

HAYMARKET

Mr. James Teal, who is working at The Plains, was the guest of his son, H. C. Teal, for a few days the past week. Mr. Dodge Libby, of Washington, was a week-end guest at the home of Wm. C. Dodge. Mr. H. T. Clarkson and family, of Clarendon, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. S. Clarkson Sabbath day. Mr. Andrew Lowe, who has been quite ill, is much improved yet far from well. His many friends hope he will soon be going about again.

Mrs. F. P. Drownes, who is temporarily living at Beverley Mills, was calling on friends here Monday. Officer J. P. Kerlin was a business caller here Monday from Manassas on his way to his home in Nokesville.

Mrs. H. O. Hissey and daughter, of Edinburg, are visiting Mrs. Leon Walters. All who wish a fine entertainment should come out Saturday night and again see Sis Hopkins with Marguerite Clark as the star. A large attendance is expected. The building of a new platform makes room for many more than formerly. Both performances last Saturday and Wednesday were largely attended, many coming from nearby villages. Remember the services at St. Paul's church when Rector T. E. Brown will preach one of his most able sermons. Every one is invited to attend as this church is open to all.

Mr. C. L. Rector has placed a new tin roof on the Parson's house which is a much needed improvement. Wade Attley, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. McGwin, died Sunday morning about four o'clock, aged one month and eight days. Just before the glorious sunrise of that holy Sabbath day Blessed angels came and took little Attley far away; And our Father up in Heaven, to thy will we bow, Though the home is sad and lonely—he is with the angels now.

Mr. W. H. Sherley, who has been here and at Antioch on a ninety-day leave from the Isthmus with his wife and little daughter, Ann, returned to his home in Cristobal, Panama, Wednesday. All of their friends here very much regret their having to leave so soon and hope that in the near future they will return and dwell among us. Miss Ruth Hulifah, is spending a few days with relatives. Mr. Isaac Carter had the misfortune to cut his knee in a manner that will keep him from his railroad duties for some time to come. With the assistance of a workman he was carrying a heavy railroad tie up a steep bank when his foot became entangled in some vines and he fell in such a manner that he struck a glass bottle lying on a hard substance breaking it lengthwise cutting his foot to the bone. The cut required several stitches and Mr. Carter is now able to get about with the aid of crutches. Mr. H. T. Clarkson and family of Clarendon were the guests of C. D. S. Clarkson, mother and family Sunday. Mr. R. D. Lloyd, who has been absent for a few days visiting friends at New Market, has returned and resumed his duties here. We learn that a new store house is to be built across the tracks from the railroad station. For what purpose it is to be used we did not learn.

Mr. G. G. Brady was the guest of Manassas Thursday.

Rev. Edward Taber preached Sunday at Haymarket at four o'clock. He preaches the second Sunday at four o'clock and the fourth Sunday at 11 o'clock. Mr. Tabor said Sunday, in part: "The character of Job furnishes a striking example of a man rising above his circumstances. Visited with pain and disease, deserted by his friends, an outcast, he was urged to renounce faith in God. His answer shines on the pages of literature like a cameo, 'though He slay me, yet will I trust Him.' Great faith is always childlike. It does not defend. It does not seek to explain. It believes through the heart, not through the brain. It is not weakened by adverse conditions. Greatness rises above adversity. 'Circumstances,' said Napoleon, 'I make circumstances.'"

GREENWICH

Mr. and Mrs. John Reid were Fairfax visitors Sunday. Quite a number of the village young folks attended the play at Manassas Saturday night. Miss Fannie Nalls spent the week-end with Miss Delia Fitzwater at Nokesville. Mr. and Mrs. John Ellis were Manassas visitors Saturday evening. Mr. M. M. Ellis spent Sunday at his home here. Mr. G. H. Washington visited friends at "The Holly" Sunday night. Miss Janie Mayhugh visited her aunt, Mr. John Reid several days last week. Special Notice To Farmers

One of the most important things ever done by the Agricultural Experiment Station of North Carolina was a test to determine if National Hog Remedy has any value to the Farmer. A bulletin issued about June first tells that in a series of tests some figures were brought out that are startling.

Fifteen pigs of similar weight were bought for a test that was continued at the Raleigh test farm 58 days. One lot of these pigs were given National Hog Remedy and another lot was given the same feed but no remedy.

In the lot where the National Hog Remedy was given the hogs gained .70 of a pound each. In the lot where nothing was given but the feed the hogs gained only .47 of a pound.

Two hogs on National Hog Remedy increased in weight on the same ration as much as three hogs did without it.

Furthermore this test showed and stated that by using National Hog Remedy a saving was realized of approximately $9.00 on each hundred pounds increase in live weight.

National Hog Remedy is sold by all dealers at One Dollar a package. In case your dealer cannot supply you kindly send us your name and we will see you get it. We do not use a filler to enlarge the package and we use high grade chemicals only.

THE DEVIL'S APOLOGY and the devil, and, if there be those who doubt, let them bridle their skepticism and hike hitherward to gaze in contemplation upon our now most unholy sanctum. Save for our own wicked presence, it is an empty vast!

We had been schooled to believe that an editor was heartless, soulless, with nerves of steel, and with absolutely no passion for pleasant pastime, but lo! a part at least of our one time creed must undergo revision.

Our editor has gone—on a vacation, to restore the tired nerves, the result of strenuous labor, and, actually to partake of real human enjoyment—so uneditor-like!

But is it "an ill wind," etc, so we, the devil, have been promoted to rule over the destinies of "Constant Reader" and "Pro Bono Publico." Our reign will be short, we hope, for the sake of our readers, but were we a Dana or a Watterson, we would, for pure devilment (our primary attribute) fill these pages with "words that burn and thoughts that breathe," so that our truant editor, out of sheer jealousy, might hasten home to compass our dethronement.

