WEDDED IN WASHINGTON

Marriage of Miss Chapman and Mr. Gaddes at St. Stephen's Church.

Miss Faith Pendleton Chapman, of Manassas, and Mr. John Bacon Gaddes, of Washington, were married in Washington Wednesday at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, Fourteenth and Columbia roads. The ceremony was performed by the rector, Rev. George F. Dudley, in the presence of a small company of relatives and friends.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. W. J. Chapman, of Baltimore. Her only attendant was her sister, Miss Mary Lee Chapman. Mr. Engene Gaddes was his brother's best man. The ushers were the twin nephews of the bridegroom, Messrs. George and Gordon Schwinn, of Washington.

Mrs. Gaddes is the eldest daughter of the late P. P. and Eva (Peake) Chapman. She is a native of Manassas and was educated in the Manassas schools. Mr. Gaddes, who is a former resident of Lynchburg, is now connected with the Southern railway in Washington.

Their honeymoon tour will include Niagara Falls and other points in the north. Later Mr. and Mrs. Gaddes will return to Washington, to make their home at the Ingleside.

SURPRISE MARRIAGE

Miss Grace Belle Green Becomes the Bride of Mr. Wallace M. Monroe.

Miss Grace Belle Green, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Green, and Mr. Wallace Meetze Monroe, of Burke, were united in marriage Wednesday at high noon by Rev. George T. Tyler, of the Methodist Church of Fairfax.

Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple left on a honeymoon trip to Richmond and other points. They will be at home after November 1 at Pinnie Hurst Farm, Manassas.

DEATH OF A CONFEDERATE

Grandfather of Mrs. W. G. Covington Dies in His Eighty-sixth Year.

The Fauquier Democrat publishes an article signed "A Comrade" on the death of Mr. Strother S. Jones, 86 years old, who died October 12, at the home of his son-in-law, Mr. Arthur Hart, at Warrenton, Mr. Jones was the maternal grandfather of Mrs. W. G. Covington, of Manassas. The concluding paragraphs of the article follow:

Mr. Jones was supposed to be the only survivor of the original Black Horse troop when organized for the State Service during the John Brown invasion and the capture of the Arsenal at Harper's Ferry; consequently his service as a soldier commenced with Harper's Ferry and closed with Appomattox. His kind heart, liberality, and congenial nature, won for him the esteem of both officers and comrades, and as a true soldier and companion, there were none held in higher estimation.

At the close of the war he returned penniless to struggle for the support of a wife and three small daughters, (two of whom survive) and so tenderly nursed and cared for him in his years of affliction.

Thus another war-worn veteran "has passed over the River to rest under the Shade of the Trees." As he was true and brave as a soldier of his country, so his effort was to be a faithful soldier of the Cross and he expressed himself as ready and desirous to pass from the troubles and sufferings of earth to the eternal rest in the mansions above prepared by a crucified and resurrected Saviour, for those who put their trust in Him.

May his loved ones ever cherish the memory of his record as a soldier, but may they be comforted by the more important assurance that he left them, of being ready for his Master's summons, is the prayer of

SEASON OPENS NEXT WEEK

Attention of Virginia Hunters is Called to Points in New Game Law.

Virginia sportsmen are preparing for the game season which opens November 1 and closes December 31. The following summary of the Virginia game laws has been prepared for the information of hunters and property owners:

First, any man who hunts beyond his or his neighbor's property (which must touch his at some point) must have a license. This includes the hunting of squirrels and night hunting also.

Second, if any property is posted, saying written permission must be obtained before hunting will be allowed, then all who hunt there must have written permission, and carry it and the license with them. If not posted verbal permission must be obtained.

Third, all non-residents who do not own property in the state, must first obtain a license. Any non-resident who owns property in the state will have the same privilege as a resident.

Fourth, no license is transferable.

Fifth, all persons found hunting on Sunday will be fined not less than $5 nor more than $50, including costs. An alien may obtain a license by paying $20. A non-resident may obtain a state license by paying $3, or a county license, by paying $1. A license may be obtained by making application to County Clerk George Tyler, Manassas, Va.

