

This 'n That

Wonderful weather we're having. It's a customary salutation, either or not. But how true of the few days. Makes a fellow want to go fishing, play golf, take off from the daily grind. The office assistant even made the remark: "You're not in office as much since it's so nice outside."

From Stewart Eustace, who has been sojourning in Florida for a few weeks comes a card: "Weather is water wonderful. This is a real 'to be in Florida. See you soon.'"

Garland Farris is flying high these days. He's recently acquired plane... a Taylorcraft two-seater.

Linton Hall Military School at Quantico has issued invitations for 20th Annual Military Day, Sunday, May 20. Military high mass will be at 10:30 a. m. and competitive drills at 2:30 p. m. Both on standard time.

Traffic checkers have been observed on Manassas streets this week. These counters are placed by the State Highway Department to measure traffic over local thoroughfares. It would be too much to hope that the check would mean needed repairs and improvements.

The Lions Club of Quantico is holding its annual festival this week. Lots of rides and fun for young and old alike. Proceeds from the affair are to help finance the club's recreational program.

Haydon Takes College Post At Madison

Of wide local interest was the announcement from Richmond last week that Richard C. Haydon, assistant superintendent of public instruction of the State Department of Education, has resigned that position, as of July 1, to accept post at Madison College in Harrisonburg. Mr. Haydon's new position will again closely associate him with the field of education in this area.

Mr. Haydon, who was superintendent of public instruction when Haydon accepted appointment to the state department, is connected with the public school system of Prince William County for many years. Mr. Haydon was county superintendent from 1924 until 1946, when he became associated with the State Department of Education. Prior to that time he had been principal of Bethel High School, now Occoquan, and of schools in Alexandria and Loudoun County. A native of this county, Haydon, 40, is the son of Mr. William Henry Haydon and Mrs. Mary Haydon, and is widely known in the county. He received his education in the schools of Prince William and in the Manassas Institute, and obtained his B.S. and M.S. degrees in education at the University of Virginia.

Mr. Haydon, also a native of the county, is the former Miss Irene Haydon. They have two children, Mr. C. Haydon, Jr. and Catherine Haydon.

As co-ordinator of in-service teacher education at Madison, Haydon will act as liaison between the teacher-training college and practical teaching problems in the field. Part of his duties will be a follow-up on the work of recent teacher graduates. The position of co-ordinator is a newly established one, and carries out the recommendation of a former executive committee of the college, made prior to the appointment of Mr. Miller as president.

Firemen Respond To Alarm At Yorkshire

The Manassas Volunteer Fire Department responded to a call Tuesday noon to the home of O. H. Reeves at Yorkshire. Mrs. Reeves called for aid when she noticed smoke coming through the floor. Firemen discovered that it was caused by an oil furnace backfiring. No damage resulted.

4-H Boys From County Go To Camp, June 11

Prince William County 4-H boys will hold their annual camp at the Jamestown 4-H Camp, near Williamsburg, Va., during the week of June 11 to 16, County Agent Frank Cox announced this week.

About 50 local boys are expected to attend this camp. The purpose of which is to give the members a planned educational and recreational program. The camp is equipped with modern and sanitary facilities, including electric lights, showers, screened cabins, mess hall, playgrounds and swimming areas. Adult leaders from the county will accompany the group. Tours will be made to the Mariners Museum in the Norfolk area, historical places of interest in Williamsburg, and to Jamestown Island by the boys while in camp.

Transportation will be by bus, leaving from Manassas on Monday morning, June 11, and returning on Saturday afternoon, June 16. A registration fee of $12.50 will cover transportation, room, board, insurance and handicraft.

Further details, including a list of things the camper should take with him, will be sent after his application to the County Agent's office has been approved by a committee of County 4-H Leaders.

The camp will be adequately supervised by local club leaders and county and state extension workers. Prince William 4-H delegations have attended the Jamestown Camp nearly every summer for the past eighteen years, except for a few years when it was closed during World War II.

