

PLANT TREE TO HONOR SOLDIER

Groveton School Observes Arbor Day in Memory of Maury M. Lake.

A tree in memory of Maury Montgomery Lake, a former Groveton Groveton school boy who was killed at Tours, France, during the engagement in Argonne Forest, was planted last Friday, when Arbor day was observed at Groveton school.

Following the recommendation of the Agricultural department that the black walnut, which figured so largely as material for Army use, be selected, a beautiful black walnut tree was secured by the school boys, with the assistance of County Agent W. L. Browning.

Rev. A. Stuart Gibson, of Manassas, conducted the service, offering the innovation and the prayer of dedication and reading the scripture lesson, Job 14:27-29, the first Psalm and parts of the fifteenth chapter of first Corinthians.

A personal sketch of Maury Lake was read by Mr. J. D. Wheeler. Mr. Browning and Mr. R. L. Wheeler assisted the school boys in planting the tree. Three hymns, "Oh God, Our Help in Ages Past," "My Faith Looks Up to Thee" and "Our Country's Voice is Pleading," were sung.

During the service the school service flag, with its twenty-six blue stars and one gold star, floated from the flagstaff on the school building in place of Old Glory, and in the strong breeze that was blowing made a brave display of each star, as it stood four-square to the wind.

All present felt it to be an inspiring and uplifting occasion. One of the participants gave expression to the happy thought that the character of him whose memory they sought to honor was such that they could justly point the young of today and of the future to him as an example worthy of emulation, gentle yet brave, as a true knight should be, serving his country willingly, cheerily and uncomplainingly, and saying of the rigors of camp life, "It's not half as bad as they make out!"

He gallantly faced the horrors of the battlefield when in carrying out his last commission he received the call "to come up higher." How fitting that such an example of manhood should be set before the young of the community from which Maury Lake went forth, and kept in mind by a living, growing tree!

The Arbor day program being under the auspices of the Groveton Community League and this being the month for the "better community program," after refreshments were served in the school building Miss Lillian V. Gilbert was invited to speak on community fairs. Miss Gilbert presented the community fair as something very beneficial to a community and spoke of the buildings in the neighborhood suitable for such an enterprise.

Those present voted to attempt a fair embracing the communities of Stone House, Sudley, Wellington and Catharpin. A meeting was appointed for Tuesday, when further steps were taken in the interest of the project.

Mr. Browning also spoke enthusiastically for the community fair and the impetus it gives to all its people towards the production of better things along every line. He suggested a bringing together at some central point of some of the best articles from each community holding a fair, there to be judged for the best specimens produced in the county.

Supt. Charles R. McDonald encouraged the idea by offering a silver cup to the winner of such a competition. Mr. McDonald, unable to be present at the memorial exercises, assisted in planting another walnut tree when the patrons had dispersed.

With the setting of several lilacs, an althea and a crimson rambler, pupils and patrons feel that a good start has been made toward beautifying the school grounds.

To raise funds for this object the Junior League will give a spring cantata at the pavilion Friday evening, May 13. Admission will be fifteen cents. The Senior League will serve refreshments. It is hoped that the public will extend a generous patronage on that occasion.

Attends Banquet to President.

Mr. G. Raymond Ratcliffe, cashier of the Peoples National Bank of Manassas, attended a banquet given in honor of President Harding and the members of his cabinet Tuesday evening at the New Willard Hotel in Washington. Mr. Ratcliffe was the guest of Mr. R. W. Bolling, president of the Commercial National Bank, of Washington. Fifteen Virginia bankers were present.

WOODLAWN ORGANIZES COMMUNITY LEAGUE

Addresses Made by Mr. C. J. Meetze and Miss Gilbert—35 Members Join.

In spite of adverse weather conditions a most enthusiastic and interested group of community people came together at Woodlawn school house Saturday evening to organize a community league and plan for community improvements.

Miss Gilbert, county home demonstration agent, presided in the absence of Miss Rushia Reener, teacher of the school, who had planned the meeting and arrived later in the evening. The meeting opened with a few remarks by Miss Gilbert, who explained the object of the coming together, after which "America" was sung. Hon. C. J. Meetze offered the invocation, closing with the Lord's prayer said in concert.

Mr. Meetze then took charge of the program and made a splendid address, outlining some of the important community work that can be accomplished through the efforts of a league, all working together. Mr. Meetze did not fail to include some of his helpful jokes, which always had a lesson to teach.