BIG CROWD HEARS CARLIN

Conner's Opera House is Scene of Democratic Rally. Col. Hutchison Presides.

A large gathering of citizens assembled in Conner's Opera House Tuesday evening to attend the democratic rally and to hear the speech of the Hon. Charles C. Carlin, on the issues of the coming election. Many prominent democrats were present from Manassas and the surrounding country. A large number of ladies were in attendance.

A brass band at the door made music in advance of the appointed hour, in invitation to the passing crowds.

Representative Carlin was introduced by Col. Robert A. Hutchison. The platform was occupied by Representative Carlin, Col. Hutchison, Mr. W. N. Lipscomb, chairman of the Prince William county democratic committee; Hon. C. J. Meetze, Prince William county representative in the House of Delegates, and Mr. H. Thornton Davies.

Representative Carlin paid glowing tribute to the Wilson administration, discussing the Adamson eight-hour law, the income tax bill, the greater army and navy for the preservation of national safety, and other constructive legislation, which has been successfully carried through during the four years with Wilson at the helm. He touched lightly on woman suffrage and other issues of the present campaign.

His address also was an expose of republican methods in conducting the presidential campaign of their continual complaint against the administration and their inability to suggest a remedy to better the "evils" of democratic rule.

Record-Breaking Crowds at Eastern Auditorium During Three-Day Chautauqua.

The three-day lyceum festival closed last night at Eastern auditorium with a concert by Mr. Frank Graus and his Alpine vocalists and an exhibition by Rosani, the juggler. The large attendance of the opening performance was sustained throughout the festival.

The chautauqua organizers have arranged for the return of the festival in 1917. The new list of speakers, still incomplete, is as follows: Hon. C. J. Meetze, Dr. H. U. Roop, Rev. J. R. Ryan, F. B. Jones, and Dr. W. H. Jones.

The principal speaker of the festival will be Mr. Jesse M. Jones, of Virginia, which is carrying on the United States Department of Agriculture in co-operation with the Virginia Polytechnic Institute. The subjects discussed were fall seeding, winter crops and the work of the institute.

Miss Emma Kost and Miss Evelyn Weaver were the hostesses at a very prettily appointed luncheon Friday afternoon. The diningroom at Baldwin Hall was artistically decorated with goldenrod and autumn leaves. A delicious menu was served and the girls proved very charming hostesses.

A number of Miss Arrietta Smith's admiring friends tendered her a birthday dinner in the college dining room Monday evening. The table was beautifully decorated with autumn leaves and jack-o-lanterns. Miss Smith received a huge bunch of chrysanthemums and the best wishes of her many friends.

Athletics at Eastern College are "booming" at present. The members of the football team are out on the field practicing every evening and they expect to play a winning game next Saturday, when they journey to Westminster, Md., to meet the Western Maryland football squad.

Much interest is being shown in tennis. Every afternoon the courts are full of enthusiastic players, so that by next spring we may expect some fine games.

WEDNESDAY BRINGS PROHIBITION

Virginia has joined the ranks of the prohibition states, and after Wednesday, November 1, the new liquor law will be in effect throughout the state.

For the first time in her history the Old Dominion has placed the ban on the liquor traffic. Great things are expected of the new legislation and if its enforcement will mean better and happier men and women and a better, healthier and more prosperous state, even the anti-prohibition workers may be satisfied.

It is understood that the law will be rigidly enforced. A lengthy statement of its provisions will be found in another column.

Y. M. C. A. ARMY DAY

Governor Stuart by official proclamation has set aside Sunday, October 29, as Y. M. C. A. Army Day. An appeal is made to the religious gatherings throughout the state to support the work, and generous response is desired.

The Young Men's Christian Association has been a notable factor in army life on the Mexican border. It has supplied reading material, music, games, night classes, moving pictures and other attractions to draw the men together, and at the same time has held religious meetings to help them toward a better life.

Many of the letters so warmly welcomed by the mother of the boy "somewhere along the border" have been written on the Y. M. C. A. stationery, and with Y. M. C. A. pens and ink, which have been furnished in tents with seats for all, encouraging the boys to write "back home."

