Attracting considerable interest the Legion Exposition this week the display of old newspapers at the Journal booth. Included are of the Manassas Gazette, Manassas Democrat and Prince William Times that flourished for the time, then died or merged in the Journal.

Charlie Caviness is receiving nice compliments on the new neon sign that he has just erected at the Hotel Stonewall. It really stands out and is a bright spot to an otherwise business section at night. Let's see other business firms will follow Charlie's example to put Manassas a little more in the light.

Congratulations to Arnold van Elst, German exchange student, and Osbourn High School, on the honor that has come to this young man in being awarded an honorary state F. F. A. degree.

Wonderful exhibits! For a town of Manassas, the big tent at the Legion Exposition with its fine exhibits deserves all the compliments one might heap upon it. The Legion Post, which sponsors the event, and the merchants of Manassas are to be commended. Be sure and see it! You'll only enjoy the exhibits but meet your friends.

See you at the Exposition!

New Forestry Tax Amounts

One Per Acre

D. G. Wilfong, District Forester of the Virginia State Forestry of Charlottesville paid a Get acquainted visit to the Board of Supervisors in session today, to notify the Board of the new forestry tax of one per acre. He said there are 18,000 acres of forestland in Prince William County, making a total of $18 per year that the forestry service will spend in this county for forest fire fighting and reforestation work.

Lacey Compton appeared before the Board, requesting that he be authorized to rent more office space in the present three rooms rented to him for his office and trial office work is so overcrowded. Pocket books can be found in most of the available space including in the chairs, he stated.

He requested renting of the rooms formerly occupied by the Soil Conservation service. The board authorized his request. The county will pay half of the rent which is $12.50 per month.

Two Injured In Auto Crash Here Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. Ray S. Ruscitti, of Alexandria, suffered injuries when their car, driven by Mrs. Ruscitti, crashed into a tree on Center street Sunday.

A bruised chest and knee was suffered by Mrs. Ruscitti. Mr. Ruscitti received lacerations of his arms and legs, and after being treated by Dr. E. H. Marsteller, was advised to enter a hospital.

About $300 damage was done to the car, according to Officer James Iwman, who investigated.

The car failed to make the turn coming from Prescott avenue on Center street and jumped the curb, striking the tree in the yard of Town Clerk R. L. Byrd.

The driver was charged with reckless driving and operating without a permit. Her husband was charged with allowing an unlicensed operator to drive his car.

Candidate For Senate Seat Gives Platform

John A. K. Donovan, candidate for the State Senate of Virginia, representing the 29th Senatorial District, which includes the cities of Alexandria and Falls Church and the Counties of Fairfax and Prince William, has announced an eleven point platform based on the theme "Fair Play First."

Donovan's Platform.

The eleven points include: 1. Local control of public schools but increased state aid for construction in emergency areas; teacher contracts of continuing tenure.

2. Modernize county government systems; relieve Board of Supervisors of zoning authority; localize zoning authority.

3. Legislate model charters for cities; overhaul annexation procedure.

4. Equalization of property taxes; administer tax funds on businesslike basis.

5. Overhaul electoral procedure; eliminate poll tax without substituting greater restrictions.

6. Extend rural health and mental health facilities.

7. Modernize juvenile detention methods; provide greater juvenile protection in laws; simplify street dedication and vacation procedures.

8. Modernize allocation of highway funds to give counties like Fairfax a share related to its contribution; provide more sidewalks in concentrated areas.

9. Increase local control of public utilities; abate stream pollution.

10. Develop regional planning; zoning control to be vested exclusively in zoning authority with appeal only to the courts.

11. Our free system of enterprise contemplates that labor and management can work together; both entitled to be heard on legislative matters.

Mr. Donovan is opposed in the Democratic Primary on August 7th by Andrew W. Clarke, the present incumbent.

Man Drowns In Ocoquan Creek Sunday

Roland Spittler Fowell, of Lorton, Va., drowned, as his wife looked on helplessly Sunday, when he and three swimming companions were caught in the swift current of Ocoquan Creek.

Fowell, a brick factory worker, went down for the fifth time just as rescuers prepared to pull him to safety.

