GULICK-AKERS NUPTIALS

Miss Ethel Akers Becomes Bride of W. H. Gulick in Bride's Home Yesterday.

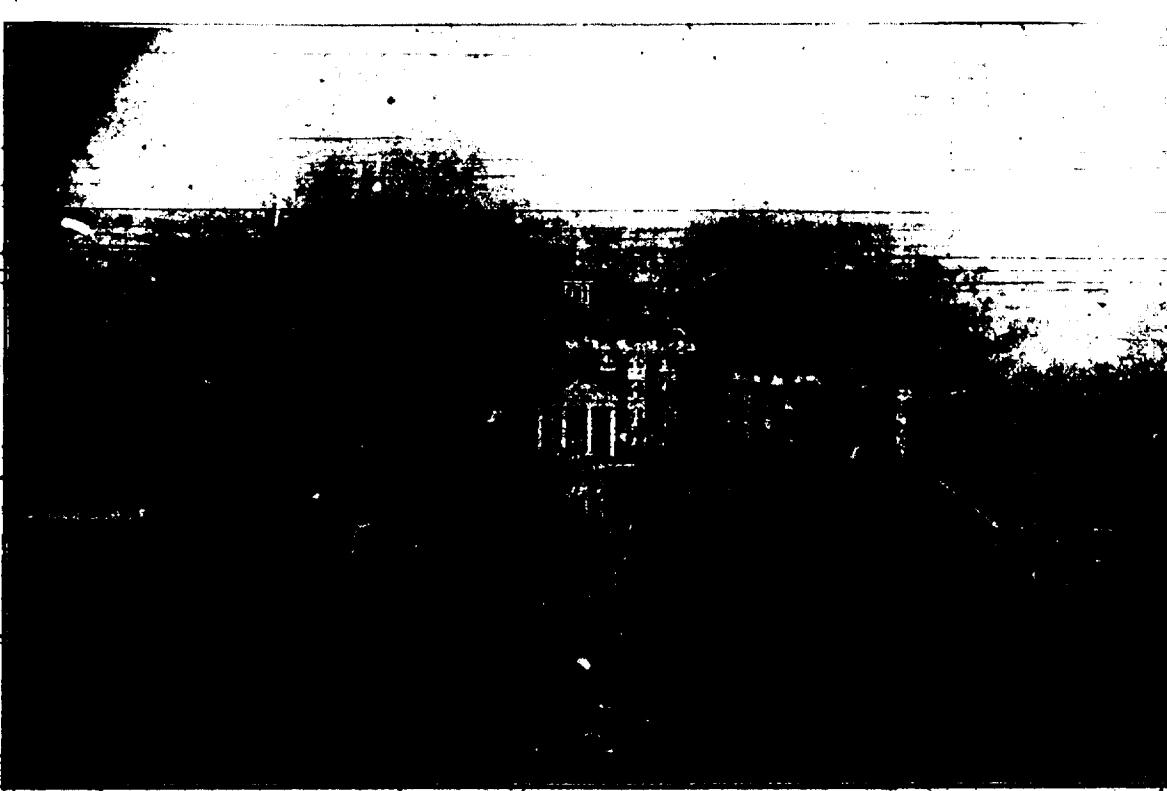

The home of Mrs. Geo. Akers in East Centre street in this place, was the scene of a quiet wedding at 10 o'clock Thursday morning, when Mrs. Akers' eldest daughter, Ethel Gertrude, became the bride of Mr. William Hendley Gulick, third son of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Gulick, of Manassas.

The marriage ceremony was performed by Elder Waters of the Primitive Baptist church in the presence of a few near relatives of the contracting parties. The bride was costumed in a traveling suit of blue cloth and carried brides roses. The formality of best man and maid of honor were dispensed with.

General Program of Manassas National Jubilee

CHIEF EVENT JULY 21, 1911

[PLEASE HAND THIS PROGRAM TO YOUR LOCAL PAPER, AFTER READING]

All surviving veterans of the Great War of 1861-1865 are invited to assemble at Henry Hill on the morning of July 21, 1911, at 9 o'clock. The Henry House yard will be reserved for the veterans who will be welcomed, at 10 o'clock, by Colonel Edmund Berkeley, of the English Virginia, and by General Thomas S. Martin, General John S. Gilman, Commander-in-Chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, and General George W. Gordon, Commander-in-Chief of the United Confederate Veterans.

of them will be running by 7 a. m. At the time, the Society of the Army of the Potomac met in Manassas in 1866. There were ample accommodations for all. Third, those who desire can take the regular Southern Railway train to Washington, two and one-half miles from Henry Hill, where a limited number of conveyances will be found.

BOARD AND TRANSPORTATION. The usual heavy charge for passengers on the Henry House from Manassas, for a fair load of passengers, has been one dollar each for the round trip. It might not exceed this price on July 21, when special accommodations are necessary. Board ought to be obtained from $1.00 to $2.00 a day.

