THINK IT OVER!

No sir-ee, bob!

No premiums with Camels—all quality!

CAMELS quality plus Camels expert blend of choice Turkish and choice Domestic tobaccos pass out the most wonderful cigarette smoke you ever drew into your mouth!

And, the way to prove that statement is to compare Camels puff-by-puff with any cigarette in the world!

Camels have a mild mellowness that is as new to you as it is delightful. Yet, that desirable "body" is all there! They are always refreshing—they never tire your taste.

Camels leave no unpleasant cigarettety aftertaste nor unpleasant cigarettety odor! Your say-so about Camels will be:

"My, but that's a great cigarette".

Camels are sold everywhere in substantially sealed packages of 20 cigarettes; or ten packages (200 cigarettes) in a glassine-paper-covered carton. We strongly recommend this carton for the home or office supply or when you travel.

THE WEEK'S POEM

"The American" Dan McGann and Uncle Sam... the poem of the week, is somewhat different from the two that have preceded it in our new poetry corner. This poem, which was originally published in the Holyoke Transcript and which reached us through Mr. R. S. Hinson, of Manassas, is a modern gem, not polished but elegant in its rugged simplicity. It is full of sound sentiment and real patriotism. Read it and send us the poem you consider most worth while.

THE AMERICAN

Dan McGann and Uncle Sam.

Said Dan McGann to a foreign man who worked at the self-same bench, "Let me tell you this," and for emphasis, he flourished a Stilson wrench. "Don't talk to me of this bourgeoisie, don't open your mouth to speak of the speech of hate, and I'm telling you don't mention the bolshevik, for I've had enough of this foreign stuff, I'm sick as a man can be of the speech of hate, and I'm telling you straight that this is the land for me!"

"If you want to brag, just take that flag, an' boast of its field of blue, an' praise the dead an' the blood they shed for the peace of the likes o' you.

"I'll hear no more," and he waved once more his wrench in a forceful way.

"O' the cunning creed o' some Russian breed, I stand for the U. S. A. I'm done with your fads and your wild-eyed lads, don't flourish your rag o' red.

Where I can see, or at night there'll be tall candles around your bed."

"So tip your hat to a flag like that! Thank God for its stripes an' stars!

Thank God you're here where the roads are clear, away from your kings and czars.

I can't just say what I feel today, for I'm not a talking man.

But first an' last I am standing fast for all that's American.

So don't you speak of the bolshevik, it's sick of that stuff I am, One God, one flag is the creed I brag! I'm boostin' for Uncle Sam."

—Holyoke Transcript.

A Reminder!

Washington, March 7.—Plans for reducing the American family's meat bill were announced today by the Department of Justice, which will urge housewives to turn from the high-priced cuts to less costly portions of the steer.

Fair price commissioners in every state will be asked to direct educational campaigns with the co-operation of retailers and wholesalers, and the department will undertake to see to it that the consumer receives good meat at low prices and that no abnormal profits are taken on the low-priced portions.

"The housewife holds in her own hand the remedy for very high meat prices," said the department's announcement. "By turning from the expensive to the inexpensive cuts she not only will lower her own meat bills, but will drive down the price of the choice cuts and make it possible for meat to be merchandise more economically."

May we not be pardoned if we say, "I told you so?" Let us show you some of our meats that you can save big money on. We know you'll not be disappointed for SAUNDERS' SANITARY SERVICE SATISFIES

EVERYBODY COMES TO TOWN FOR THE CIRCUS

Elephants Carry Off Honors of Day—Young and Old Enjoy the Great Event.

Folks from the neighboring countryside for miles around flocked to Manassas Monday to see the Walter L. Main circus. Manassas was there in full force. Fond parents went "to take the children" and grown-ups who hadn't a chick or a child to carry did not lack a human reason for going and saw the circus just the same.

Perhaps the circus goers had seen a better circus before, a circus with more trained animals or with more or better attractions of other kinds, but certainly no circus ever shared a fuller fund of merriment. Young and old settled down to whole-hearted enjoyment and were ready to be amused by all the sallies of the clowns and whatever the performers essayed to do.

