CATHARPIN SCHOOL WINS CONCERT TRIO ENJOYED TINY ACTORS APPLAUDED BOUGHT PROPERTY HERE WORK PROCEEDS RAPIDLY M. H. S. WINS SILVER CUP

Meets First Honors at Initial Great Progress During the Year.

The first track meet of the Catharpin School was held on the school grounds at Catharpin on Saturday, May 2. As per notices and by personal invitation by the teachers to the schools of Gainesville District, it was expected that a large turn-out from the neighboring schools would be experienced; this, however, failed to materialize as only a few participated.

The original program was carried out and proved very interesting to all in attendance. The crowd was not large but enthusiastic. This event was the last for the school year just closing. The Catharpin schools have been very progressive and much has been accomplished during the present term to build up the system to a more perfect idealism educationally and the school is now a greater force than it ever was before.

The teachers, Miss Leona Harmon and Miss Eleanor Wilkins, deserve the thanks and appreciation of the patrons for their untiring work and efforts to advance the work. They organized two leagues—the Patron's and the Junior's—both of which held regular meetings all winter. The work of these leagues was both pleasant and profitable. The Patron's League presented the school with a new bell and now have under consideration the enlargement and improvement of the play grounds.

The new school building has been greatly appreciated by the citizens of this district and has put new life and vigor in educational matters generally, to say nothing of athletics. Catharpin school is going to be one of the influences to be reckoned with in all lines of endeavor. It has won both cups for 1913 spelling contest and held her own until taken over into the unknown country of Mexico before the high grade cup could be wrested from her in 1914. Also the primary grade had to kill Catharpin before the cup was removed. This leaves her cupless for 1914, also grouches, but she will be there to be reckoned with in 1915. It was remarked by many persons at the track meet that if Catharpin could have the advantage of a good trainer for her boys in athletics they would have to be reckoned with in that department also. However, the showing made was very creditable and the citizens and patrons generally applaud and are satisfied.

To further show the interest taken in school affairs in this district, the Stenewall Council, No. 63, O. F. A., of Catharpin, at the close of the field day exercises presented the school with the Holy Bible and their country's flag. The presentation speech was made by Superintendent Tyler and responded to by Miss Eleanor Wilkins. A vote of thanks was extended to the Council and the gift appreciated by all.

Following is a report of events and the winners as per report of field manager, Chas. F. Brower: Points—Catharpin, 88; Haymarket, 12; Gainesville, 5.

Potato race for boys, age 7 to 12 years—1st, Edward Smith; 2nd, Lewis Lynn, both of Catharpin.

Auto race for girls, age 7 to 12 years—1st, Helen Haislip; 2nd, Dorothy Sanders, both of Catharpin.

Broad jump for boys, age 7 to 15 years—1st, Edward Smith, 10 feet, 2 inches; 2nd, Carroll Sanders, 7 feet, 11 inches; both of Catharpin.

Miss Robertson, Miss Besaw and Little Students of Miss Moran

Manassas was afforded a rare opportunity Saturday when, under the auspices of the Manassas High School Civic League, the Ithaca Conservatory Concert Company appeared in Eastern auditorium. The personnel included Miss June Robertson, soprano; Miss Pearl Besaw, violinist; and Mr. Frederick Pratt, impersonator.

Miss Robertson sang with the ease of the natural artist and the rippling melody of her clear soprano was heard in English and in a foreign tongue. With a captivating smile she rendered several engaging numbers in response to repeated encores.

Enthusiastic applause was accorded Miss Besaw, who has the touch of a master on the violin, and is an accomplished pianist as well. Her violin solos were accompanied on the piano by Miss Robertson and by Miss Ernestine Mozer, an accomplished student of Eastern College, who also assisted Miss Besaw at the piano while Miss Robertson sang.

Mr. Pratt reached every member of the audience with his droll mimicry and quaint impersonation of the farmer, his wife, the deacon, the schoolboy, the parson and various characters of different trend. His opening number was a striking monologue, "The Convict's Christmas Eve."

Several scenes from Sheridan's "School for Scandal" offered play to Miss Robertson's histrionic ability and the music of her voice. Mr. Pratt made an excellent Sir Peter, and their charming picture in costume will not soon be forgotten here.

feet, 2 inches; 2nd, Carroll Sanders, 7 feet, 11 inches; both of Catharpin.

Broad jump for boys, age 10 to 15 years—1st, Philip Sanders, 14 feet, 2 inches; Haymarket; 2nd, George Knight, 12 feet, 10 inches; Catharpin.

Broad jump for boys over 15 years—Leslie Hoffman, 15 feet, 1 inch; 2nd, Andrew Smith, 14 feet, 10 inches; both of Catharpin.

Throwing base ball—1st, Will Brower; 2nd, Leslie Hoffman; both of Catharpin.

60-yard dash for boys, age 7 to 12 years—1st, Spenser Buckner, Gainesville; 2nd, Edward Smith, Catharpin.

100-yard dash for boys, age 10 to 15 years—1st, George Knight, Catharpin; 2nd, Philip Sanders, Haymarket.

100-yard dash for boys over 15 years—1st, Andrew Smith; 2nd, Leslie Hoffman, both of Catharpin.

220-yard dash for boys over 15 years—1st, Andrew Smith; 2nd, Leslie Hoffman, both of Catharpin.

40-yard dash for girls, age 8 to 12 years—1st, Helen Haislip; 2nd, Dorothy Sanders, both of Catharpin.

60-yard dash for girls, age 12 to 16 years—1st, Louise Ellison; 2nd, Roberta Smith, both of Catharpin.

High jump for boys, age 7 to 10 years—1st, Edward Smith; 2nd, Raymond Patton, both of Catharpin.

High jump for boys, age 10 to 15 years—1st, Philip Sanders, Haymarket; 2nd, Walter Sanders, Catharpin.

Mr. Pratt Applauded by Local Audience.

