

COMMUNITY FAIRS SEPT. 21-22-23

Brentsville, Independent Hill and Bethel Will Be Places of Meetings.

(Miss Lillian V. Gilbert, County Home Demonstration Agent.)
Last week premium lists were sent out for the first community fair to be held in Brentsville District. Friday, September 22, is the date and Brentsville is the place. The surrounding communities of Gold Ridge, Aden, Bristow and Cannon Branch are invited to take part in this fair. It is hoped that these communities will do the best possible to make this fair one of the best ever held in the county.

A contest in judging will be one of the features put on for the canning and bread club girls. This is to train the girls for the county fair contest.

The premium lists for the second annual fair at Independent Hill were out Wednesday, September 6. It is hoped that all communities in Coles District and those communities in Dumfries District that expect to take part will have the premium lists in hand by the first of next week. Independent Hill committee is making arrangements for speaking, etc., while the judging is being done.

The girls in bread club work will hold a bread judging contest during the day. The first fair at this place exceeded all expectations. Watch out for the 1922 fair—Thursday, September 21, the date.

Although the premium lists are not out yet, the third annual fair will be held at Bethel Saturday, September 23. It is not necessary to speak of the wonderful success Bethel has achieved during the last two years, and it is believed that the 1922 fair will surpass all others. One of the features of the fair will be a bread judging contest by the little girls from the Occoquan club. Miss Belle Burke, District Home Demonstration Agent, will have charge of the judging for the women and girls' work at all of these fairs. Also she will have charge of the girls' contest work.

Mr. John R. Hutcherson, director of extension work in Virginia, has been invited to speak at each of these fairs. Other speakers will be present.

It is hoped that every community will feel that it is a duty and privilege to be a part of this phase of educational work, which is being put over through this great institution of community fairs.

The people in Coles, Brentsville and Occoquan Districts are urged to do their level best to make these fairs a success. Loudoun County says she is going to put on five community fairs next year. Prince William must do at least as well, as she is two years ahead of Loudoun starting.

Remember we are counting on the "Blue Ribbon" exhibits from these fairs for the most interesting part of the county fair. Which district is going to get the silver cup?

FATAL RUNAWAY ACCIDENT

W. R. Staples Dies Few Hours After Receiving Injuries.

While en route from his home in Fairfax County to Manassas yesterday morning, the horse that was being driven by Mr. W. R. Staples became frightened at a dog and cow on the roadside, near the home of Mrs. Emily V. Speakes. The animal bolted, throwing Mr. Staples and his wife, who was accompanying him, from the vehicle.

Mr. Staples became entangled in the lines and was dragged for a distance of one hundred yards over a very rough stretch of road.

When assistance reached him he was gotten upon his feet and carried to the Speakes' home. Dr. W. F. Merchant was sent for and treated the injured man, but the physician could not ascertain so shortly after the accident just how badly Mr. Staples had been injured beyond the fact that he was profoundly shocked. The physician left with the promise to return within a few hours. Shortly after noon he was again sent for. Dr. Merchant responded promptly to the second call, but found Mr. Staples dead when he arrived.

Mrs. Staples was uninjured, though terribly shocked by her husband's death. Mr. Staples was 59 years of age. He had relatives here and at Minnieville.

SUPPLY OF V. P. I. SEED WHEAT IS EXHAUSTED

No More Available for the Present Season—Liberal Supply for Next Fall.

(W. L. Browning, County Agent)
Several farmers have applied for V. P. I. No. 131 wheat. I would like to say that this seed allotment for this county has been exhausted, and there will be none available until next year, when it will be possible to get a liberal amount of this seed for the farmers of the county, on account of the farmers getting a small amount of seed last year and saving their seed and seeding a fair acreage this fall. It is possible for those farmers wishing to secure V. P. I. oats to get as much as 20 bushels of these oats that this year in some instances have yielded 50 per cent more oats than our common varieties. A few of these oats are available in this county for seed. This particular crop of oats, while a small acreage, yielded about 50 bushels per acre with a very poor stand, and the oats weighed from the machine 40 pounds per bushel. There is no doubt but that these oats are far superior to anything sown in Virginia.

Now is the time for the culling of the farm flocks of poultry. That is as important as having your cows tested for their production of milk and butterfat. When you consider the fact that it cost from $1.25 to $1.75 to feed a hen per year, every time you eliminate a boarder from your flock you have saved that much money. Would you like to get rid of these birds while the market is good for old hens? The county agent will be glad to come and show you how to cull your chickens and to hold demonstrations in communities where we can get several neighbors together, so that you can go home and call your own birds. A lot of the poultry club members can cull poultry and will be glad to come and show you. If you are interested in stopping this leak in your poultry income, get in touch with your county agent.

The farmer this year who waits to the last moment to buy his fertilizer for his wheat crop is the one who is going to get left, not because the fertilizer is scarce, but the transportation is bad, and it will be impossible to get the material to the farmer on time unless he buys in time. Club together with your neighbors now and get your fertilizer in car lots. If you are interested in using a complete fertilizer for your wheat and want to save $9 or $10 per ton by mixing it yourself, I will be glad to show you how to mix the different materials and what materials to get to mix.

The way to make your county agent valuable is to use him. That is what he is here for.

DISTINGUISHED VIRGINIAN

Joseph E. Willard Presents Portrait to Virginia.

Joseph E. Willard, former Lieut. Governor of Virginia, has presented a portrait of himself to the Senate, developed at Richmond a short time ago.

The portrait, which now is in the keeping of John R. Jetter, Librarian of the Virginia Senate, will be hung with proper ceremonies in the Senate chamber after it is formally accepted by that body and by the State Art Commission. Mr. Willard, as Lieut. Governor, presided over the Senate. He was previously a member of the House of Delegates. During the Wilson Administration he served as American Ambassador to Spain. The portrait is the work of the Austrian artist, Beremy.

CHILDREN MUST ATTEND SCHOOL

If Between the Ages of 8 and 14, Unless Mentally or Physically Incapacitated.

For the information of its readers The Journal is publishing herewith extracts from the compulsory school law passed by the 1922 session of the Virginia General Assembly:

1. Every parent or guardian who has charge of any child, or children, who have reached the eighth birthday and have not passed the fourteenth birthday, shall send such child or children to school during the entire session of the public school.

2. Every child who is mentally or physically unable to attend school is exempt from the provisions of the act, but the division superintendent has the right to require a certificate from a practicing physician issued after an examination of the child when such exemption is claimed.

3. Any parent or guardian who fails to send such child to school as required by this act, or who makes a false statement concerning the age of the child; or any person who attempts to induce any child to be absent unlawfully from school or who knowingly employs or harbors while school is in session any child unlawfully absent from school; or any person who commits an offense under this act for which no specific penalty is provided, is liable to a fine not exceeding $25.

4. It shall be the duty of the Commonwealth's Attorney to prosecute all cases arising under this act.

5. Within fifteen days after the opening of school the teacher shall submit to the division superintendent a list of children of the community not enrolled in school. The superintendent shall investigate such cases, and when no valid reason for non-attendance is found, shall notify the parent or guardian and require the attendance of such child within five days after the notice is given. Failure to comply with this request shall be considered a misdemeanor and treated as such.

6. If a parent or guardian permits or allows a child to be absent from school unlawfully for five days in any school month he shall be notified to cause the child to attend school. If after service of such notice, the child is again absent from school unlawfully that month or absent from school unlawfully five days during any following school month of that year the parent or guardian who has failed to compel attendance of said child shall be liable to a fine not to exceed $25.

