

This 'n That

New that the Legion Exposition over, we can look ahead to the Prince William County Fair. Never dull moment in Manassas!

John Eagle's farm pond is the subject of an interesting article in the July-August issue of Essa Farm news. The story is attractively illustrated with scenes of Mr. Eagle's farm and shows him and his Conservationist Sam Parks, who helped in developing the soil and water conservation farm plan, the pond built at a cost of $300 "paid off many times," says Mr. Eagle.

A hearty welcome to A. D. Scott, who has joined the Peoples National Bank as cashier... and congratulations to R. C. Powell on his promotion to executive vice president of the local financial institution.

R. P. Armentrout, of Bealeton, Va., paid a brief visit to the Journal office a few days ago. A former resident, he says that he enjoys keeping up with happenings in Manassas thru the Journal.

Reflected name plates are still being offered free with one-year renewal or new subscriptions to the Journal. There is only a limited supply, so better get yours while they last.

Prouty papers... Doc Spittler and Paul Mase. Thanks for the year!

Lynn Chosen Chairman Of School Board

The Prince William County School Board last week elected Fred Lynn of Occoquan as its chairman, succeeding P. A. Lewis, of Manassas, whose term on the board expired June 30th.

The new chairman is a veteran member of the board, having served for the past 20 years. Jack Alvey Catharin was elected vice chairman.

Dr. E. H. Marsteller, a new member of the board, and a successor to Lewis, made a plea that the county school system be provided with a building program.

He said that the county school system needs a building program to provide Prince William with the best needed school facilities.

The board called for new bids for the Occoquan elementary school, to be opened at 1:30 p.m. on July 11th.

Initial bids for the new school, submitted in May were too high for the $140,000 allocation. Later negotiations with the lowest bidder failed to come within the appropriation.

Superintendent R. Worth Peters, who is leaving the county school system on August 1, told the board that he expected the Occoquan and Dumfries districts would seek their own bond issues to provide needed school facilities.

He added that he did not favor district bond issues as a means of financing but that it is the only way, somebody ought to get something instead of nobody getting anything.

Manassas Teacher Is Guest Of Queen Elizabeth At Tea

Miss Sue Ayres, of Manassas, one of 112 American school teachers in England on an exchange basis, had the pleasure and thrill of shaking hands with Queen Elizabeth yesterday.

Miss Ayres, a member of the American Exchange group, led the teachers through the reception line to meet the Queen. Afterwards she and Mrs. Walter S. Gifford, wife of the American ambassador, sat at table with the Queen while everybody had tea.

Miss Ayres, who is supervisor of elementary education in Prince William County schools, presented a bouquet of orchids to the Queen.

The Queen thanked the teachers for spending a year in England and the needs of British children, trying to put the "three R's" into "The Queen asked me how I had enjoyed my stay here and where I taught in America," Miss Ayres said later. "She was so gracious and charming as anyone could be. It was an unforgettable experience."

Miss Ayres has taught a class of seven and eight-year-olds at Farley Near Road in Lancashire during the year she has been here. She described it as "a thoroughly enjoyable and challenging" assignment.

"I'm coming back again as soon as I can get the time off," she declared.

Fluoridation Of Water Is Approved

The Board of Supervisors approved fluoridation of the county water supply in meeting last Thursday. The ordinance as passed makes it permissible, but not compulsory, for communities in the county to fluoridate their water supply.

Only two appeared at the hearing on the ordinance. Dr. Walter Johnson, county health officer, spoke in support of fluoridation, stating that tests have shown that it often cuts tooth decay in children more than 50 per cent. Rev. John Edens also spoke in the support of the ordinance, which becomes effective as of September 1, 1951.

The board approved the purchase of one X-ray machine to speed up processing at the health office. Dr. Johnson requested three caissons for this purpose.

June Traffic Deaths Total 93 For State

Ninety-three June traffic deaths gave Virginia her bloodiest month of the year and the worst June since 1941. Col. C. W. Woodson, Jr., superintendent of state police and executive chairman of the Governor's Highway Safety Committee, announced today and stated further that the first six months of 1951 have seen 431 traffic deaths.

