

Every Two Minutes

Physicians tell us that all the blood in a healthy human body passes through the heart once in every two minutes. If this action becomes irregular the whole body suffers. Poor health follows poor blood; Scott's Emulsion makes the blood pure. One reason why is such a great aid is because it passes so quickly into the blood. It is partly digested before it enters the stomach; a double advantage in this. Less work for the stomach, quicker and more direct benefits. To get the greatest amount of good with the least possible effort is the desire of everyone in poor health. Scott's Emulsion does just that. A change for the better takes place even before you expect it.

The Monument Question Again

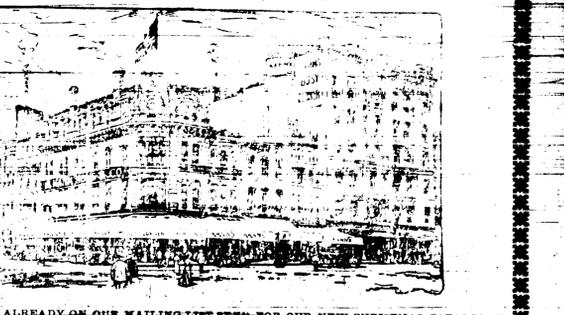

MANASSAS, VA., Nov. 15, 1906.
EDITOR JOURNAL.—In our issue of the 2nd inst., there appeared a communication from Mrs. Geo. W. Johnson in reply to my article copied from the Richmond News-Leader, with reference to the installation of the statue on the Confederate monument at this place, and bristling with what she perceived to be arguments in favor of its remaining in its present position.
Mrs. Johnson justifies the facing of the statue East, because, as she says, the monument itself faces East by reason of its inscription and the Virginia Coat of Arms having been placed upon the marble tablet on the front of the statue.
And another reason, Mrs. Johnson gives, is the soldier is on guard, which she mistakes for the position of his gun shows that it is, in fact, and when on guard we not only face one side but all.
Now as a matter of fact there are four tablets upon this monument, facing with the four main points of the compass. The original design of the Ladies' Memorial Association was that one should be reserved for inscription by the association, and the other three for such of the Southern States as should first elect to place inscriptions thereon in honor of their dead.
The association in selecting and placing its inscription and our state emblem upon the Eastern tablet, did so, as far as the records show, without any intention of designating the front of the monument. Those who are familiar with the situation of the cemetery know that the monument, unfortunately, occupies a position in the Northern corner of the lot and within a few feet of its Eastern boundary line. This situation of the monument affords but little accommodation for its Eastern side for a restroom and audience upon any occasion of ceremony that might take place upon the grounds, while there would be ample room on the South side. Mrs. Johnson misquotes me, when she says "it is said that all monuments in the South face South." My statement was: "Enquiries of a number of Southern memorial associations when location will permit, show that the vast majority of the monuments erected by them to commemorate the fallen heroes of the Confederacy, all face South." To improve this were any enquiries directed to associations at Alexandria, Richmond or other cities of the South, other than those mentioned in my January issue, would state the same. Mrs. Johnson says, "The very wish to do so, must have been born of something else besides pure Southern zeal and patriotism."
I am not competent to this worthy cause. I have the highest regard for the making her pupil in the past. The assertion would seem what would be in accord with the construction of her statement which would be at all consistent with the construction of her sentiments.
On any other sentiment would be to the position of the statue, and I am sure that the purchase of the land was raised for the purpose of a meeting of the Memorial Association and the Manassas Chapter of the U. S. C., speaking strictly from the records, I find that a meeting of "the association" was held on June 27, 1862, at a location in the city of Washington, D. C. The presence of the daughters of the Confederate soldiers and the purchase of the land was raised for the purpose of a meeting of the Memorial Association and the Manassas Chapter of the U. S. THERE IS A REASON FOR CHEWING REYNOLDS' SUN CURED TOBACCO

Chewers becoming tired of heavily sweetened sun cured tobaccos caused REYNOLDS' SUN CURED to quickly win from the old brands of much longer standing the place as favorite with sun cured chewers, because it contains just enough proper sweetening and flavoring to preserve the quality of the leaf and enhance its goodness, causing a large increase in the demand for sun cured tobaccos.

REYNOLDS' SUN CURED

is not only pure sun cured, but it is made from choice selections of the genuine sun cured leaf grown where the best sun cured tobacco grows. It is like that you formerly got, costing from 60c. to $1.00 per pound, and is sold at 50c. per pound in 5c. cuts; strictly 10c. plugs, and is the best value in sun cured tobacco that can be produced for chewers.

R. J. REYNOLDS TOBACCO CO.
Winston-Salem, N. C.

Extract from Message of President Roosevelt, Dec. 3, 1901.

"Not only must our labor be protected by the tariff, but it should also be protected so far as possible from the presence in the country of any laborers brought over by contract, or those who, coming freely, yet represent a standard of living so depressed that they can undersell our men in the labor market and drag them to a lower level." "Our present immigration laws are unsatisfactory." "There should be a comprehensive law with the object of working threefold improvement over our present system."

"First, We should aim to exclude absolutely not only all persons who are known to be believers in anarchistic principles or members of anarchistic societies, but also all persons who are of a low tendency or of unsavory reputation. This means that we should require a more thorough system of inspection abroad and a more rigid system of examination at our immigration ports, the former being especially necessary."

"The second object of a proper immigration law ought to be to secure by a careful and not merely perfunctory educational test, some intelligent capacity to appreciate American institutions and act sanely as American Citizens."

"This would not keep out all anarchists, for many of them belong to the intelligent criminal classes. But it would do what is also in point—that is, tend to decrease the sum of ignorance, so potent in producing the envy, suspicion, malignant passion, and hatred of order, out of which anarchistic sentiment mentally springs."

"Finally, all persons should be excluded who are below a certain standard of economic fitness to enter our industrial fields as competitors with American labor."

"There should be proper proof of personal capacity to earn an American living and enough money to insure a decent start under American conditions. This would stop the influx of cheap labor, and the resulting competition which gives rise to so much of bitterness in American industrial life; and it would dry up the spring of the pestilential social conditions in our great cities where anarchistic organizations have their greatest possibility of growth."

"Both the educational and economic test in a wise immigration law should be designed to protect and elevate the great body politic and social. A very close supervision should be exercised over the steamship companies which mainly bring over the immigrant, and they should be held to a strict accountability for any infraction of the law."