County Tops Quota For Red Cross

The 130 workers in the 1951 Red Cross Fund Campaign can now relax in the satisfaction of a job well done. According to the final report submitted last week by Mrs. Joseph M. Hanson, campaign chairman of the Prince William County chapter, the county goal of $3,300 was exceeded by $16, the total amount collected being $3,316.

Two districts exceeded quotas. Brentsville District, with a quota of $330, reported $352.95; Manassas District, with a quota of $1,650, reported $1,852.05. The Negro Division, under the chairmanship of Miss Naomi Wright, accounted for $228.62 of the county total. A total of 132 individuals contributed $1.00 or more each, and thus became voting members of the County Red Cross Chapter. The National Red Cross has issued citations to the chapter and the fund chairman for the successful conduct of the campaign.

A detailed report of the campaign will be carried in the next issue of The Journal.

SEALS BULL

Brooke E. Allen, a Brown Swiss breeder of Gainesville, Va., has recently sold the bull, M. F. Anthony, to a buyer for $10,000. The bull, a son of W. Austin, Gaines, Va., according to a report from Fred S. Idles, secretary of the Brown Swiss Cattle Breeders' Association, Beloit, Wisconsin.

Farm Bureau In County Is Discussed At Meeting

Representative farm leaders from all over Prince William County met Wednesday evening, May 16, at the Stonewall Jackson Hotel in Manassas and discussed plans for organizing a Farm Bureau in this county. A great deal of interest seemed to exist and plans were made for another meeting on June 4.

W. M. Cline was appointed temporary chairman of the information and membership drive committee, and William Young was appointed as temporary secretary-treasurer. The chairman in turn appointed William H. Wheeler, Mr. Paul Irvin and Egbert W. Thompson, Jr., Mr. A. Hubbard, executive secretary of the Virginia Farm Bureau Federation, told the assembly something of the job Farm Bureau is doing today. He pointed out that farmers as a group are on trial for their very existence today and presented facts to back up the statement. He showed the group that farmers must unite their voices in order to be heard on such

Auto Accident Proves Fatal To Manassas Girl; 3 Are Hurt

Death rode the highway in this section over the weekend when one young Manassas woman failed to survive injuries and three others were hurt when the car in which they were riding crashed into the Bull Run bridge on Route 28, near here, at 2 a. m. Saturday.

Miss Wanda Walters, 23, driver of the car, died Monday night in an Arlington hospital, where she was rushed following the mishap. She had a possible fracture of the skull and never regained consciousness.

The three other young women, Beatrice Underwood, 18, received chipped collar bone and bruises; Katherine Herford, 18, neck injury; Marion Martin, 23, cut on leg.

Walter Callahan, Manassas, also a passenger in the car, was unhurt.

CAUGHT AT SUNDAY'S GAME—Looking forward to the start of the game here Sunday with the Manassas Macs, which they won 5-2, are Occoquan players, Guy Shepherd, pitcher; Buddy Murphy, catcher; Melvin Shepherd, pitcher; J. K. Gilliam, manager. Melvin Shepherd pitched for the visitors.

Parade For Guardsmen Monday

Quantico Lions Festival Now In Full Swing

Good weather is aiding the annual festival sponsored by the Quantico Lions Club, which is being held all this week at the Lions Memorial Field.

Large crowds have enjoyed the many attractions and rides which are being featured. On Saturday, special prices will prevail on all rides.

Co-chairmen of the event are E. Louis Ferlazzo and Percy Brown. The booths are being operated by members of the club.

Proceeds from the affair will be used to pay off indebtedness on the recreation center, which has proved a job to the many who reside in the Quantico area.

Triangle And Lorton Men On Casualty List

Among Korean war casualties reported from this area by the Department of Defense are Triangle and Lorton men.

Listed as wounded in action is Captain John L. Kelly of the Marine Corps. He is the husband of Mrs. John L. Kelly, whose address was given at the Gethwaite Apts., Triangle. It is learned that the Kellys lived at Triangle for about 8 months but gave up their apartment when Capt. Kelly left for overseas last fall.

