BOYS AND GIRLS ATTEND MEETING

Last 1919 Session of County Club Held Here—Bethel Wins Banner Offered.

(Miss Lillian V. Gilbert, County Health Demonstration Agent.)

Although the snow began to fall early Saturday morning, at the appointed time the boys and girls of the county began to arrive in Manassas for the last county meeting of the Agricultural and Home Economics Club for 1919. More than thirty-five were present.

A good program had been arranged and although our county superintendent had to be excused everything passed off in good order and the last meeting of the year was quite a success.

The Washington Star banner was presented to the winning club. Bethel Club received this banner. This club has attended, with a good representation, every county meeting, has held a meeting each month and has its last meeting for the year on the second Saturday in December. All reports have been sent in and compositions written. This club has worked hard. Later we hope to have the president's report printed, so that other clubs may know just what has been done by the Bethel Club.

Mr. S. S. Chase, editor of the Star, sent the following telegram on the occasion of the presentation of the banner: "The Star regrets that it is impossible to have a representative present at the awarding of the banner to the winning agricultural club in Prince William county, but extends its congratulations and best wishes to the boys and girls whose achievement has brought them the honor. The Star is confident they will go forward to still greater accomplishments making useful citizens in the grand old commonwealth in which they reside and in our common nation."

The meeting was presided over by the third-year member of the pig club. All members on the program responded cheerfully. "Why the Chimes Rang" was given by Miss Georgia Harrell, Miss Aline Davis gave "Little Orphan Annie" and two musical numbers were given by Miss Lucy Breeden and her brother-Oden.

A short but very instructive address was made by the farm demonstrator, Mr. Browning giving to the boys and girls some of his plans for the coming year.

Promotion pins were presented to the boys and girls who had completed the year's work.

During the meeting the executive committee met and arranged the meetings for the year as follows: First Saturday in April, July, September and December.

After this report a motion was made to adjourn. Auld Lang Syne was sung and the club members adjourned to the Dixie Theatre, where the following moving picture seals were shown: "Helping the Farmer of Today," "Pittsylvania Corn Club Boys' Encampment at Danville," "Strawberry Culture in Kentucky." These were all very instructive and entertaining.

It is hoped that at our next meeting there will be a good representation of new members, as all boys and girls interested in club work are invited to enroll. We want this to be the banner year in club work in Prince William county. Already in two schools in which the work has not been represented all girls old enough have enrolled.

CHRISTMAS CANDIES

With the approach of the holiday season comes the thought of Christmas candy and with it the scarcity of sugar. Try these recipes:

Stuffed Dates.—Remove stones and fill cavities with nuts or fondant and nuts. Roll in granulated sugar. Dates are sometimes filled with a little peanut butter and rolled in finely chopped peanuts.

Stuffed Prunes.—Select large prunes, wash thoroughly and let soak in cold water for two hours. Remove stones, dry prunes on clean cloth and fill centers with nuts or fondant and nuts, preserved ginger or candied fruit. Roll in granulated sugar.

Popcorn Balls.—Cook one cup corn syrup fifteen minutes and add two tablespoons vinegar. When the syrup snaps or pops when tested in cold water add popcorn, mix well and form into balls with finger tips which have been slightly buttered or oiled.

CASH PRIZE IS OFFERED FOR BEST COMPOSITION

Boys and Girls Asked to Help Legislature With Physical Education Suggestions.

"Why should the legislature make liberal provision for physical education and health development of the pupils of the public schools?"

For the best composition on this inviting theme, Col. J. E. West, a member of the state senate, has offered a cash prize of $25, the competition being open to all high school pupils in Virginia. Compositions are limited to 1,000 words in length.

The faculties of the several high schools are requested to select the two best compositions written on this theme in their schools and send to the State Board of Health at Richmond not later than January 1. It is anticipated that the entrants in this contest will be numerous and the affirmative arguments made by the boys and girls of the state convincing on this timely topic.

