LEE HIGHWAY VISIT

Further Organization in Prince William and Funds to Carry On Work.

Mr. Floyd W. Weaver, of Luray, newly appointed assistant to Dr. S. M. Johnson, director-general of the Lee Highway Association, and Mr. Roderick Johnson, of New Mexico, Dr. Johnson's son, have been Prince William visitors this week in the interest of the Lee highway, the proposed coast to coast memorial to General Robert E. Lee.

Mr. Weaver and Mr. Johnson came here to confer with the local Lee highway association with reference to further organization work and to obtain necessary financial assistance, including the first payment of subscriptions already pledged through the local organization. They left for Warrenton yesterday and expect to return next week to make a more complete tour of this section, hoping to have the guidance of local members in making the trip.

The Lee highway, duplicating in the south the great Lincoln transcontinental highway of the north, is to extend from New York to San Francisco. The route through Virginia follows a southwest diagonal via Fairfax, the Manassas battlefields, Warrenton, Luray, New Market, Harrisonburg, Staunton, Lexington, Natural Bridge, Roanoke, Blacksburg, Wytheville and Bristol, proceeding thence to Memphis, Tenn.

The highway was first routed from Washington through Frederick, Md., and the Virginia city of Winchester, this route having been abandoned recently in favor of the more direct route through Fairfax via the Manassas battlefields to Warrenton and Luray, shortening the distance from Washington to Luray by seventy-two miles.

Dr. Johnson, director-general of the enterprise, has devoted much of his time to legislation in the interest of better roads. He has recently secured through congressional action surplus war material valued at $2,000,000,000 to be used in road work in the various states.

Mr. Weaver is engaged in general field work, presenting the association's interests before chambers of commerce and legislative bodies and enlisting support in various ways. He was educated as a lawyer at the University of Virginia, where he took a medal for oratory, and was clerk of Page county for twenty-one consecutive years, retiring to take charge of the Luray Ice Company, of which he was a large stockholder, a corporation operating plants at Luray and Shenandoah and doing an extensive creamery, ice cream, cold storage and ice business. He served for years on the democratic state central committee, is a member of the board of trustees of the state normal school at Harrisonburg, and, according to the Page News, has long been regarded as the leading congressional potential.

Mr. Johnson is having plans worked out for a highway from Washington to the coast, and unique demonstrations in the interest of good roads, are in the possession of the association. Arrangements will be made to show them upon request in the various localities along the route.

The Lee Highway Association maintains offices in Washington at 325 Southern building, where its officers may be addressed.

Subscriptions are solicited for the work, particularly in the following classes: Founder, $250 per annum for four years; supporting, $125 per annum for four years; life, $25 per annum for four years, and active, $5 per annum for four years.

MR. MOORE IN HOSPITAL

Hon. R. Walton Moore, who had been in Garfield hospital at Washington for more than a week, following an operation for the removal of a carbuncle, left the hospital on Monday to attend a meeting of the joint committee on reorganization of the administrative branch of the government. Representative Moore found, however, that he was not as strong as he thought he was and was forced to return to the hospital, where it was stated that he probably will not be able to resume his legislative duties for at least another week.

Mrs. R. W. Merchant and her daughter, Miss Elizabeth Merchant, of Richmond, are the guests of Mrs. Merchant's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Camper.

DAVIS SPEAKS PLANS FREE IN SOLDIER'S HONOR

Alumni Hold Memorial Service at High School—Mr. Johnson Pays High Tribute.

A black walnut tree, of small proportions but sturdy growth, was planted on the high school grounds Sunday afternoon by members of the alumni association in memory of "Ollie" Lynch, who died in service overseas.

The address of dedication was made by Mr. Wheatley M. Johnson, a member of the alumni, who was high school athletic instructor at the time Ollie distinguished himself in high school athletics and who served with him in France. Mr. Johnson, speaking simply and with feeling, paid a touching tribute to the young sergeant of Company K, 318th Infantry, who made the supreme sacrifice with other Virginia boys who contributed to the noble record of the 80th division Over There.

The brief memorial service began with a school song, "On Manassas Western Border," an air teeming with recollections to every member of the alumni. While the tree was set in place by male members of the alumni Miss Mary Lee Chapman sang "Abide With Me," at the close of which all joined in singing words appropriately set for the occasion to the air of "Auld Lang Syne."

