MR. CONNER'S STATEMENT (Continued)
On the day of January, 1911, I called at the law office of Mr. H. Thornton Davies to consult him as Attorney for the Commonwealth of Prince William County.
On this visit I stated to Mr. Davies that Mr. Lee Selis, who had been conducting a clothing business in one room of my building in the town of Manassas, had gone into voluntary bankruptcy, had defrauded me out of $200 in the following manner:
That said Selis, upon opening his store, came to me one day and stated that he had a stock of goods in his store worth about $1000 and that he had decided to increase his stock by buying more goods in his stock. That if I would inquire for him so he could get the money, he would secure me, using the money for that purpose and no other. I told him I would do so and went to see a practicing attorney in the town of Manassas and arranged to be retained in the matter.
After Selis went into bankruptcy, I found that I was not secured, but stood upon an equal footing with the other unsecured creditors. I told Mr. Davies that Mr. Selis did not have stock worth the above amount by a good deal at the time he made such representations to me, or at any other time, and that he used most of the money, to-wit, $200 secured through my indorsement, for the purpose of keeping his family. So stated Mrs. Selis.
After stating the above facts, and stating that I had indorsed the note for Mr. Selis for $200, and he had received the said sum of money and used it as afore-said, I having indorsed the note on the representation of his statement of the value of his goods and the purpose for which the money was to be used, I further told Mr. Davies that I had, as a matter of course, and as I possibly could, but found that nothing could be done, so I wanted to proceed against him criminally and desired his instructions and advice as to what steps were proper.
Mr. Davies replied that upon the facts as stated by me he thought the party guilty of obtaining money under false pretenses, which in law was the same as larceny, and that I could go before a justice and swear out a warrant for Mr. Selis and have him sent on to the grand jury if the justice saw proper.
I then went to Mr. J. L. Moser, Justice of the Peace, in the town of Manassas, and he drew up a warrant at my request. I did not know whether it was in proper form or not, so called Mr. Davies over the phone and read the warrant to him, and he told me to take it and ask him if it was all right. He replied that in law false pretenses was the same as larceny and it was just the usual custom and practice to draw the warrant for larceny. I thereupon requested him to come down and draw up the warrant for me, and after a few minutes he did. He handed me the warrant written by him, and he left, and I went to Mr. Moser's and swore out the warrant.
The warrant was then placed in Mr. Korabough's hands, the sheriff, and he arrested Mr. Selis, who appeared in court. I then telephoned to Mr. Korabough and told him that Mr. Korabough had arrested Mr. Selis and brought him up to Mr. Moser's, and that he had employed counsel, and by agreement the case had been set for 7:30 o'clock that night, if that hour was agreeable to him, in which he replied it was.

MRS. SCHENK RELEASED FROM CUSTODY
The last act in the drama of the Schenk case in the Wheeling Court was played on Saturday morning when Judge Jordan signed the order releasing Mrs. Laura Farnsworth Schenk from custody on a bond of $10,000 and upon her own recognizance.

DR. LYMAN ABBOTT says that "Colonel Roosevelt thinks so fast that the rest of the world can't keep up with him." It now looks as though the colonel's thinking apparatus has gotten sadly out of order.

MAJOR JAMES R. PURCELL appears to be firm in his determination to be a candidate in the approaching democratic primary. He is a commendable act and will doubtless meet with the hearty approval of all who revere the memory of "The father of our country."

DR. SURVEYOR DENTIST
Dr. Beverly Randolph Tucker, in his address before the meeting of Tuesday and Wednesday, made the following statement: "Those who wear false hair and gossip about their patients and about each other; those who are too much trained and too little nurse, and who are far a family to boss it and make themselves disagreeable; those who are too much nurse and too little trained, and who 'smooth' the wrinkled brow, but not the wrinkled sheet, and lastly, the real trained nurse, the Florence Nightingale, who mixes efficiency with human kindness."

BRIEF LOCAL ITEMS

Messrs. George and Walter Allensworth... Mr. Richard Woodard, one of the guards at the Occoquin workhouse, was here yesterday looking for those prisoners who escaped from that institution Wednesday night.

Mr. John T. Muddiman of Roanoke, was a visitor to his relatives in Manassas Monday. Mrs. W. R. Free and daughter Christine, of Nokesville, spent a few days with Mrs. Edith Lipscomb this week.

Mr. O. E. Newman was a Washington visitor Tuesday and Wednesday, looking after a contract he has in that city. Mrs. J. H. Burke left here Saturday for a two week's visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sedwick Hynsford, in Washington.

Mrs. Geo. W. Payne, who has been sojourning in England for several weeks, will sail for New York on Saturday, 12th instant. Mr. Ray Hedrick, of Calverton, is in charge of his father-in-law, Mr. S. T. Hall's furniture store, in this place, during Mr. Hall's illness.