This figure is 7.7 percent above the 400 killed during the same period last year and is certain to increase as late reports come in and when people die who are now being classified as injured. Col. Woodson added that 1941, Virginia's worst traffic year, saw now 1110 deaths, is certain to be surpassed if this trend continues.

While Col. Woodson said Virginia had been unfortunate in having many multiple-death crashes, he noted an increased rate in non-collision wrecks which he blamed directly on too much speed. "People should remember," he said, "that a speeding car rounding a curve has nothing to hold it on the road but four small patches of rubber where the tires contact the ground and each of these is just about the size of a man's hand."

He warned also that the worst is yet to come, as each succeeding month can be expected to show progressively higher tolls if the usual pattern is followed. In addition, Col. Woodson pointed out that traffic volumes are now some 11 percent above those of 1950 and climbing steadily.

The Safety Official closed in asking more cooperation from the individual driver and walker. "Remember," he said, "with heavily increased traffic, we simply cannot make distances in the same times we could 10 years ago and attempting to make up for delays by speeding is an excellent attempt to enter the 1951 casualty list."

Roseberry Is Not Candidate

Kite Roseberry will not enter the race for sheriff in Prince William County as an independent candidate this year, he advised The Journal last week.

Roseberry made a determined bid for the sheriff's department back in March, 1950. Wheeling stated at the time that his hat would be in the ring in '51.

Mr. Wheeling, who is 36 years of age, states that his experience as deputy and professional police training, makes him well qualified for the office.

He entered the Prince William sheriff's department in 1944 as a deputy sheriff. While employed in this capacity, he attended and graduated from FBI Academy in '45. He was a charter member of the Virginia Chapter of the National Police Academy Alumni. In 1949, he served as second vice president of the State Sheriff and City Sergeants Association.

He resigned as deputy in March, 1950, at which time his superior in a letter commended him highly on his ability and his character.

Like other candidates in the three-way race, Mr. Wheeling has a wide acquaintance throughout the county. He is a member of Manassas Volunteer Fire Department, fire marshal for the local department and county association, member of Contest Rules Committee of the State Volunteer Firemen's Association.

He is a past noble grand of Highland Lodge, I.O.O.F. and a member of Grace Methodist Church. He is married and has no children.

He is a native of Denny, N. C., coming to Virginia with his parents in 1921. He has resided in Prince William County since 1940. Before entering police work as deputy sheriff, he was employed by the State Highway Department. At present he is employed at the Ft. Belvoir Fire Department.

Senator Clarke Opposed To Burke Site For Airport

As a member of the Virginia committee recently appointed to study establishment of an alternate airport for Washington, Senator Andrew W. Clarke issued a statement this week opposing the site at Burke, Va.

His statement follows: "I am indeed happy to be appointed as a member of a Committee to study the establishment of an alternate airport for Washington. I feel deeply concerned over the proposed airport to be located at Burke, Virginia, composed of forty-five hundred acres of land, and particularly, the attitude which the Federal Government has exhibited in the taking of this ground.

The taking of property from the Tax Books in Fairfax County by the Federal Government, is depriving our County of many thousands of dollars in taxes, which will throw an additional burden on the other property owners. Fairfax County has already felt the impact from the taking of ground by Fort Belvoir Military Reservation, Quartermaster Depot and the Lorton Penal Institution.

"The property proposed to be taken for the Burke Airport, is beautiful, residential property and would attract nice homes, particularly, since the opening of the Shirley Highway has made the area accessible to downtown Washington.

The Third Annual Industrial Exposition of the American Legion came to a close Saturday night with by far the largest crowd of the week in attendance.

Sunday morning saw the big tent dismantled and another successful exposition had gone into the records. Estimated attendance for the week was over 5,500 which, according to officials, fell far short of expectations. A gate of at least 10,000 had been anticipated for the outstanding show.

Exhibitors, for the most part, seem well satisfied with the exposition, many stating that there was greater interest in the exhibits than in any previous year.

