Welcomed... to Jacob Garber, superintendent of Prince William County Schools. He has purchased the Gerald Peters residence on Taylor street and he and his family expect to take possession about the 15th of the month. The transaction was handled by John Brennan, local real estate broker.

Glances... Dudley Martin, busy campaigning for Senator Andrew Clarke... Rev. F. L. Baker trying to mow his lawn... "Bad back" kicking up... "Doc" Cooke jumping around... Calton Merriam might be pleased with the reception given the opening of his new servicenter... R. Worth Peters getting set for a well-earned vacation... everybody looking to see the "letter."

A postal card from "Buck" Wheat, who writes from Cuba... here for a few days. Really wonderful! The Wheat has been vacationing in Florida for the past few weeks.

Don't forget to vote next Tuesday. We're a great believer in the VOTE AS YOU PLEASE, BUT VOTE!

We are indebted to Mrs. Dennis Baker for a plate that was evidently given as a subscription premium with the Manassas Democrat, which was published here during the early nineties. The plate carries a print of a Christy painting and the wording, "compliments of The Democrat, Manassas, Va."

The Town Council had its picture taken Monday night, which we understand will be used in an early issue of the magazine, published by the Virginia League of Municipalities. Haven't seen the completed picture, but their pose was far from natural. They looked just a little too peaceful and harmonious.

The Lions and Kiwanians made net profit of $47.33 on their recent dance, it was reported this week by Ralph Hesse, chairman of the affair.

Wide interest... being shown in the Prince William County Fair which will hold its annual exposition at Longview Park on August 24, 25. Premium books, and entry lists are available at the local office.

There's no secret... it will prove to be a real success in every way... says Ralph Hesse, chairman of the affair.

Get your name... Name reflects... your name box... are being offered free with each year subscription to The Journal. Initial order has been received and a new shipment is on the way.

It was The Journal's intention to carry the pictures of all the candidates in the Primary Election in this issue. But the flood of ads has made it impossible. Look for the winners next week.

Prince William Electric Cooperative employees, their families and members of the Board of Directors enjoyed their annual outing Friday evening at Libeau Beach. Good food, croquet, horse-rides and other games made it a pleasurable event and one long to be remembered.

Volunteers wanted... for the Lions Club "work day" which will be held August 11th at the Manassas Recreation Association Park on the Centerville Road. The Lions will do old clothes and devote the day to cleaning up the park. Others in the community are asked to volunteer their services in this worthy community project.

LADIES AID SOCIETY... The Ladies Aid Society of the Manassas Baptist Church will meet with Mrs. Robert Young, August 12th, at 8:00 p. m.

Francis M. Coffey, candidate for supervisor from Dumfries District, is opposed by Col. James E. Kerr. The winner will meet Supervisor Jack Fick, Republican, in the November election.

HEAVY VOTE SEEN IN TUESDAY'S PRIMARY ELECTION

Many Plan Entries at 1951 County Fair

Attractive premiums are being offered for all classes of livestock, dairy, crops, poultry and garden exhibits at the Prince William County Fair from August 23 to 25 and farmers of the county are being urged by the Fair Committee to cooperate by exhibiting in as many classes as possible in this second annual event at Longview Park.

Arrangement have been made for large tents to house the animal, crops and homemaker entries and competent judges from V.P.I. have been engaged to judge and place the exhibits.

There will be classes for dairy cattle, beef cattle, hogs, poultry, farm products, flowers, baked and canned goods, vegetables, handwork, clothing, sewing and floriculture.

Many farmers from the county have already made dairy, swine and beef cattle entries and the committee is arranging for still larger tents to house these exhibits as a result of advance entries. The slogan of the Fair Committee for 1951 is "Farms Forever, Forever Farms."

The Prince William County Fair is sponsored by the Veterans Farm Club in cooperation with County Extension Workers and Vocational Agricultural Instructors. The Junior Department is limited to boys and girls in the 4-H clubs and vocational agriculture and homemaking departments of the county but the open classes for adults are open to exhibitors from outside as well as in Prince William County.

Over $1,500 in premiums will be awarded.

Green Begins Duties As DHIA Supervisor

Lloyd Green, Bristow, assumed his duties as supervisor of Prince William County No. 1 Dairy Herd Improvement Association, August 1. Mr. Green, a graduate of the Brentsville District High School, has completed an intensive course in testing technique and the keeping of DHIA records in the Dairy Department at V. P. I. and succeeds Herbert Wood, Nokesville, as supervisor of the No. 1 Association.

Church Plans Home-Coming

The Manassas Church of the Brethren will hold "home-coming" services Sunday, with the Rev. Edward Ziegler, first pastor of the church, as guest speaker at both the morning and afternoon sessions.

Rev. Ziegler, formerly of the Bridgewater Church of the Brethren, is now the national director of evangelism for the church. His subject for the morning service, beginning at 10:30 EST, will be "A Strong Local Church Essential to World Evangelism." At the afternoon service, beginning at 1:45 EST, his subject will be "The Church Building and Its Effect Upon the Life of the Individual and Community."

Among interesting features of the afternoon service will be the presentation of the "History of the Manassas Church of the Brethren," which has just been printed in booklet form by the Rev. Paul Swigart. Plans of the proposed new church edifice will be presented by Pastor Conrad Snavely. This will be followed by the launching of the final drive for $19,000 which is needed to begin construction of the new building.

This One Didn't Get Away

Bill Saylor proudly displays a 3-pound bass which he landed while fishing in the pond on his place, near Manassas, last week. The bass measured 18 inches long. It is the largest caught by Saylor, since he stocked the pond three years ago.

Town Fathers Sit Four Hours; Firemen Cite Need of Water

The members of the Manassas town council sat for nearly four hours at their regular meeting Monday night, and although a lengthy session, there was little business of importance accomplished.

The firm of Johnson and Williams, municipal engineers, asked for an opinion from the Council on the extension of the runways at the Municipal Airport to make it a Class I Airport. It was stated that additional land would be required to extend the runways. Acting Town Manager Tiffany was instructed to contact the OAA on the matter.