Miss Mary Larkin read the following lines from "Away," by James Whitcomb Riley:

I cannot say, and I will not say That he is dead. He is just away.

With a cheery smile and a wave of the hand He has wandered into an unknown land,

And left us dreaming how very fair It needs must be, since he lingers there.

And you, oh you who the wildest yearn For the old-time step and the glad return,

Think of him faring on, as death In the love of There as the love of Here;

And loyal still, as he gave the blow Of his warrior strength to his country's foes.

Mild and gentle, as he was brave, For his country's honor his life he gave.

Think of him still as the same, I say He is not dead—he is just away.

The service closed with "America," led by Mrs. Hodge. Members of Mr. Lynch's family were present by special invitation.

HOFF—BEAHM

Miss Esther Beahm, of Nokesville, and Mr. John Luke Hoff, of Chicago, were married May 22 in North Manchester, Ind., at the home of Prof. and Mrs. L. D. Ikenberry. Mrs. E. F. Wampler sang "Berceuse," after which the bride party entered to the strains of the bridal march from Lohengrin, played by Miss Sara Beahm, sister of the bride. Messrs. Amos Hoff, brother of the groom, and Lloyd Sonafrank, of Peru, Ind., were ushers. The groom was accompanied by his best man, Mr. William Beahm, a brother of the bride. Miss Ida Fields, of New Paris, Ind., was maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Esther Eisenbie, of Chicago, and Miss Marie Ikenberry, of North Manchester. Miss Della Lehman read Edgar Guest's "The Bride," and Mrs. Wampler sang "O Perfect Love." Among the wedding guests were Mabel Harley, of Manassas.

The bride wore a gown of white satin and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and sweet peas. Mr. and Mrs. Hoff received their A. B. degree at the Manchester college this spring. They will make their home in Chicago.

PLANS COMPLETED FOR FREE CLINIC

Tubercular Patients and Suspects to Be Examined and Advised by Dr. Brown.

Free tuberculosis clinics for Prince William county will be held next week at Manassas, Haymarket and Occoquan under the auspices of the Virginia Tuberculosis Association, in cooperation with the Prince William Red Cross and ministers and physicians of the county. Dr. Brown, on the Catawba sanatorium staff for many years, will be in charge.

The clinic is intended chiefly for persons who have tuberculosis, who have come in contact with it or who have suffered ill effects from influenza. Tuesday will be Haymarket day, when Dr. Brown, assisted by a nurse who accompanies him, will hold a clinic at Haymarket school from 9 to 12 and 2 to 4.

Clinics will be held at the school building in Manassas Wednesday and Thursday from 9:30 to 12:30 and from 2 to 5. White people will be examined in the morning and colored people in the afternoon.

Dr. Brown will spend his last day in Prince William at Occoquan—Friday, June 24—holding a clinic at the school building there from 9:30 to 12:30 and from 2 to 5.

Prince William during the last five years has lost 85 persons from this plague, according to the figures of the Tuberculosis Association.

The newly recognized fact that tuberculosis, if taken in time, is curable, was particularly emphasized by Mr. I. L. Spear, who appeared before the Red Cross home nursing committee last week in the interest of the clinic.

Throat, lungs, heart, etc., will be examined. Dr. Brown will freely advise all who come to him concerning preventive measures and steps to effect a cure.

Prince William bears none of the expense. The money already has been raised through the sale of tuberculosis Christmas gifts, the Red Cross assisting in the annual sale and receiving fifty-five per cent of the returns for local use. The remaining fifty-five per cent belonging to the Tuberculosis Association is used for this work.

MR. SCOTT ARRINGTON DIES

Funeral Services Held Saturday and Interment Made at "Backhill."

Funeral services for Eli Scott Arrington, eighty years old, who died June 9, were held Saturday afternoon at the home of his half-brother, Mr. J. Arrington, Rev. T. D. D. Clark officiating. Interment was made in the family burying ground at "Backhill," the Arrington farm near Manassas. The pallbearers were: Messrs. C. C. Leachman, R. S. Hynson, C. B. C. Johnson, W. E. McCoy, W. S. Athey and J. L. Bushong, of Manassas; Jas. U. Kincheloe, of Fairfax, a step-grandson, and John S. Wilson, of Quantico.

