Postmasters are Instructed to Inaugurate System Jan. 1, 1913.

Mr. Fred W. Hynson, of Westmoreland county, former Manassas resident and well-known in the town and county, died Monday night at 11:30 o'clock in George Washington Hospital, Washington, to which institution he was removed last week.

New York, November 5. - Whatever happens at the polls today, the progressive party is to continue its organization, and the party leaders will meet in Chicago December 10, to make plans with this end in view.

Over $150 in Prizes Offered for Best Exhibits in Corn, Fruit and Domestic Products.

There is, perhaps, no question of greater importance to the southern farmer than that of maintaining the fertility of his soil. To produce profitable crops and even increase the productive capacity of the soil may be rightly termed "good farming."

This meeting was called on account of the great movement to check the large number of undergraduates gaining daily entrance to our so-called "colleges."

Heretofore the agricultural course has gone without credit from the University of Virginia. President Alderman promises his aid in securing due recognition.

Patrons' Day at Occoquan. Patrons' Day was observed by the Occoquan schools last Friday evening. The school building was decorated with the many-colored autumn leaves.

MR. MULHOLLAND'S DEATH. Esteemed Citizen Died Tuesday at Home of His Daughter at Nokesville.

On the completion of lunch, Rev. Dr. Quarles will give a talk on the importance of "Parental Cooperation," under the auspices of the Patron's League.

HOA. L. H. MACHEN, of Alexandria, Makes Address to Democrats. Col. Lee Absent.

A crowd of Manassas enthusiasts assembled in Conner's Opera House last Saturday night to hear Col. R. E. Lee and Hon. Lewis H. Machen, on the issues of the campaign just closed.

Some Post-Office Quietness. (From Baltimore Sun.) By the order of the President, dated October 15, 1912, all postmasters of the fourth class were changed within the classified civil service.

Mr. Brigham's programs are artistic and educative and at the same time very varied and entertaining. They include classical, operatic, romantic and folk-songs and ballads; tragic, pathetic and humorous recitations; masterpieces of song and literature; together with the great musical recitations, such as "Enoch Arden," "Tennyson; "The White Ship," Rossetti; O'wat (the music of which was composed expressly for, and is dedicated to Mr. Brigham by Wilberforce C. O'wat, the music critic of the Baltimore Sun), and others.

Herndon's handsome new brick school building was dedicated on Monday morning last with appropriate exercises arranged by the school Improvement League, the school board and the principal. Dr. W. S. Currell, of Washington and Lee University, made the leading address. He complimented Mrs. Moffett on being one of the best teachers in the state, a remark which brought forth hearty applause from pupils and patrons.

One of the happy ones. The case of Lewis Hoff, former secretary and general manager of the defunct Mercantile Railway and Loan Association will be called for trial in the corporation court for Alexandria on November 22nd. It is reported that Judge Thornton may be requested by Judge Barber, of the corporation court, to hear the arguments.

The fertility of the soils would remain practically unchanged if all the ingredients removed in the various farm products were restored to the land. This may be accomplished to a large extent by feeding the crops grown on the farm to farm animals and returning the manure to the soil.

Some Post-Office Quietness. (From Baltimore Sun.) By the order of the President, dated October 15, 1912, all postmasters of the fourth class were changed within the classified civil service.

On account of the increase in the weight limit from four to eleven pounds it will be necessary to supply postmasters with scales of adequate capacity. It is expected that every presidential post office and the majority of the offices of the fourth class will be properly equipped in this respect by January 1. Offices of the fourth class that do not receive suitable scales by that date will be supplied as promptly as possible thereafter, and in the meantime postmasters will be expected to meet the emergency with their present weighing facilities or by such other means as they may be able to devise without expense to the department.

Mr. Edward Brigham, the famous basso profundo and dramatic reader, of New York City, will give a song and dramatic recital in the College auditorium Friday evening, November 22nd, at 8 o'clock.

