy deposit or crumbs from around the porcelain rim of the cooking top with a damp soapy cloth. Wipe with a cloth dampened in clear water and dry.

4. The porcelain crumb tray catches food particles and accidental cook-overs that fall through the reflector pans. This tray should be removed frequently and washed with hot, soapy water, rinsed and dried.

5. The kettle, rack and inset pans of the deep-well cooker should have the same cleaning care as all cooking utensils. Wash with very hot soapy water. Take care to thoroughly clean the bottom and sides of the kettles. Rinse with hot water and dry. It is advisable to clean the aluminum now and then with steel wool scouring pads.

6. Remove the oven units and thoroughly clean the interior of the oven. Clean the oven only when cold and the oven switch is off.

7. Household ammonia may be used to soften burned on substances.

Sunday School Lesson

By T. H. CARRICO
February 25, Worship and Work
Mark 9:2-4, 14-17, 25-29
Golden Text: This is my son; hear him.—Mark 9:7

And after six days Jesus taketh with him Peter, James and John, and leadeth them up into an high mountain apart by themselves. And he was transfigured before them. And his raiment became shining, exceeding white as snow; so as no fuller on earth can white them. And there appeared unto them Elias with Moses. And they were talking with Jesus. These verses tell us of the fulfillment of verse one "Verily I say unto you, that there be some of them that stand here, which shall not taste of death, till they have seen the kingdom of God come with power." These three disciples witnessed that day on the mount. They saw Jesus transfigured, they saw Elias and Moses talking with Jesus. They heard the voice of God saying "This is my beloved Son; hear Him." They were to stay upon the mount, and they wanted to build three tabernacles: one for Jesus, one for Elias and one for Moses. They did not understand fully what all this meant. We cannot blame them for wanting to say upon the mount but Jesus knew that there was work to be done down in the valley. It is not enough to have the blessings on the mount, but we must remember the needy in the valleys, and take Christ to them.

As they returned to the valley there was a great multitude who ran to Him and saluted Him. "And He asked the scribes, 'what question ye with them?' And one of the multitude answered and said, 'Master, I have brought unto you my son, which hath a dumb spirit.' He told Jesus that he had spoken to the disciples and they could not cast him out. Why could not the disciples cast him out? Jesus had given them power to cast out evil spirits. They had cast them out for we read that they returned to the evil spirits were subject to them. No doubt they said, 'This is a hard case. He can neither talk nor hear, if he could only hear we could do something for him. We will have to give him up.' 'Have we not heard the same words in our time?' He is too far gone, or he is past help. We will have to give them up." Let us see what Jesus had to say about this. Verse 19. "He answered him, and said, 'O faithless generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? Bring him unto me.'"

The disciples, no doubt, tried their best to do something in their own strength. The reason they failed was because they forgot to bring him to Jesus. Oh what an invitation "Bring him to me." No case is too hard for Him. If we have loved ones and say that they are too deep in sin and that they cannot be helped we are refusing the invitation that Jesus gave us and doubting the power of God. We see how Jesus corrected the father of the child who was brought to him. The father said in verse 22, "If thou canst do anything, have compassion on us, and help us." Jesus said unto him, "If thou canst believe, all things are possible to him that believeth." And straightway the father of the child cried out, and said with tears, "Lord, I believe; help thou mine unbelief." Then the child was healed. We notice that it was not by any works

Women, as workers, now have a much broader field in which to gain a livelihood with old-age and survivors insurance protection. ### SOCIAL SECURITY

By RUTH G. DUFFY, Manager Alexandria Social Security Office
Women, in general, have greater rights and larger benefits under the new Social Security program. This applies to wives, mothers, widows, and to the woman as a worker providing for the family.

Heretofore, the wife of a retired and insured worker was not entitled to monthly payments until she became 65. Now, if she has a minor child in her care, she gets monthly payments, regardless of her age. Also a mother caring for the minor children of her divorced husband can now get monthly payments. However, she must have been receiving at least half her support from the divorced husband at the time of his death.

The new provision granting wage credits for service in World War II will also bring new benefits to many women. It will enable many widows of servicemen to qualify for survivors benefits.