Mr. Arrington was born June 13, 1840, at "Maple Valley," the old Arrington homestead near Bacon Race. He was the son of Thomas Scott and Zeresh (Beach) Arrington. He married Mrs. Duanna Maria (Brown) Suddath, who died many years ago. Surviving relatives are a brother and sister, Mr. D. J. Arrington, of Manassas, and Mrs. David King, of Baltimore, Md.; two nieces living in Missouri and Colorado, and three step-children—Mrs. Charles Carroll Wood and Mr. Glysson B. Suddath, of Washington, and Mrs. William Kincheloe, of Fairfax.

BOORMAN—RAU

Miss Eunice Rau and Mr. Frederick S. Boorman were quietly married at the home of the bride in Washington, D. C., on Tuesday evening, at seven o'clock. Dr. James H. Taylor, pastor of the Central Presbyterian Church, performed the ceremony.

The bride's gown was of white satin and lace, and she carried a shower bouquet of bride roses. She was attended by her sister, Miss Nettie Rau, who wore pink georgette crepe, embroidered in crystal beads. Mr. Erskine D. Whitterson, of Edinburgh, Scotland, the groom's brother-in-law, was best man.

Upon their return from a northern trip to Boston and other cities, Mr. and Mrs. Boorman will reside in Washington.

Mr. Boorman is a son of Mrs. Boorman and the late Prof. Joseph Boorman, residents of Manassas for many years, and is now employed by the Evening Star. He spent his boyhood in Manassas and has many friends here.

WILL NOT QUALIFY DAVIS ELECTED MAYOR OF TOWN

Councilman Robertson Unable to Serve—Meetze Defeated Vote is Close.

Mr. Harry P. Davis was elected mayor of Manassas at Tuesday's election, when the Manassas electorate also chose the following members of the council: Messrs. D. J. Arrington, J. M. Bell, E. R. Conner, B. C. Cornwell, R. S. Hynson, R. M. Jenkins, C. M. Larkin, B. Lynn Robertson and M. Bruce Whitmore.

Mr. Davis, who was not urged to become a candidate in time for his name to be printed on the official ballots, received 196 votes to 103 cast for his opponent, Mr. J. C. Parrish, whose name appeared on the ballots. Mayor Brown was not a candidate.

Messrs. Arrington and Bell, supported on both tickets, polled the largest vote, Mr. Arrington, a member of the present council, receiving 219 and Mr. Bell, 199.

Mr. Hynson received 134 votes, Mr. Cornwell, 128; Mr. Whitmore, 125; Mr. Larkin, 119; Mr. Jenkins, 117; Mr. Robertson, 115, and Mr. Conner, 115. Robertson Will Not Serve.

Mr. Robertson, a member of the present council, whose candidacy was not advocated by The Journal after announcement that he would be unable to serve both as councilman and supervisor, was elected in spite of the publicity given the announcement. Mr. Robertson, in a statement to the public given elsewhere in this issue, explains his position and formally declines to qualify. He had not been informed of the legal question involved when he agreed to become a candidate.

When a councilman fails to qualify his successor is chosen by the members of the council, according to the law as expressed by Town Attorney C. A. Sinclair. This would leave the selection of the ninth councilman to the new officials after their organization September 1.

Meetze Also Ran. Hon. C. J. Meetze, who opened a pre-election controversy with The Journal, ran last on his ticket, receiving 93 votes.

The other defeated candidates were as follows: Messrs. James R. Larkin, 114; W. F. Hibbs, 112; J. H. Burke, 111; O. E. Newman, 110; J. L. Bushong, 109, and J. L. Moser, 82. Messrs. Hibbs, Burke, Moser and Newman were members of the present council. Mr. Larkin, who received the highest vote of any candidate not elected, agreed on Friday before the election to serve if elected on the citizens' ticket. His name did not appear on the ballot.

Scattered votes were cast as follows for persons who were not candidates: Albert Spiden, 30; G. Walker Marchant, 16; O. O. Holler, 2; E. H. Hibbs, 1; James R. Dorrell, 1, and W. R. Akers, 1. Mr. Akers received two votes for mayor and one vote was cast for former Mayor Wagener.

