

VACATION FOR OPERATORS HUMANITY ON WHEELS

Chief Dispatcher Explains Conditions Which Result in Leave of Absence With Pay

Chief dispatcher, George H. Leher, of the Washington division of the Southern Railway Co., has given notice to the operators of his division that beginning on or about January 15, he would begin a 15 days leave of absence, starting at Cameron Run office.

Following is the dispatcher's notice: To all agent-operators and operators: Referring to article 8 of the operators schedule. All the agent-operators, and operators who have worked the required number of hours on Sundays and legal holidays are now entitled to 15 days leave of absence dating from July 1, 1910, to July 1, 1911. I will begin on or about Jan. 15 at Cameron Run office and relieve men on Main line consecutively and those who do not desire the relief, when it is due them, may take credit for same on check roll provided they notify me that the leave of absence is not desired. Since July 1, there have been 26 Sundays and 3 holidays and to be entitled to the relief eight-hour men must have worked 116 hours in the aggregate on these Sundays and holidays to entitle them to the leave.

I am not receiving form No. 840 operators claim for vacation on account of Sunday work except from very few operators. Beginning at once it will be absolutely necessary for men on the Harrisonburg and Blumensont branches to send same in immediately after each Sunday or holiday.

It is not necessary for the Main line men to send in these forms except Rapidan, Commerce and Tyne River. GEORGE H. LEHER, Chief dispatcher.

It is understood that when an office is reached having more than one operator, they will be relieved in accordance with the "trick" they are working.

When Mr. J. E. Nixon, who works second "trick" in the Manassas office, was asked if he would avail himself of the leave of absence with pay or have the time added to his check, he replied: "I will take the leave of absence, you might know, and will devote the time to my farm and poultry. I have about 100 hens which are eating up about half bushel of wheat a day and I am not getting eggs enough to lay for their feed. I have been feeding them red pepper to make them lay until I have fed them about four pounds and every time I hear a hen cackle I am afraid she has set my hen house or barn afire."

"Songs of Love and War."

The following is from the pen of Hon. S. R. Donohoe, editor, and recent appointee of Gov. Mann to the position of state auditor.

Dr. H. M. Clarkson, of Prince William county, has issued a second and enlarged edition of his book of poems, entitled, "Songs of Love and War." It is from the press of the Manassas Journal, and, typographically, would be a credit to any office.

Too much cannot be said in praise of the book itself. There is a sweetness, and gentleness, and purity in his songs which reflect the high character of the accomplished author. The Herald has heretofore said, and now reiterates, that, in its opinion, Dr. Clarkson towers above any poet of today in this country. This seems a broad assertion, but it is true. Who can name one that surpasses him? His book of poems is everywhere to be found. The price of the book is only $1.00, and it can be procured by addressing The Journal Publishing Co., Manassas, Va.

Red Cross First Aid Car Now on the Road Starting Statistics

In these strenuous days no one can afford to sit back and wait for business to come to him. He must go out and hustle for it. This is no less true in humanitarian work than in commercial ventures.

The American Red Cross has always been distinguished by its enterprise in making its efforts to aid humanity of maximum value. As another evidence of this activity this association has lately established a first aid to the injured department through which it hopes to carry instruction in this important subject to all parts of the country. In furtherance of this object it has now in operation a First Aid Car. This car was donated by the Pullman Company and has been fully equipped by the Red Cross with all sorts of first aid material. It is in direct charge of Dr. M. Whitfield Glasgow, of Birmingham, Alabama, who was employed for this special work by the First Aid Department of the Red Cross. The car was outfitted at the Pullman shops in Buffalo and is now on the road in Illinois. Its work evidently appeals to the various railway officials as the railways are having it free of charge.

The car will proceed from place to place stopping at railway, manufacturing and mining centers where the best opportunities present themselves for organizing first aid classes. Just as has been done by the Red Cross in the mining field an attempt will be made to interest employers, employees and local physicians alike so that first aid to the injured instruction will have general support and maintenance after the car has visited a place. Though the Red Cross car is primarily designed for instruction purposes it will also always be available when needed for rescue work and care of injured in case of disaster as it is fully equipped for this purpose.

