This 'n That

lots of excitement in Centre this week over the arrival of new, shiny fire engine from the Creek, Mich. And big plans in the making for the dedication of the new fire house and cement in the near future. Centre is rightfully proud of the support and cooperation that made possible a well equipped fire department.

Less than six weeks until Christmas. Some local stores are ready early holiday shoppers with attractive toy displays and others are in preparation for the big day.

Keith Lyons has reason to be glad of his widow display at the quiet Mart. Typical of the Thanksgiving season, the display gets the "horn of plenty" in rich colors. It has to be seen to be appreciated. Nice work, Keith!

Local police look mighty smart in their new uniforms. Can't they blame them if they seem to give a little shine coming out in new outfits.

We learn that at the end of its summer season 17 years ago, Barter Theatre wound up with a surplus of $4.35 in hard money and a barrel of jelly. In the interim, however, its actors had gained a total of more than 400 pounds and the hoof and were happy and fed. As Fred Allen once remarked about the Barter Theatre, "about Labor Day, if Bobberfield wants to tell if he had a successful season, all he's got to do is weigh the hams." The Barter Theatre comes to Manassas next Monday evening.

Leads the state! . . . Prince William County led the State of Virginia in exceeding its quota of war bond sales for the period from September 3rd to November 3rd, according to C. E. Gnadt, county chairman. With total sales of $49,415 reported, the county attained 100 percent of its objective. Middlesex County was second with 130 percent of objective.

Much interest is manifested by Prince William cattle breeders in the International Live Stock Exposition which opens in Chicago on November 24th. In open class competition, Prince William County will be represented by the Van Farms, of Haymarket, with Angus.

To Germany! . . . Lt. Paul S. Ham, better known to local folks as "Bo," is home on leave from Fort Knox, Ky., and will leave November 15th for Camp Killebrew, N. J., preparatory to leaving his new station in Germany.

Two Quantico Marines Die in Auto Crash

Two Quantico Marines were killed Monday night in a head-on collision on Route 1 north of Fredericksburg, Va. morning. They are Gerald Roger Esquin, 23, and Harold B. Boret, 23. Police report that the widows of both men in Fredericksburg. The third Marine, a passenger in the car, suffered a back injury. Kenneth K. Stinchcomb, 20, was killed when their automobile and a tractor-trailer collided approximately 3 miles north of Fredericksburg. The accident happened around 8 a. m. State Police said that the Marine's northbound auto crossed into the southbound lane of the highway and collided with the truck driven by James John Dickinson, of Merchantsville, N. J. The impact of the crash threw the two Quantico Marines from the car, killing them instantly.

Home Inmate Found Dead

Richard Edward Lewis, 63, missing from the District Home for the aged here since November 6, was found dead Sunday in a cornfield near the home. Lewis, formerly of Alexandria, apparently died the night of November 6, Charles B. Martin, Prince William County coroner said. The victim suffered from a chronic heart condition. Death was due to natural causes.

BOX SOCIAL

Va. Gas Co. Laying New Pipe In Town

The Virginia Gas Transmission Company has been working the past week to replace sections of its pipe line in Manassas in order to provide better service, the local office said yesterday.

The new pipe is being laid at the present time along Quarry street from Main to Maple street. Gas company officials said that this new 4-in. pipe is being laid to connect with dead-end lines in the northwest area of Manassas.

When finished, it will be the final link in a system that surrounds the town. It moves north on Main to Quarry, out Quarry to the lumber company, north along Sudley road to Grant avenue, and south along Grant avenue back to the company's station.

The company estimates that it will take at least two weeks to complete the project. When the Quarry street section is finished, work will begin along Main street from Quarry to the Stonewall Jackson Hotel. The line has already been bridged across Center street.

The company could not estimate the cost of the project, saying that such information is handled by the state office in Richmond.

Bass, Bream Planting In County Waters

Better fishing is in prospect for Prince William County as the result of bass and bream stocking under way this fall.

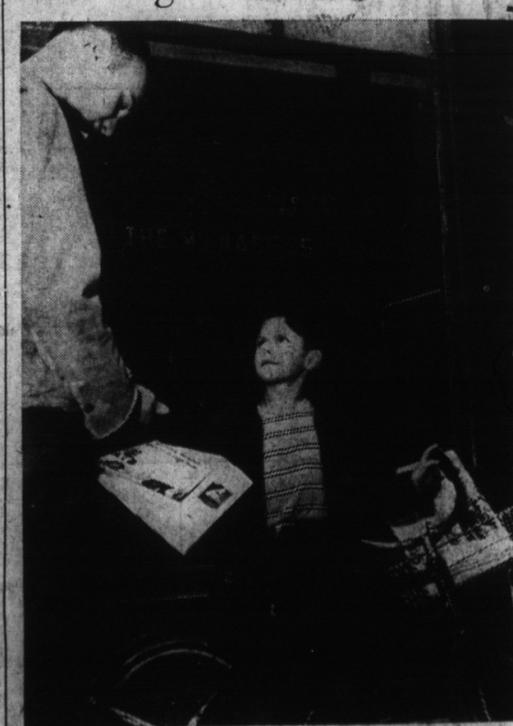

G. W. Buller, commissioner of state game and fisheries, on a recent trip here found the streams and waters of the county in good condition and well adapted to greater stocking.

This week several thousand bream will be planted in Broad Run, Cattle Run, Cedar Run and Occoquan Creek. Two weeks ago Lake Jackson received a planting of about 2,000 open mouth bass and another planting will be made soon.

CIVIL DEFENSE MEETING

The Baltimore Filter Center is conducting a new training program for the Ground Observer Corps, Civil Defense officials said this week. The filter center team will meet tomorrow night, November 16, at 7:30 at the Manassas Town Hall. All observers are requested to attend.

"Running Me Out Of Business"

THE MANASSAS JOURNAL'S FIRST "JUNIOR SALESMAN," Phil Green, is shown above selling a paper to Billy Heese, Manassas recruiting officer. Seven-year-old Phil is the Journal's first salesman, but not the last. Phil is already complaining that his friends have "muscle in" and are threatening to run him "out of business." However, Phil, who is a second grade pupil of Mrs. Jane Carter at Baldwin, still sells more than his share of Journals each Thursday. ## ANNOUNCEMENT

To the Subscribers and Friends of The Manassas Journal:

The Manassas Journal and The Manassas Messenger have been merged into one newspaper, to be known and published under the name of The Journal Messenger. It is the belief of the stockholders of both The Manassas Journal and The Manassas Messenger that the merger will afford a wider opportunity for service to the people of Prince William County. A more complete statement by the stockholders will be carried in the first issue of The Journal Messenger.

This is the last issue of The Manassas Journal. Next week you will receive The Journal Messenger, which will thereafter be published as a weekly newspaper, serving all of Prince William County. The ownership of The Manassas Journal wishes to take this opportunity to express their deep appreciation to the subscribers, advertisers, and their many friends throughout the County for the splendid cooperation they have given to the publishers in the past, in their effort to provide a fine County newspaper, and we bespeak the same cooperation for The Journal Messenger in the future.

Citizens Group to Give Report On School Survey At Meeting

Some light on what can be done to improve the overcrowded school situation in Prince William County is expected to be shed at a meeting of the County Citizens for Schools Committee, which has been called for Monday night, November 19, at 7:30 o'clock at the Osborn High School, Manassas.

Lions Again Sponsor Symphony Orchestra

The Manassas Lions Club last night instructed Citizens' Committee delegate Ned Bradford to support a new building program with certain economic reservations. Bradford gave a report to the Club concerning what has been going on in the county in regard to the school situation.

The Club also decided to again sponsor the National Symphony Orchestra in a performance here. No date has been set for the Orchestra's appearance. G. Y. Carpenter, newly appointed Town Manager, was accepted into membership of the Club. Carpenter was a member of the Waynesboro, Va., Lions Club before coming to Manassas.

need for an inclusive building program to relieve overcrowded conditions in county schools, and to provide for the anticipated increase in school enrollment in the near future.

An effort will be made at Monday's meeting to compile the committee's findings and to prepare recommendations on the basis of the citizens' survey for consideration of the County School Board.

The committee was organized last month following the recommendation of Superintendent of Schools J. M. Garber that such a group of representative citizens be formed to work and study the situation from the public's point of view.