7. If any child has become habitually truant or a menace to the best interest of the school which he is attending the parent or guardian of such child shall be notified, and he or she shall be held responsible for the attendance or good conduct of such child unless the parent or guardian state in writing that he or she is unable to control such child, whereupon the school authorities shall proceed against such child as a delinquent child before a tribunal of competent jurisdiction.

W.C.T.U. ANNUAL CONVENTION

Was Held at Remington Methodist Church September 5.

(Secretary)

The Tri-County Women's Christian Temperance Union held its annual convention on September 5 at Remington in the Methodist Church. After opening exercises with prayer by Rev. Sapp, following took part: Mrs. Hornbaker as superintendent of the child's department, read a very interesting article relative to child training. Mrs. T. R. Bywaters recited "Tomorrow," which gave thought and inspiration to those present. After reports from Mrs. Willis and other readings, adjournment was had to eat a sumptuous dinner prepared under a shade tree in the church-yard by the ladies. In the afternoon a solo, "Have Courage, My Boy, to Say No," was rendered by Miss Jones, of Washington. There were other songs and readings, all well selected and rendered. Miss Emily Round was re-elected president; Miss Lillian Gilbert, vice-president; Mrs. Randall, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. T. R. Bywaters, recording secretary. The convention adjourned with the singing of "This is the End of a Perfect Day."

WM. E. TRUSLER AGAIN CHAIRMAN

Republican County Convention
Names Delegates to State and District Meetings.

A Republican county convention was held at the Town Hall in Manassas on Saturday, September 2, and was attended by from one hundred to one hundred and twenty-five Republican voters of the county.

It was rumored on the streets before the convention was called to order that there would be a determined fight made against the re-election of Mr. W. E. Trusler for county chairman. The opposition, such as there was, however, disintegrated by the time the convention was assembled, and Mr. Trusler was elected without any serious opposition. Messrs. J. W. Leedy, Charles H. Keyser and J. D. Springer were nominated in opposition to the successful candidate, but did not show any strength on the floor of the convention.

Mr. Cecil S. Smith was unanimously elected secretary.

When the time came to elect the members of the county committee there was a general discussion as to the method of making selection of the members, and after several motions had been carried and rescinded a motion that the convention elect the entire personnel of the county committee was carried.

The members of the committee as finally selected are: Manassas, L. E. Beachley; Nokesville, A. J. McMichael; Brentsville, W. E. Brown; Aden, A. L. Smith; Groenwich, B. A. Hopkins; Haymarket, C. H. Keyser; Hickory Grove, Harold Downs; Waterfall, J. B. Ashby; Hoadly, Frank Davis; Occoquan, R. B. Hammill; Dumfries, H. F. Cline; Potomac, J. R. Fick; Joplin, Reuben Robinson; Independent Hill, Sampson Beavers; Catharpin, R. A. Collins; Wellington, C. E. Ritener. Mr. A. S. Robertson was first elected the Wellington member, but the action was later rescinded, owing to the fact that Mr. Robertson holds the position of postmaster at that place.

The following delegates and alternates were elected to attend the Alexandria and Roanoke conventions: Delegates—W. E. Trusler, D. C. Cline, R. E. Wine, C. H. Keyser, A. S. Robertson, R. E. Newman, E. S. Hooker and Leo Beach.

Alternates—C. S. Smith, Winter Owens, A. J. McMichael, D. C. Yates, Miss Mary Fountain, Miss Mary Snook, L. E. Beachley and J. C. Gregory. The delegates were instructed to vote as a unit at both the District and State conventions. The convention endorsed John B. Grayson, and instructed the delegates to vote for him for District Chairman.

It was decided to have a ladies' county committee, and Miss Mary Fountain was selected to choose the committee with herself as chairman.

After the routine business had been dispatched, the convention was addressed by Messrs. Dodson and Burdge.

SCHOOLS TO OPEN NEXT WEEK

Buildings Will Probably Be Crowded to Capacity.

The Manassas public schools will open on Thursday, September 14, for the 1922-1923 session. If there is no falling off in the school attendance—and there probably will not be—both the high and the graded schools will be crowded to capacity. Manassas has suffered the loss of several of her highly-trained teachers, they having gone elsewhere because of the more liberal salaries offered, and these teachers will be missed alike by student bodies and old faculty members. However, the new teachers will no doubt soon fit into their respective places and win the confidence and respect of their pupils; and however much the community may lament the going of the old, it will extend the right hand of good fellowship to the new and wish them success.

HIGH SCHOOL OPENING

Manassas Agricultural High School opens Thursday, September 14.

Opening exercises of the grades will be at 9 o'clock a. m. and the High School at 10:30. The High School Night Business Class will open Friday night, September 15, at 7:30.

—Southern trains 135 and 10 were discontinued yesterday.

WOMEN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY

Entertained by Mr. and Mrs. M. Bruce Whitmore Tuesday Evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Whitmore entertained the Women's Missionary Society of the Presbyterian Church and the men of the families represented in the society at their home on Center Street on Tuesday evening. A feature of the occasion was the giving of a series of missionary questions by Mrs. E. L. Hornbaker, the president of the society, and the answering of these questions by persons chosen for this duty. This question and answer method aroused much interest and was the means of eliciting a large amount of information about the evangelical and social ministry of the Gospel. Following this "Interrogation Meeting," there was a social hour, and refreshments were served.

Famous lady and gentlemen performers; horses and hundreds of noble equine beauties. The tremendous enlargements, newly added departments, famous foreign engagements and other exhibitional wealth for this season stamp the Cole Bros.' Show as the leading amusement enterprise on the face of the globe. Fully five times larger than ever before, the most glorious, expensive and comprehensive ever seen will take place daily at 2 and 8 o'clock, rain or shine. Wait for this, the best one of them all.

BAPTIST MINISTER DIES AT OLD AGE

Pastor for Fifty Years at Upperville Church—Funeral Largely Attended.

Rev. Isaac Bishop Lake, D. D., for more than fifty years one of the most prominent Baptist ministers in Virginia, died at his home at Upperville at an early hour last Saturday morning. His death was due to the infirmities of age rather than to any special disease, he having passed his 85th birthday a few months ago.

Dr. Lake was a son of Ludwell Lake, who was a prominent citizen of Fauquier County, and was born and spent the early years of his life on his father's farm in that county. When but a lad he suffered an accidental injury to one of his feet, which made him a cripple for several years and from the effects of which he never fully recovered.

It has been said that perhaps this accident was a Providential dispensation, since because of the physical disability following it his parents decided to make a professional man of him. He subsequently attended the University of Virginia and was engaged for some time in the study of law, in which by reason of his studious habits and great intellectual ability he made excellent progress. When a very young man, however, he became a Christian and, feeling that his Divine Master had called him to the ministry, he abandoned his former plans, with all their flattering promise of worldly success, and devoted himself to preparation for that sacred calling. His college and theological training completed, he served for some years as pastor of several churches in southern Virginia, and also attained distinction as an educator while at the head of the Danville Female Institute, now Avery College.

In 1872, or just fifty years ago, having accepted a call to the pastorate of the churches of Upperville, in Fauquier, and Ebenezer and Ketchikan in Loudoun, Dr. Lake came and assumed the duties of this field, to which he devoted his splendid talents and self-sacrificing service unflinchingly and continuously until forced by declining health to discontinue his regular appointments at Ketchikan about two years ago and at Ebenezer a little later. But he continued to preach at these churches at intervals, whenever he could make the trip to reach them, and filled his appointments regularly at Upperville until a few months before his death. Of his immediate family surviving him are his wife and one son, Prof. James Lake, of Wake Forest College, North Carolina. He also leaves several grandchildren and a wide family connection in Fauquier and Loudoun counties and elsewhere.