Door prize winners for the week were: Mrs. W. A. Golliday, Manassas, R.F.D., table model radio; Mrs. Warren Rector, Manassas, porch glider; Mrs. Herbert Cornwell, Manassas, two lawn chairs; Buddy Lynn, Manassas, chaise longue; Mrs. John Robinson, Manassas, dinette suite.

Among other prizes given by exhibitors were:

Brown & Hoeff, Inc.—Guessing number of nails in glass jar. First prize, 5 gal. can of paint, to C. L. Nelson, RFD 3, Manassas. $5.00 Gift Certificate, donated by Bouquet Mart, to Peggy Poland, Ashburn, Va. Over 400 guessed the number which was 6,209 by actual count. The winners guessed 6,235 and 6,240, respectively.

Cocks Pharmacy—Pen and pencil set. Won by Edward McBane of Fairfax Station.

Arrow Typewriter Co.—New typewriter. Won by W. C. Kemper, Manassas.

Mrs. Fritter Is Out In Front In Popularity Poll

Mrs. Marcella Fortney Fritter, with 8,500 votes, is leading the Popularity Contest sponsored by the Centreville Volunteer Fire Department. Gracie Phillips is not far behind the leader with 8,345 votes. And in third place in the balloting is Nancy Fisher, who has 5,400 votes to her credit.

The contest, which is attracting wide interest, ends on July 20th, with the winner to be announced at a dance to be held at Hunter's Lodge that night.

Special ceremonies will be held in connection with the crowning of the queen.

With only a week to go, the contest promises to be a close finish and any of the 24 young women participating still has a chance to cop the honors when the final votes are counted.

Dance tickets count for 100 votes and may be obtained from all contestants and their sponsors.

Proceeds from the contest and dance will go toward buying needed housing and equipment for the Centreville Fire Department.

Men's Softball

On Thursday, July 19th, 7:30 p.m. (DST), the first doubleheader in the weekly series of men's soft ball games to be played under lights will be played at Swavely Field.

Manassas lost a close one to Nokesville Firemen, Sunday, 9-8, to break a tie for second place in the "A" Division of the Northern Virginia League. The defeat dropped the Macs into third place while Nokesville took over undisputed possession of the runner-up spot.

The Macs made eight errors and used three pitchers. Polen opened on the mound but was relieved in the first inning by Mayhugh. Saylor finished for the Macs and was charged with the loss.

Nokesville accounted for 12 hits, led by Brown with a home run and a single. Teater accounted for a double and two singles. Irwin, Owens, Godfrey, Glass and Reid got a single each.

Merchant and Slusher were the leading batsmen for the Macs, with three singles apiece. Saylor and Busby got two singles each and Crabill, Mayhugh, J. Roseberry and S. Vetter a safety each.

Winning pitcher was Hoke, who succeeded Glass on the mound for Nokesville after five innings.

White Oak Loses

Lacking the required nine men on the field, White Oak lost its first league game Sunday by a forfeit, to cellar-dwelling Bristersburg. After forfeiting, White Oak drafted a fan from out of the stands and went on to win by a score of 6-1.

Up until Sunday's forfeit, White Oak had won nine straight games to hang up a new league record for consecutive victories.

Spectators and friends will be welcomed to these weekly community league evening games.

In the "B" division, Gainesville defeated Marshall, 2-1, as Burgess let the losers down with three hits. Each team scored in the first inning and remained deadlocked 1-1 until the seventh when Gainesville showed across what proved to be the winning run. Gainesville accounted for five hits.

Sports Shorts

● Golf Putts: ... Ed Barrow is a newcomer to the ranks of local golf addicts, and found the Quantico layout rather tough Sunday. A certain hotel man is visiting the driving range in an effort to cure a slice. Says he had the face of his driver changed. Yes, it must be the clubs! ... And the woodchopper chopped and he chop-quaintance who tried to blaze a trail through the woods while playing the 14th hole at Quantico, Sunday. ... Interest seems to be growing in the sport locally. One big land owner appears interested in developing a golf course. Such a project would prove a big asset to the community. Let's get behind it!