At the present school facilities in Prince William are taxed far beyond capacity. Enrollment figures disclose an increase in (white students only) of from 2454 in 1947 to an estimated figure of 3,311 in 1952, or 31 percent. In the Manassas district during the same period, the increase has been 43.5 percent.

In a recent survey of pre-school age children in the county, it was revealed that by September, 1951, there will be almost as many children in the first nine grades as there are now enrolled in both the elementary and high school grades.

Below are some interesting statistics on the school enrollment forecast, indicating the urgency in planning a building program that will adequately handle not only the present but future growth in Prince William's school population.

BUSY ON CALENDAR

Members of the Manassas PTA Ways and Means Committee, who are assisting Mrs. John Barrett, chairman, with the preparation of the community activity calendar, are: Mesdames Ralph Slusher, Floyd Riddick, J. E. Bradford, Jr., Leo Miller, Lacey Compton, I. J. Bredren, Ian Ross, Warren Coleman and Austin Barbee.

ASSOCIATION ACQUITTED

The United States Court of Appeals acquitted the Maryland and Virginia Milk Producers Association this week of conspiring to restrain trade. The ruling was a 2-1 decision reversing a District Court decision.

New Officers Nominated By Local Firemen

The County Firemen's Association nominated a nine-man slate of officers to be elected at their next meeting last night at the Independent Hill school house.

The nominees are E. B. Heflin, Haymarket, and R. S. Hall, Occoquan, for president. Jack Pick, Dumfries, was the only candidate selected for vice-president. George Son, Frank, Nokesville, was renominated for the post of secretary while Cecil Garrison was likewise renominated for treasurer.

Four men were picked for the Fire Marshall post. They are C. B. Roland, Gainesville; Cedric Saunders, Manassas; John S. Pattle, Dumfries, and Worthington Hall, Occoquan. The next meeting of the association will be held at Manassas, December 12.

In other action, a committee of the county fire chiefs was named by President George B. Cooke to look into the matter of establishing a fire Alarm Board through the telephone company. With the installation of the dial system at Quantico, firemen have more difficulty finding out where the fire is.

Cooke said that it is a most important matter since the whole county will probably be on the dial system in "3 or 4 years if we (Central-Mutual Phone Co.) can get materials."

Following the business meeting, Howard Churchill showed newsreels to the approximately 50 members present.

Game Checking Stations Set Up In County

Walter L. Flory, game warden of Prince William County, announced this week that the law requires all bear, deer and wild turkeys be reported and tagged at game checking stations during the coming hunting season which opens Tuesday, November 20th.

Tags will be furnished only at the checking stations which have been designated for the county as follows:

Bull Run Service Station, junction routes 15 and 55, Haymarket; McMichael & Payne, Nokesville; Persons Grocery, Gainesville; Sam's Market, Independent Hill; Canton's Ezzo Service, Manassas; Dawson's Service Station, Woodbridge.

Main purpose of the new regulations, which are in force in most of the states, are to aid in law enforcement and as a means of making a check of the annual kill to assist in managing the various game species.

The hunting season for all counties east of the Blue Ridge extends until January 20th.

Quail Plentiful

Game Warden Flory states that while he doesn't expect any large bag of deer or bear in Prince William, that hunters can expect a good bag of quail and wild turkey. Quail, he states, are plentiful this year, due to good weather during the hatching season. Large coveys of birds have been reported in different sections of the county.

Mr. Flory also urges caution with firearms to avoid accidents and particular care against the hazard of starting forest fires.

GAINESVILLE PTA MEET

The Gainesville District PTA will hold its regular meeting at 8:00 p. m. Tuesday, November 20, 1951 at the Haymarket School auditorium.

Supervisors Name 28-Member Group To Study Government

The County Board of Supervisors authorized a committee to study new forms of government at its meeting last week. The Board, at the same time, named 28 persons to the committee headed by the Rev. J. Murray Tylor who bows out as a Supervisor January 1.

The Board in its formal resolution said "Be it resolved by the Board of Supervisors of Prince William County that a committee of 28 members be appointed to this Board, to carefully consider structure and functions of county government, and to bring to this Board not later than February 1, 1952, its findings and possible recommendations, so that if any enabling legislation for modifications in the present form of county government is recommended, it may be presented to the General Assembly of Virginia at the 1952 session, and that the following be appointed:"

Committee members under Chairman Tylor include: Manassas Town—E. E. Rohr. Manassas District—W. M. Johnson, W. M. Kline, Mrs. Jane L. Service. Occoquan Town—Bernard Cross. Occoquan District—Harvey Davis, Mrs. Denier Lehr, Raymond Southworth. Haymarket Town—M. Fewell Melton. Gainesville District—J. Preston Smith, V. H. Wood, Mrs. Edith M. Latham. Brentsville District—L. W. Huff, T. Clay Wood, Mrs. Agnes Webster. Coles District—J. Alan Staples, Mrs. Bessie Cornwell, James Cornwell. School Board—E. H. Marsteller. Treasurer's office — C. A. Sinclair. Commissioner of Revenue's office—C. E. Gnadt. Commonwealth Attorney — Stanley A. Owens. Board of Supervisors—J. P. Pick.

Frank Wells Of Gainesville Dies Saturday

Funeral services were held here Monday for Frank Wells, 71-year-old Gainesville resident. Wells died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Mary Shepherd, Manassas, Saturday, November 3. Interment was in the Manassas Cemetery. The Rev. Fleishman of Nokesville performed the services.

Pallbearers were the deceased's nephews, Maury Wells, Keen Wells, Malcolm Wells, Murray Wells, Francis Jones and Floyd Kirby. Wells is also survived by Mrs. Jeannette Pumphrey, Cheverly, Md.; Francis Wells and John Wells, Washington; Robert Wells, Indian Head, Md.; and a sister, Mrs. E. P. Kirby, Falls Church. In addition, he is survived by six grandchildren. His wife, the former Judith Breen, died in 1945.

Marine Corps Dedicates Iwo Jima Statue

Celebration of the Marine Corps' 176th Birthday reached a climax Saturday, when a statue representing the Iwo Jima flag-raising was unveiled at the main entrance to the Marine Corps Schools, Quantico, Virginia. Six brave men once more raised the American flag over Mount Surabachi, this time their action frozen into an eternal memorial to all Marines who have died for their country.

HEROES IN MARBLE

To the rear of the statue at the Marine Corps Schools' Band, who opened ceremonies by playing the "amed Marine Corps Hymn." Following the invocation by Chaplain Charles D. Beatty, opening remarks were made by Lt. Gen. Franklin A. Hart, Commandant, Marine Corps Schools.

In referring to the principal speaker, retired Lt. Gen. Keller E. Rockey, USMC, General Hart said, "To the veterans of Iwo Jima, to all Marines here, and to most of us, he needs no introduction." General Hart was referring to the fact that General Rockey was the Commanding General of the 5th Marine Division, one of the three famed divisions that made the attack on Iwo Jima, and subsequently made the immortal flag-raising there.

In describing the raising of the flag on Iwo Jima, General Rockey related, "On the 5th day of battle, a valiant band of Marines fought their way to the top of Mount Surabachi, the volcanic peak on the southern tip of the island. One of their acts upon attaining the summit was the raising of an American flag, the first to be raised on Japanese territory during World War II. As the Stars and Stripes rippled out against the sky, the occasion was recorded by the camera on an Associated Press photographer, Joe Rosenthal. Rosenthal's picture became the outstanding symbol of America's war effort in World War II. It inspired many works in the field of the arts and letters, pre-eminent among them being the work of the famous sculptor, Felix de Weldon, whose stone replica of the event we are here to dedicate today."

With the assistance of Major Dave E. Sevenace, General Rockey then pulled the cord that released the cloth from the statue, and a stone replica of one of the most dramatic events in the history of the Marine Corps was revealed to the spectators. The Band struck up "My Country 'Tis of Thee," and the Honor Guard again came to attention and "present arms" as General Hart placed a wreath at the base of the statue.

Following a memorial prayer by Chaplain Joshua L. Goldberg, the Band played the National Anthem, and the Benediction was said by Chaplain Niles T. Welch.