As a preacher Dr. Lake's ability was widely known. He had received many flattering calls from wealthy city churches, but declined them all, choosing to remain and minister to his own people whom he loved so well, putting aside all personal ambition for their sake and finding his great

AUTOMOBILES RUN WILD

Two automobiles refused to keep to the streets in town yesterday afternoon.

While Miss Lucile Stevens, daughter of Rev. W. L. Stevens, was driving a Ford runabout on Center Street, the machine became unmanageable and ran upon the sidewalk and into the Conner Building. The plate-glass window in The Journal office barely missed being shattered, and but for the bumper on the machine the latter would have been considerably damaged. As it happened, neither the occupants of the car nor the machine itself were injured.

The delivery truck used by Messrs. Brown & Hoof got away from its driver, Ed Jackson, near the Baptist Church, and ran over the sidewalk and into the church-yard, taking several panels of the iron fence with it in its wild run.

You may or may not be aware of your eye's deficiencies. If you do know, then you should need no urging to get proper glasses immediately. Also if you only think they are perfect you should remember that uncertainty is too grave a risk to take with your eyes. The longer you neglect your eyes the worse they will get. Don't wait! Have your eyes examined now!

TO BE LIKED IS DESIRE OF ALL

If You Would Be Popular, Be Appreciative, Good Tempered and Kind.

Deep in everyone's heart, unsuspected in most cases, is a desire to be one whom everybody likes. The worst groach, male or female, whom we know, has that desire, but will not make the effort to be and do all that the one whom everyone likes must be and do.

He whom everyone likes must be or seem unselfish. It sounds easier than it is.

Lillian Russell, in her memoirs in the Cosmopolitan Magazine, wrote: "I was on a motor tour through France with Anna Held. I became thoroughly acquainted with her and learned to admire her. She had four qualities that make a good companion. She was appreciative, good tempered, sensible and anxious to please."

There isn't much left to be said about being a champion, is there?

To be liked, one must be companionable. To be companionable, one must be appreciative. Grateful for courtesies, big or little. Must prize consideration, great or small. To be appreciative, must be able to say "thank you," as though you meant it, and to say a little more. A woman to receive a letter from whom is a joy—a glimpse of her hand-writing on the envelope promises something good, has her own way of thanking the boy or man who gives her a seat in the subway. She says, "thank you." But as she settles comfortably into the seat, she lifts her eyes, fine gray eyes alight with good nature they are, and says "you are very kind." She means it. It is more than courtesy that makes a kind surrender a seat in the subway in the crowded hour. It is kindness, and she tells him so. A look of surprise and gratification crosses his weary face at the unaccustomed words. The business man who thanks the office boy who draws down the shade, when the summer sun is hot and blinding, the husband who asks for a second helping of the salt corn and tells his wife how good they are is appreciative, and so is companionable.

The person whom everybody likes is sensible, which is another way of saying that he is reasonable. Oh, the charm and the rarity and the value of reasonableness. He doesn't want the moon, for he isn't at all sure that it would be desirable if he had it. It met a sensible woman at a house party up in Jersey Hills. We awoke on a Sunday morning. There were loud lamentations. A hike across the hills and a picnic in the woods had been promised. But a slow, cold, drizzle had begun. In the upper right-hand corner of the newspapers we faced the prophecy: "Cloudy and showers all day."

"I don't mind at all. I like a gray day. It is so restful," the guest of honor said. And sounded the keynote for the day. Personally all of the guests had fallen in with her mood. It was a day of chat and confidence and getting acquainted that we will all remember as long as we live. Sensible! Reasonable! Not one of us in the big country house but wished we might live beneath the same roof with that woman all our remaining days. It was such a little thing, that mood of hers, but it means so much. The world is more tolerable because nature has planted sweet reasonableness in the hearts of some of her humans.

"She was good-tempered," wrote Miss Russell of Miss Held. Good temper is a solvent for most of life's troubles. It banishes hatred. It slays grudges, those poisoners of the walls of life. It plants patience where was irritability.

"She was anxious to please." The last statement seems unnecessary. If she were appreciative and sensible and good-tempered, she was sure to want to please.

Why is an actress the most charming of women? Because she wants to please. It is her business in life. From Duse to the recruit in the chorus the wish to entertain that dark mass out front called the audience, is an inseparable part of their nature. Or at least the second nature which they have acquired in their occupation.

WASHINGTON

In a few more weeks the longest school-hall will witness the kiddies to the class-room. Lessons must be exchanged for work; play for study.

Mr. T. I. Cole entertained lately relatives and friends from Alexandria. Mrs. Kate Watson has as her guest her sister, Mrs. Boyd Stanley, and little daughter, Marian, from the District of Columbia.

The young folks of our community motored to Reese's Park Saturday. Those of the party were the Misses Jones, Georgie and Lucy, and Messrs. James Watson, Richard Watson and Ed Jones.

Mrs. Charles Randall entertained at her home Mr. and Mrs. William Watson and children from near Dumfries.

Mrs. C. W. Kringberg has as her guest Mrs. Herbert Tubbs, Jr., and little daughter, Bonnie Louise.

Mr. John Florence and Miss Alice Tolson were guests of the Misses Jones, Georgie and Lucy, Tuesday night.

Mrs. Annie Watson and son, James, were visitors of Mrs. George Jones recently.

Master Martin Kringberg and Miss Florence Gardner were guests of Mrs. George Florence recently.

The only way to have friends is to be one yourself. Country life at its best is lonely, so the young folks of this community are going to organize a social club for the main purpose of becoming better acquainted, which will meet every two weeks at a different home.

We feel deeply grieved at the sad news of the death of Mrs. Eunice Keys Kinchloe. The bereaved husband and children, parents, relatives and friends have our heartfelt sympathy.

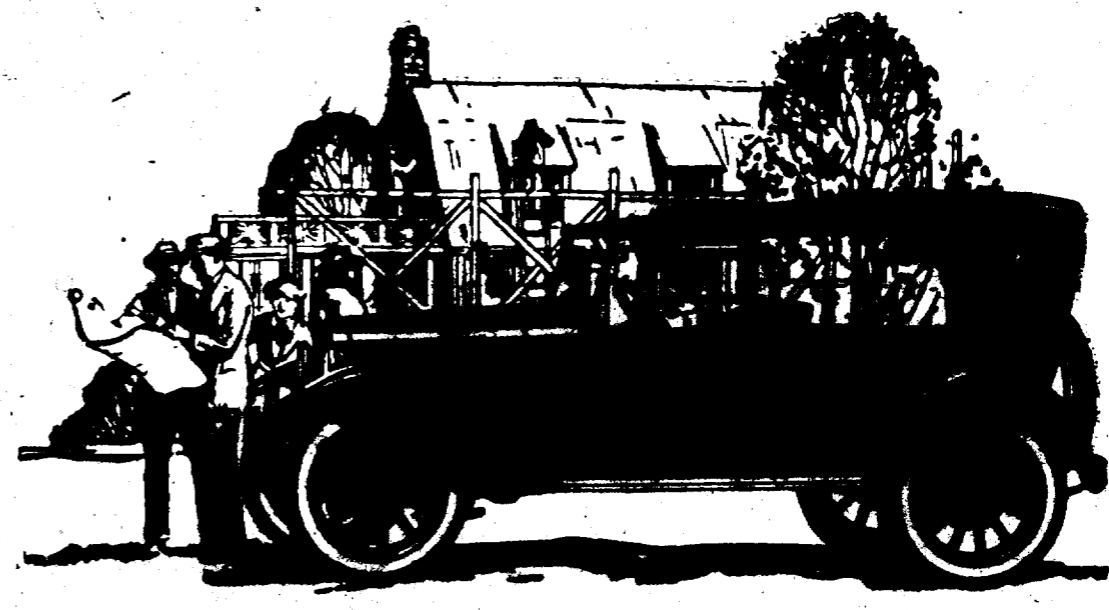

Mrs. Hooker Davis is critically ill at her home, near Delford.

