Douglas Janney and Edward Roads spent Sunday with friends in Remington. O. T. Martin, of Washington, was among our well-known visitors here last week. Mrs. C. L. Hynson, of Washington, visited friends and relatives here this week. O. M. Gilbert, of Thoroughfare, made a business trip to Manassas the first of the week. M. Cave, of Gainesville, was among our well-known visitors in Manassas during the week. Mr. Hooker, cashier of the Nokesville National Bank, was a Manassas visitor this week. Howard Akers, of Washington, spent the week-end at the home of his mother, Mrs. M. E. Akers. P. H. Lynch, of Winston-Salem, N. C., spent several days with his family in Manassas this week. Service at Trinity Church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, and at St. Ann's, Nokesville, at 8:30 o'clock. Miss Susie Shaner, of Washington, was the guest of Miss Bet Elliott, near Bristow, last Sunday. Mrs. Barfield, of Washington, was the guest of Miss Katie Holden, at her home near Manassas, this week. Center and Main streets, the business streets of Manassas, are now being torn up for the installation of sewer pipes. Miss Laura Tavenner, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. James R. Dorrell, left Monday for a visit to Warrenton. Messrs. Aylott, Holtzman and Douglas Clark, of Washington, visited at the home of Rev. and Mrs. T. D. D. Clark this week. Miss Effie Adamson, who for some time has been connected with a Maryland hospital, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Adamson. Coleman Timmons, formerly of Manassas, now of Knoxville, Tenn., spent several days here this week, being summoned as a witness in a law suit. Miss Bernice Davis, of George Washington University Hospital, in Washington, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Davis, at Bristow. E. W. Garnett, who has been connected with Bowser & Co. as traveling salesman, has accepted a position with Linaweaver Bros., of Harrisonburg, as book-keeper. The Ladies' Aid Society of Sully Church will give a strawberry and ice cream festival at Wilkins store on Tuesday, June 9, beginning at 5 p. m. Every one cordially invited. Messrs. George C. Brenton and Ernest Utterback, who have had their string of race horses at Electric Park, have moved them to Marlboro for the meet, which has opened there this week. E. S. Hooker, of Nokesville, now a student at a Philadelphia school, came to Manassas last week for Eastern commencement exercises. He has returned to Philadelphia to receive his diploma. J. J. Conner and M. J. Hottle have both recently purchased Ford touring cars from the automobile firm at Nokesville. This makes fifteen Ford cars sold by The Nokesville Motor Co. this season, and they have several good prospects ahead of them. While workmen were engaged in digging the sewer ditch, near the Prince William Hotel this week, they unearthed a number of graves, supposedly those of a party who were buried in a box and later buried. Several other graves had been located in that section of the town.