It is, perhaps, not generally realized how large a percentage of deaths are now due to accident. In fact, in certain industries deaths from disease are absolutely insignificant in numbers when compared with those from accident. For example, in the registration area which now includes about 55 per cent. of the population of the United States, the 1909 census statistics charge to accident 67.9 per cent. of all deaths among the railway employees between the ages of 25 and 94. The next most hazardous occupation as shown by these statistics is that of miners and quarrymen taken together, in which accidents are responsible for 61.3 per cent. of all deaths at the same ages. Iron and steel workers have 28.1 per cent. and though they are forty cents a dozen to lay for their feed, they have been feeding them red pepper to make them lay until I have fed them about four pounds and every time I hear a hen cackle I am afraid she has set my hen house or barn afire."

It is understood that when an office is reached having more than one operator, they will be relieved in accordance with the "trick" they are working.

When Mr. J. E. Nixon, who works second "trick" in the Manassas office, was asked if he would avail himself of the leave of absence with pay or have the time added to his check, he replied: "I will take the leave of absence, you might know, and will devote the time to my farm and poultry. #### School Trustees and Physicians are Active in War on Hookworm Disease.

Richmond, Va., Jan. 11.—Dinwiddie county, Va., is making a determined effort to eradicate this "American murderer" altogether. Reports received at headquarters of the State Health Department from the field agent recently sent to Dinwiddie gave a most encouraging account of the situation. The school trustees of the county, to whom the matter has been presented, have ordered extensive sanitary improvements in the school buildings, while the physicians of the county have begun the treatment of the disease according to the most approved methods and are hoping ere long to materially reduce the number of cases. Good results are expected.

ANNUAL MASONIC BANQUET

Large Gathering of Fair Women And Gallant Men Throng The Banquet Hall.

One of the most enjoyable functions that has taken place in our midst, was the annual banquet of Manassas Lodge of Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons which was held last Friday night, in Masonic Temple on Centre street. The magnificent rooms of the building were thronged with Masons, their lady guests and visiting friends from 8 o'clock until long after the midnight hour. Such a gathering of fair and handsomely costumed women and gallant men was seldom seen on like former occasions.

The sidewalks of the banquet hall were hung with flags and adorned with numerous portraits. Suspended in front of the toastmaster's chair was an evergreen square and compass, one of the chief emblems of the Masonic order, the handiwork of the ladies. Four tables, the length of the hall, aggregating some two hundred feet and seating nearly two hundred people, were prettily decorated with cut-flowers and ferns and groined beneath the weight of fruits and viands well calculated to satisfy the inner man.

Raw Oysters Stewed Oysters
Caviary Pickles
Cold Stew Cold Ham
Chicken Salad Mayonnaise Dressing
Potato Salad Cranberry Sauce

Roast Turkey with Dressing
Ice Cream Tea Coffee
Cakes

The menu was furnished by Mrs. M. L. Sison, proprietress of the Manassas Cafe, and served by a delegation of the Manassas High School boys under the direction of Mr. Thos. Schultz. Had not the rooms been so congested by the immense gathering, the enjoyment would have been more complete.

FORMAL RECEPTION.
The formal reception was held in the lodge room on the third floor, the goal being well secured in one of the anti-rooms. The reception committee was composed of the following ladies: Mesdames C. E. Nash, A. B. Davis, T. H. Lion, O. D. Waters, R. S. Hynson, J. Walter Bernhard, Hawes T. Davies and I. E. Cannon. The special committee of lodge members who had charge of the function, were Messrs. I. E. Cannon, G. R. Ratcliffe, O. D. Waters, R. S. Hynson and Dr. J. Walter Bernhard.

After a most delightful exchange of greetings among the Masonic fraternity, old friends and new acquaintances, in the reception hall, the guests were summoned to the banquet hall at 10 o'clock, being received by the committee as they passed through the main entrance. When the guests had been seated, a flash light picture of the banquet hall was taken by THE JOURNAL'S special artist, Mr. A. L. Jameson, of Alexandria, which is shown above. Rev. H. S. Willey in asking the blessing, invoked the favor and approval of the Supreme Architect of the Universe upon their order and upon all present.

TOASTMASTER'S BOUQUET.
At the close of the sumptuous repast, Hon. Thos. H. Lion, chairman of the committee of arrangements, conducted Judge J. K. Norton, State Commissioner of Insurance, to the postmaster's chair and with well-chosen remarks on behalf of Mrs. M. L. Sison, presented Mrs. W. H. Sweeney, president of the Manassas Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star.

PATHETIC HOSPITAL SCENE

PLANS FOR NEW HOTEL

Grand Jury Began Yesterday to Attempt to Untangle the Affairs of the Institution.