Mr. Meetze and Miss Gilbert were accompanied by Mrs. B. T. H. Hodge, of Manassas, who assisted with the musical program.

Before closing, a community league was organized, with the following officers: President, Mr. N. M. Shaeffer; vice-president, Mr. W. E. Nelson; secretary, Mrs. Nannie Shaeffer; assistant, Miss Rushia Reener; treasurer, Mr. Henry Mertz. "A better school building" is their slogan.

The league has a membership of thirty-five with which to start its work. Seventeen members paid dues for the month of April. A deposit of about $35, including dues paid, receipts from an entertainment held a few months ago and $5 held for the school by Mr. Shaeffer, was sent to bank at Manassas as a foundation for larger things. Mr. Meetze was entrusted with the league funds on their trip to the bank.

A program committee, with Miss Reener as chairman, was appointed to plan for the May meeting, which is to be held Saturday, May 14. This meeting will be on the day the school closes. It is the object of the league and school to co-operate in holding a picnic with an old-fashioned, outdoor dinner, games and a good time for all. In the afternoon the league will hold its first monthly meeting and plans for summer work will be made. A very interesting program will be rendered.

It is hoped that Mr. Meetze and Miss Gilbert can be present to give further help in getting the league started off with a "git-up-and-git" spirit, as Mr. Meetze expressed it in his address.

Tribute to the Memory of Miss Mayme Gulick.

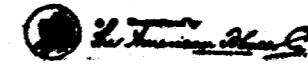

With the passing from earth of Miss Mayme Gulick memory hangs another picture in its hall of fond reflection. A picture that borrows nothing from art to make it attractive and presents no false glamour to stimulate the imagination. It is a picture too true to life's checkered experience, too loyal to the standard of truth, for that. It is the picture of one who, fully conscious of frailty and the limitations of human nature, leaned upon the arm that is mighty to save and made it her chief concern to be and to do what God requires. Her sense of life's reality and responsibility gave color and character to each undertaking, and duty, calling to service great or small, was cheerfully recognized and obeyed. Miss Mayme indulged no idle delusion as to life and opportunity. Trained under the influence of godly precept and example in the wholesome habits of the country, she grew to be the strong, devoted, energetic, warm-hearted woman she was. Home and church claimed first place in her conception of duty, and how consistently and efficiently this conception was realized all who loved her knew. City life did not change the steady current of her devotion to the simple, unpretentious services of filial love, and when the time came for closed eyes and folded hands she gently and quietly passed to heavenly rest. X.

WOMAN RUNS FOR SEAT IN HOUSE

Mrs. Durham Is Prominent Candidate—State Treasurer Seeks Re-Election.

The Journal has received the following letter from Mr. R. W. Merchant, of Richmond, a former editor of this paper, sending cordial greetings to the paper and giving an account of state politics which will be of interest to our readers:

"I note, with pleasure, the improved appearance of the last issue of The Journal, and recognize the skillful hand of your fair editor in the selection of interesting local matter as well as the less interesting topics before read in the metropolitan dailies. I know that the readers of The Journal will welcome Miss Larkin back to The Journal's editorial sanctum.

"Political interest in this city, just now, is centering on the innovation of a lady candidate for the House of Delegates from Richmond. Whilst the city's electorate is divided on the propriety, at this time, of sending a 'Housewife to the House,' Mrs. James Ware Durham, the candidate, already has a strong following and appears to be gaining favor with each day of her vigorous campaign.

"Those who favor Mrs. Durham's nomination argue that if the innovation of sending a woman to the legislature will result no more disastrously for public weal than have those of the telegraph, the telephone, the automobile, the talking machine and the airplane, it is well worth while to give it a try-out.

Among the state officials seeking nomination in the August primary for re-election, there is none more worthy and looked upon with more cordial favor than is State Treasurer Charles A. Johnston. Mr. Johnston is a native born Virginian, of the old type, uniform in courtesy, generous in nature, faithful to his official duties and a one hundred per cent democrat.

"There can be no more convincing evidence of Mr. Johnston's popularity and recognized ability and efficiency than the fact that he served six years in the House of Delegates from the republican county of Montgomery. During his service in the House, his vote was always recorded for such measures as he conscientiously believed to be right and against those he believed to be wrong.