The three trained elephants won the lion's share of interest and applause, outdistancing all other competitors for honors, including little ponies, a wise donkey, trained dogs, horses, skaters, riders and acrobats. Chief, one of the trained elephants, who was particularly accomplished, played a merry tune of two "pieces," beating one instrument with a perfectly timed fore-foot and grinding out a melody from a hand-organ with his versatile trunk. Chief's most daring performance, however, was his part in an elephantine tableau when he sank to the ground over the body of a young woman extended at full length in the ring. Another elephant stood up bracing his fore-feet against Chief, while a pony and a dog in the same attitude completed the picture. Chief, as if to reassure the auditors, before lowering his great weight over the recumbent figure of the girl, stepped carefully over the bodies of a pony and a dog stretched out on the ground.

The usual side shows were there in abundance—Serpentina, the cigarette fiend, the modern Sampson, the pit of death, mind readers and fortune tellers—and the animal tent contained cages holding a lioness, a deer, an antelope and other animals, including the ever-popular monkeys.

The circus band made music throughout the performance and led the parade through town at noon.

A large crowd attended the dance given at the town hall.

1/3 Less Coal- 1/2 More Heat

You can save from a third to a half of your fuel and have a much warmer home than ever before if you will install a CALORIC.

The CALORIC is the remarkable furnace that heats without pipes, through only one register. It circulates heat by Nature's own method, forcing warm air up into the entire house and drawing cool air down into the furnace to be reheated and purified.

The CALORIC heats practically all types of homes, bungalow or three-story home, up to eighteen rooms. It heats kitchens and back bedrooms just as comfortable and warm as the rest of the house. Also heats churches, factories, stores and other business buildings. More than 50,000 already installed.

The CALORIC can be installed in new or old homes—no cutting of walls for pipes and no interference with present systems of heating. It burns coal, coke, gas, wood or kerosene and saves from one-third to one-half the fuel.

A Death Blow to the High Cost OF GASOLINE

25 to 50 PER CENT MORE MILEAGE

Install the U. & J. CARBURETOR on your Ford car or truck and forget the HIGH COST of gasoline.

The U. & J. CARBURETOR gives your car a faster pickup, and it has the "Punch," and what you want in addition to economy and mileage is "Punch, Pep, Power and Flexibility."

We absolutely guarantee to reduce your gasoline bill, regardless of NAME, MAKE or PRICE OF THE CARBURETOR you are at present using on your Ford.

Over 1,000 installed in Washington during the past six months. The Washington Times says it reduced their gasoline consumption from 60 gallons per week to 30. The Old Dutch Market says it reduced their gasoline consumption from 7 gallons per day to 4 1/2 per day. Golden & Co. says it has cut their gasoline bill nearly in half. The Evening Star says it shows a mileage increase of 85 per cent.

GUARANTEE: If the U. & J. CARBURETOR fails to increase your mileage as above set forth, I will refund your money promptly, within 15 days.

There are no strings tied to the above guarantee or to this proposition.

If the above is true, you can't afford to be without the U. & J. CARBURETOR. If it isn't true, I can't afford to sell it to you.

Let me have your order "quick" and you will soon pay for it and own it. Otherwise, you will soon "pay" for it and "never" own it.

COAL, LUMBER AND BUILDING MATERIALS

EXAMINE OUR GRADES

WHEN CONSIDERING PRICES:

With prices on Lumber and other Building Materials at their present levels, there are many items in the lower grades which can often be substituted satisfactorily and at a considerable saving.

We have become so much impressed with the possibilities of doing this to advantage that we are exercising the greatest care in buying only from those mills who pay the closest attention to the manufacture and grading of their lower priced stocks.

We ask our customers to examine these grades when buying as we believe they will find some excellent values, and a knowledge of what a carefully selected lower grade really is will often prevent the buying of a so-called higher grade at a little under the market price for the high grade, when it is actually a lower grade and can be bought as such.

SCHOOLBOY WRITES OF HIS SATANIC MAJESTY

Amusing and Thoughtful Essay of Boy Who Went to School Here Fifty Years Ago.