Missing in action is Eric Benjamin F. Terrell, of the Army, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed L. Terrell, Lorton.

Prince William Post Nominates Officers

At the regular monthly meeting of Prince William Post, 158, American Legion, Monday night, Howard Churchill showed two movies, a defense film, "Power Is Peace," and "Minstrel Days," which showed the history of the minstrel show.

E. G. Parrish, chairman of the nominating committee brought in the nomination for Post Officers for the next year. Election will be held at the June meeting. It was voted to have the installation service on the 3rd Monday night in August as the Department convention will be held in Roanoke at the time of the regular meeting night, August 13th.

Delegates to the 8th District convention to be held on Sunday, June 3rd, at the Washington and Lee High school in Arlington, were elected as follows: E. G. Parrish, Marshall Haydon, A. O. Mauck, and C. H. Wine, Jr.

M. S. Burchard, chairman of the Legion Exposition, stated that plans were coming along fine and the show to be held at Longview Park from July 2-7 promises to be the best yet sponsored by the Post.

Manassas To Give Boys A Big Farewell

All Manassas is expected to turn out for the parade Monday as a final farewell gesture to members of the 177th AAA Operational Detachment, Virginia National Guard, which has been called to active service and will leave for Camp Stewart, Ga., on Tuesday.

The parade will begin at 1 p. m. D.S.T., according to John Shireman, chairman of arrangements.

The Manassas Ice & Fuel Co., on Center street will be the assembling point for the marchers, who will parade west on Center street and proceed to the high school grounds where a brief ceremony will be held.

The parade will be headed by the National Guard unit, followed by several bands, including the Osborn High School band, Quantico Marine band, Nokesville High band and a band from Linton Hall Military School. It is possible that one or more civic organizations will also participate.

School children will be permitted to attend the parade, with the announcement that the schools here will be closed for the afternoon. Business firms are also requested to close during the parade.

Royally Feted

Tuesday night at Nokesville High, members of the Guard and their lady guests were royally entertained at a sumptuous banquet, which had been arranged by six local organizations. Dr. D. D. Upton, retired army chaplain, of Arlington, was the principal speaker.

Reuben Hicks presided as toastmaster and called on representatives of the various participating organizations for a few remarks.

The organizations, jointly sponsoring the banquet and their representatives were: C. B. Ben, Chamber of Commerce; Lacey Compston, Kiwanis; Ned Bradford, E. N. Ross, Lions; Harry Swann, Clay Wood, Nokesville Ruritan; James V. Davis, Veterans of Foreign Wars; Reuben Hicks, American Legion.

About 75 attended the affair and enjoyed the delicious repast.

The National Guard unit was sworn in Tuesday with many records to their credit. Everyone of the four officers and 26 enlisted men passed their physical exams, and not one man thought of asking for a discharge. When other Virginia guard units have been called back, there have been hardship cases, physical disabilities, or schooling that had to be finished. But this was not true with the Manassas guardsmen. Every man passed, every man wanted to do his duty. The unit also has the distinction of being the youngest of Virginia National Guard organizations, having been organized only last October.

Starter Dies From Injuries At Race Track

An official of the Longview Park Speedway is dead, and a rider in the motorcycle races was hurt in accidents that occurred during the races at the local track Sunday.

Robert A. Hartley, 31, of Washington, died in an Arlington hospital Tuesday night from injuries received while acting as official starter for the races. He was struck by a motorcycle, driven by James Bigelow, 22, of Alexandria, who had made two turns around the track, in a warm-up before the trial heats. The motorcycle hit Hartley who was standing in the middle of the track.

HITS FENCE

In a second accident, Paul M. Waters, Hagerstown, Md., crashed into fence during one of the races. He suffered a broken leg and was rushed to Arlington hospital.