The three companions who narrowly missed the same fate were Charles Clarke, 18, of Lorton, saved by a party of fishermen in a rowboat; Miss Joyce Humphries, 18, and Becky Lynn, 17, both of Ocoquan. The two girls barely managed to struggle through the swirling current to a rowboat from which all four had dived a few minutes earlier.

Watching from shore was Mr. Fowell's wife, Frances, who was nursing their two children, 2 months and 2 years old, respectively.

Virginia State police said Worth Ware, 40, of Lorton, was the first to hear the four swimmers shout for help. They said he tried to swim out, but the current was too much for him.

Legion Exposition Now in Full Swing

Large crowds are turning out for the Annual Industrial Exposition of Prince William Post 156, American Legion, which is being held all this week at Longview Park and attracting wide interest throughout this section.

Each night has seen an increase in attendance, and with the half-way mark reached, it is anticipated that the last three nights will show record-breaking crowds to bring the exposition to a successful close on Saturday, the final night.

The huge exhibit tent, with more than 40 exhibitors, is, of course, the main attraction. Merchandise of most every description is on display and exhibitors, generally, are well pleased with the interest shown in their products and services.

For youngsters, and adults as well, is the fun and entertainment afforded on the colorful midway with its merry-go-round, ferris wheel and other rides. Bingo and other games help add to the fun and merriment for exposition visitors.

Each night a valuable merchandise prize is awarded. In addition there are special prizes offered by exhibitors.

Organization plans for a second National Guard Unit in Manassas are progressing, the Journal was advised today, and those active in promoting the new company are confident that sufficient recruits will be secured to bring it up to the required strength of 12 men and two reserve officers.

The third organizational meeting to interview applicants will be held at the American Legion hall tonight. First member of the new unit is Paul Muse, young newspaper man, who was sworn in Saturday.

A large number of young men have expressed interest in joining up and it is felt that the matter of getting the unit in operation will soon be accomplished.

With a second National Guard Unit to the town's credit, there is every good reason to believe that Manassas will have an excellent chance to secure a new armory.

Supervisors Paid For Ad. Not County

The advertisement, "An Answer To Helms," which appeared in The Journal on June 21, and carried the signature of the members of the Board of Supervisors was a "paid political ad," the cost of which is borne by each supervisor individually.

The fact that the advertisement did not carry the wording, "Paid Political Ad," was an oversight on the part of the Journal. The management regrets the error, or any erroneous impression that might have been taken that county funds were used to pay the cost of the advertising.

Local Phone Company Plans New Offices

Work has started on the remodeling of the Central Mutual Telephone Company building at West Center street to provide new and modern business offices on the main floor.

In announcing that construction was well under way, General Manager J. A. Vetter stated that it is hoped to have new office space ready for use by this week, adding that it will provide greater convenience to customers of the telephone company.

Heretofore, the office has been located on the second floor of the building.

The new office arrangement is in line with the general expansion program of the company to provide patrons with better service, stated Mr. Vetter.

Layton Laws, Auctioneer, Busy in 3-Way Sheriff Contest

Actively campaigning as a candidate for sheriff of Prince William subject to the Democratic Primary, August 7th, is H. Layton Laws, of Manassas R.F.D., whose business as auctioneer gives him a wide acquaintance throughout the county, particularly among the farmers.

Mr. Laws, who is one of three candidates in the sheriff race, has lived in Prince William since 1929. For the past several years he has been engaged in business as an auctioneer and also serves as salesman for the Wayland Motor Co. of Manassas.

He is 34 years of age. His wife is the former Miss Nina Good of Nokesville. They have two children, Layton, Jr., 13, and Carolyn Marie, 11.

Mr. Laws is a member of the Manassas Lions Club and a member of the Methodist Church.

As one of Manassas' youngest business men, he operated Laws Market here for five years.

It might be that his aspiration to become sheriff stems from the fact that as a lad, he lived at the county jail with his stepfather.

State Advisory Body to Study Airport Plans

Richmond, Va.—The Virginia Advisory Legislative Council today announced the membership of its Committee to Study the Establishment of an Alternate Airport for Washington in the County of Fairfax.