RAILROAD MATTERS. We are authorized to state that greatly reduced rates will be granted within territory of the Southern Railway Passenger Association. The special rates to Washington can be used in all other parts of the country.

PRELIMINARY EVENTS. During the Jubilee month of July there will be several interesting events some of which are given below and others may be hereafter announced.

PEACE JUBILEE. On Sunday night, July 2, Dr. Benjamin F. Trueblood, secretary of the American Peace Society, will deliver an address at the Baptist church. His subject is "Universal Peace."

HOW TO REACH HENRY HOUSE. Three ways are suggested to inquire: First, by private conveyances from Washington and points in Northern Virginia to the Henry House and thence to Manassas before 4 o'clock, and after the addresses of the Governor and the President, return via the Centerville road.

By Southern Railroad to Manassas and thence six miles to the Henry House. All the conveyances in this country will be asked to assemble at Manassas in the morning and many singing of the Manassas Jubilee Anthem will be a prominent feature.

CHILDRENS' DAY SERVICES

Interesting Program Rendered in Grace M. E. Church, South, Sunday Morning.

The Children's Day services held in the M. E. Church, South, in this place, Sunday morning, were marked with a program of such distinctive and impressive features as will class them among the most interesting church entertainments of like kind heretofore presented.

At a given signal the entire school, in sweet and well-trained voices sang the opening song "Summer Voices" which was followed by an invocation by Rev. Chas. DeLong, pastor of the church. The songs and recitations which followed were exceptionally well rendered and honors among the participants were pretty evenly divided.

In the absence of a regular program and being dependent solely upon memory for a report of this most interesting occasion, it was well to mention the proceedings in the order in which they occurred or if we should omit the name of any who took part therein it must be regarded as unintentional discrimination.

Following is the program as nearly as could be ascertained: Recitation by Myrtle Kinchele, entitled "Children's Day."

A beautiful exercise by Catherine Weir, Helen Coleman and Alma Lunford, entitled "God's Love," excited the admiration of all. Solo by Hattie Merchant with chorus by the school, was sweetly rendered. Recitation by Clement Cornwell, entitled "What Shall I Give Him," was cleverly rendered.

The song, "All the Happy Children," sung by the primary class, was rendered with much animation and joyful spirit. A recitation by little Elizabeth Coleman, entitled "The New Canaan," was exceptionally fine for one of such tender years.

Another distinctive feature was an exercise by Herman Lunford, Emmett Rice, Jack Lynn and Warren Coleman, entitled "Obey," which was concluded with a verse by the school, "Trust and Obey." The recitation, "My Dame," by H. A. DeLong, was suggestive of childish fancy.

A pretty feature of the exercises was when two or three little girls, each bearing an initial and the whole forming the sentence "Children's Day," appeared upon the platform in their spotless frocks and with bright and happy faces.

Another exceptionally attractive feature was an exercise, "Garden of Flowers," by Edna Donohoe, Elizabeth Covington, Stuart Muddiman, Aline Conner, Edith Merchant, Elizabeth Hiner and Sarah Donohoe. A recitation by Marvin Rice was extremely commendable and greatly enjoyed by all. Recitations by Paul Bryant and Philip Sanders were well rendered as was, also, the song, "G-double O-D-Good," a sweetly sung by the primary class.

"Children's Flowers and Song," sung by the school, was specially enjoyed. Mrs. Lynn is survived by four sons, Messrs. Thos. Epps, Benton and Tyler Lynn and by five daughters, Meadames Monroe Southard, Bascom Davis, Lundy Southard, James Lee and Miss Della Lynn.

On Sunday night, July 2, Dr. Benjamin F. Trueblood, secretary of the American Peace Society, will deliver an address at the Baptist church. His subject is "Universal Peace."

DEATH OF H. HILLEBRAND

The Victim of Accident at Cherry Hill Dies Suddenly, in Baltimore, on June 13.

Henry Hillebrand who, on June 26, 1910, was seriously injured in an accident which occurred at the incinerating plant of the Washington Fertilizer Company, at Cherry Hill, this county, and who was awarded $2,750 damages by the circuit court of Alexandria City in his suit against said company, in March last, died suddenly in Baltimore, on June 13th, under very suspicious circumstances.

When Mr. Hillebrand was able to leave the hospital where he was confined for some length of time on account of the injuries he sustained in Cherry Hill plant, he went to live with Mr. L. B. Oertley, near Dumfries, with whom he had lived for a period of several years prior to his death. He left the Oertley home, a few days ago, and went to Alexandria where he called on his attorney, Judge C. E. Nichol, on business, and afterwards called at the Alexandria National Bank in which he had substantial deposits.

From Alexandria he went to Baltimore for the purpose of settling some business in connection with a recent inheritance from a friend in that city. It is said, upon good authority, that Mr. Hillebrand was in the habit of carrying a large sum of money upon his person and when he died the only money found upon him was fifty cents.

