MANY TO GREET VETERANS

Chief Marshal Outlines Plans for Reception of Confederates on June 5.

(C. J. Meetze, Chief Marshal)

Having been appointed Chief Marshal to act on June 5th, when the Confederate soldiers will visit Manassas in a body to go to the battlefield, I take this opportunity to request all of the old Confederate soldiers belonging to Ewell Camp and other camps located in Prince William county and elsewhere, also any old Union soldiers, to meet in a body at the passenger station in Manassas at 9 o'clock on the above date for the purpose of giving a hearty welcome to the old boys in gray, who will no doubt visit Manassas for the last time.

The sons of Confederate veterans, as well as the veterans, are invited, and they have promised to be here. Senator Martin has written that he has invited the two old Confederate soldiers and the two old Union soldiers who are now members of the United States Senate to be present.

Upon the arrival of these honored and distinguished guests at Manassas, we will escort them to the tabernacle at the corner of Grant and Porter avenues, where addresses will be made by prominent members of the party. After the addresses we will repair to the courthouse lawn, where the members of the chapters of the Daughters of the Confederacy and other good ladies will serve luncheon and where the old soldiers will have an opportunity to examine the tablet that has been erected in the courtyard commemorating the Peace Jubilee. At one o'clock we will leave the courthouse lawn for the battlefields in automobiles and carriages, which I trust will be furnished free of cost to the old soldiers by the members of the community. They are our honored guests, and I feel that it is incumbent upon us to see that they have every care and attention free of charge while in our town.

Doubtless there will be other visitors who are not soldiers that will accompany the veterans to Manassas with the view of visiting the old historic battlefields. These persons, of course, will not expect to be carried out and back free of charge, but I trust that none of the good people of Prince William will load up with any of these paid passengers until all of the old veterans have been provided for.

All of the automobiles and carriages that are going to carry veterans to and from the battlefield free of charge will please line up on the west side of Grant avenue facing the battlefield. Vehicles and automobiles which come for the purpose of making charges will please take their positions on the opposite side of the avenue.

Doubtless the old veterans, who are now but few in number, will never have another opportunity to visit the scenes made sacred by their struggles of more than fifty years ago. Nor will our citizens ever again have the opportunity to entertain such distinguished visitors.

I wish to take advantage of this opportunity to emphasize the fact that it is the bounden duty of Confederate veterans living in this community to be present on this occasion and help to welcome their old comrades in arms. The Confederate Veteran, the official organ of the Confederate soldiers, has printed and sent out the program, which has the visit to Manassas scheduled for this date. This gives ample time

WITH THE COUNTY AGENT

Mr. Montgomery Talks on Agricultural Club Work - Prizes Offered.

(C. A. Montgomery, County Demonstration Agent)

Boys, if you have not entered either of the agricultural clubs, do it now. It is time to plant your corn and if you still wish to join the pig club get a pig, and push him and make a hog of him by October.

The boys who are in these clubs are getting along nicely. They are enjoying their work and are doing their bit for their country. There are four reasons that can be given this year for entering club work, growing corn, potatoes, pigs or anything to increase the food supply; first, Patriotism; second, To learn better methods; third, Profit on project; and fourth, To win the prizes that are being offered.

CORN CLUB PRIZES

First, a free scholarship, offered by the Bankers' Association, which includes all necessary expenses, to the short course given at Virginia Polytechnic Institute.

Second, a $10 goldpiece offered by Hon. C. C. Carlin.

PIG CLUB PRIZES

First, a registered Berkshire gilt, offered by a Prince William County farmer. This gilt will be bred to farrow about December. Estimated value $50.00.

Second, a $10 goldpiece offered by Hon. C. C. Carlin.

There will also be a registered Berkshire gilt pig offered for each magisterial district in the county, if there are as many as five or six club members in the district, to the boy or girl who raises the best pig in the district.

We hope at least a fifth prize may be offered for each club in the county.

For any of the Prince William boys, both veterans and sons of veterans, to be in Washington and participate in the big parade on Thursday, the 7th.

The school children of Manassas are invited to participate in the welcome.

Further notice will be given next week in the papers as to any changes which may be made and, if possible, the names of those who are to make the addresses.

If there are any suggestions to be made by anyone, or if more specific information should be desired, please communicate with me at my office.

This occasion can be made a success only by the cooperation of all the people. The honor which was conferred upon me by being named Chief Marshal was not sought, and I trust that I shall have the hearty support of every one.

MEN MUST REGISTER JUNE 5

All Male Citizens Between Ages of 21 and 31 Required to Register for Enforcement of Selective Draft Legislation - Polls to be Open from 7 A. M. to 9 P. M.

