INVITED TO EXERCISES TUESDAY
The importance of the Manassas Industrial School to all the people of our section of Virginia and to all the interests of the nation is recognized by many distinguished Americans from all parts of our country. At the annual exercises next Tuesday, May 30, an unusual number of distinguished men are expected. Among them are Hon. Chas. S. Hamlin, president of the Federal

MRS. RANDELL HOSTESS

Entertained Good Housekeepers Last Saturday at Mrs. R. A. Hutchison's.

(Chloe E. Lay Hodge, Secretary Bethlehem Good Housekeepers' Club)

The regular meeting of the Bethlehem Good Housekeepers' Club convened at the hospitable home of Mrs. Robt. A. Hutchison last Saturday afternoon. We were delightfully entertained by Mrs. F. E. Randell, whose home was a transformation scene, being possessed temporarily by busy workmen.

The various subjects of interest were discussed at some length and happy conclusions arrived at. The relaxation from the more serious part of the afternoon was much enjoyed and we were refreshed by delicious ice cream and cake, a specimen of excellent housekeeping art. A rising vote of thanks and the singing of "Auld Lang Syne" brought our meeting to a close.

MRS. A. M. WRIGHT BURIED

Resident of Chapel Springs Neighborhood Leaves Her Band and Ten Children.

Mrs. Adeline F. Wright, whose death on Thursday night of last week was recorded in the last issue of THE JOURNAL, was born in Shenandoah county, Va., on April 20th, 1845. She was married to A. M. Wright at Woodstock on December 24th, 1866, and moved to Prince William with her husband on March 15th, 1888.

The deceased was the mother of ten children, eight daughters and two sons, who with her husband survive. The daughters are Mrs. Annie L. Free, Mrs. Carrie W. Allen, Mrs. C. J. Weeden and Mrs. W. Gaines Lipscomb, all of Washington; Mrs. W. B. Goode, of Philadelphia; Mrs. S. H. Hinegardner and Mrs. D. R. McCarthy, both of Nokesville, and Miss Margaret M. Wright, of near Bristow. The sons are Rush L., of Washington Grove, Md., and George M., of near Bristow.

Thirty-one grandchildren, and three great grandchildren also survive. Mrs. Julia K. Brumbach, of Woodstock, a sister of the deceased, is also left to mourn her loss. Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon, Rev. B. D. Lucas, of Eastern College, officiating. Interment was made in Manassas Cemetery.

Mrs. Moffett Resigns.

Mrs. Mary S. Moffett, principal of the Herndon High School, has resigned, her resignation to take effect at the end of the present school term in June. Mrs. Moffett came here from Manassas three years ago and has built up the Herndon school until it enjoys the reputation of being one of the best schools in the state. She has been anxious to give up teaching for some time.—Herndon Observer.

Reserve Board; Hon. George McAneny, ex-president of the Board of Aldermen, New York City; Hon. Oscar T. Crosby, of Warrenton, formerly from Mississippi; Hon. George Gordon Battle, of the firm of which Senator O'Gorman, of New York, is the leading member, and Oswald G. Vittard, publisher of the New York Evening Post.

The white people of our town are specially invited to give these gentlemen a reception at 1 p. m. at the president's house and to attend the public exercises in the grove at 2 p. m. and hear the speeches of these gentlemen.

"VALLEY FARM" NEXT WEEK

Four-Act Domestic Drama to Be Presented by Local Talent June 2 and 3.

You know that you would enjoy seeing a good drama, especially when the actors are home people of recognized talent. For this reason you are not going to miss seeing "Valley Farm," a domestic drama in four acts, which is to be shown in Conner's Opera House Friday and Saturday evening of next week. The general admission is to be 25 cents and reserve seats, which are now on sale at the Prince William Pharmacy, can be had for 35 cents. It's been a long time since Manassas people have had the opportunity of seeing a good show and they are going to turn out in large numbers for "Valley Farm." If you want a reserved seat you had better engage it now. "Valley Farm" is a play in which ample opportunity is given Manassas' histrionic talent to display itself to advantage. And looking over the list of characters given below you can easily see that there is no lack of good material. Special scenery is now being painted. "Valley Farm" is given under the auspices of the Guild of Trinity P. E. Church and should be well attended by the people of Manassas and vicinity.

COCA COLA NOT IMMUNE

Popular Drink Must Now Stand Test Under Pure Food Law.
(Fredericksburg Free Lance)

The U. S. Supreme Court has reversed the Tennessee federal courts which refused to confiscate on petition of the government, 40 barrels of coca cola as violating the federal pure food law and sent the case back for presentation to a jury to determine whether caffeine contained in coca cola is injurious to health.