"Soon after Mr. Johnston's induction into the office of State Treasurer—succeeding C. H. Urner, who was appointed to fill the unexpired term of A. W. Harman, jr., deceased—he inaugurated such improvements in the office quarters as to transform them into more sightly apartments and render them more comfortable and convenient for himself and his accommodating and efficient clerical force.

"There is no opposition, so far as known at this time, to Mr. Johnston's nomination, and for the sake of continuing a tried and well qualified officer at the head of the State Treasurer's Office, his numerous friends throughout the state doubtless hope that there will be none."

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

SOME FACTS

Here are authentic figures from the Ford factory at Detroit. They show you just how many Ford cars and trucks have been built each month since January 1, 1921, and how many have been sold to retail customers, in the United States.

	Produced	Delivered to Retail Customers
JANUARY	29,883	57,268
FEBRUARY	35,305	63,003
MARCH	61,886	87,221

Total Production 127,074 Total Retail Sales 208,032

showing that actual sales for the first three months of 1921 exceeded production by 80,958 Ford cars and trucks!

April requisitions already specify 107,719 additional cars and trucks and the estimated April output of the factory and assembly plants combined calls for only 90,000!

These facts clearly show that the demand for Ford products is growing much faster than manufacturing facilities to produce and were it not for the dealers' limited stocks, which are now being rapidly depleted, many more customers would have been compelled to wait for their cars. It will be only a matter of weeks, therefore, until a big surplus of orders will prevent anything like prompt deliveries.

If you would be sure of having your Ford car or truck when you want it, you should place your order now. Don't delay. Phone us or drop us a card.

SIGNS OF PROGRESS

Welcome news of Prince William progress may be accepted as the natural accompaniment of the county-wide interest now exhibited in community organization work, and notably manifested by recent plans for community fairs throughout the county.

The Groveton, Bethel and Independent Hill leagues during the last ten days have forged ahead with fair arrangements, representative groups of citizens accepting the prospect with enthusiasm. Leading citizens are standing squarely behind the movement and they have been accorded the warm encouragement and hearty assistance of the county agents.

No other local enterprise is able to offer the same far-reaching benefits to be derived from a community fair. In simply fostering a live and lasting community spirit its existence would be amply justified.

With the establishment of community fairs in every section, with county-wide support for the annual county fair and with a rising local interest in the state exhibition at Richmond, now substantially encouraged by the board of supervisors, Prince William bids fair to hold her own in the ranks of Virginia counties.

ARE YOU WITH US?

Although a fairly universal interest has been exhibited in the prospect of having a new post office in Manassas, the opportunity continues to be remote. The matter has drifted into comparative oblivion, as local interest shifts to other and newer problems of the day.

A great many citizens realize the importance and the necessity of better accommodations for our busy mail department. They know that the post office administration cannot function properly in a crowded workroom, which militates wholly against efficiency, contributing nothing but trouble to the workmen it harasses and through them to the public which they serve.

Congress already has appropriated money for a building lot. The site has been selected and has passed out of private ownership into the hands of the government. But there is no money for the erection of a building.

Business will be dull in the Capitol at Washington when Congress takes a day off to discover that Manassas needs a new post office. Our national lawmakers and guardians of the public treasury are losing no sleep over recollections of an idle government lot in a choice section of Manassas, which they might beautify and make useful by appropriating money for a post office. They are in no hurry to appropriate government funds to us if we do not know we need them.

Why not organize a movement for a new post office now? We can get it if we prove the need. Representative Moore, spurred by an agitation formerly started by The Journal, has volunteered his support. Are you ready to push? Many shoulders at the wheel will make it go.

NO INCREASE IN TAX LEVY

By reducing the county levy from 50 cents to 30 cents, and increasing the district school levy from 25 cents to 45 cents, the board of supervisors gave the schools the benefit of an increase of 20 cents without increasing the total levy.

Supervisor Robertson made a brave fight to secure a higher school levy for Manassas district, but his resolution in both cases was defeated. Whether the increase allowed will be sufficient to operate the schools without lowering their standard is problematical. On the face of the situation it would seem that no taxpayer could offer objection to the levy asked, but when the board met it was visited by delegations representing both sides of the question. How the visit of the delegations affected the action of the supervisors it is impossible to state.

As matters stand there is nothing to do but to face the situation with what we have. If, at the end of the year, the outlook is no brighter, at least the opportunity to obtain the levy asked should assume a fair aspect.