Miss Minnie Bettis, of Nokesville, stopped off at Manassas Sunday, en route to Alexandria, to visit her uncle, Mr. William Bettis, of this place. Mr. and Mrs. Lovel Wilcox and little son, Lovel, of Alexandria, were the guests of Mr. Wilcox's father, Sergeant J. W. Wilcox, on Sunday.

President and Mrs. H. U. Roop will be "at home" to the Faculty and Students of Eastern College next Saturday evening from 8 to 10, in their residence, Baldwin Hall, and the first Saturday night of each month thereafter.

Miss Alice Maude Ewell, of Hickory Grove, this county, recently purchased at the sale of her uncle, the late John J. Tyler, near Aldie, Loudoun county, a Seventeenth Century sewing table.

The table is of very dark walnut and the legs are turned and of varying convolutions. A strong bar of wood runs all round six inches from the bottom. The one long drawer has two divisions and a carved drop below it gives a rich effect to the whole.

Mrs. T. Wolfe is quite ill of grippe, at her home on West street, and her daughter, Miss Selena, a trained nurse of Providence hospital, is with her. Mrs. W. M. Wheeler, who has been quite unwell at her home on Peabody street, is somewhat better.

Miss Emma Shannon is suffering from a severe cold at her home on West street. Mrs. Geo. W. Hixson, who has been quite ill, is slightly better. The Heintken-Barwell Nuptials.

A very quiet wedding took place in St. Paul's church, Haymarket, January 28, when Miss Louise Barwell became the charming bride of Mr. Hermon Heintken, the Rev. Mr. Andrew Grimmon officiating. The bride wore a becoming blue cloth traveling gown with a lace collar and large picture hat, and carried an ivory prayer book from which the service was read.

Among those invited to speak and the subjects assigned to each are as follows: Why a Layman's Missionary Movement and What is its Effect on the Church. Rev. J. F. Spangler, Fairfax, Va. The Aim and Scope of the Laymen's Missionary Movement. Mr. W. W. Witan, Washington, D.C. Personal Work for Men. Hon. H. H. McFarland, Washington, D.C. How to Interest the Laymen in Missionary Work. Mr. J. M. Town, Country Church, Dr. John M. Gill, The Plains. Mr. W. I. Heintken, Nokesville.

Elder A. Conner, assisted by Prof. J. N. H. Beahm, applied the ordinance of anointing to Mrs. L. P. Maphis at her home, near Sinclair's Mill, yesterday. Dr. H. U. Roop will preach in the Presbyterian church next Sunday at 11 a. m. Subject: Christians of Power—How Made. Special music. Public cordially invited.

The M. E. Church, South, has installed a hollow-wire lighting system for their church building, a much needed improvement over the dim and smoky kerosene lamps. The Pension Board of Prince William county will meet at Dr. T. Wolfe's office at 10 o'clock a. m., the third Tuesday in February. Persons wishing communications answered must send postage.

Judge Roy Robinson and Dr. M. D. Beahm, of Winchester, were here last Saturday with the view of establishing a cheese factory in or near Manassas. No definite plans have yet been decided upon. On Friday, as Dr. R. E. Wins was crossing the bridge over Occoquin Run at Sinclair's Mill, his horse slipped and fell throwing the doctor with such violence as to result in the dislocation of his right shoulder, and otherwise injuring him.

Mrs. Thomas J. Smith, of this place, received through nephew, Mr. V. Gilmore Iden, of Washington, a beautiful clock of the week from President and Mrs. Taft to attend his reception which was held at the White House on 24th inst. The Virginia Fire and Marine Company, represented locally by Mr. W. N. Lipscomb, of this place, on Wednesday, adjusted satisfactorily, the loss of Mr. J. W. Hook, whose residence near Independent Hill, was destroyed by fire last Sunday.

Sitting in the passenger department in this place, Monday, were two small boys, apparently ten or twelve years of age, who said they were on their way home from St. Joseph's Institute, to see their mother. When questioned by THE JOURNAL'S representative, they said, with tears in their eyes, "We were so homesick and we have walked all the way here through the mud. A Major Sinclair had them sent to Bristow by train where they were met by a representative of the school."

The Nicol Literary Society of Hebron Seminary has the promise of an address from Hon. R. A. Hutchison on Friday evening, Feb. 10. The debate that evening is on "The fortification of the Panama Canal." Other interesting features will appear on the program, but Mr. Hutchison's address will be the chief feature. Everybody invited. Subscribe for THE JOURNAL, $1.00 a year in advance.

Mr. Haywood Triplett, a member of the Methodist church in Gainesville, died on February 10, 1909, and was buried in Gainesville cemetery. He had been ill but a short time before his death. He was a devoted Methodist, yet broad and fraternal in his religious sympathies for other Christians. His life extended over a very interesting and important period of our country's history.

