

MAKES A REPLY TO PARK HEAD

Letter Addressed to Major Ewing by Hon. C. A. Sinclair in Answer to Criticisms.

LETTER FROM SINCLAIR
Manassas, Va., April 22, 1922.
Maj. E. W. R. Ewing,
Ballston, Va.

My dear Sir:—Your criticism of the method taken by me to raise Prince William County's quota of the $10,000 needed to complete the purchase of the Henry farm, as contained in your letter published this week in the Manassas papers comes as a surprise to me.

The language used by you in the concluding part of your letter make it appear that the sole object of your "heart to heart" message was to criticize me for wanting to retain the money collected from this county in the banks here until the purchase of the property in question was assured.

Under date of March 27th, 1922, you wrote me, in part, as follows: "Members of the late legislature can yet save the Manassas Battlefield Park from sad failure. It depends upon you; and the plan is easy."

"So permit one last appeal, please. No criticism lies against any one for the failure of the bill appropriating $10,000 for the last payment of the purchase of the Henry land for the Manassas Battlefield Confederate Park. Simply there was no time."

"So, unfortunately, as Virginians, we are yet facing the vital question, 'Shall we fail to build this educational park to the memory of our Confederate heroes?'"

"Our option on this land, as we told you during the legislature, expires comparatively soon. Shall we quit? 'You, gentlemen of the late legislature, yet have it in your hands to save the day! Will you? We believe you will.'"

"How? We do not ask you for a personal contribution. But we do ask you to serve as chairman of a committee to raise $100 from each county in your district."

In response to this request I did undertake to raise $100 from Prince William county, the only county that I represent in the legislature. I supposed, of course, that the money raised would be expended on the purchase of the Henry property. Your letter to me made it appear that you had adopted the method of raising this necessary fund by having each member of the legislature obtain $100 from his respective county or city. You wrote as though you thought an obligation rested on the individual members of the legislature to raise this fund by reason of the fact that the legislature as a body had failed to pass the bill carrying an appropriation of $10,000 to complete the payment for the property. As an individual member of the legislature I was willing to accept this obligation.

But it appears from your letter published in the papers that I was misled by your personal letter of the 27th of March.

If you wanted money to carry on a fund raising campaign you should have said so. Or, if you desired funds to reimburse those who have made expenditures on account of the project this ought to have been stated.

The gathering of funds for either, or both, of the last named purposes would be right and proper. But I was not requested to raise funds for any such purpose.

You wrote me that $10,000 was wanted "for the last payment for the purchase of the Henry land," and requested that I raise $100, or more, from Prince William county to help in making this last payment.

In view of your public criticism I feel that I cannot further prosecute this undertaking in this county; and I am asking, therefore, that you arrange for another chairman here.

Very truly yours,
C. A. SINCLAIR.

DEATH OF CATLETT LADY

Mrs. Emma Dallas Laws died last night at her home near Catlett, in the seventy-sixth year of her life. She is survived by four children. Her husband died last August.

Funeral services will take place at Catlett on Sunday.

Mrs. M. Bruce Whitmore entertained at dinner Wednesday evening in honor of Mrs. E. H. Denton. Besides and the guest of honor, others present were Mesdames J. R. Harrell, G. Raymond Ratcliffe, Florence McNeil and R. M. Weir.

'Tis not enough to mark the graves of heroes—
To place the marble urn above their sleeping dust—
To strew with fragrant flowers from year to year—
The final bivouac of their faith and trust.

The fields to which their valor gave renown—
By stern defence of all that brave men prize—
Are these not also consecrated ground?
Are these not also sacred in our eyes?

Oh fields that felt the rush of charging legions;
Oh fields that countless warrior dead embraced,
'Tis time, full time, to heed your mute appeal
That name and fame may never be effaced.

LEST WE FORGET

A Short Series of "Battlefield Park" Reminders LEST WE FORGET

THE HOUSE OF THE INTERPRETER

By Douglas Clark
(The Grave of Mrs. Henry)

[On July 21, 1861, the first great battle of the civil war was fought on and in the vicinity of the Henry Farm, situated about six miles N. W. of Manassas, Va. During the progress of the battle, Mrs. Henry, owner of the farm, an aged widow, and an invalid, was killed in her own house by fragments of a shell fired by Rickett's battery in an effort to dislodge Confederate sharpshooters supposed to be using the house as a cover to their operations against federal officers. After the battle the body of Mrs. Henry was buried by soldiers in the yard adjoining her home.]

The house of the interpreter is silent, cold and dark,
It crowns the summit of a lonely hill,
Its tenant heedless of the hurrying years,
Ceased long ago to balance good and ill.
Its lowly roof scarce tops the neighboring sod,
No summons brings an answer to the door—
That door was sealed by war's unpying hand,
And sealed remains till war shall be no more.
A wife, a mother rests within this house—
An aged woman fourscore years and five—
Wife, mother, woman, names of priceless grace,
The trinity that keeps fair virtue's cause alive.
Beneath her own roof tree, this hapless matron fell,
Killed by the wandering bolts of battle's frenzied course,
Which never yet has leaped to mercy's side,
Until its "blood and iron" creed had spent its hideous force.
Oh! grave of helpless age, dug by the dragon claws
Of Satan's host who scatter sparks of hell
In the dry stubble of our wayward minds,
And weave around us hate's infernal spell,
Speak to the veteran eyes of North and South,
That reads her fate whose form thy clouds embrace
Say to the nation and her stalwart sons
"War is the high mark of our fallen race."

LOGICAL LOCATION FOR COLD STORAGE

Southern Railway Officials Confer With Local Business Men on Proposition.

Prospects for having a large cold storage plant located in Manassas look encouraging. At a meeting held in the directors room of the National Bank last Saturday morning, a number of Southern Railway officials were present and spoke before local business men of the proposition. They said that Manassas was the logical point for such a plant and that only one other point in Virginia had as good a natural location. That point was Danville, far to the south of us. They advocated the erection of a 100,000 barrel capacity plant which would cost in the neighborhood of $225,000. They said that they had studied the situation carefully and had consulted many of the leading apple growers on the Harrisonburg branch line and all had spoken with favor of the proposition. They realized that Manassas could not put up the money but felt sure that the apple growers of the valley would take stock in the scheme. Apples shipped out of the valley and stored here would meet with no back haul and would always be in transit and for that reason we would receive nearly all of the enormous valley trade.

A committee of local men was appointed to get in touch with the apple growers in the branch line section and find out from them if they would help finance the proposition. The committee is now working on a circular letter which will be sent to these growers.

While this section itself has not been developed as a commercial fruit growing section it may be developed as such if the cold storage plant proposition materializes, and for this reason many local people are anxious to see it made a success. The Manassas Coal Company has offered a lot bordering on the railroad near the high school for its location.

If plans work out the plant may be in operation before snow flies again.

SUPERVISORS POSTPONE LEVYING OF TAXES

County Board Met in Monthly Session Tuesday—Tax Question Under Discussion.

At a meeting of the Board of Supervisors of Prince William county held at the courthouse on Tuesday, April 25, the following members were present: J. L. Dawson, chairman; J. R. Larkin, William Crow, McDuff Green, O. G. Hutchison and T. M. Russell.

It was ordered that the sum of $198 be appropriated out of S. R. T. fund to be used in conjunction with a like sum of $198 to be raised by certain citizens, to improve the road between Brentsville and Bristow.

It was asked that the sum of $150 be appropriated to meet a like sum to be raised by citizens to improve the road from Cherry Hill to the Richmond-Washington road, same to be paid out of S. R. T. fund.

Ordered that a warrant be drawn on the S. R. T. fund in favor of H. L. Tubbs for $150 which is to be expended in improving road from Neabsco Station to the Washington-Richmond road. Said Tubbs to make report to the board as to how said fund had been expended in conjunction with a like sum raised by citizens for a like purpose.

Whereas certain citizens of Manassas District have raised and have in the hands of C. C. Lynn for road improvement on the highway from Manassas to Sudley, it was therefore ordered that a warrant be drawn in favor of C. C. Lynn, paymaster on S. R. T. fund, for the sum of $400 to be expended in improving said road in conjunction with said fund in hand and he shall make report to the board.

It was ordered that a warrant be drawn on county fund in favor of S. A. Gosson for $8 as compensation for a pauper's coffin.