The little students of Miss Moran delighted a town audience at Conner's Opera House last Friday evening in an entertainment embracing songs, recitations and dramatizations of "Mother Goose" and "The Three Bears." Thanks to the training of Miss Moran and Mrs. Hodge, every number was presented with smoothness and dispatch to the enthusiastic plaudits of an admiring crowd. From old Mother Goose to Golden Looks, much youthful talent was evidenced in every impersonation.

The proceeds have been placed in bank and will be devoted to the purchase of supplementary readers and sundry supplies independent of the school appropriation.

Among the little folks taking part were: Garnette Brown, Susan Harrison, Robbie Sprinkel, Paul Arrington, Horace Adamson, Lucy Larkin, Christine Moser, Hawes Davies, Roy Davis, Sara Pringle, Carleton Athey, Rose Rice, Madeline McCoy, George Johnson, Gladys Wine, Garland Baker, Oscar Taylor, Willard Cross, Lona Todd, Ruth Kinchloe, May Brown, Christeen Beavers, Glen O'Neil, Everette Embrey, Dennis Baker and Charles Roszel.

READY TO FIGHT TYPHOID

State's Forces Prepared to Combat Scourge Immediately Upon Appearance.

Richmond, Va., May 8.—With its forces mustered and its preparations complete, the state is ready to renew the annual campaign against typhoid fever and to make a new effort to reduce the ravages of this summer scourge.

Since the beginning of March the State Board of Health has been arranging its plans for the warfare on typhoid fever and announces to-day, in its weekly bulletin, that everything is in readiness for the first outbreaks.

In addition to its usual machinery for the investigation of epidemics, the State Board has at its disposal a special plant for the disinfection of suspected water supplies and expects, in addition, to carry on a widespread campaign of publicity against the noxious house fly.

The board will make special efforts during the summer to encourage the use of anti-typhoid vaccine among those who may be exposed to the disease. The board does not advocate the general use of this vaccine in those communities where there is little danger of typhoid; but it believes that when there is fever in the neighborhood or when a person is forced to travel in insanitary localities, this vaccine offers a very large degree of protection.

For the convenience of the physicians of the state, the board has made a new contract with H. M. Alexander & Co. by which it dispenses anti-typhoid vaccine at minimum rates. Individual treatments, in three syringes, may be had through the board for 60 cents; individual treatments in ampoules to be used with the physician's own hypodermic syringe for 10 cents. Ampoules for 10 persons may be had for $3.00. Bulk quantities will be rendered by manufacturer. Physicians should be sent direct to the State Board of Health.

Gen. Duryea Purchased Land for Erection of Monument on Battlefield.

The Gen. Hiram Duryea, the Union veteran killed by his insane son in Brooklyn, N. Y., on Tuesday morning, was the last colonel of the 5th New York Zouaves. The first colonel was Abram Duryea, after whom the regiment was named "Duryea's Zouaves."

Gen. Duryea was the man who bought the land near Groveton for the 5th New York monument from Mr. John F. Dogan and sister, paying $100 per acre for the same. After the state of New York erected and dedicated the monument, Gen. Duryea put up the bronze gate on the entrance to Warren avenue on the Warrenton Pike, at the expense of over $300. Mr. John R. Tillett was the contractor for the same.

The Fifth New York Regimental Association is the one which keeps the U. S. flag floating from an iron flagpole from year's end to year's end in front of its monument. The regiment met the first fierce onset of Hood's division at 4 p. m., Aug. 30, 1862, and out of 450 on duty lost 300 in less than 15 minutes, said to be the greatest proportionate loss of any American regiment in any American war. Gen. Hiram Duryea took great pride in his regiment and visited Manassas twice during the progress of the memorial work mentioned. G. C. R.

GO TO CHURCH SUNDAY

Observed in Manassas With Exciting Results. Special Programs in Churches.

At the instigation of the Prince William Pastors' Conference, Sunday was observed throughout the county as "Everybody at Church Day." Each family in the county was invited by card, and while the organization committee failed to receive complete returns, the day was pronounced a success.

In several of the churches special programs were rendered. At Hatcher Memorial Baptist church at Brentsville, it took the form of a missionary rally. The pastor, Rev. T. W. T. Noland, Rev. H. L. Quarles, pastor of Manassas Baptist church, and Mr. Westwood Hutchison, who is a member of the State mission board, made addresses on foreign, home and state missions.

Miss June Robertson, of the Ithaca Conservatory of Music, sang the offertory at Trinity Episcopal church. The congregation of Sudley Methodist Episcopal church observed "home coming Sunday."

REPORT CONFIRMED.

By consent of the town and the defendants in the causes styled The Town of Manassas against Gen. G. Round and The Town of Manassas against M. C. Bennett and others, the thirty days required by law for the commissioners' report to lie for exceptions being waived and no exceptions being filed, the report was confirmed last Saturday in the circuit court. The sum of $765.75 was paid to Dr. Bennett and the sum of $254 to Mr. Round. The title to the land was immediately vested in the town although by consent of the land owner's attorney, the town was permitted to begin work several days before. By consent it was further ordered that the sum of $765.75 and an amount on account of $254 is to be paid only in the event that the town forces the land taken or by some act or requirement of the town, such fencing becomes necessary.

Town Improvements Make Satisfactory Progress—Machinery Fast Arriving.

Work on the town improvements is progressing in fine shape. It is expected that all water pipes will be in the ground by May 15, and that thirty days from that time all machinery will be in operation and ready for the final test. This is the sum total of a statement made by Mr. J. W. Applegate, of the firm of M. Applegate & Son, of Bradford, Pa., contractors for the water system. "Yes," said Mr. Applegate, "by the 15th of June we ought to have waterworks here." The streets have been opened to admit the pipes, men and horses have closed the trenches and nearly all the town has been covered.

The machinery is fast arriving. During the better part of Tuesday an interested crowd of men and boys assembled near the railroad to watch the unloading process. It was something of a sight to see the Southern derrick raise the two huge 125 horse-power boilers and deposit them with such ease on the ground. They will be placed in the power house next week. Yet a few days—necessity, convenience, luxury and fire protection. We are coming!