Justice Hughes, for the unanimous court, held the Tennessee courts had erred in deciding that no poisonous articles could be added to a proprietary food composed of ingredients brought together within the meaning of the pure food law, which declares to be "adulterated any product with 'added poisonous or injurious ingredient.'"

Justice Hughes held that the provisions of the statute were somewhat incongruous, but that it was evident "added" meant "artificially introduced." "It is evident that congress did not intend to give immunity from the law to proprietary foods to contain poisons merely by reason of the choice of some formula or name," added the justice.

The jury, the court held, should also pass on whether there is any coca or any cola in the product.

Millions Paid for Chewing Gum

Chewing gum is certainly an expensive habit for the people of the United States in general, for the statisticians of the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce have figured that for the raw material alone it cost $35,000,000 in the last ten years, or almost five times as much as was paid Russia for the Alaskan territory.

J. C. HARLEY IS CALLED

Brother of A. C. and S. C. Harley Died at Home in Chester, Pa., Last Friday.

J. C. Harley, brother of A. C. and S. C. Harley, of near Manassas, died at his home in Chester, Pa., last Friday morning at 3 o'clock, after an illness of over three years' duration. For the past several months Mr. Harley had been very ill and his death, which was due to a complication of diseases, was not unexpected. Funeral services were held from a Methodist church in Chester Tuesday afternoon and interment was in a Chester cemetery. The two brothers of the deceased who live near Manassas were in attendance upon the funeral.

Mr. Harley was born 47 years ago in Montgomery county, Pennsylvania. When a young man he moved with his parents to Prince William county, Va., and resided here for about a year. He then obtained employment in a store in Chester, Pa., since which time he has been located there. He was married to Miss Mary Miles, of Chester, and to this union were born three daughters, Misses Marion, Catherine and Elizabeth, all of whom are living. Several years ago Mr. Harley, with his brother-in-law, opened a retail housefurnishings store, which has been very successful. Elmer Marks, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Marks, of near Manassas, has been employed by this store for the past few years.

Besides his two brothers, who live near Manassas, Mr. Harley is survived by his mother, Mrs. J. K. Harley, of near town; another brother, H. C., of Royer's Ford, Pa., and a sister, Mrs. J. W. Mathias, of near Manassas. The deceased was well-known to many of Manassas and Prince William. Nearly every year Mr. Harley has paid his relatives here a visit. When in Manassas last summer it was noted that he was in very poor health. He was a member of the Methodist church and was influential in the religious and business circles of Chester.

MEMORIAL DAY JUNE 2

Congressman Burnett, of Alabama, Will Make Address—Special Music.

An address by Hon. John L. Burnett, congressman from Alabama, will feature the program of Confederate Memorial Day, which will be observed in Manassas next Friday, June 2. Congressman Charles C. Carlin will also be present. Special music by a male quartet is promised. The exercises will begin promptly at 2 o'clock at the courthouse and will conclude with a decoration of the graves in the Manassas Cemetery. The public is invited to attend.

Commander Westwood Hutchison, of Ewell Camp, U. C. V., will preside. The invocation will be pronounced by the camp's chaplain, Dr. H. L. Quarles. Rev. T. D. D. Clark is expected to read a poem, and the school children after forming in line will march to the cemetery and decorate the graves of the Confederate dead. The committee in charge of the program is composed of Mrs. C. M. Larkin, president of Manassas Chapter, U. D. C., and Mrs. Westwood Hutchison, president of the Ladies' Memorial Association.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere appreciation of the sympathy, kindness and beautiful floral tributes extended on the occasion of the death of our dear wife and mother, Adeline F. Wright.
By Her Husband and Children.

EASTERN COLLEGE NOTES

Doings in The World of Tennis—Third Floor Men Much Envious.

The Eastern College tennis team has returned from its northern trip. Eastern won at Peddie Institute, N. J., and lost to Swathmore, in Pennsylvania. What is likely to be the last game of the present season for Eastern is that scheduled to take place Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock on the home court with the Technical High School team from Washington.

The "hard times" party given by the Tau Beta Phi fraternity last Saturday proved a great success. The bonfire and refreshments added much to the joyousness of the occasion.

Stock of the "Third Floor Improvement Association" is greatly in demand since the meeting of the stockholders on Wednesday evening of last week. At that time a 16 per cent dividend was voted. The organization flatly refuses to issue stock to any but third floor men. Officers of this close corporation for the coming year were elected at the meeting just held.

QUANTICO MERCHANT DEAD

W. W. Abel, Member of Dumfries School Board, Buried Saturday at Missouri Mills.

W. W. Abel, for over twenty years a merchant of Quantico and a native of Prince William, died from paralysis at Quantico the latter part of last week. Mr. Abel was stricken with paralysis a few months ago. He underwent hospital treatment but did not seem to improve much. Early Thursday morning, May 4th, fire destroyed Mr. Abel's store and dwelling and he had to be carried from the burning dwelling. Funeral services were held Saturday and interment was made at Missouri Mills, on the border between Prince William and Stafford.