Before his funeral took place letters of administration were taken out, in Baltimore, by a party unknown to his friends in Virginia, and a week later checks were presented to the Alexandria National Bank covering the entire sum of Mr. Hillebrand's balance on deposit. Judge Nichol, president of the bank, instructed the cashier to refuse payment on the checks on the ground that the law permits banks to pay checks drawn by the deceased if presented within two weeks after his death.

Mr. Oertley, who has, for some time been closely associated with Mr. Hillebrand, stoutly asserts that the deceased had no relatives or other persons in Baltimore rightfully entitled to any portion of the deceased's estate. An investigation of the circumstances surrounding Mr. Hillebrand's death is being made which may result in startling disclosures.

voice and was specially enjoyed. The most unique features of the program was an exercise, entitled "The Voice of Children Under Our Flag." Miss Ethel Bryant, bearing the flag of our union with its folds entwining her shoulders, represented America. The four quartets of our land were represented as follows: The North by Stuart and Meta Muddiman, Sophy DeLong and Lilly Sutton; the South by Claudia Donohoe, Pearl Snow and Gerlie Fisher; the East by Ruth Willey and Catherine and Sarah Donohoe, and the West by Nevitt Fisher, Margerite Utterback and Hattie Merchant. Kievet Bryant, as challenger, made pathetic appeals to America for suffering humanity and as the appeal was made for each of the four sections of our country, the representatives of that particular section came forward with renewed appeals for aid and protection under the shadow of the stars and stripes. These exercises were marked with a touchingness and a sincerity of principle worthy of emulation. The exercises closed with the benediction in a sweet well modulated and conducted by the pastor.

A BRIGHT NEWSY LETTER

Tells of Property Values Increasing in Picturesque and Busy Occoquan

Occoquan, Va., June 27.

DEAR EDITOR.—This is a day when everything worth while is advertised. Our little village, by virtue of the fact that the district work-house is located near here has had its name at the head of quite a number of columns of the Washington newspapers. It remains to be seen whether this kind of publicity will add to, or detract from the wealth of our town.

As a matter of fact, Occoquan is inhabited by a stayed and conservative people. This was forcibly illustrated in the recent primary election. While other sections were groused and excited very little discussion of things political could be heard in our midst. A very few, if any of our people, considered seriously the broad head lines exhibited in one of our county papers, trying to lead us to believe—the county was in the hands of a boss which had secretly designed our ruin. The so-called boss continues to be J. B. T. Thornton and B. E. honored here because of his service to the people and county and Jno. Nicol, Jno. Sinclair and Miss Ida Nicol.

Mr. Jno. Selesman will erect on Water street, handsome home with all modern improvements. Mrs. Harry Slack's new residence will soon be completed. We understand Mrs. Jennie Hammill was offered for a thirty-five foot lot on Main street one thousand dollars. Can Manassas surpass this? On account of failing health, Mrs. L. Ledman has been forced to close her hotel, which leaves us without hotel facilities. We hope some good enterprising party will soon rent the hotel Alton. Any one noticing the many visitors that come to town during the summer and fall cannot but be impressed with the opportunity this place offers for a good live up-to-date hotel man.

ected with any political combination and any of that pop-cock stuff, but because they preferred the other fellow.

The party nominees will be most loyally supported here at our precinct and we are glad to state we have no sore heads in our midst. We offer all good democrats the right hand of fellowship and regret any effort which has been made to create factions or cause bad feeling in the party.

Property values here in the last few years have made great advances. The Methodist church paid for three acres of land on the depot road, $1,750 for a site on which to build a parsonage. The church expects to erect a home for the preacher on this site, which will be modern and up-to-date and a credit to the town.

The old school house which was built soon after the war and in which all of the young people who have been raised here since that time received their education, has been razed to give way for a new hall, which is being built by the Odd Fellows. Among some of the teachers who taught in this building are Judge J. B. T. Thornton and B. E. Thornton, Dr. Sewell Merchant, vice to the people and county and Jno. Nicol, Jno. Sinclair and Miss Ida Nicol.

CLIFTON A BUSY HAMLET

Picturesque Environments and Old Virginia Hospitality Appeal Strongly to Visitors

Our sister town, Clifton, will soon boast of a six-room graded school building if plans now under consideration are carried out.

The county superintendent of schools and the trustees of Centerville district were in Clifton last Friday for the purpose of considering bids for the new building, which will be of modern construction and provided with every detail necessary to the comfort and convenience of teachers and students.

One need not spend a few hours in wandering about the romantic and picturesque environments of Clifton to be impressed with the enchantment which is responsible for the number of city boarders who flock to that little hamlet, nestling among gigantic hills and charming pathways leading through cool and shady dells. No more hospitable people can be found anywhere than in Clifton. When you step upon the station platform you are greeted with an unmistakable handshake of friendship and with a genial smile that gives you a cordial welcome.

