

THERE IS A REASON FOR CHEWING REYNOLDS' SUN CURED TOBACCO

Chewers becoming tired of heavily sweetened sun cured tobaccos caused REYNOLDS' SUN CURED to quickly win from the old brands of much longer standing the place as favorite with sun cured chewers, because it contains just enough proper sweetening and flavoring to preserve the quality of the leaf and enhance its goodness, causing a large increase in the demand for sun cured tobaccos.

REYNOLDS' SUN CURED

is not only pure sun cured, but it is made from choice selections of the genuine sun cured leaf grown where the best sun cured tobacco grows. It is like that you formerly got, costing from 60c. to $1.00 per pound, and is sold at 10c. per pound in 5c. cuts; strictly 10c. plugs, and is the best value in sun cured tobacco that can be produced for chewers.

Want to Succeed Rixey.
From the News, City Times, Washington.
From reports that come to Washington there will be a lively fight in the eighth congressional district over the choice of a successor to Representative Rixey. It is understood that while Mr. Rixey is sick in the New York hospitals, there are a number of gentlemen bearing upon succeeding him in the sixty-first congressional district. Representative Rixey has a list of prospective candidates for the place, and that there is already a great deal of figuring going on.

Among those mentioned as having an eye to the future and telling their intimate friends not to pledge their support to any one else, are the following: Ex-Senator Donohoe, Judge Nichol, ex-Speaker Ryan, Charles White, and a certain Mr. Rixey. Rixey is ready to announce yet that he will or will not be a candidate, for every attention that the great plans of the country are being laid out. But there is at the same time no room for doubt that each of the gentlemen named is a man of great personal thought to it, and are all casting anchors to windward, so as to be in line for any developments that the future may bring forth.

Wisdom for Wives.
A country vicar was noted for his excellent fatherly advice to young couples be wedded. He had printed cards of advice, which he used to distribute besides giving guidance verbally. One of the cards was for the man and the other for the woman. That to the woman ran as follows:

When you marry him, love him. After you marry him, study him. If he is honest, honor him. If he is generous, appreciate him. When he is sad, cheer him. When he is cross, amuse him. When he is talkative, listen to him. When he is quarrelsome, ignore him. If he is slothful, spur him. If he is noble, praise him. If he is confidential, encourage him. If he is secretive, trust him. If he is jealous, cure him. If he cares naught for pleasure, coax him. If he favors society, accompany him. If he does you a favor, thank him. When he deserves it, kiss him. Let him think how well you understand him, but never let him know that you manage him, says Woman's Life.

"Bills or No Bills"
From a Country Newspaper.
The following plaintive note was picked up on the bridge in the East end of town:
"Dear L— The reason I didn't lift when you left me yesterday in the postoffice was because I have a hole in my face and I can't lift. If I lift without it, but I love old sweet thing like or no hole, laff or no laff, you know that. p. m. Bore this up."

King of All Cough Medicines.
Mr. E. O. Case, a mail carrier of Canton Center, Conn., who has been in the U. S. Service for about sixteen years, says: "We have tried many cough medicines for cough, but Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is king of all and one to be relied upon every time. We also find the best remedy for coughs and colds, and it is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy."

LOOK!

It was just as I expected, that some one was going to be sorry they did not attend the 5c and 10c sale given on the 18th, notwithstanding they had two weeks notice. But I guess they thought it would not amount to much—but after their friends, acquaintances and relatives returned home laden down with upward of bargains in Manassas, why those that could not get here very soon flocked in, when they should have done—but those from a distance of course could not arrive until the next day—but, too late, too late!
Now, just to show you MY HEART is in the RIGHT place, and in justice to those so unfortunate as to not get here, why I am going to give them a chance, and shall give another such sale.

Saturday, 22 and Monday, 24.

But just as I tell you, be sure and bring a BIG BASKET, as you will be able to get enough goods for about $1 to set up a small store on a back street. I shall also give you special values in Furniture. Have a few more of these Bed-room Suites at $18, which is excellent value for this season. Have an excellent assortment of Rugs and Pictures that I shall offer at good BARGAIN prices. And in Dining-room Chairs I can't be beaten. If you want something (GOOD) why just come in and take a peep at, oh, so many things you need! You know this is THE HOME STORE, so why not come HOME and let us deal together. It is a good many good things in store for you next year. No CLEVERNESS made on special sales day—but it pays you, don't it? Thanking you for your patronage, I am,
Yours very respectfully,

R. B. SPRINKEL.