Mr. Abel was between 45 and 50 years of age. For several years he served as member of the Dumfries district school board. He was twice married, his first wife being a Miss Leary and the second, Miss Stella Williams, both of lower Prince William. Four children were born to the first union, three of whom, Damon, Virgil and Miss Viola Abel, survive. Four young children by the second wife, who also survives, are left to mourn their father's loss.

EASTERN FINALS NOW ON

Closing of Seventeenth Annual Session Occurs Wednesday.

HON. J. B. ASWELL TO ADDRESS CLASS

Rowland Won Prize in Oratorical Contest—First Pianoforte Recital Wednesday—President's Reception Last Evening—Baccalaureate Sermon Next Sunday—Other Events Yet to Come.

Eastern College finals for the seventeenth annual session began Wednesday evening with a recital by the pupils of the piano department. Last evening Dr. and Mrs. H. U. Roop entertained the faculty and seniors at a reception in Vorhees Hall. This evening the annual recital of the pupils of the expression department under the direction of Miss Mabel Lee Martin will take place. Other interesting events are scheduled for every evening through Tuesday. Sunday morning Dr. Roop will deliver the baccalaureate sermon, and Wednesday morning at ten o'clock the commencement exercises proper will take place. Two programs of interest rendered preliminary to commencement week were those of last Saturday evening's oratorical contest and Sunday afternoon's sacred concert by students of the vocal department.

ROWLAND WINS ORATORICAL MEDAL

On Friday evening last the annual contest for the Ann J. Allebach prize took place. The winner was Clarence Rowland, of Buffalo, N. Y., whose interesting subject, "Commercial Education," was given with force and clarity. The orations were all original and showed real constructive ability. The decision to the winner rested on a very narrow margin.

W. E. McKenny, of Kinsale, Va., showed the necessity of the small college as essential of education. Miss Mozer, of Highspire, Pa., pictured the heroism of women in the present war and enlivened her oration by quoting several stories of heroism of the women of Prince William county during the Civil War. Walter Moore, of Pottersville, N. J., spoke of the establishing of a world federation as a solution of the problem of how to do away with war, and Ashby Martin, of Remington, Va., made a strong impression with his oration, "An Age of Unrest."

Before and after the speaking there were two charming vocal solos rendered by Miss Saltzer and Miss Margaret Roop. The judges in commenting on the orations stated that they displayed qualities equal that seen in the orations of the larger universities.

SACRED CONCERT SUNDAY AFTERNOON

Students in the vocal department of Eastern, under the direction of Mrs. J. C. Dunn, rendered a very pleasing sacred concert on Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. A good number of Manassas people were in attendance and the program was much enjoyed. Dr. Roop delivered a short address on music, which was very appropriate.

JUNIOR PIANO STUDENTS PERFORM

Two programs are given at every finals by students of the piano department. That of Wednesday evening was given by the younger students, in the main, on account of sickness and for other reasons five who were on the program failed to put in their appearance. The program was thus considerably shortened. The playing of Miss Lucile H. H. Miss Margaret Roop and Miss Mabel Lee Jones was especially well received. In addition to these the following pupils played solos: Misses Elizabeth and Helen Coleman, Pauline Carter, Elizabeth Johnson, Pauline Beachley, Ethel Hixson, Ethel Lion and Nancy Page-Abbott. The recital by the advanced class of this department will be given on Tuesday evening.

EVENTS YET TO COME

This evening, 8 p. m.—Annual recital of pupils of expression department. This event is looked forward to with considerable interest, as past performances of students in this department have been unusually creditable.

Saturday, May 27th, 2 to 5 p. m.—Exhibition and reception by schools of art and home economics. The most creditable work of the year is shown at this exhibition.

Saturday, May 27th, 8 p. m.—The President's prize debate. The preliminary has been held and four have been chosen to debate on "Resolved, That Our National Defenses Should Be Substantially Strengthened."—The affirmative will be upheld by Messrs. Graybill and Fronk and the negative by Messrs. Moore and McKenny.

Sunday, May 28th—11 a. m., baccalaureate sermon by President H. U. Roop. 6:45 p. m., campus praise service. 8 p. m., annual address before the Christian associations by Dr. J. C. Palmer, of Washington.

Monday, May 29th—2 p. m., tennis match between Eastern's crack team and a team from Technical High School, of Washington. 8 p. m., play by senior class in college auditorium.

Tuesday, May 30th—3 p. m., Senior Class Day program. 8 p. m., final concert by pianoforte pupils.