The election officials were Messrs. Philip A. Lipscomb, R. M. Waters and Peyton B. Larkin.

GEORGIA CYCLONE WARMLY GREETED

Lecture on "John and His Hat" Delivered Under Auspices of Manassas U. D. C.

Representative Will D. Uphaw, known as the Georgia cyclone, whose oratory has charmed audiences throughout America, delivered a lecture at Eastern auditorium Friday evening under the auspices of Manassas Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, the proceeds being received in the name of the Manassas Battlefield Confederate Park Association. Mr. Uphaw, not a stranger in Manassas after speaking here in recent weeks at the Mooby reunion, at the Baptist Church and to the school children, was greeted with a wave of applause as he ascended the platform. He was introduced by Mr. C. J. Meetze.

The auditorium, loaned for the occasion through the courtesy of Prof. R. H. Holliday, of Eastern College-Conservatory, was appropriately decorated with Confederate colors and the Stars and Stripes.

The evening's program opened with piano solos by Miss Virginia Nelson Speiden, Miss Fannie Ransdell and Miss Elizabeth Pope, all of whom were warmly applauded.

At an opportune moment during the lecture Miss Pope played Dixie, the audience rising to its feet in enthusiasm, and Miss Rose Rice gave a spirited reading, "The Rebel Yell," which she has given with signal success before Confederate gatherings on several occasions. Congressman Uphaw spoke on "John and His Hat," a topic which caused much speculation during the week before the speaker's arrival. The lecture, delivered in his usual style, was generously sprinkled with humor. The audience accorded him silent appreciation, indulged in ripples of mirth and in real laughter and broke into hearty applause. In fact the audience apparently enjoyed itself thoroughly.

Explaining how this topic was selected, Mr. Uphaw described John as a model American, mentioning innumerable Johns of history and also Manassas Johns of today. He went into entertaining detail about what John should have under his hat, notably including a level head and an informed head, with a patriotic heart, a clean-unsold heart, a clean tongue and a progressive spirit as companion attributes. He placed laurels upon the brows of Daughters of the Confederacy and lauded teachers and preachers as "evangelists of civilization." He expressed a cordial hope for the success of Eastern College as an important educational factor in Manassas life and emphasized the educational value of lyceum festivals, branding as "the menace of tomorrow" the "cheap show which forms low ideals in the minds of formative youth."

He closed with a plea for a purer patriotism, for standards for men as high as those required of women and lives "clean-hearted and true." The audience sang "America" and was dismissed.

TRINKLE COMING

Senator E. Lee Trinkle, candidate for governor, will speak at Conner's Hall in Manassas on Tuesday, June 22, at 8 p. m. Senator Trinkle will be in Quantico Tuesday morning, leaving there shortly after 9 to visit Dumfries, Occoquan and Healdy, and arriving in Manassas for lunch. He will go to Nokesville and Haymarket in the afternoon and return to Manassas in time to speak at night.

NEWS FROM THE COUNTY AGENT

Dates Set for Receiving Wool Consignments—Cheese Factory Makes Fine Record.

(W. L. Browning, County Agent)
Now that it is time all sheep breeders were thinking about what they are going to do with their wool, the question comes up: Shall I take the price offered me by the local buyers and let them make a profit, and the dealer they sell to a profit, or are you willing to join the wool pool and stick with the others and help get part of the profit the others are making from your product? This cannot be done by one or two, but must be a concentrated effort.

The prospects are that we will have pooled this year about 12,000 pounds of wool. This wool with last year's clip will be sold through the state co-operative sheep and wool growers' association.

All wool consigned to the pool must be delivered to Manassas on the following dates: June 20, 21 and 22. A government wool grader will grade the wool a few days after it is all collected. We will accept wool only on these dates. The reason for this is to do away with the trouble we had last year, or receiving a little wool for a month and having to have a grader several times. Please make a note of the date for the delivery of your wool.