A YEAR OF PROGRESS

Leaders in the Prince William County Sunday School organization are to be congratulated upon the progress made during the twelve months which have elapsed since the convention of 1915.

It has been stated officially that the collection increased treble and that the Sunday school reports were double in number. The boys' and girls' conference, which was an innovation, is regarded a complete success.

WANT DEMOCRATS TO VOTE

County Committeemen Endorse Nominees and Urge Voters to Go to Polls Nov. 7.

(D. J. Arrington, Secretary)

A called meeting of the democratic county committee of Prince William County was held at the courthouse on Saturday, October 21, 1916. The meeting was called to order at eleven a. m. by W. N. Lipscomb, county chairman, who stated that the principal object of this meeting was to urge every democrat in this county to come to the polls on November 7, 1916, and vote for President Woodrow Wilson, Senator Claude A. Swanson and Congressman C. C. Carlin.

Your Wife Should have a bank account and pay her bills by check. It's the modern, business-like, economical way. It tends toward careful management, gives a better idea of the relation of income to outgo, provides a receipt for each payment, as well as a record of date, amount, etc. And it often leads to the creation of a substantial reserve fund with which to realize a fond ambition or meet an emergency. The lady of the house is invited to call and learn how easily she may open an account in this strong bank, and the conveniences which we place at her command absolutely without charge. Our slogan is, "It is a pleasure to serve."

What Cornwell Supply Co. of Manassas

have to say about cream separators this week

In the last ten or fifteen years there have been dozens of cream separators come on the market which claimed to be "world beaters." But they couldn't make good in the hands of the users and one by one they dropped out of sight. Their owners were willing to take a risk and they lost. If you buy a cream separator from us you run no risk of dissatisfaction or loss.

The De Laval is tested and time proved.

Why experiment? What's the use of taking chances with a machine you don't know much about, or an inferior machine, when you know that a De Laval is recognized everywhere as the "World's Standard."

More than thirty-five years of experiment and experience have made the De Laval pre-eminently the best machine on the market for the separation of cream.

If you have no separator now, or an inferior one, we can sell you a De Laval on such terms that it will pay for itself while you are using it.

Sooner or later you will buy a DE LAVAL

PROVISIONS OF NEW LAW

November 1 Brings Prohibition to Virginia—Comprehensive Review of Statute.

On November 1st Virginia will go dry for the first time in history. The last day on which liquor may be sold legally is Tuesday, October 31, and the divorce of Virginia from the liquor traffic will begin with the expiration of the month. All dealers must close out their stocks before November 1st.

It is apparent that the provisions of the new prohibition law are not generally understood. There is considerable confusion as to the penalties for violations, and as to what constitutes violations, much of this resulting no doubt from conjectures by those who have not read the act carefully.

HEAVY PENALTIES PROVIDED

The penalties provided are most severe, jail sentences being compulsory in every case where the defendant is found guilty of violations. It is provided that "Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor for the first offense and of a felony for a second or any subsequent offense committed after the first conviction; provided that drinking, giving away or receiving ardent spirits contrary to the provisions of this act, shall not be deemed a felony in any case; and provided further, that the purchasing or having in possession by any person of ardent spirits for personal use, shall in no case be deemed a felony, but the burden of proof that such ardent spirits are for personal use shall be upon the defendant."

Any person found guilty of a misdemeanor under this act shall "be fined not less than fifty nor more than five hundred dollars, and be confined in jail not less than one nor more than six months. The penalty for any second or subsequent offense which is not declared a felony shall be a fine of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than five thousand dollars, and imprisonment in jail not less than six months nor more than one year. Whenever, in this act, the violation of any provision of this act is declared a felony, the person convicted shall be punished by confinement in the penitentiary for not less than one nor more than five years, or, in the discretion of the jury, by confinement in jail of not less than six nor more than twelve months and by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars."