Wednesday, May 31, 10 a. m.—Seventeenth annual commencement. Honor orations by Mr. McKenny, Miss Rayland and Mr. Saunders. Address by Hon. Jas. B. Aswell, congressman from Louisiana. Presentation of diplomas and conferring of degrees by President H. U. Roop. The alumni association will meet directly after the commencement exercises.

R. E. THORNTON HONORED

State Senator Publicly Thanked For Aiding in Passage of Prohibition Law.

On Monday evening, May 16th, an interesting meeting was held by friends of prohibition in Falls Church to do honor to Senator R. E. Thornton, of Fairfax C. H., brother of Judge J. B. T. Thornton, of Manassas, and Delegate Franklin Williams, jr., of Fairfax county, for their active work in obtaining the passing of the splendid prohibitory law at the last session of the Virginia Legislature.

Senator Thornton in a happy manner responded to the hearty reception accorded him and thanked the promoters of the meeting for the public manifestation of their approval of his course standing in the passage of the prohibitory law. Pioneer Lodge, No. 1, Good Templars, presented Mr. Thornton with a beautiful bouquet of flowers as a slight testimonial of the members' appreciation of his service. Mr. Williams was also presented with a bouquet of flowers, this bouquet coming from the ladies of the Baptist Church.

MANASSAS, VA., FRIDAY, MAY 26, 1916.

FOR ONE NATIONAL DECORATION DAY

It's a beautiful custom, this decorating of graves on May 30th each year. All throughout the northern states this national holiday is observed, but what about in the southland? Here there is no one decoration day. Two southern states have set aside May 10, another the second Friday in May each year. Several others observe June 3rd. It's a case of any day except May 30th. But why should this be? For many years there was a reason why the South did not wish to observe May 30th as Decoration Day. The wound of the conflict was fresh. But this is all healed over now and on nearly every hand we see the spirit of perfect reconciliation very happily possessed by the surviving followers of Lee and Grant. Having united in reunions, we of the South should unite in the observance of May 30th as Decoration Day for the whole nation.

THE MAN WHO WALKS HAS RIGHTS

When a man pays his taxes, keeps the laws of the town in which he lives, and is an all-round good citizen don't you think his interests ought to be studied, not only by the town officials but also by his fellow citizens? Don't you think the welfare of such a man and that of his wife and children ought to be looked after? You answer "yes" but are you really living up to the part?

It was only a few days ago when a thoughtless automobile driver, going at a speed well above the limit, turned one of the street corners of Manassas and by the narrowest margin missed a woman and two small children. Another day an automobile was left with a small boy as its sole occupant in the front seat, and for several minutes the engine was left running. A few moves of those little fingers in the right direction and an engine of death would have been turned loose on our streets.

With the possession of an automobile comes not only the pleasure it affords but also the responsibility of protecting the lives of pedestrians—a weighty responsibility no matter in which way it is viewed. For the man who walks has rights.

THE GRANT AVENUE HORSE RACK

While Lieut. Geo. C. Round's protest in regard to the location of the horse rack on Grant avenue is rather tardy in coming, it deserves the consideration of the town council and the people of Manassas in general. Mr. Round, in his protest, which is given on another page, lays down a number of reasons why this rack should never have been placed at its present location. In the main his contentions are reasonable and well-taken. The way the matter looks to us is as follows:

First—It is hard to see how the Grant avenue rack damages Mr. Round's lot unless he intends to build thereon within a short while. Second—While we do not know of any agreement which may have been made between the corporation and Mr. Round, when the latter donated the strip of land which makes up part of Grant avenue, we feel that he is justified in complaining about the misdirected use of a public thoroughfare. Third—We do not believe that the present location of the horse rack in question would interfere with the making of the courthouse yard into a park. Neither do we think that senators and foreigners visiting Manassas to view the commemorative group in the corner of the courthouse yard would be greatly shocked to see a horse rack nearby. Horse racks are mighty useful things where everyone does not own an automobile. Fourth—Since the Methodist Church lot at the intersection of Main and Church streets was rented for a tying ground, Mr. Round's points with reference to the town's renting another tying ground, in the western part of the town if a rack is needed there, is well taken. We do not know but we think it possible that a lot near the present location of the Grant avenue rack could be rented. If such a lot can be rented we believe that there should be no hesitancy in removing this rack.

But it's up to the town council to decide what's to be done in this matter. As we see it the rack should be moved.

HERE'S YOUR OPPORTUNITY

Suppose you wanted to do the boys of Manassas a good turn. Suppose you were anxious to help them start life in the right direction. What would you do? You would not give them free tickets to every circus that comes to town. You would not create an endowment fund for candy and soda water. No, you would try to help them in a way which would be of lasting benefit. And we believe that it would be in the establishing of a game and reading room right here in Manassas.