The members of the Committee are: Dr. J. D. Hagood, member of the State Senate and chairman of the committee; W. Marshall King, State Corporation Commissioner; J. A. Anderson, State Highway Commissioner; Raymond V. Long, Division of Planning and Economic Development; John R. Booth, Mayor of the town of South Boston; Andrew W. Clarke, member of the State Senate from Alexandria; E. W. Lynch, co-patron of the resolution and member of the House of Delegates, Fairfax; Armistead L. B. B. the co-patron of the resolution and member of the House of Delegates, Alexandria.

The Council was directed to make this study by House Joint Resolution No. 36 passed at the 1950 session of the General Assembly, which provided that:

"The Council shall consider the suitability of available areas, the cost of construction, and how the same may be financed, the administration and operation of such an airport and the revenues which might be derived therefrom, and such other matters as it deems appropriate. The Council is authorized to call upon all officers, employees and agencies of the State in making this study."

The committee plans to hold a public hearing in Fairfax on July 9 at 10 a. m. Arrangements are being completed for a place in which to hold a hearing. The public is invited to attend. The Federal government has announced plans for an alternate airport at Burke, Fairfax County.

Urges Manassas Be Ready In Case of A-Bomb Attack

Leslie L. Kullenberg, Director of the Emergency Operations Office, Federal Civil Defense Administration, who has recently moved with his family from the Washington area to their new home on Route 1, near Manassas, urged unremitting vigilance and preparedness in addressing the annual meeting of the Manassas chapter, American Red Cross, last week.

He said, "From an intelligent standpoint Russia has the capability tonight of mounting an attack on the United States by air, by sea, and by subversive groups in our country."

He recalled published statements that the Russians have 700 TU-4 aircraft, copied from some of our B-29's which were forced to land in Russian territory during the last war, which have an operating radius of 2800 miles round trip, and which with one re-fueling and a one-way flight could get down to Mexico and Central America. Commenting on the recent statement by a United States Senator that Russia has 100 A-bombs, Mr. Kullenberg said, "There is no place that they can't hit. Thanks to traitors in high places they (Russians) have information about the A-bomb just as we have. There is no reason to believe they are not making as good progress in that field as we are. We think that if an attack comes it will be a blitz attack and we may get from 25 to 70 A-bombs dropped on the industrial heart-land of this country."

"Assume 50 A-bombs get through (some to New York, Jersey, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington)—for each of those bombs we can expect, even with adequate warning, that the casualties will be 175,000 per bomb... We could suffer nine and a half million casualties in one blitz raid. Many of our hospitals, which are usually concentrated in the most congested areas, would be destroyed. General Vandenberg has stated that the Air Force is shooting at the capacity of stopping 30 per cent of an attacking air force. We do not have that capacity now."

Mr. Kullenberg further stated, "Manassas is under no danger of attack. Why fly 5,000 miles to bomb Manassas?" However, he continued on Page 3

All This Week

Arnold van Elst, Osbourn High student, one of the 195 exchange students attending schools throughout America under the auspices of the Brethren Service Commission in cooperation with the State Department, was awarded the Honorary State Farmer Degree and gold emblem by the Virginia Association of Future Farmers of America at their State Convention in Blacksburg last week.

Arnold is one of the carefully selected German boys to participate on an exchange basis for a year's schooling in the United States, in order to bring more and better relationships between the countries of the world. His home is in Kervenheim in the British Zone of Germany where he lives with his parents, two brothers and two sisters on a 50 acre farm.

Arnold is the only German boy in a high school in Virginia and has attended Osbourn High School at Manassas during the past year. He has been living with Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Kline on their dairy farm near Manassas, where he works outside of school hours at farm and dairy work, for which he is paid at current rates to help defray his expenses and, at the same time, learns modern American farming practices.

As a member of the Harry Sanders Chapter of the F. F. A., he has been outstanding in the activities of vocational agriculture and the Future Farmers of America, as well as ranking high in the other subjects in high school. He was a member of the Livestock Judging Team which recently won the Shorthorn Contest, and he was fourth high individual out of over 100 boys who judged.

His all around ability and application to his work in agriculture brought him the honor of being the first student ever to be awarded an Honorary State Farmer Degree. His record is even more remarkable in that when he arrived in this country last July, he could not speak English but is now not only able to carry on school work, but has a good usage of the language for any purpose.