● The Macs ought to have had their fill of baseball at last. Two games in the state tournament at Charlottesville, which they lost by one-sided scores, was followed by a defeat Sunday at the hands of their old rivals, Nokesville. Commenting on the tournament games, Monk Crabill said, "We were playing way out of our class. It was like Osborn High going up against the N. Y. Yankees." And as for that Nokesville tilt, Monk had little to say, except to say, "We was robbed."

HOME-MAKING IDEAS

is a month of entertaining, graduation parties, showers for and wedding receptions, probably have occasion to various kinds of canapés. are tiny mouthfuls of food on bread or toast, crackers, chips and cut in all sorts of attractive shapes and designs. They are they pretty to look at and fully good to eat. The can be made of a wide variety of things: cheese, fish or meats, chicken or other meats, fruits, and nuts.

Banana Canapés

1/2 tsp. cornstarch
1/2 tsp. sugar
1/2 tsp. salt
1/2 cup cold water
1 banana
1 lemon

cornstarch, sugar, and salt. Cold water gradually to make a paste. Cook until thick. Chill. Add bananas mashed smooth. Spread on bread cutouts of fancy shapes. Garnish with pecans, or with paprika.

Cheese and Olive Canapés

1/2 cup cream cheese
1/2 cup olives
1/2 cup red pepper or pickled beet on prepared bread or a paste made of mixing equal parts of cream cheese and red and green peppers. Mix mayonnaise and season with pepper, and lemon juice.

deviled ham with chopped cooked egg and horseradish. Spread toast generously with mayonnaise. Dip into minced water crees and sprinkle with salt. Garnish with minced hard-cooked egg white.

Place thin sliced tongue on toast rounds. Spread with tomato puree and garnish with olive slices.

You can make a sandbox for your child this summer. All you'll need will be a good packing box of fair size—about three feet by four feet. Cut down the sides of the box to a depth of about ten inches. Line the bottom of the box with roofing paper to keep the sand from sifting through the cracks. Make a cover for the sandbox which opens from the center. This divided cover will provide seats for children while they're playing, and also protect the sand in bad weather.

Add a coat of bright paint to the outside of the box. When the sandbox is dry, add the sand.

How you wrap the package determines the end results of a "package from home."

Your son in service may receive a box of crumbs. Instead of cookies. To prevent a scrambled, crushed appearance be sure the food packages can withstand shaking and knocking about. Food for overseas needs to be even more carefully wrapped to withstand heat, aging, and heavy weight. In the bottom of a ship, the temperature may reach 120 degrees F. and the package may have as much as a ton of weight on top.

You can use small tin or cardboard boxes for packaging. These small boxes can be placed in larger metal, wood, solid fiber-board, or strong double-faced corrugated fiber-board boxes. Strong gummed paper taped along the seams helps reinforce the box. Shredded or crushed paper between the inner boxes acts as a cushion and absorbs some of the shock of travel. As a final precaution when you're finished, check the package. A well-wrapped box for shipment should not rattle no matter how much you shake it.

Maintain Egg Quality During Hot Weather

How about the quality of your eggs during hot weather?

That's the question posed by Frank Cox, county agent, who warns that egg producers, handlers, and consumers should be careful to maintain egg quality, particularly in the summer.

Here are his suggestions:
Dispose of all males where eggs are not being sold or used for hatching purposes.
Keep broody hens off the nests. Cool eggs immediately after collecting and before packing.
Provide storage under proper temperature and moisture conditions.

Market frequently.
The agent says the percentage of dirty eggs can be cut down by keeping deep dry litter on the laying house floor, keeping hens off dropping boards, installing at least one nest for every five birds, and gathering the eggs three or more times daily. Nesting material should be kept clean, and the eggs should be packed for market with the small end down.

VOTE FOR JOHN DONOVAN

For State Senate

TO REPRESENT ALL THE PEOPLE
Democratic Primary, August 7, 1951

TO The VOTERS of MANASSAS DISTRICT:

In response to solicitation, I have very hesitantly filed as a candidate for Supervisor from this District. I had hoped to fully endorse my successor who came on the Board at a difficult time and has worked hard and in a number of ways constructively but the record of the Board of late looks like an effort to please each pressure group before it regardless of the public interest. Barring that, I had hoped that a younger man with a progressive platform would file for the office.