As the last, and possibly the most impressive part of the program, an "echo taps" was played by two Marine buglers. Complete silence reigned throughout an estimated crowd of 500 Marines, their families and guests, broken only by the nearby Route 1 traffic.

Milk Commissions In Other States Survive; Add Hope For Virginia

A record of survivals of milk commissions in other states where they have been under heavy fire holds some optimism for Virginia's state milk commission.

Ben F. Morgan, Jr., dairy marketing specialist at V. P. I., says that so far this year eight milk control laws have been before the legislatures in their respective states. All laws were maintained, some with moderate changes.

Morgan says indications in Virginia are that three proposals or alternatives regarding the Virginia commission will come before the impending session of the legislature. They are: Repeal the milk and cream act under which the state milk commission operates; relieve the commission of its resale price fixing powers; and give consumers more representation on the commission.

At present, there is one representative for producers, one for consumers, and one for distributors on the three-man board.

The record in other states so far this year:

In Georgia alternate bills to abolish the milk control board, or remove its price fixing powers, were defeated. Enacted was a bill to add a storekeeper member to the control board and to allow producers in a milk shed to vote themselves out from under control. Currently pending is a suit attacking the constitutionality of the powers of the board to fix prices.

In Florida, the legislature rejected a bill to abolish the commission, and also another measure which would have stripped the commission of its powers to regulate prices to governmental institutions and schools.

A bill enacted in Maine adds a consumer representative to the commission.

Montana's legislature killed a bill which would have repealed the state milk control act which includes price fixing authority.

In Oregon bills to abolish milk control entirely or limit price fixing to the producer level were rejected. Instead a new law giving the state board of agriculture responsibility for milk control was enacted.

Massachusetts passed a bill to permit the milk control board to fix minimum and maximum retail milk prices.

Rhode Island enacted a bill increasing from 2c to 2½c per cwt. the acceptable dealers for support of the control board.

Unsuccessfully introduced in the North Carolina legislature was a bill proposing the creation of a state milk commission with authority to fix prices paid to producers.

Morgan says there are now 16 states with milk control laws. Twelve of these establish producer and consumer prices, four establish only producer prices.

A summary of state milk control laws now in effect is available from the department of agricultural economics, V.P.I., Blacksburg.

Hunters Open Game Season November 20

Virginia's 1951 hunting season goes into full swing on November 20, when the wraps come off statewide on deer, bear, turkey, quail, grouse, rabbits and squirrels. According to I. T. Quinn, executive director of the Commission of Game and Inland Fisheries, the average hunter's chances of returning home with something in the game bag are excellent this year.

Nesting conditions for the state's upland game birds ranged from fair to good through the nesting season, with the result that more quail coveys should rise before the nimrod's guns this year. The turkey populations are fair. They are reportedly up west of the Blue Ridge, but holding their own in the east. Deer prospects look good throughout Virginia. They abound in highest numbers from Central Piedmont to the Tidewater.

The Game Commission is making a special plea to the hunters this year to be careful with fire.

Correspondents are requested to send copy in early.

HOME - MAKING IDEAS

Virginia W. Post Home Economist Virginia Electric & Power Co.

YOUR HOLIDAY TURKEY
Roast turkey at Thanksgiving and Christmas is as American as Plymouth Rock, corn on the cob, or beans.

Turkey rates high in nutritive value and when served plump and golden brown, its succulent, tender, and moist flavor and general tractiveness make it a natural choice for the holiday season.

Here are some pointers on the selection and first steps of preparing your turkey.

When buying the turkey, allow 1 pound dressed or 3/4 pound undrawn per person. Each side of a 15-pound turkey will yield out 10 pieces of dark meat, 12 pieces of white meat, and a wing.

HEN OR TOM?
Buy a hen turkey if you want an 15 pound bird. Hen turkeys mature quickly and are usually better finished than toms of the same weight.

Buy a tom turkey if you want a 25 pound bird. They are at their best at this weight and the best choice for a large turkey.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR WHEN SELECTING A TURKEY

1. Clean, waxy skin with few feathers and no bruises or discolorations.
2. Well-fleshed breast and legs;
generally plump appearance.
3. Streaks of fat under the skin on breast, legs, thighs and back, usually increasing with the bird's age.
4. Short body and broad breast indicating a meaty bird.
5. Frozen turkeys should be roast HARD and show no discoloration.

PREPARING TURKEY

If Market Dressed Turkey, request marketman to: Remove leg bones; cut off feet, not chop; remove crop from back. By making an incision down center back of neck skin and freeing skin from neck, latter may be cut off close to body and crop and windpipe removed from this opening, leaving skin unbroken over the breast. Cut out oil sack. Keep rear opening as small as possible.

To loosen wing tip feathers, if any present, immerse in boiling water for a few minutes, remove pin feathers. Singe.

If full drawn and quick frozen,
defrost as follows before roasting:
(1) leave bird in refrigerator about 24 hours or, (2) leave at room temperature over night, or (3) for rapid defrosting place (still wrapped in its cellophane) about 4 hours in cold water, or under running cold water. Do not forget to remove the parchment wrapped giblets from the cavity. They are ready for cooking.

Singe bird if necessary, wiping dry if it has been wet.

Remove any bits of lung, kidneys, etc., remaining in cavity.

Wash the outside well, rubbing with cloth or soft brush.
Rinse cavity with cold water.
Drain bird thoroughly by standing it upright for a few minutes.

Refrigerate or stuff and roast immediately.

The wish bone is easily removed and facilitates carving the breast meat. To remove the wish bone pull neck skin back toward and over the breast, cut away each tip, slip the knife along the bone on either side to the "fork" pull it loose, and cut off.

Trussing-binding the legs and wings to the body is a simple procedure well worth following. A trussed bird cooks more uniformly, browns more evenly and looks better on the platter than one that is not trussed.

Anglers Are Fishing Wrong State Areas

Surveys of Virginia's lakes and streams continue to bring to light the fact that fish are plentiful, but fishermen are not concentrating their efforts in the right localities and bodies of water, according to Dean Roseberry, assistant chief of the Commission's fish division.

Carvin Cove, a 650-acre lake located near Roanoke, joins the list of underfished lakes surveyed by fish technician, Bob Martin. According to Martin, his survey turned up the fact that Carvin Cove hinges upon an overpopulation of bass, causing them to fall short of the legal size limit by just a hair.
There are too many fish for the amount of food.

"Restocking here would be considered detrimental," says Rose-berry, "and the solution lies in hard fishing."

To further back up the fact that fishermen are misguided, Rose-berry and C. W. Buller, chief of the fish division, found that in the small streams at the mouth of the Chickahominy River, waters which are fished but little, extremely high population of bass are going relatively untapped because fishermen just don't fish there.

Let's Face The Facts

When it comes to considering a school building program for Prince William, one must look at the estimated figures of our school population tomorrow as well as those available today.

If we find our schools greatly overcrowded now, it is almost frightening to visualize what a school housing shortage will confront us only four years hence.

On the basis of enrollment in grades 1-7 as of June, 1951, and the counting at that time of pre-school age children, one to five years, the grade enrollment in Prince William schools by September, 1955, will be 5,304. This figure is 1,730 greater than the present number of children actually enrolled in all grades as of September this year.

The actual increase in 1955 may be even larger, as no allowances has been made for families which have moved into the county since the summer of 1950, when the pre-school census was made. That families have come in the county in large numbers is borne out by the fact that the 1950 census showed that there were at that time 383 six-year-olds who would enter the first grade in September, 1950. While enrollment figures show that actually 482 children were in the first grade at the end of the school term in June, 1951 . . . or 100 more than indicated by the census.

Wishful thinking will not provide the school buildings needed in Prince William county in the next four years, not only to relieve present overcrowding but also to house the most conservative estimated increase of 1,730 children. Surely, the time has come for action.

How's Business?

