SIX MONTHS IN ADVANCE

FAIR ASSOCIATION STOCK-

HOLDERS ELECT OFFICERS

Mr. Thos. H. Ligon, President—List of Vice-Presidents, Directors and Shareholders.

The stockholders of the Prince William County Fair Association met in Conner's Hall on Monday afternoon. The meeting was called to order by Mr. E. G. Koerner. Mr. G. Raymond Ratcliffe was elected temporary chairman and Mr. H. W. Sanders temporary secretary.

Mr. Ratcliffe stated that $4,480 of the $5,000 desired had been subscribed. Additional stock was then received, making the total $4,600. Believing that the remaining $400 could easily be secured an organization was effected. A minimum and maximum charter will be secured, the amounts being $4,000 and $6,000. On motion, it was decided that each stockholder should have as many votes as he had shares.

The following officers were then chosen:

- President, Thos. H. Ligon; vice-president at large, C. J. Moetze.
- Vice-presidents, by districts—Manassas, E. R. Conner; Gainesville, Chas. R. McDonald; Brentsville, H. W. Herring; Colles, E. E. Cornwall; Dumfries, No. stockholders; Occoquan, J. L. Dawson.
- Secretary and business manager, H. W. Sanders; treasurer, G. Raymond Ratcliffe; executive secretary, Harry F. Davis.

Board of Directors

- Aden—Gregg, McDuff, Kerlin, W. B.
- Agnewville—Brockett, E. S.; Dewey, J. W.; Sheppard, Thomas.

SECOND POPULAR MONTHLY

RED CROSS MEETING HELD

Plans to Welcome Returning Soldiers—Mrs. R. B. Sprinkel and Miss Mary Larkin Delegates.

The new idea of the Red Cross, in holding popular meetings, with special music and recitations, in churches instead of the town hall, was seen to be successful again on Monday night at the Methodist Church. There may be less tendency to "visit"—be sociable and to discuss questions in the church, but the attendance is much greater and the religious atmosphere seems to develop serious interest in and devotion to the important cause.

The exercises were begun on Monday night at 8:15, with the vice-president, Rev. H. Q. Burr, in the chair; the president, Mr. George G. Tyler, being detained at the courthouse. "America" was sung without books, those present seeming to have committed the words to memory. Rev. DeForest Wade offered the invocation. The minutes were read by the secretary, Miss Mary Larkin, and approved.

The first report was on "Production," by Mrs. R. S. Hynson. Dumfries Branch sent 40 pinafors and 17 pairs of pajamas. Nokesville sent 13 pinafors. Manassas sent 16, made by the domestic science class at the high school. There are 6 dozen dresses still to be made, so ladies are requested to get the material from Mrs. Hynson, at her home. All the dresses must be finished by the last of May.

In the Red Cross room, over the Peoples Bank, the members sew every Wednesday and Thursday afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock. For the "Home Service," Mrs. E. B. Sprinkel reported that 10 families were helped during the past month. In one case correspondence was encouraged between a man in service and his family; one person was placed under a physician's care and nine families were given needed information; $5.00 was given in cash.

"Nursing" was reported by Miss Lulu D. Metz. The two meetings of the class have been very encouraging. The first one, on Thursday, March 28, was attended by over 20 ladies, some from the country, notwithstanding the storm. The class has been divided into morning and afternoon sessions to accommodate the number of students. The double sessions, morning and afternoon on Thursday of each week, will make possible the completion of the course in about eight weeks. There are no vacancies in the classes already organized, since each class must be limited to 20 in number. Arrangements will be made for a night session, if a sufficient additional number desire the course and report immediately, since twelve of the fifteen lessons must have been completed to make one eligible for examination. The examination will consist of both practical and written tests, based upon the work done, and 75 per cent final average is the minimum. Ladies taking this course will be able to care for the sick in their homes with intelligence and success, and increase the community health. The Red Cross was commended for making this instruction possible. Miss Metz announced that the Red Cross books had arrived and they could be secured from Mrs. J. L. Bingham and herself.

STATE FARMERS' UNION

Mr. Bowles, Secretary, Addresses Fair Association Stockholders. For many years, in many states, many efforts to get farmers to unite to secure better prices for articles sold and bought, and to obtain favorable national, state and local legislation seem to have caused many farmers to despair of effective union. Mr. Geo. H. Bowles, secretary of the State Farmers' Union, gave new hope to those interested, in an address to the stockholders of the Prince William County Fair Association, in Conner's Hall, Monday afternoon. He spoke of the 400,000 laboring men of the United States getting good, even high wages, and satisfactory laws, because they combined and were a factor on election day. Eighteen railroad and telegraph men were cited as other classes of men, whose combination spelled financial and legal prosperity. Farmers constituted 75 per cent of the population in Virginia, Mr. Bowles stated, but politicians and other people paid little attention to their wants and needs because they were not voters.

REPUBLICAN MASS MEETING

At the republican county mass meeting held last Monday, the following were elected delegates to represent Prince William county in the district convention to be held in the city of Alexandria, Va., next Monday, April 14, 1919, to nominate a candidate for Congress to succeed Hon. C. C. Carlin, resigned:

- A. J. McMichael, W. E. Varnor, G. A. Wood, J. S. Wood, W. L. Heuser, W. E. Truax, J. J. Rowe, C. H. Keyser, J. G. Stewart, J. H. Dodge, C. F. Bailey, M. F. Davis, Winter Owens, R. E. Wine, C. S. Smith, E. C. Hamill, D. C. Child, S. W. Burdick, J. E. Fick, Benjamin Smith, Ed. Haman, A. H. Roseberry, G. W. Dismay, John Hottle, Ramon Robinson, Eugene Keyser, James Smith, C. H. D. Gibson, J. H. Fox, E. K. Mitchell.

Mrs. J. Halpenny, during the absence of Mr. Halpenny at conference in Baltimore, took advantage of the opportunity of visiting relatives and friends at Brentsville and Clifton. She unexpectedly closed her trip away from home by going to Washington to attend the sad funeral of her niece, Mrs. Charles Seibert.

tee's work at that time was approved by a vote of the meeting. Miss Julia Maloney sang the war song, "Dear Old Pal of Mine." Mr. Tyler, who had come in, now took the chair. He announced that the Potomac Division wished a history of Prince William Chapter, from its organization, to be sent to the National headquarters. He commended Miss Larkin for her constant willingness to help and her inspiration to others in the work, and stated that her familiarity with the history made her logically one of the three members of the historical committee. The other two members of the committee are Mrs. R. S. Hynson and Mrs. C. R. C. Johnson. The report will be prepared in due time, May 1st, as desired.