The Bull Run Telephone Company was granted permission to erect and maintain a telephone line and poles along the county highways as follows: Haymarket to Beverly Mills Pike, from Beverly Mills Pike to Fauquier county line by way of Antioch, and from Antioch to Waterfall in Gainesville district. This upon condition that the said poles shall be erected and maintained so as not to interfere with travel or proper working or maintenance of said road.

Ordered that O. C. Hutchison be appointed a committee to make sale of a certain lot of surface tar for highways left over from repairing the highway from Haymarket to Woolsey and make return and report to the board.

It was ordered that the superintendent of roads for Dumfries district be authorized to purchase a Fordson tractor to be paid out of S. R. T. fund.

After much discussion the laying of county and district levies was postponed until the next meeting which will be held on Tuesday, May 23.

Work on the foundations of the two new houses being erected in Manassas are about completed. One is being erected on South Main street for Mr. Robert E. Newman and the other for Mrs. Howard on Grant Avenue.

WHITE ROSE WINS AS DENNIS SHUTS OUT GRAYS

Local Pitcher Allows No Hits—Manassas Scores Seven—Runs Over Alexandria.

Coach Holliday's White Rose baseball team turned in a neat day's work last Saturday afternoon on the local diamond when, in their initial performance this year, they defeated the Virginia Grays, of Alexandria, by the score of 7 to 0.

Dennis, on the mound for the locals, pitched a no-hit game which was all the more exceptional on account of the cold temperature prevalent on Saturday and the earliness in the season. Thirteen of the thirty batters which faced him each took three unconnecting swings into the breeze. On top of this only three were given free passes.

Dennis was helped along in fine shape by the fielders who turned in an errorless day. Dennis himself fielding his position in exceptional fashion for a pitcher. Ritzenour, catching for Manassas, showed the fans that his arm was as good as ever when one of the few who reached first base on the opposing side tried to steal second. Trimmer robbed one of the Grays of an extra base hit when he raced into deep center and pulled a long fly out of the ozone.

The invaders presented two good pitchers but their batters couldn't produce. Brower and Pearson led the locals with the stick each gathering three bingles out of five times up and each making a double.

Following is the White Rose lineup: Trimmer, c. f.; Saunders, 2 b.; Brower, s. a.; Adams, 3b.; Pearson, 1b.; Dennis, p.; Ritzenour, c.; Leith, 1. f.; Keys, 1. f.; Stephenson, r. f., and Uterback, r. f.

Tomorrow (Saturday) the locals will cross bats with the Eagle A. C., of Washington, on the local diamond. The game will be called at 3:30 p. m. sharp. The reason for the delay in starting the game last Saturday was not due to any fault of the locals but to the late arrival of the visitors.

CORNWELL—YATES

Another quiet wedding in the community took place last Saturday night when Miss Dorothy E. Yates became the bride of Mr. Ellis Cornwell. The ceremony was performed by Rev. T. D. D. Clark.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. Ashby Yates with whom the happy couple will make their home for the present.

MASS MEETING RESULTS

All That Was Needed Was a Little More Light.

The "Indignation Meeting" held last night in Corner's Hall by the objectors to the new license tax schedule recently put into effect by the town council, came from the meeting with a satisfied grin upon their faces for at the meeting they discovered that in most instances they would not have as much to pay as they have had heretofore.

FURTHER PLANS FOR FIELD DAY

"Uncle" Nick Altrock to Be Here on May 13th—Gala Time for All Is Expected.

Baseball fans and lovers of outdoor sports will be interested in the plan on foot for a big field day, Saturday, May 13, under the auspices of the Patrons' Community League of Manassas High School.

The manager of the Manassas White Rose team are scheduling two exceptionally good games, the names of the opposing teams to be announced later.

Through the efforts of Frank Brower, "Uncle" Nick Altrock of the Nationals, veteran coach and fun-maker and idol of every boy in Prince William county, has consented to appear in one of the games.

In addition, Ben Sanders, a Prince William "boy" and former pitcher of the Philadelphia Nationals, whose record is familiar to all fans of today, is coming from his home in South Carolina for this occasion and will pitch on all of one game. He is still an athlete, having taken part in a big game not long ago.

A variety of races in which young and old may take part will be staged under the very efficient direction of Mr. Karl Giacetti, of Catlett.

A big feature will be an address by some prominent speaker whose name will appear in a later issue of this paper.

Lunch and refreshments of all kinds will be served at reasonable prices by committees appointed by the League.

Every effort is being made to provide for the comfort and pleasure of the large crowd expected if the weather is pleasant.

LEACHMAN—LUKE

Popular Member of Local Social Set Weds Mississippi Girl.

At high noon Saturday, April 22, Miss Beatrice Luke, of Union, Miss., became the bride of Mr. William H. Leachman, of Bristow. The ceremony, which took place in Washington, D. C., was performed by the Rev. John E. Briggs.

The bride was attractively attired in a navy blue suit of poiret twill with gray accessories and wore a hat to match. She also wore a beautiful corsage of orchids and lilies of the valley.

The happy couple left immediately for a short tour to Wilmington, Del., Philadelphia, Pa., and Atlantic City. They returned the early part of this week to Mr. Leachman's farm near Bristow, where they will make their future home.

Mrs. Leachman, who is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Luke, of Union, Miss., is very talented in music, holding a B. Mus. degree.

The bridegroom is a son of Mr. John Pendleton Leachman, county treasurer, and is well known and popular member of the younger set in and around Manassas.

Judge Edward S. Turner, of Warrenton, one of the most prominent jurists in Virginia, died early Saturday morning at the Tucker Sanatorium, Richmond, where he had been taking treatment.

The body of Judge Turner was taken to Warrenton on the private car of Epps Hunton, Jr., president of the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac railroad, who accompanied the body.

Upon his resignation from the bench Judge Turner became a member of the law firm of Turner, Glasscock and Richards, of Warrenton. He was mentioned several times for the Supreme Court of Appeals and was one of the three in the race before the General Assembly in 1916 when Judge Sims was the successful candidate.

He was born in Fauquier county and was a son of the late John R. Turner, many years clerk of court of Fauquier county.

F. Payne, James W. Jeffries, W. S. Sowers, Lucian Keith, C. E. Tiganey and J. Donald Richards. The honorary pallbearers were Representative E. Walton Moore, Judge C. E. Nicol, Judge G. L. Fletcher, Burnett Miller, George Browning and many others from a distance besides members of the Warrenton bar.

ACCIDENTLY WOUNDED

Mr. Luther Keys, of Near Token, Shot in Feet by Gun Accidentally.

Mr. Luther Keys, of near Token, swathe victim of the accidental discharge of a shot gun at his store Monday of this week.

Several men had borrowed his gun to shoot at a hawk that they had seen and, on returning the gun, had put it on the store perch with the barrels leaning against the wall of the building.

When Mr. Keys stepped out of the door the slam of it as it closed probably knocked the gun down and when it hit the floor it discharged, the full load of it entered his foot wounding it badly. Dr. W. Fewell Merchant was called from Manassas and Mr. Keys was taken to a Washington hospital on an evening train for treatment. It was at first thought that his foot would have to be amputated but later reports are more encouraging.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Heymond, of Flint, Mich., who have been visiting at "The Meadows," the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ashby Lewis, of near town, for an extended time, have returned home.

SEES SIGNS OF SPECIAL SESSION

State Good Roads President Believes Bond Bill Would New Pass Legislature.

Richmond, Va., April 25, 1922.

With the realization that there is less than $5,000,000 available for new contracts on State highways during 1922 and less than $4,000,000 for 1923, which has been proven so conclusively at the meeting of the State Highway Commission for the allocation of funds for this year and by the investigation made by Captain W. F. Smyth, State Accountant, at the request of Governor Trinkle, added impetus has been given all over the State to the movement for the special session and the passage of the $12,000,000 bond issue for State highway construction during the next two years, according to Hubert C. Elliott, president of the Virginia Good Roads Association. Letters are being received from members of both Houses and influential citizens all over the State, urging that Virginia be placed in a position to take advantage of favorable conditions for road building as rapidly as the work can be carried on.

Among the members of the State Senate who are strongly advocating the special session at the earliest date possible and the passage of the bond issue and gasoline tax to take care of the interest and principal, is Senator G. Walter Mapp, of Accomac.

