Mr. William Crow, a leading member of Joplin community, presided, introducing the speakers, who were as follows:

At the close of the political program ice cream was sold for a community benefit.

CITIZENS NOW TO HELP BOY SCOUTS

Advisory Council of Adult Members Planned by National Scout Committee.

(W. I. Steere, County Chairman)

No more important move has been made in America than the effort now launched by the Boy Scouts of America to largely multiply their numerical strength and usefulness in their great uplift movement for better citizenship.

Ex-Secretary William G. McAdoo is chairman of the committee for this nation-wide campaign and William H. Taft, Frank Morrison, Theodore Roosevelt, jr., Charles M. Schwab and many other of national fame are members of the committee.

President Woodrow Wilson issued a splendid proclamation dated May first, from which for lack of space we can only quote the following: "The Boy Scout movement should not only be preserved but strengthened. It deserves the support of all public-spirited citizens. The available means for the Boy Scout movement have thus far sufficed for the organization and training of only a small proportion of the boys of the country. There are approximately 10,000,000 boys in the United States between the ages of twelve and twenty-one. Of these only 376,000 are enrolled as members of the Boy Scouts of America.

"America cannot acquit herself commensurately with her power and influence in the great period now facing her and the world unless the boys of America are given better opportunities than heretofore to prepare themselves for the responsibilities of citizenship."

To secure the medium and influence through which alone this great growth can be made possible, the mothers and fathers and other adults of our country are asked to become interested and committed personally.

And so the goal of this nation-wide campaign is to secure at least a million associate members of the National Council of the Boy Scouts of America. The prospective member signs an application addressed to William G. McAdoo, national chairman, and pays to the general treasury the small dues of one dollar. The associate members thus secured will unite to form in a given community a citizen's committee and several such committees may and should be formed in our country. One will soon be called to organize at Manassas.

The duties of individual members will not be exacting, and only occasional meetings will be necessary. The officers and executive committee, which you will elect, for given terms, will carry the burden of the work. The budget for local expense will be light and will not be made to embarrass anyone; but we need the full moral support of the community.

There is but one troop of Boy Scouts in our county—that at Manassas, under the efficient leadership of Scoutmaster Bibb. Haven't we reason for ten such?

Mothers and fathers of Prince William county, will you join us in this good cause? You may have sons who should be led to realize how desirable it is to become a Boy Scout and to learn to do all the good and useful things a boy should know and do; and on the other hand to learn to stand by his own increased sense of honor and discipline of the Scout law that he and other bad practices by which he is tempted. Please make connection the Scout oath: "In honor, I will do my best, 1. To be true to God and my country; 2. To help others at all times; 3. To keep myself physically strong, mentally alert and morally straight."

Let us thus help as many boys as we can to take and live up to this Scout law in our communities as well as in our country at large?

Some member of the soliciting committee will call upon you for the name of your committee.

Miss Lillian V. Gilbert, Mrs. Walter Sanders, Messrs. R. O. Bibb, Ralph Larsen and W. I. Steere constitute said committee, and Mr. G. Raymond Ratcliffe is treasurer.

Capt. C. Keith Carlin, son of former Representative Carlin, has returned from overseas. Capt. Carlin for the past twenty-six months has been in the army, having served most of the time overseas with the 36th Coast Artillery. He has been made commissioner of accounts of the Alexandria corporation.

JOHN C. WHITMER DIES IN RAILROAD ACCIDENT

Motor Car Jumps Track at Greensboro, N. C.—Funeral Here Tomorrow.

John Casper Whitmer, a former resident of Manassas, was killed yesterday at Greensboro, N. C., when a railroad motor truck in which he was riding jumped the track. He was a section foreman and had moved from Manassas to Greensboro about a year ago.

Funeral services will be held at two o'clock tomorrow at Bethel Lutheran Church, of which he was a member, and interment will be in the family lot in the Lutheran cemetery near Buckhall. Rev. Edgar Z. Pence will officiate.

Mr. Whitmer was born fifty-six years ago in Rockingham county and came to Prince William in 1884. He is survived by four daughters and two sons, Mrs. William Evans, of Buckhall; Mrs. Virgie Payne, of Washington; Misses Mary Anne and Clara Whitmer, of Greensboro; Charles F. LAWN FETE AT COUNTRY HOME

Proceeds of Festival at Hazen Home to Be Used in Erection of School Building.

The country home of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin C. Hazen, near Nokesville, was the scene of a largely attended lawn festival on the evening of the Fourth of July, the gratifying returns of which will be used in the erection of the new school building at King's Cross Roads. The lawn was brightly lighted with Japanese lanterns and flare lights.

In addition to the sale of refreshments, which are particularly appealing at the close of a July day, Hon. C. J. Meetze, of Manassas, made a patriotic address and an elaborate program was rendered by the pupils of the school and musical talent from Washington. The children gave recitations and the musical numbers included old songs, piano solos and other numbers, all of which were heartily applauded.

A great deal of community spirit has been aroused by the need of the new school building and neighbors are joining hands to see that it will be ready for occupancy when the fall term opens. The building is to have two class rooms on the first floor, with a hall above for the use of the community for church services, Sunday School and other purposes.

