

This 'n That

Hardly a week passes that we don't have the pleasure of meeting someone or hear of someone who served this paper in some capacity or other. Leading us to the fact that ex-Journal editors are "dime a dozen." All, be it or not, still have some attachment for the Journal, and it is not a bad idea if they do. A reunion. This week we are happy to meet Clarence Genger, up from Florida, where he is promotion manager for the Jacksonville Journal; also Marshall Johnson, now with the Associated Press in Richmond.

Great Moment for the 184 young men and women who are graduating from high school in Prince William county this week. It's off to work and art of earning a living for some, while others will enter other institutions of learning, whatever vocation they pursue, wherever they go, our best wishes success follow each and every one of them.

Mighty quiet... with Town section only four days away. Local newspapers seem to be making more noise than the candidates.

Sheriff John Kerlin is back in harness again after a siege of the hospital where he underwent a serious operation. Still a little pale and showing the loss of considerable poundage, as a result of his illness, the sheriff is "in" to go. "Sure, I'm a candidate for reelection," he said.

Dr. J. E. Marsteller is definitely a candidate for the School Board. He told your scribe this week that he considers himself a friend of both factions on the Board, and if elected, would do his best to bring them together for greater harmony.

VOTING HOURS In Tuesday's election to be held at the Town Hall from 6:30 a. m. to 7:30 p. m. (standard time). Green 800 and 900 are qualified to vote in this election.

Quantico town election next week promises a hotly contested affair. There are five Council candidates at stake and eight candidates plus a two-way race for mayor.

BOARD ELECTS GARBER TO FILL COUNTY SCHOOL POST

Hearing On School Board Appointment

Local interest is at high pitch over the public hearing to be held by the County School Trustee Electoral Board on Friday, 3 p. m. (DST) at the Court House. It is rumored that at least three names will be presented for consideration by the Electoral Board for appointment to the County School Board from the Manassas Magisterial District, for the four-year term.

Independent Hill Firemen Elect Officers

Officers for the coming year were elected at a meeting of the Independent Hill Volunteer Fire Department, Monday night.

James M. Russell, Jr. was elected president; Odie Warren, vice president; W. C. Reid, fire chief; John Oleyar, assistant chief; Paul Durak, captain; Thomas Holmes, first lieutenant; Clinton Shetley, 2nd lieutenant; Francis S. Van Doren, Sr., secretary; Paul B. Cornwell, treasurer.

Fire Chief Reid made the following appointments: Frank Samsky, engineer; Allen Beaver, assistant engineer; L. V. Sutton, electrician; Louis Zackie, Sr., assistant electrician.

The regular meeting date was changed from the first Monday to the first Tuesday in the month.

County Men Get Legion District Posts

Philip R. Bantree, of Quantico, was elected first vice commander of the American Legion's 8th district at a meeting held Sunday at Arlington.

Mark A. Thomas, past commander of Post 114, Manassas, was elected third vice commander of the district.

Letter To Editor

Col. Kerr Questions "Quantico Getting Most For 40c Tax"

The letter signed "Quantico Citizens," which appeared in your last issue of the "Journal," may have bemused some of your readers in the upper end of the county (we know better down this way) and I feel that a reply is in order.

As "Quantico Citizens" stresses the LOW TAX rate in Quantico of 40 cents I think it best to tackle that first. Compared to the tax rate of $1.50 which the citizens of Manassas are assessed, one would be led off hand to believe that Quantico tax payers are indeed lucky in having had such a low levy and should be eternally grateful to the wise and economical administration which they have.

But before you all in Manassas take off on Mayor Davis and consider him a wastrel you should consider a few things. Quantico maintains no Fire Department as the Marine Base has an outstanding one and gratuitously protects the town. Your Manassas town budget shows that you expect to spend $1250 for your Fire Department next year. Quantico has no sewerage disposal plant to upkeep, the Marine Base provides that, and without cost. Next year Manassas expects to spend $4,930.00 on sewerage disposal. The Marine Corps Base takes care of that—but you citizens of Manassas will spend $14,617.00 next year on your water works. Trash and garbage collection?