Mrs. R. B. Sprinkel and Miss Mary Larkin were elected delegates to the Regional Conference at Charlottesville on Tuesday and Wednesday, April 15 and 16, on "Home Service," "Home Nursing" and "Junior Work." Rev. T. D. D. Clark sang the Scotch selection, "My Ain Country."

The secretary, Miss Mary Larkin, gave a final accounting of the Christmas Roll Call, which is as follows: Annual memberships @ $1.00... 1098 Magazine memberships @ 2.00... 22 Members enrolled Sept. 1 to Dec. 15 @ 1.00... 183 Members enrolled Sept. 1 to Dec. 15 @ 2.00... 6 Members enrolled previous to Sept. 1 @ 1.00... 827 Members enrolled previous to Sept. 1 @ 2.00... 16

Total... 2,700 In addition there are 406 Junior members. Miss Larkin, in a verbal report, spoke appreciatively of the efforts of Rev. H. Q. Burr, as vice-president of the chapter, who had always shown hearty co-operation and had done so much to make the Christmas Bell Calls and other agencies a success. Mr. Burr expressed his pleasure at the expressions of approval of his activities and stated that, next to the church, the Red Cross was ever in his mind and on his heart.

Miss Elizabeth Covington recited "Our Jim," a story of one who had been a little boy, a little while before, but now was a war hero and had been decorated for bravery in battle. Under the heading of "Returning Soldiers," Mr. Tyler called for a Round Table talk on the best method of honoring the soldiers, who had returned from the battle fields or camps. Numerous and varied suggestions were offered by different members, including a parade in town, picnic to some point out of town, distinguished speaker from a distance, a fine city or other expert band, Lieut. Lyman Patterson in his airplane. The time for following the precedent set by ancient Greeks and Romans and modern nations and communities, in thus giving a "triumphal welcome to returning warriors," as Mr. E. G. Koerner expressed it, was not set, but many favored July 4th, an appropriate date and by which time many more soldiers would be back, and when business houses and private homes generally could be gotten to decorate. The executive committee will take the suggestions into consideration.

The exercises closed by singing the "Star-Spangled Banner," with the words of which not so many were familiar, as with those of "America." Two stanzas were sung. Rev. H. Q. Burr pronounced the benediction.

MR. O. K. BROWN DEAD

Stricken With Apoplexy—Taken to South Dakota for Burial.

Mr. O. K. Brown, father of Dr. M. D. Brown, died Sunday night, aged 66 years. Mr. Brown had been an invalid for a long time, having been paralyzed. On Sunday he suffered a stroke of apoplexy and died at night, a few hours afterward.

Mr. Brown was born in Ohio, but moved to Canton, South Dakota, where he became a banker and a man prominent in the affairs of the community. About two years ago he came to his recent home, one mile south of Manassas, on account of asthma, which troubled him out west.

Rev. A. Stuart Gibson conducted the funeral services at the home on Tuesday at 12:30. The body was shipped to Canton, South Dakota, for interment, accompanied by Mr. Brown's wife, Dr. and Mrs. M. D. Brown, his surviving relatives.

STIMULATING UNION MIS-

SIONARY SERVICE SUNDAY

Largely Attended Meeting—Work of Five Denominations in "New Era" Narrated—Special Music.

The Baptist church was filled on Sunday night at 8 o'clock with a congregation assembled to consider what different denominations were doing in the present and future period of religious opportunity. Even the Sunday school class rooms were eventually filled by people who were unable to be present at the opening exercise.

With Rev. Alford Kelley, president of the Manassas Ministerial Conference, presiding, the meeting began by the congregation standing and singing the hymn, "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name." While the congregation was still standing, Mr. Kelley offered the invocation, at the close of which all joined in the Lord's prayer. The second Psalm was read by Rev. A. Stuart Gibson. This was followed by a solo, "Compassion," from Miss Mary Lee Chapman.

The churches being called alphabetically, the Rev. T. D. D. Clark was the first speaker, representing the Baptists. He said: "The unparalleled conditions growing out of the world-war bring such a challenge to missionary effort that nothing short of a new start in pressing the claims of our Redeemer on the hearts of men in all the earth can meet the situation. The renewal of our youth as evangelizing agencies is imperative; buoyancy of spirit, elasticity of adjustment, hope enriched and directed by experience will meet the demand."

Beginning on last Sunday and ending on this coming Sunday, April 6 to 13, in the Baptist church is "Stewardship Week." Under the auspices of the Woman's Missionary Union, auxiliary to the Southern Baptist convention, and the Laymen's Missionary movement of the Southern Baptist convention a campaign is in progress to secure subscribers to the following "Stewardship Covenant": "I therefore promise, as a recognition of my stewardship and an expression of my love to God, to lay aside until further notice at least one-tenth of my income for the support of His cause."

Prof. O. W. Mosher rendered a violin solo. Rev. A. Stuart Gibson, speaking for the Episcopal church, stated that the Episcopal and the Congregational churches were planning, not organic union, but a federation of forces or co-operation by which each denomination would assist the other in the common effort to advance the kingdom of God. He did not give financial statistics of the Episcopal church, as they would not be available until a meeting of the church this fall in Detroit.

The congregation joined in singing "Crown Him With Many Crowns," following which the offering, which amounted to $15, was taken. This sum was turned over to the W. C. T. U. to help its quota of $100.

MISS MINNIE KEYS ACQUITTED

Trial Extended Over Two Years Finally Settled for the Defense.

The case of Miss Minnie Keys, who was charged with arson, as the alleged husband of the Cherry Hill school house, valued at $1,000, on April 14, 1917, and which was continued from time to time since she was indicted at the October, 1917, term of court, was finally tried at this term of court.

The trial began yesterday and continued throughout the day. The argument of about 1000 pages this morning. About noon the case was given to the jury, who, after fifteen minutes deliberation, brought in a verdict of not guilty.