Arnold has shown a keen interest in the American way of life and will have many interesting things to report to his family and friends when he returns to Germany this month after completing his year in the United States. He departs on July 12th and will leave behind an enviable record and many friends. He hopes some day to return to the United States.

The Macs found the going rather tough the past week, losing two extra inning tilts. On Wednesday they lost to Gainesville, 4-3, in 10 innings and on Sunday a 11-inning affair to Triangle, 9-5.

Local boys will play in some fast company this week when they open against Lee Theater nine of Lynchburg in the state semi-pro tournament at Charlottesville, Thursday. Two wellknown big league pitchers, Art Houtteman and John Antonelli, are expected to see mound duty during the tournament. The Macs are pretty excited over participating in the event and win or lose, they'll have a good time, plus gaining a lot of experience.

New local golf addicts include Bill Saylor and Ray Gibson. Both can wallop that little white pill a "country mile." On one shot Bill broke his club, and was heard to comment: "I'll try this so-and-so game just one more time." Judge Arthur Sinclair never seems to let the game get the best of him... always calm and collected, good shots or bad. Not so with Charles Caviness and Ralph Hesse... the air can get pretty blue when their shots go astray. Incidentally, Hesse is "crowing" again after beating "yours truly" for the second time at Purcellville, Sunday. Ned Bradford got in some golf while vacationing in Wisconsin recently, meeting up with a couple of pros, who showed him how the game ought to be played. Must of have been a pleasure after shooting around with local divot-diggers.

C. H. Wine, Jr., regular Macs catcher, suffered a knee injury in the game with Gainesville last week and is likely to be out of the lineup for a couple of weeks. The Macs are sure going to miss him.

Triangle and Occoquan play a doubleheader at Triangle, Sunday.

Attendance at games this season isn't so hot. The boys sure deserve a little better support from the fans.

Herndon Boy On Aircraft Carrier

Winfred W. Poland, Jr., aviation boatwain's mate, third class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Poland of Route 1, Herndon, Va., is participating in intensive operational training aboard the aircraft carrier USS Salpan with the Sixth Fleet in the Mediterranean.

The Salpan joined the Sixth Fleet at Gibraltar last March and, since then, has participated in all major fleet exercises and operational cruises to ports along the French and Italian Riviera.

Upsets marked Sunday's play in the "A" Division of the Northern Virginia League. Triangle took a 11-inning thriller 9-5 from its old rivals, the Manassas Macs. Occoquan shut out Bristerburg, 6-0. Only White Oak proved true to form and continued its streak by wallowing Nokesville, 11-1.

Triangle got off to a good start by scoring three runs in the first inning off Mayhugh, Manassas pitcher. From then on Mayhugh kept the Triangle batsmen well in check until the eleventh when he was replaced by Polen, who after facing two batters gave way to Floyd.

Occoquan, by virtue of its win over Bristerburg, got out of the cellar. Other league positions were unchanged with White Oak way out in front, followed by Manassas and Nokesville, who remain tied for second. Triangle holds down third place, Occoquan is next and Bristerburg brings up in the rear.

In the "B" Division, Warrenton blanketed Marshall, 6-0, and Gainesville took the measure of Upper-ville, 11-9.

Correspondents are requested to send copy in early.

SCHOOLS BEFORE JAILS—HELMS

I notice in the newspapers that the Prince William County Board of Supervisors is highly "JUBILANT" over the fact that they have plans for a $75,000.00 jail for the county.

Of course there are not very many people in Prince William County who can afford to live in a $75,000.00 mansion. But this magnificent building is being prepared for only a SELECT FEW. The county, of course, must be very generous with its funds for this SELECT FEW.

Our school buildings in the county are terribly crowded. But, of course, this is a relatively unimportant matter. We must first provide the $75,000.00 mansion with Beautyrest mattresses for those who break the law.

We need more space for county offices and storage space for records, but of course all this can wait until after we house our prisoners in a $75,000.00 mansion.

