MEETZE REPLIES TO BRENAMAN

Prince William Delegate in Open Letter Charges Him With Inter-Party Politics.

The Richmond Evening Journal of February 27, says:

Another gun was fired in the Meetze-Brenaman controversy today. Chris J. Meetze, representative from Prince William in the house of delegates, rakes fore and aft J. N. Brenaman, secretary of the democratic committee and chief clerk in the office of State Insurance Commissioner Joseph Button, in "an open letter," which reads as follows:

"Volcanic eruptions of 'Mount Meetze' seemed to have thrown out some hot lava on the has-been much professor. The wicked flee when no man pursueth. Like the famous scuttie fish, Mr. Brenaman tries to madden the waters in order that he may escape.

"I did not attack the state democratic committee as a whole, but I attacked Mr. Brenaman because of meddling with my election, the democratic caucus, my contest and for deliberate hostilities towards the candidacy of Mr. Pollard and Mr. Davis. He quoted in his article of the twentieth from a letter which was never written to me, and he only quoted a portion of my letter and he knew when he printed that statement that it could not be reconciled with the facts.

For Clean Politics.

"Why didn't he print all of the facts instead of garbling the facts that he did print. Mr. Brenaman misquoted me throughout his article. I stand for clean politics and a square deal. I give it to others and I demand it from them. I whipped the clique from congressmen to constable, notwithstanding your influence to the contrary. I have one of your letters which mentions my name eleven times. This letter was sent into my county and it has printed on it 'State Democratic Headquarters, Murphy's Hotel, Richmond, Va.' It also has 'Boss A. James, chairman' on one corner and 'J. N. Brenaman, secretary,' on the other corner. This letter was handed to me at Nokesville, my county, by W. F. Hale. Did you write it or not?

"Your name is signed to it. Why did not you give the gentleman from Loudoun the facts in the case to present to the caucus, facts never have hurt any honest man and they never will. I am not disgruntled; there is not a happier man in the legislature than myself. The house and the committee both stood by me and backed up the decision given at the election by the people of Prince William county with but one exception, and that was to add seventeen more votes to my majority. I did not balk at the democratic sign I saw at Murphy's, but I balked when I saw Brenaman carrying it. I was strongly reminded of the humble steed that bore our Saviour when He entered Jerusalem.

Another Charge Made.

"Governor Davis does not owe his great majority to your activities but to his own splendid organization, notwithstanding that you and the chairman of the democratic executive committee were refused admittance to allow him white engaged in the campaign against republicans. (Continued on Page Seven)

DUTY TO KEEP WELL.

Every Community Should Work for Disease Prevention.

To the end that public attention and interest may be concentrated upon the patriotic duty of keeping well the state department of health urges that in every community in Virginia, rural as well as urban, there shall be carried on intensive campaigns against all forms of preventable diseases. The department is convinced that fifty per cent of sickness in the state may be attributed to preventable causes, and it will put clearly up to localities that it is the high privilege of their people to help win the war against Germany abroad by waging earnest warfare against deadly germs at home.

The surface closet, unscreened against flies, is a menace to every family in a community. A well into which surface water runs carrying deadly disease germs may poison an entire neighborhood. A neglected pond of stagnant water may breed a sufficient host of anopheles mosquitoes to serve as transmitters of malaria sufficient to cause a whole community to have malaria. The state department of health will be glad to co-operate with every community in every way in its power in the eradication of disease by the formulation of constructive local health programs.

The shortage of physicians occasioned by the demand created by the war promises to become increasingly acute and there are already a number of communities in the state without medical men. There will, doubtless, be more such communities before many months. For this reason, if there were ever a time when sickness could be afforded that time is not now.

DAVIS WILL NOT BE EXECUTED

Report That Private Mack L. Davis Was to be Shot Without Foundation.

Private Mack L. Davis, formerly of Gainesville, in this county, has recently occasioned considerable commotion in high political circles, and has attracted more attention than is usual accorded an enlisted man, in a great army of a million or so. And it came about in this wise:

Davis, who has been in the army for about three years, has been stationed at Fort McClellan, in Alabama. Early in the year, he obtained a furlough, which expired the last of January. Whether the routine of camp life proved irksome, or whether he was dismayed by stories of Boche cruelty is not disclosed; but for some reason, best known to himself, Private Davis failed to return to his camp at the appointed time.

The sheriff of the county was requested by the commanding officer to apprehend the missing man, and return him to the nearest military reservation. Deputy Sheriff John P. Kerlin located the man at the home of his father, John H. Davis, near Gainesville, February 22 and promptly placed him under arrest.

In the meantime, he learned that Private Davis had entered into a contract to do private work, and had disappeared in form.

Young Davis and his father protested against his return under guard, and insisted that if allowed to do so, Davis would return to his camp at once, and alone.

Under pretext of getting ready to go, Davis went into another room, and escaped.

Mr. Kerlin spent the remainder of the day, and part of the night in his search for him; and finally recaptured him the following day.