By Roger W. Babson

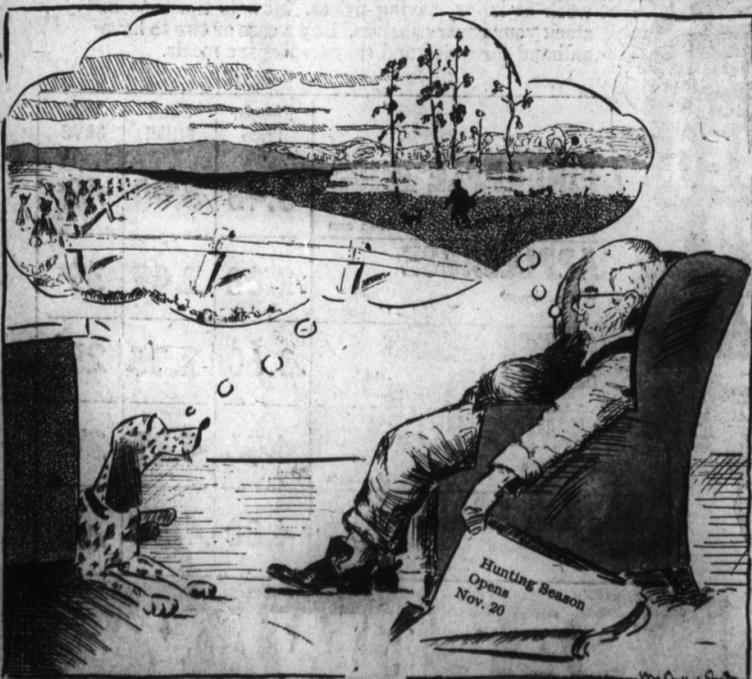

STRENGTH OF UNITED STATES

The strength of the United States to build up a balance of power against Russia and her satellite states lies in our natural resources, our technical skill and our spiritual inheritance. These factors produce the right things at the right time and in the right place. This spiritual heritage and our unrivaled production capacity are our strongest line of defense. Anything that interferes or retards either of these assets lessens our ability, not only to carry on in Korea, but to defend ourselves against the possibility of World War III.

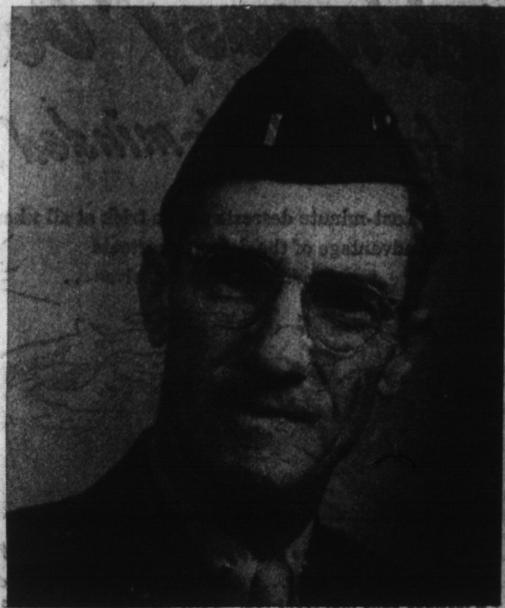

The United States is, and has been for several years, the arsenal of the free nations of the world, spiritually, economically and militarily. Our men, our money and our material are being expended at a rapid rate. Almost 100,000 U. N. men have been killed or injured the past seventeen months. It is estimated that about 1,500 are killed or injured every week. The plan is to have some 4,000,000 men in our armed forces. For the fiscal year June 30, 1951, Congress appropriated $82 Billion and for June 30, 1952, $89 Billion. Taxes have been upped to a point beyond which they can hardly go. The chances are that the next Congress will get hard-boiled on raising any more taxes and will cut down on government expenditures.

The recent Conservative election in England may be a straw in the wind as to what may be in store for us next year. England has had its fill of Socialism and, while the margin is small, I have a feeling that the Labor Party was mighty glad to let go of the reins of government. The chances are that our national election will likewise show a swing from the policy of "spend and spend and elect and elect." The United States needs to elect, in 1952 unselfish leaders of men be they Democrats or Republicans. We need Administrators, not Politicians.

Porky Flynn, Marine Legend,
Dies At California Reunion

Porky Flynn, an old-time Marine who could get anything for anybody at anytime, died Thursday in California while attending a reunion of old Marine flyers.

Officially, Porky Flynn was Capt. Harold Leo Flynn, 54, retired. He has not been on active duty since 1947, but lived at Quantico to stay close to the service he made his life.

His family said he had gone to Pomona, Calif., to attend a meeting of the First Marine Aviation Force Veterans Association.

Capt. Flynn had been associated with the Marine aviation forces since World War I when he was selected for the first such group because he was the thinnest man available who could operate a wireless set.

He weighed only 139 pounds and stood 5 feet 11 inches tall, thus his nickname of Porky.

Left Home to Join Up
A native of Hallstead, Pa., he ran away from home when in his teens and enlisted in the Marine Corps. That was the beginning of a career that has almost become a legend in the Marine Corps.

Capt. Flynn went through the usual tours of duty with the Marines, all for his work being with the Quartermaster Corps in Marine aviation until he retired as a 20-year-man in 1938. He was a quartermaster sergeant at the time.

Recalled to duty in 1942, he was made a warrant officer and then spot promoted to captain and sent to Hawaii where he served during World War II, again as the man who could get any needed item at any time if his flyers wanted it. He retired again in 1947.

Stories Make Him Legend
The stories about Porky Flynn come up anytime a bunch of old-time Marines get together.

There was one about the time he attended an American Legion outing at Colonial Beach. He was an active member of both the Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Capt. Flynn arrived at Colonial Beach that afternoon some years ago by parachuting out of a plane with his suitcase in one hand and a bottle of whisky in the other. As he touched ground, he waved the bottle and shouted:
"All right men. Let's go."
One of his daughters said that for years the family lived under the happy illusion that Capt. Flynn had defeated Germany during World War I. Porky told his brood of four daughters and two sons that he personally had bombed Germany and shortly afterward the Germanis gave up. It so happens he never did.

Guard At Federal Prison
After his first retirement, he took a job as guard at the Federal Penitentiary in Atlanta, Ga. For two years he put up with this but moved back to Quantico to be close to the Marines.

He immediately began telling everyone that he had spent two years in Atlanta but was appropriately vague about details. Another daughter said that family friends for years were very kind to the Flynn children because "wasn't it too bad about Porky going to prison?"

After his second retirement, he took a job with the Belgian Economic Mission in Washington. That was in 1948.

Hearing that the Belgians spoke French, he went to night school for a week to learn some French, bought a homburg hat and reported to work. That lasted a year.

When he got back to Quantico, he was known as "the Belgian Ambassador."

Porky Always Helped "the Boys"
Friends in the Marine Corps said Porky probably was one of the best known men in the corps because he was always doing something for the boys. His favorite stunt was to go out after men who were planning to stay out AWOL, hunt them down, and then pay their transportation back to camp so they would not get into trouble.

Capt. Flynn was active in the affairs of Buck Keyes Post No. 28, American Legion, serving as commander at one time and on many committees. He was the spark that led to the post clubhouse movement, resulting in the post's present house at Quantico.

Besides his widow, he is survived by four daughters, Mrs. John F. Ross, of Quantico; Mrs. Ephraim Kirby-Smith, of Sewanee, Tenn.; Nora Flynn and Margaret, of Quantico, and two sons, Aviation Cadet Harold Champaign Flynn, United States Air Force, and George Flynn of Quantico.

Funeral services were held at 9 a.m. Wednesday at the Quantico Chapel. Burial was at Arlington Cemetery with military honors.

Survivors Of Mrs. Speakes

Funeral services for Mrs. Emily Speakes, 81, a native of Catlett, were held from Baker's Funeral Home with interment at Buckhall. Mrs. Speakes was the daughter of Thomas A. Thomason, a nephew of Jefferson Davis. Her father was a "standard bearer" in the battle of Manassas and held the bridle of General Lee's horse, Traveler, at Appomattox.

A native of Prince William the majority of her life, she married Devoe A. mbal in 1870, and they had three children, Mrs. Edna Evans, Washington; Ervin Hanback and Eldridge Hanback, Manassas.

Her husband died in 1897, and Mrs. Speakes remarried to Joseph L. Speakes and they had five children, Humphrey Speakes, Woodbridge; Earl, Meredith and Joseph Speakes, and Mrs. Robert Saffer, all of Manassas.

Her husband died in 1908. She also is survived by three step-children, Mrs. Ollie Crossen, Mrs. Carry Moody and Moses Speakes.