Governor Stuart shortly before midnight Saturday set in motion the machinery of the registration on June 5 of every male person in Virginia between the ages of twenty-one and thirty-one. Telegrams were dispatched to the mayors of all cities, the sheriffs of all counties, physicians of the county boards of health and clerks of the county courts, notifying them of their appointment as members of the board of registration.

The action of the Governor followed the President's proclamation issued on the previous day for registration throughout the United States according to the terms of the Army bill just enacted.

Every man who is twenty-one years old and who has not yet attained his thirty-first birthday must register. There are no exemptions except for persons actually in the military or naval service of the United States. A man under certain conditions may be exempted from the draft but not from registration. Negroes are no more exempt than white men. It is the duty even of cripples to present themselves to be listed on June 5. The penalty for failure to register is arrest and imprisonment at the end of which the offender, if physically able, will be automatically drafted into the military service.

In case of sickness or absence it shall be the duty of the citizen to obtain registration blanks from the clerk of the county court, have them filled out carefully and accurately and mailed to reach the registrars not later than June 5, Registration day. The registrars must register all civil officers of the state and nation and must themselves register if within the ages prescribed.

Adjutant-General W. W. Sale has been placed in charge of the selective draft system for the state. He will direct all plans for registration day. The expenses incurred will be defrayed by the Federal government.

The Town Hall will be the place of registration in Manassas. Mr. G. Raymond Ratcliffe, cashier of the People's National Bank of Manassas, has volunteered to serve as registrar. According to instructions from the War Department the registration will begin at 7 a. m. and continue till 9 p. m. Registration throughout the county will take place at each voting precinct.

THE NEW AMERICA UNITED

[Dedicated to the Reunion of the Blue and the Gray July 21, 1911, and then known as the Manassas Jubilee Anthem.]

America, our mother fair,
Queen of the earth, the sea, the air!
The States, thy children, cling to thee,
And at thy shrine bend low the knee.
America, a radiant band,
North, South, East, West, hand clasped in hand,
We guard thee well. God give us light,
And help us keep our altars bright.

CHORUS.

America! All hail to thee!
Thanks be to God who made us free!
North, South, East, West, hand clasped in hand—
United we, thy children, stand.

Thy throne extends from sea to sea,
Thy scepter is our liberty;
Thy ermine is our flag so grand
Which proudly waves o'er sea and land;
To grace thy brow Heaven lends Her crown,
With golden stars it's wreathed around,
And nature pours out at thy feet,
A wealth of treasure, rare and sweet.

Our Eagle's wings are proudly spread;
"Old Glory" waves above thy head;
All nations know that on thy breast
Each wand'ring child may find its rest;
For liberty doth light the way
Through darkness unto perfect day.
America, lift up thine eyes!
Thy God doth reign above the skies.

America, our mother dear,
When thou dost call, thy children hear.
And coming pray all strife shall cease—
That God will bless our land with peace.
Jehovah, Lord, to Thee we raise
Our hymns of gratitude and praise,
Each State takes up the glad refrain,
A mighty chorus once again.

The above will be sung by the public school children at the Jubilee Tablet, corner of Grant and Lee avenues, Manassas, Va., as a part of a spectacular greeting to the procession of Confederate Veterans Tuesday, June 5, at 10 a. m. It is expected that Mrs. Mary Speed Mercer, of Elm City, N. C., the author of words and music, will be present and take part in the reception.

MARRIED YESTERDAY

Miss Louise Walker Becomes Bride of Lieut. Bonham, U. S. A.

A wedding of interest to many persons in Manassas took place yesterday morning at the home of the bride in Barboursville, Orange county, when Miss Louise Law Walker, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. T. Walker, became the bride of Lieut. Francis G. Bonham, U. S. A. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Hugh H. Hudson, of Charlottesville.

Lieut. and Mrs. Bonham left on a noon train for Berkeley Springs, W. Va., where they will spend several weeks. The bride is a graduate of the normal training department of Manassas High School and a niece of Mr. W. J. Walker, of Manassas.

Among the out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mrs. G. M. Bonham, of Washington, mother of the bridegroom; Mr. Hamilton Graves, of Roanoke, an uncle of the bridegroom, and Mrs. I. L. Shacklett, of Manassas.

About fifty pupils of Miss Margaret Temple Hopkins, director, Miss Frances Elizabeth Spies and Miss Edna Porter Davis will participate in the recitals. The first evening's program will be given by the students of the elementary department. Thursday's program will be rendered by the intermediate students, assisted by several advanced pupils. The public is cordially invited to attend. No formal invitations will be issued.