AN EXPLANATION

In the Journal of March 14th an article appeared entitled "Presbyterian Installation." In that article the salary of Rev. DeForest Wade as pastor of the Presbyterian Church was mentioned. The session of said church feel that in thus mentioning the salary the public inferring that the article was an official announcement from the church, could justly charge the officers of the said church with immodesty and bragadocio. We gladly dispel any such inference by stating that the article was ours and not from the officers of the Presbyterian Church. It was from our own data, obtained as a member of the Presbytery of Washington City. The Editor.

SOUGHT FOR DISTINCTIVE WORK

as lay workers, and 5,000 young men were wanted for the ministry. The sum of $3,000,000 was given last year, or an average of $20 per member, for congregational expenses and benevolences, while $33,000,000, or $23 as an average for each member was asked as a minimum this year.

Rev. T. D. D. Clark expressed the sentiments of the Ministerial Conference and the members of the Manassas churches joining in the union services, when he stated the pleasant Christian fellowship enjoyed during two years with Rev. H. Q. Burr, who had always maintained his Christian integrity and had stood for the right, whatever the consequences.

Mr. Burr, in reply, declared that what Mr. Clarke had said of him, could be truthfully said of all the members of the Conference. He expressed regret at leaving Manassas and hoped that he would be able to fellowship again with his friends here. After the singing by the congregation of "The Son of God Goes Forth to War," the benediction was pronounced by Rev. H. Q. Burr.

MRS. NANCY GULICK DEAD

Ninety-Year-old Native of Loudoun County Lived Her Life There.

Mrs. Nancy Gulick, widow of Mr. Sanford Gulick, died last night at her home at Lenah, Loudoun county, aged 90 years. Mrs. Gulick was born at Aldie, Loudoun county, and spent all her life in that county, the last ten years at Lenah. For some time she has been feeble in mind and body, and did not recognize those about her recently. On Wednesday afternoon she was stricken with paralysis and passed away last night.

Mrs. Gulick was a member of the Mt. Zion Old School Baptist Church. Funeral services will be conducted tomorrow at 12 o'clock at her home. The interment will be at Middleburg, where her husband and children are buried. She is survived by three daughters, Misses Ella, Melbie and Alice, all of whom lived with their mother; also two sons, Robert and J. Sanford, both of Lenah.

LICENSE WILL NOT BE GIVEN UNTIL JUNE

If Not Granted Now.

We wish to call the attention of our readers to the fact that the present term of court, which began on last Monday and will adjourn on some day of next week, probably, is the time for securing the annual licenses to sell soft drinks in the county. Quite a number of dealers in the county have not made their application or even posted notice on the front door of their places of business, as the law requires, that they purpose making application for such license. If permission is not granted at this term of court, dealers cannot secure the necessary license until the June term of court.

EMPTY HOUSES

A Late Impression of a Recent Trip Through Southern Virginia

By ALICE MAUDE EWELL

In making a journey, or visiting a locality, there is always one salient point which forms the centre of one's after-impression. To it, the mind goes back with pleasure or pain; and I must confess to a share of the latter feeling in recalling a recent trip through southern Virginia.

The salient point in this instance, was the number of deserted and ruinous homes.

The long level stretch of country between Suffolk and Lynchburg is not fertile or prosperous-looking. Leaving out the towns—Petersburg,, lately galvanized into life by Hopewell's nearness; Farmville, an educational centre; Appomattox with its deep and sad historic interest—there is little to cheer or to be admired. One gets from the railway car window a monotonous view of barren stretches, grasses, briar-grown or covered with second-growth pines and scrub-oaks. I am told that the land is "tobacco poor," exhausted by that crop, and unrenewed by any system of rotation. It is the manufacturers of tobacco who grow rich, not the producers. Between the grand new bank buildings and mansions of Lynchburg and the forlorn country dwellings of Prince Edward county there is indeed a great contrast; but, after all, what struck me most was how many of the latter were deserted.

All along that same aforesaid long level stretch, through Isle of Wright, Surrey, Prince George, Dinwiddie, Nottoway, Prince Edward, Appomattox—one sees them. On hilltops and in hollows they stand; in fields and by winding gullied roadsides. I watched them as I passed. A favorable place for one seemed to be just outside of some second-growth pine wood. The poor little empty houses—Many of them were huts. They filled the whole landscape with sadness. No smoke curled from them. Doors and windows were sagging, or in many cases gone. Around were remains of tiny out-buildings, neglected fences, gardens and fruit trees. I noted a few more imposing ruins, chimneys and foundation walls of large structures, perhaps old mansions' destroyed by fire and not rebuilt—but it was the tiny dwellings, those that had evidently been the homes of our laboring class, white or colored, which impressed me most.

Where have they gone—the folks who once dwelt there and who tilled these sad-looking fields? They must have so made their living; and most of them must have been negroes, of the race who from colonial times had toiled in our corn and tobacco grounds. We hope they have gone to better homes, to better wages and living; but there are doubts. What work in mine or factory could ever quite content those who have labored for generations in the sunshine, under the blue-arching heaven? Nor have some late glimpses of their homes in towns convinced me of real improvement in this respect. And yet, those little empty huts, most of them are so pitifully small! One room with no more than a mere loft above, sometimes a small lean-to shed! No wonder they have been outgrown. And the question arises: "Has the fault, if fault there is, been all on one side?"

Everywhere there is talk of changing conditions; on the one hand of over high wages, on the other of high prices, which leave nothing in hand. Sometimes talk grows bitter on both sides. But we still see the dominant race at the head of things, managing, directing; still see the darker folk working in our fields. The only way to keep them there is by kindness, by persistent fair dealing, and by all possible liberality. Let the little one or two-roomed houses be added to, made more livable, not deserted.

There is but one way to solve the problems I have mentioned: Mutual consideration, mutual helpfulness.

The strongest cable is made up of a thousand little threads. So with daily kindnesses. The bond of affection grows strong, sometimes against our will.

There is still another question that arises in connection with these empty houses. What is to become of the land so left? When the last Afro-American has gone, perhaps south of Mason and Dixon line, will Chinese coolies at last redeem the exhausted acres of old Virginia? Will great estates be divided and subdivided into small patches worked by the cheapest laborers? Who can tell? For land, like man, "continueth not in one stay." One thing seems clear: In some parts of Virginia the day of the old-fashioned country gentleman farmer has waned. With the negroes it will probably go altogether. Let us all do our best to keep both a while longer to rebuild the burned mansions and fill again the empty houses.

Your Refrigerator Ready?

Get your refrigerator in order and have your indicators placed in a conspicuous place, for we are now ready to serve the public with ice, in large or small quantities.