A suggestion, and a very excellent one, that has been made is that the Manassas rest room be used at night as a game and reading room for local boys. Yes, this is entirely feasible. The Boy Scouts would no doubt be willing to take charge of the running of this room, one of them serving each night. In this way perfect order could be maintained. The least inclination to ruffianism could be stamped out right in the beginning.

We have the room. We have those whom we think would be willing to assume the proper running of the room. The ladies of the Woman's Auxiliary who have the room in charge will most likely consent to its being used for a game and reading center for boys. It's only a question of creating the necessary interest among local people and the purchase of a few games and the contribution of a number of the better monthly magazines. Are we to arise to this opportunity? The guiding angel of many a Manassas boy anxiously awaits your answer.

THE LITTLE KHAKI UNIFORM

You see him swing along in his neat little uniform, carrying himself erect and looking the whole world square in the eye. Who is he? He is the Boy Scout, and he is about the best thing you can put your hands on. What is he taught to do? First, he is taught to lead a straight life. He shuns evil companions, tobacco, drink, does not swear and endeavors to do at least one good turn daily. Second, he is taught the value of a strong body and how to get one. He is drilled in the principles of woodcraft, caring for the wounded and public rescue work and he learns how to swim. Whose boy can become a Scout? Anybody's, so long as the boy has character and lives up to the laws of the organization.

Take a look at the many little fellows of Eagle Troop, No. 1, Boy Scouts, Manassas. When you were a boy did you ever dream of such a heaven? Perhaps you dreamt of it but that was all. Now your boy dons his khaki and slouch hat and off he goes, growing and learning how to be a man after your own heart.

PEOPLE GET THIRSTY TOO

One hot day last summer a man came to Manassas. He was a stranger. He soon got thirsty and then began to look around for water. Unlike a great many men, this fellow did not care for any of the products of the soda fountain. What he wanted was a drink of water. He saw that the town had water works, therefore, he felt sure that there was plenty of the thirst quencher to be had, but the problem for him was how to get it. Like many another fellow he had a delicacy in asking a housekeeper or a merchant for a glass of water. For a while he walked up and down the streets not knowing what to do until finally, in desperation, he plunged into one of the drug stores, bought a sundae and asked for some water. He drank two glasses and then this thought occurred to him, "How nice it would be if Manassas would put in a bubbling fountain on one of its street corners." And this thought we pass on to the Manassas Civic League, which recently appropriated sufficient money to install a public drinking fountain for horses.

WASHINGTON TO BE CAPTURED

The Confederate army (at least what remains of it) will capture Washington next year. This is really going to happen, and it's all at Washington's invitation. There is to be no siege, no period of bombardment. There are to be only two features to this capture and they are the triumphal entry and a pleasant occupation of the city for a few days. And the reception tendered the soldier of the old South in the capital of the old North is to be a reception such as he has never before been accorded, for it will be the first reunion of the Confederate veterans in a city of the North. Fresh from the happy gathering of last week, the Veteran in Gray will dream of the reunion to come, when the Veteran in Blue will look on with kindly eye and say, "God bless you, dear brother, we each did our duty."

How about it, brother? Are you getting anything out of that little garden game that you started so earnestly in early spring? Are you still master or are the weeds and old Mr. "Tater" Bug getting the upper hand? Now's when the test comes. If you are going to have a garden worth carrying the name you have got to dig the weeds and wage warfare against those pesky insects pretty nearly every time you turn around. Still, new potatoes taste mighty good when they come out of your own garden.

WANTS THIS RACK MOVED

Lieut. George C. Round Protests Against Location of Grant Avenue Horse Rack.

At the February meeting of the town council it was voted to erect two horse racks, one near the intersection of Grant and Lee avenues and another on the Methodist Church lot at Main and Church streets. Shortly after the passing of this ordinance the racks were erected, but at the time of placing the rack in the west end of town there was considerable dispute as to where it should be located. Finally, it was decided to locate the rack in the roadway on Grant avenue, near the intersection of Lee avenue. It was thought by the committee of the town council that this would be a suitable place, since the portion of the roadway taken up by the rack has been little used in the past. Lieut. George C. Round, who gave this strip of roadway to the corporation several years ago and who owns lots adjacent to this right of way, now issues formal protest against the location of the rack and asks that it be moved elsewhere. Mr. Round's protest follows:

To the Mayor and Council of Manassas:

I respectfully protest against the location of public horse stalls at the point selected by your committee, on Grant avenue, near Lee avenue.

1. The location does serious damage to my lots and to other property and will prevent improvements contemplated in the vicinity.