He at once notified Camp McClellan of his arrest, and the same afternoon he delivered Davis to the commanding officer at Fort Myer, taking his receipt therefor.

A few days thereafter, it was reported that Davis had been tried for desertion, and sentenced to be shot, and the execution would take place almost immediately.

Mr. Thos. S. Meredith, of Gainesville, with that commendable warm-heartedness which has always characterized him, interested himself in the matter and succeeded in eliciting the sympathies of Senators Martin and Swanson, and Congressman C. C. Corbin.

It now develops that Davis has not been tried at all; and that he has not even reached Camp McClellan, in Alabama, at which place alone it is said he may be tried.

Military authorities say the capital punishment is unheard of in a case like this, even if Davis' offense be construed as desertion.

While a letter was shown, having all the earmarks of military authority and authenticity, it is now believed that Davis himself is responsible for this rumor of sudden trial, impending execution, which resulted in this S. O. Search to our sympathetic Congressman, whose ears are never closed to the distress by their constituents.

RED CROSS ROLL GROWS STEADILY

Workers Busy With Surgical Dressings—Regular Meeting Held Monday.

(Miss Mary Larkin, Secretary)
A regular meeting of the Manassas Virginia Chapter of the American Red Cross was held at the Town Hall Monday evening, the chairman, Mr. George G. Tyler, presiding. After devotional exercises by Rev. Alford Kelley the minutes of the previous meeting were read by the secretary and approved.

Mrs. A. H. Harrell, supervisor of surgical dressings, reported great enthusiasm among the workers and the completion of 1,600 gauze wipers. The surgical dressings are made in the workroom on the second floor of the Peoples Bank building, where many afternoons and evenings are spent by the ladies, clad in regulation uniform, cap and apron, and working busily.

Report was made that the Junior Red Cross circle under Mrs. Arthur W. Sinclair has finished an afghan, which has been sent to Mrs. C. R. C. Johnson, chairman of Junior Work, for shipment to an army convalescent hospital. Mrs. Sinclair acknowledged contributions of wool from Mrs. R. J. Adamson, Miss T. P. Waters and others, and the assistance of her neighbor, Mrs. Steele, in the knitting. The afghan is displayed in the window of the Prince William Theatre.

Rev. Alford Kelley reported the collection of $24 at the Dixie Theatre on the evening of February 25, when war films obtained from the Committee on Public Information were shown under the auspices of the Red Cross. Through the courtesy of Mr. W. N. Wearich, who owns and operates the theatre, the expense of the evening was only $1.50, the price of light and candles. A vote of thanks was given to all who assisted.

The Committee on Civilian Relief was requested to take immediate action in the matter of assisting families of soldiers in Prince William county to obtain salary allotments and to advise Prince William soldiers concerning government war insurance. This committee, of which Mayor W. C. Wagener is chairman, hopes to see every Prince William soldier insured before April 15, when the time limit for application will expire.

The present membership of the chapter is 731. Catharpin, which is the largest branch, has 76 members; Bethel has 41; Occoquan, 39; Bellehaven, 24, and the Ladies' Memorial Association of Manassas Auxiliary, 13. Nokesville has a membership larger than some of the branches and organization probably will follow at an early date.

The following members have been enrolled since the last public announcement:

Catharpin Branch—Mrs. F. W. Rollins, Mrs. R. A. Collins, Miss Bruce Smith, Mrs. W. G. Ellison, Mr. W. C. Ellison, Mrs. C. F. Brower.

Bethel Branch (Agnewville)—Mrs. G. C. Russell, Mr. G. C. Russell, Mr. Joseph Hinton, Mr. Joe Simms, Mr. R. C. Hammill, Mr. Walter Halslip, Mr. Ellis Dawson, Mr. Arthur Metzger, Mr. D. E. Alexander, Mr. Franklin Strobert, Mr. Edson Lynn, Miss Lucile Clarke, Miss Lena Strobert, Miss Mildred L. Harrell, Miss Mary M. Snapp, Miss (Continued on Page Five)

FIFTY PER CENT OF CORN UNFIT FOR SEED

The Seed Corn Situation Has Not Been as Serious in Virginia in Twenty Years.

Careful tests show that at least fifty per cent of the corn that has been saved for planting by farmers in the Valley, Piedmont and Southwest sections of the state is unfit for seed. Tests show that this is also true as far east and south as Brunswick county. Because of an adverse season, followed by early frosts and a hard freeze early in the fall, much of the corn failed to mature sufficiently to make good seed, and the planting of corn that has not been tested for germination could easily mean an actual money loss to Virginia farmers of twenty million dollars.

The director of the extension division, Virginia Polytechnic Institute, has had the county farm demonstration agents make careful tests of the corn that some of their farmers are saving to plant and tests have also been made by individual farmers, pupils in the school and others. Reports received at the central office of the extension division on these tests show that the situation as to seed corn is extremely alarming and warrants putting on an immediate campaign for testing seed corn. The seed corn situation has not been as serious in twenty years, and Virginia can less afford to risk the planting of poor seed corn this year than ever before. Raising a poor crop will not only not tally a healthy loss, but will complicate the food and labor shortage.