Workmen are busy in the sewer trenches, some so deep that the laborers are walled in by solid earth above their heads. Solid rock has been encountered in many instances and the sound of dynamite is heard and felt more frequently as the work advances. Early morning and late afternoon are chosen as nearly as possible, to avoid blocking traffic during the busy part of the day.

The force is not as large as Messrs. Dabbs & Myers, of Raleigh, N. C., might wish, and they have announced the expectation of annexing the laborers on the water system as soon as Mr. Applegate's work is completed.

Private houses are being wired looking toward the installation of the electric lighting plant, which is under contract to Messrs. Sterrett & Elerning, of Washington, D. C. Many citizens have been swift to see the importance of this phase of the question and are assured that they will not be caught in the final rush.

QUANTICO WINS.

The Quantico base ball team celebrated its 1914 initial appearance on the diamond with a victory over the Fredericksburg College nine in a well played and interesting game by the score of 7 to 6. Quantico had an uphill fight but was able to win out after two were gone in the ninth on a home run and two doubles. Quantico claims the championship of Prince William and Stafford counties.

Score by innings: R H E
Quantico 00100102784
Fredericksburg 001012110475
Batteries—Kellay and Keys; Sullivan and Motley.

Exercises Postponed.

On account of the unfavorable weather to-day the picnic on the battlefield has been postponed indefinitely. Manassas Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, had invited the neighboring chapters and friends to join them in exercises incident to placing the Confederate flag presented by the San Antonio (Tex.) Chapter, upon the spot where Gen. Bee fell.

Captures First Honors in All Track Events—Field Titles to Warrenton and Culpeper.

Manassas High School carried off first honors last Saturday afternoon in the annual track and field meet of the Eight District Athletic League. This victory won three consecutive years gives Manassas permanent possession of the silver cup. The meet is to be held next year at Warrenton.

Many schools confidently expected failed to enter, and several entered failed to put in an appearance at the meet. Warrenton and Culpeper made a pucky fight for the cup, and the outcome was by no means certain until the final events. Benner captured the pole vault, shotput and discus for Warrenton. With Morris and Gibson, Culpeper took first place in both high and broad jumps. Weis won eight out of the ten points scored by the Calverton team.

Manassas' points were scored by Lynch, Williams, Green, Adamson, Janney, Rice, Harrell and Prescott. Lynch won the 220 and 440-yard dashes and the half mile run; Williams won the 100-yard dash and 120-yard hurdles; Green won the mile run and was a close second to Benner in the pole vault, reversing the order of things in that event last year; Adamson added materially to the local score in the 120-yard hurdles, shotput, discus and broad jump, and Janney, Rice, Harrell and Prescott tallied respectively in the 100 and 220-yard dashes, half mile run, discus and high jump. With Round in the game, Manassas would undoubtedly have run up a higher score. As it was, he was unable to enter after the strenuous debate at Charlottesville.

Summary: Points—Manassas, 51; Warrenton, 31; Culpeper, 23; Calverton, 10.

100-yard dash—Won by Williams, Manassas; 2nd, Morris, Culpeper; 3rd, Janney, Manassas; 4th, Benner, Warrenton. Time, 10 3-5 seconds.

220-yard dash—Won by Lynch, Manassas; 2nd, Morris, Culpeper; 3rd, Janney, Manassas; 4th, Skinker, Warrenton. Time 24 2-5 seconds.

440-yard dash—Won by Lynch, Manassas; 2nd, Gibson, Culpeper; 3rd, Weis, Calverton; 4th, Minter, Warrenton. Time, 57 seconds.

Half mile run—Won by Lynch, Manassas; 2nd, Weis, Calverton; 3rd, Bolen, Culpeper; 4th, Rice, Manassas. Time, 2 minutes, 18 3-5 seconds.

One mile run—Won by Green, Manassas; 2nd, Carter, Warrenton; 3rd, Green, Calverton; 4th, Prescott, Manassas. Time, 5 minutes, 25 seconds.

120-yard hurdles—Won by Williams, Manassas; 2nd, Skinker, Warrenton; 3rd, Adamson, Manassas; 4th, Kelly, Culpeper. Time, 15 seconds.

Pole vault—Won by Benner, Warrenton; 2nd, Green, Manassas; 3rd, Rosson, Culpeper; 4th, Minter, Warrenton. Height, 9 feet, 4 inches.

Shotput—Won by Benner, Warrenton; 2nd, Adamson, Manassas; 3rd, Bolen, Culpeper; 4th, Skinker, Warrenton. Distance, 34 feet, 4 1/2 inches.

Discus—Won by Benner, Warrenton; 2nd, Harrell, Manassas; 3rd, Weis, Calverton; 4th, Adamson, Manassas. Distance, 75 feet, 1 inch.

Broad jump—Won by Morris, Culpeper; 2nd, Benner, Warrenton; 3rd, Adamson, Manassas; 4th, Weis, Calverton. Distance, 18 feet, 6 inches.

ASKS FLY SWATTERS' AID

Board of Health Studying Best Method of Slaughtering Flies—War on Typhoid Fly.

Officers of the State Board of Health are fighting the first flies of the season with more than usual vigor in an effort not only to reduce their number but to ascertain the best method of slaughtering the innumerable millions to be expected with the coming of hot weather.

By conference with the experts of the various city boards of health and with national authorities, the Board is planning a general warfare on the "typhoid fly" and experts are soon to issue literature explaining the most approved ways of killing flies in thousands lots.

In a special bulletin issued today, the Board asks the cooperation of all "fly swatters." It says: "The tremendous part played by flies in the spread of disease makes it imperative that health authorities devise more satisfactory methods of killing this pest than have been in use in the past. To this end, the city Board of Health of Richmond and the State Board have been making investigations of various fly-killing devices. We believe we have found the trap best suited for the purpose but the Board is anxious to hear from all investigators who have been at work along these lines. We want to recommend the best trap that can be had."

DREAM IT OUT.

I love to sit and nod and dream. While every one around me in a hurry seem, Just to sit and dream and nod, And forget that through life we have to lead.

I love to sit and nod and dream. While all the world in a hurry seem, With the mocking-birds ring, And the meadow-lark is on the wing.