If the schools do not suffer thereby, there is cause for congratulation in the small reduction in the total tax. Altogether, the land tax for Manassas district will be $1.75 on the $100, instead of $1.90 as heretofore.

A PRINCE WILLIAM HERO.
 Planting a tree in his memory, the children of Groveton school have paid a fitting tribute to Maury Montgomery Lake, formerly a boy among them, who made the great sacrifice with other American boys in France. Possessed of a gallantry of spirit which made light of the dangers in the path of duty, Maury Lake bravely accepted the commission which carried him into the thick of the fray and demanded the most that he had to give. His service, already commemorated by a single gold star in the Groveton flag, is written large in the hearts of loving friends and remembered truly by the great host for whom he gave his life. A sturdy black walnut will keep his memory green at Groveton, a living, growing tribute, bringing fresh inspiration with every spring. Let Prince William school children in other sections follow the example of Groveton and pay tribute to their soldier school-mates whose service ended bravely Over There.

"WAITING"

Serene I fold my hands and wait,
 Nor care for wind, or tide, or sea;
 I rave no more 'gainst time or fate,
 For lo! my own shall come to me.

I stay my haste, I make delays,
 For what avails this eager pace?
 I stand amid the eternal ways,
 And what is mine shall know my face.

Asleep, awake, by night or day,
 The friends I seek are seeking me;
 No wind can drive my bark astray,
 Nor change the tide of destiny.

What matter if I stand alone,
 I wait with joy the coming years;
 My heart shall reap where it has sown,
 And garner up its fruit of tears.

The waters know their own and draw
 The brook that springs in yonder height;
 So flows the good with equal law
 Unto the soul of pure delight.

The stars come nightly to the sky;
 The tidal wave unto the sea;
 Nor time, nor space, nor deep, nor high,
 Can keep my own away from me.
 —John Burroughs.

MUST PAY POLL TAX ON OR BEFORE MAY 7

Women in Order to Vote in Fall Election, Must Pay 1921 Tax at Once.

Women who did not register and pay their poll tax last year, and who want to vote in the gubernatorial election in August, must pay their poll taxes by May 7, according to the election laws of Virginia, or six months before the date of the general election in November. By special provision of the laws, this was not necessary the first year, but will be required now, it is declared.

Section 8 of the acts extending the right of suffrage to women in part reads:

"That she shall as a prerequisite to the right to vote after this act becomes effective personally pay at least six months prior to the election, all state poll taxes assessed or assessable against her under this act during the three years next preceding that in which she offers to vote, provided that she shall, unless physically unable, prepare and deposit her ballot without aid, on such printed forms as the law may prescribe, and provided further, that the requirements that poll taxes should have been personally paid at least six months prior to the election shall not apply to any election, which may be held in the year in which this act becomes effective, for which year no poll is levied, but the payment of poll tax for the year next succeeding the year in which this act becomes effective at any time before thirty days preceding such election held in the year in which this act becomes effective entitles her to vote in such election, if otherwise qualified."

In reminding the ladies of this required prerequisite to voting this year, we would also warn all male voters who have not paid their 1920 poll tax that the same must be paid on or before May 7th, in order to vote at the important State election to be held November 8. Do not put off this important matter, for unless you are qualified to vote in the fall election you cannot participate in the August primary.

Could Eat, But Couldn't See.
 A farmer went to a large city to see the sights, engaged a room at a hotel, and before retiring asked the clerk about the hours for dining.

"We have breakfast from six to eleven, dinner from eleven to three, and supper from three to eight," explained the clerk.

"Wa-al, say," inquired the farmer in surprise, "what time air I goin' ter git ter see the town?"

Wife—"Well, what did he say?"
 Husband—"He said: 'Now, if we had some ham we'd have some ham and eggs if we had some eggs.'"

Says What He Means.
 A young man of Boston who had failed to pay his laundry bill endeavored to turn his Chinaman aside from inquiry by an attack upon the Celestial's manner of speech.

"Why do you say 'Fliday,' John?" he asked.
 "Say Fliday because I mean Fliday," replied John stoutly. "No say Fliday and mean maybe week after nex', like Melican man."

There's a Reason.
 A farmer, calling at a dentist's, promptly and cheerfully stated his business as soon as he entered the operating-room.