THE LAMP IN THE WINDOW

Symbolic of the earlier days of American pharmacy was the lighted lamp in the drug-store window. All through the night it glowed, a beacon of hope, a symbol of unselfish service. It identified the drug store as a haven of refuge, promised relief and comfort to the sick and afflicted. Pharmacy has in its heritage many glorious traditions, of which the lamp in the window is but one. Although the historic lamp is now practically extinct, the fundamentals of pharmaceutical practice have changed very little. The responsibilities of the pharmacist are greater today than ever before. We are ready and eager to shoulder these responsibilities in your behalf. When a prescription must be filled, let us serve you.

TALKING IT OVER—Manager Kite Roseberry and Russ Polen, ace pitcher, of Manassas Macs, discuss strategy as they prepare to tangle with Occoquan here last Sunday.

White Oak Sets Fast Pace For Loop Lead; Macs Lose Again

With the League season only three weeks old, White Oak is setting a fast pace for other clubs in the "A" Division of the Northern Virginia League. The White Oakers made a three in a row Sunday, and lead the circuit by a half game over Nokesville, which has two victories to date but has played an even less game. Occoquan, with an even .500 average, is third, Bristerburg fourth, and Triangle and Manassas are tied for the cellar position.

MACS LOSE TO OCCOQUAN
The Manassas Macs tasted their second defeat in as many games at Swavely Field, Sunday, when they bowed to Occoquan, 5-2. Leading 2-1 going into the 8th inning, the visitors took advantage of the Macs' errors to roll up four tallies and the ball game.

It was a heartbreaker to lose for Pitcher Russ Polen, who has hurled 18 innings during the season to date without having an earned run scored on him. In each game, weak support afield has proved costly.

For the Macs, Jackie Saylor led with three singles and Buddy Merchant chalked up two. Others accounting for singles were Monk Crabbill, Dee Vetter, C. H. Wine, Junior Roseberry and Stewart Vetter.

Melvin Shepherd, on the mound for Occoquan gave up ten hits but kept them well spaced and proved unusually effective with men on base.

WHITE OAK WINS CLOSE ONE
It was nip-and-tuck in the battle between White Oak and Triangle, with the White Oakers scoring in the ninth to give them the edge, 3-2, and a clean slate, of three wins thus far. Both teams accounted for 8 hits. Thomas, winning pitcher, drove in his club's third tally when he connected in the 9th inning.

Triangle, which showed up poorly in its opener a week ago, exhibited surprising strength. Otis Peachier proved the big man with the stick for the losers, hitting a three-bagger and a single. Carlin Posey collected a double and single. Dallas Posey had two singles and Shelton and Reynolds one each. On the mound for Triangle was Top, Amidon.

NOKESVILLE WINS

The Nokesville Bremen kept right behind White Oak for the League led by trouncing Bristerburg, 14-3. Bill Brown pitched superb ball for the winners, limiting Bristerburg to 5 hits, all of which were singles by Lee, A. Dye, Hurlock, Trenis and W. R. Grove.

Hitting the horsehide for Nokesville were Reid and R. King with three singles each. Owens got two singles and Carrio, Brown and Flickinger one apiece. Shepherd connected for a double.

Izaak Walton Chapter To Elect Saturday

Members of Prince William County chapter, Izaak Walton League, will meet Saturday night at 7 o'clock (DST) at the Manassas Coffee Shop to elect officers for the coming year.

Congressman George Miller, of California, will address the meeting. Mr. Miller is former executive director of the California Fish and Game Commission.

A moving picture will also be shown at the meeting.

Quantico Wins Over Manassas Macs, 9-6

The Manassas Macs lost a hard fought game to the Quantico School Troop nine here Tuesday night. The final score was 9-6.

The Macs got off to a good start and led until the sixth, when the Marines went out in front and were never headed.

Rucker and Floyd divided the mound duties for the locals. Leon Mills and Glenn Slusher led with two hits apiece, while Merchant and Jackie Saylor got a single each.

Field Day Enjoyed At Woodbine School

By Emily Fletcher, Woodbine S. C. A. Reporter

Field Day was held at Woodbine School last Friday. Parents and friends turned out to view the pupils' work which was attractively exhibited.