Mr. Triplett served with conspicuous bravery in the civil war, with Stuart's Horse Artillery, and was wounded and lost his right leg in the second battle of Manassas. There was much to admire, reverse and love in Brother Triplett as a man, but much more to admire, reverse and love in him as a Christian. He did not pretend to be a perfect man and yet was rarely found a person of few blemishes in his character. He was hopefully converted some 20 years ago. For many years he filled important offices in the church, among the rest, a steward for eighteen years. Much more might, in truth, be said of Mr. Triplett as a man, but I write not as a stranger. I write of him to those who have known him longer and better than myself. We hope his entire family will honorably succeed him and fill his place in the church. He is survived by his widow and eight children—Rodrick, of Portmouth; Haywood and Ethel, of Gainesville; Philip, of Wellington; Mrs. J. A. Weaver, of Bristow; Miss Edna Triplett, of Richmond, and Miss Bertha Triplett, of Catawba.

Mr. Triplett had resided in Prince William county for about forty years. IN MEMORIAM. In loving remembrance of Grace Agnes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Harley, who died January 28, 1911, at the age of 8 months, and is dear to all. Only a dear little blossom. The dearest to us in the world. How often we loved and caressed her. How sweet little baby get. She was only with us a short time. Just six months and some days. And now little Grace is gone. Is singing to Jesus his praise. How often we wish and wonder That we knew the reason why That God in His infinite mercy Took our darling so early on high. So now with tears and deep sorrow We'll wait for our dear little Grace. To meet little Grace and Jesus. And dwell with them ever more. A FRIEND. 10-21 W. STEERE, Manassas, Va.

CAUSES 95 PER CENT OF DISEASES

Do not neglect indigestion which leads to all sorts of ills and complications. An eminent doctor once said that ninety-five per cent of all the ills of the human body have their origin in a disordered stomach. A physician who made a specialty of stomach troubles, particularly dyspepsia, after years of study perfected the formula from which Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets are made. Our experience with Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets leads us to believe them to be the greatest remedy known for the relief of acute indigestion and chronic dyspepsia. Their ingredients are soothing and healing to the inflamed membranes of the stomach. They are rich in pepsin, one of the greatest digestive aids known to medicine. The relief they afford is almost immediate. Their use with persistency and regularity for a short time brings about a cessation of the pains caused by stomach disorders. Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets will insure healthy appetite, aid digestion and promote nutrition. As evidence of our sincere faith in Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets, we ask you to try them at our risk. If they do not give you entire satisfaction, we will return you the money you paid us for them, without question or formality. They come in three sizes, prices 25c, 50c and $1.00. Remember you can obtain them only at our store—The Rexall Store—W. F. Dowell.

COMPLIMENTARY TO R. E. THORNTON.

The table is of very dark walnut and the legs are turned and of varying convolutions. A strong bar of wood runs all round six inches from the bottom. The one long drawer has two divisions and a carved drop below it gives a rich effect to the whole. It was used in a Colonial dining room before the days of mahogany, which was not invented till after 1780. Its age has been ascertained by reference to "The Collector's Manual." There may be some of these antique tables to be found in Prince William. Progress of Laymen's Missionary Convention. A committee of laymen and ministers met at Eastern College Tuesday night and outlined a tentative program for the Laymen's Missionary Convention to be held in Manassas on the 14th instant. Among those invited to speak and the subjects assigned to each are as follows: Why a Layman's Missionary Movement and What is its Effect on the Church. Rev. J. F. Spangler, Fairfax, Va. The Aim and Scope of the Laymen's Missionary Movement. Mr. W. W. Witan, Washington, D.C. Personal Work for Men. Hon. H. H. McFarland, Washington, D.C. How to Interest the Laymen in Missionary Work. Mr. J. M. Town, Country Church, Dr. John M. Gill, The Plains. Mr. W. I. Heintken, Nokesville. Open Parliament. What is the Work of the Lay Leaders? Judge Moulton, Washington, D.C. How to Interest the Laymen in Missionary Work. Dr. Livins Lankford, Norfolk. Men of the Twentieth Century for the Man of Galilee—Dr. H. U. Roop, Manassas. This will be a great occasion for Manassas and vicinity and is being forwarded to with much interest and pleasure.

SABBATH DAY REFLECTIONS

Revelation From God? No. IV. (BY GEORGE C. ROUND.)

Such is the language in which Horace described his ideal man, perfect in his life and free from wickedness.

The material universe is one vast object lesson before our eyes from the cradle to the grave.

VISITS RURAL SCHOOLS Assistant Health Commissioner Dr. Allen W. Freeman

There has been a marked improvement in the schools of some localities during recent months.

In Loudoun county, he found steps were being taken to correct conditions which had been prejudicial to the health of the pupils.