"A tooth to be pulled," he said, "and I'll pay nothing extra for gas. Just haul it out if it does hurt."
 The dentist smiled. "You're plucky, sir," he said. "Let me see the tooth, please."

"Oh, 'taint me that's got the tooth ache at all," said the farmer; "it's the wife. She'll be here in a minute."

Had Enough.
 Bridget was applying for a place as cook, and when asked for a reference, presented this note:

"To whom it may concern: This is to certify that Bridget Foley has worked for us one week and we are satisfied."

Expensive.
 "Father," said little Rollo, "what is appendicitis?"
 "Appendicitis, my son," answered the deep-thinking father, "is something that enables a doctor to open a man's anatomy and remove his entire bank account."

By EDMUND VANCE COOKE
 Author of Impertinent Poems

I had a friend. He was straight as a string. His conscience pricked at the slightest thing. He was former Sec. of the Untown "Y." But now he was flourishing, living high, And letting his friends in on a deal To float a new make of automobile, Which had one H. Ford so badly scared He was buying in, so's to be prepared. Well, the stock certificates looked first rate, With a round, gold-seal, and a notary's data. So I bought this non-assessable stock, Which was as "good as the wheat," and "firm as a rock," But on which no bank would borrow or lend, And I have it yet.

And I have a friend.

A Nation-Wide Employment Bureau

With the return of the discharged soldier from overseas the problems of employment, unemployment and proper employment rose to paramount importance, where they have remained ever since. All organizations that were at all qualified to cope with the problems lent every effort, but none had worked more effectively than the Salvation Army.

It was not a new work for the Salvation Army, merely an old job enlarged and broadened. For many years, through many an unemployment crisis, the organization has successfully conducted what is probably one of the most efficient interstate employment agencies with branches in every large city throughout the length and breadth of the land.

During the last year The Salvation Army found employment for 65,000 men and women. The positions found ranged anywhere from the lowest positions of unskilled labor to the most highly specialized professional work. Of course, a great preponderance toward the former, for in employment is in everything else the primary object of The Salvation Army is to help those who cannot help themselves.

Nor does the work of The Salvation Army stop with fitting the job to the man. It makes the man fit the job as well. Those who apply for work shabby and down at the heel are given good clothing and neat shoes in order that they may apply for the positions to which the Army sends them with no physical handicap. Scores of soldiers discharged from the army with little or no money have found a warm friend, financial aid and a free suit of civilian clothes in The Salvation Army Employment Bureau.

"White Rose" THE ALL-PURPOSE FLOUR

Not every Flour is suitable for all types of baking. Some are good for biscuit and other coarser baking. Others are well adapted for cake making but serve none too well for the breakfast wheatcakes.

Isn't it a fact that you would rather have an all-purpose Flour—a Flour that from the careful selection of the grain, on through the cleaning and grinding and sifting stands out as being especially well adapted for all kinds of baking?

White Rose—the Flower of Flours—is that all purpose Flour you have been wanting. It is ground in a big, modern mill of ninety barrels a day capacity. It is sold at a moderate price and can be had at all times in every section of Northern Virginia.

There is but one way to convince yourself, Mrs. Housewife, of the uniformity high quality of White Rose Flour—and that is by giving it a trial in your home. If your grocer does not carry White Rose send us his name and we will see that you are supplied.

We make but one grade of Flour—the very best—and it is known by the name it will pay you to remember—WHITE ROSE.

ANTI SUICIDE BUREAU.

For the past thirteen years The Salvation Army has waged an active war against suicide. The Anti Suicide Bureau was established in London when the great suicidal mania swept through England and in a few months this little refuge for the desperate and life weary had raised 1125 men and 96 women. From that time on the Salvation Army has found a definite field of work in supplying the friendless with friends, the heart-broken with comfort, the bewildered and helpless with a guide, those hysterically maddened by folly with a calming influence that would steady them. Overwork, ill health, disappointment in love, infidelity of husband or wife, sudden bereavement, drink, drugs and crime as well as mental weakness and melancholia are many of the numerous causes that lead people to think seriously upon exterminating life. Four-fifths of the people with melancholia have suicidal tendencies and two-thirds of them actually attempt it. It is a curious fact that it is seldom among the underworld or lower classes that suicide is frequent, but is mainly among clergymen, doctors, actors, financiers, journalists, politicians, chemists, architects, schoolmasters, bank clerks, and tradesmen.