Owing to the fact that we had so many complaints in past seasons of our men upsetting cream pitchers, etc., we are going to discontinue the practice of putting the ice in refrigerators, except in quantities of 50 pounds or over—less amounts will be left on porch, or where instructed.

Rates of Ice—75 cents per hundred; less than 100 pounds will be at the rate of 80 cents per hundred. This is in order to eliminate the odd cents in change.

I solicit your patronage and will endeavor to give polite and efficient service.

Collections will be made each Monday morning for the previous week. Persons failing to comply with these rules must not expect further service.

Thanking you for your past patronage, I am,

GOV. DAVIS NAMES ROAD BOARD

Gov. Davis recently announced the appointment of a board on road construction to advise in the adoption of a good roads program for Virginia. As chairman of the new board, which will be known as the "Governor's Advisory Board on Road Construction," the Governor has named Harry Frazier, of Richmond, who is considered one of the ablest consulting engineers in the state.

The other members of the board are Thomas S. Winston, of Midlothian, a member of Winston and Company, contractors, of Richmond; Senator J. E. West, of Suffolk, a member of the Senate committee on roads and internal navigation; Homer L. Ferguson, of Newport News Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Company; Fairfax Harrison, of Belvoir, president of the Southern Railway company; Wade H. Massie, of Washington, Va., a prominent farmer of Rappahannock county and a member of the executive committee of the Virginia Good Roads Association; and C. L. Bentley, of Roanoke, secretary of the Roanoke Trades and Labor Council.

It is understood that Governor Davis has created this board in order to bring to the assistance of the state the best engineering and business ability in Virginia in solving the road problem. The governor has stated that "there is no more vital problem confronting us today than our roads," and he has reiterated his pre-election pledge to "leave no stone unturned to give Virginia a system of modern, substantial highways," but he is determined that a procedure be adopted which will insure the tax payer getting real roads built on the ground and not paper roads for the money to be spent.

For the year ending February 29, 1920, there are now provided for or unexpended in the hands of the Auditor of Public Accounts approximately $4,800,000 available for road construction and maintenance in the state. Matching the federal aid dollar for dollar which is available for the three years 1919-1921, there will be an additional $10,000,000 to be spent on our highways. Thus, irrespective of whether a more extensive road program advocated by Governor Davis in his address before the Virginia Good Roads Association, is adopted or not, the road building organization and methods of the state are a serious consideration. A dollar's worth of properly constructed permanent roads is desired for every dollar spent, and it is to help accomplish this that the board has been called into existence.

The question of whether a special session of the General Assembly at this time will actually hasten road construction or not has been gone into from every angle by Governor Davis; and he said that he will take such action as may be necessary to secure for Virginia its full apportionment of federal aid, and which will actually hasten the building of good roads throughout the state. It is understood, however, that the governor wants to have the cost of an extra session of the General Assembly, if possible, and is opposed to increasing the tax burden unless the state is ready and fully prepared actively to launch at this time upon an extended road building program.

KEEP THE TOWN CLEAN

Now that spring has come, and the Civic League has gone into at least temporary inactivity—it will be necessary for our citizens to do individual premises, as well as house cleaning.

If each householder would keep his own place free from litter and if each pedestrian would be careful not to throw paper, fruit skins or other articles on other peoples' payments, we would be able to keep the town in a presentable condition.

Likewise, we could prevent dust clouds that annoy us and soil our clothing should each person sprinkle the street before his own property, whenever there is need during the spring and summer.

BRISTOW MAIL TROUBLE

Some complaint has come from our subscribers at Bristow, informing us that the paper is often not delivered on the rural route until Monday.

Inquiry at the Bristow post office has enabled us to learn that the papers, though leaving Manassas on the Friday afternoon train, do not arrive at Bristow until Saturday morning, after the carriers have started on their routes.

We will take up the matter with the postal authorities, as the trouble is evidently with the train postal clerks, who carry the packages of paper beyond Bristow and return them on the following day, thus preventing our subscribers from getting their copies on Saturday.

State of Virginia.

County of Prince William, ss.

Before me, a notary public in and for the State and county aforesaid, personally appeared D. R. Lewis, who, having been duly sworn according to law, deposes and says that he is the business manager of the Manassas Journal and that the following is, to the best of his knowledge and belief, a true statement of the ownership, management of the aforesaid publication for the date shown in the above caption, required by the Act of August 24, 1912, embodied in section 443, Postal Laws and Regulations, printed on the reverse of this form, to wit:

1. That the names and addresses of the publisher, editor, managing editor, and business manager are:

Publisher Manassas Journal Publishing Co., Inc., Manassas, Va.; Managing Editor and Business Manager, D. R. Lewis, Manassas, Va.

2. That the owners are: H. T. Davies, Manassas, Va.; D. R. Lewis, Manassas, Va.; W. N. Lipscomb Estate, Manassas, Va.; L. Frank Pattie Estate, Manassas, Va.; John J. Davies, Culpeper, Va.

3. That the known bondholders, mortgagees, and other security holders owning or holding 1 per cent or more of total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities are: None.

4. That the two paragraphs next above, giving the names of the owners, stockholders, and security holders, if any, contain not only the list of stockholders and security holders as they appear upon the books of the company but also, in cases where the stockholder or security holder appears upon the books of the company as trustee or in any other fiduciary relation, the name of the person or corporation for whom such trustee is acting, is given; also that the said two paragraphs contain statements embracing affiant's full knowledge and belief as to the circumstances and conditions under which stockholders and security holders who do not appear upon the books of the company as trustees, hold stock and securities in a capacity other than that of a bona fide owner; and this affiant has no reason to believe that any other person, association, or corporation has any interest direct or indirect in the said stock, bonds, or other securities than as so stated by him.

D. R. LEWIS, Business Manager.

the national joy smoke

NEVER was such right-handed-two-fisted smokejoy as you puff out of a jimmy pipe packed with Prince Albert! That's because P. A. has the quality!

You can't fool your taste apparatus any more than you can get five aces out of a family deck! So, when you hit Prince Albert coming and going, and get up half an hour earlier just to start smoking your pipe or rolling cigarettes, you know you've got the big prize on the end of your line!

Prince Albert's quality alone puts it in a class of its own, but when you figure that P. A. is made by our exclusive patented process that cuts out bite and parch—well—you feel like getting a flock of dictionaries to find enough words to express your happy days sentiments!