Good seed corn can be assured any farmer if he will make the proper effort. Simple directions for testing seed corn to determine its germination qualities can be had by addressing the director of the extension division, Blacksburg, and the farm demonstration agents in the various counties will lend every assistance possible. The materials required for the tests are easily available to any one without cost. No farmer should buy, sell or plant, untested corn.

Mr. Round Will Give Address of Welcome.

Mr. Editor:

The Educational Association of Northern Virginia is to meet in our town Thursday and Friday, March 21 and 22. The committee of arrangements has invited me to give the Association a welcome on Thursday night, March 21, at which time Hon. Harris Hart, the new Superintendent of Public Instruction, is to give an address.

I want to give the Association some historic details regarding the first public free school opened in Virginia under the constitution of 1869. The school was carried on in the Asbury church on West street, where the address and the welcome are to be given.

I have invited Mrs. Estelle Gregg Day, of Relay, Md., who was the first teacher, to be present, and I now invite any of her pupils of 1869-70 to be present and take seats on the front seat. If any of the surviving pupils who see or hear of this notice please report to me and oblige.

Yours truly,
GEORGE C. ROUND.

NEW DOG LAW FOR VIRGINIA

Baker Bill to Prevent Damage and Trespass by Dogs Passed by House.

In view of the fact that the "Baker Dog Law" has passed the House of Representatives and will probably pass the Senate, The Journal is publishing the bill in full for the information of Prince William county dog owners. The bill is an emergency measure.

1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia, That it shall be the duty of every person owning or having under his control or on his premises any dog over three months of age to list the same forthwith with the commissioner of revenue of the county, city or town wherein he resides, for taxation, and to pay on or before the first day of January of each year a license tax on such dog as hereinafter provided, or in event such dog shall become three months of age or come into the possession of any person at any time after the first of January, such license shall be paid forthwith. All dog licenses shall run from the first day of January to the thirty-first day of the following December.

2. Every dog above three months of age shall be liable to a license tax as follows, viz., on all male dogs and spayed females, one dollar; on all unspayed females, three dollars; which license tax shall be paid to the treasurer of the county, city or town wherein the owner of the dog or such person as may have him under control may reside, or any person may pay a kennel tax of ten dollars, which shall entitle him to keep therein not more than twelve dogs belonging to himself, or fifteen dollars which shall entitle him to keep therein as many dogs, belonging to himself, as he may desire; such dogs to be at all times kept confined, unless accompanied by the owner or his agent. Upon payment of such tax the person paying same shall be entitled to receive a receipt card therefor, and a metal license tag with the year for which the license is paid, the county or city or town issuing same, and the serial number of the license stamped thereon, which tag shall be a different shape for each year, and to be of a design adopted by the commissioner of game and inland fisheries, and used over the entire state during that same year. When the tag is issued the treasurer shall record the name of the owner of the dog, with the number of the license tag. Tags to be furnished by the board of supervisors and paid for out of the funds derived from dog licenses and to be attached to a substantial collar to be furnished by the owner of the dog and worn at all times. If such tag should be lost, the owner of the dog shall pay to the treasurer twenty-five cents for a new tag. It shall be the duty of the county, city or town game wardens, on the first day of July, or as soon thereafter as practicable, to obtain from the treasurer of said county, city or town a list of all the dogs in his county, city or the towns in his county on which the license has not been paid, and the warden shall immediately apply to a justice of the peace for a warrant against the party or parties whose names have been furnished by the treasurer, and if such party or parties be convicted, he or they shall pay a fine and costs, as hereinafter provided, and such fine and costs; as well as such tax, be forthwith paid, such dog shall be killed by the game warden or the officer serving said warrant.

3. It shall be unlawful for any person to permit any dog to run at large during the night time or at any time during hatching and breeding season of game, namely, from the first day of April until the first day of August, unless such dog be muzzled, or in the immediate use and control of his owner or custodian, or to permit any dog to run at large at any time without a license tag as hereinabove provided.

4. It shall be the duty of any game warden, regular, special or ex officio, or the privilege of any person who may find, or know of a dog running at large, unless muzzled, between the first day of April and the first day of August of any year, or roaming at large unmuzzled in the night time at any time of the year (without a license tag, as above described) to immediately notify the owner thereof, if known to him, and if such dog be again found or be known to the warden to be running at large, contrary to the provisions of this act, or if upon the first occasion of finding such dog so at large the owner be not known to the warden, or if any dog be found killing, injuring, or chasing sheep, or injuring or killing any domestic animals or fowls, it shall be the duty of the warden to kill such dog in any manner he may see fit, for which he shall be paid two dollars and a half out of the funds arising from dog licenses, and any person finding a dog killing sheep shall have the right to kill said dog, or if any warden or other person shall not find a dog killing sheep, but have reason to believe that such dog is killing sheep, he shall apply to a magistrate of the county wherein such dog may be, who shall issue a warrant requiring the owner, if known, to appear before such magistrate at a time and place therein named, at which time evidence shall be heard, and if it shall appear that such dog is a sheep killer, the dog shall immediately be ordered to be killed, which the warden shall do. If any dog be found running at large on which license has not been paid, and has no ownership it shall be the duty of the game warden, or the right of any citizen to kill such dog on sight. Any warden failing or refusing to perform the duties as herein defined, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, be fined not less than five, nor more than twenty dollars.