"The recent signs of approaching prosperity such as the firm price of railroad and other securities, the resumption of work on a large scale by the American Locomotive Works and other industries have also served to accelerate the interest among members of both Houses and other influential citizens over the State in the special session and the issuance of bonds for State highway construction," said Mr. Elliott. "Far-seeing business men realize that when industry has returned to normal, the State will be in competition with industry for labor and materials used in road construction, which will mean higher prices for road construction. For this reason, they argue, the State should be in position to let contracts as rapidly as possible and take advantage of the low prices now offered. When the railroads begin re-building their tracks, making improvements of grades and building spur tracks, which has been badly neglected for seven or eight years, many of the contractors who have been seeking highway construction contracts to fill in, will go back to railroad work, which will also have a tendency toward higher prices of road building." Mr. Elliott stated that the survey which the Association has made indicates that the sentiment in the majority of the counties of the State is unquestionably now in favor of the bond issue.

The deceased was fifty-two years of age and besides his wife he is survived by three children. Mr. Ford had been commonwealth's attorney for Fairfax for the past twenty-five years and was associated in the law business with Wilson Farr of this county. The body was brought to his late home at Fairfax Courthouse from where the funeral took place yesterday afternoon from the Zion Episcopal Church.

DELCO-LIGHT CONVENTION

Mr. F. R. Hynson, of Occoquan, Local Dealer, Attends Meeting.

(Paid Advertisement.) Mr. F. R. Hynson, local Delco-Light dealer has just returned from the annual Delco-Light convention which was held at Dayton, Ohio, home of the Delco-Light factory, April 13 and 14, and where almost one thousand Delco-Light men from all parts of the United States and Canada were in attendance.

Mr. Hynson described the opening of the Convention on Thursday morning as one of the most striking features of the entire assembly. Over a long conveyor track extending from the stage through the convention hall to the entrance, new Delco-Light products were rolled out to the men, emphasizing the announcement that these new products are now ready for the dealers.

First of these was the new Delco-Light Washer, an electric washer made to operate with Delco-Light or on city current. This has a beautiful copper tub and, Mr. Hynson declares, has many new features which make it a particularly valuable piece of equipment for the housewife. They showed by scientific tests that it positively washes clothes cleaner, without injury to the fabric than any power washer has ever washed clothes before. Tub and wringer each has its own separate motor, doing away with clutches and transmission gears. All parts are enclosed and features of safety were some of the striking things emphasized in this washer.

Next came a new Delco-Light Deep Well Pump, a pitless pump that can which is a remarkably simple and efficient unit. Other products followed down this conveyor in rapid succession and all were enthusiastically received by the visiting dealers.

FIRE AT NEW WILLARD HOTEL

Cigarette Stump Causes Early Sunday Morning Blaze After Banqueters Leave.

The top floor of the New Willard Hotel, where had been staged only a few hours before the spring banquet of the Gridiron Club, attended by President Harding and other notables, was swept by fire at 6 o'clock Sunday morning.

Hundreds of hotel guests, who were routed out of their beds by fire alarms or the fall of water into the rooms below, made their hasty and incomplete toilets and scampered to safety in Peacock Alley, on the bottom floor of the hotel. Peacock Alley, known throughout the U. S. because of the beauty and fashion that one may see on parade there, never presented a more mixed and excited assemblage than it did during the fire.

However, despite practically every room in the hotel being occupied because of the Gridiron dinner and the holdovers from the convention of the Daughters of the American Revolution, not a life was lost nor an injury sustained. The property damage is estimated at anywhere from $200,000 to $300,000. The entire tenth floor and a part of the ninth floor are gone. Many of the rooms and floors below are water soaked, as firemen poured steady streams of water into the tenth floor and its big banquet hall for an hour or more.

National notables whose Sabbath sleep was broken up by fire included Vice-President Coolidge; Brig. Gen. Charles Sawyer, physician to President Harding; John Philip Sousa, Olga Petrova; Adolph Zukor, the motion picture magnate; Fred W. Upton, treasurer of the Republican National Committee; Hanford MacNider, national commander of the American Legion; Senator Coleman du Pont, of Delaware, and Charles C. McCord, chairman of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

The New Willard was built in 1910 on the site of the famous Willard's, where, from before Civil War days, many of the nation's prominent people had been entertained. It was owned by the Willard family of Virginia, and the present structure is largely the property of Joseph E. Willard, of Richmond, former ambassador to Spain. The building is leased and operates a number of hotels in New York and other cities.

The New Willard has had as its guests many foreign dignitaries, including Marshall Foch, Marshal Joffre, General Diaz and members of the French and Belgian delegations to the Arms Conference.

FIRE AT CAMP HUMPHRIES

Nine of the old barracks buildings at Camp Humphries in Fairfax county, were destroyed by fire, Sunday afternoon last, entailing a loss of several thousand dollars, partially covered by insurance. The buildings were unused and had been purchased by a New York wrecking company, which was under contract to remove them. The origin of the fire has not been determined. The camp firefighters and the soldiers worked for an hour to subdue the flames, which, at times, threatened other buildings.

APPLES, FREEZES, BANKING VIRGINIA

Highly discouraging reports come from the apple-growing sections of Virginia. Continued cold weather, with freezing temperatures four or five successive nights, have without doubt wrought enormous damage to apples, and have nearly wiped out peaches, pears and other fruits more susceptible to frost. Possibly the hardier York Imperials of the lower Valley will withstand the severe weather, but it seems probable that the Ben Davises and winesaps are gone, and that very little else will be saved in the Winchester section, while reports indicate that in the upper Valley fruit region, with Staunton as the center, the yield is probably cut at least one-half.

This calamity is especially disastrous coming on top of the failure of 1921, when the March freeze made the apple crop of Virginia almost a total loss. Fruit is an incident on farms of the eastern part of the State, but in the Valley there are many growers who make its culture their sole business, and upon a crop depends the living of thousands of people. More, the loss extends to many related industries. The fruit men began the year with their surplus badly impaired by the ill fortune of a year ago, and many of them will find it hard to weather this additional blow.

Science and ingenuity must and will, find an effective and not too expensive way to avert such tremendous losses by freezing. We have the smudge pots, and Harry Flood Byrd, the State's foremost apple grower, saved the bulk of his York Imperials last year by their use. But they are highly expensive to install and very costly to operate, the oil and labor being a heavy expense. So many years had elapsed prior to 1921 since a very disastrous frost, that the fruit growers deemed it economy to carry their own risk rather than incur the necessary expense. The pots raise the temperature four or five degrees in an orchard when no wind exists to blow the smoke screen away, and sometimes this is sufficient to cover the margin between safety and destruction. But the damage resulting from our warm weather and late freezes must be guarded against in some way.

The history of the race is mainly a chronicle of man's struggle against the forces of nature, the beasts of the forest and the infections that attack the body. Men have beaten the forests and water-moors in the race for possession of the land. They have destroyed the menace of wild animals. They have charted and sailed the trackless seas. They have lived and wrought under the ground and under the water, and finally have conquered the air. They have harnessed the rivers and waterfalls and forced the lightning to do their bidding. They will some day circumvent Jack Frost, which by comparison will be but an inferior victory.

Large scale apple growing and scientific marketing are comparatively new developments in Virginia.

James Craig blazed the way in Augusta, and others have followed and perfected. Horticulture has become one of the most important of the State's agricultural activities. Our apples can easily outsell the larger and more highly colored products of the Pacific Coast States, which lack the flavor of our fruit.

Cold storage has come in the wake of fruit growing. The orchardist no longer needs to dump his product on the market at harvest time, and take the lowest price. The consumer is assured of a steady supply from the warehouses, avoiding the fancy prices of midwinter. Senator Byrd, leader of horticultural progress, has established at Winchester the largest apple storage plant in the United States. Last year, with the apple crop at home almost a total failure, he was able to secure through the efforts of the State Corporation Commission, a storage in transit rate on Far Western apples, by means of which he managed to pay the expenses of his plant for the year. A similar provision was secured through the same agency for Richmond from the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway, and for Roanoke from the Norfolk and Western. The local warehouses have handled during the past seasons hundreds of carloads of apples from Washington State, and much of it is still on the floors in this city. It is too bad that the Chesapeake and Ohio feels that the transcontinental rate on this commodity is so low that its divisions from Chicago and Cincinnati to Richmond are unprofitable, and it is seeking to have the Interstate Commerce Commission cancel the transit privilege. Richmond bankers who visited the Valley of Virginia last week promised financial aid. At that time they had in mind carrying those who have planted new orchards and those who are obliged to borrow for improvements and extensions. But the disastrous freeze may make it necessary to extend relief to those who, as a rule, carry their own burdens, and who are now helpless in the face of this calamity of two consecutive years. The industry is perfectly sound at base, and the financial success made by horticulturists is proof that it is not extra hazardous over any number of years. Money loaned on orchards is as safe as any other security.