BRIEF LOCAL NEWS

There will be a dance on the evening of Tuesday, April 22, in Connor's Hall, at which all members of the Manassas German Club are invited.

Wagoner Robt. C. Byrne has returned to his father's home in Wiliston, Fla., having been honorably discharged from military service at Camp McClellan, Anniston, Ala.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. S. Halpenny, of Washington, were the week-end guests at the home of Mrs. Halpenny's brother, Mr. W. L. Rector. They also visited other relatives while here.

The board of directors of the Fair Association will hold a meeting for organization and furthering their plans tomorrow at 1:30 in the directors room of the Peoples National Bank.

Mrs. Margaret Pringle Lewis announces the engagement of her daughter, Margaret Benjamin, to Mr. Robert Loomis Myers. The marriage is to be solemnized at the home of Mrs. Lewis April the 16th.

Rev. William Stevens, the newly appointed pastor of the Methodist Church, arrived today and will conduct services for the first time on Sunday. His family will remain at Bridgewater until June, where his daughter is at school.

Mr. R. S. Arey, while trimming cedar posts on the Ben Lomond farm on Wednesday morning, met with what might have been a more serious accident. His axe slipped and cut a deep gash in the joint of the large toe on the left foot.

Mr. E. D. Wissler, of Wissler & Drumbheller, will move into Manassas, where the new mill proprietor, Mr. W. C. Ayler, of Culpeper, arrives, about April 28th, and occupy the home of Rev. Jesse M. Bell, near the graded school. He has not yet planned his future location in business. Mr. J. T. Drumbheller will remain at the mill to assist Mr. Ayler, about one month, or until he gets acquainted with the Millford situation.

Mr. Win H. Nelson, 401 Colorado Building, Washington, D. C., has resigned from the National War Labor Board and entered upon the practice of law at the above address. For many years he was with the Interstate Commerce Commission. He is a native of this county, and a bachelor of law of the University of Virginia. After leaving college he practiced for several years in Leesburg, Loudoun county. The varied government establishments, with which he has been connected, should equip him to handle the matters entrusted to him with success. We have no doubt he will get some of the big cases, which will arise out of war conditions, and we bespeak great success.

Mr. W. P. Shaw has purchased from Mr. Joseph Breeden the house and lot now occupied by him corner Church and Zebedee streets, the consideration being $1,200. Mr. Shaw will take possession May 1st.

Corporal Paul S. Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Williams, arrived in New York on Friday, April 4th, from overseas. He is now at Camp Upton, to be mustered out shortly. While in the service in France he was gassed and wounded.

It has been suggested that whatever form the proposed parade of welcome to our returning soldiers may take, that a banner with the following inscription be borne by a guard of honor selected from the Boy Scouts, marching immediately in advance of the military—Prince William's "Victory Loan" of men, is the pledge of Prince William's "Victory Loan" of money.

Rev. J. Halpenny has returned from the annual conference of the Methodist Church, held in Baltimore. The sessions were from Tuesday, April 1st, to last Monday, inclusive. Mr. Halpenny states this year's conference was the best he ever attended. The addresses were of an unusually high order and the indication of opened, inviting fields of Christian evangelism throughout the world were encouraging and impelling to activity.

The sound of the tadpole has been heard in the land for a couple of months, but the sight of the shirt-sleeve brigade was noticeable only this week. Men had shed overcoats previously, and now coat, vest and collar are gone. Teamsters and workmen are observed minus all these impediments and discomforts—as they can now be considered by persons engaged in manual labor. Straw hats also have appeared. Boys have not yet abandoned shoes and stockings. Indeed, children do not go barefooted as they did when some of us oldsters were youngsters. Pride in dress and appearance seem to be more prevalent among the youth of the twentieth century than was the case in the nineteenth. "The world do move."

Rev. O. Grey Hutchison, of Herford, Md., is a member of the Baltimore Baptist Ministerial Conference, which was entertained on Monday last by a similar Conference of the Washington Baptist ministers in the Calvary Church, corner 8th and H streets, N. W. Rev. Mr. Primm, one of the Baltimore ministers, read a highly instructive paper on "Bolshevism," which was prepared from the actual constitution of the Bolsheviks of Russia. Mr. Hutchison's father, Rev. Westwood Hutchison, met him in Washington and joined him at the dinner provided for the Baltimore ministers by those of Washington. Mr. Hutchison, with his son, W. Grey Hutchison spent the week here, returning today to his Maryland home.

TOWN COUNCIL

Postponed Meeting on Monday Night. Adjourned Meeting on Thursday.

On account of the lack of a quorum on Monday, March 31st, the regular date for the town council meeting, it was postponed to last Monday, when there were present Councilmen D. J. Arrington, T. F. Coleman, C. E. C. Johnson, C. E. Nash, Albert Speiden and H. D. Wemrich.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. All bills were ordered paid and the reports of Supt. Geo. L. Rosenberger, Sergeant C. H. Wine and Treasurer Harry P. Davis, were ordered filed.

The following resolution was adopted:

Whereas, It has been determined that the treasurer is unnecessarily burdened with the tax and license bills that the sergeant collects; and

Whereas, There are two bonds not properly balanced; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the tax and license bills be turned over to the sergeant by the council; the said sergeant to be charged with same and make report to the council at its regular meetings of the amount of money paid the treasurer during the month as a charge against said treasurer. The sergeant shall make transfer of said funds fortnightly, as provided by former resolution, each officer to be bonded in the sum of $2,000; and be it further

Resolved, That all resolutions or ordinances previously passed that interfere with this resolution be and they are hereby rescinded.

Adjourned to Thursday night for the purpose of arranging a mercantile business schedule.

Pursuant to adjournment on Monday night, the town council met last night.

Owing to the lack of a quorum, adjournment was again made this time to next Monday night, April 14.

GENEROUS TO REST ROOM

Mr. Ira C. Reid Donates $5 and Deducts $2 Monthly From Rent.

If all our citizens were as liberal to the Rest Room, this organization would prosper and each citizen could experience the truth of the assertion, "It is more blessed to give than to receive."

When Mrs. W. L. Sanders recently settled for the rent of the Rest Room, Mr. Ira C. Reid returned $5 of the amount paid. In addition he announced that hereafter the rent would be $8 instead of $10. Mr. Reid has thus subscribed $29 for the Rest Room for the year, and he will continue to contribute $24 annually as long as the Rest Room is in the Reid building and Mr. Reid continues as generously inclined, which, we hope and believe, will be coterminous with his life, if not afterward, by will.