OSBOURN GRADUATES—Members of the Class of 1951, Osbourn High School, will receive their diplomas at exercises to be held at the school auditorium tomorrow night. Eight members of class, called to active duty with the Local National Guard

Unit, were not present when this picture was taken. They were granted leave, however, to participate in the commencement exercises this week. An impressive baccalaureate service was held at Grace Methodist Church last night.

Garber Will Oppose Hall For Supervisor

Manley Garber, wellknown young Woodbridge farmer, announced today that he would run for supervisor from Occoquan District, subject to the Democratic primary, August 12.

This makes a two-cornered race in the district now represented by Supervisor R. S. Hall, who is seeking reelection for the third term.

Garber has lived at Woodbridge practically all his life. He is a director of the Prince William Electric Cooperative and chairman of the board of trustees of the Washington City Brethren Church. He is 26 years old.

Izaak Walton Banquet At Forest Park

The annual banquet of the Prince William Chapter of the Izaak Walton League will be held at Camp Three in Prince William Forest Park, Saturday, at 7 p. m. (Daylight).

The public is invited; and, as in former years, all are invited to come early in the afternoon and fish in the streams, walk along the attractive forest paths, and enjoy the park generally.

A group of Nokesville ladies will be on hand to prepare the supper in the Camp 3 Lodge, and that always means a satisfying meal may be expected.

The associate director of the National Park Service, Conrad L. Wirth, will be the speaker for the evening, and a color motion picture on a wildlife subject will be shown.

A Magician In The House?

Where to put 70 boys and girls in quarters already filled to capacity, and in many instances beyond capacity, will be just one of the problems confronting school officials next fall. Osbourn High School population will decrease by 55, the number now graduating, but will increase by approximately 125 boys and girls expected to enroll in the incoming 8th grade from the Haymarket and Bennett Elementary Schools. Occoquan High School will face much the same situation with its incoming 8th grade from Occoquan and Dumfries. Nokesville High School will receive into its 8th grade approximately twice as many as are graduating.

VFW Carnival Proved An Outstanding Success

The carnival sponsored by the Francis Cannon Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, held last week in Northeast Manassas, proved a big success and netted the Post a substantial sum toward paying off the indebtedness on the Post home. John O. Gregory, general chairman of the event, expressed his appreciation to the general public, members of the Post and others who lent their assistance in making the carnival such a grand success.

Quantico Post To Send 2 Boys To Boys' State

L. R. Peters, commander of Quantico Post, 28, American Legion, announced today that the Post had chosen two young men to attend this year's Legion-sponsored Old Dominion Boys' State at V. P. I. Blacksburg, July 15-21.

Selected for this honor by Post 28 are Murray E. Sanford, a junior at Quantico Post high school, and James M. Barbee, Jr., of Occoquan high school.

Young Sanford is son of Murray Sanford, Sr., a retired Master Marine Sergeant, residing in Quantico. Young Barbee is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Barbee, Sr., of Occoquan.

Conducted annually since 1939 by the Virginia Department of the American Legion, the Boys' State sessions give boys from all parts of the state an opportunity to gather at V. P. I. for a week to see in action the principles of Democracy.

Here to attend the graduation of Miss Joyce Bolton from Osbourn High School are Mrs. Richmond H. Peters, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Bolton, Jr., of Fincastle, and Miss Jean Aurich Bolton, of Roanoke College, Salem. They are the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Bolton.

Herndon Doctor Opens Office at Centreville

Dr. A. E. Salazar, of Herndon, has opened an office at Centreville, which will be located in the same office, formerly occupied by Dr. O. D. Yarbrough, who has been called into the armed service.

Office hours will be the same as maintained by Dr. Yarbrough, excepting Saturdays and Sundays.

Correspondents are requested to send copy in early.

Roy Helms Announces As Candidate For Supervisor

A two-way race for supervisor in the Manassas district is assured with the announcement made this week by Roy Helms, of Yorkshir, that he would definitely be a candidate for the office. He will be opposed by J. Carl Kincheole, the present incumbent, who is seeking reelection.

It has been rumored that Mr. Helms might be a candidate but he had not made public announcement until this time.

Although this is the first time that he has run for public office, Mr. Helms is wellknown in Manassas and throughout the county. He recently organized and directed the vigorous opposition to the proposed zoning ordinance which led to the abolishment of the County Planning Commission by the Board of Supervisors.