Chief Raymond Davis and fireman Alvin Compton of the Manassas Volunteer Fire Department called the Council's attention to the town's low water supply and the need for greater protection in case of a major fire. Compton estimated that the town had only enough water for only 65 minutes of fire-fighting at full capacity.

Hookup with the Southern Railway's supply as a reserve in case of emergency was urged. It was decided to ask the railway company's permission to tap its water tank so as to serve two hydrants on either side of the tracks. This would provide three to six additional streams of water.

Candidates Make Final Bid For Votes; Contests For Senate, Sheriff, And Supervisor Seats

Prince William County voters are expected to go to the polls in record-breaking numbers in Tuesday's Democratic Primary Election, according to political observers.

A two-way contest for State Senate, a three-cornered race for county sheriff, and five district contests for supervisor provide fuel to fan the interest of the voters and keep the candidates active and on their toes right up to voting time Tuesday.

On Vacation

R. WORTH PIERSON, whose resignation as superintendent of schools of Prince William County took effect this week, is leaving for a complete rest and extended vacation. Mr. Pierson says his plans for the future are as yet incomplete, due to order from his physician. At the present he is compelled to save his physical strength as much as possible. He is succeeded as superintendent by Jacob M. Garber, of Fishersville, who assumed his new duties this week.

While most contests have been conducted on a high plane, two of the supervisor races have been marked by bitterness and strong accusations which indicate one of the most hotly contested elections in years.

The biggest vote ever cast in a Prince William primary election occurred 8 years ago when the total vote approximated 2,100. This total is expected to be exceeded in next Tuesday's primary.

In the congressional race in 1950, the Prince William vote totaled less than 600.

Most of the candidates are winding up their campaigns this week with large newspaper advertisements. On Saturday a pre-election outing will be held at the Lions Memorial Recreation Park, between Triangle and Quantico, to give the contestants an opportunity to meet personally many of the voters. This event will be featured by a crab-feast which is expected to bring out a large crowd.

Manassas P.O.W. Writes Of Brother's Death in North Korea

Word of the death of their son, Sgt. William Allen Tripp, U.S.M.C., was received yesterday by Mr. and Mrs. Albert F. Tripp, Manassas.

Allen died of pneumonia on March 6th while a prisoner of war in North Korea, according to the letter sent by his brother, Sgt. Stanley Tripp, also held captive by the Reds.

The parents first learned that their two sons were missing in action on December 8, 1950, and it is believed that they were captured at the same time, and had been able to keep together while prisoners of war.

Stanley's letter said: "We did all we could for him, and the Chinese Peoples Volunteer Army Service, did all they could." He also said, "I had the flu pretty bad but over it now. I'm doing pretty good."

hope this thing ends soon so we all can come home. Get in on the peace drive and get this thing stopped."

The envelope carried the Chinese postal frank, which read: "Service des prisonniers de guerre." Stamped on the envelope was the wording, "Via the Chinese Peoples Committee for World Peace and Against American Aggression, Peking, China."

The two brothers enlisted January 14, 1949, and had been together during most of their enlistment. Another brother is in the U. S. Navy.

Allen was born in Manassas, December, 1931. He attended the local schools here before he enlisted. Besides his parents, he is survived by several brothers and sisters.

His father, is employed by the Southern Railway Company.

Know Your Candidates

Wheatley M. Johnson Served County as Judge and Supervisor

Wheatley M. Johnson, who was last to file as candidate for supervisor from Manassas District, to make the contest a three-cornered race, needs little introduction to the people of the district.

His long tenure of service on the Board of Supervisors and his interest in dairy farming, plus his activity in community affairs, make his name wellknown to most of the electorate.

A native of Prince William County Mr. Johnson has been engaged in dairy farming most of his life. He is a graduate of Manassas Institute, Washington and Lee, and Vanderbilt University. He holds B.S. and M.S. degrees.

He served as judge of the Juvenile and Domestic Relations Court from 1931 to 1933. He was named to the Board of Supervisors in 1937 to fill the unexpired term of C. E. Nash, and continued to serve until September, 1949.

He was active in the campaign for change in county government to executive form, and when the Board of Supervisors reversed itself on the referendum election, he resigned from office.

He is a member of the American Legion Post and the Farm Bureau. As a dairyman, he has always been vigorally concerned with the agricultural progress of Prince William. His dairy farm is one of the most successfully operated in this section. Despite his dairy interests, he has always taken a keen interest in public affairs.

Bristersburg Beats Macs, 4-3; Nokesville Wins Over Triangle

The Manassas Macs dropped a close one to Bristersburg, Sunday, the latter being aided by the stick work of Bud Matheny, former New York Yankee outfielder, who collected a double and two singles off the offerings of Russ Polen, the losers' ace pitcher.

In all, Polen gave up 10 hits, and showed perfect control by not issuing a single free pass.

The game was all knotted up in the sixth at 3-3, when Bristersburg got an unearned run to gain the advantage and hold it until the end. The winning run was scored when Herbert Bushby dropped a ball hit by A. Dye to right field, who took second on the error. He crossed the plate a few moments later on a single by L. Dye. The scoring occurred after two were out.

Nokesville Wins

Nokesville kept up its winning pace and tightened its hold on runner-up position by downing Triangle, 7-5. The winners now lead third-place Manassas by 2½ games.

For the Firemen, Reid led at bat with a triple and two singles, closely followed by Brown, who had a double and a single. Dallas Posey had four singles for Triangle. Tops Amidon had three singles.

Hoke was the winning pitcher and Amidon, the loser. Triangle garnered 14 hits, as compared to 8 for Nokesville.

Imagine the umpires playing ball. This will happen here Friday when the Manassas Macs take on the Northern Virginia Umpires Association under lights at Swavely Field, Friday night. Looks like the Macs just won't stand a chance.

Exhibition tennis matches as held here Sunday help to stimulate interest in the sport. Ray Gibson is devoting a lot of time and work to encourage more participation in the game in Manassas. He's doing a swell job.