But as we are neither a Dana nor a Watterson, and with no editorial heritage that we have been able to locate, gave a pair of scissors, we shall throw ourselves and this our edition upon the mercy of the readers and beg of them to bear with us—yet a little while. Such charity, we opine, should be accorded—even unto a printer's devil. Yes, verily!

KICKED AND BEATEN

Prince Henry, of Prussia, brother of the former German Emperor and in the heyday of the Hohenzollerns the idol of the German navy and the most respected and beloved of the Prussian princes, was made to run the gauntlet and submit to intolerable tortures at the hands of a gang of field laborers, led by a radical in the tattered uniform of a Hussar and with a silken red rosette in the buttonhole to tell of his radical proclivities.

Not content merely with stripping the princeling of all his regal prerogatives, these men stood in parallel lines and made him race between them, while plebian kicks were aimed at the royal limbs and plebian blows belabored regal head and face. Then, when this form of torture had been ended, the former commander of the navy and hitherto sacrosanct from attack, was hauled to the jail like a felon, tossed into a cheap cell and then tortured as often as the whim of the laborers guided them to his prison pen.

The almost incredible story of the treatment to the prince is given in the Ost Preussische Zeitung. Its author says that the story is authentic and came to him in a letter from a member of the prince's immediate family.

RESOLUTIONS

Whereas, A call was recently received from the Presbyterian Church of Welch, W. Va., to our beloved and faithful pastor, Rev. DeForest Wade, and,

Whereas, The call has been accepted by Mr. Wade, who has requested the congregation of the Manassas Presbyterian Church to unite with him in a request to Presbytery of Washington City, to dissolve the pastoral relations which exist between himself and this church, and also to grant him such letter or letters as are necessary to properly release him from said Washington City Presbytery and put him in proper form and course to unite with a Presbytery in West Virginia, and,

Whereas, The congregation has very reluctantly granted the request, and unites with Mr. Wade in order that the proper action of said church and presbytery shall be harmoniously taken; therefore be it

Resolved, First, That the Session, Trustees and all of the membership of said church, and those who attend upon the services, regret very much that their pastor felt constrained at this time to sever his pastoral relations with the said church and leave for another field.

Second, That the Session of the Church, the Trustees, and the entire membership of the said church and its friends, commend Rev. Mr. Wade to those to whom he goes, and earnestly pray that his associations in his new field shall be as pleasant as they have in the field from which he is leaving, and that God may bless and prosper the work under his care, even more than he has while with us here.

Third, The action of the Manassas Presbyterian Church was unanimous in all of the steps leading up to and through the dissolution proceedings, and it was with profound sorrow and regret that they took the action, and trust that all has been done for the advancement of the kingdom of God.

Fourth, That a copy of these resolutions shall be spread upon the minutes of the Manassas Presbyterian minute book, a copy sent to both papers of the town of Manassas, and a copy forwarded to the Washington Presbytery and also to the Presbytery to which Rev. Wade unites, and to the church which he is going to serve.

What Full Automatic Means in a Matthews Lighting Plant

IT means just what the last two words mean to a busbeater—a complete Electric Lighting and Power Plant equipped with the "Automatic Caretaker" that looks after all the operations of the plant automatically.

The "Automatic Caretaker" starts the batteries recharging long before they are exhausted to the danger point and automatically stops recharging when batteries are fully charged.

When you use current at a rate greater than the normal discharging capacity of the batteries, the generator will automatically start up and take all the load, calling back the batteries if they are needed to help.

MATTHEWS

do all this because they are equipped with the "Automatic Caretaker." Any lighting and power plant that does less than this is out of date. Made in six sizes to furnish from 15 to 507 (20 watt) lamps, all burning at once, or the equivalent from 1,600 upward.

Matthews ratings are based on generator capacity ALONE. Batteries hold reserves. Ask the Matthews dealer for Demonstration.

As the Shadows Lengthen

"Eighty years old today, William, and you don't look sixty. Think of it! Too many years to put candles on your birthday cake. They wouldn't all fit on."

"Yes, that's a good many years, Ma—quite a long while. But it's been a pretty happy life, all told. I've had my share of pain and sorrow, as you've had yours. And my health has been pretty good, too. Only one thing ever bothered me very much."

"You mean those bad spells you used to have?"

"Yes, and I can trace them all back to constipation. You remember the salts, pills, castor oil and laxative waters I used to take—only to make things worse?"

"Yes, and we used to think that because you were getting old you had to suffer. We seemed to take that for granted, somehow. Foolish!"

"Ma, just let any old-timer come round and try to tell me constipation in old people can't be remedied! I'd soon let him know something."

Look at my case—suffered right up until the time that young doctor recommended Nujol. And Nujol certainly brought me right out of my trouble. I learned what it was to have natural, easy bowel movements. I picked up in weight and felt spryer and happier than I'd felt in many a day."

"Nujol seems to be the thing for us old folks, William."

"It certainly is, Ma. As you get older there is less natural fluid secreted in the intestine to moisten the waste matter and keep it soft, and constipation naturally follows. Nujol takes the place of the deficient mucous. You see, Ma, those drugs I'd been taking irritated and forced the system. Nujol simply softens the food waste. This helps all those little muscles in the walls of the intestines to squeeze the food waste along and out of the system."

"And do you know another reason why I like Nujol, Ma?"

"Why, William?"

"Because it is pleasant to take and absolutely harmless."

Nujol is sold by all druggists in sealed bottles only, bearing the Nujol trade mark. Write Nujol Laboratories, Standard Oil Co. (New Jersey), 50 Broadway, New York, for booklet, "Thirty Feet of Danger."