I love to sit and nod and dream. Just after the midday meal, At home where everything is real, And all is very quiet, Where we can almost believe that all is right.

Just to sit and think it all out, Or to find out just how to go about, To do things the best way, Little deeds of kindness or pleasant words to say.

I love to sit and nod and dream, When I pause to rest the team, Under the shade of the old apple tree, And up in her blossoms I hear the bumble bee.

I love to sit and nod and dream, When the day's work is over, And the bloom is on the clover, When shadows start across the sky, And the crickets leap about very spry.

I love to sit and nod and dream, After the evening meal, And darkness around us steal, Or listen to the pattering of the rain, And forget I ever had a sorrow or pain.

I love to sit and nod and dream, And laugh off the trouble that seemed To be great until I think it over— And then 'tis as but a mole hill overgrown by blooming clover.

I love to sit and nod and dream, Of the things that make life seem Like one long spring day, And we to choose our own pathway.

Not through darkness and gloom, But through the fields that bloom With joy, peace and rest.

If we choose that which is best, And take time to meditate, Then at hard problems we shall not hesitate, We shall know what we are about, If we take time to dream it out.

RABBI LYONS AT M. I. S.

Delivers Entertaining and Instructive Lecture on "The Grumblers"—Chorus Sings.

Dr. Lyons spoke on Tuesday evening in the assembly hall of the Manassas Industrial School to an enthusiastic body of students and friends. Many and beautiful were the truths brought out at this time. Dr. Lyons said, in part, as a preamble to his talk that his people had given away the Bible; that book that has furnished us much food for human possibilities. He pronounced it as not only good, but very good. He said, "The majority of us are in the habit of thinking that things are all wrong in this old world and if it were left to us we would set it all right." Many touching and amusing illustrations and stories were introduced to drive home the importance and vividness of each truth. He pointed out and proved that the grumbler was a self-conscious egotist, always asserting itself in excessive self-conceit. "It is easier to criticize," he continued, "than to compliment, and the littleness of one's limitations makes it dangerous for the grumbler. This world can be guided by us and our whims, but we are made for the world, and not the world for us. A man will live in fuller sympathy with his fellow man when he understands the why and the use of things in nature. We cherish the rose because of its beauty; we spurn the weed because of its profusion and apparent worthlessness. We cannot have the rose without the thorn, and the weed would be as priceless as the rose if it was as rare and as beautiful. The grumbler should seek to learn that even the tiniest particle of dust is important in the world. The beauty of the sunset at evening is made possible by these myriad particles breaking that wonderful light into its prismatic colors; the rainfall also is made more useful in its descent to earth to nourish the plant and animal life. For criticism of the things we do not understand is ignorance and ignorance is the parent of criticism. The well-informed farmer finds that the microbe is useful, in understanding that it serves some function in nature as an aid to vegetation."

Happiness was described as only occasional in life—not gained by having, but in being. "It is possible for us to find goodness in everything." Here Dr. Lyons quoted from James Whitcomb Riley's "There is a Song Somewhere."

The melodies sung by the school were "Steal Away" and "Swing Low, Sweet Chariot."

The community is invited.

Edward Lynch, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Lynch, of this place, was elected Tuesday to the position of manager of the 1915 football team of Catholic University, receiving on the first ballot a lead of six over the combined vote of his opponents. Mr. Lynch is a graduate of Manassas High School where he figured prominently in athletics and is to be graduated with the class of 1916 from Catholic University.

Several baseball accidents the past week have marred the pleasure of the game in Manassas. Edward Diggs, a member of the graduating class of Warrenton High School and pitcher for that team, was injured in last Saturday's game, suffering slight concussion of the brain. Carter Green, of Manassas High School, and Berkeley Embrey, of the graded school, were knocked down by a blow from a bat accidentally dropped in motion by a member of the team at bat. None is seriously injured and we understand that Diggs and Embrey are again at school.

The following is clipped from an exchange: An exciting bloodhound chase occurred at Quantico Monday. Sunday night the store of Mr. C. G. Leary was broken into. On Monday three bloodhounds from the District farm at Occoquan were put on the trail. A lively chase was had for several miles and the dogs went some distance into a swamp and treed. Those following the dogs would not go into the swamp, which is about waist deep and in consequence the man was not captured. The man the dogs trailed is known. He is a negro who lives in the neighborhood and no doubt will be arrested.

Gives Winning Team Hard Fight for Silver Cup—Buena Vista Victorious.

[By Miss Eugenia H. Osbourn, Principal Manassas High School.]

The inter-high school debate that took place last week at the University of Virginia was an event of more than usual interest to the many schools that had joined the debating league since the formation last fall at the State Teachers' Conference at Lynchburg. All schools joining the league were to pair off in the preliminary debates held in February, and the winners in these were to meet in April at the University of Virginia for the final trial.

The Manassas team, Herman Steele and Roswell Round, having won in the February contest were among the eighteen successful teams that met last week in Charlottesville. The subject assigned for both the preliminary and final contests was whether or not the state should have a law for compulsory school attendance. The first trial in the final debate at the University took place last Thursday afternoon in Cabell Hall, the University professors serving as judges. Nine schools were defeated in this debate and four more at the second trial held that night. The third contest came off next morning at 9 o'clock with four schools debating. Buena Vista, John Marshall High School of Richmond, Brookneal and Manassas. Buena Vista and Manassas won again in this third contest, and the two successful schools had now to draw as to which would meet Charlottesville, since only two schools were to appear that night in the final public debate for the trophy cup offered by the University. Manassas drew for the extra debate and was defeated by Charlottesville.

The Charlottesville team, however, had not debated that morning, and Manassas had to enter this extra contest in hardly more than fifteen minutes after its third debate; and what was more unfortunate still, drew the negative, thus having to change sides in this short time. This left the affirmative side to Charlottesville which it had had both times before. In spite of its misfortunes, however, Manassas won high praise from several of the judges and the high school has cause to be proud of the record of the team in winning so many victories in this state contest, and also to be most appreciative of the skilful and thoroughgoing work done for them by their trainer, Miss A. B. Kirk.