Even temporary quarters for our school children can wait. The children can be taught on the street corners or anywhere. But we owe a great obligation to our jail birds and we simply must provide a $75,000.00 mansion with Beautyrest mattresses for them.

Now, after the beautiful $75,000.00 mansion for the inmates of the jail has been built, I am sure the Board of Supervisors will want to provide a Director of Physical Education. Then in the morning all the Prisoners can get out of bed and take their squat up and squat down exercises. Then, they can top all that off with a "Hip, hip, hurrah! Three cheers for the Board of Supervisors and the Beautyrest mattresses.

After that they might leisurely stroll into the lounging room and rest themselves in the overstuffed chairs and sofas.

Of course there will be a recreation room where they might engage in chess, bagammon or even pinochle. The Beautyrest mattresses and the overstuffed chairs, of course, would give them sufficient rest to engage in such brain racking diversions.

To go along with the $75,000.00 mansion and the Beautyrest mattresses, of course, the menu for their dinners would carry lobster a la Maine and caviar. We certainly would not want the DEAR PRISONERS to lose a pound of weight or suffer any discomforts whatsoever while they are inmates of the $75,000.00 mansion.

We owe so much to our lawbreakers that we simply MUST provide them with the very best in everything.

ROY HELMS

P. S.—Wonder if the Board is going to spend $41,875.00 for the architectural plans for this jail mansion.

(But I may suggest that unless we relieve the present overcrowded conditions in our schools, we will need a $150,000 jail to house the neglected youth in the coming years.) (Paid Political Ad.)

The possibility that a bomb would be "detonated" here in the event of attack, he said, the best hope would be that one A-bomb would be dropped in Washington. Such a bomb, he said, would result in 150,000 casualties and Manassas could expect to see 30 thousand evacuees from the Washington area. Washington would be powerless, and the communities within a radius of 60 miles would be called to care for evacuees. "You in Manassas are going to do a tremendous job of support-Washington. You are going to be prepared for it. You will be upon to send your rescue teams, volunteer fire department, first aid workers. You will have a feeling of urgency. We know when this might happen. The Russians are in the deal. We may make a bad bet in Korea, then they flare up in Iran, in Germany. Please do your organizing as fast as you can. Get as many of your citizens as you can to first aid training, rescue training, nursing. You need people, a lot of people."

Planning shelter for evacuees, Manassas urged the committee to plan for the use of not only the public buildings, but also private space available. He said, in the event of the bombing of Washington or any other city, prior to the completion of the local civilian defense organization, the Emergency Operation Group would call upon the Red Cross chapters to provide clothing and temporary shelter for a mass basis for the emergency period, for evacuees, and that the Civil Defense Administration had back up the local Red Cross Civil Defense organization by being available to them all of resources of the nation.

NOTICE

To the People of Prince William County:

I am informed by the Chairmen of the Stafford and Prince William County Democratic Committees, that I am the only candidate to file for the House of Delegates for the primary election to be held on August 7th, 1951, and that they have therefore, as provided by the Democratic Party plan, declared me the nominee of the Democratic party in the general election to be held on November 6, 1951.

I am naturally pleased to secure this nomination without opposition, and I will now bend my efforts toward election in November.

I have taken great pride in my past representation of you during the several years I have served. In asking your continued support in November, I do so in the hope and determination to devote my best efforts, if elected, to serving your best interests, and those of all the people of Virginia.

Respectfully,
FRANK P. MONCURE.

Patrons of more than 42,000 Post Offices found the new and more convenient money order as shown above available Monday morning, July 2.

Principal changes in the new money order system will make it possible to have a money order cashed at any of the nation's post offices or it may be collected through any bank in the same manner as the depositing or cashing of a check.

The regulation that money orders must be cashed at specific post offices has been eliminated. Under the old system, it will be recalled, a money order had to be cashed in the office to which it was issued. If it was cashed at a post office in another city an additional fee was charged.

The new system makes available to the Post Office Department the most advanced electronic business machines. One machine, the IBM Type 308 Proof Machine, has been especially developed for the new money order purposes; and it combines all the advantages of the modern proof machine in widespread use by banks and large department stores throughout the country. Another of the principal machines to be used with the new system is the Electronic Statistical Machine, workhorse of the 1950 Census tabulation.