CLEAN UP DAYS FOR NEXT WEEK

Mayor Orders General Clean-up of Premises—Health Officer to Make Inspection.

Mayor Wagener, at the instance of the Manassas Good Housekeepers' Club, has named the concluding days of next week for a general clean-up of the town. The Boy Scouts have contracted to haul away the refuse which cannot be burned to the dumping ground on the land of Henry Norris near the coalbin. The scouts will charge property owners for this service at the rate of twenty-five cents per barrel, the money to be collected at the time and turned into the Boy Scouts' treasury. Property owners are expected to have all refuse ready to be hauled away when the wagons furnished by Mr. Sanders start on their rounds.

Every householder is urged by Mayor Wagener to observe this order without delay, as Dr. J. C. Meredith, town health officer, under recent instructions of the town council, will make a tour of inspection of all premises immediately after the clean-up campaign. If the order is not complied with, householders will be reported to the Mayor and doubtless compelled to clean up in the interest of a sanitary town.

ENGLAND AND FRANCE OUR FRIENDS

There are many people in this country trying to stir up our people against England and France so as to start trouble between us and our allies and to give the Germans a chance to get even with all three nations by getting us into trouble among ourselves. Many real so-called Americans have been fooled into such ideas by crafty German agents and paid with German money—made out of German-owned American industries—to agitate Americans against England and France, our friends and allies.—South-ern Progress.

IF

While the world looks a little brighter to us at this particular moment, the following editorial from our neighboring contemporary, the London Times, gives an entertaining picture of today:

Should the graves of our fathers open and the dead arise again, the world of today would stun them when compared with the world of their day, and the more they would see of the present, the more they would wonder at the past, and the more they would ponder over the words, "Oh death, where is thy sting?" The Virginia colonel whom they left peacefully sipping a big mint julep, beneath the shade of a mighty oak on his spacious lawn, or brewing an apple toddy before the big open fire in his spacious hall, they would find today sneaking up a side alley to meet a criminal boot-legger in order to buy a quart of rot-gut liquor, composed of some cheap-Baltimore whiskey and a lot of Jamaica ginger and potato water. They would find the Amen-howler, who used to work hard for his living on week days and get his recreation by yelling Amens at the preacher on Sundays now being supported in luxury by a demi-political organization advocating reformation and practicing degradation. They would find the sweet old fashioned mother, with her hair dyed red, standing on a soap box, surrounded by a city crowd, waving a yellow flag and yelling at the top of her voice, "Give us ballots and booze or we will pull all the hair off America." They would find the cooks at farmer kitchens, the mistresses of present homes. They would find the women of their land working as farm-ettes in the fields, while the men are looking in hollow stumps for bottle bait to go fishing with. They would find soldiers who left their homes as heroes being greeted on their return from war as common every day mortals, even though their deeds of valor saved the world for God. They would find that a man in a soldier's uniform means nothing more to the stay-at-homes of war, than a man in a nineteenth century cotton suit sold as all wool, and the false label on it sanctioned by the conservation department of the government. They would find our government so in debt that the people of their generation never could have paid it even if they had worked as hard as the slaves of Egypt and lived as long as Methuselah. They would find the horse used as a tin can product, and the mule a neighbor to the sebra in a zoo. They would find the silver the king of the roads and a sixteen hour schedule inaugurated between America and Europe. They would find ships built that travel beneath the sea and boats constructed that traverse both sea and air. They would find Congress acting like a Colonial Dame convention the night before its annual election for president. They would find the White House closed and our President on an indefinite visit to Paris. They would be glad to return to their open graves singing as they marched there, "Oh, death where is thy sting?"

Bats should be protected. Every bat will destroy hundreds of mosquitoes and gnats and other busy trouble-makers on summer evenings.

WHEN TO QUIT

When the grasshopper ceases to hop
 And the cows quit bawling,
 When the fishes no longer hop,
 And the baby stops squalling,
 When the dunnor no longer duns
 And the hoot owl quits hooting,
 When the rivers ever cease to run,
 And the burglar stops his looting,
 When the vine no longer twines
 And the skylark stops his larking,
 When the sun no longer shines
 And the young men quit sparking,
 When the heavens begin to drop
 And the old maids stop advising,
 Then—it is time to shut up shop
 And quit your advertising.

Mr. Ritcor and his brother were returning from Leesburg in his automobile when they met a machine stalled for lack of gasoline. He was carried to Leesburg, where it was found that his hands and arms had been badly burned. He is now in the Loudoun Hospital, where the wounds are responding to treatment.

Happy Hooligan, a Boston bull terrier, left Manassas via express Wednesday morning for his new home at Flint, Mich., where he will join his master and mistress, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur P. Heymond. Happy came to Manassas several months ago when Mr. and Mrs. Heymond, formerly of Annapolis, Md., were visiting Mr. Heymond's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ashby Lewis. He was somewhat reluctant to leave his adopted home, probably failing to understand that his master and mistress were at the other end of the journey. Some foxhounds bound for San Francisco happened to choose the same train and it is thought that after making their acquaintance Happy was better satisfied to continue the trip.

