Work that really tests your overalls

WHEN you're doing real work—climbing, stooping and bending—

That's when you find out what your overalls are good for—how strong the cloth really is—

That's when they bind if they're not made right.

It's hard work like this that really tests your overalls. And it's for just this kind of hard work that Blue Buckle Overalls are specially made.

"I wear Blue Buckles on every run. They're tough as raw hide and fit easy all the time."
John Heberer Engineer of the 20th Century Limited

The toughest, longest-wearing denim goes into every pair—with wide double-stitched seams that don't rip. They are big and roomy with extra wide suspenders. Every detail of Blue Buckles has careful workmanship—a solid back-band, best quality brass buckles and loops, raglan sleeves in the coats, big convenient pockets, and every pocket is reinforced.

Next time you buy overalls ask for Blue Buckles.

AN INTERESTING RUMOR
 It, as reported in the latest news dispatches from Washington, President Wilson is preparing to place the support of the administration back of the candidacy of Senator Gilbert M.
 Hitchcock, of Nebraska, and the latter is successful in his fight with Bryan, to be decided at the Nebraska primaries next month, Hitchcock will occupy an undoubted position of vantage at the San Francisco convention. The news dispatches referred to are of particular interest and significance at this time in view of the fact that the Nebraska Senator just a few days since announced himself favorable to a change in the Volstead act by which the use of light wines and beers would be permitted. It will be remembered that President Wilson has always been in favor of these lighter beverages and the President is politician enough to realize that a number of states, generally republican, can probably be won by the democrats, provided a candidate is nominated whose views on this question are more or less liberal.
 Again if the treaty is to be the issue or one of the many issues in the campaign Hitchcock is perhaps the logical man to make the fight. Of course there may be nothing in this talk and the President may support Palmer, McAdoo or some other candidate or he may decline to be drawn into the fight but the report that the administration is behind Hitchcock is nevertheless interesting.
 Developments in a few weeks should demonstrate whether there is any truth in same. One thing, however, is certain, Hitchcock's nomination means the defection of Mr. Bryan.—Free Lance.

SAVE ON MEAT
 Although prices continue to soar, new avenues of saving open up every day. Beginning with this issue of The Journal, we shall print for some weeks money-saving meat recipes prepared by the Division of Women's Activities, United States Department of Justice.
 The women campaigners against H.
 C. L. tell us that the woman who confines her purchases to the so-called choice cuts of hindquarter meats may master the art of preparing palatably the less expensive cuts from the forequarter, and thereby effect a considerable saving while preparing a thoroughly appetizing and nutritious dish.
 The two essentials of good cookery are appetizing attractiveness and satisfactory food value, both of which are emphasized in these recipes. Try them and they will suggest others to you.

 has a message worth repeating.

THE HOUSE AT EVENING
 Across the school ground—it would start
 To light my eyes, that yellow gleam—
 The window of the flaming heart,
 The chimney of the tossing dream,
 The scuffed and wooded porch of Heaven,
 The voice that came like a caress,
 The warm kind hands that once were given
 My carelessness.
 It was a house you would not think could hold such sacraments in things Or give the wild heart meat and drink,
 Or give the stormy soul high wings,
 Or give small voices to such mirth,
 Or crown the night with stars and flowers,
 Or wake upon this quaking earth
 Such steady hours.

In a storm it stood secure,
 In the cold was warm with love,
 In its solitude endure
 The sighs that men weary of Where we were out of fortune's
 And a

1/3 Less Coal- 1/2 More Heat

You can save from a third to a half of your fuel and have a much warmer home than ever before if you will install a CALORIC.

The CALORIC is the remarkable furnace that heats without pipes, through only one register. It circulates heat by Nature's own method, forcing warm air up into the entire house and drawing cool air down into the furnace to be reheated and purified.

The CALORIC heats practically all types of homes, bungalow or three-story house, up to eighteen rooms. It keeps kitchens and back bedrooms just as comfortable and warm as the rest of the house. Also heats churches, factories, stores and other business buildings. More than 50,000 already installed.

The CALORIC can be installed in new or old houses—no cutting of walls for pipes and no interference with present system of heating. It burns coal, oil, gas, wood or lignite, and saves from one-third to one-half the fuel.

FAUQUIER NURSE MAKES ADDRESS

Miss Kloman Speaks on Social Service Careers at High School Assembly.

Miss Agnes P. Kloman, Fauquier county public health nurse, addressed an assembly at the high school this morning in the interest of social service training, this assembly being one of the vocational education series inaugurated last fall. The speaker was introduced by Miss E. H. Osbourn, principal of the school.

In the opening words of her address Miss Kloman declared that social service is prehistoric. Christ was our greatest social service worker, she said, and it is the happiest work one can do.

The speaker traced the history of the social service movement from its first real organization in the seventeenth century.