A woman worker now has greater protection for her children. Under the old law, payments based on her work could not be made to her dependent children if the father were living in the home. This was true even though the mother was providing all or most of the children's support.

If Jesus prayed often, how much more do we need to pray for our strength and wisdom to carry on His work. God's people cannot truly work for Him unless they pray first. We can only successfully talk to men about God after we have talked to God about man. His strength and wisdom to carry on His work. God's people cannot truly work for Him unless they pray first. We can only successfully talk to men about God after we have talked to God about man. His strength and wisdom to carry on His work. God's people cannot truly work for Him unless they pray first. We can only successfully talk to men about God after we have talked to God about man.

thousands of babies need their bottles

—Vepco is still up and dressed

AT TWO O'CLOCK in the morning, thousands of mothers reach for familiar switches, and find their electric service still up and dressed, ready to give them as much light as they need to fix baby's bottle or check the covers in the nursery.

Giving you instant light at two in the morning is only one instance of your electric company's continuous, dependable service. More than 4,000 men and women who work for VEPCO keep electricity working around the clock . . . in the home and on farm, in hospital, office, factory, store. To mother or merchant, doctor or dentist, farmer or foreman—it is an indispensable aid to routine tasks or emergencies.

Such service represents a gigantic investment in money—and manpower. Only under our free enterprise system could VEPCO, your business-managed, tax-paying electric company, make it available to so many, for so little.

We're up and dressed when baby needs his bottle!

Readers' Forum

Manassas, Va.
To: The Parents of Manassas
 Dear Folks:

The Editor has kindly permitted me to address you thru this News Paper on the subject, "The Bible in our Public Schools." As you no doubt are aware the Supreme Court has interpreted our law that any Bible Instruction in the Public Schools must be on a voluntary basis and no expense to the school funds or the utilization of the time of any public school teacher. For that reason it was necessary to rely on public support of voluntary contributions for the payment of the salary and expense of one outside teacher, Miss Hazel Saunders has been giving Bible Instruction to volunteers in all the 4th and 5th grades and in some of the 6th and 7th grades in all the schools in Prince William County. Those of you who witnessed her class demonstration in the United Brethren Church some months ago know what an excellent job she is doing. To secure funds for this purpose the County has been apportioned into six districts. Each district has been given a quota. These quotas have been met in various ways in the several districts; some obtained by individual contributions, others by organizations, and still others thru the various Churches in the Community setting-up this item in their budgets. Manassas District is approximately $1,000,000 short in their quota to 30 June 1951. How are we going to put this worthy project upon a sound financial basis? Surely, we can not expect the teacher to give her services! She visits all the schools in Prince William County once a week so that each class has one lesson each week. Of the total number of students in the selected grades from 90% to 97% have volunteered and are receiving Bible Instruction from Miss Saunders. This overwhelming evidence that it is the desire of you parents for your children to receive this instruction. Further, of the number of parents who have volunteered, a survey discloses that 66% of them do not attend Sunday School regularly (lack of transportation, etc.) which means that the Bible Instruction of these 66% is received mainly from these classes. Let us keep the Bible in our schools! If each family in the Manassas District (same as for voting) gave $2.00, the deficit to 30 June-51 would be wiped-out.

Mr. E. E. Rohr, a public-spirited business man, has agreed to give of his time to act as treasurer for this cause. If you reside in the Manassas District send your contribution today to Mr. Rohr. If in form of check or money order make it payable to him as Treasurer or give it in cash, $2.00, $5.00 or any amount that you deem appropriate. The Little Red School House and the Bible is what made this country what it is today! As American citizens on this anniversary date of the birth of the Father of our Country let us keep faith with our forefathers! Keep the Bible in the school! Conspicuous, white gladioli, and ferns formed the background at the Manassas Baptist Church on Sunday afternoon, February 18, for the 4 o'clock wedding of Miss Roletta Mae Gough, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Henry Gough of Nokesville, to Mr. Robert Randall Wine, son of Mrs. Elizabeth Hutchinson Wine of Manassas. The Rev. Len Weston, former pastor of the Manassas Baptist Church, performed the double-ring ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a fitted suit of spring navy blue and white accessories, and wore a corsage of white rose buds.

Mrs. Charles R. Gough, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a powder blue suit and a corsage of pink rose buds.