Along the fairways... hear that Judge Sinclair and Ralph Hesse are thinking of starting a Rod and Gun Club, so disgusted are they with their game... Maury Wells, who never touched a golf club until this season, is giving the boys a run for their money... Kim Scott was all upset over the 91 he got Sunday. Some guys are never satisfied... The local divot-diggers have been playing at Fairfax recently. It's not only nearer but it's easier!

Mike Martine went up to New Jersey last week and brought home some cash and a medal as his share for participating with a championship bowling team early this Spring. Mike sure has to drive a long distance to earn his laurels.

GAINESVILLE LOSES

In "B" division, Gainesville lost to Hume, 8-5, Sunday, to all but eliminate the losers in a chance for the pennant.

Hume batters ganged up on Holl to chalk up 7 runs in the first three innings. Squeezer Polen went in at that point and held them to one run but the damage had already been done. Pickrell started for Hume and received credit for the win. Bragg took over in the 7th frame.

What W. B. Doak Should Do

This statement is intended for those who have read or heard of the vague insinuations made against my honesty and integrity in the last few days in a mimeographed handbill put out over the name of W. B. Doak. Both local papers refused to print that handbill because of the libelous nature of the subject-matter.

I am doing my level best not to be bitter over this matter because I firmly believe the handbill would never have been circulated or offered for print if I had not been running for public office. These insinuations are all false.

To prove my sincerity, I here and now call on Mr. W. B. Doak and all of the persons well known to me to have had a part in spreading those handbills, to present whatever evidence they have to a GRAND JURY for indictment and prosecution. The court is the proper forum for determining what should be done. On the eve of an election is not the time either.

I welcome a thorough investigation. If those implicated with Mr. Doak do not initiate such an investigation, I shall do so myself. I have studiously avoided attacking the character and personal integrity of anyone in this campaign and if public office must come in that manner, I much prefer not to gain such office.

Funds Sought Red Cross Flood Relief

An appeal for funds for victims of the flood in four midwestern states was started here this week by the Prince William County Chapter Red Cross, following a nation-wide plea for aid to the stricken states.

Mrs. Joseph Mills Hanson, local chairman of the Red Cross disaster fund, today called on county residents to contribute to the cause.

Funds may be sent to Mrs. Hanson, Box 128, Manassas, or to National Red Cross Headquarters, Alexandria. Containers for donations are being placed in public places around the county, in the hope that the county's share of the National Fund will be raised.

An Important Election

Tuesday's primary election is only a few days away. The bally-ho that has attended the campaigns of the various candidates will in a short time be forgotten. It is expected that at least 2,000 or more citizens in Prince William will cast their ballots.

This is Democracy at work . . . this is the American way of voting as we please and for whom we please.

The candidates have spoken. Now, it is our turn to decide how we mark the ballot. In making that decision, not always an easy one, we are choosing men whom we want to represent us in state, county and local government.

Keep this in mind when you vote next Tuesday!

U.D.C. Chapter Meets With Mrs. Powell

The regular meeting of the United Daughters of the Confederacy was held Wednesday afternoon, August 1, at Mrs. R. C. Powell's with Mrs. E. D. Wissler as assistant hostess.

The president, Miss Isabelle Hutchison, presided and gave the U.D.C. ritual.

Mrs. Florence Newman, historian, told the chapter quite interestingly of Judah Phillip Benjamin, who was Secretary of War, and also Secretary of State in the cabinet of Jeff Davis.

Mrs. E. H. Marsteller, chairman of credentials for membership, presented the names of Mrs. John Whiteley Jr., great-granddaughter of the late Judge William E. Lipscomb; Mrs. Mitchell Mitchell, Jr., daughter-in-law of the late General "Billy" Mitchell, and Miss Ray Burhen, grand-daughter of Mrs. Joseph Kincheloe, and great-granddaughter of the late James Cornelius Kincheloe.

Mrs. Marsteller presented to the chapter six pictures as a gift from Mrs. Yost Meetze in memory of her father, the late Richard Montgomery Jones, Co. A, 9th Virginia Cavalry, of Stafford County. The chapter gratefully accepted these appropriate pictures with great pride and pleasure.

Mrs. J. C. Messer gave a very spirited account of the celebration on the Battlefield on the 21st of July.

Fourteen members and two guests were present at the meeting, and the chapter adjourned to meet in September with Mrs. Robert A. Hutchison.

Letters To The Editor

POLITICAL RALLIES

Editor Journal:

On Monday evening, July 23rd, I attended a political rally at Centerville. The people of Fairfax County have been holding such meetings all over the county. The candidates for the various offices attended these meetings. They were given an opportunity to speak and the audience was given an opportunity to ask questions of these candidates.

(This was a very democratic procedure.)

SUDLEY METHODIST

The Sudley Charge will hold its annual "All Day Picnic" this Sunday, August 5, at Camp Highroad, near Mountville, Va. There will be no services at the Gainesville or Sudley churches. Those driving are requested to meet at the church at 10 a.m. (EST) to take others to the picnic. Bring the family and a picnic basket. Worship will be held at the camp at 11:15 (EST).

cedure. The audience was given a chance to see and hear their candidates and had a better opportunity to vote for.

It is a very unfortunate thing that Mr. Kincheloe refused to appear at a public debate, voice his opinions and be seen and heard. This is the very essence of democracy and when an invitation like this is refused it seems to me that this is running away from our democratic form of government.

There is no need for the matter of personalities to enter into a public discussion like this. A competent chairman is put in charge and parliamentary procedure is used. The discussion is held to the subject at hand.

It seems to me that Mr. Kincheloe has violated the democratic procedure in refusing to appear at a public debate.

I hope that public meetings, such as they have had in Fairfax county, hereafter will become a regular such meetings. The public is certainly entitled to see and hear and question their candidates they are asked to vote for.

ROY HELMS.

Editor's Note: We heartily agree with Mr. Helms on the matter of holding political rallies or meetings. There is a vast difference, however, in the meaning of "debate" and "rally."