She referred to the deaconess work, the ministry of Florence Nightingale, to Dr. Richard Cabot, who, interned at a hospital, discovered that public clinics were not successful, because the doctors could not follow them up, and inaugurated follow-up work; Miss Lillian Waters, a nurse in New York's East side, whose sympathies led her to dedicate her life to slum work and who built a wonderful home and theatre attached right in the East side, now known as the House on Henry Street; Thomas Mott Osborn, keeper of Sing Sing, whose career suggests a wonderful field for boys; Dr. Grenfal, of Greenland, who is doing wonderful work as a real missionary doctor, and the three Miss Merritts, who went as missionaries to China.

Miss Kloman pointed out other fields of social service work including city playground instruction (Miss Kloman herself was at one time a playground nurse in Baltimore); Associated Charities, home and school visiting and similar activities in mines, factories, etc.

In discussing the preparation necessary for such a career, Miss Kloman declared the student should have as much college work as possible. Nursing is not necessary, but a great help. The salaries run from $1,400 to $3,000 for efficient service.

Mr. Leon Waters presided over the assembly. The program in addition to Miss Kloman's address included a reading, "Good Citizenship," by William Hill Brown; a piano duet by Misses Catharine Weir and Elizabeth Pope, the Lord's Prayer which was recited as an opening exercise, selections by the boys' and girls' glee clubs and a chorus by the school.

—Dr. Edgar C. Harper, county health officer, Mr. W. L. Browning, county agent, and Mr. H. W. Sanders, agricultural director of the high school, made addresses last night at a meeting of the school league at Waterfall. They carried a stereopticon outfit, which added to the evening's entertainment.

THE SCHOOL NEEDS IT NOW

(Contributed) NOW is the time for all good citizens to come to the aid of the schools. Many of the residents of Manassas and of Manassas district have already contributed liberally to the aid of this most worthy cause. It is the moral duty of every citizen of the town and district to contribute according to their means. Therefore, give the amount of your tax. Nothing could be more fair, nothing could be more just than the system that has been adopted to raise this money. Nothing could be more acceptable than the cash of those who have not already contributed. It is impossible, and should be unnecessary, to solicit each and every taxpayer of the district. Please communicate with Dr. C. R. C. Johnson and ascertain the amount that you are requested to pay. Pay it to Dr. Johnson. The schools need it.

"And It's Appetizing"

"That's the reason I like to eat at the SANITARY LUNCH. Not only that you know it's CLEAN—and that's a whole mouthful—but it's COOKED right, and not just thrown together. The good, wholesome food you get there has the right TASTE and you really relish it. It tastes like the eats Mother used to give you, and the service is so courteous and efficient that you forget that you are in a restaurant and wonder if you are not back home with your two legs stuck under the old kitchen table. It's just that difference between what a lunch room should be and a hash house."

The above compliment was paid us recently by a home-sick traveler. If you feel we do not merit the compliment, will you let us prove it?

REPORT OF WORK AMONG NEGROES

Qualifying Results of Tuberculosis Treatment at Piedmont Sanatorium.

An interesting contribution to current health literature is the annual report made to the State Board of Health by Dr. H. G. Carter, superintendent of Piedmont Sanatorium, the state institution for the treatment of colored tuberculosis sufferers established near Burkeville nearly two years ago.

Some of the significant features of the report is a discussion of the grave risk taken by many families in the employment of diseased colored servants, several now under treatment at Piedmont being advanced cases taken from the homes of prominent and well-to-do white families, where the sufferers acted as nurse-girls in charge of small children.

At Piedmont, according to the report, the list of patients includes six waiters, thirteen cooks, ten nurse girls, one dish-washer, nine school teachers, three laundresses and two school janitors, all of the class thrown in direct contact with children of their own or of the white race.

According to Dr. Carter, Piedmont draws its patients almost exclusively from the educated class of the colored race or those thrown into intimate contact with white people. The lower class of the race, he says, seldom remains in the institution long enough for a cure to be effected and looks with suspicion upon any treatment not using the strongest drugs promising immediate cure.

This annual report is the first of any consequence ever published in this country, it is said, dealing with the effect of proper hygiene and dietetic treatment of tuberculosis on the negro race and for that reason is of more than unusual interest. Results are declared by Dr. Carter to have been highly satisfactory, showing however that the negro is not up to the standard of the white race in power of resistance.

Of 126 cases reported on eight are reported arrested; twenty-seven cases are quiescent; thirty-four are improved; nine are unimproved; in the cases of thirty-three the disease is reported progressive; thirteen have died and two were found non-tubercular.

The general good conduct of the patients draws a paragraph of warm praise from the superintendent.

As many of the patients before entering the sanatorium earned their living by hard manual labor, and it is found desirable that arrested cases have light employment, effort is being made to train improving patients in easier forms of earning a livelihood.

One movement to this end was the establishment, under the supervision of a Hampton Institute expert, of a hennery with the aid of the Red Cross and the Virginia Tuberculosis Association. The hens were donated by John Powell, a colored citizen of Richmond.