Besides a soap stone mill which is operated to its full capacity with ready market for its products, Clifton has a stove factory which is shipping a car load of stock each week and with its increased facilities, which the next few weeks will afford, the shipments will be more than doubled. The merchants are wide-awake business men and their well stocked stores attract trade from a radius of many miles in both Fairfax and Prince William.

Agriculture as a Science. G. Harold Powell, whose work for the Department of Agriculture in the investigation of causes of fruit decay, in cold storage and in transit, attracted such wide attention. The citrus fruit growers of California held his talents in such esteem that they tried to get him to go out there. When they got up to an offer of $10,000 a year salary he succumbed, and he is now secretary and manager of the Citrus Protective League of California, a model business organization of agriculturists, which has been fighting for a tariff on lemons that will permit the industry to survive. Having secured that tariff, the organization is now combating the organized campaign of the Sicilian importers to have it reduced.

SHOULD THE FEE SYSTEM BE ABOLISHED?

One of the most important questions which will confront the next Virginia Legislature will be that of abolishing all offices in the state whose incumbents are paid by fees and not by fixed salaries. That the state county and municipal officers should be paid a fair and even a liberal compensation for the work performed by them no taxpayer will deny or against which they would, in the slightest degree, protest. Those who are now paid too little under the fee system should be paid, by fixed salary, an amount commensurate with the work performed.

There is no equity in the fee system and, in the opinion of a host of broadminded business men, should be abolished at the first opportunity. It is unreasonable and inconsistent, in the highest degree, with good judgment, that clerks and tax officials in some counties of this commonwealth should realize more from their offices than is allowed by the state to the chief justice of its highest court, or that any subordinate county or municipal officer should receive higher compensation than the state's chief executive.

A good lesson, along the line of abolishing the fee system, comes from the "tar heel" state, where, it is said, in one of the poorest countries, the taxpayers, last year, were saved $10,000 as its first experience without the fee system. The question naturally arises: How many counties in Virginia are there that would not profit in like manner to those of her sister state should the fee system be abolished? Promotion of efficiency in the administration of public affairs, minimizing the incentive to political corruption, and the elimination of the opportunity for prostitution of justice for selfish ends and many other objectionable features of the fee system form a basis for preferring a salary to a fee system for public officials. The taxpayers are willing to contribute to a fair and economical administration of governmental affairs and if the fee system works upon them an unfair and unreasonable hardship it should be abolished.

Occoquan Workhouse Enlarged

The work of enlarging the District of Columbia's reformatory at Occoquan, preparatory to the transfer of prisoners from the old workhouse 19th and B streets, S. E., is being pushed rapidly towards completion. The transfer will be made in preparation for the change in supervision of prisoners that will take place during next month when the new law, giving the District of Columbia authorities the charge of all persons sentenced from the police court, goes into effect.

The old workhouse and jail, in the district, will then only be used as places of temporary detention for persons awaiting trial in the police court or a hearing before the grand jury.

ALLEN'S MINSTREL SHOW

Coming, To-morrow, With Its Corps of World-famed Mirth-Provokers. After an absence of three years Allen's Minstrels will return here, to-morrow, Saturday, to repeat their highly entertaining, meritorious and mirth-provoking shows.

Those who were favored with the opportunity of witnessing this minstrel company, brimful of wholesome, boisterous productions, so well calculated to make one grow fat, when they were last here, will scarcely fail to avail themselves of the chance of an evening's real enjoyment.

This is the first and original minstrel company to appear undetected and is in a class distinctively its own, introducing the most famous negro singers, dancers, cake walkers and comedians so well known among the colored race. There is not a dull moment in these exhibitions from beginning to end. Their singing wonderful and as many high-class comedians will keep the audience spellbound with their flow of song and soul. Do not fail to see this great mirth-producing entertainment as such high-class shows of this kind seldom visit Manassas.

BAZAAR AT CLIFTON.

The Popes Greek Lodge of Modern Woodmen of America, at Clifton, held a bazaar and necktie and apron party on the lawn in front of the old Clifton hotel, Saturday night, for the benefit of the lodge. There was a goodly number of the beaux and belles, augmented by a number of the older set, present and a delightful evening was spent.

The scheme of the apron and necktie party was a matching, in style or color, of a necktie purchased by a gent, with an apron purchased by a lady when the gent was obligated to treat the fair damsel having purchased an apron which matched a tie purchased by himself, to a bountiful supply of ice cream and cake. This scheme afforded much amusement and produced smiles among the happy participants that are not likely to wear off for weeks to come.

The game was called promptly at four o'clock by Dr. W. F. Marchant, President of the League, who tossed the first ball to the batter.

Hynson, who pitched for the Tigers, and Woodyard for the Athletics, both were in fine form. Hynson pitched a great game allowing only four scattering hits.