2. The land was donated by me and conveyed to the corporation for use as a public avenue of travel. I insist that it is not good faith with me or with the traveling public to use it for purposes not contemplated in the conveyance and for purposes destructive of the uses contemplated.

3. In the years 1892 and 1893, the county courthouse was removed to Manassas on an understanding with the citizens of the county that involves the good faith of our town and its people. The corporation was to furnish a site of two acres for the county buildings and wide avenues running north, south, east and west were to be opened by the corporation for the convenience of the citizens of the county to travel to the county buildings. Over 20 years have elapsed and the avenue running south from Lee avenue toward Coles, Occoquan and Dumfries, has never been properly worked to the extent even of plowing a furrow to mark the sides of the avenue. There is probably not a public road, even in the most remote parts of Coles district, which has not had that much attention. Now 22 years after Grant avenue running south is obstructed by 15 horse stalls placed in one of the driveways by our corporation, which is in honor bound to keep it open and develop it.

The undersigned was appointed at the time as "corporation agent" to solicit contributions and negotiate corporation bonds to secure the $5,000 pledged by the corporation and for the purpose of arranging other details. As such agent he protests that the corporation is not acting in good faith with those who contributed land and money for the public buildings and the avenues of approach. He protests that Grant avenue and Lee avenue should be wide open for their full width for footmen, horsemen, automobiles and conveyances of all kinds.

4. The editors of our papers, the members of our various civic and educational organizations and many citizens have from time to time urged the establishment of a public park in Manassas. What more beautiful park could be established than the grounds around the courthouse in connection with the four wide avenues named, all planted with trees, shrubs and flowers, of an equal width to that part of Grant avenue running north of the courthouse? What other place is there in our town for a park equal to this? Why spoil the only available site for a park by anything so inappropriate as public horse stalls in the middle of one of these avenues?

5. The junction of Grant and Lee avenues constitutes a historic location of the highest character, where the Blue and the Gray, now fast disappearing from our land, have assembled on a dozen different occasions since our county grounds were there located. On July 21, 1911, the President of the United States, the Governor of Virginia and the forty-eight re-united states, represented by our own Manassas girls, assembled with the most distinguished American citizens and soldiers to inaugurate the Manassas National Jubilee of Peace. Here on September 30, last, our county dedicated a jubilee tablet of bronze and granite in perpetual commemoration of the same. Nothing like it exists in the nation or the world. I submit that nothing inconsistent or incongruous should be permitted permanently in the vicinity. I submit that our county, corporation, our civic organizations and our people should unite to make our county grounds and the avenues of approach "a thing of beauty and a joy forever," worthy the cooperation of the national government, as now proposed in bills pending before our Senate and our House of Representatives.

What would one of our own senators or a traveler from a foreign land say when he comes to our glorious plains to see the historic tablet at the corner of Grant and Lee avenues, to behold diagonally opposite public horse stalls, obstructing by its sights and odors what should appeal to our thoughts of the beautiful, the heroic and sublime?

The undersigned is informed that the corporation has rented a lot for horse stalls in another part of our town. Why could not this be done in the northwest if the council determines that horse stalls are necessary here?

Is there the owner of a lot anywhere in Manassas who would consider that the council was doing right to erect horse stalls in front of his lot in the middle of the street, particularly if he had donated the land to the corporation for another purpose?

All of which is very respectfully submitted,
GEORGE C. ROUND.

Too many young men's fashions convey the impression—both to the wearer and to others—that the designer's shears somehow fell short of the task he undertook. And how rarely you find a model which fulfills the young man's idea in such surpassing manner as

FARMERS TAKE NOTICE

The way to make two blades of grass grow where one does now: Buy the celebrated Magnesium Lime from Leesburg Lime Co., the lime that has been sold in Loudoun and Fairfax for the past twenty-five years, and out produced them all, and the reason for it is because it contains Magnesium and Oxide of Iron in right proportion to Calcium Carbonate, and the United States Agricultural Department in Year Book 1901, page 161, states that Magnesium is absolutely necessary to plant growth and nothing else will take its place. Send orders to Cornwell Supply Co., Manassas, Va., or direct to us and same will have prompt attention.

LEAPED FROM THE TRAIN

Mrs. Ruth Andrews Found Beside Track Near Burke Station—Recently Married.

[Alexandria Gazette]

Mrs. Ruth Andrews, 30 years old, the one-month bride of W. C. Andrews, an employee of the steel works at Sparrow Point, Md., was fatally injured at midnight Tuesday night when she jumped from the Chesapeake & Ohio passenger train which left Washington at 11:10 o'clock that night. She was taken to the Alexandria Hospital with a fractured skull, broken arm and leg and internal injuries, where she remained unconscious until 1:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon when her death occurred.