5. Any person who shall have any stock or fowls killed or injured by any dog shall be entitled to receive compensation therefor in the manner now provided by law, and in addition thereto he shall recover from the owner of such dog or the person having such dog under his control at the time the damage is done in an appropriate action at law, the difference between the assessed value and the full value of such stock or fowls.

6. All moneys arising from dog license taxes shall be kept in a separate fund by the treasurer and used for the payment of damages and fees as herein provided. In the event the same are not sufficient for the payment of all such fees and damages, they shall be paid in the order the claims are presented, and any persons whose claims are not paid in any one year by reason of lack of money to the credit of the dog license fund, shall be paid out of the first money coming into that fund after his is reached. Any funds remaining in the hands of the treasurer, as shown by his report, to be made to the supervisor at the end of each year, unused for such purpose at the end of any year, shall be used by any county for either the public schools or the public roads as the boards of supervisors may direct, and may be used in the cities or towns for such purposes as the city or town council or other governing body may direct.

7. Any person failing to list with the commissioner of the revenue and to pay a license tax on any dog which he may own, have under his control or on his premises, or who shall otherwise violate the provisions of this act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction shall be fined not less than five dollars, nor more than one hundred dollars for each offense.

8. The department of game and inland fisheries is especially charged with the enforcement of this law. All acts and parts of acts in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

9. This act shall not be construed to prevent dogs from running at large day or night while they are actually being hunted and are accompanied by the hunter.

10. An emergency is declared to exist by reason of the fact that the United States is now in a state of war and the stock-raising industry in this state is being seriously interfered with by dogs, this act shall be in force from its passage.

I would not be without it and find it a grand medicine for many things externally as well as internally," declared Mrs. R. G. Hamilton, of Troy, N. C.

Attacks of Delegate C. J. Meetze on the democratic party organization have little weight with those who know the facts. Regardless of the truth or falsity of his assertions, it is hardly for him to bring accusations of party fealty. It is an axiom of jurisprudence that one must come into court with clean hands. Mr. Meetze, having failed to file his notice of candidacy for the house in compliance with the law's requirements, ran as an independent candidate from Prince William county, and defeated the regular democratic nominee. While he has been admitted to the party caucus, still his record militates against his championship of party regularity.—Richmond Times-Dispatch.

CARLIN AND OPPOSITION

We see that Col. E. B. White, of Leesburg, has announced his candidacy for congress in opposition to Hon. C. C. Carlin, who has filled the office most acceptably for several terms. We have read the platform of Col. White closely and with much interest and notice what he would like to accomplish. It makes good reading matter but will not get many votes here. Every one knows that when a new congressman is elected it takes a long time for him to learn the ropes and tricks. Now Carlin has been in congress for a long time, is on important committees, and has been able to accomplish much for his constituents as well as the Eighth District. He was instrumental in having the Key bridge bill put through and work started at an early date, and recently he had the ship building plant located at Alexandria, employing hundreds of men, and infusing new life into that old town.

Carlin has been easy to reach, willing to help, a true friend, and now the people are going to return that friendship by giving him the nomination and election to congress again.

Mr. White, you have a colossal job on your hands when you try to take Charlie Carlin's place away from him because men who have never supported him before are now solidly behind him.—Rosslyn Monitor.

WHY NOT THE EXACT TRUTH?

The remark of Gen. Peyton C. March, the new Chief of Staff, that the censorship of news from France is "lamentable" is somewhat disturbing to Americans on this side. General March has just returned from the war front, and in criticizing the censorship uses these remarkable words:

"I know of no gentle method of conducting a war of this magnitude, and no army can expect not to have somebody hurt."

A curious and cryptic remark it seems to us in relation to the censorship. Does the Chief of Staff mean to say that there have been casualties and reverses the news of which the

and many others, too. And how glad I was that I could do just that little bit. It strikes home when a dear one of any family is so vitally affected, and we are glad to sacrifice.

We have been receiving reports of American troops being attacked and lists of those who have been killed and wounded and those who have died by disease or accident. Are we to infer that these reports have been colored or "elaborated," and if not, what is General March driving at?

On one point at least all good Americans will heartily agree with the Chief of Staff—namely, that the censorship should be as liberal as it can possibly be made without serious injury to the army. Nobody thinks, of course, that reports of troop movements, the sailing of transports or plans of campaign should be published, but there are a good many military officers who would find some excuse for not printing any news at all. For example, fault has been found with the report of the recent "gassing" of American troops, on the ground that it was giving valuable information to the enemy. Secretary Baker has wisely left the matter of censorship to General Pershing, who should know what can be done without danger to the public, but General March seems to think that he ought to be more liberal.