One of 14 children, Mrs. Speakes is survived by one brother, Edgar Thomason, Nokesville; and two sisters, Mrs. Ada Stephens, Edgewater Beach, Md., and Mrs. Susie Holsinger, Baltimore, Md.

BRYANT AWARDED BADGE WITH THE 7TH INF. DIV. IN KOREA—Cpl. Sidney E. Bryant, 172 Jefferson ave., Manassas, Va., recently was awarded the Combat Infantryman Badge for excellent performance of duty in combat with the 7th Infantry Division.

The badge, a symbol of the front line fighting man, distinguishes the combat soldier from rear area and service troops. It consists of a miniature replica of a Revolutionary War flint-lock rifle mounted on a blue background and superimposed on a wreath.

Bryant, who is a squad leader with the 7th Division, entered the Army on November 3, 1950, and departed for Korea in March of this year. He also wears the Korean Service Ribbon with two campaign stars.

Bryant attended Osborn high school.

DAWSON IN KOREA WITH THE 9TH INF. DIV. IN KOREA—Cpl. George H. Dawson, son of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Dawson, Haymarket, Va., is serving with the 24th Infantry Division on the fighting front in Korea.

The first American division to enter the fighting in Korea, the 24th has played a major role in UN offensives north and south of the 38th Parallel.

Dawson, a member of Company A of the 21st Infantry Regiment, received his basic training at Camp Pickett, Va. and arrived in Korea on April 2, 1951. His Korean service entitles him to wear the Combat Infantryman Badge and the Korean Service Ribbon with two campaign stars.

Prior to entering the Army, Dawson was employed as a truck driver.

SLAVENSKY ASSIGNED

PORT MEADE, MD., Nov. 13—Pvt. Peter Slovensky, 24, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Slovensky, of Route 4, Manassas, Va., has completed processing at the 203rd Reception Center here and is assigned to the 101st Airborne Division, Camp Breckinridge, Ky., for Army basic training.

He will receive 16 weeks of basic military training. Fundamental military subjects such as close order drill, care of clothing and equipment, first aid, scouting and patrolling, and map reading will be taught.

Individual firing of the M-1 rifle, carbine and light machine gun will be included in the battle indoctrination phase of the training.

You have a date
at school
this week!

Every school in town—in celebration of American Education Week—is having Open House this week, and you shouldn't miss it.

You'll find it a wonderful opportunity to meet your child's teachers, to look over classroom facilities, to find out just what the condition of our school system is, and what improvements are being made.

Of course, you can't learn all you want to know about our schools in one short week. Today, our whole educational system needs the continuing interest and help of every thinking citizen—parent or non-parent.

You yourself, for instance—do you know whether we have enough qualified teachers in our schools . . . whether our children's books are up-to-date . . . whether we have adequate school equipment and classroom space? If you don't, shouldn't you find out?

We can't give our children a first-rate education if our schools are handicapped with serious shortages. And we can't afford to entrust our nation's future to a generation of half-educated adults.

That's why it's so important for you—for us all—to join with local groups and take an active part in helping to improve our schools. For information on how other communities are solving their school problems, write to: "Better Schools," 2 West 45th Street, New York, N. Y.

Osborn Deflates Falls Church 6-0

Cross Hits Davis For TD; Indians Blast Marshall

Turnabout will be the order of the day this weekend when the county's two teams play host on the gridiron. Osborn, following its stunning defeat of Falls Church Saturday, has a breather to wind up its '51 schedule in Spotsylvania. Occoquan had its breather last week against Marshall and will face the James Monroe varsity at Occoquan Saturday afternoon. Occoquan has one more game with Clarke County High here Thanksgiving Day after James Monroe.

After losing its opening three games, Coach Jim Leo's forces have avenged a successful season, going unbeaten in five straight games. Osborn should end the year with a proud 6-3 record. Manassas' terrific victory is even more surprising since they played without the services of their star, Bobby Payne. Osborn is a three-touchdown favorite over Spotsylvania Friday night at Swagely Field while Occoquan finds themselves a four-touchdown underdog against the powerful Fredericksburg delegation.

O.H.S. 6, Falls Church 0

Taking advantage of seven fumbles and two blocked kicks, Osborn High School's Yellow Jackets pulled the high school upset of the year, dumping Falls Church, 6-0 on the losers field Saturday afternoon.

Outstanding defensive play contributed to the afternoon's success as Osborn played without the offensive punch of Bobby Payne. Jim Leo remarked he had witnessed in the past three years by one of his teams. Leo added that if Payne had been in the line-up, "We would have beaten them by a couple more touchdowns."

Osborn scored midway in the third period after battling Falls Church to a scoreless first half. Three straight passes turned the trick. Frank Hoss recovered a Falls Church fumble on the Fairfaxes 45 and Osborn took to the air.

Jackie Cross flipped a pass to David Barbee and followed with another to Frank Hoss who made a sensational catch and took the ball to the Falls Church ten. Cross then hit end Mark Davis on the 4-ft. line and Davis toppled over with the winning TD.

Falls Church failed to show the vaunted offensive punch it was expected to produce and good enough to upset Culpeper. The losers fumbled seven times and Osborn players recovered five.

Joe Burer and Nicholson blocked a punt each for Osborn to help keep Falls Church backed up to its own goal line. The hosts gained constantly between the 35-yard lines, but every time they threatened, Osborn linemen rose up to push them back for losses.

Coach Jim Leo called off practice Monday to give the team a well-earned vacation and to recover from bruises sustained in the game.

Ralph Truesdale will be lost to the squad the remainder of the season because of a broken ankle he suffered shortly before the half ended. Guard Joe Burer also suffered an ankle injury, but is expected to be in shape for the season's finale against Spotsylvania here Friday night.

Occoquan 56, Marshall 0

Behind the fine running of a number of backs, Occoquan dazzled an inexperienced Marshall eleven Friday afternoon to rack up a 56-0 rout. James Smith, shifty Occoquan halfback scored five Indian touchdowns to up his point total to 84 from 14 touchdowns.

Occoquan received and immediately moved on a sustained drive for a score. Smith drew first blood when he plunged over from the four to climax the drive. Bauckman's extra point kick was low.

Marshall defense stiffened the remainder of the first quarter, but Bauckman broke the duel on the first play of the second frame. Scouting around his own right end, Bauckman raced 86 yards down the sidelines to score and then kicked the extra point.

Occoquan added two more touchdowns before the first half was over. Jackie Keys dashed 51 yards to Marshall's one before being tackled and Smith took the ball over. The next time Occoquan got its hands on the ball, Smith zipped over left tackle 56 yards to again score. Occoquan led at half-time 25-0.

Smith resumed his scoring activities in the second half as he took a punt on his own 37 and went all the way. Bauckman made it 37-0 when he again scored around right end from 15 yards out/behind superb blocking. His drop kick extra-point kick was blocked.

Bauckman and Smith teamed up for the next touchdown, Smith running 76 yards for the touchdown while Bauckman booted the extra point.

A pair of young backs, Jackie Keys and Bobby Lloyd added the final two touchdowns in the fourth period. Keys scored from 30 yards out around left end while Lloyd drove through the middle from a yard out for the final score.

Halftime ceremonies at Marshall included a cheerleader demonstration and a parade of cows who appeared to be very much affronted by the intrusion of humans upon their cow pasture.

Stars Of The Week

Sport Shorts

JOE BURER

Post Mortem... How did Falls Church beat Culpeper? That's the question that local sports enthusiasts are asking each other. Culpeper romped over Osborn 40-0 but lost to Falls Church. Then Osborn comes along and bumps Falls Church 6-0. Osborn Coach Jim Leo said his team should have beaten Falls Church by four touchdowns. That is, if Bobby Payne had been in action. Apparently Culpeper had a bad day against Falls Church, and the same is true about Falls Church against Osborn. The Fallfaxes fumbled seven times and had two kicks blocked. Osborn recovered five of the seven fumbles. Rumors have it that Spotsylvania, Osborn's last opponent, tried to cancel the game when they heard Osborn knocked off Falls Church.

Joe Burer, hefty Osborn guard, is the needle in the haystack as far as this week's star is concerned. Every Osborn lineman played outstanding football Saturday as the Yellow Jackets upset Falls Church 6-0, but Burer was particularly shining. Joe blocked one of two Falls Church punts to keep Osborn one step ahead of the favored Jagurs. Burer has been one of the few sparkplugs on the Osborn squad this year. Besides his sterling defensive play, Joe always has a line of chatter going to keep the spirits of the team up.