Mrs. A. Ursula Kringberg and Miss George Jones motored to Mrs. Archibald Beattie's, near Buck Hall, Thursday night. They reported a good time.

Mrs. Raymond Miller and children were the guests of her mother, Mrs. George Sees, Sunday.

Our community was shocked at the news of the death of Miss Mayme Laming, of Joffin. We extend our sympathy to her bereaved relatives.

JUST A FABLE

There was once a man—he is dead now, politically—who had charge of the expenditure of funds for local road improvement. The funds were raised by taxation, and the people paid the taxes. This man either did not have a clear conception of things or he was negligent in the discharge of his duties as a public officer. He allowed the road tax money to remain idle in the treasury instead of appropriating it to the use for which it was intended. A big balance was allowed to accumulate while the tax-payer suffered all the inconveniences of unimproved roads. Possibly this man thought a big balance on hand at the end of the year would show conclusively to his constituents that he was saving money for them. But what possible good did the tax-payer derive from the taxes that he paid? And why have collected a road tax at all if the money was not going to be used to improve the roads? The public asked these questions, and receiving no satisfactory answers concluded that the officer was not discharging his duty. What happened? Well, the fellow is no longer in office.

MR. MOORE'S BILL

If Representative R. Walton Moore can secure the enactment of the bill he has introduced in Congress to govern consideration of contested elections, the farce of unseating Representative Thomas W. Harrison, of the Seventh Virginia District, will have its compensations. Mr. Moore would create, or enlist the services of, a tribunal to hear the evidence concerning contests for seats in Congress, digest the facts and report its recommendations. It would be hoped to do this work in a non-political body. Senator John Paul contested the Seventh District seat after the election of 1920. The record accumulated is said to have been the largest in history in such a case. Women had voted in that election for the first time, and it appears that many irregularities had occurred in registering the new voters. Many of them had not been required to make out their applications in their own handwriting; others had not signed them in person. Both parties had been equally lax, it seems, in that respect. In addition, there were the usual mistakes and technical errors concerning details of the election.

It is not probable that any number of the Elections Committee has read the record embraced in the depositions taken throughout the district. In committee hearings in Washington it is difficult to get more than two or three members together at one time. Nobody really knows all the facts, except for an occasional conscientious chairman. At the end, all the Republican members united in a report that John Paul had been elected, and all the Democratic minority of the committee reported that Judge Harrison had been elected. The report has not been acted on by the House of Representatives, but the Republican program is to call the case early in the next regular session and unseat the sitting Democrat and seat the contesting Republican. Senator Paul will sit for perhaps three months; he will draw the salary for two years. The Republicans have the votes; no doubt their party strength will be cast without a break.

Not all contests are decided strictly on party lines. In certain instances, however, as in this case, no doubt by reason of the prestige of Representative Slomp, there will be a partisan showdown. No matter which political party is in power, such a proceeding is a reproach to the Democratic government. Mr. Moore's remedy may not be altogether the best; anything would be better than the disease. True, the House must always be the judge of the election and qualifications of its members, but under his plan the body would at least have the facts before it, and Congressmen would be judged by their votes in the light of these facts.—Richmond Times-Dispatch

A LONG WAY OFF

You shake your head and matter, "The world is in an awful condition; I don't know what it's coming to." Cheer up, neighbor; cheer up and remember that the big problems we have today, and the unrest that we read about in the daily newspapers, always follow the great wars that come about every fifty years. We have labor unrest, business failures, undercurrents of mob nervousness that occasionally lead us to believe not all of the residents of this country are civilized, and it takes a lot of thinking and scheming and working to make both ends meet. But older residents will tell you that they had, in principle, pretty much the same trouble and the same kind of conditions following the civil war. They look mightier now, simply because the population of this country is larger and the troubles are staged on a bigger scale. The three-ring circus of 1922 is just about the same as the one-ring show that used to tour the country. The only difference is there's more of the three-ring affair. It is bigger now because the audiences are bigger, but there isn't any more show "per spectator" than there used to be. So with our troubles which grew out of the war.

The world ate a lot of bad mental food during the war, and it hasn't yet had time to digest it. While the medicine of deflation was at work, the world had cramps. But everything will come out all right. Even now the patient is getting pretty strong on his feet. No need yelling for the undertaker—the old world you live in is a mighty long way from being dead.—Culpeper Virginia Star.

THE SAND MAN'S SHIP OF DREAMS

Last night I met the Sand Man,
 A most peculiar fellow;
 He wore a coat of navy blue,
 With pantaloons of yellow.
 His legs were lean and lank and long,
 Yet he could scarcely creep;
 He droned a dull and drowsy song
 Which put me fast asleep.

Did you ever meet the Sand Man?
 Did he ever take your hand,
 To lead you through the silence
 Into the Shadow-Land?
 When once you cross that portal,
 When once you close that door,
 Behind he all things mortal—
 With Wonderland before.

Oh, I wish you knew the Sand Man,
 He is so kind and true;
 His nose is large and round and red,
 His eyes are big and blue.
 He never thought an evil thing;
 He loves both young and old—
 They made his head of ginger-bread,
 His heart they made of gold.

His mouth they made of chocolate,
 His teeth they formed of pearls.
 He never comes when we are bad,
 But he loves good boys and girls.
 And when the white moon glimmers
 And the stars begin to peep,
 By the Southern Cross he steers his course
 O'er the boundless seas of sleep.

Then come, my Little Darling,
 Come nestle at my side,
 And in the Sand Man's Ship of Dreams
 We two tonight will ride.
 Far through the mystic twilight
 Our silver sails we'll fly—
 For the Sand Man, my Darling, is calling
 From his Ship of Dreams in the sky.
 —Carter W. Wormeley.

LAUGH AND LIVE

OVERHEARD IN THE TRUCK GARDEN
 "What makes the watermelon so melancholy?"
 "Because he cantaloupe with Sweet Potato."

AT THE BALL

A little taller, a yard of silk; a little skin as white as milk; a little strap—how dare she breathe. A little cough—good evening—Eve.

SAVING TIME

Mrs. Newlywed had just been given a housekeeping allowance. One night she had finished balancing her account when Friend Husband appeared.
 "My wife! Signing checks—what for?"
 "It's this way, Husband; I can fill them in so quickly; look what a time-saver!"
 He turned the leaves—there were pages of signed checks.

QUEER HOW THEY WILL SINK

A keen angler took a friend fishing and lent him all the necessary tackle.
 After half an hour the novice asked: "How much do these little red things cost?"
 "I suppose you mean the float," replied the disciple of Isaac Walton. "They only cost about fifty cents."
 "Well, I owe you half a dollar, then," replied the amateur; "the one you lent me has just sunk."

THE WAY IT SEEMED TO HER

A colored couple stood once again before the probation officer.
 "Now this," the officer said to both, "seems to me to be a case where there is nothing very much the matter except that your tastes are different. You, Sam, are much older than your wife. It is a case of May married to December."
 A slight pause, and then Eva, the wife, was heard to remark in a tired voice:
 "I—I really don't know what you mean by yer saying May is married to December. If yer gain' to talk that way, it seems to me hit's a case of Labor Day married to de Day of Rest."