HEALTH CRUSADE SEALS

Little Red Cross Christmas Stickers Soon Will Be on Sale Here.

Every Red Cross Christmas seal purchased means a contribution to the public health, which means the health of the individual. Every seal means a little more money to carry on the work of education that is saving lives. It means the spread of knowledge concerning tuberculosis. It means better living conditions for great numbers of people who are subjected and exposed to disease through ignorance and insanitation.

The fight against tuberculosis is everybody's fight, for this disease menaces every person, in whatever class or group. So the seals should be used on every package as a testimonial to the universal concern that is felt for the waging of this campaign for humanity. To buy Red Cross seals is to give in a cause that affects you, your family, your neighbors, and all others of the whole human race. But especially your own family. For there is no immune class.

Let the little Red Cross seals go forth by millions, to testify to the awakened realization of the people of this community as all other communities that health is worth fighting for and worth paying for.

Mother's Meet With Mrs. Round.

The mother's meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, held on Friday at the home of the president, Mrs. George C. Round, was well attended and interesting. Miss Lucy Bendall, of Warrenton, a business officer, was a welcome guest. Refreshments were served by the hostess and the social hour was much enjoyed.

Miss Bendall was a guest at the home of Mrs. E. L. Hornbaker in West street during her stay in Manassas.

This class will be under the direction of Miss Audrey Drake, our county nurse, and a fee of $2.50 will be charged to help defray the necessary expenses of conducting the class. ### TO RAISE Y. M. C. A. FUND

Miss Sizer, of Richmond, Speaks in Interest of World Program.

Miss J. Josephine Sizer, of Richmond, spent several days in Manassas this week in the interest of the American Young Women's Christian Association. Miss Sizer presented the world service program of the association at a union prayer meeting held Wednesday evening at the Presbyterian Church, as a result of which Hon. C. J. Meetsie offered to assume charge of raising a fund of $75 for the work. Mrs. A. E. Spies was appointed treasurer of the fund.

The meeting was opened by Rev. DeForest Wade, pastor of the Presbyterian Church. After the singing of hymns and devotional exercises conducted by the pastor, Miss Sizer took charge. Rev. William Stevens, pastor of Grace Methodist Episcopal Church, also spoke.

FARMER KILLED BY FALL

A most distressing accident occurred on Friday afternoon last when Mr. Oden Wynkoop met death on the John Craig farm, between Philomont and Airmont, which he had recently purchased, says the Loudoun Mirror. Mr. Wynkoop was hauling fodder from the field with a two-horse team, and was riding sideways on one of the horses, and just as the team was ascending a small hill, he turned to speak to the boy in the wagon, and losing his balance fell backward between the two horses. Becoming frightened, the animals lunged forward, and all four of the wagon wheels passed over Mr. Wynkoop's body, one of the rear wheels passing over his head and causing instant death. He was forty-six years of age and is survived by his wife, two daughters and one son.

Jean, who was a cook in a lumber camp, remarked while picking over a mess of cranberries: "Cranberry he make better apple sauce than prune she do."

ALEXANDRIA MAN IS STILL MISSING

Bread Truck Driver Disappears Monday—Truck Found Near Four Mile Run.

Every effort to find any trace of the whereabouts of Kenneth Morrison F. Springmann, twenty-four years old, driver of a truck for the Dorch Baking Company, Washington, thus far has proved unavailing. Springmann, whose home is in Alexandria, has been missing since Monday afternoon. Tuesday morning his truck was found standing intact near Four Mile Run. Springmann at the time was returning to Washington, having completed his day's work of delivering bread after going as far as Hoadley, Prince William county.

He arrived in Alexandria, according to his wife, between 3 and 4 o'clock Monday afternoon, went home and before leaving again told his wife that he would be home between 6 and 8 o'clock that evening. Nothing further was thought of the matter until he failed to make his appearance at his home Tuesday morning.