VOTE FOR JOHN DONOVAN

For State Senate

TO REPRESENT ALL THE PEOPLE
Democratic Primary, August 7, 1951

Mr. Gossom Answers Roland

I had been in hopes that the campaign for the Gainesville District seat on the county board of supervisors would be carried through without mud-slinging, but I see my opponent has joined hands with some of the worst of the candidates in other districts in persisting in mud-slinging be injected in the campaign.

I would like to state first that EVERYTHING I HAVE DONE while a member of the board of supervisors HAS BEEN DONE FOR THE PEOPLE OF THE DISTRICT and NOT for any one man.

In regard to the charge that I rendered a bill to the county for work done on the remodeling of the county office, this is UNTRUE. I never rendered a bill to the county for this work, and I don't intend to be for this work.

My opponent states that Prince William County's share in welfare in the 1951-52 VPA budget is $97,149. THIS IS FALSE. The county only pays about one-third of this amount, or $28,850.45.

My opponent brings up a Welfare Department matter involving Clint Foley, who had been struck by an automobile. The affair became tangled up and complicated ONLY while my opponent was a member of the board of supervisors.

When I became a member of the board, I took steps to clear up the matter TO THE BENEFIT OF ALL CONCERNED. I did not concur in any "coniving" in this matter, as during the time I was supervisor, THERE WAS NO "CONIVING" DONE. I do not know if any "coniving" was done BEFORE I became a supervisor. This is something for my opponent to answer.

In reference to my being sick, sickness comes to all, and at the time we least expect. But I'm thankful that my physical condition is as good today as for any man of my age. I think my mind is as active and alert and interested in Public Welfare and in the affairs of my district, as anyone else's is.

It is unfortunate that the advertisement in the Manassas Messenger, Tuesday, July 31, placed by the Committee For The Election of C. B. Roland As Supervisor From Gainesville District was not signed by members of the committee. Then the voters of Gainesville District would have someone to go to to get an explanation as to the "facts" the advertisement carried. Doubtless there were no "facts" behind this ad, and the "committee", if there is such a committee, is afraid to make itself public.

I don't wish to be elected on somebody else's desires, but hope to be elected on merits of my own. Let the people of Gainesville District know me well enough to discredit any statements made against my character.

R. B. GOSSOM.

Clarke Favors A Sales Tax

Andrew W. Clarke, candidate for re-election to the State Senate of Virginia from the 29th Senatorial District, "subject to Democratic Primary next Tuesday, August 7, stated in an interview this week that "My opponent has, with minor exceptions, copied my legislative record and made it his political platform."

Senator Clarke has repeatedly stated during the campaign that he favors a sales tax provided that present taxpayers are relieved of certain other taxes. Senator Clarke's opponent has stated that he is opposed to the sales tax. In discussing this issue, Senator Clarke said "41 percent of the people of Virginia pay no taxes. My opponent agrees with these figures. The other 59 percent of the people pay not only their share of the taxes but the share of the other 41 percent as well. This is inequitable and should be corrected. I propose to correct it by supporting a reasonable sales tax, provided that present taxpayers are relieved of certain other taxes, such as the personal property tax and the merchant's license tax, and that the exemptions under the State income tax law be materially increased. I propose that the merchants who collect the sales tax be paid a fee for collection to cover costs, as is satisfactorily done in Maryland and many other States." Asked why he favored the sales tax, Senator Clarke replied: "I favor the sales tax because, first, it is based upon ability to pay—the more a person spends the more he pays in taxes. Families and individuals financially able to spend considerable money on luxury items would pay more in sales taxes; second, that the 41 percent of the persons in Virginia who pay no taxes at the present time, under the sales tax would bear a share of the tax burden; third, that the transient population and tourist trade would bear a portion of the Virginia tax burden. Virginia derives $500,000,000.00 annually from the tourist trade. Most of these tourists are in the habit of paying a sales tax at home. A 2 percent sales tax would derive $10,000,000.00 annually from the tourist trade alone, a source of revenue which would not cost the present taxpayers of Virginia one penny; and, fourth, that surrounding political jurisdictions such as the District of Columbia, Maryland, and many other States, have the sales tax. When we spend money in these jurisdictions, we pay their sales tax. Why shouldn't they do the same when they spend money in Virginia?"

Sensor Clarke pointed out that all citizens and taxpayers should continuously be aware of the fact that the only funds the State of Virginia has to spend come from individual taxpayers through taxes, hidden or otherwise, although during the heat of a campaign a candidate will sometimes lead the unwary to believe that he will be able to obtain Government grants or expenditures at no cost to the taxpayers.

Sensor Clarke stated that he believed that the total tax load on the citizens of Virginia, including Federal, State and local, was dangerously high, and that in order to be fair to our generation and our children, increases in taxes at this time should be avoided unless absolutely necessary for the defense effort.

Let's Get The Facts Straight My Reply to Roy Helms

In view of the looseness and obvious inaccuracy of many of the charges and insinuations of one of my opponents, Roy Helms, many friends have advised me to ignore his statements and avoid getting into a "dogfight."

However, I prefer not to do that. I agree that much of what Mr. Helms has presented for public perusal seems to be based on either ignorance or malice, but I give him the benefit of the doubt. Mr. Helms has also raised points upon which the public is entitled to further clarification. At any rate I believe in a free discussion of the issues, in whatever manner they may be raised.

First of all, taxes. That appears to be Mr. Helms' principal theme—the alleged "high" taxes in Prince William County. Let me remind people first that high real estate taxes hit the large property-owners the hardest, and that they benefit the people with little or no property. High taxes make the fellow with large property go way down into his pocket to provide schools and other facilities for all the people of moderate means. I pay a large sum each year in combined real estate and personal property taxes to Prince William County. From a selfish point of view I would like to be relieved of some of that burden, but I feel that I owe that contribution to the welfare of the people of this county.

However, the fact is that Prince William County taxes are NOT high in comparison with the taxes paid in neighboring counties. They are higher than they used to be, but they are not higher than taxes go nowadays.