The Postmaster General described the inauguration of the new money order system as the largest single accounting change ever made in postal history and said that the development comes after exhaustive study by the Post Office Department, the General Accounting Office, the Treasury Department and the Federal Reserve Board.

The Department urges users to remember that the new money orders must not be folded, stapled, spindled or mutilated in any way since they are to be issued on punch cards and processed by machinery.

Last year more than 300,000,000 money orders, totaling upward to five billion dollars were issued and paid by the Post Office Department.

Letters To The Editor

Editor Journal:

I have read Mr. Helm's campaign advertisements and the Board of Supervisors' reply thereto. My mild reaction to the latter can best be expressed by a paraphrase from Shakespeare: "Methinks the Board hath protest too much." However, my overall reaction is one of surprise at the intemperate words used by the Board in its answer, the tenor of which borders on the hysterical. One hardly expects to find such words as "slander" and "smear" over the signatures of a county governing board. I doubt if it would have been in order for any one member of the board to have used such words; I feel quite sure it is not proper that the Board as a body should do so.

In its answer the Board Members state that while the tax rates listed for the six counties by Mr. Helm are true, it is only by examining the assessment value used by these counties that one can get an overall picture. If this is so, why did not the Board give us the various assessment values used by these specific counties? We know that Prince William assesses at one-third of the true value of the property taxed. At what fraction does Stafford, Loudoun, Fauquier, etc. assess? I believe the citizens of the county would be interested in having these figures and in evaluating for themselves the true facts.

The REAL ISSUE, states the Board, is shown in the "TRUE comparative table" in which it lists the average tax per person paid in the counties under consideration. There it is shown that Prince William is below average. I presume these figures are arrived at by dividing the revenue by the population. I feel that this method and these figures still prove nothing. In comparison with most of the other counties listed, Prince William has a far larger itinerant or "floating" population, which would offset a true comparison. I maintain that a truer picture will be had if the Board will show the AVERAGE TAX PER TAXPAYER in each of the several counties. Only then would we be able to have something into which we could sink our teeth. I ask that they obtain and publish these figures for our enlightenment.

In closing I would like to say that I was present at the open hearing on the budget and I failed to gain the impression that "the overwhelming sentiment was in favor of the budget as advertised," as alleged by the Board in its answer.

Editor Journal:

This is a letter of appreciation forwarded to you by the members of the personnel section located in this Depot.

One day in December of 1949, this organization was enriched with the addition of Cpl. Jack L. Spring a fine product of your outstanding community. When he was here but a short time he introduced us to THE MANASSAS JOURNAL. Ever since then, we have been devoted readers of your periodical.

Our interest was stimulated mainly by the "down to earth" informative policy plus the vivacity and all around interest that you and your colleagues display in printing a newspaper that is not only a credit to the American Press in general but also to this far flung group of readers. It is a reminder of the American way of life.

In conclusion, we would like to extend our very best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. John E. Spring and state that their son is a credit to them and Manassas. We also hope this letter will be printed for the readers of the Journal as a reminder that they have something many people over here do not. This is: at town; a newspaper; and security all combined to help make a home what it is.

We the undersigned, extend our sincere wishes for the continued success of the Manassas Journal.

Farm Income Expected To Rise This Year

Farmers net income in 1951 may equal the 1947 record, the Bureau of Agricultural Economics stated recently. This income will not buy as much as it would four years ago, and the farmer will get a smaller share of the national income, the BAE explained.

Realized net incomes of farm operators declined in the past three years. This year, however, they may come close to the 1947 total of 17.8 billion dollars. At the same time, non-farm personal income (which has set a new record every year since 1940) is expected to set another record—at least 25 percent higher than it was in 1947.

Even though farm income may reach the same level as 1947, the BAE says it will only buy 92 percent of the goods and services that the same income actually bought in 1947.

Two graduate technical foresters reported to the Charlottesville District of the Virginia Forest Service on June 18th, 1951, District Forester L. G. Wilfong stated today.

Robert L. May of Glade Springs, Va. and William A. Hubble, Jr. of Bland County, Virginia, both recent college graduates in forestry, will assist forest landowners in forestry management problems in the sixteen county Northern Piedmont District, including this county.