However, in a campaign that so far has shown nothing but charges and name calling, I think that the voters are entitled to know for what the candidates stand and I briefly list a few of the issues.

Taxes—There are only two ways to reduce taxes; 1. Reduce public services; 2. Economy and efficiency in government. (To be more fully covered next week.)

County Government—We must have a more efficient and democratic local government. To be covered week after next.

Budget—Every one knows it is impossible to stick entirely to a budget prepared a year in advance but the budget should show the public as clearly as possible what is expected to be spent, but the last two County budgets apparently were prepared simply because the law required something to be published and not as a guide to the Board's policy. (More fully covered later.)

We have in Prince William County a rapidly growing community, and we must meet the needs forced on us by this condition; and meet them constructively drawing upon the experiences of our neighboring counties, using both their successes and their failures to guide us.

Due to pressure of farm work, I do not expect to conduct a personal campaign but I am deeply grateful for your support in the past, and I hope to justify your confidence in the future.

Respectfully submitted,

WHEATLEY M. JOHNSON

Bethel Vacation School Has Service

The Bethel Vacation Bible School closed its successful two-week session Friday evening with a special service of worship. Many parents and friends were present to witness and participate in the service.

The emphasis of the vacation school was on the church, and the teachers and pupils kept this emphasis in the service. Prior to the service, Miss Hazel Saunders made a few introductory remarks.

The program was as follows:

Call to worship, Ps. 95:1-5, Nancy Harold; songs of praises, led by Miss Saunders; "Praise Him!", beginners and primary; doxology, junior class; "This Is the Day," the entire school; prayer, Edward Wright; kindergarten singing, led by Mrs. Geo. Hodges; report of kindergarten activities, Mrs. Eva Garner; primary class, Mrs. David Glascock and Mrs. E. Ruff; junior class, Mrs. E. Pearl and Miss F. A. Garner; report on the "D. V. B. S.," Mrs. D. C. Glascock. "The Growth and Development of Children in the Community," E. H. Wright, pastor; awarding of certificates, the pastor; benediction.

Miss Saunders was the superintendent of the Vacation Bible School again this year. She has served faithfully in this capacity for several years.

Inspiring Sermon By Rev. John Edens

"Jesus had a great deal of trouble with the good folks of his day," said Rev. John D. Edens, pastor of the Manassas Baptist Church, in speaking to a filled auditorium last Sunday morning.

"There was something about Jesus that attracted the bad people," he said. "Jesus sounded a note of hope that these bad people had not heard before. But the good folks—the Pharisees—had an attitude of disdain. They wanted the bad people destroyed but Jesus wanted them saved."

"God is seeking those who are lost in our day. Many have lost their bearings and strayed from the straight and narrow. We can be heirs of Jesus today or we can be heirs of the religious leaders of His day."

The Baptist church has ended a very successful Vacation Bible School. Mrs. Edens and her many staff members and helpers deserve a lot of credit for the fine school they conducted.

The building committee of the church will receive the detailed plans for the remodeling of the front of the church in about two weeks. The work on the project is expected to begin very shortly after the plans have been received.

Get Rid of Chiggers!

Having trouble with chiggers? Then you'll be interested in this advice from John Amos, associate entomologist at V. P. I.

Three of the new insecticides are better than the familiar sulphur for chigger control. They are chlorthane, toxaphene and lindane. These materials can be applied either as sprays or dusts. The rates of application per acre are: chlorthane, 1 to 2 pounds; toxaphene 1 to 2 pounds; lindane ¼ to ½ pound.

Do not expose yourself unnecessarily to the chemicals while applying them. Do not treat gardens, and do not let the chemicals drift into ornamental fish pools.

If you're doubtful about exactly where the chiggers are, place a piece of black cardboard edgewise on the ground where you suspect their presence. If you can see small yellowish or pinkish mites moving rapidly over the cardboard and accumulating on the upper edge, you no doubt have located a chigger-infested place. You may also detect them on well polished black shoes.