The fourth and fifth grade boys engaged in a softball game with boys from the three fifth grades at Bennet School. The Woodbine team, although greatly outnumbered, won handily 23-9. Principal Lynn and Coach Fortuna accompanied the visiting team.

After the game, the Woodbine S. C. A. served cold drinks and cookies to about 200. Everyone had a good time, and Woodbine pupils and teachers enjoyed entertaining parents, friends, and the visitors from Bennet.

STILL LOOKING for a few choice bits of news for this column. Some of the boys promise to help us out. One can get quite an earful listening to the post mortems exchanged by Buddy Merchant and Harold Goldberg on the results of Sunday's game with Occoquan. Yes, the Macs "just threw another" away.

OF COURSE, that doesn't take any credit from the boys from Occoquan, who played "bang-up" ball and were quick to capitalize on the breaks of the game. More power to them!

IT'S SURE tough on a pitcher to lose two games in a row without giving up an earned run. That's the record of Russ Polen, after hurling 18 consecutive innings for the Macs. He deserves a better break . . . or should we say a better fielding behind him.

HEAR that Dallas Posey, who formerly managed the now disbanded Manassas Red Sox, has signed up two new players, Russ Loveless and Bing Lewis. Posey would like nothing better than to beat the Macs when they clash for the first time this season at Triangle, Sunday. And that goes for the Macs, too. It should be a humdinger!

NOT A WORD about softball. Understand there used to be quite a lot of interest in the sport around here. It still isn't too late to get some leagues started.

ALLEN FLETCHER must have got up pretty early Sunday morning. Said he played 18 holes of golf at Fairfax and still had time to make church at Warrenton.

Regional Hi Trounces Bowling Green, 14-1

Manassas Regional High defeated Union High of Bowling Green, 14-1, on the Regional High field Tuesday afternoon.

The visitors, who won the 1950 state championship, couldn't solve the offerings of Fisher, of Manassas, who gave up but three hits to notch his second consecutive win. Blackwell, shortstop captain of the home team drove in three runs with a smashing home run to deep center in the 5th. Donald Byrd got a triple, double and single to lead the 18-hit attack against the losers. Fancy base running by Brown, Newman, Wilms and Carter kept the opposing pitchers rattled throughout the entire game.

The Bulldogs led off in the first inning when Reed Poles smacked a single to right field.

Earlier in the season, the locals lost to Union, 9-8, in a game played at Bowling Green.

May 22 they take on Phelps of Washington. Another is scheduled with St. Emma on the 24th. Both games will be played at the local field at 1 p. m. (EST).

Osborn Hi Mauled By Falls Church, 14-4

In a night game at Swavely field last week, Osborn High School took a 14-4 drubbing at the hands of Falls Church.

Errors proved the locals' downfall, with Hull and Beasley giving up only 9 hits, as compared to 8 safeties racked up by Osborn, which included a double and a single by Rudolph Pittman and three singles by David Barber.

Osborn will play James Monroe High at Fredericksburg this Friday.

Softball League To Be Organized Here

A community softball league for the summer months will again be sponsored by the Manassas Recreation Association, according to Rick Saunders, program chairman. Regulations and schedule are being prepared. Mr. Saunders expects that all persons, groups and firms interested in managing or sponsoring a team in the league meet with him and his committee next Tuesday at 8 p. m. (EST) at the Parish Hall.

County Lags Reforestation

The Virginia Forest Service recently closed the spring reforestation season by announcing that more than 4,250,000 forest tree seedlings have been planted in Virginia last fall. Although this is a slight increase over last year, it does not show the great progress being demonstrated by owners in replanting their idle land with forest tree seedlings. To an unequaled demand for forest tree planting stock the State nurseries were unable to supply many requests. Prince William County, which is below the State average, planted 6,000 seedlings or enough to restock 8 acres this spring. Landowners who wish to order seedlings for the next fall or spring planting seasons are urged to do so now. By getting your application in now you will be sure to get your seedlings. Special available this year are shortleaf pine, loblolly pine, white pine, yellow poplar, red pine and black walnut. Applications may be given to Forest Warden T. Gordon at Gainesville, Virginia, or to the District Forester, Box 2, University Station, Charlottesville, Virginia.