On Monday, June 18, when no services are scheduled to be held in the Gypsy Smith tabernacle, Miss Hopkins' students will present an opera at Conner's Hall.

BURIED AT BRISTOW

Body of J. P. Leachman, Jr. Brought Home From New Mexico.

John Pendleton Leachman, jr., oldest son of County Treasurer, J. P. Leachman, who died May 15, in Buckhorn, New Mexico, was buried Sunday in the family burying ground at the Leachman home near Bristow. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. F. Burks, rector of Trinity Episcopal Church, assisted by Rev. C. K. Millican, pastor of Sudley Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

The pallbearers were Messrs. George Purcell, of Baltimore, F. Hunton Cox, of Washington, and Messrs. L. Frank Pattie, John Hynson, H. P. Davis and J. R. B. Davis, of Manassas.

Little Folks to Present Play.

One hundred small students of the primary department of the Manassas Graded School will present a musical play, "The Festival of the Months," Monday evening in Conner's Opera House, beginning at 7:30 o'clock. The children have been trained by Miss Moran and Miss Maoney.

RED CROSS UNIT FORMED

Women of Haymarket to Engage in Red Cross Work Under Miss Price.

A Red Cross Unit has recently been organized at Haymarket. Thirty-two members were reported at a second meeting. The officers are Mrs. W. M. C. Dodge, chairman; Mrs. A. W. Amphlett, secretary; Mrs. C. R. McDonald, treasurer; and Miss Mary Price, instructor.

Meetings on Tuesdays and Fridays at 2 p. m. are held at the Parish Hall.

The interest and cooperation of the people of the community are earnestly desired, and it is hoped that every family may be represented. The work of the Red Cross is too widely known to require explanation here, and the daily growing demands upon its resources should sufficiently emphasize the importance of a large band of active, willing workers in every neighborhood.

The membership fee is only one dollar a year and even if it is not possible for all members to attend the meetings, every dollar helps to buy materials to be made up into hospital supplies.

Miss Price has received instructions in making surgical dressings and is competent to direct this branch of the work. Membership fees or contributions can be sent or handed to the secretary or treasurer at Haymarket.

RETAIN PRESENT COUNCIL

Appeal Made to Voters of Manassas to Re-Elect Every Member of Council

To all Manassas Voters:

Swapping horses in mid-stream is bad business, especially when the stream is greatly swollen. Likewise it would be an act of short-sightedness on the part of the voters of Manassas to fail to re-elect every member of the present town council at the coming election on Tuesday, June 12. At this critical time in the Nation's life, when towns and cities are forced to manage their affairs in the most careful manner it is very important that the personnel of the governing body of Manassas remain the same as during the past two years. The experience gained by the men and the conscientious work they have performed constitute two very important reasons why their services should be retained to the town.

None of the foregoing reasoning need be applied in your selection of a mayor, since the above remarks are made solely with regard to the urgency of keeping in office the present council.

W. C. WAGENER, Mayor.

SAFETY COUNCIL FORMED

Officers Elected at Nokesville and Dumfries - Meeting Tonight.

The Brentsville district agricultural council of safety was organized at a largely attended meeting last Friday evening at Nokesville.

The officers elected were Messrs. Walter R. Hooker, chairman, W. B. Kerlin and E. Harrison, Rev. J. R. Cooke and Mrs. William Dulin.

Officers elected when the organization recently was formed in Dumfries district are Rev. T. Showalter, chairman; Messrs. Walter Keys, J. T. Synow, Mrs. Griffin and Mrs. J. F. Harriott.

A meeting will be held at Haymarket tonight for the purpose of organizing the Manassas district organization.

A BIRTHDAY GREETING

With this issue THE JOURNAL enters upon its twenty-third year of service. It has been a year of labor and a year of achievement for the town and county; each issue of the year shows a milestone of progress passed.

We greet you most cordially on this, our twenty-third birthday, as young and vigorous as in the opening days of '95. We thank each one of you for your help in making THE JOURNAL a family newspaper, an exponent of truth and justice and a faithful record of the progress of our community. We thank you for your substantial commendation which is evidenced by our growing subscription list, and we offer to you as our special birthday greeting our most sincere good wishes for your health and happiness and for our speedy success in the great common cause for which our nation has declared itself.

WELCOMING THE VETERANS

It is hoped that all Prince William will join in making welcome the Confederate visitors who will come to Manassas on June 5 during the Confederate reunion at Washington. Plans for the entertainment of the veterans have been placed in the charge of a committee which is directing the arrangements. The cooperation of the community, however, is as necessary as the labor of the committee.