Friday afternoon the visiting teams were given an automobile drive to Monticello, and that night the final debate took place in Madison Hall, the Buena Vista team defeating Charlottesville and thus winning the trophy cup.

At the reception given by the University to the visiting teams, Friday night after the final debate, Dr. Alphonso Smith, Dr. Charles W. Kent and Mr. C. M. Maphis were among the speakers. Dr. Smith and Mr. Maphis spoke of the fine debating and debating work done by some of the visiting teams, and Dr. Kent expressed his appreciation of the value of the debating to the schools, and urged that next year reading and declamatory contests be added to its work.

TRIUMPH FOR M. H. S.

The week ending May 2 was a momentous one in the annals of the M. H. S. for it brought to a close the contests in athletics and debate.

Our school was amongst those teams pronounced the best which gathered at the University of Virginia, Roswell Round and Herman Steele winning in three out of four debates, their defeat being the outcome of a trying situation explained by Miss Osbourn in to-day's article.

The result of the contest is the rapid rise of our high school in a state-wide recognition of excellence in our standards, as the criticism passed upon our team by one of the professors was that they debated like college students.

Our track team, chiefly through the splendid efforts of Ollie Lynch, won the silver cup, which is now a permanent possession of M. H. S., representing the victory of each year since 1912.

Next Monday our girls basketball team will play a return game with Warrenton and practice is dampened neither by wind nor sun.

COMMENCEMENT.

June 11 has been selected as our closing day, our state superintendent, Hon. R. C. Stearnes, having consented to address us at the commencement.

In a few weeks we shall be able to announce the work planned for 1914-15 in the Normal Department, which will be placed permanently under the guidance of the Department of Education of Teachers' College, Columbia University, according to present plans.

PLANNING SCHOOL FAIR.

Preparations are already on foot for a full and extensive exhibit at the school fair of Prince William county to be held this fall in Manassas. No doubt there will result some cooperation between the Business Men's League of Manassas, and the Farmers' Institute of Prince William county through which awards will be offered according to a standard scale of prizes.

The whole movement can be made a clearing-house of ideas suggested by consultation between teacher and citizen through which the town and county will reap abundant benefits.

Resents Common Nuisance.

To THE EDITOR: Please allow me to call attention to one great nuisance.

My intelligence is constantly being insulted by the ignorant and superstitious who keep those chain letters going all the time, in which a prayer is given with a command to make ten copies, or nine, or some number, and send to as many parties within as many days, with a threat, often added, for those who fail to do this.

The only possible good this does is to add to the postal revenue and help the merchants sell more writing material. If this time and money were spent in the interest of some worthy cause it might bring a blessing.

I have received three copies very lately, which to keep going would require me to write them to nearly thirty people and those to about three hundred, and those to about three thousand and next thirty thousand, etc., and in a short time it would reach a million, so what kind of chain would that make? Did you ever see a chain with ten links in each link and ten in each of those, etc., without end?

I hope that most people have too much sense to believe in any such absurd nonsense. Some might do it for lack of better employment without stopping to think their friends will not thank them. I do not thank anyone for sending them to me.

GOOD ROADS

FARM ROADS AND SPEEDWAYS

Government More Interested in Raising Farmer Than Improving Highways for Automobiles.

Secretary Houston of the department of agriculture gave his hearers at the special good roads convention in Detroit a sensible talk on road building in general and government aid in particular. He declared that the government, so far as he is its mouthpiece and connected with its operations, is more interested in improving the wretched rural roads of the country (those over which farm produce is hauled to market) than it is in improving the transcontinental highways which are mainly used by automobile tourists. He also asserted that if government aid is forthcoming it will be on the basis of state apportionment, rather than congressional district or county or road district. Secretary Houston's speech is such a clear exposition of the intentions of the present administration that we take a considerable extract from it:

The essential thing to be done is the providing of good roads which shall get products from the community farms to the nearest station and make rural life more profitable, comfortable and pleasurable.

There are complex problems to be solved in many states before the most efficient expenditure of money by states and communities for roads can be secured, and there are many more to be worked out before one can reasonably expect the federal government largely to participate.

That the suggestion of federal aid to road building raises grave questions and involves possible dangers no thoughtful citizen doubts. There are proposals before the public mind which would bankrupt the federal treasury and suggest possible abuses before which those of the worst pork-barrel bills of the past would pale into insignificance.

It would be especially pernicious if such aid should result in stifling the spirit of local self-help.

The first practical essentials in the planning of road legislation would seem to be to recognize the county as the smallest unit with which the federal government might deal. This would give relief in a measure from the insistent demand that would come from every township and every district in the Union for its share of state or federal assistance, without reference to the merits of the case or the practicability of the undertaking.

In the case of roads on which federal money is to be expended it would seem to be reasonable that the federal agency should have the requisite power of the approval of the selection, supervision of the construction and maintenance, and the right of inspection.

It is reasonably clear that for every reason there must be some automatic check upon the demands to be made upon congress and that this should be afforded through the requirement that the states and the localities should contribute an amount both for construction and maintenance at least equal to and possibly double that contributed by the federal government; and that, in the apportionment of any possible federal funds a number of basic factors such as population, area, wealth, or minimum cost of construction, should control. I have not the heart to doubt.

In short as a practical program, I believe that this matter is one in which haste can best be slowly made.

Co-Operation Needed. Co-operation is necessary for the most systematic road building. That is one reason why Missouri has been doing so much to improve her roads, because her people in the different townships have been willing to co-operate.

Road Drag a Necessity. The road drag should be a necessity upon every farm that borders along the road. The man who is liberal minded and patriotic enough to keep his road dragged in a good condition

FARM STOCK

HEAVY HORSE IS PROFITABLE

Farmer in These Days Cannot Afford to Spend Time With Light Team Labor Too Scarce.

For both farm work and for sale, the heavy horse is a good money maker. In past years the so-called "fast horse" was the ideal animal, but now the automobile on the farm has driven the running horse out of business. The carriage horse of today is a heavier animal than in days gone by.

