CLIPPED BY "THE DEVIL." "WILLIAM, do you know why you are like a donkey?" "Like a donkey?" echoed William, opening his eyes wide. "No, I don't." "Do you give it up?" "No." "Because your better half is stubbornness herself!" "That's not bad. Hal! Hal! I'll give that to my wife when I get home."

NOTES FROM BRADLEY. What has become of our correspondent from Bradley? We are having plenty of snow down here and enjoying good old sleigh rides. Mr. Romp A. Shoemaker was the guest of Miss Naomi Cooper Sunday evening.

Ocoquan W. C. T. U. Meeting. The Ocoquan W. C. T. U. held a very interesting public meeting in the Methodist church Sunday night, January 28th. After the opening exercises by the President and special music by the choir, the audience was favored with a temperance talk by Mr. Janney, a reading by Miss Claypool, Ocoquan's popular school teacher; also a splendid reading by Mr. Samuel Carter, entitled "A Prisoner at the Bar," after which pledge cards were passed, resulting in several new members.

Success of Tuberculosis Day in Colored Schools Assured.

Richmond, Va., Feb. 7, 1912 (Special) Reports received by the State Health Department indicate that the tuberculosis day to be celebrated in the colored schools of eighteen counties on February 12th will be a marked success. Teachers in all the schools of these counties have promised to "hear" the tuberculosis catechism on that day and many of them promise to hold special exercises which will acquaint the pupils of the school and their parents with the ravages of consumption and the methods by which it may be prevented.

CONCERNING FIRE ALARMS

The burning of the Manassas Hotel, on Monday morning, at an hour when all Nature is hushed in most profound slumber, presents to us an existing situation here that should fill us with serious concern. A fire occurring at that hour in the night, even under favorable conditions and where the most perfect system of giving immediate and effective alarm has been installed, invariably results in drastic destruction of property, not to add to the scene of the holocaust the loss of life.

A LIBERAL OFFER

We Guarantee to Relieve Dyspepsia—If We Fail the Medicine Costs Nothing. To unquestionably prove to the people that indigestion and dyspepsia can be permanently relieved and that Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets will bring about this result, we will furnish the medicine absolutely free if it fails to give satisfaction to any one using it.

CLYDE MILL

This well known milling institution, situated on Broad Run, near the residence of Mr. John Hall, has been rebuilt and set in first-class order. It is being operated by Mr. J. A. Rapp, a miller of many years' experience. Flour, Meal and Mill-feed, such as Bran and Middlings, are manufactured and kept in stock. The Flour is a straight grade, made from the very best wheat of a rich cast and guaranteed pure and healthy. The Meal is ground on four-foot new stone, a perfect condition and is, therefore, not injured by heating.

FARMERS!

I am prepared to furnish the celebrated Thomas Grain Drills, Fertilizers, Gasoline Engines, Farm Wagons, Plows, etc., etc. Special prices on Buggies, Surries, Runabouts.