The strong banks of the Valley have already said they will stand by their people and see them through the crop of 1922. Such aid as they need from the mighty fiscal Gibraltar in Richmond will without doubt be forthcoming. One week ago, few could have predicted that the Richmond bankers would have such a speedy opportunity to show that they meant what they said to the people of the fruit section. This is the chance.

Richmond and the Valley must be more closely bound together. Revised train schedules can do much; sympathetic co-operation and help, when help is needed, can do more.—Richmond Times-Dispatch.

THE OBLIGATIONS OF THE BUSINESS MAN

The old idea of a business career was that it was simply an occupation into which one entered with the hope of making money. Dollars and cents were the only thing considered. A man living in that materialistic atmosphere got a narrow and sordid point of view if he was naturally selfish. Many bad industrial conditions today are the result of the influence of people who have had these ideals in life.

The community wants the business men to have different purposes. They recognize that they are engaged in the effort not merely to make money for themselves, but to provide industrial leadership for the community, to accomplish certain community ends.

The community wants leaders who shall organize and systematize efficiently all industrial operations. It wants these functions carried on at a reasonable cost and with the least waste possible. At the same time it wants other considerations than money making kept in view.

It wants work done in a healthful way, so that the people who perform the tasks of industry can maintain good physical condition. It wants fair wages to be paid, so that those who are thrifty and industrious can live comfortably.

The community asks the business man to realize that good service to the community, and a fair solution of labor problems, are essential to a successful business career. The man who enters business with the sole idea of buying and selling to make money, has a limited conception that is contrary to the spirit of the times. He must think of himself as an agent of the community appointed to work for the general welfare, and his business policies are successful only as they promote good for all the people and really help to achieve it.—Culpeper Exponent.

THE ROMANCE OF THE YEARS

When the romance of the years is dead within her,
 When the memory of the roses will not rise;
 When she comes no more with clinging arms to greet you,
 When she looks no longer sweetly from her eyes;
 When she does not seem to value what you bring her,
 Nor care for any thoughtfulness of heart,
 What are you going to do about it, brother,
 What can you do but just play out your part?

There's a question of the man as of the woman;
 If his love remains the gentle ardor still
 That grew to holy rapture in her presence,
 Has she a right to freeze it back and kill?
 Hasn't she a duty just as much as he has?
 Isn't hers the gentler nature of the two?
 Then if he tries, and trying brings no echo,
 What is there left for any man to do?

You may talk about the difference in natures,
 And about the temperamental state of things,
 But the man has still a right to hope for answers
 To the love that in his soul forever sings;
 To the hunger and the aching of his spirit,
 To the calling of his heart across the years,
 For the burning once again in all its glory
 Of the love that she is drowning with her tears.

Is there poignance in a passion that has vanished?
 Then what must be the poignance of the man
 Who has cherished every sweet and pleasant moment,
 And still tries to be as loving as he can?
 Would the woman bring again her earthly heaven,
 She must bring again from out her heart of dreams
 That devotion to his nature that she gave him
 When the sweetheart roses flourished by the streams.
 —The Bentstova Bard.

LAUGH AND LIVE

Mr. Brown sent a Japanese boy to tell Mrs. Brown to hurry or they would miss the theatre train.
 The Japanese went as he was bid.
 Mrs. Brown was in the throes of putting the finishing touches to her evening toilette.
 "Go tell Mr. Brown to hold his horses for a moment," she snapped.
 "Well, what did she say?" demanded Mr. Brown when the Jap returned.
 "Miss Brown she say 'Whoa!'" came the bland reply.

Bobby, five years old, passed by a cemetery on his way home from school. One day there happened to be a military funeral in progress there. Bobby climbed up on the cemetery wall and watched the solemn rites and listened to the firing of the salute over the grave.
 When he reached home he breathlessly related to his mother the wonderful and interesting sight he had just seen. "But," he ended, "he wasn't quite dead, so the soldiers all took a shot at him."

An early morning customer, a young woman with a determined air, addressed the salesman at an optician's shop.
 "I want to get a pair of eyeglasses of extra magnifying power. While visiting in the country I made a very painful blunder which I never want to repeat."
 "Indeed! Mistook a stranger for an acquaintance?"
 "No, not exactly that; I mistook a humble-bee for a blackberry."

ATLAS
 PORTLAND CEMENT

FROM many points of view, construction in the country is more important than city construction. Property is apt to be under the same ownership for a lifetime instead of a few years. Fire protection is not efficient at long distances. These and other angles argue for building well and permanently.

Your local dealer can help in your building plans. He has, or will get for you, accurate information on any work you have in mind. You can afford to rely on his experience and judgment.

Most permanent construction today is of concrete. For twenty-five years concrete has been tested on all types of building and has made good. For twenty-five years Atlas Portland Cement has been known as "the Standard by which all other mixes are measured."

DIPLOMAS AWARDED TO EASTERN STUDENTS

President Holliday and Mr. C. J. Meetze Address Students at Exercises Saturday Last.

Without the usual pomp and ceremony which occasions a school at its closing, Eastern College-Conservatory held its first commencement under the presidency of Mr. R. H. Holliday last Saturday night in the gymnasium.

After the benediction was pronounced by Rev. A. Stuart Gibson, Miss Grace Butler sang a solo. Prof. Holliday next introduced Hon. C. J. Meetze as the speaker of the evening. Mr. Holliday spoke briefly at the conclusion of Mr. Meetze's address stating that the college was closing a month before it was expecting to close but that the students would receive full credit for a year's work as class periods had been doubled at different times for more than the requirements. Besides this he said that the usual week of commencement ceremonies, the week of examinations and the week of review had been eliminated with the consent of the students' parents.

Those who received diplomas and certificates were Misses Grace Butler, Grace Blovin, Grace Monroe, Bobbie Carr, Lucille Dorough, Mary Hatfield, Ella Mae Hyde, Mary Belle Johnston, Beatrice Luke, Vivian Morgan, Gladys Perry and Mary Alice Ramsey.

Misses Evelyn Clemenshaw and Katherine Martin received diplomas from the academy as did Messrs. Herbert Moore and Thompson Adams.

The superintendent was authorized to purchase an electric driven centrifugal water pump to be installed in the place of the present steam driven pump.

It was resolved that C. M. Larkin & Company be given a flat rate on electric power current for his mill of 7 cents per k. w. hour and to carry a minimum charge of $70 per month.

The superintendent was instructed to take up the matter of running the electric wires under the railroad right-of-way instead of overhead as at present and have the work done at once provided satisfactory arrangements can be made with the railroad people.

The superintendent was also instructed to make the necessary change in the purchase of a complete switchboard panel to meet the requirements of the new unit. He was also authorized to offer for sale, one of the present used electric units for the sum of $1,500.

Mrs. J. C. Gilroy and children, who have been visiting relatives in Alexandria and Washington returned to Manassas on Tuesday.

LEAGUE HOLDS A BUSY MEETING

Field Day and State May Community Life Campaign Chief Subjects of Discussion.

The regular meeting of the Manassas High School Community League was held last Thursday, April 20, with the president, Mrs. Ashby Lewis, presiding and Mrs. J. B. T. Thornton as acting secretary. After prayer by Rev. A. Stuart Gibson, a brief program followed: A recitation by Miss Christine Moser, and a paper by Miss Susan Harrison on historic Virginia Homes, the latter containing a very interesting account among others of Belle Air, the old Ewell place in southern Prince William.

The business meeting opened with the report of the delegate representing the league at the recent district conference in Alexandria, which was given by Mrs. W. W. Davies and compared very favorably she said with other reports read. Mr. C. J. Meetze, chairman of the Prince William County school league association, next followed with a brief account of the Alexandria League meeting. Mr. Meetze expressed himself as being much impressed with the enthusiasm shown, and the reports of the work of the league.

Mr. Ledman, as chairman of the committee on the field day program to be given by the Manassas League on Saturday, May 13, next read his report on the program adopted.

The following field day committee were appointed by the president: for luncheon, Mrs. Ewell Evans, Mrs. J. L. Moser, Mrs. Charles Lewis, Mrs. A. Stuart Gibson, Mrs. Hill Brown, Mrs. Beaver and Mrs. E. D. Wisler; for the acquiring of prizes, Mrs. Raymond Ratcliffe, Mrs. A. A. Hooff, Mrs. Sam Weir, Mrs. C. E. L. Hodge and Mrs. Fowell Merchant.