A SHORTAGE OF FOOD

The late "Bob" Taylor, who was called the "pardoning governor," told the following story of an old colored woman who came to him while he was governor of Tennessee:
 "Marce Govanah, I want my Sam pardoned," she said.
 "Where is he, ammie?"
 "In de penitentiary."
 "What for?"
 "Stealin' a ham."
 "D' he steal it?"
 "ee at Khabbe snah did."
 "Lessen dees not wuntly in Prince will probably co-was at Minnie"
 "Tul wotless nigrah." "dosed?" "out of ham ag'in." "a Cale."

Temptation to Spend Money

Is greatly lessened by not carrying any more than absolutely necessary in the pocket. If you put your money in the bank, it is just sufficient trouble to draw it out again to make you hesitate about spending it. It forces you to think twice; and if you think twice before spending each dollar you will find yourself much better off at the end of the year. You will discover that you are spending a great many dollars unnecessarily which might be earning good interest for you in a SAVINGS ACCOUNT.

Try it. A Savings Account in a good strong bank is the greatest aid to saving imaginable. We shall be glad to open an account with you, and you needn't wait until you can make a big first deposit, for we open accounts for One Dollar or more.

Pote and daughter, Ethel, of Fort Myer Heights, and Mrs. Albert Lawrence, of Manassas, motored to Shipman, Va., Saturday and spent Sunday and Monday with Mr. Thomas J. Pote. At the regular stated communication of Manassas Lodge No. 182, A. F. and A. M., held last Friday night, Mr. Andrew J. Kidwell, District Deputy Grand Master for District No. 1, paid an official visit to the lodge. Mr. Kidwell is a member of Acacia Lodge, of Clifton, and is highly esteemed by Masons in this section of the State and elsewhere.

Miss Anna Bruce Whitmore, who spent the summer with relatives and friends at Staunton, returned to her home yesterday. She was accompanied home by her aunt and cousin, Mrs. R. S. Silling, and son, Meredith. The Sunday Schools of Mt. Zion Lutheran Church and Bethel Lutheran Church held their annual picnic August 25. The picnic was largely attended. The humorous readings of Mrs. Bame were especially enjoyed. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Speiden and Miss Virginia Speiden, accompanied by their guest, Miss Howison, motored to Warrenton and New Baltimore on Labor Day and spent the day with Mayor and Mrs. A. O. Weedon and the Misses Weedon. Mr. George D. Baker and his daughter, Miss Beulah, left Wednesday morning for Martinsburg, W. Va., where Miss Beulah will visit Mr. Baker's sisters, Mrs. William Lemaster and Mrs. William Kelley. Mr. Baker will return this week. Mr. Elisha Reid, who has recently purchased a Ford automobile, ran his machine into an embankment on the Yate's Ford road Tuesday evening. The occupants of the car escaped without injury, but the right front wheel of the machine was badly damaged. Miss Mattie Matthew, of the Stone House neighborhood, left Wednesday to attend a teachers' institute to be held at Lincoln, Loudoun County, Thursday and Friday. Miss Matthew will be the principal of Daysville school, which will open on September 11. The Peter Jazz Minstrels will hold an entertainment in Bristow school-house Friday, September 15, beginning at 8 p. m. Admission, 10 cents for children and 15 cents for grown folks. Refreshments will be sold. Proceeds for school-ground improvement. While Mr. J. P. Kerlin, deputy sheriff, was crying a sale for Mr. C. H. Albrite, near Nokesville, last Saturday, someone carried off his coat. The coat contained papers which are of value only to Mr. Kerlin, and the party who took them is requested to return all of the papers to him. Mr. and Mrs. John A. Alexander and two daughters, Misses Pauline and Virginia, of Marshall, were the guests of Mr. Alexander's sister, Mrs. A. S. Boatwright, on Tuesday, Miss Virginia having returned with Mr. Boatwright on Sunday from a day's visit to Marshall, where his little son, Sinclair, has been making a visit to his uncle, Mr. Alexander. Since commencing business here recently the Plaza Garage has sold Buick Fours and Sixes to the following parties: Fours—Mr. W. A. Johnson, Bristow; Ellis Bros., Nokesville; Adolphus Roy, Manassas; Mr. J. P. Leachman, Bristow; Mrs. D. B. Brown, Mr. W. E. Trusler, Manassas. Sixes—Mr. J. L. Dawson, Occoquan, and Mr. W. T. Thomason, Manassas.

LEUTENANT GOVERNOR OPPOSES CONVENTION

Considers It Unwise to Write a New Constitution at This Time.

Col. J. E. West, of Suffolk, Lieut. Governor of Virginia, and for many years a commanding figure in the State Senate, is the first Democratic leader to announce a position on the calling of a Constitutional Convention, being opposed to it.

In a statement authorized by him, the Lieut. Governor says that he finds practically no demand for it, and expresses the opinion that the present period of adjustment is not a favorable time for such action, which he regards an unnecessary and useless expense. His views are announced as follows:

"While I do not wish to criticize the last General Assembly for submitting to the qualified voters at the next November election the question of calling a Constitutional Convention, I shall vote against the calling of same.

"I regard the calling of such a convention unwise, unnecessary and a useless expense. So far as I have been able to ascertain, there is practically no demand for a new constitution, and the adjustment period through which we are passing is certainly not a time in which to write a new constitution.

"I trust that the Democratic State Central Committee, and those in charge of Democratic party affairs, will advise the people to vote against the calling of a Constitutional Convention."

Since its incorporation, May 27, 1921, the Manassas Motor Co. has sold 156 new Ford cars and trucks, 48 second-hand, 26 new Fordson tractors and 3 second-hand Fordson tractors, a total of 65 tractors sold through this agency.

—Messrs. James R. Larkin, Harry P. Davis and George B. Cocke will go to Atlantic City next week for their vacation. While at the pleasure resort these gentlemen will attend the Shrine meeting that will be held there.

—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller and children motored to Culpeper Saturday, where they visited Mrs. Miller's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Settle, and relatives from California who are spending the summer at their former home. While in Culpeper they also visited Mr. Miller's brother and sister. They returned to their home Monday, leaving Master Charles Miller with his grandparents.

—First Lieutenant of Infantry Roswell E. Round, who is at present on detail with the tank corps at Camp Knox, near Louisville, Ky., arrived in Manassas Sunday morning on a thirty-day leave of absence. Lieut. Round's organization is expecting to move to Fort Benjamin Harrison, near Indianapolis, Ind., during the month of September, and he will join his organization there at the expiration of his leave.

—Messrs. J. C. Parish and M. Bruce Whitmore, of the Southern Real Estate Exchange and Insurance Co., Inc., left Thursday morning for Scott County to make preparations for the real estate sales that the company will hold on the 18th and 14th at Fairview, Pattonville and Duffield. Messrs. Parish and Whitmore were accompanied by Hon. C. J. Meade, who will deliver addresses at Pattonville and Clinchport.

—The Journal office received a very pleasant call last Saturday afternoon from Mr. Edward M. Hollesen, of Chicago. Mr. Hollesen, with his wife, stopped in Manassas on their way from Canada to their property at Minnieville for the purpose of having admitted to probate the will of his late uncle, P. Hollesen, who, after having dispatched important papers to his nephew, committed suicide in New Jersey. By virtue of the will Mr. Hollesen comes into possession of considerable property, a part of which is the real estate at Minnieville. While Mr. Hollesen does not expect to live permanently in Prince William County, he will probably establish a summer home at Minnieville.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY TO MEET

(Secretary)

The president of the Woman's Auxiliary desires a full attendance at a meeting to be held in the Manassas High School building next Friday, September 15, Friday, September 8, was the proper date for the meeting. Owing to a very important meeting at Sudley Church that afternoon, and which a number of the members of the auxiliary will attend, it was thought best to hold the meeting the following day.