Every member of the community should be proud to assist in the reception of the visitors, these gray-haired survivors of '65 who are marching on to Washington to show their devotion to the cause of the Confederacy of the past and at the same time give expression to their whole-hearted support of the America of today for which their fathers fought and for which their sons and grandsons are about to offer their lives.

BUY A LIBERTY BOND

Uncle Sam has asked every American, child or man, to "do his bit" in financing the $5,000,000,000 Liberty Loan of 1917, which has been called a loan from a free people to be used in freeing the world.

The bonds are in two forms—bearer bonds, of which the smallest denomination is $50, and registered bonds, of which the smallest denomination is $100. The bearer bonds will have interest coupons attached, which may be cashed at any bank just as a Treasury note, and checks will be mailed semi-annually to holders of the registered bonds. Interest will be paid at the rate of 3 1/2 per cent. And if during the continuance of the war the United States shall issue bonds at a higher rate of interest the holders of the Liberty bonds have the privilege of making an exchange, dollar for dollar.

The bonds are subject only to the inheritance tax. They are not affected by city, state or county tax, or by any Federal tax which may be made necessary by the war.

Liberty Loan bonds of the first issue of $2,000,000,000 will run for thirty years, except that the government reserves the right to pay them at the end of fifteen years.

It is desired that this shall be a popular loan and not only a loan from banks, trust companies and millionaires—a loan from the whole of the great American people who have entered into the war for Liberty.

Application blanks may be obtained from any bank, express office or post office in the United States.

Your patriotic duty: Buy a Liberty Loan Bond.

REGISTRATION DAY

It is the duty of every male citizen who has passed his twenty-first birthday and is still under thirty-one to register at his voting precinct on June 5. Registration day throughout the United States, to carry out the terms of the army bill just enacted by Congress. State officials are using every available means of impressing upon the male citizens the importance of registration. No excuse will be accepted for failure to register—neither illness, nor absence, nor physical inability to perform military service. The registration cards will show reasons for exemption, but every man is commanded by the government to present himself for registration.

In case of illness or absence cards may be obtained from the county clerk, filled out and mailed to the registrar (not returned to the clerk) on or before Registration day. There is to be no extension of time. The polls will be opened by the registrar at 7 o'clock on the morning of June 5 and will remain open until 9 p.m. All persons who fail to register before the closing of the polls do so at their own risk. The penalty for failing to register is imprisonment.

Every man should consider it his patriotic duty to present himself for registration. While it is expected that there are some who will attempt to escape, the great mass of Americans are ready to work in accord with their government. Plans are being made in many localities to mark the day with rousing patriotic demonstrations. The country desires to do honor to those who may be selected to wear the uniform and uphold the flag of America among the flags of the nations now at war.

A VIRGINIA VOLUNTEER

In a recent war dispatch from Paris, which brought new sorrow to many Virginians, a comrade in the French Foreign Legion writes of the heroic death of another American volunteer, Frank E. Whitmore, of Richmond, who was killed by the Germans in the Champagne, April 17. In the battle of the Somme last summer he was wounded twice in one day and refused to leave the battlefield until his arm became stiff and he could not throw grenades. For his remarkable courage and gallantry he was decorated with the war cross.

On the day of his death he entered the field in the morning and soon was hit by a fragment of shell. His wounded head was bandaged and he returned at once to the fight. A shell exploded and death came instantly. He was buried beside his colonel, who was killed in the same fray, an honor which his gallant service had surely earned. "If Whitmore had not been the game man that he was," wrote his comrade, "he would today have been in a hospital instead of the grave."

"If they are all of Whitmore's kind in Virginia," is his final tribute to the gallant soldier and his native state, "I wish that state would send a lot of men over soon."

HELPING THE HOME GARDENER

Perhaps many of the home gardeners throughout Virginia will long for the protection which the city of Richmond has accorded to their toil. Speaking of a new ordinance which has been passed in Richmond, the Times-Dispatch says:

Sound public policy is well exemplified in the ordinance, just signed by the Mayor, which penalizes the owner of the migratory chicken that destroys the products of the home gardener's protracted toil. There never was any good reason why chickens should be permitted to become pests, rivaling the cutworm in virulence, and now that such raids are under the law's ban, it is to be hoped the police force will lend a hand and give the ordinance real enforcement.

The home gardener is entitled to protection. He is performing a patriotic service. His inexperience makes it unlikely that he will reap any large profit, but he is increasing the country's food supply. Chickens and other marauders should be required to keep on their own side of the fence and leave him in peace.