An interesting feature of the report shows the regard for many of the patients evinced by their white employers, who have paid the board of twenty-four undergoing treatment, besides coming to see them frequently and doing all in their power for their comfort. Of the remaining patients, thirty-nine paid their own board, families met their expenses in 110 cases, while charity and mil-tax provided for twenty-four others.

The sounds and touch of spring are here. The frogs and birds are here and the sun is giving his warm touch to all nature.

Mrs. J. M. Fulmer has been quite sick for the past week. Mrs. Martha Payne, her mother, has been ill for several weeks at Mrs. Fulmer's home.

Master Woodrow Mathers is out again. His sister, Miss Gladys Mathers, is still confined to her room.

Miss Helen Quigg is one of the latest victims of the flu.

Mrs. J. L. Fristoe is also reported sick.

Rev. J. H. McCleod preached Sunday morning on the three most important verbs in the Bible, "Come, Tarry and Go." Miss Kelley gave a talk to the Presbyterian Sunday School.

Rev. Edward Tabor preached Sunday evening in the Baptist Church on the text, "The Lord is My Shepherd, I Shall Not Want."

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Mathers and their young son have moved back here from Washington. They are staying with Mr. Mathers' parents until their rooms in the Clifton house are vacant.

Dr. Porter has completed the dental work in the school.

Miss Kelley visited Ivakota, the Florence Crittenton Mission farm, on Sunday, and presented to each of the girls there a testament and other literature sent by a lady who was a frequent visitor to Ivakota while the farm belonged to and was occupied by the Shaw family.

Miss Kelley will be greatly missed by the Ivakota girls and by the Presbyterian Church, Sunday School and missionary society, in which she has been a faithful worker during her residence here.

Mrs. Esther Dogan Terrill and her little daughter, Mary Benson, of Groveton, visited in Catharpin one day last week.

Mr. J. W. Alvey returned Monday from a short visit to relatives at Charlotte Hall, Md.

Mr. Everett Cleary, of Brunswick county, was a guest at the home of Mr. F. H. Sanders recently.

Misses Alice Metz and Mary Trainham were Manassas visitors Saturday.

Mr. William S. Brower, who has been on the sick list, is now able to be out.

Miss Edmonia Pattie is suffering from a severe sprain and broken bone of the ankle. The injury was caused by stepping on a corn cob which rolled and threw her.

Mr. Frank W. Brower left on Thursday for Greensboro, N. C., to begin training with the Reading, Pa., baseball team, which will be at Greensboro for three weeks.

Mrs. Adoniram Powell, of Sudley neighborhood, is on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Partlow, of the Cottage Farm, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son on Wednesday.

A number of young people from this vicinity attended a party in lower Loudoun one night last week.

Miss Mildred Collins, of Manassas High School, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Collins, at Marble Hill.

Mr. Leslie Hoffman, of Manassas, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Judson Hoffman, last Wednesday night.

Senator Oliver and the Virginian.

Senator Oliver, of Fairfax, carries a big stick—almost as large as he is. Thereby hangs a tale. Oliver isn't just moist—he is wet. He admits it, and everybody who knows him knows that. Now, The Virginian says it is dry. Every morning Oliver finds a copy on his desk. He doesn't relish this and says so. Therefore, he takes this big stick into the senate chamber every morning and quietly slips it under The Virginian and equally as quietly, lifts it up and deposits it into the trash basket, lest as he says, he soil his hands with it.—Hanover Progress.

HORSE REPLANTED

Motor Trucks Drive Horses Into Pasture on Farm.

Horses in Virginia... the maximum number in 1919... then have been gradually decreasing due to the use of motor trucks.

According to data compiled by Henry Taylor of the United States Bureau of Crop Estimates... The estimated number of horses on farms in 1920, was 362,000; a decrease of 1.7 per cent or 2 per cent compared with last year.

From a recent survey it has been found that approximately 7,000 farmers own motor trucks for use on their farms, aside from the pleasure cars. An average of fifteen farmers in each county in Virginia use motor trucks exclusive of these pleasure cars, and trailers used with pleasure cars, this report shows.

Approximately 50,000 farmers are now using motor trucks for farm hauling in the United States, or a decline of 1.7 per cent, or 373,000 head of horses during 1919, according to the report.

A Reminder!

Washington, March 7.—Plans for reducing the American family's meat bill were announced today by the Department of Justice, which will urge housewives to turn from the high-priced cuts to less costly portions of the steer.

Fair price commissioners in every state will be asked to direct educational campaigns with the co-operation of retailers and wholesalers, and the department will undertake to see to it that the consumer receives good meat at low prices and that no abnormal profits are taken on the low-priced portions.

"The housewife holds in her own hand the remedy for very high meat prices," said the department's announcement. "By turning from the expensive to the inexpensive cuts she not only will lower her own meat bills, but will drive down the price of the choice cuts and make it possible for meat to be merchandise more economically."

May we not be pardoned if we say, "I told you so?" Let us show you some of our meats that you can save big money on. We know you'll not be disappointed for SAUNDER'S SANITARY SERVICE SATISFIES