But whatever is said from abroad ought to be the exact truth as far as it goes. Americans are not cowards or poor fools who need to be duped. There must be no minimizing of losses or reverses, nor exaggerations of successes. It is not to be expected that the American troops will not have their setbacks and temporary defeats, as do the veterans of Britain and France. If the reports are to be believed, the Sammies acquitted themselves admirably in the German assault on their sector Friday morning. It would indeed be "lamentable" if the news of such a fight were colored and exaggerated and that of another in which they may have had the worst of it suppressed or minimized. Let us have the exact truth of all such matters!—Baltimore Sun. M

JUST AND LASTING PEACE

The essential principles that must underlie peace, as stated by President Wilson, should be constantly kept in mind. They show the greatness and unselfishness and justice of America's war aims. Briefly they are:

- (1) The final settlement of this war must be based upon essential justice and each particular case so adjusted as will likely bring a permanent peace.
- (2) Peoples and Provinces are not to be bartered about as if they were mere chattels and pawns in a game.
- (3) Every territorial settlement must be made in the interest of and for the benefit of the population concerned and not by way of compromising claims of rival states.

IT STRIKES HOME

I've a relative in the service. He had leave of absence Tuesday evening and came home after supper. We asked him what he had for supper—beef, potatoes, vegetables—a good square meal just such as the boys ought to have.

What did we have? It was meatless day—so of course we had no meat.

And then I thought and thought real hard. We went without meat and this boy and other boys had meat. We went without that that boy whom we love so dearly could have plenty and many others, too. And how glad I was that I could do just that little bit. It strikes home when a dear one of any family is so vitally affected, and we are glad to sacrifice.

Will you sacrifice just a bit not only for your own boy's sake, but for the sake of all of them and for our allies?

Food will win—let's supply the food.—Selected.

LABOR AND FREEDOM

The hope of labor lies in the opportunities for freedom; military domination, supervision, checks, bondage, lie in Prussian rule. So declare the executive committee of the American Federation of Labor.

This is a right and clear conception of the issues involved in this war for the working man. It is not through a German regime but through democracy that labor is to receive adequate recognition and its realization of its rightful place in the world.

All Americans are supremely and vitally interested in the war against German autocracy and none more than the working man of America. To him freedom means everything.

The test is on whether the autocratic regime of Germany has bred better men than the free institutions of this country has—whether the independent men of America can fight so well, can manufacture such guns and aeroplanes and other instruments and munitions of war and put them into effective use as can the human product of German rule.

There is no doubt of the result, but it depends upon the whole American people and not alone upon our fighting men. We who remain in safety at home must do our part, work, economize, save and support the finances of the government. Industry, saving, and lending to the government are now national needs and national duties.

FOR CONGRESS

H. EARLTON HANES

To the Voters of the Eighth Congressional District:

I hereby announce myself a candidate for Representative from the Eighth Congressional District, subject to the Democratic Primary to be held this summer.

In this announcement I desire to say, that I have been a consistent worker for State-wide prohibition and although our efforts in this direction have been crowned with success; yet, we must also realize that we are bound to maintain constant vigil in order to reap the reward of our labors.

I strongly endorse the action of the Administration in taking over certain of the Interstate railroads of the country and strongly favor similar action with reference to other public utilities whenever the public good demands such a course.

I realize that the thing of most vital importance to us at the present time is how to bring to a speedy end this terrible war, based upon honorable peace in the terms so clearly set forth by our President; and I assure you that the Administration would have my hearty co-operation and support in any and all measures necessary to this end.

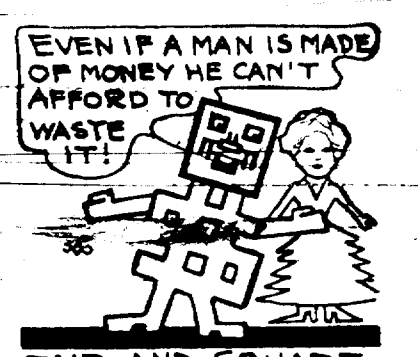

I also strongly favor Government aid for State Highways; which aid, in my opinion, should be extended far beyond its present scope. The State Highways are as much mediums of Interstate Commerce today as the railroads and vitally important to the Government in the transportation of mail, and in the moving of Government troops and supplies, and there is no sound reason why the National Government should not contribute liberally to their maintenance.

I appreciate the fact that the welfare of the farmer is vital to the best interests of the Eighth District and I should on every occasion endorse such legislation as would inure to the benefit of the farmer, provided, of course, that the same would not be prejudicial to the general interests of the people of my District.

As to my past political affiliation, I am frank to say that I have never supported the organization candidate in the Primary, but have consistently worked for the election of the man who has satisfied me that he bore no allegiance to the State machine; which, in my opinion, has not worked for the best interests of this Commonwealth.