Mrs. Andrews, accompanied by her husband and her sister, Miss Lula Myrtle, was enroute to her home in Staunton, Virginia. She was married a month ago in Washington and went to Baltimore to live. Recently she was taken ill and had been suffering from melancholy. Her relatives were taking her back to her home in Staunton in the hope that her condition would improve. The three were occupying seats in the chair car when they left Washington, and at Alexandria Mr. Andrews went into the smoker leaving his wife apparently asleep in the same seat with her sister. He returned a half hour later and found that she was gone. A search of the train was made and the right hand door of the vestibule was found open. Mr. Andrews and Miss Myrtle left the train at Manassas and returned to Alexandria.

The mangled form of Mrs. Andrews was picked up by a crew of a south-bound freight train one mile south of Burke station, 13 miles from Alexandria. She was carried into Manassas where Dr. Merchant attended her and accompanied her to Alexandria reaching there at 5 o'clock Wednesday morning. At the Alexandria Hospital Dr. M. D. Delaney was called in consultation, but it was seen that her condition was hopeless.

JUMPED TO HIS DEATH

Telegraph Operator From Remington Killed Self in Washington Sunday.

[The Washington Star.]

Ernest Edmonds, thirty-two years old, a telegraph operator, Sunday afternoon ended his life by jumping from a window on the twelfth floor of the Munsey Building, Washington. His lifeless body was picked up in an areaway in rear of the building and taken to Emergency Hospital. Later it was turned over to an undertaker.

Edmonds' legs and body were crushed, but his head was not bruised or disfigured. Coroner Nevitt viewed the body at the hospital and gave a certificate of suicide. He was told that the young man had been out of employment and that his financial condition had bothered him to such an extent that he had discussed at times the question of ending his life.

The deceased was a native of Virginia. His home was at Remington, Fauquier county. Four years ago he married Miss Katherine Bell. His wife became ill while the couple were in Richmond, where, it is stated, the husband was employed in the office of a press association.

One day last week, Coroner Nevitt was told, the telegrapher borrowed a dollar from another telegrapher, saying that he had been out of work and spent his money. Sunday the young man had only a few cents in his pocket when he ended his life.

ROESER IS INSANE

So Says Commission in Regard to Dr. Detwiler's Slayer—Now in Asylum.

(Herndon Observer)

Carl Roeser, the slayer of Dr. Edwin L. Detwiler, of Herndon, who was shot and killed at the Roeser home near Dranesville, Fairfax county, on Feb. 29, has been adjudged insane, at least temporarily, and committed to the State Asylum for the Insane at Marion. Roeser was indicted for murder at the March term of Fairfax circuit court, but at the request of Commonwealth's Attorney Ford, Judge Thornton appointed a commission to inquire into the prisoner's sanity. Last week this commission, which was composed of Dr. W. F. Drewery of the Central Asylum for the Insane, Dr. W. I. Robey, of Herndon, and Dr. F. M. Brooks, of Swetnam, reported to Judge Thornton that at the time of their examination Roeser was insane and is now insane. Judge Thornton thereupon directed that the prisoner be confined in the Marion asylum until he is so restored to his sanity that he can be put on trial to answer the indictment for murder. Roeser was remanded to jail to await the arrival of asylum authorities to take him away.

FINDS RELIEF

FROM CATARRH

Norfolk Man Says New Medicine Is Great.

Tanlac has been found to be a wonderful remedy for a number of ailments and it has helped many people who suffered from catarrh. One may find relief thru the use of Tanlac is A. A. McKimsey, living at 413 Liberty Street, Norfolk, Va. He told the Tanlac representative recently, "I suffered from catarrh of the head and stomach and had a tired, dull feeling. I had a wheezing condition in my throat and my nostrils were all stopped up. Either one or the other of my nostrils was stopped up so I could hardly breathe. My headaches bothered me a lot. I read of the benefit others had received thru the use of Tanlac and I decided to give it a trial. Since taking Tanlac neither my head, nose, or throat bother me any more and I do not have that dull, tired feeling. My severe headaches are a thing of the past. I know it is a very good medicine. Before taking Tanlac my limbs ached and my feet felt as if they were iron. Now I am much better in every way."

Tanlac is now on sale at Dowell's Pharmacy, Manassas, Va., and can be obtained for the small price of one dollar. If your health is worth that to you don't delay, but go today and you will be surprised at the quick results.