OBLIGATION OF FRIENDSHIP

You ought to be fine for the sake of the folks Who think you are fine. If others have faith in you doubly you're bound To stick to the line. It's not only on you that dishonor descends; You can't hurt yourself without hurting your friends.

You ought to be true for the sake of the folks Who believe you are true. You never should stoop to a deed that your friends Think you wouldn't do. If you're false to yourself, be the blamiah but small. You have injured your friends; you've been false to them all.

For friendship, my boy, is a bond between men That is founded on truth; It believes in the best of the ones that it loves, Whether old man or youth, And the stern rule it lays down for me and for you Is to be what our friends think we are through and through.

JOLLY AND WITTY WAS JOE CHOATE

As Noted For His Jokes as For Great Legal Lore.

A FEW RANDOM STORIES

Delicate and Beautiful Tributes Paid to His Wife—How He Characterized Richard Croker, the Tammany Boss. Some of His Famous Witticisms and Other Anecdotes of His Life.

With the death of Joseph H. Choate, noted lawyer and former ambassador to England, the world's "dignitary poorer." As an after dinner speaker he ranked among the first in the land, and his fame extended beyond the seas. His name had been mentioned for a congressional nomination while he was still in his thirties; but, although an active participant in political as well as philanthropic movements in these first years of his success, he did not seek office. He had but one ambition, which he put into words himself, an ambition which in time he was to achieve. "I'd rather be the leading advocate of the American bar," he would say, "than be president of the United States." "And what would you want to be if you ceased to be Joseph H. Choate?" someone once asked him whimsically on a much later occasion. "I should want to be," he answered quickly, with a bow and a smile to his wife, "Mrs. Choate's second husband."

In the Furnace
When Washington his flag of stars unfurled
The colors of France and England's Crest were his
He fought with stars eternal for a world
Of men made free for better destinies.
France, Britain and America, ye are Three,
In our widening
What good undreamed, what world be-nightly
Shall your new brotherhood spread beneath the sun?
Three caravels that sail uncharted seas
Three desert travelers on a starry quest
What new world waits you, past all prophets
What childish thing that man has never guessed?
Three in a fiery furnace. Heaven grant that here
A form like to the son of God appear!

SAVE BREAD, ADVICE OF UNITED STATES ECONOMISTS

Slices or Pieces of Bread Wasted Will Feed Thousands, Experts Warn.

A single slice of bread seems an unimportant thing. In many households one or more slices of bread daily are thrown away and not used for human food. Sometimes stale quarter or half loaves are thrown out. Yet one good sized slice of bread—such as a child likes to cut—weighs an ounce. It contains almost three-quarters of an ounce of flour. If every one of the country's 20,000,000 homes wastes on the average only one such slice of bread a day the country is throwing away daily over 14,000,000 ounces of flour, over 875,000 pounds, or enough flour for over a million one-pound loaves a day, or a full year at this rate there would be a waste of over 319,000,000 pounds of flour, 1,500,000 barrels of flour, enough to make 265,000,000 loaves. As it takes four and one-half bushels of wheat to make a barrel of ordinary flour, this waste would represent the flour from over 7,000,000 bushels of wheat. Fourteen and nine-tenths bushels of wheat on the average are raised per acre. It would take the fruit of some 470,000 acres just to provide a single slice of bread to be wasted daily in every home. To produce this much flour calls for an army of farmers, railway men, flour mill people. To get the flour to the consumer calls for many freight cars and the use of many tons of coal. But, some one says, a full slice of bread is not wasted in every home. Very well, make it a daily slice for every four or every ten or every thirty homes, make it a weekly or monthly slice in every home, or make the waste slice thinner. The waste of flour involved is still appalling, altogether too great to be tolerated when wheat is scarce. Any waste of bread is inexcusable when there are so many ways of using stale bread to cook delicious dishes.

CAN'T SEIZE THESE SHIPS.
Agreement With Denmark Contains Provision Exempting Germans. It has been revealed that an unpublished provision in the agreement with Denmark by which the Danish West Indies were acquired by the United States was that German or other war bound ships in the islands would not be seized or confiscated. The disclosure was made by Chairman Alexander of the commerce committee presenting the administration bill to confer congressional sanction upon the president for seizure and operation of enemy war bound ships in American ports. When Republican Leader Mann asked for more information about the agreement Chairman Webb of the judiciary committee warned the house that it was not a subject to be discussed publicly. Mr. Alexander then explained the purpose of the bill, which he said, was to give the president full power to take title to the ships, except those in the Virgin Islands, and to provide for their operation or lease by the government.