The State May Community Life Campaign was next brought up for consideration. Letters were read from Mr. Guy, secretary of the State Cooperative Education Association urging the school leagues to cooperate in this state wide movement for the betterment of rural life conditions, for better health, for better schools, roads, churches, homes and agriculture. Arrangements were made to appoint some day in May for a mass meeting to which representatives from all the county leagues together with representatives from all other town and county organization should be invited, and a committee of three, Miss Osbourn, Miss Metz and Mr. Gibson, appointed to secure Professor C. G. Maphis, of the University of Virginia, or some other prominent state speaker, to address the meeting on the purpose and aims of the campaign.

The ministers present who had been invited to discuss the campaign—Mr. Stevens, Mr. Gibson, Mr. Jamison, Mr. Pence and Mr. Gollibew, also offered to co-operate in the movement, and, in accordance with the request of Governor Trinkle, to give sermons in the churches on the aims of the Campaign. The meeting adjourned at five o'clock.

STAUNTON MEN FINED

Dr. S. C. Neff, Guy Kyle, Harry Fauver and A. F. Higginbotham, all prominent business men of Staunton, on Tuesday pleaded guilty to an indictment returned by the Federal grand jury for violation of the national prohibition act.

Judge Henry C. McDowell, presiding at the opening session of the United States District Court for the Western District of Virginia, fined Dr. Neff, Higginbotham and Fauver $300 each and Kyle $150. An indictment was also returned against Thomas Tisdale, but, on recommendation of District Attorney Thomas Muncy, the case was not pressed. No jail sentences were imposed.

The indictment of the four Staunton citizens grew out of evidence given by Tisdale in Circuit Court in Staunton in February, when he was being tried for a violation of the national prohibition act. Tisdale testified that he was operating a still at his home near Staunton in conjunction with the four men who were indicted Tuesday. —Richmond Times-Dispatch

FIRST ANNUAL MEET WON BY LOCAL HIGH SCHOOL

Manassas Track Team is Pressed for First Honors by Floris—Hooff Individual Star.

The Manassas Agricultural High School won the first annual track and field meet held among the agricultural high schools of Northern Virginia, which was held on the Round Athletic Field on Saturday afternoon. The local school was crowded close for first honors by the Floris team, of Herndon. The final score was as follows: Manassas, 58 1/2; Floris, 49 1/2, and Boyce, 19.

Following the heats of the 100-yard-dash, in which Manassas qualified two men, Floris took the lead in points when it scored 6 1/2 points in the high jump. After the 100-yard-dash finals, however, Manassas lead by a two point margin and kept the lead to the finish although the Floris lads on two occasions tied the score. At the beginning of the 220-yard-dash the score was tied for the last time between the two schools. This race was won by Funkhouser, of Boyce, after a pretty run, being blocked nearly all the way before he could get loose on the final stretch. Manassas placed second and fourth in this race thereby taking the lead again.

Jasper, freshman at the local school this year, won the mile run after one of the prettiest races seen on the Manassas track for many seasons. Taking the lead at the start he kept it throughout the race. He started sprinting close to the 220-yard-mark on the last lap and was approached several times by Green, of Boyce, who was unable to hold the pace and dropped back.

Four points was the margin by which Manassas was leading the Floris aggregation at this time with the broad jump the only remaining event, and had Hooff not made his final leap of 18 feet and 7 inches thereby winning the event the story would have been different.

Hooff was the individual star point winner of the meet, winning three firsts and tying for another, besides winning second place in one event. This gave him a total of 22 points. Funkhouser, of Boyce, was next in line as star point winner with 13 points to his credit. Third honors were divided between Middleton, of Floris, and Meetze, of Manassas, each scoring 10 points. Meetze won the discus throw with a remarkable heave of 98 feet 8 inches. Lund, a freshman at M. H. S., crowded him close for first honors, sailing the plate over a distance of 97 feet 10 inches.

Following is the list of winners of each event and the time or distance made by each winner:

CLUB DISCUSSES PLANS FOR FAIR

Members of Stone Houhe Good Housekeepers' Club Show Interest in Fair.

At the last few meetings of the Stone House Good Housekeeping Club much interest in plans for this year's County Fair has been shown. Earnest discussions took place as to the relative merits, or demerits of racing, and of games of chance such as were allowed to spread themselves in the manner of a green bay tree upon the midway last year, seemingly without the disapproval of those who consider horse racing to be one of the most flagrant forms of wickedness, and especially subversive to the morals of our youth.

All agreed that since trials of speed are in themselves not harmful, and the temptation to gamble on the outcome of a race affects comparatively few, while the gambling stands above mentioned were patronized in extraordinary numbers, the latter form of diversion is calculated to do far more harm than the former.

It was found also to be the unanimous feeling among the members of this club that none of the so-called clean shows were really desirable, while most of them were positively harmful since they were a low grade of entertainment, pandering to the uncultivated taste for the uncouth and bizarre, both in the musical attractions and also by the freaks on exhibition. The amount of money, too, wasted upon these things was freely discussed.

These discussion finally led to a growing feeling of confidence that if the cooperation of the men and women of the county could be secured, the Good Housekeeping Clubs could undertake a County Bazaar to be held on the fair grounds during the three days of the fair next fall to help finance the fair and to assist the fair management in supplying wholesome amusements and providing that every financial feature should be directly for the benefit of the Fair Association, and not for the traveling showman or for the get-rich-quick food speculator.

Considerable enthusiasm was aroused as all sorts of money-making features were discussed; the following being a few of the suggestions submitted: All lunch and refreshment stands to be run by the association, the supplies for the same to be solicited from all parts of the county and sold at a moderate profit; all amusement features such as the indispensable merry-go-round and moving picture outfit to be chartered by the association and run for the benefit of the same; a sanitary market where all products could be sold.

It is proposed to secure articles for the bazaar by means of a sufficient number of committees to insure the canvassing of every community in the county for contributions embracing products of the farm, the home, the store and the factory, all articles thus secured to be sold for the benefit of the fair.

The club believes in the slogan: "a county fair of the people, for the people and by the people," that more people will contribute in many ways, more generously, when they feel it is really their enterprise and it is put squarely up to them "What will you do for your county?"

A county fair conducted along some such lines would afford a fine opportunity to try out cooperative plans among farmers and townsmen as well; would blaze the way of new endeavor and new achievements for agricultural fairs; would do for the county what the community leagues are doing for the community, arouse county pride and a feeling of responsibility for those things that advance the county as a whole, good roads, good schools, better opportunities for every section and inspire that fine sentiment "for the honor of the county" rather than the narrower and more selfish consideration "just so my section gets better roads and schools I care very little."

The Stone House Good Housekeeping Club therefore, wishes to urge that the women clubs of the county, the community leagues and every household in the county discuss the possibilities and desirability of such a county enterprise and call upon the Woman's Auxiliary to confer with the Fair Association about the proposed plan so that if the association endorsement is secured, a conference of the clubs may be called and plans for the launching of the big undertaking may immediately be begun.

Hynson's Department Stores

"The Quality Shop," Manassas, Virginia

To the Farmers of Prince William County

The time has come when we have got to organize. The sooner the better, if we ever expect to stretch out and command our prices for what we have to sell.

Have we not the same right to set our prices as has the manufacturer?

The local buyer, when you go to buy from him, has his prices set. The manufacturer sets his prices to the jobber, the jobber then to the retailer, the retailer then to you.

Where did the manufacturer get his raw products to start with?

He got them from you.

Did you tell him what price you would take for your wheat, your wool, your oats?

No. You asked him how much he was paying. He tells you. What is the outcome?

You keep it or sell it at his price.

How about those fat steers that you have to sell? Those hogs, those lambs, those calves? Did you set your price?

No. Here comes that hard luck tale when the local buyer comes around. Brother farmer asks, "How is the market?"

"It is rotten," he says.

Do you take a daily paper to see what the markets are? The majority do not.

Then you chew the rag for a while and then you ask the dealer what he is paying.

He says, "I don't know."

Now, how do you feel? You are at his mercy. You either have to sell to him or keep your live stock. He ships his load on to market and clears $200 or more. They are then resold to the slaughter house, sold again from there to the retailer, from there back to the consumer, and what does a steak from that steer cost the consumer? Not less than 40c a pound. You raised it, took all the chances, and then had to take it to the local stock pens. The buyer weighs it for you but you pay the weight bill and then the local dealer pays you 5c a pound.