In the fall of 1949, he led opposition to legislation proposed by the State Health Department, in cooperation with county health authorities. The proposal was voted down by the Supervisors.

Mr. Helms was sanitation officer for the county for six years. The people of the Triangle-Dumfries area remember his efforts there on behalf of the public water project, in spite of the lack of cooperation from the State Health Department.

At the present time Mr. Helms is conducting a fire, automobile and hospitalization insurance agency with headquarters in Yorkshir and Centreville. He has had fifteen years experience as high school principal. Mrs. Helms is a teacher at Osbourn High School.

Mr. Helms is a graduate of Elon College, in North Carolina. He also holds a master's degree from the University of Virginia and a master's degree from Columbia University of New York City.

Some time ago an article was carried in one of the local papers on Mr. Helms as "The Farmer of the Week," a feature article written by Mr. Hall, the assistant county agriculture agent of Prince William County. Mr. Helms conducts a model three-acre farm, which is also used for demonstration purposes by the students of Osbourn High School. This farm carries on large poultry and turkey projects.

NO CLINICS NEXT WEEK There will be no clinics at the County Health Department for the week, beginning June 11th. However, the office will be open for other routine work.

Correspondents are requested to send copy in early.

Candidates in Council Race

HARRY PARRISH Manassas voters go to the polls Tuesday to elect two councilmen, and a mayor to serve for four-year terms. Pictured above are three of the four candidates seeking seats on the Council. Edgar Rohr, Arthur Carter and Harry Parrish. Missing is Ferris Gue, incumbent, who is seeking re-election, and has neglected to send his picture to The Journal so that it could be published with the other candidates.

ARTHUR CARTER Mayor Harry Davis is unopposed in his bid for another term, so interest centers in the Council race with four candidates battling for the two seats to be filled. Gue, who was appointed to the Council last August to fill the unexpired term of James Rice, resigned, is engaged in the plumbing business here.

EDGAR ROHR Dr. Wallace Look, whose term expires, is not seeking re-election. Other members of the Council are Mrs. Frances Saunders and Roy Doggett, whose terms have two more years to run. There are two factions on the Council, one led by Doggett, who is active in his support of Gue and Carter, while Saunders-Hook are backing Rohr and Parrish. On the outcome of the election will depend future Council control.

ROY HELMS About 550 Beltsville white turkey poultis will soon be started on the farm.

Mr. Helms is a member of the Manassas Baptist Church, and is teacher of the men's Bible class. This class has an enrollment of about 40 men who take an active part in the activities of the church.

Mr. Helms was instrumental in the organization of the Yorkshir Civic Group in 1947, serving as its first president, and holding various offices and taking an active part ever since its founding. The Yorkshir Civic Group is one of the most active community groups in Prince William County.

In mentioning some of the principles for which he would stand, Mr. Helms says that he sees need for economy in the government of the county, and a righteous indignation against the moral proclivities of the times.

At the outset he pledges himself to make every effort during his term in office to keep the pay for the members of the Board of Supervisors at its present level instead of having it raised to $1,800 which has been made permissible through special legislation recently passed. And he says that the Prince William County tax rate is too great a burden for the people to bear.

4-H Boys Enrolling For Jamestown Camp

4-H Boys from the Nokesville, Haymarket, Gainesville, Catharpin, Manassas, Dumfries, Woodbine, Cannon Branch and Bethel 4-H Clubs are enrolling for their annual 4-H Camp and Short Course to be held at Jamestown from June 11 to 16, inclusive. A feature of the week will be a course in making efficient use of electricity on the farm and shop work in making labor-saving farm electrical equipment. Lewis D. Wissinger, Asst. County Agent, Edward Russell and Haynes Davis, Jr., Osborn High School senior and a member of the Gainesville 4-H Club, will serve as "Big Chief" of the camp which will be organized on a tribal basis.

The Rt. Reverend Robert F. Gibson, Suffragan Bishop of the Diocese of Virginia, was the luncheon guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Galleher, following the Confirmation Service at Trinity Church on Sunday. Other guests were Rev. E. Guthrie Brown, rector; Mr. Wm. Hill Brown, Jr., Trinity Sunday School superintendent, and Mrs. Brown.