Polled Shorthorn Sale

The Shenandoah Valley Polled Shorthorn Sale, held at Winchester, Va., saw 61 lots of high quality cattle sell to buyers in eight states at an average price of $585.00. The 48 and 13 females brought a total of $39,865 to make this one of the most successful held in the history of the breed. The Journal is like a home from home to these areas.

To The People of Manassas District:

I am a candidate for membership on the Board of Supervisors from Manassas District, subject to the Primary to be held August 7, 1951.

When I was asked to accept the appointment created by the resignation of Mr. Johnson, I frankly expressed regret of Mr. Johnson's action because we had long been personal friends and I was closely aware that he had been a valuable public servant. I also expressed the hope that he could be induced to withdraw his resignation. Friends of both him and myself told me they tried to talk him out of resigning, but he was resolute and then only did I agree to accept the appointment.

Doing one's honest best for the public good is a source of satisfaction. Official action of the Board I have found requires the same sort of analysis that is required in farming and business enterprises. I have engaged in these activities for many years and have found since going on the Board that practically all of the problems that come before the Board have some similarities to one or more of the fields of my own endeavor.

If nominated in the Primary and elected in the General Election in November, I pledge that I shall devote the best talents I have to my official duties. If you believe I can serve you creditably and competently, I hope you will support me.

Holstein Meet Is Planned At Chantilly

Lawrence L. Richter, National Fieldman of the Holstein Friesian Association of America, will be the principal speaker at the Holstein Breeders meeting to be held at the Chantilly Volunteer Fire House, July 16, at 7:30 daylight time.

County Agent, Joe Beard, announces that in addition to Mr. Richter, there will be Harold Craun, secretary-treasurer of the Virginia Holstein Friesian Association, to take part on the program. Mr. Beard points out that this is one of a series of five meetings to be held in the state similar to a series just completed in West Virginia. The program will include a tour of J. B. Smith's hay drying equipment; a discussion of "The Value of Getting Into Purebred Dairy Cattle Business," now while the beef value of grades is high; a movie of "Holstein in the Native Land."

This type of meeting by the Holstein people is something new and Mr. Beard urges anyone that is interested in dairy cattle to come out. If you can get there by 7:30, go to Mr. Smith's barn, but if you cannot make it until 8:30 come to the Chantilly Volunteer Fire House.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Might Say The Birds Got "Nettled"

Had dinner with Tik Bradley the other day, and over a frosty bottle of beer I found out about his job with the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service.

"Now just exactly what do you do?" I asked him. "Shoot birds with a cannon" he calmly replies.

Seems they actually do use a cannon—to shoot out a net over a flock of birds feeding on the ground. The birds start to take off at the sound of the shot, but the settling net brings them back to earth. Then they're banded around the leg so more can be learned about their migratory habits. Afterwards, they're let loose—and everyone's happy.

From where I sit, it was a good example of how when you learn the real facts they're often not as bad as they may sound at first. Like with people. Get to really know your neighbor and chances are you'll be more tolerant of his preferences—even though they're not your own. Take a good look, before you jump to conclusions.

Polio Victim In Need of Wheel Chair

Many of you remember an article that appeared in this paper about a year ago about Shirley Hedges. In case a few of you didn't read it, Shirley has had polio since she was 5 years old and she is now 16. She is confined to her bed and cannot walk. About a year ago a man and his wife in Maryland presented Shirley with a television set and she has had a lot of enjoyment with it.

Now your correspondent would like to know if there is anyone, who has a wheelchair that has the adjustable legs, as she cannot bend one of her legs. Fresh air would do her good and she would enjoy getting out in the yard. If someone has one, she would be so grateful for the use of it and would take good care of same. If there is anyone, who could help her with a chair, please call or write Mrs. Dorothy Acord, Dumfries, Va., or phone Triangle 131-J-2.