According to Judge J. K. M. Norton, former Judge of the Corporation Court of Alexandria, who is one of the two receivers for the Virginia Safe Deposit and Trust Company which closed its doors on the 23rd of December.

On Monday Mr. Leopold Selis, who, a short time since, conducted a clothing business in this place, was in the toils of the law with the prison bars staring him in the face.

After using upon Mr. E. R. Conner, the complainant in the case, all the persuasive methods peculiar to his calling, without effect, the wily Jew retired. In a short while his wife appeared upon the scene with two small children following her and with an infant in her arms. And renewed the appeal for her husband's release.

Mr. Conner was, at first, obdurate, but when the Jew wife waxed warm in her appeal for clemency for her husband with tears streaming down her cheeks, the pathetic situation so strongly appealed to Mr. Conner's sympathy that he consented to the release of his criminal debtor upon condition that he give his personal bond for the amount claimed from him through the means charged in the warrant, to be paid in instalments. There were two cases against Selis, one on attachment of his household goods, while in the depot here for shipment, to secure the payment of a grocery bill, and the other for false pretenses.

According to Mr. Conner, Mr. Selis secured through his influence, $200.00 upon the misrepresentation of the value of his stock on hand and upon representation that the money obtained was for the purpose of replenishing that. What appeared to be well stocked shelves in Selis's store, turned out, upon examination, to be largely empty boxes.

Mr. J. J. Conner, of near this place, sold, a few days ago, heard from yesterday Mr. Garnier was doing as well as could be expected, with fair prospects for his ultimate recovery from the operation.

MOTHER AND CHILD LIE SIDE BY SIDE

On cot side by side, in the University hospital in Charlottesville, lie mother and son suffering from gun-shot wounds as the result of careless handling of fire arms.

A few days ago, Mrs. Martin, of near Mitchell's station, on the Southern Railway, was sitting in a chair, in her home, holding and fondling her little nine-year-old boy in her lap. Her brother took down from the pegs on the wall of the room a magazine shot gun and in re-charging it the gun was accidentally discharged, the full load of one of the shells fearfully mutilating the little boy's left arm and entering his mother's stomach.

The child will probably suffer the loss of his arm and his mother is likely to die from the result of the accident. The pitiful cries of the child for his mother as he suffers from his wounds, and the only response of his mother being agonizing groans, presents a pathetic scene in the hospital ward, according to an eye witness.

Mrs. Martin is a distant relative of the late Boling Thomas, for several years station agent for the Southern Railway Company at this place.

MANASSAS WILL BE PROVIDED WITH A MODERN HOSTELRY IF PLANS ARE CARRIED OUT.

Manassas is to have a modern hotel in the near future, if plans on foot to accomplish this much needed place of public entertainment is carried out.

The hotel which will be of veneered brick, three stories high and with ample frontage on Main and Centre streets, will be located at the Southeast corner of these main thoroughfares.

The party who will undertake this enterprise is Mr. R. S. Hynson, of Manassas. Mr. Hynson says that if he can convert into cash some realty he is trying to dispose of, he will undertake the building of the hotel on his own account, otherwise he will form a joint stock company for that purpose.

Mr. Hynson's plans are to move the building, now on the corner, back sufficiently far to form a connection with his plans for the main building and brick-veneer this building to correspond with the new one. Should Mr. Hynson undertake the building on his own account, he will invest in the neighborhood of $15,000 in the enterprise. If it is thought by business men with whom he has talked over the matter, that a more expensive building should be provided for the purpose, he will join a stock company with his personal investment of $2,000, even should it not, in his opinion, prove profitable, for the sake of providing for the town and the general public with the facilities so long and so greatly needed.

The architect will soon place some plans in Mr. Hynson's possession providing for modern appointments and at least thirty bedrooms, and it is confidently expected that work upon the building will begin in the early part of the spring. There could not be a more desirable location for a hotel here than the one in question, and the building is expected, with fair prospects, to be the result of the recovery from the operation.

MAY PURCELL AND "DICK"

Famous Politician and Sportsman Resorts to Strenuous Methods in Dog Case.

Major Jas. R. Purcell, of Gainesville district, who says he will shortly announce himself a candidate to succeed Senator Claude Swanson in the United States Senate, was before Mayor C. A. Sinclair Monday morning, charged with drawing a double-barrel shot gun upon a negro, Thos. Jordan, on Saturday night.