Search was instituted by relatives and an investigation resulted in finding his truck standing in the road off Four Mile Run. The Alexandria and Washington authorities later were engaged in dragging the run in hope of finding the body. Every available foot of nearby territory was gone over by the searchers without success.

The wife is of the opinion that he had between $100 and $125 in his possession at the time, this being money he had collected for bread delivered on his trip to Alexandria and the neighboring counties. He has a wife and little baby and his wife is a teacher in the Alexandria public schools. Mrs. Springmann is overcome at the unexplained disappearance of her husband and is hoping hourly to hear some tidings of his whereabouts. Relatives of the missing man fear that he may have been a victim of foul play.

CITIZENS PETITION BOARD

Supervisors Asked to Grant Additional Pension to Confederates.

Many citizens have signed a petition to the county board of supervisors, asking the board to grant to the Confederate veterans of the county who are state pensioners a pension equal to that now granted by the state, as provided by recent enactment.

The petition, which is being circulated by Mr. S. M. Haislip, a Confederate veteran, reads as follows:

"To the Honorable Board of Supervisors of Prince William County: "We, the undersigned citizens and taxpayers for said county, respectfully petition your honorable board to supplement, or grant to the Confederate veterans in said county, who are now pensioners of the state, a pension equal to that now granted by the state, as provided by recent enactment. The county of Fairfax and other counties of the state have granted this relief to its old soldiers, and as at best those who are left and who bare their breasts to the bullets of the north can be with us but a short time longer, and as a small token of the sacrifices they made, let's grant that gallant remainder the request here made for them, which is permitted by law."

Men's Clothing for Christmas

You must wear your old suit longer. This sounds like "poor policy," coming from a merchant, but it is a fact, and just exactly what present conditions demand. If you must buy, you owe it to yourself to buy strictly all-wool, perfectly tailored garments, and we offer you just exactly that class of clothing in our Hart, Schaffner & Marx. They may cost a little more, but they are worth a great deal more, and we are here to prove it with satisfaction or a new garment. ### WHAT YOU MAKE IT

A newspaper is a good deal like any other public institution—it's what you make it. It isn't all with the editor as to what kind of a paper is turned out here in Chase City, for if he hasn't your co-operation, the paper will not be as good as it could be.

In cities they pay reporters good salaries for going out and getting the news. Here we must do as they do in all other towns of this size, we must depend largely upon you and your neighbors to get the news to the editor. And when you once find how little trouble this amounts to and how much better it makes each issue of your paper you will form the habit of doing it every week.

No matter who you are, somebody is interested in you and your comings and goings. And the chances are, that very somebody takes the paper. When you have a visitor you may not think anyone but yourself is interested, but they are. They want to know who does the town and you the honor to visit it. If there is sickness in the family, they are entitled to know, for possibly they can be of assistance. If you hear from a former resident, let the others know it through this newspaper, for maybe they are wondering just what became of them since they moved away.

Try this once. Try handing the editor little items that you don't consider news and watch how quickly your paper becomes more interesting, both to you and everyone in the community. Chase City Progress.

TWO AMERICAN GOVERNORS

Let us all make our bow to Gov. Davis of Virginia. He is the stuff. He has the right idea of the duty of an official in the hour of danger. He takes charge in person. He goes to the scene of threatened trouble to supervise the execution of the law against those who would violate the law. As the Governor of Virginia, he is, and holds himself, responsible for the protection, to the fullest extent of his official resources, of life and property within the borders of the commonwealth. His action is worthy of the best traditions of the Old Dominion.

Gov. Davis is not taking sides as between capital and labor. As a matter of fact, he is acting in the interests of both in acting in the public interests. The interests of all are involved. Capital and labor are, so to say, citizens of Virginia and of the United States. As others must do, they must obey the law, whether they like the law or not. The law binds all.

No question of section, or race, or politics is involved. All sections, all races, all parties have a common interest in the maintenance of law and order.

Fortunately for the country, this fact is being made very plain. A few weeks ago a test came in Massachusetts; and the Bay state met the emergency in fine style. Gov. Coolidge took personal charge, accepted the challenge of the law-breakers and their defenders, and routed them, horse, foot and dragoons.