Gainesville Splits With Marshall in Twin Bill

Gainesville drew an even break in its doubleheader with Marshall, Sunday, winning the first game, 13-0, and dropping the nightcap, 13-10.

In the opener, Collins led the winners with a home run. King slammed a triple and McCuin had three singles to his credit.

Holt was the winning pitcher. In the second game, the Gainesville club called on three pitchers, Polen, Holt and Utterback, in an effort to stop the Marshall attack.

White Oak Plays Macs Here Sunday

The Manassas Macs, now tied with Nokesville for runner-up berth in the "A" division, Northern Virginia League, will be out to stop White Oak here Sunday.

White Oak, undefeated to date in league play, has a head start for the league lead but the Macs are determined to spoil their clean record.

ENDURANCE CONTEST
that doubleheader between Manassas and Nokesville, Sunday. One of the hottest days of the year, players on both teams were pretty well tuckered out after playing two games that totaled 19 innings and decided by one-run margins. We take it was more than enough baseball for one day. At least the fans got their money's worth.

RALPH HESSE is smiling broader than usual after soundly beating ye scribe in a golf match Sunday. The big fellow is now looking around for some new and stiffer competition, while "yours truly" is hoping for a return match. Eight local divot diggers enjoyed the Quantico layout Sunday with Ned Bradford carding low score.

LOST to the Macs for at least a few weeks are the services of Floyd "Shorty" Vetter, who injured his right hand in the second game with Nokesville, Sunday. Irvin's spikes caught Vetter's gloved hand in a close play at second. Eight stitches were required to close the gash.

certainly should be for there is a lot of money in this town. I have even heard it rumored that there is a cash balance of around $25,000. But only a very selected few of the 1200 residents of the town can say that is true.

Your editorial recently taking the the Manassas Town Council to task for publishing a hazy budget has made some of Quantico citizens wonder, "Budget, what a budget?" You see they have never seen one for the town in 25 years.

I could go on and expose other misleading statements in the letter written by "Quantico Citizens", for example, the impression they leave that there is a Town Hall here which provides suitably for the meetings of Town Council. Actually Town Council meets in a room about 12 ft. by 10 ft., just large enough for the five councilmen and the mayor and a desk, but not large enough for any citizens to be present, when the council is taking up the affairs of the town.

In closing let me say that I accuse the "Founding Fathers", who "Quantico Citizens" would lead us to believe have given so unselfishly of their time over the past quarter century, of nothing but a desire to rule and rule alone unfettered by any suggestions from the citizens of the town. I dare say their attitude is natural in some folks. There was once a Commandant of the Marine Corps who lived in a house furnished him by the U. S. Government for 35 years. When the old fellow died he willed the house to his heirs. You see he felt he owned the place. I'm afraid the "Founding Fathers" (there are three of them) of Quantico have about the same outlook. They just never think of consulting the citizens of the town on matters of importance. A mass meeting or a public announcement that the Council will hold an open meeting to discuss a subject and all citizens are invited to attend and express their views, is unheard of here in Quantico. Why recently the town post office was moved by the Town Council was consulted let alone the citizens of the town. You see, 25 years is a long time.

Macs And Nokesville Battle On Even Terms in Twin Bill

Sunday's torrid temperature had nothing on the heated rivalry that usually exists when Nokesville and Manassas clash. It was a battle royal all the way as the two clubs clashed here Sunday in a doubleheader, with the Macs taking the first game 11-10 in nine innings and the visiting Firemen from Nokesville winning the nightcap by an identical score in a 10-inning battle.

First Game

Mayhugh, pitching his first game for the Macs, had rough going in the ninth when Nokesville accounted for seven runs to draw within one marker of tying the score.

Hitting honors for Manassas in the opener went to Crabill and Slusher, each getting a triple and a single. Bushy had a triple, Stuart Vetter two singles, while Floyd Vetter and Mayhugh got a single apiece.

For Nokesville, Irvin led at bat with a double and a triple. Teater had a double and a single. King, Hoke and Flockinger came thru with singles. Losing pitcher was Bill Brown.