This contribution of $5 is commendable, but, in the light of a general trend among property owners to raise rents, this decrease of 20 per cent in the rent—from $10 to $8—is exceedingly praiseworthy. With this excellent example before them the citizens of Manassas and the county—the latter get the most benefit from it—should come to the help of the Rest Room financially.

REV. H. Q. BURR LEAVES

Goes by Auto to His New Charge at Hamilton.

Rev. H. Q. Burr, the retiring pastor of the Manassas charge of the Methodist Church, South, which includes the organizations at Bradley and Buckhall, left yesterday for his new charge at Hamilton, Loudoun county. He travelled by car, as the parsonage here and at Hamilton are furnished, as is the case generally in the Methodist church, so that the pastors and their families nowadays need to transfer only their suit cases. Mr. Burr's family also went, with the exception of his daughter, Elizabeth, who will remain with Mrs. C. E. Simmons, until June, in order to finish her studies for the year at the high school. We wish Mr. Burr and his family much happiness and great success in their new home and church relations.

AUXILIARY POSTPONED

Members Will Consider How They Can Help the Fair Association.

Owing to the fact that Friday, April 18, is Good Friday, the Woman's Auxiliary will be held Friday, April 25. The meeting, as usual, will be held in the Manassas Agricultural High School building and will be called to order at 2:00 p. m. by the president, Mrs. Mae Degan.

It is urged that all members of the auxiliary be present and try to bring at least one new member.

This will be an unusually interesting meeting. The Prince William County Fair Association has been organized, and a good part of the meeting will be devoted to discussion of ways to

APRIL TERM CIRCUIT COURT

Settle Divorces Granted

Isabelle T. Labouisse vs. Peter R. Labouisse

It appearing to the court that the said Isabelle T. Labouisse, who is now Isabelle T. Smith, she having remarried, has suggested that this cause be now heard, and that the said Isabelle T. Smith and Peter R. Labouisse have entered into an agreement dated Nov. 8, 1918, in which the former agreements entered into between them are cancelled, and in which the custody of the infant son of said parties, Frederick Townsend Labouisse, is settled, and in which certain rights between the said Isabelle T. Smith and Peter R. Labouisse are also settled; and that said agreement is fair and is for the best interests of the said Frederick Townsend Labouisse; and that this decree has been seen and consented to by the said Isabelle T. Smith, it was ordered that the decree entered on April 4, 1917, be set aside in so far as it relates to the custody of the said Frederick Townsend Labouisse and the former agreement entered into between the said parties therein referred to, but otherwise to remain in full force, and that the said new agreement entered into between the said parties bearing date of Nov. 8, 1918, be ratified. This decree is final.

George Lathan Fletcher, administrator of Eustace Jeffries, deceased vs. Mary H. Jeffries, Nannie Antonasanti and James P. Jeffries. By consent of all parties this cause was set for hearing in vacation, at Alexandria, on Monday, May 6, at 11 a. m. The court left open the question of the right of two of the defendants, Nannie Antonasanti and James P. Jeffries, to file certain pleadings for determination by the judge, and directed the attorneys for said defendants to give copies of any such pleadings, proposed to be presented, to the counsel for complainants not later than April 28.

R. L. Gaither vs. Peoples National Bank of Manassas, C. A. Sinclair, trustee, and G. Raymond Ratcliffe, cashier. Final decree.

The report of bonded commissioner, C. A. Sinclair, bearing date of April 4, 1919, showing disbursement of all funds in his hands as such commissioner, to which report there were no exceptions, it was ordered that this said report be confirmed.

It was further ordered that the injunctions heretofore awarded in this cause be dissolved.

It appearing that on March 20, 1919, the said commission paid, out of funds paid the defendant, the Peoples National Bank of Manassas, Va., $5,164.18, on the debt of said bank heretofore established by decree in this cause against R. L. Gaither, leaving a balance due said bank of $1,251.14, as of March 20, 1919, it was further ordered that the Peoples National Bank of Manassas, Va., recover of the said R. L. Gaither $1,251.14, with interest thereon from March 20, 1919, and its costs; and that the said bank do have execution therefor. This decree is final.

Amie Ethel Gray vs. James E. Gray. Decree. Divorce.

It appearing to the court that since the decree for divorce was entered in this cause, the complainant has married one King, and the defendant has also married; and it further appearing that the complainant and the defendant have agreed upon a sum in full of all arrears of alimony and for the support of their infant child, she deceased her in this suit, and in full satisfaction of all further claims for alimony and maintenance of said child, which sum has been paid to the complainant by the defendant, it was ordered that the decree heretofore entered in this suit be modified by removing all claims of alimony and maintenance; and that the defendant, James E. Gray, be relieved from all further claims of the complainant, Amie Ethel Gray (now Amie Ethel King) for alimony, for maintenance of said child, and for all other claims based on their former matrimonial relation or said decree; and that the rights of the complainant, including that of dower the property of the defendant, whether property heretofore or hereafter acquired, be fully terminated; and that likewise the rights of the defendant, including that of dower, in the property of the complainant, whether property heretofore or hereafter acquired, be fully terminated. This decree is final.

Monday, April 7th.

Frank C. Brooks, who has been duly licensed to practice law in the courts of this commonwealth, was, on motion of Judge E. S. Turner, admitted to practice law in this court, and qualified by taking the oath as prescribed by law.

A list of writings admitted to record during and since the last term of court, after examination by the court, were ordered filed.

The sheriff's list of prisoners confined in the county jail on April 7, 1919, was transmitted by the court and ordered filed.

J. F. Adams, foreman, W. S. Evans, E. G. W. Keys, J. S. Evans, P. M. Botley, L. T. Carter, T. H. Athey and E. E. Molair were sworn in as a special grand jury of inquest. They later brought in the following indictments, after which they were discharged:

C. J. Nobles, G. H. Connors and H. Iedal, misdemeanors.

In the case of the Commonwealth vs. C. J. Nobles and H. Iedal, by consent of the attorney for the Commonwealth and the prisoners, the trial was heard without a jury, and it appearing to the court that there had been no intentional violation of the prohibition law in either case, a jail sentence was not imposed, but both prisoners, who had been in jail awaiting trial, were fined $50 and costs, a total of about $65. Both fine and costs were paid and the prisoners discharged.

