AVOID The INTERNAL WRONGS of ALUM. Alum in food causes stomach disorders. Its continued use means permanent injury to health. Following the advice of medical scientists, England and France have passed laws prohibiting its use in bread making. American housewives should protect their households against Alum's wrongs by always buying pure Grape Cream of Tartar Baking Powder. Buy by name—ROYAL BAKING POWDER.

The School of the University of Virginia. It is encouraging to learn that the summer school of the University of Virginia is to be greatly strengthened and improved next summer. The purpose is to leave the work of training lower grade teachers largely to the district summer schools and to direct the training at the University towards the needs of the following classes: First, those first grade teachers who have already attended the district summer schools; second, those teachers in high schools and academies who wish to review and advance their knowledge of special subjects; third, those principals and superintendents of schools who wish to acquaint themselves with the most practical and acceptable methods of school administration; fourth, those college students who are not willing to waste three and a half months of time during the vacation, but who would come from all Southern institutions to continue their studies if such opportunity should be offered. There will also be offered, upon demand, certain advanced courses for college professors.

Another Terrible Disaster. Twenty persons were killed in a wreck just outside of New York Saturday night on New York Central R. R. Some of the victims were so badly mangled that they could not be identified. Two motors, four passenger coaches and a smoker plunged down embankment, rolling over and over. The smoker took fire. Police, firemen and citizens rushed to the scene. Sixteen were instantly killed, four died soon after and others are fatally injured.

Letter From Occoquan. For many weeks the Occoquan river has been frozen over, preventing all traffic, but proving a source of profit to the ice gatherers, and a source of pleasure to the skaters. There is now, however, an indication that a thaw will soon break up the ice and end it all. The Shakespeare club, which meets monthly, met last Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Hart Davis, with a full attendance. A highly interesting and instructive program was conducted by Mrs. Charles Marker, Mrs. C. Thompson, Miss Gertrude Seelman, Miss Mabel Arrington and Mr. Charles Wadley. The club will meet next week at the home of Mr. Tyson James. Much satisfaction is expressed here with the candidacy of Mr. Tyson James for the House of Delegates, a candidate worthy of our good old town. The religious revival, conducted at the M. E. Church, closed last week with a glorious success. Rev. Charles Lyach, our popular pastor, in charge, was ably assisted by the eloquent and faithful Mr. Ballenger, of Occoquan, and Mr. Gordon of Washington. The musical programme was conducted by Misses Janney, Robinson and Marker, whose talent added much to the interest of the meeting. The W. C. T. U. will hold a special meeting at the Occoquan M. E. Church Sunday evening next in commemoration of the birthday of Frances B. Willard. This meeting has been deferred a week in consequence of the disability of one of the leading members. Mrs. Laura E. Seelman, the president, will preside at the meeting, and invites a large attendance next Sunday evening at 7:30 p. m. Come and spend a pleasant evening. Mrs. Thompson of Woodbridge gave a delightful dinner party this week. Among those present from Occoquan were Mrs. Charles Wadley, Miss Evelyn Mann, Mrs. Tyson Janney and Mrs. C. Lee Starker.

THE DANGER THAT LURKS IN INFLAMMATION. The American Magazine for February contains a remarkable presentation of the real truth about cancer. The facts, which are set forth by a consulting Johns Hopkins University authority, are very encouraging, but they are surprising. "In brief," concludes Dr. Hirschberg, the author, "we must admit that we know next to nothing. We don't know the causes of the disease. Except in a small proportion of very early cases, we don't know how to cure it. We don't know whether it is hereditary. We don't know if it is induced by peculiarities of diet. We don't know to what extent it depends upon climate. We don't know whether it is contagious or infectious. We don't know why it reserves its attacks for oldish people. We don't know why it is increasing. All we may do, at present, is to keep a sharp lookout for incipient cancers, and cut them out ruthlessly. "In brief," we must try to kill the cancer before it really exists. A preliminary attack of cancer must be removed at once. We must keep a weather eye upon inflamed places and have them looked after without delay. No one fears the removal of such tiny growths these days. Not even children are scared by small operations. "It is not sufficient that a family physician remove the suspected growth with lancet or caustic. He has done his share if he merely sounds the warning in time. The cutting out should be done by a thoroughly competent surgeon—one who has served his apprenticeship under the master of the art, and not one who has merely dabbled in surgery while attending cases of pneumonia, typhoid and measles. "A good surgeon of this sort does not temporize with a cancer. He knows that the operation must be performed immediately, and that the trustful patient who wishes to conserve healthy tissue. It is far better to remove a few inches of sound flesh than to err on the cautious side and leave behind one microscopic cancer cell. It is only by such radical and merciless surgery that we may combat cancer. We must take the time, and we must cut deep and wide. "And even then we are never sure."

Little Mary, the lovely and interesting daughter of Capt. and Mrs. J. Thos. Seelman, recovered from a serious attack of the grip. Miss Janie Carter, the popular teacher at the boys' school in Alexandria, spent Sunday at her home here. Mrs. J. Wilbur Ayres has returned to her home at Manassas after a pleasant visit to her parents at Occoquan. Mrs. C. Thompson and little daughter were in town on Thursday last. The many friends of Miss Janie Dwyer were glad to see her out on Sunday last after her recent illness. Mrs. Hattie P. Woodbridge was in town on Sunday. Charles Lyach, who has been suffering from throat trouble, has improved. Mr. W. R. Nicholson of Washington spent several days at the home of Capt. J. Thos. Seelman last week. Mr. Robert Green of Boyce, Va., visited Miss Lennie Carter recently. Mrs. George Allen is visiting her daughter, Mrs. William Hartstreet of Washington. Miss Mabel Arrington visited Occoquan this week. Mrs. J. F. Seelman is visiting friends in Washington. Mrs. J. W. Ayres has returned from a short visit to her sister, Mrs. J. Wilbur Ayres of Manassas. Mr. John Chatham sustained a painful injury on Monday last. While engaged in spitting wood the axe hung in an overhanging clothes line, cutting him in the head. The injury was not a very serious one, but he anxiously sought the assistance of the new pharmacy of Dr. Hornbaker and Mr. Ledman. Our town needs progressive business establishments. We wish their success. "MEASURE FOR MEASURE."

Republican Candidates. Ex-Postmaster J. L. Crupper of Alexandria; William B. King of Loudoun county, chairman of the Eight Virginia district republican committee; and John B. Henderson, Jr., of Albemarle county, are mentioned as possible candidates for the Republican nomination for Congress from the Eighth district. The Republican nomination will be made at a convention to be held. Choate's Answer. One town asked of Joseph H. Choate, if his name could not be received whom would you rather see—Choate or yourself? He answered, "I would rather see Choate, if I could not see Choate, I would rather see myself."