Rambo Picked

Swimming Pool For Lorton Is Approved

Director of Corrections Donald Clemmer won approval this week for a water-storage basin and swimming pool at Lorton Reformatory. Commissioner F. Joseph Donohue approved the plans. He said Mr. Clemmer proposed to have the pool constructed at practically no expense to the District. The pool will be built of bricks available at the reformatory, according to the proposal.

Brentsville

Mrs. R. F. Powell, Correspondent

The next regular meeting of the Women of the Church of Brentsville Union Church will be held at the home of Mrs. Ben Shoemaker at 2 p. m. Thursday, November 20.

Cpl. Thomas Whetzel who is located at Fort Jackson, South Carolina, spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Wetzel.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Speakes and his mother, Mrs. Alice Speakes, were weekend house guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Whetzel.

Monday evening dinner guests of the R. F. Powell's were Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Walters.

Friends of Douglas Keys, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Keys, will want to visit or send a greeting to him at Emergency Hospital in Washington where he is confined following an operation for acute appendicitis early Monday morning.

Lt. R. F. Powell returned to the Naval Operating Base in Norfolk Monday evening after spending the Armistice Day holiday with his family.

Sunday afternoon guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Webster included Jack Rodgers and Mr. and Mrs. James Saunders of Alexandria.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Shoemaker were entertained at dinner Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Lowe of Nokesville.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cordell of Falls Church visited his sister, Mrs. Jim Shoemaker, Monday.

Mrs. Maurice Keys and family attended a birthday dinner Sunday for her father, William Diehl, held at the home of her sister, Mrs. Paul Johnson, Nokesville. Present for the occasion also was her brother, William Diehl, Jr. of Alexandria.

Sunday visitors at the Grady Shemaker home included Mr. and Mrs. Wade of Alexandria and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Henderson of Seat Pleasant, Md.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hedrick entertained sixteen relatives for dinner Sunday. The guest list included Mr. and Mrs. Edwards and family of Manassas, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hedrick, Mr. and Mrs. Bladen and children, and Mr. and Mrs. Carter and family—all of Arlington.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Burke and three daughters of Manassas were Sunday afternoon callers at the home of his sister, Mrs. Ben Breeden.

James Cooper spent the weekend in New York where he visited his father who was injured recently in a fall. He is progressing satisfactorily.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Breeden spent Friday in Clinton, Md. to help his mother, Mrs. Daniel Breeden, celebrate her 75th birthday. They also visited his sister, Mrs. Lowe, and family.

Don't forget to attend the box supper followed by bingo which is to be held at the Courthouse Saturday evening under the sponsorship of the ladies Auxiliary of the Lake Jackson Fire Department.

KNOW YOUR NEIGHBOR

A most genial and affable couple, Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Walters, moved to Brentsville as Mr. and Mrs. Newlywed in October, 1948, into the home which Maynard had purchased and made ready for his bride, Eula, for a three-year period. The property is that which had belonged to Dr. Bowen in the days when Brentsville was the county seat of Prince William.

Maynard, a native Virginian, is a retired fireman of Washington, D. C., where after his retirement he worked for the British Security

Hog Slaughtering On State Farms Is Big Business

Farm slaughter of hogs in Virginia is big business... valued at over $20,000,000 last year... and farmers stand to lose much of the profit if they don't follow some careful practices, warns George Herring, animal husbandman at V. P. I.

Herring says the $20,000,000 represents about 43 percent of the total gross income from hogs in Virginia last year. A five-percent loss in farm slaughtered pork, a conservative estimate, amounts to $1,000,000. Much of the loss can be avoided by proper slaughtering and handling.

Some losses are caused by bad handling of hogs before killing. Avoid getting hogs heated or excited because it results in poor bleeding. Injuries to hogs may cause spoilage of cuts. Improper sticking also may result in a poor bleed or in damage to the shoulders.

The greatest cause of pork spoilage, however, is failure to get carcasses chilled quickly. Proper weather or refrigeration is necessary. Most of the 80 locker plants in Virginia are equipped to handle pork, and if hogs are brought to the plants quickly after slaughtering, or are slaughtered there, temperature is no problem. Hogs can be killed when they are ready and when it's convenient.

However, if you depend on the weather to get hogs chilled, wait until a cold spell. There usually will be several between Thanksgiving and Christmas. Killing the hogs in the early part of a cold spell is better than waiting until the weather starts to warm up. A weather report announcing the approach of cold weather may be used as a signal to get ready for farm slaughtering.

Carcasses will chill quicker if the leaf fat is removed after the hogs are dressed, and the hogs split down the middle of the back bone. This permits air circulation between the two sides. In near-freezing weather carcasses will be thoroughly chilled by hanging overnight, and ready for cutting and placing in cure by the next morning.

Insect damage, mainly caused by the skipper fly, is another source of pork losses. The skipper fly usually appears during the first warm days of early February or Council until he resigned. Eula is a native of the state of Illinois who arrived in Washington, D. C. to do government work during World War II. She too was employed by the British Security Council and 'twas here that their romance began to develop.

Now Mr. Walters has for a hobby raising chickens and gardening. Occasionally he indulges in odd jobs of painting and carpentering. Mrs. Walters makes an excellent helpmate in the chicken business and enjoys especially the remunerative side of the egg business, as do most women.

Soil Test Now Cox Advises

A few cents spent now for a soil test could mean a saving of several dollars for Virginia farmers when they buy next year's fertilizers. Frank Cox, county agent, says if a farmer knows well in advance just what plant nutrients are needed, he can make his fertilizer purchases accordingly. Money spent for any particular plant food is wasted if the field already has enough. The point is, he says, a fertilizer dollar goes further if it is spent for exactly what a field needs. Early testing is particularly beneficial in cases where lime is needed, since lime should be applied as much as six months in advance of seeding of certain crops.

THE WAY OUT # OF THE DARK

There is a way out of the deep darkness that engulfs the world; it is the way of the Bible, the way of light.

The sweet Singer of Israel found this way and exclaimed, "Thy word is a lamp unto my feet and a light unto my path." The prophet Isaiah knew it when he told the Israelites, "The Lord shall be unto thee an everlasting light, and thy God thy glory."

The Bible has been God's Pillar of Fire to lead men and nations out of darkness into light. The chaotic blackness of the Augustan Age was shattered by the Light which came out of Israel in fulfillment of the Scriptures. In this light new faith and hope were born.

The darkness of the Middle Ages disappeared in the brightness of the Renaissance and the Reformation when the leaders of men searched the Scriptures and found the Light of God. Every great revival of spiritual religion has cleared the mists from human eyes and lighted man's way to peace.

The darkness that envelops the world today will roll away on the wings of the morning when men and nations turn back to the Bible and back to God.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Classes will be held in the Community Center.

HDC Schedule
Wednesday, November 21: Dumfries Home Demonstration Club will meet at the firehall at 10 a. m. with metallic stenciling of trays to be the topic.

Friday, November 23: The Buckhall Home Demonstration Club will meet at 10 a. m. and will have the same project as above.

Burning Leaves
Although the smell of burning leaves may be a delight to some people, to a true gardener it brings only the sad reflection that good plant material is being wasted—organic matter that should be added to the compost pile, along with lawn clippings, weeds, flower stalks, bean vines, and other plant remains.

The least you can do, says a gardener with the U. S. Department of Agriculture who "hits the ceiling" when he sees his neighbors burning leaves, is to rake up the leaves into a good deep pile, fasten them down with wire or boards to keep them from blowing away, and sprinkle the leaves with a few handfuls of commercial fertilizer.

Modern Ranch House

HOUSE PLAN No. 34

You can obtain blueprints for this JOURNAL-FARM & RANCH House Plan No. 5034 and a handy list of materials by which you can figure your construction cost accurately. Send $1 to Building Editor, FARM & RANCH-SOUTHERN AGRICULTURIST, Dept. M-76, Nashville, Tenn. Order by number—Plan No. 5034. Blueprints are adequate for any farm carpenter or for any farmer handy with tools.