In the case against G. H. Connors, the prisoner was remanded to jail until fine and costs were paid.

In the case of A. Woolfenden, who was committed to the county jail, the court ordered that he be released on his own recognizance.

Thursday, April 10th.

The Peoples National Bank of Manassas vs. The Gaither Construction Co., Inc. Decree.

The report of commissioner of said C. A. Sinclair, dated April 7, 1919, to which there were no exceptions, was confirmed and the sale of the land involved in this cause to the Peoples National Bank of Manassas, for the sum of $235 was confirmed; and C. A. Sinclair, who was appointed a special commissioner for the purpose, was directed to convey the same to the said bank.

And C. A. Sinclair was directed to pay the expense of the said sale and the costs of this suit and to pay the balance of the purchase money to the Peoples National Bank of Manassas, to be credited on its judgment against the Gaither Construction Co., Inc. and also to be credited on the judgment of the said bank against R. L. Gaither awarded on April 7, 1919; and the said bonded commissioner shall report his acts under this decree to the court.

J. H. C. Goldborough et als vs. C. M. Gilbert. Final decree. It appearing to the court that Aubrey G. Weaver has this day paid to Robert A. Hutchison, as attorney for complainants, $712, which sum is accepted by complainants in full of their claims in this suit, it was ordered, on motion of the complainants, that the said suit be dismissed.

It was further ordered that Robert A. Hutchison, who was appointed special commissioner for that purpose, execute a deed with covenants of special warranty, to Charles E. Wilkinson and Laura E. Wilkinson, for all of the undivided interest of the complainants in the "Dower Lot" in the bill and proceedings mentioned, whether as heirs of their mother Laura Turner Goldborough, or their grandmother Mary Jane Carter, or their grandfather John Hill Carter, or their uncle J. C. Carter and Longborough Carter. This decree was final.

Cora L. Jackson vs. Clarence Jackson. Decree. The court ordered that the injunction heretofore awarded in this matter be continued until the further order of this court, the same being modified to the extent of permitting the defendant to visit his children at the residence of the plaintiff every Sunday until the further order of this court.

The court further ordered that, in accordance with the said agreement, the said defendant, Clarence Jackson, shall pay to the said plaintiff, Cora L. Jackson, or her attorney, $6 per week, the first payment to be made April 12, 1919, and other payments on each Saturday thereafter, until the further order of this court, and that said defendant pay forthwith the cost of this suit to date.

On motion of the plaintiff the court ordered that this cause be placed upon the suspended chancery docket of this court, the same to be replaced on the active docket upon the motion of either party thereto.

Wednesday, April 9th.

Sampson Beavers vs. Ada Ethel Beavers. Decree. It appearing that, independently of the admissions of either party in the pleadings or otherwise, that the said parties were lawfully married on October 8, 1906; that more than three years prior to the institution of this suit the said defendant willfully and without cause abandoned the complainant, which desertion has continued to this time; that the said complainant and defendant last cohabitated in this county; and that the complainant has been domiciled in Prince William county, for more than one year next preceding the commencement of this suit, the court ordered that the said Sampson Beavers and the said Ada Ethel Beavers be divorced.

The court further ordered that the custody of James Beavers, the infant son of the said Sampson Beavers and the said Ada Ethel Beavers, be awarded to the said Sampson Beavers. This decree is final.

Common Law.

Monday, April 7th.

Frank C. Brooks, who has been duly licensed to practice law in the courts of this commonwealth, was, on motion of Judge E. S. Turner, admitted to practice law in this court, and qualified by taking the oath as prescribed by law.

A list of writings admitted to record during and since the last term of court, after examination by the court, were ordered filed.

The sheriff's list of prisoners confined in the county jail on April 7, 1919, was transmitted by the court and ordered filed.

J. F. Adams, foreman, W. S. Evans, E. G. W. Keys, J. S. Evans, P. M. Botley, L. T. Carter, T. H. Athey and E. E. Molair were sworn in as a special grand jury of inquest. They later brought in the following indictments, after which they were discharged:

C. J. Nobles, G. H. Connors and H. Iedal, misdemeanors.

In the case of the Commonwealth vs. C. J. Nobles and H. Iedal, by consent of the attorney for the Commonwealth and the prisoners, the trial was heard without a jury, and it appearing to the court that there had been no intentional violation of the prohibition law in either case, a jail sentence was not imposed, but both prisoners, who had been in jail awaiting trial, were fined $50 and costs, a total of about $65. Both fine and costs were paid and the prisoners discharged.

In the case against G. H. Connors, the prisoner was remanded to jail until fine and costs were paid.

In the case of A. Woolfenden, who was committed to the county jail, the court ordered that he be released on his own recognizance.

Thursday, April 10th.

The Peoples National Bank of Manassas vs. The Gaither Construction Co., Inc. Decree.

The report of commissioner of said C. A. Sinclair, dated April 7, 1919, to which there were no exceptions, was confirmed and the sale of the land involved in this cause to the Peoples National Bank of Manassas, for the sum of $235 was confirmed; and C. A. Sinclair, who was appointed a special commissioner for the purpose, was directed to convey the same to the said bank.

surety in the sum of $300. The court ordered Robt. A. Hutchison, commissioner of accounts, to examine the official bond of Treasurer J. P. Leachman and report to the court at its next term whether the said bond is sufficient in all respects and at the same time certify a copy of such report to the auditor of public accounts.

Katie M. Horton qualified as guardian for her three minor children, Lucille M., Elroy W. and Bradford W., in the sum of $600 with Thomas H. Lion as surety.

E. C. Gibson, having attended three days at the February term of court as a petit juror but having been allowed only two days' payment by mistake by the clerk in writing the order for payment of petit jurors, the court ordered that he be paid $2.50 for attendance and mileage.

In the case of Reuben A. Powell vs. T. O. Latham, assumpsit, the jury rendered a verdict for the plaintiff for the sum of $583.73 with interest from October, 1916. The defendant moved the court to grant him a new trial on the ground that the same is contrary to law and the evidence, misdirection of the court, and other errors, which motion the court overruled, to which ruling the defendant, by counsel, excepted. The court ordered that the plaintiff recover of the defendant $583.73 with interest from October 14, 1916, and costs, to which the defendant excepted and signified his intention of applying to the supreme court of appeals of Virginia for a writ of error to the said judgment. The execution of said judgment was suspended for 90 days, on condition that the defendant, within ten days from the rising of this court, give bond in the sum of $250 with approved security.