Doesn't this look like tying your hands. Gentlemen, it's worse than a convict with a ball and chain to his legs.

Now see where your losses are. Too many middlemen, too many fellows laying around studying out schemes to beat the farmer. Gentlemen, where will you be in a few years, if we don't join hands and stand together?

The Farmers' Union is your friend and he is always ready to help you. He wants you to join him and be one of his Brothers.

What would this old world be if it were not for the farmers? They are the backbone of the world. They are the biggest buyers in the world. They are the hardest working people in the world, from sunup to sundown, and their work is never done.

Brother Farmer, be on your guard, study the man you vote for, know who you are putting in office to rule you, to tax you, and so on as it goes.

Thank the good Heavenly Father that we live in a free country. As Patrick Henry said, "Give me liberty or give me death." The poor farmer is the most peaceful man on earth. He is too busy to think of schemes.

What are these poor dairymen trying to do (or vice versa), what are the milk dealers trying to do to them? Put them out of business, of course.

"It's too bad," some fellow said.

But it's not going to put back all he has spent to get up a good herd of cows, sanitary barn and dairy equipment. Thousands of dollars tied up, is he going to junk it?

Here is what the live wire says: "No, let us organize and handle our own milk. Are you on, brother?"

"I will study about it," he answers.

Next time he sees him—"Well, what have you decided to do?" He answers, "I guess I will stay out."

Next thing here comes a notice from the milk dealer saying that he will need his milk no longer, and he goes to his wife and asks, "Well, Mary, what are we going to do; how am I going to meet those notes?"

Mary says, "Do not come bothering me, I told you to join the Association."

Gentlemen, that is what all this leads to. We have got to organize, stand together, before we ever will get anywhere. The Farmers' Union, with its three big headquarters in our capital city, is doing more to help the farmer every day and the more members it has, makes it that much stronger.

Now, why not say to yourself right now, "I am going to see my local Secretary and Treasurer and tell him that I have been a slacker long enough, here are my dues, you can bank on me now and forever more."

What class composes the wealth of our county? The farmer class does.

How would the other fellow live if it were not for the farmer?

Be on the guard, Brother Farmer, for the fellow who is trying to tear down your organization. Trade at your local exchange. What they have not got in stock they will get for you. All profits are divided among its members when they deal with them, so why not join the Union and trade at your store. Join hands and help the poor farmer who is trying to help himself.

Yours for a better living, to uphold our laws.

LAYING OF THE CORNERSTONE

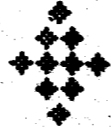

OF

Trinity Church

Manassas, Virginia

St. Philip and St. James Bay

Monday, May 1, 3 P. M.

Religious Services conducted by Rt. Rev. Wm. Cabell Brown, D. D., Bishop of the Diocese of Virginia, assisted by the Rector, Rev. A. Stuart Gibson, and others.

Masonic Ceremonies under auspices of Manassah Lodge, No. 182, A. F. & A. M.

PROGRAMME

PROCESSIONAL HYMN—Rise, Crowned with light.

Rise, crowned with light, imperial Salem, rise!
Exalt thy towering head and lift thine eyes!
See heaven its sparkling portals wide display,
And break upon thee in a flood of day.

See a long race thy spacious courts adorn:
See future sons, and daughters yet unborn,
In crowding ranks on every side arise,
Demanding life, impatient for the skies.

See barbarous nations at thy gates attend,
Walk in thy light, and in thy temple bend:
See thy bright altars thronged with prostrate kings,
While every land its joyous tribute brings.

The seas shall waste, the skies to smoke decay,
Rocks fall to dust, and mountains melt away;
But fixed His word, His saving power remains;
Thy realm shall last, thy own Messiah reigns.

OPENING SENTENCES AND PRAYER.

SCRIPTURE LESSON—I Corinthians 3:1—11.

Then shall be said:

- V. O give thanks unto the Lord, for He is gracious:
- R. For His mercy endureth for ever.
- V. O give thanks unto the God of all gods:
- R. For His mercy endureth for ever.
- V. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost.
- R. O give thanks unto the Lord, for He is gracious: for His mercy endureth for ever.

Lord, have mercy upon us.
Christ, have mercy upon us.
Lord, have mercy upon us.

Our Father.

- V. Behold I lay in Sion a chief Cornerstone, elect, precious:
- R. And he that believeth on Him shall not be confounded.
- V. This is the Lord's doing:
- R. And it is marvellous in our eyes.
- V. Other foundations can no man lay than that is laid:
- R. Which is Jesus Christ.

VERSICLES AND PRAYER.

Here the Cornerstone will be laid with Masonic Ceremonies by Manassah Lodge, No. 182, A. F. & A. M.

FRESH VEGETABLES

In the springtime comes that inner longing for something different from the sameness of the winter meals prepared from fruits and vegetables which have been canned or stored all winter and thereby losing their crispness and flavor. This longing is only natural and it is one that should be met. Fresh vegetables do much more than satisfy a longing. They act as a tonic and body builder.

We have already a nice supply of the following green vegetables on our stand:

NEW POTATOES, CABBAGE, LETTUCE, CUCUMBERS
CARROTS, ONIONS, KALE AND CABBAGE

Besides, you will find us well supplied with STRAWBERRIES, APPLES, BANANAS and CITRUS FRUITS OF THE HIGHEST QUALITY.

First to establish the $10.90 price—Usco

THE makers of U. S. Tires made this announcement last November—

"Hereafter the price of the 30x3 1/2 'Usco' is $10.90."

The lowest price ever quoted on a tire of quality reputation and standard performance.

And now, with the opening of Spring, there seem to be quite a number of "New and Special tires" coming into the market in the $10.90 price range.

Perhaps you are wondering just what there can be either "new" or "special" about these tires.

It can't be the $10.90 price—'Usco' established that five months ago.

Nor quality reputation and standard performance—for it takes more than one full season for any new tire to demonstrate where it stands in quality and value.

With so many tires rushing into this $10.90 price field (now that the season promises business from the American car-owner), it is worth remembering that "Usco" showed its good faith by announcing this price last fall.

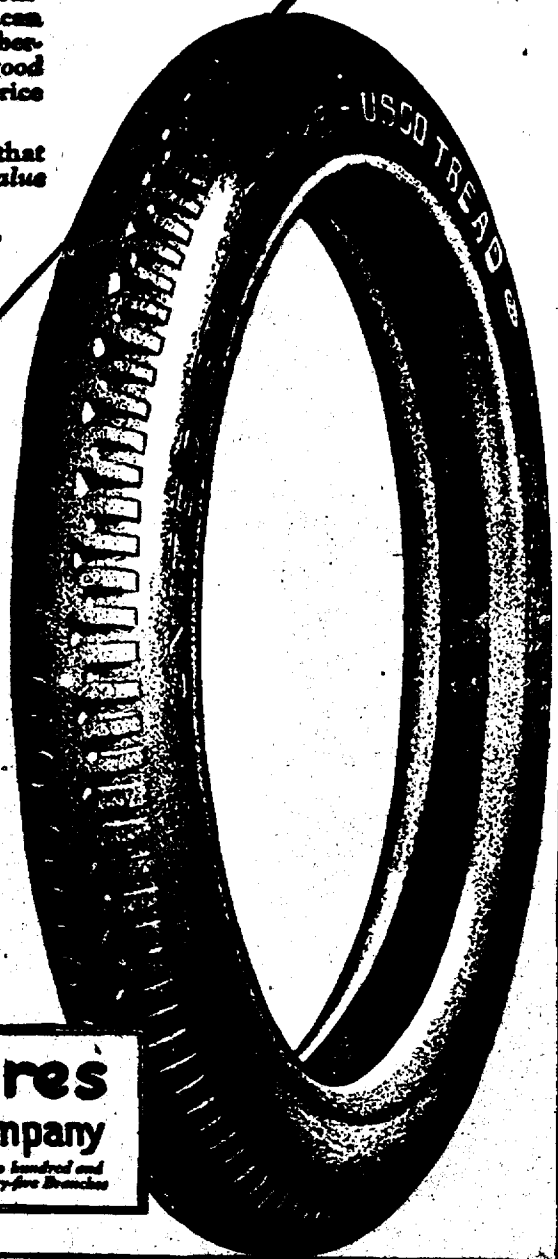

The same intent to serve that has made "Usco" a standard value for years.