It is very encouraging to announce to the people of the county that the Gold Ridge cheese factory, which opened for business on June 3, is making a most promising start. The plant is modern in every respect and cheese of the very highest quality is being made. This plant will be ready to place a limited amount of cheese on the market early in July. The plant is now equipped to put out a small family size cheese, which we hope to sell direct to the consumer, thus putting into practice the great problem of today, the enormous cost between the producer and the consumer. This cost we will turn into profit for both producer and consumer.

It has been asked by a great many what price the cheese factory pays for butter fat. This plant is guaranteeing their patrons the market price at any creamery for the same period they deliver milk to the plant, but it is hoping to pay a nice large premium about market price.

I think it only justice to the operator of the factory to say that the cheese specialist who was here to start the plant said that after running the plant for four days it was being handled and as good product was being made as was usually made after a month's experience. These men from this community, W. B. Bowers and W. Y. Elliott, surely took in all they saw and heard while on their week's course at Blacksburg. W. B. Bowers is the active manager of the plant.

Those communities that have not set a date for their community fair had better get a move on, and if they are ready to decide I will be glad to meet them and help arrange the time that will work in with the balance of the community fairs. These fairs this year bid fair to outstrip those of last year in every particular.

WATERFALL CLUB MEETS

Boys and Girls Make Plans for Fair and County Rally in August.

(Nora Mayhugh, Reporter)
The Waterfall Agricultural and Home Economics Club met at the school house on Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, with seven members and ten visitors present.

The meeting opened with song, "Juanita," followed by Scripture reading by president, the Lord's prayer repeated by all and "Home-Going Song." The secretary read the minutes and called the roll, after which business was taken up. Plans for the fair and county club rally were discussed; also plans for a bread judging contest were brought before the club.

The program committee for the next meeting is composed of: Mason Mayhugh, Omar Kibler and Virginia Bell. Time of next meeting, Saturday, June 18. Miss Gilbert will be present to give a demonstration in bread making.

We then had a reading by Mrs. W. M. Foley, address by Miss Burke, recitation by Elizabeth Foley, talk by Miss Gilbert, after which the club extended a rising vote of thanks to Miss Burke for her splendid talk on the meaning of the Four H's. The meeting closed with "America." Two new members were reported, Elizabeth Foley and Mary Sinclair.

MAKING COOPS AND FEEDING

"Happy Hustlers" Busy with Plans for Club at Fair.

(Layton Sweeney, Reporter)
The Happy Hustlers of Bacon Race Club met June 14. The meeting was called to order by the president, Miss Beatrice Duvall. After the opening song, "My Bonnie," the roll was called by the reporter, as the secretary was absent. All present responded to their names by giving memory gems as quotations.

Miss Gilbert was present and gave an instructive talk to the boys on making self-feeders and exhibit coops, and to the girls on bread making. The girls have finished the sewing assigned at last meeting and are taking up new work. The boys are very much interested in undertaking lessons in making coops and feeders. Miss Gilbert has told us about the numerous prizes offered in different projects, and we are going to try hard to win some of them.

We decided to answer to roll call next meeting by a round table discussion on the Fourth of July. The meeting adjourned to meet again July 12. The girls will come in the morning and have some lessons in bread making and bread judging. The boys will join them in the afternoon for the regular monthly meeting and lessons in carpentry and basketry.

THE ELECTION—AND DAYS AHEAD

Few qualified voters sat peacefully in their Manassas homes or places of business on Tuesday, leaving the election to the mercy of their neighbors. Almost to a man—without excluding the women voters—they went to the polls, getting out a vote which kept election officials busy until midnight.

Many claim the victory. For this reason it will go down in local history as one of the happiest municipal elections ever held. The mass meeting ticket and the citizens' ticket were split by decided votes, indicating a general diversity of opinion among the voters. The vote was exceedingly close, however, the two councilmen running last on the ticket receiving an equal number of votes and a single-vote lead over the nearest defeated candidate.

The Journal rejoices particularly over the election of Mr. Harry P. Davis for mayor. Mr. Davis' business ability, his standing in financial circles, his strict integrity and his broad knowledge of town affairs combined to give him the hearty support of The Journal during the campaign and of the people at the polls. Although his name was not printed on the ballot, he was chosen by the people, without soliciting a single vote.

Many voters feel especial regret over the defeat of various candidates.