The game ended in a score of 7 to 2 in favor of the Tigers. The line-up was as follows: Tigers position Athletics.

FUNERAL OF MISS LARKIN. Local Chapters of Ladies Memorial Association and U. D. C. Attended in a Body.

The funeral of Miss Lula Norvell, daughter of the late Lucien and Sallie Larkin, whose death occurred at the home of her cousin, Mr. C. M. Larkin, in this place, on Friday morning, last, took place from Trinity Episcopal church Sunday afternoon and interment was made in the Manassas cemetery.

The obsequies were conducted by Rev. P. A. Arthur, rector of the church. The pallbearers were Drs. W. Fewell, Merchant and J. Marye Lewis and Messrs. John A. Nicol and C. A. Sinclair.

The floral tributes were numerous and handsome and included offerings from the Manassas Ladies Memorial Association and the United Daughters of the Confederacy of which organizations the deceased was a member.

These organizations attended the funeral in a body in token of the high esteem in which Miss Larkin was held and of her devoted services in the cause which they espouse. The course of sorrowing relatives and friends which followed the remains of this noble young woman, cut down in the prime of life, to their last resting place, attested the high esteem and affection in which Miss Larkin was held by all who knew and loved her for her kind and gentle manner and her care for the comfort and pleasure of others.

Miss Larkin was born in Alexandria but the greater portion of her life was spent in Lynchburg in which place she was taken in her infancy. The past fifteen years of her life was spent in this county where a number of her relatives now reside.

She is survived by two sisters Mrs. C. M. Larkin and Mrs. J. T. Ashford, and by four brothers, Messrs. Norvell Larkin, of Washington; J. R. Larkin, of Clarendon, Fairfax county, and W. P. and Bazier Larkin of this county.

To the Manassas National Bank to erect a building at the North-west corner of Center and Main streets, size 35x70 feet, to be of brick one story with metal roof, to cost $8,000.

To Mrs. H. D. Wenrich to erect a one-story store room, 38x40 feet, of brick or cement blocks, metal roof, to cost $1,000, on lot on Centre street between Battle and West streets.

To E. R. Conner to erect, on the rear of his lot on Centre street, a shed building, 10x12 feet, with fire-proof roof, to cost $200.

Deed of Abram Conner and wife to town of Manassas for a strip of land on the East side of Battle street between Centre street and Railroad avenue, was received and ordered to be recorded.

Returns of the corporation election, held on June 13, were received and ordered to be filed. H. D. Wenrich was granted a permit to remove, through the streets of Manassas, the frame building on Centre street, now occupied by Ira C. Reid, to Jackson avenue, Northwest Manassas, provided said removal is accomplished within fifteen days from the time it is begun and that no damage results to shade trees by reason of said removal.

The application of Larkin, Burke, Meredith and others for a concrete sidewalk was read and upon motion of Councilman Newman unanimous consent was granted to consider the following motion which was adopted by a recorded vote.

Resolved, That the street committee be and it is hereby instructed to advertise for bids for furnishing material, grading and laying a concrete sidewalk on West street and Lee avenue beginning at the North side of Church street and running north along the east side of West street to the north side of Lee avenue, also beginning of the West side of West street and running west on north side of Lee avenue to Grant avenue and the said committee is further directed and authorized to do all or any act or acts, in accordance with law, to carry into effect the said improvements without further reference to this council, provided that the property owners give sufficient land to straggle the walk so as to conform with walk around the court-house lot.

The committee appointed at the last regular meeting to examine into the proposition of R. W. Merchant with reference to furnishing certain street lamps and report upon the advisability of accepting said proposition, made the following report which was unanimously adopted:

THE MAYOR AND COUNCIL OF THE TOWN OF MANASSAS, VIRGINIA: Your committee to which was referred the proposition of Mr. R. W. Merchant and the petition of the citizens of the town relative to the installation of two Gloria street lamps, beg leave to report as follows:

We believe that some steps should be taken, including toward a better lighting of our town, particularly in the business district and with this in view we would recommend that the proposition of Mr. Merchant, which is hereby made a part of this report, be accepted and after a proper trial of thirty days if said lamps prove satisfactory the same they be purchased by public award at a cost not to exceed fifty dollars per light.

Respectfully submitted, ALBERT SWENDEN, C. E. NASH, Committee.

THE HENRY HOUSE

FEDERAL MONUMENT

MRS. HENRY'S GRAVE

General Programme of the Manassas National Jubilee

CHIEF EVENT JULY 21, 1911

All surviving veterans of the Great War of 1861-1865 are invited to assemble on Henry Hill on the morning of July 21, 1911, at 9 o'clock. The Henry House yard will be reserved for the veterans who will be welcomed, at 10 o'clock, by Colonel Edmund Berkeley, of the Eighth Virginia, and by Senator Thomas S. Martin. General John E. O'Hanlon, Commander-in-Chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, and General George W. Gordon, Commander-in-Chief of the United Confederate Veterans, have accepted invitations to be present and have been asked to speak. Members of the Senate and House Military Committees, who served in the war, have also been invited. These include Senators Henry A. DuPont, Francis A. Warren and Joseph Forney Johnston, and Representative Thomas W. Bradley. General Julian S. Carr and Major D. R. Lowell have been invited to represent the organization known as "The Blue and The Gray" and their sons.