Another test now comes in Virginia and Gov. Davis accepts the challenge of the defiers of the law, and takes personal charge of the public interests. And there need be no doubt of the result. All defiers of the law will be defeated.

Massachusetts is a northern state and Gov. Coolidge is a republican. Virginia is a southern state, and Gov. Davis is a democrat. Both states are among the original thirteen. Both are American in their make-up and in their present-day spirit. Bolshevism has not a chance in either.

The example of these two governors should, and will, work for wide good. For surely no mayor, no sheriff, no chief of police in either state, or in any of the other forty-six states, will fail to note and be inspired by the interpretation of official duty by officials so highly placed.

These are serious times, and must be met in a serious way by all men in authority. Coddling a mob by open encouragement, or by feeble and half-way apologetic protest, is to invite chaos in its very worst form. The Washington Star.

NO ROYAL ROAD

While we are talking about our educational needs of the moment and endeavoring to devise a plan for future service as well, let us consider these words from the report of the Virginia educational commission:

If the state desires better education, it must pay for it. Virginia should decide at once whether she is to continue her present policy or adopt a policy which will provide for the citizens of Virginia at least equal to that provided in other states.

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

The Ford Model T One-Ton Truck is in reality a necessity to the wide awake retail grocer, not only for the economic solution of the delivery problem, but for the bringing of goods from the docks or stations to his place of business, and for traversing the country and bringing in produce. For years the Ford One-Ton Truck with its splendid manganese bronze worm-drive, powerful Ford Model T Motor, strong Vanadium steel frame, has been serving in every line of business activity, and we have yet to hear the first complaint as to rear axle trouble or motor trouble. It has the lowest purchase price on the market, and the cost for operating and maintaining is exceedingly small. In fact, the Ford One-Ton Truck has become a business necessity. Leave your order with us without delay. We will give you prompt attention and assure you reasonably prompt delivery, and give you an after service that will insure your continuous operation of the Truck.

TO HELP TIRED PEOPLE

There is one problem that is ever present with every man's wife. It is most insistent at the time of the changing seasons, as in the autumn when warm Indian summer days after a cold snap, bring the man-of-the-house home at night fagged out. The thoughtful woman, who rightly views her half of the marriage partnership as protector of the funds, whether they be the money or the health of her household has just cause to be concerned.

Excessive "night fagg" is a symptom of lowered vitality. Lowered vitality means a physical condition in which the system is prone to the assimilation of whatever germs happen to be floating about. "Colds" are most easily caught at such a time and may result more or less seriously.

There is one thing that every housewife can do to alleviate this "tired" feeling. She can feed her patient raw eggs. Raw eggs are recognized by medical authorities as padding for worn nerves, props for drooping bodies, and lullabies for sleepless eyes. The idea of a raw egg is not particularly palatable. In fact few people can take them undisguised. But happily there are many ingenious and delicious disguises.

The United States government has filed suit in the United States district court for the condemnation of the Camp Lee site, which is to be used permanently for military purposes. The list of the names of owners, whose compensation will be decided by a jury, runs well into the hundreds.

One of the last acts of the Prince of Wales before sailing, according to a New York dispatch, was to send ashore in the royal barge twenty-four cases of liquor, consigned to the British embassy, Washington, with his compliments.

To back up their charges that some of their employers were profiting, striking butchers in Chicago on Saturday opened a large retail shop and sold porterhouse steak at 18 cents a pound, veal chops at 16 cents a pound and Hamburger steak at 10 cents a pound.

Mr. and Mrs. Sylvanus Stokes, jr. are receiving congratulations on the arrival of their wee daughter on November 12. She has been named Mary, an original contraction of her father's and mother's names. Mrs. Stokes before her marriage was Miss Margaret Fahnstock.

ORTHOPEDIC HOSPITAL HELPS MANY CHILDREN

Injured and Crippled Little Ones Treated at Richmond Institution.