If elected, as your Representative, I will faithfully keep the trust, as outlined above, and give you the best service that lies within me.

H. EARLTON HANES.

At the special election held in four districts of Greater New York, for the purpose of filling vacancies caused by the resignation of four members of Congress, women cast 31,858 votes out of a total of 78,192 ballots polled. The women of New York won their right to vote at the last November election.

Train No. 28 on the branch line of the Southern Railway was derailed Tuesday night at Riverton Junction, and the engine and two coaches were overturned. The accident resulted from the engine running into an open switch. No one was seriously injured. The train was in charge of conductor Bob Sherman. Engineer Charles Amos, formerly of Manassas, was running the engine.

The County Agricultural Agent's Conference of Northern Virginia was held in Manassas yesterday and today. A patriotic agricultural meeting was held in Conner's Hall last night. Splendid addresses were made by Messrs. W. C. Shackelford, district agent for this district, J. R. Hutcheson, assistant extension director, Blacksburg, and W. S. Campfield, district agent, Staunton, Va.

The regular monthly meeting of the Farmers' Institute will be held Friday, March 15. The program is as follows: "The Care of the Garden and of Fruit Trees," C. Woodbey, Assistant Horticulturist, Blacksburg, Va. "The Feed and Care of Hogs," W. S. Campfield, State District Agricultural Agent, Staunton, Va. The meeting will be an all-day one, and lunch will be served at the High School.

The Civic League will meet on Monday next, March 11, in the town hall, at 8 o'clock. It will be necessary to plan for the annual "Clean-up Week" at this time and league members are requested to arrange to be present. Any other matters, that have been in the minds of those interested in the healthfulness, neatness and attractiveness of our community, will be given an opportunity to be presented for discussion and action at this meeting.

chairman of the Liberty Loan Committee for Prince William county, has recently been in Richmond in conference with the officers of the central liberty loan committee for Virginia in regard to the plans for the sale of Liberty Bonds in this county. Instructions are being sent to the exemption boards directing the members to notify all registrants that it will be necessary for them to retain their final classification cards, which were mailed to them at the time their final classification was completed. The contemplated general round-up of all slackers throughout the country makes it necessary for the men in the draft to be able to produce their cards when requested.

A call has been extended to Rev. A. Stuart Gibson, of Windsor, N. C., to become rector of Trinity Episcopal Church, Manassas, and St. Anne's Nokesville, which he now has under consideration. The vestry of Trinity Church, at a recent meeting, decided to ask Bishop Gibson to recommend some one to be called to the above churches, and from a list furnished by him, Rev. A. Stuart Gibson, who is a son of Bishop Gibson, was selected by the vestry, and the above call extended to him.

A patriotic meeting for the purpose of stimulating patriotism and love of country, will be held at Nokesville on Saturday, March 9, at 7:30 p. m. The program will consist of patriotic addresses and music. Several well known singers will render solos and duets. Among the speakers will be the Adjutant General of the District of Columbia and the Hon. Charles G. Carlin. The committee in charge of the meeting is composed of Messrs. W. F. Hale, H. W. Herring, M. C. Hazen, W. R. Free, J. A. Hooker, D. E. Earhart, T. J. Flory, Prof. I. N. H. Beahm and the Rev. J. R. Cooke.

The following communication from the District Exemption Board to the Local Board of Prince William county will be of interest to the farmers in the draft list: "The district board appreciates the anxiety of farmers to know how they are classified so that they may arrange to put in their crops. We are, therefore, working entirely on the country districts to the exclusion of the city districts, in order to hurry up these classifications. The district board for the Eastern District of Virginia has already passed on approximately 17,000 claims, and has some 10,000 more to pass on. As we are giving each claim individual consideration, we feel that it would be impossible for us to go at it with faster speed without doing injustice to some of the registrants."

EASTERN COLLEGE NOTES

Regular baseball practice has begun on the field under the superintendence of Coach Henry. An amusing contest as to which member of Eastern College has the most brilliant necktie was won by Prof. Mosher—the judges awarding him the unanimous decision.

It was thought for a time that Mr. Henry would win with his necktie—which looked like a rainbow hit by a cyclone—but when Prof. Mosher appeared with a purple creation, embroidered with pink alligators, he was handed the prize at once. Amid wild hand clapping and speeches, the prize (a stick of peppermint candy) was handed the proud winner.

The House of Representatives (College) has a number of important bills touching athletic and social matters. A debate of informal nature will be given shortly: "Resolved, That Eastern College become a Military College."

Educational Conference.

The annual meeting of the Eighth Congressional District Educational Conference will be held in Manassas March 21-22.

This meeting was to have been held in Alexandria city, but the congested conditions in that city, due to war conditions, made it impossible to secure homes for the accommodation of visitors.

An excellent program has been prepared and many of the most prominent educators in the state will address the conference.

A complete program will appear in the next issue of The Journal.

