

The Manassas Journal

VOL. 83—NO. 27

Est. 1868—Entered at Post Office at Manassas, Va., as 2nd class mail matter under act of Congress of Mar. 3, 1879

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 25, 1951

Yearly Subscription, $2.50 in advance outside Prince William County Yearly Subscription, $3.00 in advance in Prince William County

Single Copy Five Cents

Caviness Buys Sadd Interest In Local Hotel

Charles Caviness, manager of the Hotel Stonewall Jackson, announced this week that he purchased the lease and furnishings from Walter C. Sadd.

Scrap Iron Drive Under Way on Farms

"Get in the Scrap" is the slogan that keynotes a farm scrap drive in Virginia until November 15.

Road Jobs In Area Awarded

Among road and bridge contracts awarded by the State Highway Department this week are two projects in the Manassas area.

Manassas 4-H Club Elects New Officers

Charles Young was elected president of the Manassas 4-H Club at a meeting held on October 18th.

Prince William Is Not Slated As Part of New 10th District

There seems little likelihood that Prince William County will be included in the proposed new 10th Congressional District.

School Children Urged Use Battle St. Crossing

J. M. Garber, county superintendent of schools, announced this week that all children attending Baldwin School are requested to use the Battle street railroad crossing as a watchman is stationed at that point.

Baker Magic And Fun Show Wins Acclaim

Highly acclaimed wherever it has shown the Harry Baker Fun and Magic Show will play afternoon and evening performances at the Osbourn High School.

Harry Baker and his assistants present a startling combination of fun, piter and showmanship in performing their repertoire of magic that has delighted audiences in most of the larger cities of the country.

Fun, Merriment Will Feature Gala Community Halloween

The goblins will get you if you don't watch out! Manassas will be noisy and colorful next Wednesday night, October 1st, as the youngsters of all ages turn out in force for the Community Halloween Party.

State Highway Dept. Improves Local Streets

The majority of Manassas paved streets have been receiving a seal top-dressing treatment during the past week by the State Highway Department.

Farm Bureau To Consider Co-op Store

Opening of a cooperative store is under consideration by the recently organized Prince William County Farm Bureau.

Crusade Drive Proves Big Success

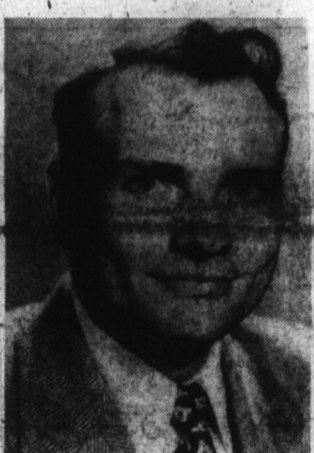

The recent Crusade for Freedom drive easily went over the top, Colonel Allen Merchant, campaign leader, said this week.

State 4-H Winners Announced At VPI

State awards in the 4-H farm and home safety and recreation and rural arts contests were announced this week by State 4-H officials at V. P. I.

The State Highway Department is really spreading it on Manassas streets. Road crew is shown putting a top dressing of gravel and oil on West street.

Garnette Y. Carpenter, Jr., of Waynesboro, Va., who will assume his duties as Manassas town manager on November 12.

Farm Bureau To Consider Co-op Store

Opening of a cooperative store is under consideration by the recently organized Prince William County Farm Bureau.

Crusade Drive Proves Big Success

The recent Crusade for Freedom drive easily went over the top, Colonel Allen Merchant, campaign leader, said this week.

State 4-H Winners Announced At VPI

State awards in the 4-H farm and home safety and recreation and rural arts contests were announced this week by State 4-H officials at V. P. I.

Manager Linton Hall Farm Dies in Latrobe

Eugene B. Layton, manager of the farm at Linton Hall Military School, died Saturday, October 20, at the home of his brother, Earl Layton, in Latrobe, Pa.

Hottle & Kline Plan New Home N.E. Manassas

The firm of Hottle & Kline, well-known local monument dealer, is breaking ground for a new plant and sales office on the Centreville road in northeast Manassas.

33rd Degree Conferred On Gen. Van Orden

Retired Marine Brigadier General O. Van Orden, now residing with his family in Triangle, Virginia, has been elected to the 33rd Degree, highest in Freemasonry.

Manassas PTA Endorses New School Plan

The members of the Manassas Parent-Teachers Association went on record as endorsing the new school building program at its regular meeting last Thursday night.

Parishioners Honor Rev. and Mrs. Hancock On 9th Anniversary

Friends of the Reverend and Mrs. R. J. Hancock gathered at the Full Gospel Church last week, where they celebrated the ninth wedding anniversary of their pastor and his wife.

Lions Club Banquets; Names Churchill "Lion of The Year"

Howard Churchill was chosen "Lion of the Year" at the annual charter night celebration of the Manassas Lions Club held at the Masonic Temple last night.

Credit Union Is Showing Growth Here

The Manassas Community Credit Union, which has been in existence here less than a year, is showing a healthy, steady growth.

33rd Degree Conferred On Gen. Van Orden

Retired Marine Brigadier General O. Van Orden, now residing with his family in Triangle, Virginia, has been elected to the 33rd Degree, highest in Freemasonry.

Parishioners Honor Rev. and Mrs. Hancock On 9th Anniversary

Friends of the Reverend and Mrs. R. J. Hancock gathered at the Full Gospel Church last week, where they celebrated the ninth wedding anniversary of their pastor and his wife.

Lions Club Banquets; Names Churchill "Lion of The Year"

Howard Churchill was chosen "Lion of the Year" at the annual charter night celebration of the Manassas Lions Club held at the Masonic Temple last night.

This 'n That

Best way to bring rain is leave raincoat at home. After luging it around a couple of days, it won't work without it yesterday. Also put the car in the service station for a much needed wash. ... the one from the Norfolk Virginia ... the old man over the appointment ... a few orchids to the State Highway Dept. ... when the kids want to go their ... Howard Churchill was so over-whelmed last night in receiving the ... Whether sharpen up your appetite ... Grand Matron Visits ... too Late to Classify ...