Major Purcell admitted that he had drawn his gun upon Jordan for the reason that he, Jordan, was advancing upon him to claim a dog he believed to be his own and which he had recovered that day while roaming over a field on the Portner premises, the dog having been stolen from him three years ago. The Major emphatically stated that he made no hostile demonstration until he warned Jordan to come no further as he advanced upon him. Jordan and other witnesses testified that he, Jordan, approached the Major and claimed the dog whereupon the Major inserted shells in his gun and upon his threatening to shoot him, he retreated behind a telephone pole on the opposite side of the street.

Mayor Sinclair imposed the minimum fine of $2.50 and costs. Immediately following this case was a warrant sworn out by Major Purcell, against James and Thomas Jordan, charging them with the stealing and carrying away the dog referred to in the former case.

The evidence of the complainant was to the effect that three years ago he left upon the premises of Mr. Hynson, in this place, a black setter dog while he took a trip to Washington. When he returned the dog was missing and a thorough search through the town and adjacent country and an advertisement in several papers, failed to reveal his whereabouts.

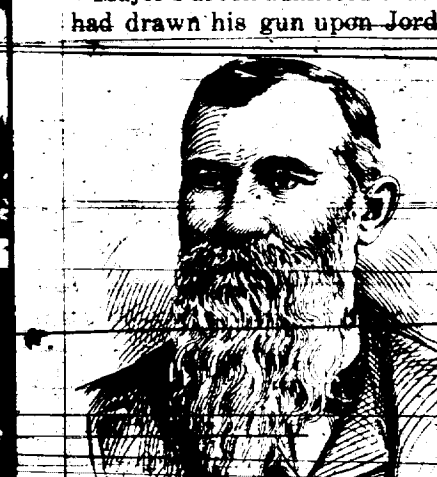

While the Major was roaming over a field on the Portner property, Saturday, this dog approached him and, according to the Major, manifested such desire that he warranted the admission, in dog language, "I am your long lost dog, 'Dick,' and I am glad to find you." The Major brought the dog to Manassas, and while he entered the Prince William Pharmacy on business, the dog disappeared from in front of the drug store, but was overtaken at the corner of Main and Centre streets. While securing the dog, he was approached by Jordan who claimed ownership of the animal, but upon his warning for him to come no further the negro retreated.

From the evidence of Major Purcell and Mr. R. S. Hynson it appeared that the dog was upon the testimony of Mrs. Geo. W. Hynson and other witnesses, on behalf of the defense, the case concluded on Seventh Page.

"WATCHMAN, WHAT OF THE NIGHT?"
With Congressman William A. Jones opposing Senator Martin and Wm. Carter Glass contesting for the seat of Senator Swanson, the fight along these lines in the August primary promises to be an interesting one, with more than idle curiosity as to the outcome.

That both Martin and Swanson have a strong hold upon the political preference of the people of Virginia there can be no doubt, as is evidenced by their long continued service in highly honored positions.

Congressman Jones has the avowed support of Harry St. George Tucker, Ex-Governor Montague, former Attorney-General Anderson and Henry C. Stuart, according to announcement by The Richmond News-Leader in headlines ranging from twenty-four to sixty point type.

The question arises, in the minds of those who have kept tabs on the panorama of Virginia politics during the past ten years, have not these distinguished opponents had something up their sleeves in the shape of vindictive or unscrupulous means for shattering hopes and cherished ambitions, which they charge to the firm hold, deserved or undeserved, which Mr. Martin and Mr. Swanson has upon those who will determine at the polls whether or not they have rendered a satisfactory account of their stewardship.

What has been said of the support of Congressman Jones is equally true of Mr. Glass and when the smoke of the battle lifts from the August conflict, it will attest the greatest political struggle that has taken place in this grand old Commonwealth for so these many days.

We thought Prince William county could boast of some tall men until our attention was called to the fact that John Turner, who died in the Washington asylum on Monday, was 7 feet, 7 inches in height. Turner was 34 years old and had been an invalid from infancy, and could neither read or write.

When J. P. Morgan landed in Washington, Sunday, rumor was rife that his intention was to send the monetary commission in a sealed car, to the land of sunshine and flowers, the car to be opened after the adjournment of congress.

PRESS JOHNSON ROBBED
Held Up at Night by Four Bandits Upon the Public Highway Last Week.