It is hoped that the people of Manassas will co-operate in making this meeting one of the most successful in the history of the association. Those who can accommodate visitors during these sessions will aid the cause greatly if they will report to some member of the entertainment committee at the earliest possible date.

HELD ILLEGAL

Baggage Cannot be Searched Without Specific Warrant.

In dismissing a case against P. S. Butterworth, who was charged with interfering with officers in the discharge of their duties, Judge D. C. Richardson, of the Hustings Court, city of Richmond, passed on the right of state prohibition officers to indiscriminately search baggage supposed to contain liquor, where such baggage was in a room with other baggage of like kind. The warrant directed the officers to search for ardent spirits contained in two suit cases.

Armed with the warrant the officers undertook to search all of the suit cases in the station of the R. F. & P. railroad in Richmond. Agent Butterworth refused the officers admittance, and he was thereupon arrested. The court held that the cases should have been particularly described in the warrant of search. In the same opinion Judge Richardson said he could find no statute which expressly authorizes the issuance of a search warrant to search a house for ardent spirits which the complainant believes have been brought into this state in violation of law.

HAVE YOU MADE A New Year's Resolution? If you haven't let me suggest one. You know, Mrs. Housekeeper, what trying times we all had during the past year. Necessities of life have been scarce, and prices high. In fact, government supervision has become imperative, and as the old adage goes the merchant is "between the devil and the deep blue sea." Notwithstanding all this, I have been able to furnish my patrons the maximum quality at the minimum price. There was only one way that I could do this, namely: STICK TO ONE LINE—MEATS. To make my line a success, I have put every ounce of energy into it and this, plus sanitary methods, plus quick deliveries and honest prices permits me to face the new year trusting in a continuance of your patronage. Therefore, make one more resolution—BUY YOUR MEATS FROM Saunders' Meat Market

A WORD TO THE WISE We know that prices are high. But OUR PRICES are as low as we can make them while maintaining the standard of quality which you have the right to demand. We are alert to the necessity of watching the market, that your needs may be met with prices that please and goods that satisfy. Meeting of Bethlehem Good Housekeepers'

(Mrs. W. Hutchison, Sec'y pro tem.) "Hearts," in evidence everywhere, gave happy greeting to the guests of Mrs. R. A. Hutchison. The meeting was assembled in regular monthly session, according to the "Club Calendar" arranged in January, and bade good luck, success and happiness attend all throughout the New Year.

"Gardening" was ably and interestingly discussed by the Home Demonstration Agent, Miss Gilbert, who urged the early ordering of seeds because of seed supply shortage.

A very practicable plan for raising funds for the up-keep of the Rest Room had a round-table discussion, and the President was appointed to represent the Club on this matter in a meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary on the following Saturday.

The social hour, always one of pleasurable anticipation and realization, was full of enjoyment, of friendly converse and the "spread of good things to eat, that so well merits the name of 'Good Housekeepers.'"

Then comes the time of parting, which with the Bethlehem members is "Adieu" or "Good-bye," meaning "God bless you." The next coming together will be at the home of Mrs. Geo. C. Round in March, third Saturday, at 2 o'clock.

(NOTE.-The above article was crowded out of our issue of Feb. 22.)

AMERICAN AND GERMAN EFFICIENCY

The searchlight of war has brought out many interesting facts, and one of these is that the vaunted German efficiency will not always stand the test of comparison with American efficiency.

The Germans boasted of being the greatest farmers on earth. Investigation shows that in efficiency in agriculture, measured by the produce per acre, America being graded 100, Belgium leads the world, at 205; Great Britain comes second, at 164, and Germany, at 135; America comes fourth.

But the better test is the man test rather than acre test, and here America leads the world by over 2 to 1. Again, grading Ameriet at 100 per farm worker, Great Britain produces 42 and Germany 41. The American farmer cultivates 27 acres, the German farmer but 7. With the aid of vast quantities of fertilizer the German produces more per acre, but he produces at a much greater cost per bushel and he produces much less than half as much per man.

MEETZE REPLIES TO BRENAMAN

cans access to the lists of the county, city, district and precinct democratic committeemen, telling the secretary of his campaign committee that the list was the property of the democratic party and that Davis had no right thereto notwithstanding he was the democratic nominee for governor.

"I also charge that you opposed Governor Davis' suggestion that telegrams be sent to democratic county chairmen urging them to get out the democratic vote. I challenge you to deny these charges. I have an open letter from a gentleman who makes sweeping statements about some fac-simile ballots which were sent out over this state. Is this statement true? I did not make any reference to, or reflection upon several members of the house of delegates who I have since learned are members of the state democratic committee who I hope and trust will use their influence for good, and correct
some flagrant and manifestly unjust irregularities.

In my humble opinion it is extremely wrong for a state chairman or secretary to use the influence of his office as between two or more candidates of the same party, nor do I think it right that a county chairman should try to use the influence of his office as between two candidates of the same party, and it is certainly the duty of both state and county officials to be fair as between candidates of opposing parties, nor do I think it fair for the secretary of the state democratic executive committee, while acting in that capacity, and supposedly impartial between all candidates, to be campaign manager for one of several candidates of his party for a state office.