ATTENTION DRUGGISTS

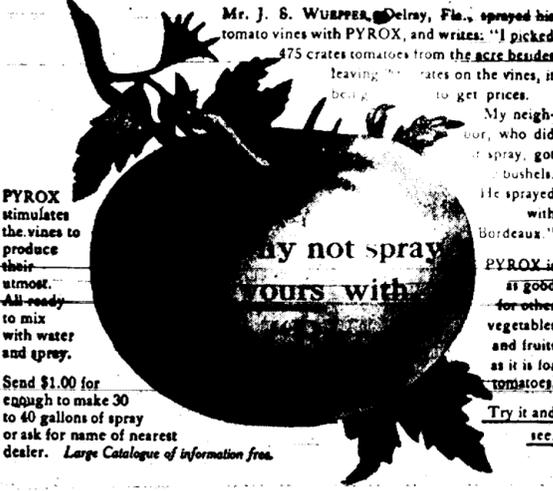

An exclusive agent is wanted in every town and village in Virginia. More than 150 five Virginia merchants are now in the Tanlac Sales Force. For particulars address T. C. Prince, 102 E. Broad Street, Richmond, Va. 5-12-4t

STATEMENT

CLIFTON DOINGS

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES
The commencement of the Clifton High School was held in the auditorium of the school building Friday, May 19th. Owing to the fact that Hon. C. C. Carlin, who made the address to the graduates, was obliged to return to Washington via Fairfax that night, the program was changed a little so that he could make his car. The program as rendered follows:
Chorus—"On Mountain Heights."
Invocation—Rev. W. L. Naff
Chorus—"Virginia."
Solo—"Class Inventory."
Chorus—"Abide With Me."
Address—"Preparation."
Chorus—"Silver Bells."
Essay—"Preparedness."
Solo—Gertrude Cox
Farewell to Class—Gracie Maybough
Chorus—Commencement Song
Presentation of Diplomas
Superintendent Hall
Chorus—"Amen" Chorus followed by "America."
R. R. Buckley acted as chairman and introduced the speakers, with Miss Phelps, the principal, on the platform and Mrs. Hodges presiding at the piano.
Tuesday night, May 23rd, the commencement of the 10th grade was held in the auditorium of the school building with R. R. Buckley as chairman. This class exercises began with a musical selection, followed by a psalm recited by the class in concert.
Miss Nina Ford welcomed us with an essay on "Good Roads." The class then rendered some good music. Hobson Spracker gave the class history, which was followed by another selection of music.
Miss Helen Elgin read the class' future by prophecy. More music and the chairman then introduced Mr. Wright, of the State Board of Education, who made an address on "Education—Past, Present and Future."
Miss Nina Brinkman gave the class a farewell. The diplomas were then handed out by Chairman R. R. Buckley, the ones receiving these diplomas were:—Misses Nina Ford, Nora Brinkman, Alice Merchant, Frances Robey, Helen Elgin and Maud Wood, and Masters Hobson Spracker, Clarence Robey and Paul Quigg.
After the class exercises, a pantomime of "Sawnee River" was given by the 12 girls in Miss Smith's class. The song was sung by Miss Ida Ayre, accompanied on the piano by Miss Rebecca Mottet.
Paul Quigg then recited "A Whistling Boy," after which girls of the class gave a play entitled "Young De Devine."
The two latter numbers were under the supervision of Mrs. Hodges, teacher of expression.
Mr. Buckley then complimented the teachers on the character of the work done and voiced the hope they would return for another term.
Previous to these commencement exercises, the baccalaureate sermon was preached in the auditorium of the school building by Dr. H. U. Roop, president of Eastern College, Manassas, with Rev. W. L. Naff as chairman.

Mrs. Lena Price and Mr. Harry Hedise, of Washington, are visiting their mother, Mrs. Fannie House.
Miss Annie Taylor is visiting her sister, Mrs. G. D. Fickett, of Quantico.
Miss Inlet Ritzner spent several days recently with Miss Anna Mayhugh.
Mrs. David Gates, of Washington, gave a very interesting talk on Foreign Missions on Tuesday last at the meeting of The Woman's Missionary Society. The Earnest Workers will hold a strawberry and ice cream festival the first week in June. The exact date has not been set, it will appear in the next issue of THE JOURNAL.
The Greenwich Baseball Club journeyed to Remington last Saturday where they met and defeated the club of that place in a hard fought game of ten innings, with a score of 5 to 4. Greenwich got off to an early lead, scoring two runs in the first inning. Reid was in fine form, holding Remington to two runs until the eighth inning when he was hit in the face by a swift liner from the bat of Dr. Cottingham and had to retire. J. Ellis finished the game. After being the score in the ninth inning he held them safe the rest of the game. Furgerson for Remington was not hard but good fielding kept down the score. The feature of the game was a one-hand catch by W. House. Mr. E. W. Reid, captain of the G. A. C., announces that he is ready to make games with all local clubs.
Messrs. Jack and Wallace Hansborough, of Washington, spent Sunday in our town.
Misses Ocie and Addie Heflin, of Roseville, are visiting friends here.