Colonel Robert M. Thompson, of New York, has signified his intention to present every veteran with a souvenir badge, and is expected to accompany his generous gifts with appropriate remarks. The time will be taken up with five and ten minute talks from veterans until noon. Then the veterans will be asked to form in two lines and march to Henry Hill, 200 yards distant, and each will clasp the hand of his former foe. Such a scene has never been witnessed in the history of the world and the committee are engaging the best photographers to produce it into a living moving picture by the best photographic art. The state will be represented by its finest militia companies and the United States army by two troops of cavalry.

There will be a general picnic and love feast at 1 o'clock. The Daughters of the Confederacy and other refreshments. Those who can conveniently do so are requested to contribute toward the commissary supply.

Between 2 and 4 o'clock the veterans and their friends are asked to return to the town of Manassas, where a stand and seats have been provided under the shade of the trees. Here the veterans will be met by forty-eight young ladies, each representing a state in the Union, standing with hand clasped in hand, forming a circle representing the United States and singing the Manassas National Anthem known as the "New American." Addresses will be made by the Governor of Virginia, and the President of the United States and the proceedings of the great day of the Jubilee will come to a close at 6 o'clock.

HOW TO REACH HENRY HOUSE.

Three ways are suggested to inquire: First—By private conveyances from Washington "ear jokers" in Northern Virginia to the Henry House and thence to Manassas before 4 o'clock, and after the addresses of the Governor and the President, return via the Centerville road.

Second. By Southern Railroad to Manassas and thence six miles to the Henry House. All the conveyances to this vicinity will be asked to assemble at Manassas in the morning and many of them will be running by 7 a. m.

At the time the Society of the Army of the Potomac met in Manassas in 1906, there were simple accommodations for all.

Third. Those who desire can take the regular Southern Railway train to Wellington, two and one-half miles from Henry Hill, where a limited number of conveyances will be found. For those who desire to tramp over the Groveton battlefield, this would be a desirable route. Those who desire to secure conveyances in Wellington on July 21 or board in farm-houses before that date, can write to G. C. Leachman or A. A. Compton, Wellington, Va., who have been asked to act as a local committee for this purpose.

EASTERN COLLEGE.

ACCOMMODATIONS AT MANASSAS.

In addition to the hotels and private houses which will be open for guests, Eastern College will open its two large dormitories, built in 1909-10. Those who wish to spend a few days in advance of July 21, in visiting historic points, would do well to address Eastern College, Manassas, Va., at once and secure rooms.

In order to inform the public of the extent of the College accommodations, a picture of the College appears in this issue of THE JOURNAL. The dormitories are the two large buildings on the right and the left of the illustration.

BOARD AND TRANSPORTATION.

The usual heavy charge for passengers to the Henry House from Manassas, for a fair load of passengers, has been one dollar each for the round trip. It ought not to exceed this price on July 21, unless special accommodations are necessary. Board ought to be obtained from $1.50 to $2.00 a day.

RAILROAD RATES.

We are authorized to state that greatly reduced rates will be granted within territory of the Southern Passenger Association. The special rates to Washington can be used in all other parts of the country.

ADMISSION TO HENRY FARM.

We have a contract with Mr. Henry admitting veterans free from July 10 to 21, and admitting everybody from July 21. Those who are not veterans will be admitted for half price, 25 cents, from July 10 to 20, inclusive, and free on July 21.

PRELIMINARY EVENTS.

During the Jubilee month of July there will be several interesting events, some of which are given below and others may be heard from time to time.

PEACE JUBILEE.

On Sunday night, July 2, Dr. Benjamin F. Trueblood, secretary of the American Peace Society, will deliver an address at the Baptist church. His subject is "Universal Peace." Former governor, Andrew A. Montague, is also expected to speak at this meeting.

FOLLOWING TRUMPET OF THE JUBILEE.

The young people of Manassas will give a Musical and Dramatic Festival in Cooper's Opera House, Monday evening, July 10, under leadership of the High School instructors, selected by the Manassas Band and Orchestra, for benefit of the Jubilee fund. The singing of the Manassas Jubilee Anthem will be a prominent feature.

VISITS TO BATTLEFIELDS.

On July 18, visitors who so desire will be accompanied by competent guides to the battlefield of Blackburn's Ford and the historic ground between Centerville and Warrenton.

