

REPORT OF CONVENTION

Seventeenth Annual State Convention of Virginia Division, U. D. C., at Harrisonburg.

Report of the seventeenth annual convention of the Virginia Division, United Daughters of the Confederacy, which convened at Harrisonburg, Va., October 8-11, 1912.

To one who loves that matchless poem, "In the Land Where We Were Dreaming," it seems a fitting thing that our annual State Convention should have been held at Harrisonburg, situated as it is, in the heart of the historic Valley of Virginia.

On Wednesday, the 9th, at 10 a. m., Mrs. A. A. Campbell presiding, the Convention was called to order. The opening prayer was said by the Rev. John Jackson of the Episcopal Church.

The memorial services were conducted by Mrs. Crawford of Portsmouth, in the absence of Mrs. Elizabeth Neely. A letter from the John W. Daniel Chapter, of Newport News, conveyed to the convention the sad knowledge of the death of its president, Mrs. George W. Nelms.

After the services, "The Bivouac of the Dead" was touchingly rendered by the choir. Then the U. D. C. ritual, followed by the roll call. As each chapter was called, the chapter named presented a flag to the hostess chapter.

bers, and thought the young girls should be trained to become useful members of the parent chapters. She spoke beautifully of our beloved friend and co-worker, the late Mrs. George W. Nelms.

Mrs. James E. Alexander, recorder of crosses, showed that 174 crosses of honor had been bestowed by the Division this year, against 98 last year; a motion, which was carried, to petition the National Convention, U. D. C., to grant two more days during the coming year for the bestowal of these crosses.

A letter was read from the John W. Daniel monument fund, thanking the Division for the gift of one hundred dollars.

Treasurer's report: Total receipts were $4,532.52, and total disbursements, $3,071.99. The receipts for the relief fund were $1,566.99, while the disbursements from this fund amounted to $726.10.

The afternoon was taken up with different unfinished reports, and a reception at the Normal School from five to six o'clock.

It was brought out in the registrar's report that all papers should be in the hands of the State registrar at least ten days before the convention.

Thursday the Convention was called to order by Mrs. A. A. Campbell, and opened with prayer by Rev. H. H. Sherman of the Methodist Church.

Mrs. Campbell spoke of one of the causes which should be nearest the heart of each daughter of the Division—the Confederate Museum at Richmond. She spoke of the Auxiliary or Junior Chapters, gaining in favor and gathering in Assembly Hall. In his talk on "Peerless Women of the South," Major Murray begged the young men and young women of our Southland to take up this work being done by the Daughters of the Confederacy.

This address was followed by Mrs. Griff Edwards, who sang "An Old Time Confederate," enclosed again and again. She delighted everyone with "I Wish Was in Dixie."

The morning session opened Friday with prayer by Rev. George F. Cook. The election of officers was taken up, and resulted as follows:

President, Mrs. A. A. Campbell; first vice-president, Mrs. James E. Alexander; second vice-president, Miss Alice Cowan; third vice-president, Mrs. Chas. C. Guthrie; fourth vice-president, Mrs. Frank Anthony Walker; recording secretary, Mrs. W. C. N. Merchant; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Peyton C. Green; treasurer, Mrs. S. A. Riddick; registrar, Mrs. J. R. K. Bell; custodian, Miss Lucy Berkeley; and custodian, Virginia badges, Mrs. James Mercer Garnett.

Richmond and Bristol were applicants for entertaining the Virginia Division next year, and Richmond won.

Mrs. Nathan D. Eller was nominated President General of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, an office to be filled by election at the National Convention in Washington.

The Virginia Division will have voting strength of 303 in this convention, which meets November 12th.

HEBRON SEMINARY NOKESVILLE, VA. College Preparatory, English, Scientific, Commercial, English, Bible, Music and Short Agricultural Courses.

BROWN & HOFF Lumber and Planing Mills

We keep on hand Lumber, Lime, Cement, Ash, Brick, Doors, Sash, Blinds, Shingles, Mouldings, Door and Window Frames, Paints, Oil, Varnish, Hinges, Screws and all kinds of Builders' Hardware, and see prepared to fill all orders for same on short notice.

Fresh Fish and York River Oysters Every Friday and Saturday

Dr. Hess and Clark's Poultry Panacea It will start your hens to laying now. They need it

Full line of Groceries of all kinds, China, Glass, Wooden and Willow Ware

J. H. BURKE & CO. LET US SERVE YOU

SKANNONS & CO. WASHINGTON, D. C., U. S. A. $3.00 IMPORTED 24 IN. VIOLA DOLLS BEST VALUES IN DOLLS EVER OFFERED At $1.50 (Delivered to your home) We have never yet had enough Viola Dolls to supply the demand. Choice of Blondes, Brunettes and Tosca types. Ball jointed throughout. Natural finished body. Beautiful long curly hair. There isn't a doll in the world to-day at the price, as pretty, as big, as well made, or as desirable as Miss Viola.