The annual report of the work done for the injured and crippled children of Virginia by the State Orthopedic Hospital at the Memorial Hospital, will strike a responsive chord in the hearts of the people of the commonwealth. During the hospital's first fiscal year, ending June 30, 1919, 93 patients were admitted for treatment, 72 white and 21 colored. Of this number 64 have been discharged, leaving 29 in the institution at the end of the year, 22 white and 7 colored.

During the year Dr. W. T. Graham, the physician in charge, who gives his services to the aid of the state's afflicted little children free of charge, performed 200 surgical operations on children from all parts of the state, many remarkable cures having resulted. Medical treatment for the children is also accorded without charge by Dr. McGuire Newton, while Dr. Alfred Gray does the X-Ray work also without compensation, being paid only for the actual cost of the necessary material used.

Owing to the fact that a large number of old cases came to the hospital for treatment during the first year the average stay per patient was longer than it is likely to be in the future. In addition to the hospital work four hours each week is devoted to outside patients.

In his report Dr. Graham pays high tribute to the King's Daughters' Circle and the Protestant Hospital in Norfolk, by whose help it has been found possible to give orthopedic treatment to a great many children in that city without the necessity of bringing them to Richmond. Splints, dressings and other material are furnished from the Richmond hospital.

The war's great demand for orthopedic nurses having ceased, the Virginia institution has been able to secure the services of a graduate of the Children's Hospital at Boston to take charge of the nursing personnel here.

No effort was made to run up a large list of patients the first year, it being the policy of the institution to gradually expand its service to the little people of Virginia as rapidly as it can give such patients adequate attention carrying out the ideal of the good people of the commonwealth that none of its children should be left to grow up crippled or deformed or suffering from any defect that proper treatment in childhood may remedy.

A BUCKLAND PIG

Speaking of the wonderful pig-growing possibilities of Buckland, Uncle Josh, a country correspondent from Buckland, says in the Fauquier Democrat:

A farmer in th' community give his wimmin folks a pig 't raise. Th' pig's name wuz Toots. 'T show th' size he wuz to start with an th' dimensions to which he riz it is told that on th' fust night uv his stay in his new home Toots jumped thru a knot hole in two uv th' planks uv his pen en run es fer es th' nearest neighbors, which wuz a good-shoutin' distance away, befo' he wuz caught en brought home. Bout two months after that Toots sold fer $8 en it tuck two people 't hist him int' th' wagin. Th' only thing I refuse 't be responsible fer is th' size uv that knot hole.

Virginia May Lose Representative in Congress

Virginia faces the loss of one representative in Congress if that body fails to make provision for an increase in the House of Representatives. As representation in Congress stands at present, each state is allowed one representative for each 211,480 population, while according to the new census, each Congressional district will average about 245,681, which is made the basis of Congressional representation. Using the estimated population of Virginia as a basis, it will be found that Virginia will lose one district. There is but little doubt that the republicans now in control of Congress will do all in their power to cut representation in the South.

THIEVES ABANDON CAR

J. W. Morris, who travels for a Baltimore shoe house, came into Louisa Tuesday night and put his big car with about $3,000 worth of samples in the Louisa Hotel garage and went over to the hotel to register for the night, says the Central Virginian. It was only a few minutes before the little son of Mr. Atkinson came in to say two men had gone off with the car. Messrs. Morris, Gates and Masie in another car went in pursuit. They overtook the stolen car at Mr. Willis' gate just out of town, but the occupants had escaped. The car had a broken spindle which is the reason it was so quickly abandoned.

Regulations. Printed in the Benefit of Many Gift Givers in Prince William.

In anticipation of the annual rush of business caused by the Christmas holiday period, Superintendent of Mails Harry M. Lawder has given out these regulations, which have been perfected to warn the public against errors in mailing; Prepay postage fully on all parcels. Address parcels fully and plainly. Place name and address of sender of all matter.