Please do not forget the date—Friday, September 15. Time, 2:30 p. m. Place, High School building.

CONSOLIDATED RURAL SCHOOLS

The combination of good roads and motor transportation is beginning to give material aid to the advancement of education in the country. A recent survey shows that the pupils of more than 18,000 schools in rural districts are now conveyed by motor bus from their homes to school and back on every working day throughout the scholastic year.

This triumph of transportation has made possible the consolidated rural school. The consolidated school combines several school districts into one and means a larger and better equipped schoolhouse. In the one-room school the same teacher teaches all subjects to all grades, but in the consolidated school each teacher gives instruction in only one or two grades. When several districts are thus amalgamated, it obviously means fewer and more highly qualified teachers and better teaching.—Washington Post.

DEATH OF ADEN RESIDENT

Mr. David Horn, who moved from Coote's Store, Va., to the Aden neighborhood some years ago, died at the Alexandria hospital Sunday morning following an operation for appendicitis. Mr. Horn was 69 years of age. A short service was held at the home on Tuesday, and there were further services at Valley View Church, at which place burial took place. The deceased is survived by a widow and six children. The pallbearers were Messrs. F. R. Rhodes, A. H. Green, D. E. Earhart, David Arnold, Adam Strawderman and M. A. Bell.

BULL RUN HOUNDS RACE MEET

Mr. W. B. Bullock and daughter, Miss Flora, attended the Bull Run

Fox Hounds race meet at Snow Hill Farm on Monday. Mr. Bullock reports the attendance as very satisfactory and the racing good. Mr. Bullock states that he met some of the county's leading breeders and farmers and that he had the promise of a number of entries for the Prince William Fair. Among those who attended the race meet from Manassas were Messrs. Sam Thornton, C. M. Larkin, Payton Larkin, William Hill Brown, Roswell Round, Allison Hoof, Paul Williams and Roy Gray.

IS CHIVALRY DEAD?

While hanging to a strap in a crowded Fourteenth street car, I saw a gentleman with snowy locks and kind old face board the car. Many of the seats were filled with "things" dressed in men's clothes, but not one offered his seat to the old man. Finally a young lady got up and asked the aged one to sit down. The old fellow's face beamed, but he kindly refused the seat until the young lady insisted. Still the "things" dressed up as men did not show there was a spark of manhood in them and let the young lady remain standing.—O. B. Tarver, in Washington Herald.

BAPTIST MINISTER DIES AT OLD AGE

Pastor for Fifty Years at Upperville Church—Funeral Largely Attended.

 est joy in serving his Master by leading them to Him.

His passing was such as should mark the close of such a life. Surrounded by members of his devoted family and friends while his body grew weaker his splendid mind remained unimpaired almost to the very last, and with a faith almost sublime he assured those about him that he was "only waiting." But a few hours before the final summons came he appeared comfortable and content. Later he lost consciousness, and his noble spirit left its feeble tenement as he calmly "fell asleep in Jesus."

The funeral was held in the Upperville Baptist Church Monday afternoon and was largely attended, many being unable to gain admission. One could well believe it was just a service as Dr. Lake would have wished—simple, but impressive—conducted by his brother ministers and other personal friends who had known and loved him. While no sermon was preached, devotional services were held, consisting of the singing of his favorite hymns, prayer by Rev. R. P. Rixey, of Hamilton, reading of appropriate scripture by Rev. Dr. Charles T. Herndon, who spoke briefly but feelingly of Dr. Lake's life and character, as did also Rev. T. Clagett Skinner, D. D., of Columbia, S. C., and Rev. W. E. Gibbon, D. D., of Richmond.

At the conclusion of these tributes burial took place in beautiful Ivy Hill Cemetery just outside the town of Upperville. Services at the grave were conducted impressively by the Rev. G. W. Hopkins, of Washington, and were concluded with the benediction by the Rev. Mr. Adkins, of Middleburg. The floral tributes, in the church and at the grave, were numerous and beautiful in the extreme, lovely testimonials to the affection and veneration in which Dr. Lake was held by all who knew him.—Purcellville Enterprise.

COAL PRODUCTION NEARLY NORMAL

Major Alexander Forward, Fuel Administrator for Virginia, Closes His Office.

Richmond, Va., Sept. 7.—Fuel regulation in Virginia has ended, and State Fuel Administrator Alexander Forward is closing his office. Coal production has now reached nearly normal, and is expected to go so far above normal as to soft coal during the next few weeks as to take care even of the shortage which has accumulated throughout the long strike. With the anticipated reopening of the anthracite mines, it is believed the emergency is practically at an end.

New priority orders as to car supply, just issued by the Interstate Commerce Commission, made it certain that retail coal dealers, as well as manufacturers of food and food containers, can get supplies of coal on preferred movement. Possibly a week may elapse before the mines will be cleared of the priority class ore orders now on hand, after which there should be an ample supply of bituminous coal for all purposes if the railroads can haul it.

Administrator Forward has released all local fuel distribution committees, after thanking them for their patriotic and efficient services. The State Advisory Committee will be kept in existence for a time, to watch developments, and should another emergency arise, the local committees may be called into action. This is not expected, however, unless railroad transportation becomes greatly crippled as a result of the strike.

The cost of fuel administration in Virginia has been merely nominal, covering necessary office expenses of Assistant Administrator Benj. L. Parcell and his staff. Regulation has enabled the industries essential to civilization to function regularly, and Mr. Forward has been able to prevent closing of any factory, save some of the brick lime plants and two or three others for a short time. He says it is a source of special satisfaction to him that no tobacco has been lost because of the failure to get coal for re-drying. Special efforts were made in this direction to save the farmers from loss of their crop.

HIGHWAY BODY LETS CONTRACTS

Awards Include Work on Washington-Lee Highway in Fairfax County.

Richmond, Sept. 7.—Contracts for three bridges and two road projects totaling $340,380.51 were awarded during the past week by the State Highway Commission while on a tour of inspection with the Governor in the southwest and through the Valley. Bids will be received for one bridge and road projects totaling 28.68 miles at an approximate cost of $780,000 on December 19. These represent the first gridding of the new mill of the State Highway Commission, which will be followed up by other contracts to the extent the present balance and the anticipation of the mill tax receipts available December 20 will permit. However, the majority of contracts from now on will have to be out of funds available from loans made under the Robertson act. Were it not for the fact that the embargoes have slowed up work on contracts under way, and will have a similar effect on contracts being let, it would be necessary for the State to forego letting contracts other than with Robertson act money until next year, as the cash balance on hand until the mill tax receipts come in would not be sufficient to meet the monthly estimates and take care of the new contracts being started, in the time intervening. The embargoes have curtailed the estimates due contractors approximately $300,000 per month by preventing contractors from getting their materials as rapidly as they could push the work. The department has contracts ready to be advertised and which should be started now in order to take advantage of favorable weather conditions, but which must be held back until the latter part of September and October in order that the department may be certain to have the money to pay the contractors when the estimates begin coming in.

The Highway Department heads are very much worried over the outlook for construction in 1923. There will be only about $3,000,000 available for new contracts out of new State and Federal funds which include the mill tax collected December 20, 1923. The proceeds of the mill tax collected in December of this year will be largely, if not entirely, taken up by contracts let this month and next. It will be September or October of 1923 before the department can afford to let contracts against the 1923 mill tax, which will produce approximately $1,800,000. This would leave only $1,200,000 of State and Federal funds in addition to the small amount, if any, left over from the 1922 mill tax to expend between January 1 and September. The work of the State Highway Department will be confined to roads built with Robertson act money and expending the automobile tax on maintenance.