AMOUNT OF LIQUOR SHIPPED
No person will be allowed to receive more than one quart of liquor, one gallon of wine or three gallons of beer during any one month, and shall not carry with him more than one quart of liquor on any trip. It is further provided that no one shall drink ardent spirits in or about any public buildings, in any depot or railway train or in any hotel.
Section No. 65, of the prohibition act, has been the subject of considerable discussion, as it relates to the amount of ardent spirits one may keep in his own home. "The possession by any person, of any ardent spirits, at any place other than his home, except as provided in this act, and the possession in his home of more than one gallon of distilled liquor, one gallon of wine or three gallons of beer or other malt liquor, at any one time, shall in any proceeding or prosecution under this act be prima facie evidence that such person possesses such distilled liquors, wine and malt liquor for the purpose of sale," says Section 65.

THE QUESTION OF SUPPLY STORED

Attorneys who have read the act believe a man having ten gallons of wine, for instance, may sell the wine, or other ardent spirits at his own home for personal use provided it is stored there before November 1st. He may be haled into court if there is complaint that he has sold or otherwise disposed of ardent spirits in violation of law. The possession of so much wine or other ardent spirits would be prima facie evidence of guilt, but would be refuted by a sworn statement from the owner that it was being held in his own home for personal use, and not for sale.

Section No 61 provides that "Nothing in this act shall prevent one, in his own home, from having and there giving to another, ardent spirits, when the quantity allowed by this act, to be kept in his home, and such gift is in no wise a shift or device to evade the provisions of this act," provided, however, the word home must mean permanent residence and not a club or fraternity house.

Section No. 8 says "The provisions of this act shall not be construed to prevent any person from manufacturing for his domestic consumption at his home, but not to be sold, dispensed or given away, except as hereinafter provided, wine or cider from fruit of his own raising; or to prevent the manufacturing from fruit or cider for the purpose of making vinegar not used as a beverage; and non-intoxicating cider, containing not more than one per centum of alcohol by volume, for use or sale."

CANNOT ADVERTISE LIQUOR

Any advertising matter telling where liquor may be obtained in or out of the State is prohibited, except when printed in newspapers, in another State and sent into Virginia only to paid subscribers.

Section No. 73, intended to prevent violations of the law, makes this provision:

"No person shall be excused from testifying to any offense committed by another under this act by reason of his testimony to incriminate himself, but the testimony given by such person shall in no case be used against him, nor shall he be prosecuted for the offense as to which he testified."

Section No. 1, in defining ardent spirits, the sale of which is intended to be prohibited in Virginia, says:

"The words ardent spirits, as used in this act, shall be construed to embrace, alcohol, brandy, whiskey, rum, gin, wine, porter, ale, beer, all malt liquors, absinthe and all compounds or mixtures of any kind of them; all compounds or mixtures of any of them with any vegetable or other substance and also all liquids, mixtures or preparations, whether patented or otherwise, which will produce intoxication, fruits preserved in ardent spirits, and all beverages containing more than one-half of one per centum of alcohol by volume, except as herein provided."

IF IT RAINED I FELT BAD

"But Not Any More," Says Richmond Man Who Hopes Others Follow Him.

"Every time it rained I felt bad and couldn't move without having severe hitchings in my back and my right shoulder and my arm would become stiff. Lumbago was the name they gave for it and sometimes I could hardly breathe it pained so," said Alfred Scott, of 200 1/2 East Main Street, Richmond, Va., "but since taking Tanlac I feel like a different man. My pains have disappeared entirely and my appetite is great. I sleep fine and my general condition all around has improved greatly. I am very glad to recommend Tanlac because it has helped me as none of the other remedies have. I sincerely hope that some other sufferer will try Tanlac as I did and I am sure it will help him too." Tanlac has helped thousands. Why won't it help you? Give it a trial. It can be secured at Dowell's Pharmacy, Manassas, Va.

How futile to talk of "style" while ignoring this fundamental issue of all-wool upon which the shapeliness, the fit, the whole success of the garment hinges.

Of what avail is a mahogany finish if the wood beneath is pine?

To-day—as for years past—A. B. Kirschbaum Co. stands an outspoken exponent of the basic all-wool principle—one hundred per cent. and no compromise.

Honor such fabrics with Kirschbaum workmanship and you have in the finished garment a harmony of style, shapeliness and tailoring, fittingly and durably wrought in all-wool.