The "Usco" Tire was never better than it is today—with its established quality, its time-tested performance, and its price closely figured in tune with the times.

PROGRAM OF EXERCISES

Blest be the place; thither repair
That true and pious train;
Devotion makes her anthem there
And Heaven accepts the strain.

After the Stone is lowered and the grand honors given, sing—

Father of love and might
Send forth Thy Holy Light
On us to shine;
Be thou our Sovereign Lord,
And may Thy Holy Word
Be to us shield and sword;
Master Divine.

Bound in one brotherhood,
Owning one common blood,
Children of Thine;
Fill us with kindness,
Prompt to relieve distress,
Wearing Thy true impress,
Master Divine.

With joyful hands to-day
This corner-stone we lay,
With Corn, Oil, Wine;
But do Thou build up one
Wrought in the living stone
Of our true hearts alone,
Master Divine.

As the ceremonies of consecration proceed, sing—

When once of old in Israel
Our early brethren wrought with toil,
Jehovah's blessings on them fell
In showers of Corn and Wine and Oil.

When there a shrine to Him alone
They built, with worship sin to foil,
On threshold and on corner-stone
They poured out Corn and Wine and Oil.

And we have come, fraternal bands,
With joy and pride and prosperous spoil,
To honor Him by votive hands
With streams of Corn and Wine and Oil.

BLESSING OF THE STONE AND PRAYER BY THE BISHOP.

HYMN—Christ is Made the Sure Foundation.

Christ is made the sure foundation,
Christ the head and corner-stone,
Chosen of the Lord, and precious,
Binding all the Church in one;
Holy Zion's help forever,
And her confidence alone.

To this temple, where we call Thee,
Come, O Lord of Hosts, to-day;
With Thy wonted loving-kindness,
Hear Thy servants as they pray;
And Thy fullest benediction
Shed within its walls alway.

All that dedicated city,
Dearly loved of God on high,
In exultant jubilation
Pours perpetual melody;
God the One in Three adoring
In glad hymns eternally.

Here vouchsafe to all Thy servants
What they ask of Thee to gain,
What they gain from Thee, forever
With the blessed to retain,
And hereafter in Thy glory
Evermore with Thee to reign.

ADDRESS.

CLOSING PRAYERS AND BENEDICTION.

RECESSIONAL HYMN—The Church's One Foundation.

The Church's one foundation
Is Jesus Christ her Lord;
She is His new creation
By water and the word:
From Heaven He came and sought her
To be His holy Bride;
With His own blood He bought her,
And for her life He died.

'Mid toil and tribulation,
And tumult of her war
She waits the consummation
Of peace for evermore;
Till with the vision glorious
Her longing eyes are blest,
And the great Church victorious
Shall be the Church at rest.

Elect from every nation,
Yet one o'er all the earth,
Her charter of salvation,
One Lord, one Faith, one Birth;
One holy Name she blesses,
Partakes one holy food,
And to one hope she presses,
With every grace endued.

Yet she on earth hath union
With God the Three in One,
And mystic sweet communion
With those whose rest is won:
O happy ones and holy!
Lord, give us grace that we
Like them, the meek and lowly,
On high may dwell with Thee.

History of Trinity Church Taken From Parish Register

Brentsville Church, 1865.
After the War of the Confederacy, 1861-65, there was no building left in Dettingen Parish but the walls and roof of St. James, used for a stable. This building was stripped of windows, floor and doors and used for a stable. The rector and nearly all the Episcopal families were gone. Mr. Towles returned to his farm and tried to start up the parish, but gave it up. The building was partially restored, and used for a court house, and the vestry-room for a schoolroom. Mr. Allen Howison and family was about the only Episcopal family left. Mostly through his influence and means and with the help of the Brentsville people, who have always been generous, the building was floored, doors and windows put in, and it was occasionally used by ministers of Piedmont Convocation, viz., Rev. William Douse, John McGill, et al.

First Starting of Church at Manassas.
In 1872 an effort was begun, stirred up by the Rev. Kinlock Nelson, and by the labors of a few Episcopalians at Manassas, most of whom were from Dettingen Parish, to erect a building at Manassas. Mrs. Mary M. Weir, wife of Robert C. Weir was the most zealous person in this work and so continued until her death. The ground was given by Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Weir. The Rev. John McGill kept this work alive and directed it. The families of Mr. William Temple Smith, formerly of Fauquier, and John C. Weems, formerly of Maryland, having moved into Manassas by the efforts of the Rev. John McGill, then living near Chantilly. The Rev. Wm. Woodson Walker, Deacon, was sent in July, 1877 to take charge of Manassas, Brentsville, Clifton and Centerville, as missionary of the Piedmont Convocation. Mr. Walker only remained here one year. In July (20th) 1872, having just been ordained to the priesthood, I (Rev. A. P. Gray) accepted the call as missionary of the Piedmont Convocation and began officiating at the above named points, living at Manassas.

Condition of Church at Brentsville, 1879.
I found at Brentsville sixteen communicants scattered through the country, most of them from the North, and seven of them left soon after without communing. The building had no chancel, organ, lights, pews, paint or fencing around it, and a very indifferent roof. The family of Mr. E. Bauder had just moved to Brentsville six months before and I found there a great help. The family of Major Wm. Willis Thornton, of Allen Howison, and E. E. Meredith and wife, were my helpers under the Lord in keeping open and nearly restoring this old temple of worship. A new roof has been put on, chancel, organ, lights and stove have been furnished and a fence put around it.

Trinity—1879.
At Manassas I found twenty-three communicants (Mr. Weems and family were then in Charlottesville), a debt of sixty dollars on the organ, a mere shell of a building, no tower, no chancel, no pews, no furniture, even the facings around the windows, doors and wash-board were all wanting. An old box, turned upside down and covered with green curtain-cambic was used for a desk and pulpit, and a few broken, loose, rickety pews from the old Presbyterian Church were used to seat the congregation. There was thirty dollar debt also on lightning rods and ten dollars on little things, making one hundred dollars due, and the people despondent. The Weirs, Smiths and Reads being the main helpers the first year, by help from outside, we paid for the organ, put pews, chancel, trimmings, etc.

In September, 1880, I moved to Brentsville, lived in the Vestry-room to St. James Church, and got my meals at the Bauders.

HISTORY OF TRINITY CHURCH

Centerville, Fairfax county, and accepted Haymarket Parish, Prince William, still retaining Dettingen, but residing at Haymarket. The Council which met in Danville, May 1881, established the following boundaries: Boundary Line Between Dettingen and Haymarket Parishes.

Resolved, That the following be established and recognized as the dividing line between the Parishes of Dettingen and Leeds (hereafter to be called Haymarket Parish), that is to say, beginning at a point on the boundary line of Fauquier county, about two and a half miles north of the Virginia Midland railroad at a point where the Greenwich road crosses Kettle Run; thence N. E. to Langyers Mills; thence following the public road eastward by the way of Wellington station, crossing the Sudley road near to and southeast of the residence of Wm. B. Wheeler, and passing through the farm of Mr. Frank Lewis, called "Portico" to Ball's Ford on the Bull Run.

Forty-Ninth Semi-Annual Meeting

Piedmont Convocation.
The forty-ninth Semi-Annual Meeting of the Piedmont Convocation was held in Trinity Church, Manassas, May 3, 4, 5, 1887. There were present E. W. Davis (President), S. A. Wallis (secretary), A. P. Gray, G. W. Nelson, James Grammer, R. R. Claiborne, T. G. Dashiell, J. M. Meredith, H. S. Sharp, H. B. Leeb, Wm. M. Meade, S. S. Ware, Carter Page, Frank Page and W. T. Roberts; absent, Ambler, Moore and Johns. Trinity Church, Manassas, has been weather-boarded and painted and the tower added with lights and chancel furniture. Mr. McPherson, brother of Mrs. Weems, gave the marble font; Rev. A. P. Gray gave the prayer desk. The church is now ready for consecration. (Rev. A. P. Gray resigned Dettingen Parish June 30th, 1888. Trinity Church was consecrated by Bishop Randolph, July 16, by Bishop Randolph, n. JgavePtaol 1888.)

