THE AMERICAN HOME

WEARADFORD EDITOR

Mr. William A. Radford will advise you on all subjects pertaining to the construction of a home. He is the author of the book "The American Home" and is a member of the American Institute of Architects.

A good deal of attention has been given to the building of a house. It is a matter of some importance and one that should be given the most careful consideration.

The room is large enough for the purpose and is well lighted. It is a good place for a study or a library and is well adapted for the purpose.

Something about the property. It is a good piece of property and is well adapted for the purpose. It is a good place for a study or a library and is well adapted for the purpose.

Never can tell when you'll meet a man who is not a little bit of a philosopher. He is a good piece of property and is well adapted for the purpose.

It is more than rich men get sometimes after building a castle. It is a good piece of property and is well adapted for the purpose.

THE KITCHEN CABINET

When roasting wild ducks instead of stuffing them, put an onion in some of the fat. The onion will absorb the fat and the duck will be more tender.

Four should always be added before the flour. When baking powder is used, use two pieces of malleable paper, the wrapping paper, etc.

Keep the feet warm. Hot shoes have so many faults. The feet should be kept warm and the shoes should be well worn.

Water should never be thrown on a fire. It is a good piece of property and is well adapted for the purpose.

Don't put off the important things until another day. It is a good piece of property and is well adapted for the purpose.

LESSON FOR FEBRUARY 25, BAPTISM AND TEMPTATION OF JESUS.

LESSON TEXT—Mark 1:8-13. Matt. 3:13-17. LUK. 3:21-22. JOHN. 1:29-34.

Three things deserve special notice in connection with the scene of the baptism of Christ. The baptism itself, the descending of the Holy Spirit, and the heavenly voice.

The baptism of Christ is connected with the baptism of the Holy Spirit. The baptism of the Holy Spirit is the baptism of the heart.

The temptation of Christ was a test of his faith. He was tempted by the devil to turn stones into bread, to throw himself from the temple, and to worship the devil.

The temptation of Christ was a test of his faith. He was tempted by the devil to turn stones into bread, to throw himself from the temple, and to worship the devil.

WORDS OF WISDOM.

It is better not to live than not to love.

Friendship is the nearest thing we know to what religion is.

Touchiness is self-love inflamed; it is conceit with a hair trigger.

The work of religion is not to remove the burden but to adjust it.

Delight is not a strange or added thing but the inspiration of the secular life.

Wounded vanity and unsatisfied self-love are the causes of man's unrest.

The people who influence you are those who believe in you. Guiltiness is the secret of personal influence.

There is no other reason why we should live except because we love and are beloved.

A man does not have the virtues of Christ because he knows how to read them; as well try to feed upon a book.

A good husband is merely a good son grown up.

The truest test of a man's character is how he behaves when he is alone.

It is not the weathercock that changes; it is the wind.

Never judge your future possibilities by your past failures.

Domestic affairs are the only things that really interest the public.

To be good is to be good to others.

The problem of the rich is how to make a happy home out of a big house.

A clock serves to point out the time and a woman to make up for it.

Life is the art of forgetting that being here is the worst thing that can happen to us.

Respectability is something in the constitution. You can acquire it, and mercifully if you haven't got it you don't feel the need of it.

If you pick up a starving dog and make him prosperous, he will not bite you. This is the principal difference between a dog and a man.

Do you know that more real danger lurks in a common cold than in any other of the minor ailments? The safety way is to take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, thoroughly reliable preparation, and rid your system of the cold as quickly as possible. This remedy is for sale everywhere.