Last week Mr. Press Johnson, father of Mr. Frank Johnson, of Manassas, while riding in a vehicle from Warrenton to his home in Marshall, was held up and robbed of about $400.

Mr. Johnson says he was driving slowly along the public highway with no thought of danger when, at a lonely spot, four masked men sprang out from a thicket and while one seized the horse by the bridle the other three covered him with revolvers and demanded his money.

Not responding as promptly to the bandits' demand as they had expected, the victim was dragged from his buggy and thrown to the ground and his pockets rifled. The darkness of the night prevented Mr. Johnson from recognizing either of the highwaymen. As neither spoke during the robbery except when the hold-up was made, in a disguised voice, under great surprise to him, he has no idea who the parties are. He is satisfied, however, that they consider money that night and had planned to rob him.

The authorities of Fauquier county are investigating the matter, and it is to be hoped that the guilty parties may be brought to speedy justice.

IF GROWS HAIR

Here Are Facts We Want You to Prove at Our Risk.

Marvellous as it may seem, all '93' Hair Tonic has grown hair on heads that were once bald. Of course, in none of these cases were the hair roots dead, nor had the scalp taken on a glazed, shiny appearance.

Revax '93' Hair Tonic acts scientifically, destroying the germs which are usually responsible for baldness. It penetrates to the root of the hair, stimulating and nourishing them. It is a most pleasant toilet necessity, is delicately perfumed, and will not gum or permanently stain the hair.

PRESIDENT BAR ASSOCIATION

MR. C. VERNON FORD.

At the second annual meeting of the bar association of the sixteenth judicial circuit, held in Alexandria last Saturday, Mr. C. Vernon Ford, Commonwealth Attorney for Fairfax county, was unanimously elected president of the association for the ensuing year.

Among those present were Messrs. Fred Richardson, C. W. Ford, John R. Russ, R. B. Farr and R. E. Thornton, of the association for the ensuing year.

The resignation of Rev. T. D. Clark as pastor of the Manassas Baptist church, Thursday night of last week, came as a surprise to his many friends in this place.

Some three years ago, Mr. Clark tendered his resignation for the same reasons which prompted his recent action but upon his being waited upon by delegations from all the churches in town, praying that he be considered his resignation, he reluctantly concluded to do so.

When THE JOURNAL's representative called upon him at his home Wednesday night, he manifested a reluctance to be interviewed upon matters connected with his resignation further than to say he hoped that he had been prompted in doing so through Divine wisdom, for the good of himself and the church.

The Reverend gentleman spoke feelingly of the uniform courtesy and kindness which had been extended by the people of Manassas to himself and family. He said that both professional and business men had vied with each other in the highly appreciated consideration extended him since his advent to Manassas.

It is learned that Manassas and Clifton Baptist churches will, in all probability unite, leaving Hay-

ANNUAL MASONIC BANQUET

Large Gathering of Fair Women and Gaiety Met Through The Banquet Hall.

APPROPRIATE TOASTS. Toastmaster Thornton called the assemblage to order and prefaced his remarks by saying that the custom of formulating and responding to toasts originated in the great city of Athens. He spoke of the great service Masonry had rendered to mankind throughout the world and the great benefit it had been to this community.

Mr. Round said he was embarrassed on the one side by the fullness and extent of the theme allotted to him and upon the other by the instructions of a lady guest that he should say all he had to say in the brief space of three minutes. "As, however, the 250 intelligent faces before me know as much of the enjoyable banquet of the present as myself, I can safely out on the second part of my theme," said the speaker.

"As to the future," he observed that it is already tomorrow and we have all just finished our breakfast and you are as well prepared as myself to imagine what is yet to come, hence I will confine myself to the past," continued he. Mr. Round said that this young people present that the town in which they then were, but after that grand old patriarch Manassas, who was the son of Joseph, and that it had been his good fortune to select for the lodge that name.

"One peculiarity of the tribe of Manassas," said Mr. Round, "was that they could not agree among themselves, one-half living on the one side of the Jordan and the other half on the other side. This tribal characteristic is still kept up, but it looks to me, from the immense gathering here tonight, that both tribes have broken down the barriers and are left grafted together."

HON. T. H. LION. Hon. Thos. H. Lion, in responding to the toast: "Our Invited Guests" said some complimentary things of the special friends who braved the discomforts of chilly weather and long roads, to be with them upon the occasion and hoped they would return to their homes well pleased at having come.