The contracts awarded last week are for the following projects:

Bridge over Rappahannock River at Falmouth, near Fredericksburg, on the Richmond-Washington highway; substructure only, Major Construction Company, $30,434.80; superstructure only, Atlantic Bridge Company, Roanoke, $63,030. Total, $93,464.80.

Bridge over Spring Branch on Bristol-Roanoke highway, Pulaski County, M. C. Turner, Roanoke, $3,381.27.

Bridge and approaches over Swift Creek, on the Richmond-Petersburg highway, Carpenter & Sandersen, Petersburg, $10,129.17.

One-fourth mile of bituminous macadam between Brems Bluff to New Canton on Charlottesville-Farmville road to L. J. Chandler, Virginia, $9,174.04.

Ten miles of bituminous macadam between Pulaski and Max Meadows, on the Bristol-Roanoke highway, to Battershill, Goode & Clay, of Richmond, $27,612.68.

The projects being advertised for September 19 are:

One mile of surfacing of bituminous macadam between Fairfax C. H. and Chantilly; four and three-fourths miles of bituminous macadam or concrete from Station 1490 to Mt. Zion Church; one-half mile of surfacing bituminous macadam adjoining; and 5 miles bituminous macadam or concrete from Chantilly to the Loudoun County line, all of which is in Fairfax County on the road from Winchester to Washington. These projects were made possible through loans under the Robertson act.

CASH FOR YOUR AUTO REGARDLESS OF CONDITION, WE BUY, SELL AND TRADE SLATTERY MOTOR CO. 636 G Street, N. W. Washington, D. C. Phone Franklin 5388

Six and one-half miles of concrete north of Falling Creek to the Dutch Gap road on the Richmond-Petersburg highway. (With the bridge awarded last week this will complete the concrete from Richmond to Petersburg.)

Four and three-fourths miles of concrete from Suffolk west on the Norfolk, Portsmouth, Suffolk, Franklin, Petersburg, Richmond highway. (As soon as the projects are approved by the Federal Government the balance of the road between Suffolk and Franklin will be let. With the work now being completed from Courtland to the Sussex line this will give 33 miles of concrete from Virginia Beach toward Petersburg and Richmond. The contract is to be let between Suffolk and Franklin, as well as the great part of the 28 miles, has been financed by Robertson act loans.)

Bridge over Assamosee Creek on the same road between Courtland and the Sussex County line.

Six miles of concrete from end of project now under way between Pendleton and Lotts west. When this is completed together with work under way from Charlottesville to within two miles of the Lotts line and the Pendleton-Lotts project, there will only remain a gap of nine miles between the Albemarle and Louisa road projects. When the money is provided for this nine miles, there will be a surfaced road from Richmond to Staunton through Charlottesville.

GAME PRESERVES FOR WILD LIFE

Agreement Forms Provided by Department of Game and Inland Fisheries

Richmond, Va., Sept. 7.—The State Game Sanctuary system, which is now being established in Virginia by Commissioner Lee, of the Department of Game and Inland Fisheries, under Chapter 93, acts 1922, is one of great importance as a conservative, practical feature in wild life conservation. The system has the unqualified endorsement of the game departments in Pennsylvania, New York, Ohio and other States, which have been operating under a similar system for years.

Chapter 93, acts 1922, provides that any land-owner may enter into an agreement with the Commissioner of Game and Inland Fisheries whereby his land may be used as a game sanctuary for a period of not less than three years, and when such an agreement is made, "it shall be unlawful for any person (including the owner of the land) to kill or capture or disturb any wild animal, or to kill or capture or disturb any wild birds, their eggs, nests or young," thereon. The commissioner is authorized to give permits for the killing of only predatory animals and birds on such sanctuaries.

County game wardens have been furnished with sanctuary agreement forms and have been instructed to accept tracts of land of an acreage of not less than 250 acres, and to see that those sanctuaries are located four or five miles apart. These sanctuaries act as reservoirs, so to speak, from which the game will flow out and stock the surrounding country, where it may be taken by hunters in the open season.

In Pennsylvania the deer have become so wise that, on the approach of the hunter, they take to the nearest sanctuary, though it be several miles away. These sanctuaries serve as cities of refuge, which under no condition may be violated. They serve, in a sense, both for protection and for propagation.

Tentative plans of Commissioner Lee contemplate the planting of Kaffir corn, millet, peas and other feed on these reserves, and also the erection of shelter pens for the protection of birds during severe weather. He believes that a chain of natural havens for game, augmented by game raised on the State Game Farm, will result in a goodly supply of bob-white partridges at all times, together with other game birds and animals.

A maximum penalty of $100 will be asked by the State against any person killing any bird or animal within the limits of a sanctuary. All persons interested in the preservation of wild game are requested to notify at once game wardens and ex officio game wardens of any violation of the sanctuary laws, these officers having been especially charged to give State game sanctuaries their particular attention.

Commissioner Lee intends to see that the sanctity of the game sanctuaries is at all times respected and will invoke the law to the extreme limit against any and all violators.

BRENTSVILLE

A great deal of interest is being manifested in the revival services being held in the Baptist Church every night this week. Rev. Cox, of Calpeper, is assisting the pastor.

Miss Dora Lam is visiting in Warrenton. Her sister, Miss Vada, is in Gainesville.

Miss Sallie Cooper, of Washington, is spending her vacation with her mother here.

Just because the Brentsville Ball Team had played seven victorious games in succession did not keep them from being game losers when the Woodbridge aggregation beat them 13 to 1 at Woodbridge last Saturday. Our boys simply played "out of luck," as 15 clean hits were made, and Woodbridge did not get a score until in the third inning.

They will visit us next Saturday. Come out and see if our luck changes.

Mrs. John Donovan is visiting her father, Mr. Allison, who is very ill at his home near Arcola.

Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Keys, of Washington, spent a few days here this week.

Mr. James Keys and Miss Mamie Counts were quietly married last Tuesday morning at the home of Rev. J. R. Cooke, at Greenwich. After a short honeymoon they will reside at Mr. Key's home here. We extend to them all good wishes.

To Maintain a Standard—

is not always an easy task. In these times when the public is clamoring for something cheaper, it's a great temptation for merchants to cheapen their products. We have always refused to do this for the quality here must be kept up. We buy only the best and sell only the best—and at prices that are consistent with standard quality. Selling only meats we have no "baits" to throw out. Our only inducement for you to buy is: Quality plus Service and Sanitation. Our steadily increasing patronage warrants us in our belief to fight along this line and not be tempted to resort to the line of the least resistance. Your children will receive every kind attention here. May we serve you?

Rev. T. H. MacLeod preached at the usual hour in the Presbyterian Church Sunday morning.

Rev. C. J. Fry has returned from his month's vacation spent in Vermont. He preached the morning and evening services.

There was a picnic given for the community Monday (Labor Day) at the farm home of Rev. C. J. Fry. Quite a number went with full baskets of lunch.

The Aid Society of the Presbyterian Church met at the home of Mrs. Quigg Tuesday night with a good attendance and seemed to have an enjoyable time.

Mrs. Claude Brawner and children, of Dumfries, are visiting at her father's, Mr. C. H. Adams.

Among the Labor Day and weekend visitors were Misses Jeanne Sauber, Miriam Buckley, Messrs. Irvin Quigg, Garland and Hobson Spoker.

The residents of the hamlet were awakened to the terrific downpour of rain early last Saturday morning, and the rain continued for some hours at a terrific rate. The Pope's Head Creek was higher than it has been for years, and the other streams accordingly. Neither rural carrier was able to make his full route on account of the high waters.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Watson have a sale of their personal property September 11. Mr. Watson has a situation offered him, and they will move to the city. Their many friends here are very sorry to have them leave us, but wish them all success where they are going.