Similar trips will be organized on July 19 and 20 to the two battlefields of Bristow and to the battlefields at Groveton and vicinity. The Daughters of the Confederacy are building a Park on Groveton and will dedicate the structure on Wednesday, July 13, with addresses by Senator Claude A. Swanson, Colonel Robt. M. Thompson, General James McLeary and Colonel Edmund Berkeley. The Fort Myer cavalry with band will be present to entertain the occasion.

VISITING MILITARY.

General Leonard Wood has directed that two troops of cavalry from Fort Myer, coming at Manassas from July 19 to 21. The Adjutant General of Virginia has directed that the finest military organizations of the state be in Manassas to do honor to the Governor and the President.

MOVING PICTURE OF VETERANS.

The committee is negotiating with the American Mutoscope and Biograph Company, for future presentations, the scene of the Love Feast and Picnic of veterans on Henry Hill, with the State Militia and regular Cavalry in the background. Such a meeting and picture has never been known in the history of the human race.

JUBILEE AFTERMATH.

HORSE SHOW.

The Manassas Horse Show, one of the finest exhibitions of its kind in Northern Virginia, will come on July 26 and 27, as a most pleasing form of entertainment for visitors remaining after the Great Day of the Jubilee. The Horse Show this year will be the greatest ever held in this section of the state.

BASE BALL.

Five games of base ball will be played by the Manassas City League, on Eastern College field, during the Jubilee season. Other events are in contemplation, which in connection with the above, will make the entire month of July a Jubilee.

(Please hand this program to your local paper, after reading.)

A BRIGHT NEWSY LETTER

Tells of Property Values Increasing in Picturesque and Busy Town of Occoquan.

Occoquan, Va., June 27. DEAR EDITOR:—This is a day when everything worth while is advertised. Our little village, by virtue of the fact that the district work-house is located near here has had its name at the head of quite a number of columns of the Washington newspapers. It remains to be seen whether this kind of publicity will add to, or detract from the wealth of our town.

As a matter of fact, Occoquan is inhabited by a stayed and conservative people. (This was forcibly illustrated in the recent primary election. While other sections were aroused and excited very little discussion of things political could be heard in our midst. A very few if any of our people, considered seriously the broad head lines exhibited in one of our county papers, trying to lead us to believe the county was in the hands of a boss which had secretly designed our ruin.

The so-called boss continued to be honored here because of his position to the people and county and vice for his spotless and unimpeachable character; and all this cry of bossism the good people of our town and community consider "Tommy rot." At the same time we have no plausible reason to offer for the defeat of any of the candidates, except they failed to receive sufficient votes to elect them. That the defeated candidates have been for ever repudiated by the good democrats of this county, we are not willing to believe. They have the same chance in the future with all good democrats. They have lots of friends who yet honor them and too, some of these friends voted against them, not because they suspected they were connected with any political combination and any of that poppy-cock stuff, but because they preferred the other fellow. The party nominees will be most loyal supporters of the fall of our precinct and we are glad to state we have no sore heads in our midst. We offer all good democrats the right hand of fellowship and regret any effort which has been made to create factions or cause bad feeling in the party.

Property values here in the last few years have made great advances. The Methodist church paid for three acres of land on the depot road, $1,750 for a site on which to build a parsonage. The church expects to erect a home for the preacher on this site, which will be modern and up-to-date and a credit to the town.

The old school house which was built soon after the war and in which all of the young people who have been raised here since that time received their education, has been razed to give way for a new hall, which is being built by the Odd Fellows. Among the hands of the teachers who taught had secretly designed our ruin. School in this building are led by J. B. T. Thornton and B. B. Thornton, Dr. Fowell Merchant, Jno. Nicol, Jno. Sinclair and Miss Ida Nicol. Seleman, will erect, on Water street, a handsome home with all modern improvements.

Mrs. Harry Slack's new residence will soon be completed. We understand Mrs. Jennie Haan will offer for a thirty-five foot lot on Main street one thousand dollars. Can Manassas surpass this? On account of failing health, Mrs. L. Ledman has been forced to close her hotel, which leaves us without hotel facilities. We hope some good enterprising party will soon rent the hotel building and open it up for the future with all good democrats. They have lots of friends who yet honor them and too, some of these friends voted against them, not because they suspected they were con-

CLIFTON A BUSY HAMLET

Picturesque Environments and Old Virginia Hospitality Appeal Strongly to Visitors.

Our sister town, Clifton, will soon boast of a six-room graded school building if plans now under consideration are carried out.

The county superintendent of schools and the trustees of Centerville district were in Clifton last Friday for the purpose of considering bids for the new building, which will be of modern construction and provided with every detail necessary to the comfort and convenience of teachers and students.

One need not spend a few hours in wandering about the romantic and picturesque environments of Clifton to be impressed with the enchantment which is responsible for the number of city boarders who flock to that little hamlet, nestling among scenic hills and charming pathways leading through cool and shady dells. No more hospitable people can be found anywhere than in Clifton. When you step upon the station platform you are greeted with an unmistakable handshake of friendship and with a genial smile that gives you a cordial welcome.