The farmer who now goes to work in the field, or who hauls loads on the road, cannot afford to spend his time with a light team that can draw only a small load. Labor is too scarce and high priced. Deeper plowing and more work must be done on the same acreage. It is imperative that heavier teams must be used.

For a number of years the weight of best selling horses on city markets has steadily increased. Only a few years ago horses weighing from 1,200 to 1,400 pounds each were considered large enough for heavy teaming. Now the demand is for horses weighing from 1,600 pounds to a ton. No city company can afford to hire an expensive man to drive a light team. Increased supply and commercial products has brought this condition.

For these reasons the heavy horse has risen in value of late years and the importing and breeding of heavy horses has been taken up on a large scale. But the demand for heavy horses has always exceeded the supply. Good heavy drafters weighing around 1,800 pounds find ready sale at over $300 and real choice ones of this class in the largest cities bring from $400 to $500.

There is every evidence that the heavy horse is the coming work animal for both farm and city and that good prices will hold, if not increase, for years to come.

The farmer who is in the field for making side money from his horses will be wise to breed for weight and finish.

If you own an undersized mare don't keep her for breeding purposes as there is positively no profit in breeding to this class. In the first place, it will be a miracle if the colts from them ever gain sufficient size to make what is termed a marketable horse. Too many farmers breed to these undersized mares and in consequence fail most signally in horse raising—that is, from a business point of view.

PURE-BRED VS. SCRUB RAMS

Results of Test Made at Missouri University Show Poor Animals. Careful the farmer.

The University of Missouri has published a circular giving results of a test in which pure-bred rams were compared with scrub rams as producers of lambs. The average gain of lambs sired by a pure-bred ram was over two and a half pounds more at three months of age than the gain of lambs sired by a scrub ram at four months of age. And the scrub lambs ate 50 per cent more grain than the lambs from a pure-bred sire. On the market the better-bred lambs brought $7.35 per hundred weight, while the scrubs brought $4.58 per hundred weight. The use of pure-bred sires has been advocated for so long and the economy of using such rams has been so repeatedly demonstrated that it would seem that such tests were no longer necessary. But still many sheep-raisers deliberately curtail possible incomes from their flocks by using cheap rams—anything that can get lambs.

Fresh Water Essential. Pure fresh water is an absolute essential to successful breeding, and if during the summer there is not a running stream of fresh water in the colt lot, see that the colts get fresh water regularly daily in clean receptacles. In the winter the same care must be taken

A FEW PUDDINGS.

These puddings are not expensive, yet are very good.

Peach Tapioca.—Soak a cupful of tapioca over night in cold water. In the morning steam it into a double boiler and cook for one hour. Remove from the stove and add three-fourths of a cupful of sugar, a half teaspoonful of salt, the juice of a can of peaches, and stir well. Pour a layer of the mixture into a well-buttered pudding dish, then lay in a layer of peaches, repeat, and pour over the remainder of the tapioca. Bake in a moderate oven for one hour. Cool a little and serve with sugar and cream.

Empress Pudding.—Boil half a pound of rice in milk to cover. When tender, add four tablespoonfuls of butter. Cool, and add three well beaten eggs; stir well. Place a layer of bread crumbs in the bottom of a baking dish, then a layer of fruit jam; repeat until all the rice is used. Bake 40 minutes and serve hot with sweetened cream.

Rice boiled in a pudding bag which is large enough for it to swell in, is very nice. It can be dried out in the oven and every grain stands out perfect and whole.

Delicious Cream Pudding.—Cream a half cup of butter, add one and a half cupfuls of sugar and a half cup of sweet milk; then add two and a fourth cupfuls of pastry flour, a teaspoonful of baking powder, a pinch of salt and a teaspoonful of vanilla and almond mixed. Lastly, fold in the stiffly beaten whites of five eggs (packed ones that cost 20 cents in September). Add a cupful each of raisins and currants, and steam in a square pan, so that the slices may be well cut when serving. For the sauce, whip cream and add flavoring of almond and bits of honey cut from the comb in small pieces.

Graham Pudding.—Put a cup of milk, a half cup of molasses, two cups of graham flour, one cup of chopped raisins, half a teaspoonful of soda dissolved in a tablespoonful of warm water; beat hard for five minutes. Pour into a buttered pudding mold and steam for two and a half hours. Serve with any desired sauce. A rich egg sauce is delicious with this pudding. Beat two eggs and a half cup of sugar and a half cup of this cream. Flavor with vanilla and serve at once.

SANDWICHES.

A delicious hot sandwich to serve for a Sunday night lunch, or indeed any time with a crisp salad, is the following. Grate good, well flavored cheese, add cream, seasonings of salt and pepper, and spread it on slices of buttered bread. Put the slices together and fry or saute in a little hot butter until well browned on both sides. Serve hot with tea or coffee. These are exceptionally nice for the cheese lover.

Dream Sandwiches.—Rub a cupful of stewed prunes to a paste with two spoonfuls of lemon juice; spread between thin slices of bread buttered. Add a few chopped walnuts and cut into small square sandwiches.

A lettuce leaf and a bit of boiled dressing placed between slices of bread buttered with peanut butter makes a fine sandwich for the children's lunch basket.

Ginger and Walnut Sandwiches.—Between thin slices of buttered bread lay bits of preserved ginger and chopped walnuts. Using a little of the ginger cream to moisten.

Cream Cheese and Cherries.—A few candied or maraschino cherries chopped fine, with a little cream cheese added, which has been softened with cream and seasoned with salt, makes a most attractive filling for sandwiches.

Bacon and Lettuce Sandwiches.—Cut the crust from thin slices of bread. Toast on one side and keep warm. Fry thin slices of bacon until crisp. Lay this slice of bacon on the bread, lay on a lettuce leaf and a few slices of the bacon between.

Shredded pineapple put on buttered bread for a sandwich filling is especially nice for the one who has no meat digestion.

SAD IRONY OF FATE

By MILDRED CAROLINE GOOD RIDGE.

"You high-handed rascals!" stormed John Marsh. "If I was only able to get on my feet I'd make you suffer!"