Pack articles carefully and wrap securely, but do not seal them, as sealed parcels are subject to postage at the letter rate.

Mail parcels early. They may be marked, "Do Not Open Until Christmas."

Insure valuable parcels. Written inscriptions, such as "Merry Christmas," "Happy New Year," "With Best Wishes," and numbers, names or letters for purpose of description, are permissible additions to fourth-class (parcel post) mail.

Books may bear simple dedicatory inscriptions not of a personal nature. Other written additions subject parcels to letter postage. Communications prepaid at first-class rate may be sent with parcels prepaid at fourth-class rate, provided they are placed in envelope securely attached to outside of parcels.

HOLIDAY EVERY DAY FOR LUCKY MARINES

Gen. Lejeune Orders All Military Work Suspended After Noon Each Day.

Joy reigns in the big Marine Corps cantonment at Quantico as the result of an order of Major-General John A. Lejeune that all military work will be dispensed with after noon every day.

No Marine will be required to drill or do "police" unless he refuses to play, go to school, rehearse with a dramatic troupe, sing or take lessons with the band.

"This is the time for play and healthy sport," announced Gen. Lejeune. "Work in the afternoons will be abolished, and every man will be required to enroll for some healthy sport or other form of entertainment.

"We want to make Quantico a model post for other posts to look at and wonder how we do it." In addition to many teams, classes in the following subjects are planned: Gas engines, Diesel engines, electricity, automobiles, mathematics, English, stenography and typewriting, book-keeping and accounting.

Nation-Wide Political News.

The Washington Sunday Star last Sunday began publication of a page of national political news, which it announces will be a regular weekly feature until after next year's presidential election. This is one of the most ambitious ventures any American newspaper ever made into nation-wide journalism. The Star has signed up a special political correspondent in each of the forty-eight states, in most cases the editor of the leading paper or foremost political writer, and their names are to be signed to all their dispatches. These correspondents have been instructed that "First and foremost, The Star wants the news, without partisan or factional bias." It is a big newspaper undertaking, and it ought to enable readers of The Sunday Star to be the best posted citizens in the country on political developments.

How to Get Out of a Mudhole.

The art of getting a car out of a mudhole is one worth practicing or at least thinking about for no one wants to practice it. Some of us have had to, however.

In going through a mudhole with a truck or car, the driver sometimes gets to a place where the wheels will slip and the machine will not move forward. When this happens, it is useless to continue the work of trying to go forward, for it will only cause tire wear.

Many times the machine can be backed out of such a difficulty. The reason for this is that it has plowed its way ahead, and nine times out of ten the back way is more open.

If the car cannot be backed out in this way, then the job may often be done by cutting through and placing under the wheels to give traction. Hay or straw will also serve the same purpose—or burlap bags. Some motorists take large pieces of canvas or burlap with them for pulling out of muddy and sandy places.—The Progressive Farmer.

HELLO VIRGINIA!

Hello, Virginia! The dead leaves are falling,
Wild winter is near from his home in the snows.
High in the air the wild goose is calling.
Jack Frost has been 'round and dead in the snows.
Darn this chill in the air and—Oh, well, it don't matter
Though we sneeze with catarrh or croak with a cold,
For the rabbits are fine and the 'possums are fatter,
In the cellar the apples are ruddy and gold.
We remember how fair were your green fields and level
As recently viewed from a summer-clad hill;
Though in winter your roads are mean as the d—,
Yet, we gladly admit, we are loving you still!
Oh, those wet winter roads and the mud—how they try us—
They'd make a saint mad and a good angel sigh.
A fellow whose name should be Ananias
Had the "nerve" to tell me Virginia was dry.
If back to that land some day I'll be turning
Unless I'm a duck I will try to keep dry
By trading my Ford for an airplane and learning
All the driest and safest roads in the sky.
—The 'Possum Hunter.

At the recent election in Somerset county, Pa., one man cast a ballot on which he wrote in one of the vacant spaces "The Devil" and voted for him.