Miss Augusta Robey is somewhat improved in health.

Miss Ruth Quigg left Wednesday of this week for Earlysville, where she will teach during the coming school session.

Mr. Carver has joined his wife at the home of Rev. and Mrs. C. H. Council in the village. Mr. Carver is just back from a trip to the Orient, where he went to buy goods for some of the most prominent firms of the country.

Mrs. W. H. Clark, of Fairfax, has been a recent visitor to friends in the community.

Miss Mildred Lewis entertained a number of her young friends last Saturday night.

Miss Katharine Doak has been spending her vacation at her home near the village.

Miss Rosamond Burke is spending her vacation with her mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Renn and family are home from their vacation.

Miss Elizabeth Detwiler took a typist's examination Tuesday of this week in Washington.

September has been about as hot as any of the summer months thus far.

Mrs. Isaac and son, Billy, have returned to their home in Baltimore.

Quite a number of the Masons visited Manassas lodge last Friday night.

Mr. John Curtis has joined the U. S. Marines.

Misses Miriam and Frances Buckley entertained a number of their young friends Monday afternoon.

Mr. John Ferguson is home from the university, where he has been taking the summer course.

BUCKHALL

"I know not what the truth may be, I tell it as 'twas told to me."

Mrs. Jasper's aunt, Miss MacDonald, who has been visiting here for the past few weeks, returned to her home at Culpeper Wednesday.

Miss Nellie Raymond, of Philadelphia, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Raymond, and brother, Mr. A. F. Raymond, and family.

We beg to correct a mistake of a recent issue. Mr. W. J. Jasper purchased the Smallwood place of his brother instead of Mr. Thorpe.

The church bell was placed in the bellfry Thursday and was used for service Sunday. We believe most people enjoy hearing its clear tones peal out the hour of worship. The work on the tower has ceased until some material arrives that has been delayed on account of the railroad situation.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Chandler spent Sunday evening with his sister, Mrs. Frank Gue, and family, of Manassas.

Mrs. W. J. Jasper is improving from her recent illness.

Mr. Will Brawner is at home this week nursing a lame back.

Miss Irene Brawner was having some dental work done in Manassas Monday.

Mrs. F. J. Chandler will teach the Purcell school in Coles District the coming year. School will begin September 18.

Mr. Hilleary Speakes drove up to Leesburg Sunday, returning Monday, accompanied by his wife and little Minnie Janette, who have been visiting at the paternal King home.

Mr. Will Kline is filling his silos this week.

CLIFTON

H. E. Chandler, Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. Joe Hensley, of Alexandria, visited her mother, Mrs. G. W. Hensley, Monday.

Mr. James Speakes has a boil on his left wrist that is causing him considerable suffering.

Mr. Weaver has finished moving onto his farm, just south of here.

Miss Annie King, of Leesburg, is visiting her sister, Mrs. E. Speakes.

LOOKED LIKE COMEDY; PROVED TO BE TRAGEDY
Had No Confidence in Nurse—
Refused to Take Proper Care of Himself.

Richmond, Va., Sept. 7.—What looked like a comedy has proved to be a tragedy. Some time ago a nurse in one of the southwest counties induced a mountaineer to attend a tuberculosis clinic. The examination indicated incipient tuberculosis. The man had specimens of his sputum examined by the laboratory, and the report was negative. That settled the matter so far as the mountaineer was concerned. He told the nurse to go to the duce, and he refused absolutely to take any additional or unusual care of himself. Last week he had a hemorrhage and died.

The State Board of Health constantly teaches the people that the laboratory test when negative does not indicate absence of the disease. Anyone may have the disease in a dangerous form and yet not carry sufficient bacilli in his sputum to be found on examination. A positive test proves beyond doubt that the man has the disease.

The particular man who has just died was violent in his attitude toward the nurse when his test came back negative. He wanted to throw her out of his house. He was so angry at the nurse and the clinician that he went among his neighbors expressing his poor opinion of both. His untimely death has re-established the reputation of the health workers, but his family is without a breadwinner.

CATHARPIN

Mr. J. W. Caton is on the sick list. Miss Ruth Sanders, of Richmond, was a week-end guest at the home of her uncle, Mr. F. H. Sanders.

Mr. and Mrs. Wade Akers and Mr. J. W. Polen, of Washington, visited relatives here the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Meredith Polen, of Washington, were guests of relatives in this neighborhood on Sunday.

Mrs. C. F. Brower and her daughter, Miss Marjorie Brower, are visiting friends in Maryland.

Wedding Kept Secret—Dinner at Home of Bride's Parents.

The many friends of Miss Maud Lee Hall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Hall, will be surprised to learn that she was quietly married on June 21 last at Annapolis, Md., to Mr. Robert E. Arrington, of Shacklett, Va. The wedding has just been announced. A dinner was given at the home of Mrs. Arrington's parents on Sunday in her honor. In addition to the family, there were present Mr. W. C. Hall and family, of Pittsburg; Mrs. Alice Hitts, of Warrenton, and Mrs. Kate B. Rosenberger, of Fredericksburg.

DOWNPOUR AT ALEXANDRIA

Rain fell in torrents in Alexandria and Washington early Saturday morning. The streams in the neighborhood of Alexandria immediately began to rise, and that section of the city in the vicinity of Rosemont was soon under water. It is said that children were swimming in King Street, near the Southern Railway depot. Considerable damage was done to the new terracing and grounds of the George Washington Park, where the George Washington Masonic National Memorial Association Temple will be erected.

All Southern trains out of Washington were considerably delayed by the washing out of a long section of the railway tracks at Cameron Run. Considerable damage to the public roads between Alexandria and Lorton was also reported.

HEALTH OFFICER VISITS HERE

Mr. Snidow, of the State Health Department, Richmond, was in Manassas on Friday. In company with Local Health Commissioner Dr. S. S. Simpson, Mr. Snidow made a survey of the town for the purpose of locating, if possible, the source of the fever cases. The general conditions were found good, but premises in several instances were found to be highly unsanitary, and the tenants and owners of these were ordered to have them put in a sanitary condition at once.

Attention was also directed to the depression in the Manassas Milling Company lot, and this was ordered to be filled in within the next ten days, so as to allow drainage from the premises.

—Mr. Edward Carter Green and Miss Gertrude Carson, both of Washington, were married at the home of the bride's parents Wednesday. Mr. Green is a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Green, of this place. The newly-married couple will make their home in Washington. They are now visiting in Norfolk and Newport News and will later visit Mr. Green's parents.

A "Four" That Sets A New Standard
The 1923 Buick Four Touring—$885

In beauty of appearance, dependability and economy of operation the Buick four-cylinder five-passenger Touring has established an entirely new standard for four-cylinder cars.

Its low body with its clean, straight lines, accentuated by the high radiator and straight hood, give it a long, racy appearance that is new to cars of its class. Massive crown fenders add to this distinction, as do the snug-fitting, shapely top and the handsome drum-type head and cow lamp.

And with this beauty has come a new riding comfort. The seats are deep and low with full leg room in both compartments. The steering column has been changed in position to increase driving ease and the gear shift lever has been raised to meet the driver's hand. A transmission lock, a windshield adjustable from the inside, and a transmission-driven speedometer likewise are among the many new refinements of this model.

Material changes also have been made in motor, chassis, and body construction which contribute still further to the wonderful performance record characteristic of Buick cars for twenty years.

The Buick line for 1923 comprises fourteen models: Four—5 Pass. Roadster, $865; 5 Pass. Touring, $885; 5 Pass. Coupe, $1175; 6 Pass. Sedan, $1595; 6 Pass. Touring Sedan, $1525; Six—4 Pass.