Beef Shortage, Black Markets Possible Result of OPS Order

Shortages of beef, and black marketing, probably will result from the recently announced Office of Price Stabilization orders concerning rail-backs on beef cattle prices, says Dr. J. L. Maxton, agricultural economist at V. P. I.

More immediately, Dr. Maxton sees the likelihood of "farmers trying to beat the gun" and selling their cattle before the orders go into effect.

This off-season marketing of cattle at inefficient weights will itself result in over-supply and somewhat lower prices immediately, the economist believes.

Another effect of the order might be that packers will buy at the lower prices to replace their present inventories, and may suffer little loss. The main loss will be borne by the farmer who bought at pre-order prices.

Those farmers — and there are many in Virginia — who bought high-priced stockers and feeders to be finished as grass-fed cattle, are in a particularly bad position, Dr. Maxton says. He also believes many producers may choose to sell feeder calves they purchased as veals before an expected rail-back is put on veal prices.

Mrs. George Bowman, Former Resident, Dies

Mrs. George E. Bowman, 89, former resident of Manassas, died Wednesday at 4 p. m. in Garfield Hospital, Washington. The funeral will be held Friday at 2 p. m. at Baker Funeral Home, Manassas. Rev. John Edens will officiate.

Mrs. Bowman, the former Georgia Woodyard, was born in Manassas in April, 1862, and lived practically all her life here. She moved to Chevy Chase, Md., about five years ago to make her home with her son, R. M. Florence.

She was twice married. Her first husband was W. M. Florence. She was well-known and highly respected in Manassas, where she had a wide circle of friends.

Besides her son, of Chevy Chase, she also leaves one daughter, Mrs. C. H. Wine, of Manassas.

SOCIAL SECURITY

By Ruth G. Duffy, Manager, Alexandria Social Security Office.

Sunday, May 13, was Mother's Day. All over our land tribute was paid to mothers by visits of children, by speeches over radio, and by various remembrances sent to mothers by children too far away from home to visit them.

Recently a minister talking to a group said that the mother holds the job which yields the greatest amount of influence in modern life. Comparing the variety of work which women are doing away from home with the job of the mothers who stay at home, this speaker pointed out that "the home is where the man and woman take hold of the social situation of the world. It is the handle, so to speak, of our social structure. In the home we have a better chance than any place to put into operation the ideals of the Kingdom of God."

After reading this profound statement, I asked myself, "How does our Social Security program help in promoting high ideals and in keeping a family together?" It does so in the following ways:

(1) A wife gets monthly benefits if her husband is receiving benefits if she is 65 or over, OR at any age if she and her husband have a child under 18 who is entitled to benefits. (2) A widow gets monthly benefits if her husband was insured at death if there are one or more dependent unmarried children under 18. The children also receive benefits. If there were no children entitled to benefits, the widow would get monthly payments if 65 or over. (3) A mother, or parent, 65 or over can receive monthly benefits if her son or daughter, at death, was fully insured and was not survived by a widow, child, or widower, who could become entitled to benefits. The mother or parent would have to have been dependent for at least half of her support from the deceased child.

The most of the money being paid to beneficiaries under the Old-Age and Survivors Insurance program goes to wives, widows 65 and over, and young widows with children. The day-to-day living of many in each of these classes has been made easier and happier by the sense of security the payments give them. This protection has kept many young widows from having to work outside the home, put their young children in orphanages, home of relatives, foster homes, or actually giving them up through adoption by another financially able to care for them.

Another factor for Virginia farmers to consider, Dr. Maxton says, is the emphasis which has been put on the pasture program. Now cattle may be summarily sold off thousands of acres of improved pastures, and farmers will no longer get full benefit of the grass.