Prince William County taxes are considerably lower, calculated either per taxpayer or per $100 of property value, than the taxes paid in Fauquier, Loudoun, Fairfax or Arlington Counties. This is simply a matter of fact, which can be verified by consulting officials and taxpayers of other counties. Only in Stafford, among adjacent counties, are taxes lower than in Prince William County.

The tax rate per $100 is no indication unless the system of assessment is taken into consideration. In Fairfax, for instance, assessment is at 40 per cent of 1950 value, and in Arlington it is at 85 per cent. In Prince William it is at 40 percent of 1941 value! Taxes in Fairfax County are approximately twice what they are in Prince William. (Ask any Fairfax County taxpayer.)

The following table gives the average tax per person in the six counties mentioned by Mr. Helms:

Loudoun	$21.43	Fairfax	35.94
Fauquier	21.36	Arlington	49.16
Stafford	10.05	PRINCE WILLIAM	18.70

Our taxes in Prince William are $7.40 per person less than the average in the six counties.

I only ask you to get the facts—from any official of Prince William County or of our neighboring counties. I admit that the tax question is complicated, but I ask you to get the facts before swallowing the irresponsible statements that have been thrown out during this campaign.

The other "charges" of Mr. Helms should be more easily disposed of, but here again the public is entitled to a lifting of the fog which Mr. Helms has thrown over the facts.

Take the question of the $75,000 jail project, on which Mr. Helms let his imagination run wild. I don't believe it is necessary to go into the "Beauty Rest mattresses," which, of course, nobody but Roy Helms ever dreamed of.

But take the jail project. That wasn't the doing of the Board of Supervisors. Personally, I think the jail we have is adequate and that we should not spend any more money for a jail. Our jail was condemned, not by us, but by the State Department of Welfare and Institutions, as it has the authority to do under the law. Our only alternative to building a new jail would be to send our prisoners back and forth to jails elsewhere at even greater expense to the county. We are simply operating under Virginia law, and cannot do otherwise.

Mr. Helms stated that the County Treasurer had revealed that the fiscal year ended with a $51,373.43 surplus. This is a case of not giving ALL the facts. Mr. Sinclair explained to Mr. Helms that $20,000 of this sum was reserved for the jail. A surplus of $31,373.43 could hardly be considered excessive in view of the fact that county and school expense must still be met before revenues for the current year begin to come in.

I voted for the tax levy this year, because I did not see where we could eliminate any of the services which the people are demanding and at the same time build the jail, which is required of us, and do something about schools.

In Mr. Helms' last letter he makes several complaints which, perhaps, should be dealt with, although it is a little strange that the letter should have been addressed to me. One of his complaints has to do with history before I went on the Board of Supervisors and another has nothing whatever to do with our Board.

The matter of the $41,875 appropriation for architects' fees is a serious one and should be made perfectly clear. This request from the School Board was complied with in order to advance the project for new school construction in Manassas. The proposed bond issue for schools was defeated and that left a Literary Fund Loan as the only resort. It is a requirement of the State Board of Education that architects' drawings have to be made before a Literary Fund Loan can be granted. The drawings will still be used, because the schools must be built somehow. At any rate I hope the public will distinguish between the projects and policies of the School Board, past and present, and those of the Board of Supervisors.

The school survey by the University of Pennsylvania group, to which Mr. Helms gave considerable attention, was strictly and exclusively a School Board matter. I was opposed to it, and I believe my colleagues on the Board of Supervisors were opposed to it. It was simply a School Board action, financed from School Board funds, already appropriated.

Any juggling of school average daily attendance figures is not a matter for me to pass upon and has nothing to do with the present campaign. Not only was it a School Board matter, but any padding of school attendance figures obviously took place before I became a member of the Board of Supervisors in October, 1949. The affair also has nothing to do with Federal funds for Prince William County.

As for Prince William County's being "robbed of thousands of dollars and maybe hundreds of thousands of dollars of Federal funds," I quote the following from a letter of July 24, 1951, addressed to Wheatley M. Johnson by Dowell J. Howard, State Superintendent of Public Instruction:

"... According to the information which I have, no project for the aforementioned counties and cities has been approved for the release of funds. It is my understanding that none of the project applications for these counties and cities had a sufficient priority rating to be approved for current appropriations by Congress for school construction. Up to the present time, no counties of Northern Virginia have received funds under Public Law 815 for school construction.

"It appears that the local authorities and State Department have done all they can and evidently we will simply have to wait developments."

I don't like to tire my friends with too long a statement, and yet I feel that I have dealt all too briefly with some of these problems. I hope any one who wants to go further in detail will come to see me and let me discuss these matters more fully. I will be more than glad to answer any questions and to tell you how I hope to help solve the grave questions which confront our county.

In conclusion I want to say that I believe that I have run into an unusual amount of unjustified criticism and personal abuse, and the loyalty of my friends in the midst of it has made me sincerely grateful. I want to say also that the present contest, for all its unpleasant aspects, has strengthened my determination to devote myself, more than ever before, to the service of the people of my district and my county.

SOCIAL SECURITY

By Ruth G. Duffy, Manager
Alexandria Social Security Office

Monthly benefits under old-age and survivors insurance are intended to help replace the income lost when a person who is regularly employed or self-employed retires in old age or dies. If the worker does not retire, and, therefore, loses his employment income, benefits are not paid to him or to his family, even though he may have reached 65. Nor does a family member (such as a wife, widow, or child), while employed, receive benefits on the worker's record.

An insured person who is 65 and retired may become entitled to benefits for any month in which the law considers him retired. Thereafter, payment of the benefit may be stopped for any month in which he works in a covered job and has a certain amount of earnings.

The test of whether a person is considered retired or regularly employed is the earnings test. The law provides that no benefit may be paid to a beneficiary—either a retired worker or a family member—for any month in which he receives more than $50 in wages for work in employment covered by the Social Security Act. (A similar test is made for earnings in self-employment.) You will note that the test applies only to earnings in covered work. In 1950, when additional employment became covered by the Act, earnings from newly covered employment were also taken in consideration for this test of retirement.