The Journal acknowledges regret that four members of the present council were not returned and that one additional candidate on the citizens' ticket failed of election by a single vote.

Their places have been filled by good men, however, and Manassas may cheerfully accept the verdict of the voters, resting assured that the town will still be in good hands after September 1.

Interest in town affairs ran high up to the time of the election, arousing a healthy town spirit in every home.

If pre-election workers will continue to work as seriously for town improvement in the coming months and the campaign spirit is carefully nurtured by all its possessors, we shall have a population of boosters strong enough to surmount any barrier that threatens to impede our progress.

We have fought the good fight and now is the time for CO-OPERATION.

THE LEE HIGHWAY

Prince William citizens interested in the wonderful opportunities for development opened by the Lee highway and in the opportunity to join in building a lasting memorial to our great Confederate leader should be ready now to get squarely behind the local Lee highway association and do their utmost to further its plans.

The value of the highway for local use and for tourist travel can hardly be estimated. As a memorial, a highway belting the continent from sea to sea is useful and appropriate and entirely in keeping with the aims and ideals of General Lee.

The Lee Highway Association was not formed primarily to build roads, but rather to adopt a road and then to coordinate all agencies along the route in making it a perfect highway from coast to coast. The affairs of the association are in the hands of experienced men, whose work during the past year contributes to a fine record toward the final achievement for which the association was formed.

Prince William is elated over the recent announcement including the Manassas battlefields on the Virginia route. The town of Manassas, somewhat disconsolate over her position seven miles away, may get busy with plans for a connecting link.

STATE POLITICS

While the gubernatorial campaign is in full swing in many sections of the state, Prince William has hardly begun to feel the heat of the contest.

Hon. H. St. George Tucker and Senator Trinkle are the only candidates in the field. Both have been accorded warm support and both are apparently pleased with the prospects. A statement issued from Tucker headquarters, as published in a Richmond newspaper on June 8, concedes only two out of ten districts to Mr. Trinkle. Trinkle adherents predict that Senator Trinkle will carry the state by a "very decisive majority."

We look forward to Senator Trinkle's visit to the county on June 28 and hope to welcome Mr. Tucker.

Perhaps The Journal didn't answer—the people did.

THE TUBERCULOSIS CLINIC

That tuberculosis if discovered in time is entirely curable is a doctrine that should receive the widest circulation.

Thousands of helpless people have succumbed to it through ignorance of preventive measures and through ignorance of a possible chance to recover.

Dr. Brown, who comes to this county next week through the courtesy of the Virginia Tuberculosis Association in co-operation with the Red Cross, is expected to lend vital assistance to those who are known to have the disease and to those who may have come in contact with it. Those who have been in contact with tubercular patients may obtain helpful advice toward building up a system strong enough to resist the debilitating influences which make the individual an easy prey to the disease. Persons who have never fully recovered from influenza are especially invited to attend.

It is particularly hoped that such persons will take advantage of the opportunities offered. Clinics are to be held at Manassas, Haymarket and Occoquan, according to announcement elsewhere in this issue. There is no cost attached, all expenses of the clinic being borne by the Tuberculosis Association, which obtained the funds through the sale of Christmas seals.

BE A BOOSTER

Boost your neighbor, boost your friend;
Boost the church that you attend;
Boost the farm on which you're dwelling;
Boost the goods that you are selling;
Boost the people around about you—
They can get along without you,
But success will quicker find them,
If they know you are behind them;
Boost for every forward movement;
Boost for every new improvement;
Boost the stranger and the neighbor;
Boost the men for whom you labor;
Cease to be a chronic knocker;
Cease to be a progress blocker;
If you'd make your township better,
Boost it to the final letter.
Stop your knocking! BOOST!

LAUGH AND LIVE

TO A DRY-AD

Whatever else may happen now,
The country has gone dry;
The sailor still will have his port,
The farmer have his rye,
The cotton still will have its gin,
The sea coast have its bar,
And each of us will have his,
No matter where we are.

LEADING HIM TO IT

When young Pophaw called round at Acacia Villa on a recent evening he found Angelina wearing worry lines on her forehead.

"Oh, Arthur," she said, "I had such a terrible dream last night!"

"Silly little girl," answered Pophaw, blindly. "Fancy letting a dream bring wrinkles to such a sweet face. Dreams always go contrary, you know."