For sometime after Rev. A. P. Gray's resignation, the church seems to have been in charge of students from the Theological Seminary, prominent among them for good work is Mr. (now Rev.) J. R. Ellis. After him, Mr. W. C. Lindsay, who for a time lived in Manassas, had charge and received much assistance from Rev. J. J. Norwood, evangelist, and Rev. S. A. Wallis. About 1890 Rev. B. T. Turner took charge of Trinity Church in connection with St. Paul's, Haymarket. He resigned, apparently, in 1893. In 1893 Rev. T. D. Lewis, just ordained deacon, was appointed to the charge of Trinity Church in connection with Zion, Fairfax—the minister residing at Fairfax. Rev. T. D. Lewis resigned in April, 1896.

Rev. W. H. K. Pendleton, just ordained deacon, was appointed to Fairfax and Manassas, and took charge August, 1896, residing at Fairfax. In 1897, the old church at Brentsville, having been for years abandoned and in verbed repair, was by consent of the Diocesan authority sold for $300, the proceeds being laid by for a future Rectory at Manassas.

On January 1, 1900, Rev. Pendleton resigned the churches in Fairfax, and became resident Rector of Trinity Church, the congregation increasing their salary contribution from $225 to $425 per annum, the ladies pledging $100 additional for house rent. August 12, 1901, work on the Rectory was begun. It was occupied by the Rector and his family early in February 1902. July 1, 1900 Rev. Pendleton began holding services in a school house at Nokesville, and almost immediately began collecting money for the erection of a church. May 1, 1901, the offer of Mrs. F. E. Hagemeyer, of South Orange, N. J., to build a memorial chapel at Nokesville was accepted. Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Free, jr., gave a beautiful lot. October 1, 1901, the contract for the church was let.

On Thursday, April 24, 1902, St. Ann's Memorial Chapel, Nokesville, was consecrated by Bishop Robt. A. Gibson, assisted by the Rector and twelve other members of Piedmont Convocation, then in session at Manassas, in the presence of a large and reverent congregation, among them Mrs. F. E. Hagemeyer and her family and Miss Ellen W. Fanning, who had been instrumental in securing the gift. In June 1903, St. Ann's elected a vestry, authorized to do so by resolution of the vestry of Trinity Church. August 1, 1902, Rev. Pendleton resigned. (Since the resignation of Rev. Gray, this information has been given by Rev. W. H. K. Pendleton.)

John McGill was called and took charge of Trinity, Manassas, and St. Ann's Memorial Chapel, Nokesville, September 1902, but allowed by the congregation of the parish to reside at his home on account of ill health November 30, 1906.

The Rev. F. Leslie Robinson succeeded the Rev. John McGill, D. D. as rector of Trinity Church, Manassas, Va., and St. Ann's Chapel, Nokesville, taking charge May 1, 1907 and resigning April 30, 1910. During his rectorship acetylene gas was introduced into Trinity Church and a balance of $680 collected to pay off the balance of an indebtedness on the rectory. The Rev. Philip Augustus Arthur, a deacon, was appointed by the Rt. Rev. Robt. Atkinson Gibson, D. D., bishop of the diocese, May 1, 1911 and served Trinity Church and St. Ann's Chapel until April 30, 1913.

The Rev. John F. Burks became rector of Trinity Church, Manassas, Va., and St. Ann's Memorial Chapel, Nokesville, on October 1, 1913. During his rectorship the World War came on and under his leadership many of the members of both Trinity and St. Ann's took an active part in war preparations. Many of the men of the parish entered the service of their country. The following is the list of the names upon the Roll of Honor: Maj. Walter A. Newman, Capt. W. Fewell Merchant, Capt. Percy Stuart Haydon, Lieut. Roswell E. Round, Lieut. Lyman Patterson, Lieut. George C. Lyon, Francis Norvell Larkin, George D. Adamson, Wheatly M. Johnson, Joseph Benjamin Johnson, William Harold Lipscomb, Mars Lewis, Marshall Haydon, William Lucien Larkin, Hendley Johnson and W. Claude Griggs.

Many of the other members of Trinity Church took an active part in the Red Cross and other organizations. On March 1, 1918, he resigned the rectorship in order to take charge of the churches in Alta Vista and Evington in S. W. Virginia.

On May 16, 1918, Rev. A. Stuart Gibson became rector of the parish. The World War was then at its height and the rector and congregation threw themselves into the activities which were supporting the cause of the allied and associated powers. Mr. Gibson, already trained in Red Cross work, became identified with the Manassas Chapter and did what he could to support its activities. Miss Mary Larkin, the efficient secretary, upon whom the activities of the Chapter depended, is a communicant of Trinity Church.

Because of the illness of Mr. George G. Tyler, the chairman, Mr. Gibson, the vice-chairman, was compelled to act as chairman and held that position until constrained to resign by the pressure of the church's work. The Nation Wide Campaign took up a good deal of the energies of the rector and congregation; the rector not only conducted the campaign in his own parish but went to other parishes as a member of committees to explain the campaign to them.

The N. W. C. made a grant of $3000 a year for three years to Trinity Church and because of this aid and the interest developed among the congregation through this campaign, a new church was built and the old building moved back and converted into a parish hall.

Just as this work was being started St. Ann's Memorial Chapel at Nokesville was destroyed by fire and had to be re-built. This task was courageously undertaken by the little congregation and the N. W. C. committee made a grant of $1000 which enabled that congregation to begin work. The new St. Ann's was completed and occupied by the congregation less than a year after the original was burned.

Complete Practical Electric Plant

$295.00

ROCK-BOTTOM prices are here—and here is convincing evidence.

A complete, practical electric power and light plant at an unheard-of price—$295.00

At this price every home can have electricity. That is the object of this new plant. All of the resources of its makers are behind it. Only their tremendous producing capacity could make this value possible. Willys Light Junior is large enough for light and small power uses. In every respect it is on the same high plane of quality for which all Willys Light products are noted. It has the celebrated air-cooled Auto-Lite engine-generator. It is neatly finished, compact and economical.

Our nation-wide service facilities are squarely behind it.

See this wonderful plant which costs so little to own and very little to run. We will be delighted to demonstrate.

CURTIS BAY, BALTIMORE, MD.

Manufacturer of FERTILIZER for the FARMER. Always the HIGHEST Quality. Always the LOWEST Price

$13.00

I offer to any farmer or party of farmers to deliver on car at any station in this county in car load lots and either in straight or mixed cars—in 167 lb. bags—Acid Phosphate sixteen per cent, thirteen dollars per ton.

$13.00

Phosphoric Acid twelve per cent, Potash five per cent—Twenty-Two Dollars per ton. Ammonia two per cent, Phosphoric Acid nine per cent, Potash two per cent—Twenty-Four Dollars per ton. My only terms are spot cash on arrival of car. I am not making these prices to any dealer to be resold at a profit. Nor to any ORGANIZATION formed for the private profit of a few FAVORED STOCKHOLDERS at ruinous costs to the many non-profit-sharing members
Lime-Marl car load in bulk, Three Dollars and Fifty Cents per ton delivered on car from Broad Run to Markham, inclusive

PLOW UNDER PEAS AND BEANS AND MAKE POOR LAND RICH LAND

I have in stock bought direct from large growers in Georgia, South Carolina and North Carolina two car loads Brown and Grey Whippoorwill Peas—one car load Brabham Peas and one car load Black Soy Beans. For cutting for hay, use Brabhams or Whippoorwills. For plowing under to improve the land, use Black Soy Beans or Black Soy Beans mixed with Peas.

I have been a merchant for the past thirty-one years and a practical farmer for the past seventeen years and I am giving you the results of my observation and experience. Every bushel of these Beans and Peas are sound select and re-cleaned stock and these have been tested for purity and germination by the Virginia Agricultural Department and none is lower than 97 per cent purity and 89 per cent germination. Some run as high as 96 per cent germination. Be cautious when you buy mixed cow peas on the open market, for my experience with mixed peas has been that they are usually low grade stock and undesirable. In fact I have seen some mixed Peas on the market this year with germination as low as 80 per cent. My price on these Peas and Beans is two dollars and sixty cents per bushel of sixty pounds, and this price will go no higher so long as these four car loads last. If the market declines I will name lower prices of course. Write for samples. I will be glad to mail you samples.

A part of my job is to sell Cow Peas. A part of your job is to buy Cow Peas from the man who offers you the highest quality at the lowest price.

I am going to keep telling you the simple facts in my own simple way. I am going to interest you. I am going to keep you interested. I am going to try to make every farmer my friend. At any rate, I am going to be the friend of every farmer.