The earnings test does not apply for any beneficiary who is 75 or over. This provision is of special interest to self-employed persons who often continue to be at least partly active in business for many years after they reach 65.

The Alexandria office is located at 815 King Street. In addition to the City of Alexandria this office services the Counties of Arlington, Culpeper, Fairfax, Fauquier, Loudoun, Prince William, and Rappahannock. Office hours are from 9:00 a. m. to 5:00 p. m. (Daylight Saving Time) on Monday through Friday.

COLLAPSES IN WOODS

Mrs. Harold Neff was the victim of a strange and unfortunate accident on Thursday when she had gone to the woods about a mile from their farm to secure some sand to plant a gardenia. Her little daughter had accompanied her and together they stooped to admire a fern which Mrs. Neff planned to take home with her. At the moment something, either a vertebrae or disc, in her backbone, slipped and Mrs. Neff collapsed on the ground, being unable to move. The little daughter hastened home to tell Ramona, the older daughter, what had occurred. Ramona ran more than a mile to the nearest neighbors for help. A stretcher was brought and Mrs. Neff was carried to her home where she was examined by the physician, who had been summoned to the Neff home. Mrs. Neff had to remain perfectly quiet on the stretcher for 24 hours and is still confined to her bed and perfect quiet until her condition improves. She is resting as comfortably as she can.

When I was asked to accept the appointment created by the resignation of Mr. Johnson, I frankly expressed regret of Mr. Johnson's action because we had long been personal friends and I was closely aware that he had been a valuable public servant. I also expressed the hope that he could be induced to withdraw his resignation. Friends of both him and myself told me they tried to talk him out of resigning, but he was resolute and then only did I agree to accept the appointment.

Doing one's honest best for the public good is a source of satisfaction. Official action of the Board I have found requires the same sort of analysis that is required in farming and business enterprises. I have engaged in these activities for many years and have found since going on the Board that practically all of the problems that come before the Board have some similarities to one or more of the fields of my own endeavor.

If nominated in the Primary and elected in the General Election in November, I pledge that I shall devote the best talents I have to my official duties. If you believe I can serve you creditably and competently, I hope you will support me.

est; however, weather conditions were not as favorable for growth of the seed. The Reporting Service estimates the yield to be 16.5 bushels—a reduction of 2 bushels from last year.

Although Virginia's production and yield is down, it still leads the nation in both of these factors. JUNIOR HD CLUB

Mrs. Kate Huff and Mrs. Elsie Michael were hostesses to the Junior Women's Home Demonstration Club last Tuesday, when the club met in the basement of the Nokesville Church of the Brethren.

The club had as its guests for the afternoon the members of the Nokesville Girls' 4-H club. Mrs. Virginia Wilkins was in charge of entertaining them. The club decided to put off until next month the election of officers.

Mrs. Virginia Wilkins is representing the club at the annual meeting of club women at V.P.I. Quite a lot of discussion followed the announcing of what is expected of the women at the County Fair. A lady was appointed for each kind of exhibit to see that the club would be well represented in all exhibits. Mrs. Fred Shepherd gave the demonstration on exhibiting at the Fair.

YOUNG FOLKS ENTERTAINED

The young folks of the Nokesville Church of the Brethren were entertained by the Shepherd-Bowman families at their homes on Thursday evening. Early in the evening the young folks arrived to play croquet, badminton and horseshoes. The worship service, held at dusk before the lovely fireplace used for the worship center, was given by Rev. and Mrs. Eugene Nolley and featured the recording of "Johnny Appleseed." After the business meeting, presided over by Ralph Croushorn, the young folks enjoyed at the watermelon they could eat.

We are so sorry to hear of the illness in the Crummitt family. Mrs. A. Crummitt has just recently returned from the hospital. Little Miss Marilyn Yankey walked this week for the first time since she cut her leg very badly two weeks ago.

Our little town is constantly receiving new and interesting improvements. Among these is the fact that our post office is now open every evening. The Southern States has added a paint "shaker" for the benefit of their customers (By the way, are you planning to attend their annual meeting for all their patrons at the school on Monday night). McMichael's Service Center has secured the lower lot of the Fred Shepherd place which they are using to display lots of new and used machinery. All of these, we think, are very definite added improvements to our town.

The Children's Department of the Nokesville Church of the Brethren with Mrs. Ted Shepherd as director, met last week to make plans to be hosts to the Children Workers of the District when it meets at that church all day, Wednesday, August 8. The annual district meeting is being held at the Valley Church on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of next week.

Birthday greetings this week to two very nice Nokesville neighbors, Miss Florence Colving and Mrs. J. I. Payne.

Miss Peggy Wilkins is spending this week with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Henley, in Glen Echo, Md.

WEEKEND RETREAT

Misses Joyce Moyers, Rosa Lee Beahm, Peggy Shepherd, Peggy Wilkins and Ralph Croushorn represented the young folks of the Nokesville Church of the Brethren at the weekend retreat at the Bacon Hollow Church in Greene County last weekend. Subject to Democratic Primary

August 7, 1951

Having announced my candidacy for the Prince William County Board of Supervisors from Occoquan District, I respectfully solicit the support of the voters of this district.

If elected, I will endeavor to serve the best interests of all, and work for the advancement of our county.

It is my sincere desire to conduct and carry through an honest campaign.

MANLEY GARBER

VOTE for GARBER*THE BUDGET IS EVERYBODY'S BUSINESS

The object of the law requiring the Board of Supervisors to make up and publish an annual budget before they set the tax levy is to inform the public about any new expense so that they may approve or disapprove it beforehand.

To that end, the published budget should be as simple as possible but should especially call attention to any increases and give the reasons for them.

Nobody can foretell a year in advance what all their expenses will be, but except in an emergency, all construction jobs should be set out in the budget and except in an emergency, all salary increases under the control of the Board of Supervisors should date from the beginning of the fiscal year, July 1st. (If this last had been watched, you would have had simpler minutes during January and February the last two years and would not have had a 37% increase in annual County expenses in that time.)