The following school-boy composition taken from the Evening Leader, published at Mannington, W. Va., will interest some of our readers who were here during the early 70's. It was found recently among the private papers of the mother of the author, Dr. W. R. Andrews, now a homeopathic physician of Mannington.

Dr. Andrews as a small boy lived here with his mother in Grant avenue and attended the Manassas public school. According to the story, the composition was written when he was in his fourth school year. The composition, entitled "The Devil," follows:

"This is a curious subject. You hardly ever here a composition wrote on this subject. The first we learn of the deavle we here of him rebelling against God in heaven. The Lord for his disobedience cast him out of heaven. The next place we here of him tempting Eve to eat of the forbidden fruit. He said to her if you will onely eat of this nice apple your eyes will be open and you will se as God's and sure enough they saw that they were naked and they was ashame so the deavle entered into mankind. Evry since that time he has been a nawing mankind.

"Then again we here of him tempting Jesus Christ our Savior. He took him up on a small mountain and offered him the whole of the world if he would worship him but the por deavle had not a foot of land on the earth onely a small place in hell. His kingdom is in the hearts of men; from the fact that all people are bad. Jesus Christ cast out seven deavies out of Mary Magdalene. Again he cast the lunatics in the tumbs; but the best joke was they wished to have permission to go into herd of swine and they rang a steep hill and ware drowned from the actions of people that he was not drowned he still lives in the hearts of men except ware God has cast him out. I will continue the subject. —WILLIE ANDREWS, Manassas."

A WEDDING IN VERSE

I will place the boys call the... where some lovely ducks... Home of lassies sweet and lovely... the lads—twas wonder small... Felt the drawing of the magnet that... the "duck-pond" was to all... From the cottage in the valley, where... the running waters play... To some other home to gladden, one by... one they slipped away... Kathleen, Irené, laughing, black-eyed... merry Jennie, dimpled girl... But the sweetest was our Daisy... thoughtful, tender, just a pearl... While the other boys were basking in... her smile whenever they could... Quiet George was getting busy, "keep-... ing still and sawing wood,"... Settled down to steady courting, for-... tune smiled and helped him too... For he won a prize worth having—gift... of God—a helpmate true... And our hearts were glad for Daisy... she had chosen a proper mate... Clean of heart and hand and habit... such a man did God create... To the parlor sweet with plum bloom... hung with wreaths of running... pine... Filled with guests of kin and comrades... came the bridal party fine... Decked with hyacinths and lilies, and... their path with flowers strewn... Maids in white with bridal roses, came... the party just at noon... Woodbine's pastor tied the knot, and... then he double tied it... Till all the knots you ever saw were... really loose beside it... From the heart, congratulations, from... the boys a farewell kiss... Summons to the wedding dinner, such... a feast 'twere sad to miss... Ham and chicken, cakes galore, salads... ice cream; so much more... It would weary you to tell it. Then... the pranks they had in store... Oh, the things they didn't think of, and... the things they didn't do!... They were hardly worth a mention... they were really very few!... While the last good-bys were spoken... and the car they gathered round... Tucking in and stowing luggage, with... solicitude profound... Some were busy tying placards writ... with letters big and black... One in front below their vision and... another at the back... Rice and showers of confetti, like a... snow-storm on them fell... While some imps were slyly hanging... old tin cans and a cow bell... When the auto fairly started, then the... bride her bouquet threw;... Laughing maidens rushed to catch it... and the blushing winner flew... Rich and many were the presents... linen, silver and cut glass... Happy wedding! some are looking for... some more to come to pass!

What I found out about overalls

"I USED to think that it didn't matter much what sort of overalls I bought. They all seemed the same to me.

"Sometimes they wore well and sometimes they didn't. Likely as not they would pull and bind. I thought that it was all luck—that you couldn't help some overalls being good and others bad.

"Then one day I got a pair that was big and roomy and comfortable. I noticed that they looked right, too. They fitted easy all the time I had them and they wore like iron. Next time I bought a pair like them—and they were just as good."

"The name of those overalls is Blue Buckles. I always buy them now, because I know they'll give me good service."

"I've tried a lot of overalls, but of all I've worn, give me Blue Buckles every time. They always give long wear."