BRIEF LOCAL ITEMS

Several petitions are out for the post-office. Dr. H. U. Roop will preach in Grace M. E. Church next Sunday at 3 p. m. Miss Olivia Cooksey has accepted a position with Messrs. J. H. Burke & Co. The Manassas vote was as follows: Wilson, 244; Roosevelt, 29, and Taft, 15. Mr. Ernest Shirley has accepted a position in the grocery department of Conner's market. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Teates will move next week into their new home on South Main street. Prof. Button left this afternoon to give a lesson in milk testing at the King's Cross Roads school. Col. John S. Mooby, who has been quite ill in Garfield Hospital, Washington, is very much improved. The Board of Supervisors will meet Saturday, November 23, in the Supervisor's Room at the court-house. Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Ashford and Misses Louise and Alice Ashford are living in the second Li-beau brick on Porter avenue. It is reported that hog cholera is very prevalent at Occoquan. We also understand that it is confined to that neighborhood. Stonewall Council, O. F. A., will hold an oyster supper in the schoolhouse at Catharpin, Friday evening, November 22, beginning at 5 o'clock. The Woman's Auxiliary of the Farmers' Institute, will hold its meeting at the Ruffner Building directly after lunch on Farmers' Institute Day. Dr. H. L. Quarles is in Warrenton this week, conducting a series of extra meetings at the Warrenton Baptist Church, of which Dr. Jackson is pastor. Friends of Mr. Henry Lawrence, who was operated on at Sibley sometime ago for appendicitis, will be glad to know that he is out and visiting friends at Purcellville, Va. At 3 o'clock last Sunday afternoon, in the bride's home near town, Miss Daisy Bonner and Mr. Norman E. Evans, of Alexandria, were united in marriage by Dr. Herwin U. Roop. Stonewall Council, Order Fraternal Americans, was instituted at Catharpin, Va., October 12th, by State Secretary James R. Mansfield, of Alexandria, with a charter membership of twenty-seven. The General Manager of the Northern Virginia Agricultural and Educational Alliance, A. W. Ricks, spent fifteen days last month in Loudoun county and collected from the colored people $104.70. Wilson enthusiasts celebrated the democratic victory with a bonfire on Eastern Athletic field Wednesday night. Flames lit the sky and yells rent the air, but some folks slept peacefully on. The Greenwood Presbyterian Church will observe the communion services on Sunday, November 10, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. Members of other churches are always welcome at these services. Mr. Robert A. Hutchison, presidential elector of the Eighth district, made an address at the Democratic Rally in the Elks' Hall, Alexandria, on Saturday night. Mr. Hutchison took a number of hot shots at Roosevelt and concluded by instructing the voters how to prepare their ballots on election day. Senator Martin and Representative Carlin also addressed the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Owen Mellon, of Alexandria, are guests of Mrs. L. E. Pope. Mr. Mellon was formerly of Nokesville and his bride of a week was Miss Evilbert Bauer, of Johnstown, Pa. Mrs. Sarah Blackwell Keith, widow of Mr. Isham Keith, died at Woodburne, near Warrenton, Saturday night, after a lingering illness. Mrs. Keith was a sister-in-law of Judge James Keith, at one time Judge of this circuit. The Manassas German Club is making arrangements for the annual Thanksgiving German which will probably be a masked ball this time. The invitations are not out but presumably it will be given the Friday following Thanksgiving. Rev. Dr. John McGill, of the Plains, will preach and hold Holy Communion in Trinity Episcopal Church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Dr. McGill was rector of Trinity several years ago, and is well and widely known in this community. Thieves entered the Nokesville postoffice last Saturday night, breaking through the outer and inner doors of the building. About five dollars, a number of stamped envelopes, and a clock are missing. It has been impossible to determine whether stamps were taken. Have you seen the radish in our window? It is something more than a foot long and weighs over nine pounds. With the stalk it is probably three feet high. This giant radish was grown by Mr. J. F. Milestead on the Eva Calvert place, near Hoadley. Can you beat it? The large democratic vote polled here Tuesday was largely due to the work of the Wilson-Marshall-Carlin Club, under the able leadership of Mr. John R. Tillett, president of the club. Mr. Tillett announces that the club will not disband, as there is yet much work for it to do. Among the names to be placed under the cornerstone of the Arlington monument is that of Mrs. Lindsay L. Lomax, wife of Gen. L. L. Lomax, major-general in the Confederate service. Mrs. Lomax, who lives in Washington, is a sister of Misses Myra and Fannie Payne, of Manassas. Mr. C. M. Hopkins arranged with the Western Union Telegraph Company to have a private wire run into the Athletic Hall last Tuesday evening for election returns. The returns were thrown on the screen as soon as received with several moving picture reels to break the wait. A crowd of citizens and a small number of ladies were present. Word was received here Tuesday that a man named Beach, whom the authorities have been on the lookout for some time, had been located in Fredericksburg through the efforts of the Virginia Hotel Association. Beach is fairly well known in Virginia, having skipped a number of board bills, according to report. He will be brought to Manassas for trial as the New Prince William was one of the victims. Judge and Mrs. Charles Edgar Nicol, of Alexandria, have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Miss Pauline Faubert Nicol, to Dr. Benjamin Franklin Nicol, Jr., of Manassas, at eight o'clock Wednesday evening, November 20, in Christ Church. After the wedding, a reception will be held from eight-thirty to eleven o'clock at the home of the bride, 120 North Washington street. A number of the patrons of the Manassas kindergarten attended the meeting held Wednesday afternoon in the kindergarten room, Bennett Building. Miss Ruth Round made a pleasing and instructive talk about the work, its aim and results, and explained most convincingly why it is best for the child to be given its training at the kindergarten. Miss M. J. G. Charlotte Smith addressed the patrons, illustrating the work of the children, outlining their daily study, and explaining their rapid progress.