The Board of Supervisors must also approve the budgets of the School Board and the Welfare Board but they have no authority to change any item but only the total. The School Board budget as submitted last year, contained no funds for construction but at the insistence of the Board of Supervisors, a new budget was prepared which loosely set out funds from literary loans but which the Superintendent openly stated that he did not intend to follow. That he did not do so, is shown by the fact that the School Board contracted for architects fees to be repaid from literary loans and then cancelled the applications for literary loans and tossed the bill in the lap of the Board of Supervisors. And under this circumstance confronted with a moral if not a legal debt against the County the Board of Supervisors did what any responsible person would have done and paid the bill.

Less justifiable, because no emergency existed, was the allowance of $10,000 for extras in the Washington Reid School and the transfer of $5,500 to reimburse the School Board for purchase of the athletic field at Manassas and additional land at Nokesville, neither of which were in their budget.

The public has the right to insist that the Board of Supervisors shall use good business judgment but shall have vision enough to explore uncharted ways, if necessary, but backbone enough to say "No" to demands of pressure groups which are not in the public interest.

The Budget is everybody's business and the election of your Board is also everybody's business. Pick your representative freely and then VOTE.

Turkey Production Expected to Increase

An increase in turkey production this year likely will again displace some broiler production in Virginia.

D. U. Livermore, poultry marketing specialist at V. P. I., says the displacement probably will be at the rate of nearly two broilers for each turkey, until the turkeys move onto range.

Chick placements in the Shenandoah Valley for the 12-week period ending June 30 went up only 12 percent from 1950. This relatively small increase, compared to other commercial areas which showed a 37 percent increase, probably is the result of an increase in turkey poult placements. Livermore says.

On the other hand, turkey poult hatched in the Valley for the season through late June totaled 3-700,000, an increase of 56 percent from a year ago. Eggs set during the week ending June 23 were 82 percent above a year earlier.

At the end of the 12-week period broiler prices in the Valley had declined to 28c, off 2c from the price prevailing at the beginning of the period. The price of chicken was 87 percent of parity in June compared to 92 percent in May.

The price of turkey in Virginia at mid-June had declined 3c during the month to 42c per pound, but was 10c higher than a year earlier.

Termite Control Should Begin Before Building

Don't give termites a one-way ticket to your home.

If you are building, or thinking of building, a home, you can save some added expense later by following now some suggestions for termite control.

Entomologists at V. P. I. say ground-nesting termites can cause you plenty of trouble if you don't check them early.

Most of these termites infest buildings because the wood lies in direct or indirect contact with the moist ground. So before you begin building, go through the soil with a fine tooth rake and remove all wood debris. During construction, keep pieces of lumber and wallboard from being buried around the foundation. Once you remove the wood, lumber, stakes, etc., and you have built your foundations free of cracks and crevices, you have taken the two most important steps in protecting your house against termites.

are planning to increase production of Beltsville white poult next fall for turkey broilers.

A STATEMENT

IN ANSWER TO THE UNJUST AND FALSE AT-TACKS ON J. CARL KINCHELOE, AND REASONS
WHY WE URGE HIS RE-ELECTION AS SUPER-VISOR FROM THE MANASSAS DISTRICT.

Frequently, is the best policy to ignore false and malicious statements made against one of your friends when you know such statements are without any basis and truth. However, when your friend is a candidate for public office and he is attacked without any just cause and that attack is aided and abetted by a person seeking nomination for the same office, then it appears proper to answer the false charges.

J. Carl Kincheloe, a Candidate for the Democratic nomination to the Prince William County Board of Supervisors, has been unjustly and falsely attacked in "the letter" consisting of a mimeographed circular bearing the name of W. B. Doak as its author. J. Carl Kincheloe has expressly denied each and every charge made by Doak. We have made an investigation of these unwarranted and false charges made by Mr. Doak, who, incidentally, is a resident of Fairfax County, Virginia. We have found that there are no facts on which a reasonable man could, by any stretch of his imagination, substantiate the charges contained therein. It is reliably reported that Roy Helms has assisted in distributing this so-called letter apparently without making any investigation of the truth or falsity of the charges contained therein. We are sure that if he had made any investigation whatever, he should have been able to readily ascertain that the statements were wholly false. Apparently he had no desire to make any investigation but chose to hid behind W. B. Doak and endeavor to smeat the good name of J. Carl Kincheloe.

What could be Helms' purpose other than to attempt to secure the Democratic nomination for the candidate for Board of Supervisors from Manassas District? Is this an exhibition of gentlemanly and intelligent (if not Christian) conduct on his part? Does this show him to be a man of high moral standards?

We believe that the public is entitled to know all the facts about each and every candidate, but that this type of attack was unwarranted and clearly demonstrates that a person guilty of such conduct is unfit to represent the citizens of Manassas District on the Board of Supervisors.

J. Carl Kincheloe has lived in Manassas District his entire life. His honesty, moral integrity and business ability have been clearly established for years. Such a man should be the choice as our representative.

Remember that our form of Government will serve the people best only when the people elect from their midst the persons best qualified to represent them in Government. We sincerely believe that J. Carl Kincheloe is the man who can best represent us on the Board of Supervisors and respectfully solicit your support of him in the August 7 primary.

Candidate for Re-election, State Senate
Subject to Democratic Primary, August 7, 1951

LET'S FACE THE FACTS!

TAXES:—

You, as an intelligent voter, know that the only money the State of Virginia has to spend, come from you and the other taxpayers. Increased spending by the State Government must result in increased taxes, either immediately or by deficit spending. Debts created by deficit spending means increased taxes to pay the debt and payment of interest upon the debt. You also know that taxes collected from corporations and business are simply reflected in increased cost of goods purchased by you.

You, as a loyal American interested in the future stability of our State and nation, know that the total tax load of Government, Federal, State and local is dangerously high, leaving insufficient money to you, as a taxpayer, to properly raise your family, purchase a home, other items of convenience and necessity, and to make reasonable savings or investments to prepare for health emergencies and your old age.