$51,373.43 COUNTY SURPLUS

Mr. C. A. Sinclair has just revealed that Prince William County has a SURPLUS of $51,373.43 in the general fund of the county, as of July 1, 1951, which is the beginning of a new fiscal year. In spite of this surplus in the county fund we are faced with a 60c rise in the tax levy, giving us a rate of $2.90 which is the highest in the history of Prince William County.

This county surplus knocks the very props out from under the members of the Board of Supervisors in their contention for higher taxes. They were advised at the time they fixed the tax levy that the rise was not necessary. This advice was ignored. It seems they take a delight in grinding the poor people of the county under their heels, while they play the fiddle and deliberately squander $41,875.00 on building plans that never will be used—not to say anything about other wasted funds.

But look what WE HAVE TO PAY for their mistakes and the money they have wasted. Our taxes this year are over 26% higher than they were last year. Just look at this comparison and figure out how much MORE you will have to pay.

$ 25.00 last year.....	$ 31.50 this year
50.00 last year.....	63.00 this year
75.00 last year.....	94.50 this year
100.00 last year.....	126.00 this year
125.00 last year.....	157.50 this year
175.00 last year.....	220.00 this year
200.00 last year.....	252.00 this year

We are saddled with an unreasonably high tax—a tax which is higher than any other county in Northern Virginia—15c higher than Arlington, for example, 25c higher than Fairfax and $1.25 higher than Loudoun and Fauquier counties.

Now—if you will look closely at these figures you will see why the tax rate should have been REDUCED instead of being raised. The assessed values in the county are about eighteen million dollars. If you will multiply that by the rate of $2.90 you will find that the Board anticipated raising about $522,000.00.

The new unit or units at the Possum Point power project will add about two or two and one-half million to our assessed values. This will bring in an additional $45,000.00 or more.

Now, you add this $45,000.00 from the power plant project, plus the $51,373.43 surplus money in our treasury, plus the $41,875.00 which the Board wasted on building plans and you will get a sum which when added to the other revenue would have allowed a tax REDUCTION to about $2.15 instead of being raised to $2.90, provided the expenditures for the two years would be approximately the same.

The County Treasurer says that the higher the tax rate the more delinquent taxes we have. It looks like the Board is determined to make the poor man poorer.

Again I must say that this is neither the New Deal nor the Fair Deal. This is the Raw Deal.

Preparations for handling continued high polio incidence in 1951 are being made by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, Edward K. Uhler, Chairman of the Fairfax County Chapter of the National Foundation declared today.

Returning from a regional polio planning meeting in Washington, D. C. on June 18, Mr. Uhler said "polio outbreaks must be expected this summer, though no one can say where they will occur or how severe they will be."

"Because incidence in the last three years has tripled across the country," he added, "we have no reason to expect any remarkable drop in cases during 1951. For this reason, we are trying to be ready to handle polio cases in whatever numbers they may occur."

Mr. Uhler said 190 National Foundation chapter representatives from Virginia, Maryland, West Virginia, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware, and District of Columbia, attended the regional planning session.

Mr. Uhler, chapter chairman, said the Fairfax chapter was surveying its services and procedures with a view to meeting any emergency that might arise in a manner calculated to make the most effective use of available March of Dimes funds.

Last year in Fairfax County, Mr. Uhler said there were fifty-one cases of polio. The local chapter spent $20,465.51 in providing patient care for all those who needed financial help, he said, adding:

"Nationally there were 33,351 cases of polio in 1950—a tremendous load, considering the record outbreak of the year before when 42,336 cases were reported.

Correspondents are requested to send copy in early.

SENIOR WOMEN'S CLUB

worry and indifference

OVERANXIETY, particularly about health, is a disease in itself. Physicians call it hypochondria. Those who "enjoy" ill health only make themselves and those about them miserable.

Opposed to chronic worry is complete indifference, to the point of disregard of common-sense health rules and contempt for medical care.

Between these two absurd extremes lies the sane middle road. Petty, transient discomforts need not cause grave concern and frequent trips to the doctor. When symptoms persist or recur with annoying frequency, it is then time to seek professional assistance. Indifference under these circumstances only invites more serious trouble.