A marriage license was issued in Washington yesterday to John Calvin Muncaster, of Rockville, Md., and Miss Jeffries Entwistle, of Washington. Mr. Frank S. Davidson, the well-known comedian, will be in Manassas Friday evening, December 6th, with "Days of '98." See next week's JOURNAL for cast of characters. The patrons of Groveton school, No. 3, will give a Thanksgiving Dinner at the Pavilion on Thanksgiving Day, beginning at 11 o'clock. The proceeds will go toward a fence for the school grounds. All friends of the school are most cordially invited to be present and participate. Several attractive features are promised. See next week's issue for particulars. Mr. Christian M. Newman, a patent attorney and brother of Mr. O. E. Newman, of this place, was elected state senator from the twenty-first senatorial district of Connecticut, by three hundred majority, the same being normally a strong republican district. Senator Newman was born in Manassas and has many friends in this county, who are glad to learn of his political preferment. Mr. W. J. Adamson, Jr., of Elkton, Va., visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Adamson, this week. He will leave Saturday for Richmond where he has accepted a position. Dr. and Mrs. H. M. Clarkson left Wednesday for Mt. Washington, Md., to visit their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Boston Clarkson. They will probably remain all winter. Miss Lillie M. Jones, who has been making her home with Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Davis, will spend the winter with Misses Annette and Margaret Smith, on West street.

Mr. O. D. Waters and little Dabney, of Richmond, visited relatives here this week. Mr. Chester A. Amos, of the University of Virginia, spent Sunday with his parents here. Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Wright, and Mr. R. A. Merchant, of Richmond, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Merchant. Mrs. Joseph Henkel, editor of the Shenandoah Valley, published at New Market, was a caller at the JOURNAL OFFICE last Tuesday. Mrs. W. E. McCoy and little Miss Madeleine McCoy left this week to visit friends in Charlottesville, Basic City, Staunton, and Harrisonburg. Rev. O. G. Hutchison, of Spring Mill Baptist Church, Pennsylvania, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Westwood Hutchison, this week. Mrs. Henry Lawrence and little son Ryan, accompanied by Mrs. Albert Lawrence, visited Mr. and Mrs. Jno. R. Lawrence, of Ballston, Va., this week. Miss Lillie M. Jones, who has been making her home with Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Davis, will spend the winter with Misses Annette and Margaret Smith, on West street.

A Grave Breach of Etiquette.
A very grave breach of etiquette it is to make personal remarks other than complimentary in public or to those with whom one is not very well acquainted.
A young girl whose kindly nature was to say always the nice things was caught once, and the lesson was never forgotten by her.
The author of "The Greedy Book" says that "somehow or other there is something persuasively and personally intimate in one's relation with an oyster, or with a couple of dozen oysters for that matter - a feeling of friendship between the diner and the writer who extol the oyster as a pleasant companion of midnight hours or of midday feasts."