Besides a soap stone mill which is operated to its full capacity with ready market for its products, Clifton has a stove factory which is shipping a car load of stock each week and with its increased facilities, which the next few weeks will afford, the shipments will be more than doubled. The merchants are wide-awake business men and their well stocked stores attract trade from a radius of many miles in both Fairfax and Prince William.

Agriculture as a Science. is G. Harold Powell, whose work for the Department of Agriculture in the investigation of causes of fruit decay, in cold storage and in transit, attracted such wide attention. The citrus fruit growers of California held his talents in such esteem that they tried to get him to go out there. When they got up to an offer of $10,000 a year salary he succumbed, and he is now secretary and manager of the Citrus Protective League of California, a model business organization of agriculturists, which has been fighting for a tariff on lemons that will permit the industry to survive. Having secured that tariff, the organization is now combating the organized campaign of the Sicilian importers to have it reduced.

SHOULD THE FEE SYSTEM BE ABOLISHED?

One of the most important questions which will confront the next Virginia Legislature will be that of abolishing all offices in the state whose incumbents are paid by fees and not by fixed salaries. That the state county and municipal officers should be paid a fair and even a liberal compensation for the work performed by them no taxpayer will deny or against which they would, in the slightest degree, protest. Those who are now paid too little under the fee system should be paid, by fixed salary, an amount commensurate with the work performed.

There is no equity in the fee system and, in the opinion of a host of broadminded business men, should be abolished at the first opportunity. It is unreasonable and inconsistent, in the highest degree, with good judgment, that clerks and tax officials in some counties of this commonwealth should realize more from their offices than is allowed by the state to the chief justice of its highest court, or that any subordinate county or municipal officer should receive higher compensation than the state's chief executive.

A good reason, along the line of abolishing the fee system, comes from the "tar heel" state, where, it is said, in one of the poorest countries, the taxpayers, last year, were saved $10,000 as its first experience without the fee system. The question naturally arises: How many counties in Virginia are there that would not profit in like manner to those of her sister state should the fee system be abolished? Promotion of efficiency in the administration of public affairs, minimizing the incentive to political corruption, and the elimination of the opportunity for prostitution of Justice for selfish ends and many other objectionable features of the fee system form a basis for preferring a salary to a fee system for public officials. The taxpayers are willing to contribute to a fair and economical administration of governmental affairs and if the fee system works upon them an unfair and unreasonable hardship it should be abolished.

Occoquan Workhouse Enlarged

The work of enlarging the District of Columbia's reformatory at Occoquan, preparatory to the transfer of prisoners from the old workhouse 19th and B streets, S. E., is being pushed rapidly towards completion. The transfer will be made in preparation for the change in supervision of prisoners that will take place during next month when the new law, giving the District of Columbia authorities charge of all persons sentenced from the police court, goes into effect.

The old workhouse and jail, in the district, will then only be used as places of temporary detention for persons awaiting trial in the police court or a hearing before the grand jury.

ALLEN'S MINSTREL SHOW

Coming, To-morrow, With Its Corps of World-famed Mirth Provokers.

After an absence of three years Allen's Minstrels will return here, to-morrow, Saturday, to repeat their highly entertaining, meritorious and mirth-provoking shows.

Those who were favored with the opportunity of witnessing this minstrel company, brimful of wholesome, boisterous productions, so well calculated to make one grow fat, when they were last here, will scarcely fail to avail themselves of the chance of an evening's real enjoyment. This is the first and original minstrel company to appear under canvas and is in a class distinctively its own, introducing the most famous negro singers, dancers, cake-walkers and comedians so well-known among the colored race. There is not a dull moment in these exhibitions from beginning to end. Their singing wonders and as many high-class comedians will keep the audience spellbound with their flow of song and soul. Do not fail to see this great mirth-producing entertainment as such high-class shows of this kind seldom visit Manassas.

BAZAAR AT CLIFTON.

The Popes Creek Lodge of Modern Woodmen of America, at Clifton, held a bazaar and picnic and apron party on the lawn in front of the old Clifton hotel, Saturday night, for the benefit of the lodge. There was a goodly number of the bonus and bells, augmented by a number of the older set, present and a delightful evening was spent.

The scheme of the apron and necktie party was a matching, in style or color, of a necktie purchased by a guest, with an apron purchased by a lady when the guest was obligated to treat the fair damsel having purchased an apron which matched a tie purchased by himself, to a bountiful supply of ice cream and cake. This scheme afforded much amusement and produced smiles among the happy participants that are not likely to wear off for weeks to come.

HERE IS A CHANCE TO GET ONE AT EXACTLY HALF MARKED PRICE

We have only a limited number of these on hand, and that is our reason for quoting them at so great a reduction. The fact that our marked prices were already the lowest in town makes the reduction doubly significant.