Second Game

The nightcap had a thrilling finish. Manassas scored four runs in the ninth to force the game into an extra inning. The visitors tallied in the 10th to win the game.

As in the opener, Irvin was again the big wheel in the Nokesville attack, chalking up two homers and a single. Also handy with the willow was Fitzwater who banged out three singles. Owens, Teater, Reid and Jones accounted for two singles each and Brown got one. Jones was the winning pitcher.

The Macs, too, fattened their batting averages in this game. Crabill had a triple and two singles. Rudolph Pittman, Osborn high star, playing in his first game with the team, proved himself with a triple and three singles out of four times at bat. Holen came thru with a triple and a single. Other hits were singles by S. Vetter, D. Vetter, P. Vetter, J. Roseberry, K. Roseberry and Saylor. The losing pitcher was Russ Polen.

TRIANGLE VICTOR

Dallas Posey's Triangle club topped Ocoquan, 9-8, to win their second game of the season, although the losers made 15 hits to 9 for the victors.

Cline, first-sacker for Triangle, hit for the circuit. C. Posey knocked out three singles. Feacher had a double and Shelton, D. Posey and E. Posey a single each.

For Ocoquan, L. Gilliam led with four singles. Wiley had three, R. Gilliam and Murphy two apiece. Others hitting safely were Beahm, Hanley, Davis and E. Gilliam.

B. Posey started for Triangle and gave way to Tops Amidon, who took over in the fifth. Losing pitcher was G. Shepherd.

WHITE OAK WINS AGAIN

The boys from White Oak made it six straight by winning easily over Bristersburg, 14-5. Ola Bradshaw got credit for the win. Willie Grove was the losing pitcher.

The Senior Class of Osborn High School were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel M. Kalso, at a reception on Sunday afternoon.

But, what do we do on Sunday?

WELL, some of us go to church and Sunday school. Some work in the garden or the garage. Some golf, fish, ride, look at television. Some take the kids out, take the dog out, take the screens out. Some go to ball games, book clubs, movies or museums. Some have big Sunday dinners or backyard barbecues. Some cook, clean closets, take up hems, take up Canasta. Some catch up on sleep. Some just sit. Some go to work in jobs that can't stop on Sundays, some go to work in emergencies.

If that sounds like some people you know—well, it is—because we're talking about the more than 4,400 VEPCOVIANs who live in the communities where they work. Many of them your friends or neighbors, perhaps relatives. They have the same interests you do... pay the same taxes... spend their money with the same merchants. Workdays, they're busy with dozens of different jobs essential to bringing you the cheap, dependable electric service you're used to... but Sundays, they're just the folks next door... sitting next to you at church, swapping recipes or garden tools over the back fence. VEPCOVIANs are citizens and good neighbors where they work!

Your Vote Is Important

Every qualified voter has a duty to perform next Tuesday, June 12th, when the Town of Manassas holds its annual election. That duty is to exercise his or her voting option.

Too many of us often take our government for granted, and fail to fully appreciate one of our great privileges... the right to vote how or for whom we please. When we do that, we are shirking our duty.

Frequently, elections are decided by a single vote. And when you say, "my vote doesn't count," you never know how important your one vote might be.

Two Council seats are at stake in Tuesday's election. Seeking those two seats are four candidates, all of whom are wellknown in the community. The two men whom you select to the Council will be your representatives on this body for a four-year term.

It is therefore imperative that we cast our vote for the candidates whom we feel will best serve our town; will work together in harmony toward accomplishing a program of new and additional facilities now sorely needed to keep pace with Manassas growth.

The recent factionalism apparent on the Council has caused too many stalemates on important issues. The attitude of some members has been... "if you're for it, I'm agin' it," and vice versa.

It's no time for name calling, for delving in personalities or engaging in petty arguments.

It's high time, we buried the hatchet, forgetting personal jealousies or gains, to work together wholeheartedly for our town... MANASSAS.

Keep this in mind when you VOTE Tuesday.

Who brings your gas and oil to Main Street?

OIL WELLS, refineries, pipe lines and tank cars are mighty important to modern living. But important as they are, they can't get the gasoline and oil to your favorite service station. Or deliver fuel oil or kerosene to your home.