NEWS FROM THE COUNTY AGENT

Community Fairs, Shearing, Lime Bin, Wool Association Topics of Week.

(W. L. Browning, County Agent) County Agent Browning attended a wool growers' meeting at Roanoke, at which time a permanent state co-operative sheep and wool growers' association was formed. The object of this association is to market under one head the wool crop of the state, to have the wool assembled at the local centers, where it will be graded, as was done at Manassas, and then to have it sent to a central licensed warehouse. The receipt from the warehouse will be sufficient to draw around 75 per cent of the value of the wool. This wool association will hire an experienced wool salesman, whose duty it will be to sell the association wool and be of such assistance to the wool growers of the state as his time will permit.

Each grower of wool will be required to take as much as one share of stock, which is $10. Of this amount, if desired, $1 may be paid in cash and the balance taken out of the receipts of the wool. I would like to have every wool producer in the county become a member of this association. Write your county agent for further particulars.

Timely Hints on Shearing.

Now that the time for shearing is at hand, I want to urge your attention to the following. This will mean profit, while the old way means loss.

Shear the wool when it is absolutely dry, never when wet.

Never shear on a dirt floor, preferably on a smooth board floor.

Care should be taken to keep the fleece intact.

Remove the tags from the fleece and pack separately.

Fleeces should be prepared with the flesh side cut, never the weather side.

Tie each fleece separately. Never pack the wool in bags untied.

Paper or hard glazed surface twine should be used. Never use sisal nor binder twine.

This last, never use binder twine, is of very great importance, as a good many in this county did use it last year.

The report from Loudoun county was that 800 lbs. of wool tied with binder twine cost the growers $48; that is, they would have received $48 more had it been tied with paper twine.

Let your county agent know how much twine you will need, that he may get it at once.

Community Plans.

The county agent attended a meeting of representatives from several communities around Independent Hill and helped them put on a plan to hold a community fair at that place next fall. The following officers were appointed: Michael Oleyar, president, and E. E. Cornwell, secretary and treasurer.

The county agent also attended a meeting at Groveton and met a representative group of persons who made plans for a community fair at that place, which will comprise the communities of Catharpin, Gainesville, Wellington and Stone House. Officers were elected as follows: J. D. Wheeler, president; Mrs. Esther D. Terrill, secretary; C. C. Lynn, treasurer.

It is the plan to hold these community fairs, five in number, and to have a committee from each to select the best exhibit possible from each fair, and after the close of the community fairs to have an exhibit of the best from each of the community fairs. A silver cup will be awarded to the winning community.

No Hurry About Planting Corn. Do not be deceived into thinking that summer has come and be in too big a hurry to plant corn, as replanted corn seldom does much good, other than to make fodder.

The concrete foundation for the lime bin at Bristow was laid last week by a group of farmers and they are now ready to erect the building. If you have not contributed toward this bin, get in touch with your county agent or W. E. Varner, Bristow, because you are going to have need of lime from this bin next fall.

The Gold Ridge Co-Operative Cheese Factory was organized last Friday, with Rose Earhart as president and W. Y. Elliott secretary. The foundation has been put down for the factory, the plant ordered shipped, and operations are expected to start the first of May.

Let the county agent help you with your various problems. If he cannot solve them for you, through him you can get the services of the state extension division and Federal department of agriculture. Remember your county has a county agent, and he is yours to use if you will.

INDUSTRIAL SCHOOLS NEWS

The springtime has added much to the continued labors of the many workers at the Manassas Industrial School for Colored Youth. The farm and gardens present a splendid appearance. The classroom work is up to the average, and plans are now in progress for commencement, May 30.

There will be six graduates this year from the high school and seven from the industrial department.

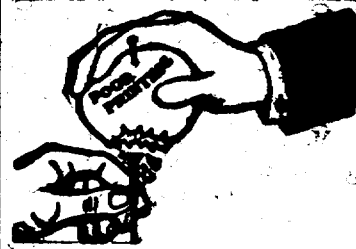

The high school students will present a three-act comedy entitled "A Strenuous Life," at Conner's Hall in Manassas on Saturday evening, May 7, at 7:30 o'clock. This promises to be a worthy presentation.

Rev. Homer Welch, pastor of Sudley M. E. Church, accompanied by Mrs. Welch, visited the school yesterday and spoke with feeling of his surprise and pleasure to see the work which is being done. The students and teachers were greatly pleased with his remarks.