"Oh," she cried, in tones of relief, "I'm so pleased to hear that!"

"Pray, what was this terrible dream pet?" blundered Pophaw.

"Well, Arthur," she stammered, with vain assumption of maidenly coyness; "I dreamed I wasn't going to be Mrs. Pophaw."

There was no help for it then. Pophaw had to "pop."

Visitor—What this country needs is some of the old minute men.

Manager—Yes; now we have too many "I'll-do-it-in-a-minute men."

"Papa, when you are a diplomat you have to make the other fellow believe everything you say, don't you?"

"Not exactly, my son. You try to make him believe just the opposite of what he thinks you really intend to say, and even then you are lying to him."

"Now, boss, I'm ready to go anywhere dey wants to send me," said a dusky citizen in a southern city on registration day, after performing his patriotic duty. "Boss, jes anywhere! But I asks jes one thing and dat is don't put me in no cavalry."

"Why do you draw the line on the cavalry?" asked the registrar.

"It's jes like dis. When I's told to retreat, I don't want to be bothered with NO hom."

A man who had long been in his employ entered the office of a factory owner, according to the Cleveland Plain Dealer, and asked for a day off.

"I guess we can manage it, Pete," the boss said, "though we are mighty short-handed these days. What do you want to get off for?"

"Ay want to get married," replied the blushing Scandinavian.

"Married? Why, look here—it was only a couple of months ago that you wanted to get off because your wife was dead!"

"Yess. Ay goes so."

"And you want to get married again with your wife only two months dead?"

"Yess. Ay ain't ben hold no grudge long."

Sambo (to wife at show)—Mandy, tell dat nigger to tek his arm 'em 'round you.

Mandy—Tell him y'e'well, Sam. He's a puffed stranger tek me.

FLOUR

YOU, TOO, WILL LIKE

It is not a "guess" on our part to say that you, too, will like White Rose Flour, once you give it a thorough trial.

Northern Virginia—that White Rose is a high-grade, all-purpose flour which makes excellent loaf bread, cake, pastry, biscuit and all oven products—is convincing evidence of the all-round merit of this flour.

For family use, where nearly all women do not wish two or three brands of flour taking up room in the kitchen or pantry, White Rose Flour is the one flour that serves satisfactorily. With the high point of excellence this flour has reached, there is no more need for the purchase of special flours.

And why pay the higher price? White Rose, being ground at Manassas, under most modern conditions, and with the freight charges on the flour amounting to considerably less than on the Western brands, it is not surprising that the price of White Rose is lower than on many of the equally high grade flours to all of Northern Virginia users.

Order a sack of White Rose today. If your grocer can not supply you, send us his name and address and we will fill your orders direct until he can supply you.

MANASSAS SWAMPS BRENTSVILLE 17-6

Local Boys Score 11 Runs in Seventh—Utterback Pitches—Sanders is Star.

(Sporting Editor) The Manassas White Rose baseball team defeated the Brentsville aggregation on Saturday afternoon at the local ball park by a score of 17-6.

Things looked bad in the first inning when Brentsville put over three runs before Utterback, the local pitcher, found himself. Neither team scored again until the third, when the local boys scored two and Brentsville one. Brentsville also scored a run in the next inning.

It was not until the fifth that Manassas tied the score, and then along came that lucky seventh, when the locals piled up eleven runs. Here the game halted while Brentsville held a war council and the scorekeeper sent for an adding machine and a backstop was erected behind first base for the benefit of Brentsville. The visitors started a rally in the ninth, but added only one to their total.

Walter Sanders again stepped out as the team's leading batter, as well as slugger, making four hits out of six times at bat, one single and three doubles.

FAMOUS TWINS VISIT US

Those interesting twins—Appie Tite and Appie Henson—paid us a visit this week. Appie Tite was enjoying his usual health, and his sister, Appie Henson, was in her usual mood. 'Twas only after much persuasion on her brother's part that she ate her dinner. After that she felt better and by the time she had her dessert—The Velvet Kind Ice Cream—she was feeling very much better and bought a pound of Martha Washington at the new price of 87c, which tickled her so that she promised to tell her cousin, Appreciation.