A "seller's strike" which has been mentioned in some parts of the country, would do little good, the economist believes. Farmers are not likely to go on feeding cattle after they have reached the best market weight.

He says the present order, "which doesn't seem to take into account many important factors" probably will be modified after officials have had time to think it over and see "the disastrous effects to the industry resulting from their untimely and unfair action."

Boatwright's Promotion In Korean Dispatch

WITH IX CORPS, US ARMY IN KOREA—Lt. Col. Linton S. Boatwright, native of Manassas recently swapped the gold leaves of a major for the silver leaves of a lieutenant colonel when his promotion orders arrived April 21.

Serving with Maj. Gen. William M. Noge's IX Corps on the central Korean front, Colonel Boatwright is chief of the planning division in the plans and operations staff section. He joined IX Corps shortly after arriving in Korea last August.

During this time, the good-natured, hard-working colonel—known to his friends as "the Boat"—has helped mastermind IX Corps drives which in March and April rolled back North Korean and Chinese Reds along the key central Korean front and captured two vital communication centers, Hongchon and Chuncheon.

A graduate of the U. S. Military Academy, class of 1941, Colonel Boatwright received his commission in the Artillery and later spent two years in Europe with combat artillery units. For his services during World War II, he received the Bronze Star Medal and a Bronze Oak Leaf cluster and the French Croix de Guerre medal.

Twice during his service with IX Corps, Colonel Boatwright has received Bronze Oak Leaf clusters to his Bronze Star Medal.

His wife and their two-year-old son, Edward, live at 630 Kale St., Fayetteville, N. C.

Mrs. J. M. Young and Mrs. Wallace Rion represented the Catharpin Home Demonstration Club at the program Development and Spring Planning at the meeting of the County Federation held in Manassas on Tuesday, May 15th.

Miss Patsy Gosson is recuperating nicely in Physicians Hospital, Warrenton, after undergoing an appendectomy operation, and hopes to be home this week.

Mrs. Frances Melton continues to improve at Surburban Hospital, Bethesda, Md., and hopes to be home this week.

CATHARPIN CLUB

The Catharpin Home Demonstration Club met May 11 at Sudley Recreation Center. Mrs. Byron Woodside led the members in giving a teen-age party. Decorations and refreshments were carried out in purple and white. Ice cream and cake was served by the hostesses, Miss Evelyn Allison and Mrs. H. L. Anderson. Mrs. Wm. Hutchinson was appointed to take charge of the sale of a 25-lb. turkey. It was planned that members of the W.S.C.S. of Sudley Church and the Young People of Catharpin community would be invited as guests for the June 8th meeting of the Home Demonstration Club.

To Plant Trees As Memorials To War Dead

Tree plantings in memory of the nation's war dead will be made in Prince William County on Sunday, May 27, it was announced today by Vincent Walsh, of Woodbridge.

At 10 a. m. at the Manassas National Battlefield, the New Jersey State Society will plant a tree to the Korean war dead and another tree to the memory of General Kearney and the New Jersey soldiers, who died and who served on this battlefield in the campaigns.

The Korean memorial tree will be dedicated to Virginia's Korean War dead, and presented to the State of Virginia and its people by New Jersey State Society.

At Tanyard Hill, coming out of Occoquan, a set of five tree trees will be planted and dedicated to Prince William's military who served in the Spanish American, World War I, World War II and the Korean campaign. The fifth tree will be dedicated to all the military who served the State of Virginia in the Revolutionary War, War of 1812, Mexican War and Civil War.

Residents of the county are requested to volunteer their services for the committees of the memorial planting to their military who served and who died in the defense of their country. These will be dedicated Sunday, May 27th, at 2:30 p. m. Name plates will be added later near the trees to the individual memory of each serviceman.

The Tanyard Hill planting exercises committees desires volunteers to arrange the ceremonies as may be appropriate for the services to Prince William war dead and to those who served in the military.

Volunteers for these committees are requested to communicate with Mr. Walsh at Woodbridge.