The Wirthmor Waist The Welworth Blouse New Blouses at $2.50 that pictures can't do full justice COULD YOU BUT SEE HOW Wirthmor Waists are made then you would understand how waists so good can be sold for a price so low. Illustrating a lovely Blouse is something like trying to describe a beautiful painting; it can never be adequately done. And that's the situation when it comes to some of the Blouses that we have here at this modest price; illustrations could do them but scant justice. This can be said of each and every one of them: that they are decidedly exceptional at the price. The Blouse here illustrated is a Welworth, a worthy member of the family Blouses that is known and respected from Coast to Coast and in practically every city of consequence. Other equally attractive models will go on sale tomorrow. Welworth and Wirthmor Waists can be sold in just one Good Store in each city, and in this town are sold here only. The name WIRTHMOR on a Blouse is a symbol of QUALITY; it is assurance of the utmost in STYLE, FIT, WORKMANSHIP and FINISH for the price you pay. It further evidences the fact that it was produced where the most wholesome working conditions prevail. Large size Waists in the Wirthmor line up to 52. The products of the WIRTHMOR factory can be sold in just one good store in every city and are sold here only. $1.50 is the price of the Wirthmor here and everywhere. It is a price made possible by the greatest efficiency of production, by manufacturing on a vast scale, by the elimination of all selling expense. It is a SUPERIOR way of Blouse making and Blouse selling that makes these SUPERIOR VALUES possible. The Same New Styles The Nation Over The Same Low Prices The Nation Over

HAYMARKET

A large congregation which more than filled the church, was present at St. Paul's on Sunday morning, when Bishop Brown confirmed a class of twenty-two persons and preached a beautiful and impressive sermon. The music included "Lead's Te Deum in E flat, Nevin's Jubilate in B flat major and the offertory anthem, "Seek Ye the Lord," the solo parts of which were taken by Mrs. W. D. Baker.

Bishop Brown confirmed a class of six persons and preached at the Church of Our Savior, at Georgetown, on Sunday afternoon.

It was a great disappointment that owing to an important business engagement in Richmond the Bishop was unable to remain over Monday for the service at Grace Chapel, Hickory Grove, where a lunch was to have been given in his honor, to be followed by a reception at Haymarket that afternoon.

Miss Virginia Boxley, Miss Josephine Peters, Mr. Gustav Peters, Mr. F. B. Price, jr., and Mr. Simpson Buckley motored to Culpeper for the horse show on Saturday.

We understand that Mr. Albert Utterback captured several blue ribbons with his racers, "All Star," and "Miss McGiggle."

Few farmers realize that while grass may be of help to the land, the running of land to pasture, constantly fed on by stock, is a good way to run down the fertility of the land, especially in phosphates. Treated in this way, the hill pasture soon becomes a "southern" pasture—a place where no grass grows.—W. F. Massey, in the Southern Planter.

THREE SCOUTS RECEIVE ACE MEDAL IN CAMPAIGN

Trophies Awarded by National War Savings Committee for Service in 1918.

The Ace medals offered to Boy Scouts by the National War Savings Committee for service in the 1918 campaign have been awarded to three Manassas scouts. Scout Allison A. Hooff, jr., has received a medal with three silver and four bronze palms; Scout Ralph Larson, one silver and four bronze palms, and Marvin Rice, a former scout, one silver and nine bronze palms.

To win the ace medal a scout must sell War Savings or Thrift stamps to at least twenty-five individuals, the total subscriptions amounting to $250 or more. After the ace medal has been won the scout receives a bronze palm for each $100 worth that he sells, and after gaining ten of these he trades them for a silver palm.

MEETZE BRANDS STATEMENTS AS FALSE

Statements are being circulated throughout the Fourteenth Senatorial district to the effect that I introduced a bill in the House of Delegates, having for its object the erection or maintenance of a colored school in consideration of the support of the colored people in a former campaign for the House of Delegates. This statement I brand as untrue and without foundation and was known to be maliciously untrue to the party or parties originating the falsehood. It also has been brought to my attention that I am being accused of having charged for my services as director of the War Savings Stamps campaign for the 8th district, and that I charged draftees for filling out questionnaires. This also is as false as the former statement, and had I been guilty of such conduct I would have been a craven snicker and profiteer.

PRINCE WILLIAM PHARMACY

The Guaranteed Dairy Ration

THERE SHOULD BE nothing mysterious about a proper dairy ration. We all know just what it should contain in order to produce the desired results. The experiment stations settled that matter long ago. It's simply a question of getting the best ingredients, in unvarying quantities, at a price that will permit of a fair profit for the man who feeds it.

We have such in LARRO-FEED. It is a complete ration ready to feed, palatable and bulky, and the various ingredients of such a quality and so well proportioned that in spite of all the different conditions under which dairymen are feeding, we are willing to guarantee one of three propositions:

- (1) More milk; (2) or lower cost of feed; (3) or greater convenience without added cost or decrease in milk. Just what you can do with LARRO-FEED depends on how good a ration you have; but it will have to be a pretty good one if LARRO-FEED cannot beat it.