The United States Treasury figures disclose that in 1950 the per-family share of the Federal debt was $6,786.00 compared to $571.00 per family in 1929, and $1,165 per family in 1939. This Federal debt plus current expenses of the Federal Government and increased Federal debt caused by the Defense effort can only be paid by you, as a taxpayer, and your children. These figures do not include State or local tax burdens.

Let us be fair to our generation and to our children! Unless absolutely necessary for the Defense effort, let us avoid an increase in taxes and deficit spending on the part of our State Government.

The tax on real estate in Virginia is high. In my opinion, it should be increased only as a last resort. 41% of the people of Virginia pay no taxes (my opponent agrees with these figures). 59%, including you as a taxpayer, pay not only your share but the share of the other 41% as well. This is inequitable and should be corrected. I propose to correct it by supporting a reasonable sales tax, provided that present taxpayers are relieved of certain other taxes, such as the personal property tax and the merchant's license tax, and that the exemptions under the State income tax law be materially increased. I propose that the merchants who collect the tax be paid a fee for collection to cover costs, as is satisfactorily done in Maryland and many other States.

I favor the sales tax because: (1) It is based upon ability to pay—the more a person spends the more he pays in taxes; (2) That the 41% of the persons in Virginia who pay no taxes at the present time would shoulder a share of the tax burden; (3) That the transient population and tourist trade would bear a portion of the Virginia tax burden. Virginia derives 500 million dollars annually from the tourist trade. Most of these tourists are in the habit of paying a sales tax at home. A two per cent sales tax would derive $10,000,000 annually from the tourist trade alone; and (4) That surrounding political jurisdictions, such as the District of Columbia and Maryland, have the sales tax. When we spend money in these jurisdictions we pay their sales tax. Why shouldn't they do the same when they spend money in Virginia?

My opponent states that he is opposed to the sales tax. He advocates radical increased State expenditures, which can only result in increased taxes. He uses as his slogan "Fair Play First." Shouldn't he "play fair" with you, as a voter, before August 7, and frankly tell you that his program means increased taxes for you and the balance of the 59% now bearing the full tax load?

EDUCATION:—

I favor continued improvements of the public school system in Virginia. My record for the past eight years in the Virginia Senate clearly shows this.

I was the patron of the 45 million dollar school construction grant to the political subdivisions. I have supported all legislation pertaining to the improvement and betterment of public schools in Virginia. I supported legislation making possible scholarships for young men and women interested in the teaching profession. I supported improved retirement legislation for teachers. I supported legislation making an improved curriculum and supported preparation of a textbook of the History of Virginia to be used in the public schools of Virginia.

It is not my purpose to attempt to mislead you, as a voter and taxpayer, however. (Can my opponent say the same?) The State of Virginia can not make unlimited grants to the local political subdivisions for school purposes without materially increasing taxes. My opponent talks of using a mythical surplus of many millions of dollars. If my opponent would "Play Fair First" he would tell you that there is no unallocated surplus of tax revenue in the State of Virginia. He would tell you that this "mythical surplus" is simply presently unexpended funds already allocated by legislation for improvement of mental institutions, the University of Virginia, and other worth-while State services.

I ask you, as a fair-minded voter and taxpayer of Virginia, to stop for a moment and consider the vast progress in the public school system in Virginia during the last decade. Consider the new school buildings, the increased teachers' salaries, improved teachers' retirement, the land purchased or allocated for new schools, the great number of new buildings in progress of construction or planned in the immediate future. The General Assembly of Virginia has assisted materially in this progress. I am proud to have contributed my share as a member of the State Senate for the past eight years. However, in spite of my opponent's statements, the great credit should go to the local school boards and governing bodies of our cities and counties.

Under the Constitution of Virginia and State legislation, as you are undoubtedly aware, the major responsibility for public education rests with the counties and cities under local boards of education and the local governing bodies. This permits the local communities to, in large measure direct the educational facilities in their own community with State facilities offering general advice and direction as provided by legislation. I believe that local communities should continue to control public school facilities. My opponent would lead you to believe that if elected, he would from some "mythical surplus" without raising taxes, practically over-night, furnish school facilities superior to the rest of the Southern States and equal to the best in the United States.

You as an intelligent voter, know that this could not be done without a sharp increase in taxes, both State and local.

In Virginia, many of our citizens for religious or other reasons prefer that their children for a few years attend denominational or parochial schools instead of public schools. This is in keeping with our American heritage. However, should my opponent succeed in his obvious program of sharply increasing taxes for the benefit of public education, how many citizens could afford to send their children to denominational or parochial schools?

STATE HOSPITALS:—

I favor legislation and appropriations making possible the improvement of State hospitals and institutions. My legislative record shows that I supported all legislation dealing with the improvement of mental institutions in Virginia.

I supported the establishment of clinics for the treatment and care of inebriates.

I supported legislation for medical and nursing scholarships for young men and women desiring to enter these professions.

I introduced legislation making it possible for Virginia localities to secure money for the building of hospitals through the Hill-Burton Act.

I supported legislation granting to the Medical College of Virginia, sum of $900,000.00 for the erection of a building with equipment for operation and treatment of tubercular patients under latest approved methods.

I introduced and supported legislation granting to the Lynchburg Clinic for feeble-minded children an appropriation of $333,000.00 for erection of additional facilities.

I supported legislation placing a reasonable charge upon those able to pay when using the facilities of State hospitals or institutions.

I shall continue to support legislation making possible the improvement of State hospitals and other health facilities. The State of Virginia, like most of the other States, has recognized that facilities are inadequate for certain state institutions, particularly the mental institutions. I shall support all legislation to correct this situation as readily as possible upon the recommendation of responsible medical and public health organizations, based upon sound fiscal policies.

I Favor the Extension of the Social Security Law to Cover State and local Municipal Employees.

I Am Opposed to All Legislation Which Has For Its Purpose, Directly or Indirectly, Depriving the Working Man of His Right of Collective Bargaining.

I Shall Continue to Support All Legislation Which Will Give Fair Recognition to North Virginia in State Affairs.

Your Vote and Support Will Be Sincerely Appreciated