Armed Forces Day May 19th

Major General Thomas W. Herren, Commanding General, Military District of Washington, has been named Armed Forces Day Area Commander for the Washington area by the Secretary of Defense.

The local activities of the second annual Armed Forces Day, Saturday, May 19, will be part of a nation-wide demonstration by the armed services of the teamwork which forged the world's greatest fighting machine.

Rear Admiral Glenn B. Davis, USN, Commandant of the Potomac River Naval Command, and Brigadier General Morris J. Lee, Commanding General, Headquarters Command, U. S. Air Force, will serve as cooperating commanders with General Herren to arrange for the public in this area an outstanding demonstration of the might of the armed forces.

The local observance will get underway during the week preceding Armed Forces Day with several service installations opening their gates to the public.

Saturday morning, May 19, there will be a colorful parade in Washington, featuring crack marching and mechanized units of the Army, Navy, Air Force and Marine Corps. The parade will start at the Capitol at 10 o'clock and proceed west along Constitution Avenue.

The Army and Marine Corps will show many of the most modern items of combat equipment. Reserve units of the armed services, representatives of veterans groups, high school cadets and many service and high school bands will march with the regular units of the services in this display of military strength.

The President of the United States, members of his Cabinet, members of the legislative and judicial branches of the government, officials of the Department of Defense and military, naval and air attaches of other countries will be invited to review the parade.

On Saturday afternoon, an outstanding display of modern fighting equipment and a joint demonstration

With summer and vacation time approaching, it's time to give leather luggage an inspection. Treat it with a dose of saddle soap to remove all the dirt. Follow with a rub-down of car wax. Or, to both clean and shine with a single application, rub a solution of equal parts of elder vinegar and linseed oil into the leather. Polish with a soft cloth. Canvas luggage responds to the soap and water treatment. If it's slightly discolored, add two tablespoons of ammonia to a quart of soapy water to clean up the canvas.

tion of unified military techniques will be staged at Bolling Air Force Base. The program there will include impressive demonstrations of ground operations and a dramatic show of the nation's air power.

Among the hundreds of elaborate exhibits will be many unusual items of equipment captured by our forces in Korea.

Special Armed Forces Day programs are being arranged by many area civic organizations. Business firms, too, will observe the occasion by displaying the flag, preparing special window displays and assisting the services in publicizing Armed Forces Day events.

LEGAL NOTICES

IN THE CLERK'S OFFICE OF THE CIRCUIT COURT OF PRINCE WILLIAM COUNTY, VIRGINIA, MAY 14TH, 1951.

MARY L. HARTLEY, Complainant v. JOHN W. HARTLEY, Defendant.

The object of the above styled suit is to obtain for the complainant a divorce a vinculo matrimonii from the defendant on the grounds of desertion for a period of more than two years. And it appearing by affidavit filed according to law that John W. Hartley, the above named defendant, is not a resident of this State, it is therefore ordered that the said John W. Hartley do appear within ten days after due publication of this order in the Clerk's Office of our said Circuit Court, and do what is necessary to protect his interest. And it is further ordered that this order be published once a week for four successive weeks in the Manassas Journal, a newspaper printed in the county of Prince William, Virginia. And it is further ordered that a copy of this order be posted at the front door of the court house of the said court, and that another copy of this order be mailed to the said defendant at the post office address given in the said affidavit.

WORTH H. STORKE, Clerk, Circuit Court of Prince William County, Virginia.

PAUL S. WILLIAMS, p.q. A TRUE COPY: WORTH H. STORKE, Clerk 4-4-c.

STOVE EXPLODES

A Mother's Day for Mrs. Cooper who felt the breath too close for comfort when she was in the kitchen exploded early Sunday afternoon. Fortunately the washing was pulled from its usual position and was standing just in the stove so that the flying fragments did not pierce clear through the washer and perhaps the life of Mrs. Cooper who was in a chair facing the stove which exploded. The flying fragments gouged the side of the cupboard on the right side of the room but did not miss the baby daughter, who was playing on the floor near the cupboard.