The school administration has launched a financial drive to reach 5,000 people by May 30, and secure donors in the sum of as many dollars to help supply the needs of the school.

REGISTRATION NOT REQUIRED

Residents of Virginia do not have to register with the Washington traffic bureau if they use their cars to come into the District of Columbia and leave the same day, according to a recent announcement made by Capt. Headley of the traffic department. If they should remain in the city over three days the law requires them to register at the Traffic Bureau, Metropolitan Police Department, room No. 511-A, District Building.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving remembrance of our dear wife, sister and daughter, Sarah A. Thomason, wife of James F. Thomason, of Baltimore; daughter of Mrs. E. W. Speake; sister of Mrs. E. R. Thomason, of Haymarket, and sister of Rosa V. and James T. Speake, of Bockhall, who departed this life March 30, 1921.

Oh, the memory of this sad evening,
As we stood with aching hearts,
Seeing the one we loved so dearly
Pierced by death's most cruel darts.

Sleep on, dear sister, your labor is over,
Your willing hands shall toil no more.
A faithful sister, both loving and kind,
A better sister no one could find.

The dear one now is sleeping,
No care is on her brow,
Oh, blame us not for weeping,
For we haven't our sister now.

We miss her in our home,
We miss her from her place,
A shadow over our life is cast,
We miss the sunshine of her face.

In memory we always see
The one we loved so dear,
Her vision grows so clear sometimes
We feel she must be near.

How sadly we count the hours
That measure three long weeks
Since they laid beneath the mantle of flowers
Our sister we hope to meet.

Sleep on, dear Allie, and take your rest,
God called you home, he thought it best.

He saw your suffering here was great
And opened wide the Golden Gate.

In God's home of fadeless beauty
Allie is now a shining star,
Dwelling in that holy city
With the Golden Gates ajar.

By Her Sister, Mrs. E. R. Thomason,
Haymarket, Va.

CLIFTON

The usual service was held in the Presbyterian Church Sunday morning. Rev. Hugh MacLeod preached a sermon suggested by the thought expressed by Dr. Freesley Rohrer, moderator of the Washington Presbytery, at the recent meeting at the Eckington Presbyterian Church in Washington.

At the congregational meeting Lewis D. Quigg was elected a trustee to fill a vacancy on the board of trustees. The choir sang "It Is Well With My Soul" for the offertory.

Mrs. George Kidwell is improving, after being seriously ill for several days.

The Presbyterian Aid Society met Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richards. There was an unusually large attendance. The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. J. Brown; vice-president, Mrs. Laura Poindexter; secretary, Miss Ruth Richards; treasurer, Mrs. J. E. Upp.

The entertainment, or social part of the evening, consisted of an indoor session managed by Miss Ruth Richards, with Mr. Webb as scorekeeper, Mr. Charles Adams, timekeeper, and Mrs. Quigg and Mr. D. W. Buckley, judges.

The contestants were grouped by the names of the states, each group sending representatives to each event. The groups were: District of Columbia, Virginia, Indiana, New York, New Jersey and Georgia.

The contests were eight in number, as follows: Shot put, hurdle race, 200-yard dash, high jump, inside run, obstacle race, pole vault and foot race. Indiana was declared the winner, with a score of 23 points. The rivals scored as follows: New York, 21; Georgia, 12; Virginia, 9; District of Columbia, 7; New York, 6.

Some of the contests were very laughable, especially the high jump, a sing of low do to the highest do, and the inside race, in which the contestants had to swallow a full glass of water and whistle as quickly as possible, the first whistler making the best score.

The society was invited to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bauserman in May.

Mr. H. B. Darr, county farm demonstrator, is to give an illustrated lecture on fruit trees, their culture and methods of pruning and spraying, this evening at the school auditorium.

Mr. John D. Garrett, clerk of the centreville school board, was a recent visitor to the school.

The ladies of the Presbyterian Church met Wednesday and cleaned the church, burning and cleaning the carpet.

Mrs. O. L. Southard has been here recently, repairing and cleaning her home, with the expectation of renting it for the summer.

It is reported that wedding bells will soon ring for more than one bride in Clifton.

Farmers are busy getting the ground ready for corn, planting potatoes, etc.

Mr. W. H. Mathers is fencing the land near his home.