Who does that? Often it's your local oil company, your hometown independent jobber.

Many jobbers may have started with a small tank truck and a small storage tank down by the depot. Or opened a small service station with one pump. But in the true tradition of America, many have prospered and grown so that today they may store many thousands of gallons of oil and gas. Or operate a number of service stations in their communities.

Your jobber has become important because, as a local businessman, he knows what kind of service and products his neighbors want.

With demand for petroleum products today at an all-time high, your local oil jobber is doing the biggest job ever. Get to know him because he's important to your community.

Little Goats Judged

Cornucopia Farms Is Scene Of Annual Kid Show Sunday

By Mrs. Nicholas Webster

One of the more colorful events of the social season took place at Cornucopia Farms, home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Russell, on Sunday, June 3, when the Capital Dairy Goat Association held its annual Kid Show.

Goat breeders from many sections of Maryland and Virginia were represented, and the judge, Mrs. Dorothy Martin, was imported from Wrightstown, Pa. This Mrs. Russell explained, was to make certain of the utmost impartiality in judging, because goats, especially small child-goats, are a most engaging species of animal, given to good graces of authority by as many devious methods as their human counterparts.

Once you get to know a goat by its first name it is difficult to preserve a detached and critical attitude towards it, as this reporter ruefully discovered once at a lawn party when the hostesses had climbed in her lap and devoured half a package of Old Golds and one vitally strategic button before being dislodged.

But to get back to the Kid Show, spectators sat in an informal circle in the grass under the trees, animatedly discussing the proceedings. The young goats were tethered to a fence at one side of the house, where they enlivened the afternoon by butting matches, and getting their leashes snarled together and then crying for someone to come and untangle them. This was promptly dealt with by the offspring of the spectators, of whom there were many present. To gain attention when an announcement was to be made, a large gentleman with a cornet rendered a selection which the kids—corrected, small boys—identified instantly as "what they play in the movies just before the cavalry charges the Bad Indians." Comments on his performance were audible, and candid.

Among the breeds exhibited were Toggenburg, Nubian, French Alpine, and Saanen. All entries were one year of age, or younger, the females being known as "doelings." The Black Nubians especially struck our fancy. They came in an assortment of colors, black, black and tan, black and brown, salt and pepper, and a beautiful Irish-setter-red with black accents, most fashionable this season. Their ears are long, like those of a bloodhound, and apparently are stretched carefully every night by their mothers, since they curl stiffly outwards at the edges like a Dutch cap. One particularly handsome specimen named "Frivolous" had, we noted, a distinguished pedigree, being the daughter of "Satan" out of "Venus."

After the ribbons had all been awarded, we went down to the barn with Mrs. Igor Presnikoff to examine some of the Russell goats, Mr. Joe Fortuna left Tuesday morning for West Virginia University, Morgantown, W. Va., where he will attend the 1st session of summer school. He will receive his Master's Degree in Physical Education at the end of this session.

Pvt. Preston Anderson of Ft. Eustis, Va. spent Saturday night with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Anderson, of Catharpin. He sailed Sunday for two weeks cruise to the Bermuda Islands.

Mr. and Mrs. James Mitcalf of Chestertown, Md. were guests last weekend of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Smith at "The Cedars."

Mrs. Ruth Rodgers had as her guests last weekend, her sister, Mrs. Fontaine B. Hooft of Washington and her nephew and family, Mr. and Mrs. Fontaine B. Hooft and sons of Wheeling, W. Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Lyons were the guests several days this week of Mrs. Lyons' brother and sister-in-law, Capt. Fahney Waters, U. S. N. and Mrs. Waters at Virginia Beach.

the least you can do

THE EARLY GREEK PHYSICIANS believed that it was not possible for a man to enjoy perfect health unless he carefully organized his life to accomplish this single objective. This meant the meticulous ordering of each day. Proper nutrition, exercise, and rest were perfectly balanced. Physical constitution, age, and even the seasons of the year were considered.

For a man of affairs, such a regimen is out of the question. When your work is done, you play and exercise when you can. But this little you can do. See your family physician at least once a year. Follow his advice. In case medication is required, we are prepared to serve you, promptly and economically.