MR. H. T. DAVIES. Mr. H. Thornton Davies in responding to the toast: "Our Mothers, Sisters, Wives and Sweethearts," found himself in the realms of his most cherished theme. As he spoke with tender pathos in referring to the dearest of all earthly friends, our mothers, his voice trembled with emotion. When he referred to other kindred ties and lastly to the ties of friendship.

MR. C. J. MEETZ.

Mr. "Chris" Meetz in responding to the toast: "Our Emblem," in substance said: "The popular belief in regard to Freemasonry is, that there is a goat which plays a prominent part in initiatory ceremonies, and that the letter G in the Masonic emblem stood for that putting animal. I want to tell you that there is in reality no goat in Masonry."

In referring to the mythical goat, Mr. Meetz recited the following timely verse of doggerel: "Mary had a little goat, that goat was full of sin, and every where that Mary went that goat kept bawling in."

"Masonry," he said, "is founded on the Bible from beginning to end. The first question asked in the initiation is: 'In whom do you believe?' and the answer must be 'In God, the sole foundation of Masonry.'" Mr. Meetz spoke in complimentary terms of the past masters of the lodge. Coming down to the present worshipful master, Mr. I. E. Cannon, he expressed the hope that the gun would not explode.

MR. R. A. HUTCHISON. The last speaker, Mr. R. A. Hutchison, in responding to the toast: "Our Motto, Faith, Hope and Charity," made some pertinent and strong allusions to the three features of the toast that bound humanity together in strong fellowship. In his concluding reference to the latter he said he would show his charity to an already tired but patient audience by closing his remarks. With a vote of thanks to Mrs. Sisson and the High School delegation, who had assisted her, and also to the several committees who had labored so zealously, this most enjoyable banquet was brought to a close at 2 o'clock, while the chickens were crowing for joy that the much-talked-of event was at an end and their necks had been spared.

THOSE PRESENT. Following is a list of those present, according to admission cards, and accompanied by a lady: Messrs. G. J. Meetz, D. H. Prescott, S. B. Parsons, E. T. H. Hodge, W. J. Johnson, W. MAJ. PURCELL AND "DICK"

Famous Politician and Sportsman Resorts to Strenuous Methods in Dog Case. (Continued from First Page.) resolved itself into equally strong testimony on either side. According to the testimony of Mrs. Hixson and other witnesses, including Mr. R. M. Weir who has lived for several years near the Jordan home, that about the time that Major Purcell claims his dog was stolen from him, Mr. David Arrington gave to Mrs. Hixson's grandson a black setter pup, which Mrs. Hixson, not wanting about the house, subsequently gave to Jas. Jordan's wife. Mr. Weir and other witnesses, on behalf of the defendant, testified that the dog in controversy is the same as that was given to the Jordans by Mrs. Hixson.

It being evident to Justice Hodge, who tried the case, that the defendant's claim of the dog was based upon his belief that it was his property and thus freed him from any intention of stealing him. He dismissed the case, leaving the animal in possession of the plaintiff, with the question of ownership to yet be determined.

THE JONES RIXEY BANK

Grand Jury Resign Yesterday to Attempt to Untangle the Affairs of the Institution.

(Continued from First Page.) The National Bank Examiner who is now investigating the affairs of the corporation, John S. Barbour and Judge Norton, the receivers; the board of directors, and all the clerical force employed by the defunct corporation. It is also expected that an effort will be made to compel the attendance of C. Jones Rixey, the president and who was recently the cashier of the corporation. Mr. Rixey is reported seriously ill at his home in Washington.

A suit was filed last Saturday by Commonwealth's Attorney Robert settings account for State Auditor S. R. Donohoe, to protect the state's interests, City Treasurer Robinson, of Alexandria, having had on deposit $18,000 of the state's funds with the Deposit and Trust Corporation when it closed its doors. In this suit grave reflections are cast upon Mr. Rixey's official conduct of the concern. It is, therefore, expected that, in possession, he will appear before the grand jury and endeavor to free himself of the stigma which now attaches to him.

It is charged that Mr. Rixey overdraw his account $32,685.33 and to secure and make good the overdraft, took $50,000 of the money and property of the corporation without giving note or security; also, that he had issued to himself $102,700 worth of the capital stock with out paying for it, disposing of this stock from time to time, until but $4,000 appeared in his hands.