In the case of S. H. Hinegardner vs. Southern Railway company, upon motion of defendant's counsel, Walker D. Hines, director general of railroads, was substituted in the place of the Southern Railway company as defendant. Counsel for defendant demurred, but the court considered the declaration was sufficient in law and overruled the demurrer, whereupon the defendant's counsel entered an objection to the court's action and the case was continued until Tuesday.

Tuesday, April 8th.

The jury rendered a verdict in favor of the defendant, who was allowed costs, in the case of S. H. Hinegardner vs. Walker D. Hines, director general of railroads.

In the clerk's office of the circuit court of the county of Prince William, on the 25th day of March, 1919, LONNIE S. SUTTON, Plaintiff, vs. CLARA SUTTON, Defendant.

The object of this suit is to obtain for the plaintiff an absolute divorce from the defendant on the ground of wilful desertion and abandonment continuing for more than three years next preceding the commencement of this suit, and for general relief.

And an affidavit having been made and filed, according to law, that the defendant in the above entitled cause is a non-resident of the State of Virginia. And an application for this order of publication, setting forth that the last known place of address of the said defendant was Oceola, Arkansas, having been made in writing and duly granted by the clerk of this court.

It is therefore ordered that the said defendant do appear here within seven days after due publication hereof and do what is necessary to protect her interests in this suit.

It is further ordered that a copy of this order be published once a week for four successive weeks in The Manassas Journal, a newspaper printed and published in the county of Prince William, Virginia; that a copy of the same be sent by registered mail, by the clerk of this court, addressed to the said Clara Sutton, at Oceola, Arkansas; that a copy be posted at the front door of the courthouse of this county on or before the 31st day of March, 1919, that being the next succeeding Rule Day after this order was entered.

Former Virginia Pays Tribute to Eighth District Candidate for Congressional Honors.

ADVERTISEMENTS From The Enterprise, Hamilton, Va., April 4, 1918.

Editor Enterprise: Will you allow a former Loudoun citizen to say a few words in your excellent paper apropos the coming election for a representative in Congress from the Eighth District to succeed Hon. C. C. Carlin, resigned.

With all due respect and courtesy for those who have represented the Eighth in the House of Representatives for the past two decades, as well as others who have aspired and now aspire to that honor, it must be said that the coming election for a representative in Congress from the Eighth District to succeed Hon. C. C. Carlin, resigned.

It is such an opportunity that there is no doubt of his nomination and election. But the writer thinks that the people of the Eighth District should be so pleased with such an opportunity that they would make his election unanimous.

He is just the type of man that is needed in public life today—one who is progressively conservative and conservatively progressive.

As one who loves old Virginia and her history and especially the Eighth District, I'll sign myself as below, because once a Virginian always a VIRGINIAN.

NOTICE TO TEACHERS

Beginning this year there will be but one state examination instead of two as formerly. The regular state examination for applicants to teach will be held on Friday and Saturday, May 2 and 3, 1919.

The examination in classics will be based on Longfellow's Evangeline and Washington's Farewell Address and Webster's Bunker Hill Oration. An examination in elementary algebra will be required this year for the first grade certificate.

There will be no state examination offered in the summer time as heretofore, but all state examinations are limited to the spring examinations.

Respectfully submitted, CHAS. R. McDONALD, Div. Superintendent.

"FINI LA GUERRE"

Private Fred Sabine of Co. D of the 103rd Machine Gun Company has written a poem, "Finis la guerre," in which he tells of his experiences when the armistice was signed and peace came over the shell torn battlefields.

It was a day in cool November When we made our last advance Across a field of shell holes Which is far away in France.

There was a meeting on in Paris, About what not one of us could tell, And it seemed as if the shells that came Would send us all to hell.

There were thousands of them flying, Each with its deadly sound, And some of our men still sleep today Beneath the hard, cold ground.

On we went, though some had fallen, And we all were nearing death, For the air that we were breathing Was half poison every breath.

The fog was heavy, like a curtain, And it hid us from the foe, Yet we went on steadily forward, I'll admit 'twas very slow.

I was tired and slow and stumbling And each step I thought I'd drop, When up from the rear a rumor came With orders for us to stop.

We stopped and sat in shell holes, And the shells were flying high, And once in awhile a machine gun Would open and let 'em fly.

It was three minutes of eleven, When we heard the rumor first, And every gun was shooting fast, It's a wonder they didn't burst.

We sat around and talked and cursed And bared our souls to heaven, When, as if by magic, the gunfire stopped, And my watch was just eleven.

There were hours of watchful waiting, And hardly a man dared speak, It seemed as if the quiet that reigned Was nothing but a freak.

We sat and stared for hours and hours, And not a gun was fired, And then the real truth came to us, The Germans had grown tired.

Tired of war, which they themselves Had brought on peaceful nations; They fought to kill and slaughter and spoil, As it seemed for recreation.

Night on as we sat waited And the air was very cold, So we built a fire and sat around As in wars of which Grandad told.

Our fires seemed a signal to celebrate, And the Boches then followed suit, And thousands of flames then lit up the skies, Like they do when the big guns shoot.

This went on till daylight came, And the men were very tired, But they picked up their guns, like men that they are, And by the prospects of peace inspired.

We hiked for miles o'er shell scarred road And finally got to the rear, Where we dropped like a bunch of men half dead Without a word of cheer.

After that we hiked for days, With very little rest, But now that we're here, with our work well done, We're glad that we did our best.

IT'S ALL IN THE STATE OF MIND

If you think you are beaten, you are, If you think that you dare not, you don't, If you'd like to win, but you think you can't,

It's almost a "cinch" you won't, If you think you're lost, you're lost, For out in the world you find Success begins with a fellow's will— It's all in the state of mind.

Full many a race is lost Ere even a step is run, And many a coward fails Ere even his work's begun. Think big, and your deeds will grow; Think small, and you'll fall behind. Think that you can and you will— It's all in the state of mind.

If you think you're outclassed, you are; You've got to think high to rise. You've got to be sure of yourself before You ever can win a prize. Life's battles don't always go To the stronger or faster man, But soon or late the man who wins Is the fellow who thinks he can.