If you like the long, rambling ranch type house you will really "take to" this FARM AND RANCH Plan No. 5034—it gives you casual ranch house appearance in a very compactly arranged home.

The casement windows in the attractive kitchen will let in plenty of Old Sol's rays to both the work area and the eating space. This eating space is large enough for serving the family meals in comfort. Cabinet space is plentiful, and the arrangement of sink, range, and refrigerator will require a minimum of housewife mileage in meal preparation. Off the kitchen the utility room will provide space for laundry equipment and possibly a freezer chest. Field hands can get rid of sweat and grime in the shower off the utility room before entering the rest of the house.

The arrangement of the bath, utility room, and kitchen in one single area permits a rather simplified plumbing system which will appreciably reduce the cost for materials and labor.

The living-dining area is more spacious than that found in most homes of this size. The large picture window and casements opening on each side will provide an abundance of light and plenty of ventilation.

All three bedrooms have wall space convenient for desirable furniture arrangement. The closets are usually large, designed with sliding doors to save valuable floor and wall space. In addition, there is linen storage in both the bathroom and hall.

We suggest that this house be built of brick or masonry veneer with a concrete slab foundation and metal casement windows and cement asbestos shingle roof. The gables and front section under the porch should be of painted wood to give the most eye-pleasing effect.

Mental Effort Involved In Naming Dairy Cattle

Naming the new baby poses no more mental effort than is involved in naming dairy cattle at V. P. I.

Whenever the necessity arises, the various members of the dairy department become poets and sages and come up with some fancy monikers. Each year, a different letter of the alphabet is chosen with which to begin the given name of all dairy cattle. Right now, in 1951, the letter is "N." And the dairymen think they may start over with "A" next year, because all of the ancestors whose names began with "A" are now deceased.

The name tells a lot, if you know the code.

For example, take the name VPI Majesty Ely Nora. The name tells first, that it is a VPI cow. Second, that the animal was sired by a bull with the given name of Majesty. Third, that the cow's mother's name was Ely. And fourth, that the cow was named this year since its given name begins with "N."

Mastitis Can Be Avoided, Farmers Told

Farmers could prevent many cases of bovine mastitis, if they could abide by sensible and proved rules, the American Foundation for Animal Health suggested today.

"Mastitis is often brought on by use of faulty milking equipment, and through barnyard and pasture udder injuries which might have been avoided," the report said.

As a case in point the Foundation cited the instance of one Illinois man who reportedly lost a $2000 investment in less than a year simply because he used the wrong kind of suction cup on his milking machine. The entire herd developed mastitis and had to be slaughtered.

To help prevent mastitis losses this winter, the Foundation advised dairymen to:

1. Guard against udder injuries by removing sticks and other sharp objects from barnyards. Also, door sills should be kept free of ice so cows will not slip and stumble on them.
2. Sterilize milking equipment and use only machines which are properly adjusted.
3. Avoid rough handling while hand stripping.
4. Milk infected cases last.
5. Buy only clean, healthy replacements which are known to be free of mastitis.
6. Work out a practical control program with the veterinarian, using both medical treatment for affected cows and preventative methods with those that are free of the disease.

Too Little Calcium Cause Of Soft Shells

Too little calcium in poultry feed may be to blame when hens lay soft-shelled eggs.

This tip comes from Frank Cox, county agent, who says soft shells may result when birds fail to get enough calcium from oyster shell or limestone in their feed. He advises keeping oyster shell in separate hoppers before birds at all times. Keep the hopper free of litter and accumulated fine oyster shell powder. Mash, and to a lesser extent, animal protein concentrates, normally contain some calcium.

Haymarket

Mrs. A. H. Meyer

The annual PTA dinner held recently in the Cafeteria of the Gainesville District School was a huge success, socially and financially.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Orrett have returned to their home after spending the past week visiting and attending the Golden Wedding Anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Duke at Carrsville, Va. They also visited Mrs. F. G. Berryman in Smithfield, Va., and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kyles in Newport News, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodford F. Pickens of Lynchburg, Va. spent Sunday visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Garrett.

Mrs. J. Gosson and children spent Sunday in Herndon visiting Mrs. Gosson's mother, Mrs. Carroll.

Sorry to report Mrs. L. E. Thomas is on the sick list, and was taken to Physicians Hospital, Warrenton, Monday. Hope she improves rapidly.

Mrs. T. Hutchinson of Waterford spent a couple days last week at the home of her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. M. Powell Melton, and Mr. and Mrs. Hutchinson attended the PTA dinner Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Morris and son Robin of Alexandria, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hinton and sons, of New York, visited friends in Haymarket, on Saturday.

M. S. Melton, accompanied by Mrs. Melton, Mrs. B. B. Tullos and Mrs. M. Powell Melton motored to Richmond, last Thursday. Mrs. Melton and Mrs. Tullos attended the Virginia Woman's Forum, held at Miller and Rhodes, while Mr. Melton and Mrs. M. Powell Melton visited in Richmond.

Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Gordon of Seminary Hill, Alexandria, visited the Misses Lucy and M'ry Buckner on Friday.

Sgt. and Mrs. Clarence Bell of Fort Eustice, and Sgt. Roland Duncan and young daughter of Fort Belvoir spent the weekend at the home of Mrs. Bell's and Mrs. Duncan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Welsh.

Miss Lavina Hamilton of Warrenton visited St. Paul's Episcopal Church on Sunday.

Mrs. Ether D. Terrill of Washington spent the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Roland.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Meyer and daughter, Helen Louise, and Mary Jane Utterback accompanied Miss Betty Anne Meyer back to her apartment in Washington, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Powell Melton and sons, Bobby and Eddy, spent the weekend at the home of Mrs. Melton's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. T. Hutchinson, in Waterford, Va.

Bradley Forest

Hank Smith visited the E. D. Hills and family Monday after returning from a hunting trip in Maine. George Ralston also visited the Hill family.

Mrs. Tweeden and Mildred, mother and sister of O. J. Tweeden spent the weekend with the Tweeden family.

M. Sgt. and Mrs. Kinard went to the Birthday Ball at Quantico, Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Bond and family and Mrs. Emma Bond from Falls Church were Sunday guests at the C. H. Bond home.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Scimperman and son, Harold, from Maryland were Sunday visitors at the home of Mrs. J. K. Conner.

Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Miller from Luray were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Miller last week.

Lt. and Mrs. John Phillips have left the community. Lt. Phillips has been transferred to Camp Lejeune, North Carolina.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Barrow and family were Sunday dinner guests at the home of the Kenneth Jenkins.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Hill and family spent Sunday visiting friends in Virginia.

Clifton

By Mrs. Inez Kincheles

David Bates, a former principal in the Clifton schools, was in Clifton on Saturday last visiting old friends. It was good to see him again.

Bill Moore of Arlington, visited his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Davis, on Monday and was also a dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Detwiler.

The turkey dinner given by the ladies of the Baptist Church last Saturday night in the new fire house was a great success. The crowd numbered over two hundred, and the food was wonderful.

Col. and Mrs. Willard Webb went to V. M. I. on Saturday to visit their son Tommie, who is a student there.

The Joe Howards of Washington visited Mrs. Margaret Detwiler and Mrs. Ruel Pugett over the weekend.

Young David Wilson has been quite ill at his home here.

The P. T. A. will meet in the school auditorium on Monday, November 12, featured by a prize spelling bee among members of the upper grades.

Guests of Mrs. John Gunther last weekend were her two aunts and cousin, Miss Elizabeth White of Washington.

Mrs. Asa Pittens had the misfortune to fall and fracture her arm.

Vaccination Of Calves Is On Increase

The practice of calfhood vaccination to stamp out Bang's disease (brucellosis) is still gaining in popularity with Virginia farmers. R. G. Connelly, dairy husbandman at V.P.I., says some 2,842 calves were vaccinated in August, the last month for which figures are available; and that the money set aside by the state to pay for the program is being used up rapidly. The vaccination program is sponsored by the state division of animal industry.

Connelly says the ideal way to control Bang's disease is by test and slaughter combined with calf vaccination. The disease costs Virginia's dairymen an enormous amount of money every year, he says. The loss of calves through abortions immediately throws the breeding and herd improvement program into a tailspin. No dairyman keeps infected cows very long without trouble from sterility and shy-breeding.