Writing in his invalid chair and shaking his crutch through the open window at the two local constables who were leading away with a rope a beautiful collie dog, the old man seemed on the verge of a fit.

It was a sad irony of fate that John Marsh, the confirmed litigant, the wilful tyrant, should be helpless and at the mercy of two subordinate minions of the law. Helplessly raving after them...

"I don't fancy getting his ill will along with this dog of his."

"Neither do I, and outside of that I hate to shoot the poor animal."

"Duty is duty and orders is orders," rejoined the first speaker. "We'll take Jackie over by the river and dispatch him and end the matter."

This had happened: A mean-souled traveling salesman had passed the Marsh house, ventured to enter the yard and appropriate some apples.

"You High-Handed Rascals!"

law suits. Why, even now amid his wretchedness, the confirmed old litigant experienced a thrill of pride as he recalled the Barton case. Ah, there was a suit with a vengeance! Robert Barton had defied him in a trivial matter and Marsh had set about it to get his revenge.

"I hate those Bartons like poison!" Marsh had declared on many occasions, and he thought they were mean when they were only meek, and took their sheer desperation for viciousness, so perverted had his cramped, sour nature become.

Meantime Jackie had allowed himself to be led beyond the limits of the town with downcast eyes and all the resemblance of a culprit. His guides and guards finally halted at a stretch of underbrush near the bluff overlooking the river.

"Come on," spoke one of the constables, "let's get to work."

He let go of the rope as he spoke and both drew their revolvers. The idea was to release the dog and shoot him running. Instantly, however, Jackie, as though suspecting something, made a spring, upset one of the constables, and dashed into the brush for a coopee near the edge of the bluff.

Two reports rang out, and Jackie gave a loud yelp of pain, and disappeared into the brush.

dreaming bright day dreams in a boat. Naomi Barton, the daughter of John Marsh's alleged enemy, and she recognized the animal at once.

Naomi waited until she was sure that the constables had returned to the town. Then she ran the boat nearer to the home farm. She took Jackie with her, housed him in the barn, fed him and attended to his slight wound.

"Come in," spoke a gruff voice as Naomi knocked at the door.

She stood aside smiling through her tears as Jackie sprang upon his master. The beautiful affection of the dog, the almost insane delight of Marsh, were touching in the extreme.

"You are Robert Barton's daughter?" he said.

"Yes," Naomi did so. Her auditor listened. A strange expression stole over his time-scarred face.

"Give those to your father and tell him to burn them up," he said harshly.

"I do this because you are the first human being who in years has done me a kind act."

And the next morning he wrote a brief note to his lawyer, which ran: "Sell two of my bonds and send the $1,000 to Naomi Barton for a wedding present."

RIGHT SPOT FOR MEMORIAL

Empress Eugenie Has Done Well in Selecting Site for Monument to Her Dead Son.

It is announced that the aged Empress Eugenie has bought a piece of land adjoining the park of Malmaison, France, and intends to re-erect there a memorial of her son which she placed some years ago in the garden of a house in Paris which belongs to her.

Nothing could be more appropriate than the presence of a memorial of the unhappy young prince who might have been Napoleon IV, in a spot so redolent of Napoleonic memories as Malmaison, where Napoleon I spent so many happy hours.

The house and its park have been put into beautiful order, and the man must indeed own an insensate soul who can wander through the rooms in which he and Josephine lived, and look upon the penishings that were theirs, without a thrill of historic emotion.

When the conversation in a Washington club turned to things tonorial the other night, Congressman Frank P. Woods of Iowa was reminded of a little incident that occurred in a southern barber shop.

One afternoon an esteemed citizen went into the aforesaid barber shop to have his briars reaped, but no sooner had he taken a seat in one of the chairs than he dropped off into heavy slumber.

TEMPERANCE NOTES

Conducted by the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

TWO GREAT CONVENTIONS. The ninth triennial convention of the World's Woman's Christian Temperance Union held at Brooklyn, N. Y. in October marked the completion of 30 years of achievement, during which marvelous advance along all lines of reform has been made in the 50 countries now federated with the organization.

Immediately following the world's meeting came the fortieth annual convention of the National W. C. T. U. at Asbury Park, N. J. The 707 delegates in attendance represented a dues-paying constituency of over 300,000.

The proclamation of the National W. C. T. U. president, Mrs. L. M. N. Stevens, sent out September 10, 1911, and the bill introduced in congress by the Honorable Richmond Pearson Hobson of Alabama prohibiting "the sale, manufacture for sale, importation for sale, exportation or transportation for sale, of beverages or foods containing alcohol."

"To America, the birthplace of the local, state, national and World's Woman's Christian Temperance union, we hereby proclaim that within a decade, prohibition shall be placed in the constitution of the United States; and to this end we call to active co-operation all temperance, prohibition, religious and philanthropic bodies, all patriotic, fraternal, civic associations and all Americans who love their country."

LIQUOR VOTER GUILTY. When a man drinks something that makes it impossible for his brain to control his actions, he is tripping with his own and others' safety. He is therefore guilty of criminal negligence.

GUEST ROOM MADE RESTFUL

One Hostess Insists on Harmony in Color, Even to the Tint of the Soap Used.

A hostess who is noted for her congenial work and parties, which are given all through the summer at a delightful country house out on Long Island, makes a practice of picking up her guestroom soaps white in Paris on shopping bent early in May. There is something about the delicate, elusive fragrance of a French soap which no American made soap seems to emulate, and though, of course, the French varieties cost a good deal more, the distinction imparted to a guestroom in this manner is incontestable.

This particular hostess selects four kinds of soap, in four colors to harmonize with her various guestrooms, done in rose pink, pale green, pale buff and violet and rose. Blue this hostess deems as too chilly and austere for a bed chamber. The four soaps selected are violet, rose cyclamen and verveine. The violet soap is in a beautiful shade of lavender, the rose soap in pink, the cyclamen in white and the verveine in delicate green. Each soap has the fragrance of the flower it typifies and on one side of the cake is stamped the name of the flower.