"I am also informed by reliable parties that you strongly favor the absent voters ballot, and that you have voted only a few times in the last ten or fifteen years. True democrats always vote. Our presidents go from the White House in Washington to whatever state they live in to cast their ballots, and it does seem to me that one who claims to love his party as you do could at least go from Richmond to Woodstock, Va., to cast his ballot. Oh, consistency, thou art
a jewel.

"My only aim in launching this controversy is to start a movement by which certain practices which now exist may be put to an end. From the statements I hear upon all sides and the approval of scores of leading officials and citizens I feel sure I am voicing the sentiments of a large majority of the true democrats of Virginia.

"C. J. MEETZE."
James Denies That Lists Were Withheld.

The Richmond Times-Dispatch of February 28, says:

State Democratic Chairman
Rorer A. James was in Richmond last night, and when asked if he desired to make any reply to Mr. Meetze's charges, dictated the following:

"I do not feel that I am called upon to take notice of an attack on my democracy and loyalty to the party ticket made by a gentleman of Mr. Meetze's party standing, but as I have recently heard similar rumors from other sources, and probably the sources of Mr. Meetze's misin-formation, I emphatically state that Mr. Davis at no time during the campaign, before or since, personally or through another, made a request of me for lists of the county, city, district and precinct democratic committeemen.

"I make this statement as broad and emphatic as possible.

"On the threshold of the state campaign I asked each candidate on the ticket to personally co-operate with the chairman and secretary to make the majority as large as possible, and I am pleased to acknowledge the great assistance that each and all rendered, and without whose initiative and intelligent efforts the large majorities for the candidates could not have been secured."

Defers Detailed Answer Until Session is Over.

When asked if he had anything to say in regard to Delegate Meetze's second attack on him, Secretary Brenaman replied:

"Not at present, further than to say that the charges made by the delegate from Prince William, was as full of misstate-ments and inaccuracies as was his statement on the floor of the house on February 19.

"The people of Virginia are not as much interested in what Meetze or I may say or not say as they are in what their servants are doing for them on the questions of taxation, good roads, public education and the state government in the present strenuous times incident to a world-wide war.

"The people are not fools, and they are perfectly well aware that every hour consumed on the floor of the house costs the taxpayers hundreds of dollars.
I shall, therefore, forego my inclination to make immediate reply to Delegate Meetze, rather than give him the possible opportunity to inflict on the house
another eruption at the expense of the taxpayers.

"There will be ample time after the adjournment of the General Assembly in which to pay my respects to the delegate from Prince William, when it cannot encroach upon the business of the state, and where we can meet on equal terms."

HAYMARKET

Mrs. T. E. Garnett has returned from a stay of several days in Washington.

Mrs. Arnel is visiting friends in Winchester.

Mr. Edward Beal, who has been very ill at the George Washington Hospital, Washington, is improving slowly.

Dr. E. L. Woodward, of The Plains, will hold service at St. Paul's Church on this Friday at 4 p. m. and Mr. William Pendleton, of Warrenton, on Friday, the 15th, at the same hour.

Mrs. W. M. Jordan and Miss Nellie Rector will visit Baltimore next week.

Thanks to the generous patronage of the people, the teachers and pupils of the Haymarket school made forty dollars at their entertainment on Friday evening. The program was composed of songs, recitations and two plays. All the young performers in their various parts received the warm applause of the audience. The opening number of the program, and a very attractive one, was "The Tribute to the Flag." The boys and girls of Mrs. Jordan's room, standing in military order, sang several patriotic songs, at the opening notes of which, Master Dick Jordan, wearing a white middie suit red tie, with flag in hand, advanced to the front of the stage, and with all the reverence and dignity which the occasion demanded, waved time to the music. The proceeds of the entertainment will be divided between the Y. M. C. A. and local Red Cross work.

The work of the Haymarket Branch of the American Red Cross for the month of February is reported as follows: Hospital bed shirts, 75; sweaters, 9; socks, 12 pairs; surgical dressings 12; wipes, 75. Owing to long delay in getting a supply of wool the knitting is much smaller than it would otherwise have been.

Capt. C. D. S. Clarkson left on Tuesday for Wakefield, Va., where he has been assigned to important coast survey work for several weeks before going to France. Mr. Clarkson is a son of the late Dr. H. M. Clarkson, and a life long resident of Haymarket. Starting out when a boy with the U. S. Geological Survey, he has won distinction as an engineer, having recently refused a flattering offer of work on the Grand Canal in China, with a fine salary, and travelling expenses for himself and family. In entering upon his duties with the army he carries with him the warm interest and good wishes of the community. Among others who gathered on Tuesday to see him off, were the school children of Haymarket, who marched to the station in a body and with flags waving sang their favorite school song, "Loyalty." M.

At the conclusion of the program ice cream and cake were served. A grab bag, in which many surprises were found, was in circulation.