District Forester Wilfong also announced the transfer of Forester Acie Edwards for the Charlottesville District to the Portsmouth District. Forester Edwards had worked out of the Charlottesville area for the past year before his transfer.

Number of Virginia Cattle At Record High

The number of cattle and calves on Virginia farms as of January 1, 1951 reached a record high of 1,197,000 head the Virginia Cooperative Crop Reporting Service estimated recently.

This figure represents an eight percent increase over the previous year and it is the third consecutive year that the cattle and calf inventory has shown an increase.

At the same time the number on hand increased eight percent, the gross income from cattle and calves showed an increase of only one and one-half percent. The gross income of $44,220,000 is made up of $43,351,000 from cash receipts and $869,000 from home consumption, the Reporting Service estimated.

To Wed Manassas Boy

MISS EVELYN MARIE BROWN

Mr. and Mrs. Junius Calvin Brown, of Danville, Va., announce the engagement of their daughter, Evelyn Marie, to Dudley Jackson Martin, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Jackson Martin, of Manassas. The wedding will take place on August 25th. Miss Brown is a graduate of Marjorie College and Mr. Martin is a junior at William and Mary.

Manassas Garden Club Has Varied Flower Arrangements

The June meeting of the Manassas Garden Club was held at the home of Mrs. Harry Davis at 1000 Jackson. Assistant hostesses were Mrs. William H. Blakemore, Jr., C. Powell and Mrs. Catherine B. Bock of Arlington. Eighteen members and eleven guests were present. Among the guests were Mrs. Richard Haydon, former of Manassas; Miss Juliet Agnes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Oster, and Martha and Candice, daughters of Capt. and Mrs. John Maslow.

The business session was held on the lawn overlooking the water, followed by the flower arrangement demonstration by Mrs. R. P. Fryer and Mrs. V. V. Gillum. They decorated daisies, magnolias, roses and geraniums. The miniature exhibits of the members were many, varied and interesting. Mrs. Bock's arrangement, for a fireplace was particularly handsome. She had decorated hollyhock and trumpet.

The arrangements were judged by the committee composed of Gillum, Mrs. Dillake and Mrs. Cooksey. Mrs. Allen Merchant reported all bird and floral stationery had been sold and was authorized to order another consignment for the Veterans Fair. A pleasant message came from Mrs. Frank Key of Buena Vista, bird chairman of the Bird Committee for Virginia Federation of Clubs, regretting that she had not been here this year. She looks forward to next year's visit.

The July meeting will be held at Brentsville, on the old court house green, the 4th Tuesday at 11:00 a. m. (DST). Featured will be a picnic luncheon and story of the old village before the county site was moved to Manassas. Under the leadership of the president, Mrs. John W. Cox, the club programs are instructive and constructive in its major aim, "Conservation."

Needlecraft News

by Nancy Baxter

THE American woman takes deep pride in the appearance of her home—realizing that her home reveals so much of her personality, taste and intelligent understanding of planning an attractive setting for family life. She puts time and planning into her selection of new furnishings, fabrics, colors and accessories because she is looking ahead to the future, visualizing the way they will look and fit into her plans—now, five and ten years from now.

Grooming Grace

Lovely home furnishings deserve care and attention—and will repay you for it with years of beauty and usefulness. Good grooming is as important to the beauty and complexion of your home as it is to your own morale. With furniture as with any wood piece your requisites for good care are proper humidity, clean surfaces and a protective coat and polish. Glistening table tops and well-cared-for wood surfaces lend a luxuriant air to any room. They underline and accentuate the beauty of the lacy doilies and scarfs, graceful lamps and china figurines that are placed atop them.

Glistening Finish

Eventually, all wood pieces require a good washing with soap and water to lift the dirt that penetrates through the wax and polish. There's nothing better than mild soap and a little water. After the wood surface is clean, use only high grade polish and wax. Inferior polishes sometimes contain substances that gum and mar the surface. If your table tops are marked with white marks that are not deep you can remove them by tapping with a cloth dampened with ammonia. Rub briskly with an oiled cloth immediately after. Snowy lace frames an oblong piece of white linen to make this lovely runner to grace your glistening buffet. The lace consists of a border of square motifs, crocheted with flower-like centers. The four corners of the linen are cut out deep enough to allow for an extra motif. How much heavier than a plain length of linen this buffet scarf is with its rim of white lace. If you would like directions for making it, send a stamped, self-addressed envelope to the Needlework Department of this paper, requesting Leaflet No. 111, FLOWER FRAME.