Mr. Charles R. Gough of Washington, brother of the bride, was best man. The ushers were Mr. Wade Bailey of Falls Church, brother-in-law of the bride, and Mr. Mason Holcomb of Manassas, brother-in-law of the groom.

Mrs. Lewis Carper played the nuptial music, and Mrs. Len Weston sang "Because."

A reception followed the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, Miss Alice Flory served the three-tiered wedding cake, and Mrs. W. de Bailey, sister of the bride, presided at the punch bowl.

For her traveling costume, the bride chose a navy blue satin dress fashioned with a Princess Anne collar and a full skirt with matching accessories and a green topper.

Following a short wedding trip through Jamestown and historic Williamsburg, the couple will reside at the home of the bride's parents in Nokesville.

The bride is an alumna of Brentsville District High School, Nokesville, and is now employed by the Department of Agriculture in Washington.

Miss Alice Lee Aubrey Wed To Mr. James L. Gregory

Arrangements of palms, white gladioli and calla lilies, sweet peas, and candles formed the setting at the Bethel Evangelical Lutheran Church, Manassas, on February 18 for the 5 o'clock wedding of Miss Alice Lee Aubrey, daughter of Mrs. Oscar Aubrey and the late Mr. Aubrey of Manassas, and Mr. James Lawrence Gregory, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Lawrence Gregory of Manassas. The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Brewer of Washington, D. C.

Given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Oscar Aubrey, Jr., the bride wore a gown of white lace over satin made with a fitted bodice, Peter Pan collar, and long sleeves ending in a point over the wrist; the full skirt terminated in a train. Her finger-tip veil was held in place by a tiara of pearls, and her only piece of jewelry was a string of pearls, a gift of the groom. She carried a bouquet of white calla lilies and white roses.

Miss Mariam Gregory, sister of the groom, was maid of honor. She wore a gown of orchid satin, which featured a lace strapless bodice with a bolero jacket and a braided head band and long mits to match. She carried a bouquet of spring flowers. The bridesmaids, all of whom are sisters of the bride, were Mrs. Raymond Reid, Mrs. Al Rugo, and Mrs. Cartzendorf. They were attired in gowns, head bands, and mits of gold satin, identical in design to those worn by the maid of honor. They carried bouquets of spring flowers. Little Janice Wright, niece of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a dress of white satin, long white mits, and a white head band and carried a white basket of rose petals. Gary Platt, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

The mother of the bride wore a dress of navy blue crepe with navy blue accessories and a corsage of yellow roses. The groom's mother was attired in a dress of navy blue lace with matching accessories, and wore a corsage of variegated camellias.

Mr. John Gregory was his brother's best man. The ushers were Messrs. Elwood Gregory, brother of the groom, Wilson Aubrey, brother of the bride, and Oden Breeden, Jr.

Miss Mary Ann Sinclair played the nuptial music, and Miss Marian Smith and her brother, James, of Washington, sang, "I Love You Truly," "Because," and "O Promise Me."

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Lutheran Church Parish Hall, which was decorated for the occasion with white carnations, roses and palms. Mrs. Elmer Hurst cut the four-tiered wedding cake, which was adorned with white wedding bells and white streamers. Miss Anna Marie Hibbs and Mrs. Jean Hurst presided at the punch bowls.

costume a navy blue suit with winter white accessories, and wore a white orchid.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Sometimes Good Intentions Aren't Enough

That first of the Griffin place didn't do much damage last week, but Volunier Chief Murphy was pretty angry about it. Spoke to some of us over dinner and a bottle of beer.

"Griffin's farm is a good mile from town," he said. "And by the time we'd dodged all the people on the highway who were going to watch, we hadn't a minute to waste."

"Then blamed if those sight-seers hadn't parked cars right in Griffin's driveway and there was a mob of people milling around the house—just gawking. Joe, tell folks a fire's no side-show. Ask 'em to think of the other fellow!"

From where I sit, some of us need to be reminded occasionally that even though our intentions are good we may be unfairly interfering. Whether it's blocking the right-of-way of fire equipment or criticizing a person's right to enjoy a temperate glass of beer now and then—the American Way is to give soap, and give the other fellow his fair "share of the road!"