DULIN & MARTIN CO. Washington's Leading Store For China, Glass, Silverware, Etc. Our supremacy in the following lines has been recognized for years. Dependable qualities, exclusively lowest prices for THE BEST.

Two Carloads of Buggies Prices from $45.00 to $100.00 We have just received one carload of Blue Ribboag Buggies, and one carload of the famous Haydocks—each made of the very best material available, bought in the white wood and painted as per our instructions.

THE FARMERS' INSTITUTE MUST PAY POLL TAXES BAPTISTS IN CONVENTION NOVEMBER BULLETIN OUT THE ODD FELLOWS' RALLY IDEANICOL NUPTIALS

CLYDE MILL This well known milling institution, recently re-built and set in first class condition, is now being operated by a miller of years' experience. The Flour being made at this mill, Fancy and Straight grade, is giving satisfaction wherever used, and is rapidly attracting new customers. It is made of the very best wheat and guaranteed pure and healthy.

The Manassas Journal. The November Meeting was the Corn Show Fair—Big Attendance—Prizes Awarded. All Capitation Taxes Must be Paid by December 1, 1912, or No Vote. The Association Held its Annual Meeting at Petersburg Last Week. Department of Agriculture Issues Publication for Virginia Farmers. Virginia, Maryland and District of Columbia Mingle in Washington Tuesday Night. Dr. B. F. Iden, Jr., and Miss Pauline Nicol Married at Christ Church, Alexandria. Historic Christ Episcopal Church of Alexandria, Va., was the scene of a brilliant wedding last Wednesday night at eight o'clock when Miss Pauline Faulstich Nicol became the bride of Dr. Benjamin F. Iden, Jr., of Manassas. The color scheme of yellow and violet was carried out in all of the decorations of the church, it being banked in yellow and violet chrysanthemums with a background of palms. The ceremony was performed by Rev. William J. Morton, rector of the church. The bride entered the church to the strains of a wedding march, played by Mrs. Simpson, of Washington. She was accompanied by her father, Judge Charles Edward Nicol, by whom she was given in marriage. The bride wore a gown of ivory tinted chamoisee trimmed with Venetian lace and caught with orange blossoms. Ornaments were of pearls and she carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Julia Nicol, sister of the bride-elect, was maid of honor. She wore white lace over green and violet chrysanthemums. There were eight bridesmaids who were gowned in yellow violet trimmings and they carried yellow chrysanthemums. The bridesmaids entered the church by the right aisle while the groomsmen entered by the left. The bridegroom had for his best man, his brother, Dr. John H. Iden, U. S. N. The bridesmaids were Misses Lucile Smith and Margaret Newbauer, of Washington; Miss Janette Powers, of Port Royal; Miss Della Dudley, Washington, Va.; Miss Virginia Iden, Manassas and Misses Nellie Uiler, Cora Jones, and Christina Kemper, of Alexandria. The groomsmen were Harvey Jacobs and Jack Harvey, of Washington; Milton French; Jack Stevenson, Edmund Hunter, Aylet Nicol and Edgar Nicol. Following the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride, 316 North Washington street. Afterward the couple left for New York, where they will spend the winter. The reception was attended by a large number of guests, among whom were Judge and Mrs. Thornton, Mr. and Mrs. Westwood Hutchison and Miss Isabelle Hutchison, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Hutchison, Mrs. J. H. Bennett and Miss Florence Lion, of Manassas. Former Prince William Resident Married. Mr. Joseph F. Sifer, who formerly resided near Nokesville, Prince William county, Va., was married to Miss Lucille Goldwin Minton, of Portsmouth, Va., at the home of the bride's mother, No. 433 South street, Portsmouth, Va., on Thursday, October 31, 1912, at 5:30 p. m., Rev. Father Delaney, assistant pastor of St. Paul's Catholic church, officiating. The bride is the daughter of Orville F. Minton, deceased, and Cora A. Minton, of Portsmouth. The groom is the son of Daniel M. and Emma M. Sifer, of Nokesville, (the latter now deceased). The couple left immediately after the ceremony for a visit to New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington, and upon their return will reside in Portsmouth, where Mr. Sifer is employed in the Navy Department service.