We're keeping our promise!

"...to keep pace with the increasing transportation needs of the South."

A YEAR and a half ago we made a promise to you in the advertisement reproduced above. Since making that promise, we have bought 244 more new Diesel locomotive units at a cost of over $39 million. We have purchased 2,550 new freight cars costing about $14 million. We are spending approximately $16 million for new yards and yard modernization.

These are only a few of the things we have done in the past 18 months to live up to our promise. Many other things have been done and will be done. Because our promise "to keep pace with the increasing transportation needs of the South"—and to meet the needs of national defense—is a pledge we are determined to keep.

Diesels for Dixie!

Diesel locomotives...like dollars...don't grow on trees. These 603 powerful Diesel units the Southern Railway System now has in service and on order cost about $80 million!

That's a lot of money. But it bought a lot of modern horsepower...to give a modern fast-growing Dixie the best in transportation service.

These "Diesels for Dixie" are just one indication of our determination to keep pace with the increasing transportation needs of the South.

...that takes a lot of money...it takes FAITH. Faith in the bright future of Dixie. Faith that some day soon our country will insist, in the public interest, that all forms of commercial inter-city transportation must stand independently on their own financial feet...without support from the taxpayer...as only the railroads now do.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of my beloved son James R. Jones who passed away two years ago November 11, 1949.

Before my eyes you faded
Growing weaker every day
Faintly bearing your suffering
Until God took you away.
To see you slowly leaving me
As helpless I stood by
And drank the cup of bitter grief
The day I saw you die.
I heard a voice I couldn't see
Which said you cannot stay
I saw a hand I couldn't see
Which beckoned you away.
Someday I hope to meet you
In the land so bright and fair
For Jesus our Saviour invites me
To his beautiful home to share.

His loving mother,
Geneva Trammell.

News From Nokesville

MRS. FRED SHEPHERD, Correspondent

Mrs. Robert Russell and Miss Helen Russell of Flemington, New Jersey, Mrs. Nannie Strayer and Miss Nancy Sonafrank of Johnstown, Pennsylvania, have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Croushorn and family and Mr. and Mrs. George Sonafrank. Mrs. Russell and Miss Nancy Sonafrank are sisters of Lyla and George and Mrs. Strayer is their aunt. On Monday the Sonafranks entertained at a turkey dinner for their visiting folks, Mrs. Carrie Hively and Mrs. Lyla Croushorn, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sonafrank from Manassas.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Wilkins and Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Wilkins spent the weekend with relatives around Mathias, West Virginia. Miss Peggy Wilkins spent the weekend with Miss Peggy Shepherd.

Miss Eloise Sonafrank and Miss Kitty Mercer of Catlett have "set-up" housekeeping in Washington where both are working.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Shepherd spent Wednesday with Grace's grandparents near Leesburg, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Johnson. Mrs. Johnson recently hurt her arm in the washing-machine wringer.

Mr. Albert Carr and his sister, Mrs. Erma Miller of Pulks Run, have been visiting his sisters, Mrs. Effie Dove and Mrs. Nora Beall, and their families.

Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Trenis have taken their trailer to Spotsylvania where they are spending several days with the Carey Crismonds.

Mrs. Frances Orsted and Mrs. Eugene Arnold entertained at a miscellaneous shower on Saturday evening for Miss Betty Flickenger at the Firehall. The hall was tastefully decorated with the center of attraction a lovely "hand-made" centerpiece of flowers. The guest received so many beautiful gifts, each given with good wishes for much happiness for the bride-to-be.

WOMEN'S CLUB MEETS
Mrs. John Fearneythough and Mrs. H. C. Wood were hostesses to the Sr. Women's H. D. club when it met at the Firehall Tuesday for an all-day meeting. For the worship service, Miss Rebecca Earhart played a piano solo, "Oh Happy Time of Reaper" and then she and Virginia Fitzgerald played a duet, "We Gather Together." Mrs. Catherine Spencer, executive secretary of Fauquier and Prince William County T. B. Association, was the luncheon guest of the club. Mrs. R. T. Gay consented to the Christmas Seal Chairmanship for our district this year. Mrs. Ted Shepherd will represent the senior club on the County Planning Committee.

Misses Alice Flory and Ruth Diehl and Mr. Saylor Diehl "headed" South the first of this week, the girls for a vacation and Mr. Diehl for his favorite winter home (Sebring, Florida).

The "Shepherd kids" have received pictures of the newly built home their parents, the M. J. Shepherds have recently moved into in Sebring, Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Henley of Glen Echo, Maryland, spent Friday evening in Nokesville and enjoyed their dinner at the Nokesville Church of the Brethren.

Mrs. Grace Smith is confined to her home this week with the mumps. Mr. and Mrs. David Sines and family and Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Hewitt spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Sines.

Mrs. Henry Gough spent Tuesday with Mr. David Yankey.

Thanksgiving Arrangements
Arrangements for the annual Community Thanksgiving Service to be held at the school auditorium Tuesday, November 20, beginning at 8 p. m. have been completed. Rev. D. D. Fleishman will give the Thanksgiving prayer. Rev. A. C. Winn will be the speaker of the evening. The Nokesville Band will render several selections of music. Miss Elizabeth Fitzwater will sing. Mrs. Harry Miller will be at the piano. Mrs. Fred Shepherd will plan the worship center. The community is cordially invited to come and worship together.

Devotional Meeting
Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Flory very graciously entertained the members of the Faithful Climbers Sunday School class in their home Tuesday night. David Kerlin led in the devotional thinking for the evening with Mrs. Stanley May planning the recreation. During the business session conducted by the president, Harry Miller, plans were made for a family supper for all the members of the class and their families to be held December 18. Mrs. James Earhart, Mrs. Harvey Smith and Mrs. Harold Hopkins will make the necessary plans.

Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland Flory and family moved Wednesday into their lovely new home on the Nokesville-Brentsville road. We know they are very proud of their home and we wish them much happiness there in the years to come.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Beard have a new little son, born last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Willkomm, who have been living in the M. J. Shepherd home on the farm, are leaving this week for Camp Lejeune, N. C. where he will be stationed. Mrs. W. H. Willkomm, Warren's mother, arrived on Wednesday morning and will accompany them to N. C. The new folks in the Shepherd home will be Major and Mrs. Nath Smith and their 3 daughters, with whom we will also soon be getting acquainted since two of the girls will be attending our school as soon as they move in. They are from Pennsylvania. Major Smith will be stationed at Quantico.

On the sick list this week is Stuart Fleishman who has been ill for several days and Mrs. A. A. Bell. We thought it very unusual for Mrs. Bell not to be helping with the supper Friday night and thought that only sickness would keep her from being there.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Seese and several of their friends spent Friday evening in Nokesville so that they might enjoy the supper at the Church of the Brethren.

Band Boosters Plan Sale
When the Band Boosters met on Monday night plans were started for a Bake and Rummage Sale for the benefit of the Band. Mrs. Paul Irvin is in charge of the Bake Sale and Mrs. Grover Brown and Mrs. Ralph Spear will run the Rummage Sale. The date has been set—December 1.

Watch December 8
Keep in mind December 8 as the date for the annual supper and bazaar held by the W. S. C. S. of our local Methodist church. It will be held this year at the Nokesville gym. More about the plans later.

Stationery Available
You Brethren folks, have you bought your box of stationery which has a picture of our Nokesville Church on the front of each sheet. The price of the box is just $1.00 and we believe you will be proud to write on it and show it to your friends. Mrs. Sines has plenty of it or just call 9-N-31.

Mrs. Jonas Miller has been spending several weeks with relatives in Ohio.

Refugees Host To Visitors
The Nokesville Ruritan Club met for their November meeting on Wednesday evening, the 7th, at the Gym with the members of the Catlett-Calverton club as their guests. The supper was served by the women of the Greenwich Church. The invocation was given by Rev. Brown of Catlett. For the roll call the C-C club's secretary called each member's nickname and they answered "present"; for Nokesville's roll call, the secretary called each member by his name and he answered by his "nickname." After supper each club conducted its own business meeting. Clay Wood, Jr. presided over the Nokesville's club session. Jimmy Flickenger, Lester Parsons, Jr., William White and Bill Davis will attend the National Livestock Show in Chicago.