DEVIL AND THE DEEP BLUE SEA

No one will crab about this deviled dish when you serve it as an appetizer, as a main dish at a luncheon or buffet supper. Deviled crab is really tops for summertime entertaining. And made with bread crumbs, there's nothing easier.

DEVILED CRAB

2 small cans, or 2 cups crabmeat
1 teaspoon mustard
1/4 teaspoon pepper
1/2 cup melted butter or margarine
2 teaspoons lemon juice
2 cups soft bread crumbs
1 teaspoon salt
2 hard-boiled eggs, minced
1 tablespoon minced parsley
1 teaspoon onion juice
1/2 cup dry bread crumbs

Pick over crabmeat and remove any fibrous membranes. Add remainder of ingredients except dry bread crumbs and mix well. Turn into individual ramekins or shells.

Sprinkle tops with dry bread crumbs. Heat thoroughly in a hot oven, 400° F., about 10 to 15 minutes.

To make soft bread crumbs, crumble slices of fresh bread with fingers, or place two slices together at a time and cube with a sharp knife. Crumbs may be left on or removed, as desired. But never throw crusts away, they're perfect for dry bread crumbs.

To make dry bread crumbs, grind dry bread through a food chopper, using a fine blade, or toast and crush with a rolling pin. Or use packaged dry bread crumbs.

The wind in its velocity also blew the metal roof from the south side of the Mike Tyler barn and scattered debris about the farm.

BIRTHDAYS CELEBRATED

Highlights of the last week of Brentsville Bible School included the celebration of two birthdays and the final day picnic. Evelyn Perry treated the Junior group to a piece of her birthday cake and a cool drink on her tenth birthday. George Powell was seven years old on June 27 so he celebrated by bringing a decorated cake on a revolving musical platter and a Dixie cup for each of his little primary friends.

On Friday, June 29, the picnic was held at the Court House because the early morning deluge of rain made an indoor picnic essential. Each child brought his own sandwiches which were placed together in a pile and shared, plus generous contributions of potato chips, pickles, fruit, cookies, cake and cold drinks provided by the mothers, and thus an adequate menu was provided. Following the picnic, two movies, "When We Go to Church" and "The Life of Jesus," were shown to the group at the Brentsville Union Church, after which event certificates were presented to each student who had attended the Bible School.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Fogle, daughter Audrey, and Grandfather Fogle are vacationing at Wheeling, W. Va., the former home of Grandfather Fogle. While the Fogles are gone their daughter, Mrs. Willard Weaver and family are taking charge of the farm.

Mrs. J. M. Keys had as her Sunday guests, Raymond McIntosh and family of Bradley Forest and Alfred McIntosh and family of Manassas.

Mrs. Ben Breeden, Mrs. Clarence Burke and Mrs. W. R. Stephens were guests at a bingo party in the ballroom of the Burlington Hotel in Washington, D. C., on June 25.

Mrs. Jenkins of Bradley Forest will be the hostess for the next bingo party on Friday evening, July 6.

Mrs. Sheffield and family of Alexandria were Sunday visitors of her parents, the Ray Hedricks.

Sunday dinner guests of the Ray Hedricks were their two sons, Elmer, of Arlington and Ray of Alexandria.

Mrs. Lizzie Huffman, who is visiting her brother, John Deihl, spent Monday with Mrs. Ray Hedrick.

The Reverend and Mrs. Dicks were Friday callers at the Ray Hedrick home.

Mrs. Willie Nalls of Alexandria was a weekend guest at the W. R. Stephens home.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Carter have returned from a two weeks' visit in Florida.

Jack Dail, student pastor of Brentsville Union Church, was a Sunday dinner guest of his cousin, Mrs. Paul Junkin, in Washington. Mr. Dail remained as a house guest there until Tuesday.