This hostess keeps also in each guestroom a dainty silk slippers and inexpensive, heelless kid boudoir slippers in the color of the room, so that the overnight or week-end guest who brings only a suitcase is provided with a pretty negligee for breakfast in her room.

DAINTY BONNETS FOR SPRING

Milliners Have Put Out Most Exquisite Designs Suitable for All Kinds of Faces.

When the spring girl goes to choose her spring hat she will be delighted, for all the little shapes are dainty and suitable for all kinds of faces. The characteristics of spring hats are:

They are small, soft and flexible. There are many tan crowned hats, and these tans must be draped into the brim.

Scarcely any chip or hard straws are to be seen, and there are few black hats.

The newest colors for spring hats are morocco, tobacco, charmeuse, cucumber, gazelle leaf and bishop's purple.

Very little trimming is required for the hats, and really good shapes will be obtainable for only a few shillings.

All-white hats will be the summer favorites, and many shady "coon" shaped hats are made of grass bleached white.

The white hats are very fascinating and very simple in design, and need practically a minimum of trimming.

The day of the heavy hat is over—all the hats for both summer and winter are as light as paper.

FASHION HINTS

The newest coats hang very loose and fall from the shoulders.

Challis is to be one of the fashionable materials for spring.

Popular combinations are antique blue and tobacco brown.

In the new dresses the smartest colors are deep colors and navy blue.

Some new sashes are made of brocade velvet, ribbon, moiré or silk.

For evening, smart women are wearing the hair dressed high on the head.

There is a craze for the weird, spike-like feathered trimming fantasies.

Shepherd's plaid is a material which will be extensively used this spring.

The flat-headed shoes are not so popular; heels of exaggerated height will be worn.

New is the suggestion of the bustle in most of the new spring models.

Pretty collars, gumpes and chemises are made of net, in white, or cream.

STRIKING SPRING HAT

Model of pilot straw, trimmed with tulle and ostrich feathers.

To Clean Black Jet. First brush the jet free from dust, then apply a little olive oil with a brush and polish with chamois.

CAMP ELECTS OFFICERS

Confederate Veterans Meet in Annual Session in Bank Building—Adjutant's Report.

At the annual meeting of Ewell Camp, Confederate Veterans, which was held Monday morning in the directors' room of the National Bank of Manassas, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

Commander, Westwood Hutchison; first lieutenant commander, W. T. Wharton; second lieutenant commander, A. H. Compton; third lieutenant commander, G. W. Nett; adjutant, G. H. Smith; quartermaster, John Hall; treasurer, G. W. Johnson; surgeon, Dr. H. M. Clarkson; chaplain, Rev. H. L. Quarles; vidette, Robert Cushing; color bearer, James F. Gulick, and executive committee, Westwood Hutchison, G. H. Smith and G. W. Johnson.

Official notice was received from headquarters, Virginia division, of the death on January 9, 1914, of Brigadier General R. D. Funkhouser. Record was made also of the death during the past year of Comrade J. W. Wyckoff of this camp. The adjutant was instructed to send letters of sympathy and cheer to our sick comrades, Geo. W. Johnson, J. W. Bell and W. T. Wharton.

Geo. H. Smith, Adjutant.

TOWN IMPROVEMENTS.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Rorabaugh are enjoying the porch and coat of paint recently added to their residence on Grant avenue.

The Lutheran church lot and the lawn of the parsonage adjoining have been placed in excellent condition. A neat border of California privet hedge surrounds the whole.

It is quite a pleasure to look out THE JOURNAL window and view the alley across the way which has been filled in with clean gravel for the convenience and pleasure of the adjoining business houses—Hynson & Company and J. H. Burke & Company—and to the pleasure, no less, of the passer-by. Thank you, Mr. Hynson.

The small frame building situated on the West street property of Mr. Henry Camper is being moved to the property of R. C. Lewis, colored, near Ruffner school. The building was used as a shop by the former owner, Mr. A. B. Davis, now of Clarendon.

Mr. Camper's residence has been treated to a new coat of paint.

HAYMARKET HAPPENINGS

Rev. M. S. Eagle attended the meeting of the Piedmont Convocation at Culpeper last week.

Dr. W. R. Tullos is visiting his daughter, Mrs. O. G. Delt, at Smithfield, Va.

Miss Frances White left on Monday for Gary, Ind., where she will visit her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Emmet White.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh T. Clarkson and little son, of Washington, spent the week-end with relatives here. The baby was baptized at St. Paul's church on Sunday morning and received the name of Benjamin Jolliffe.

Mrs. John Jordon, with her two little sons, has joined Mr. Jordon here for the summer.

Mr. George Bastabal, who has been spending some weeks with his sister, Mrs. P. L. Burwell, returned to New York last week.

We are glad to state that the three of our people in hospitals for treatment—Mrs. S. R. Bleight and Mrs. Franz Peters at the George Washington, Washington, and Sam Hutchison at Dr. Tucker's Sanatorium in Richmond—are all reported as improving, and we trust are well on the road to recovery. M.

The Sole Surviving Kiss.

From the Richmond Times Dispatch. To the Editor of the Times-Dispatch:

Sir: In my letter to Gov. Stuart, a portion of which was published in a recent issue of The Times-Dispatch, there is an error for which I am partially responsible. I stated that I dined at the White House seventy-six years ago, when I should have said seventy-eight years ago, when Gen. Andrew Jackson was President. I was only 12 years old. My grandfather, William Noland, was a bosom friend of President Jackson, who appointed him Commissioner of Public Buildings. Under his supervision the Treasury building, the Postoffice building and the Patent Office were erected. The President would have him with him at the White House frequently, sometimes at night, and at others at dinner, breakfast and supper, as his dairy, which I now have in my possession, shows. I and my brother went to boarding-school with the President's great-nephew, Andrew Jackson Donnellson, jr., and were invited to dine at the White House. On one occasion I had the honor to claim a kiss of one of the prettiest girls in the United States as a forfeit in a game played in the White House, and probably no man living kissed a girl in the White House longer ago than that. EDMUND BERKELEY. Haymarket, Va.

DAVIS' 100 PER CENT. PURE PAINT soars above them all in quality and popularity.