Miss Coulter's studio will be opened next Tuesday with a lot of new music. W. R. Free, Jr., and family motored to Manassas for a short visit yesterday. A crowd of Manassas young people spent Sunday on the banks of Compton Run. Fred Hynson, of Philadelphia, is the guest of his cousin, John L. Hynson, today. Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Harmon and son, Willie, spent Tuesday visiting in Washington. Stuart Tulloss, of Washington, was the guest of friends in Manassas during the week. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Donahue, of Washington, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Lipscomb, this week. Senator Ewell Thornton, of Fairfax Courthouse, spent the week-end with his brother, Judge J. B. T. Thornton. Mrs. W. N. Merchant returned last Monday from Washington, where she has been visiting friends and relatives. Golden Cheatwood, a former student at Eastern College, and whose home is at Catlett, was a visitor here yesterday. Mrs. G. Kingla and son, Austin, of Eastern College, left this week on a visit of ten days to friends in Washington. Mrs. Margaret Lewis was pleasantly surprised by a number of her friends last Tuesday evening in honor of her birthday. Several of the young ladies of the eight grade are rehearsing a play, "The Pan of Fudge," which they expect to present in the near future. Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Bergamin, who for the past several months have made their home in Manassas, are moving to their new home near Brentsville. Mr. and Mrs. Hardy Seay and family moved this week from the George Payne property, on Main street, to the residence formerly occupied by Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Bergamin. The Manassas graded school baseball team journeyed to Markham for a return game with the nine composed of the graded school lads of that place, and again met defeat. Many horse show lovers from here and this locality attended the horse show at Leesburg yesterday and today. The Leesburg show is one of the first performances of the season and one of the best on the circuit. Tickets are now on sale for "The Old Vermont Farm" which is to be presented at Eastern Auditorium the last of the week. Those interested in the entertainment have been busily engaged, in selling tickets during the week and a great many have been disposed of. Two colored nines representing the towns of Front Royal and Middleburg, crossed bats in a red hot game of baseball here last Saturday morning. The contest took place on Eastern diamond, and resulted in a victory for the Middleburg team by the overwhelming score of 15 to 3. The feature of the game was the batting of the victors. The skeleton of a man, with small fragments of clothing clinging to the bones, was dug up on Liberty avenue, near the residence of T. S. Lykes last Tuesday morning by workmen digging the ditch for the water pipes. A small piece of silk evidently a necktie had been well preserved under the three feet of earth, and later buried. Several other graves had been located in that section of the town.

Eddie Nicol, of Alexandria, spent the week end at his home in Manassas. Frederick Branning spent last Sunday visiting friends in Baltimore and vicinity. Miss Nettie L'Ardele, of Washington, was the guest of friends and relatives here last week. Lawrence Hurdle, of Washington, was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Davis last Sunday. Barbour Lipscomb, who is connected with the Southern Express Company, was in town on Monday. Mrs. Garth Calderhead and two children, of Washington, D. C., visited relatives near Manassas this week. Mr. and Mrs. William H. Brown stopped over in Manassas today on their way home to Gainesville from a visit to Tennessee. Miss May Simpson, of Clarendon, was the guest of relatives in Manassas and at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Davis at Bristow, this week. Captain C. Fauquhar, of Buckhall, and Capt. John R. Rust, of Haymarket, attended the unveiling of the Confederate Monument at Arlington today. There will be no meeting of the W. C. T. U. this week, but on Friday of next week there will be a Union Signal Reading-Social at the home of Mrs. A. C. Spier. In this issue of THE DEMOCRAT there is inserted bids calling for the erection of our new Town Hall, which for some time has been a much talked of and much needed Manassas improvement. In view of the fact that there has been an outbreak of black leg at two or three points in the county, owners of cattle, particularly young stock, will do well to vaccinate all such stock. Any information regarding this subject will be cheerfully given. C. H. YARBOROUGH, JR., Director M. A. H. S.

Miss Lillian M. Jones, who for the past week has been quite ill at her home here, is now recovered. Mrs. W. A. Trout and son, William, of Clifton Forge, are guests of Mrs. Trout's sister, Mrs. R. S. Arvey. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Dunnington, of Wilson, N. C., were the guests of friends and relatives in Manassas this week. Mrs. C. F. Brower and little daughter, of Gainesville, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Wheeler this week. Wm. R. Buck, of Front Royal, was a guest Friday and Saturday at the home of his brother, Dr. R. C. Buck, near Bristow. Come out Friday and Saturday nights to see "The Old Vermont Farm" at the same time help a worthy cause, The Ladies' Guild of the Episcopal Church. Capt. C. Fauquhar attended a meeting, as a delegate, at the Bureau of Standards held in Washington the past week. Over two hundred delegates from all parts of the United States were in attendance. Work on installing and fitting Manassas with her electric lights will begin in the very near future, and members of the contracting firm were in town last Saturday on business relative to beginning operations. John Santos, member of the graduating class of Eastern College, and the last remaining student, left Monday for his home in Santiago de Cuba, after an absence of three years. Mr. Santos, during his stay here, made a host of friends who regret his departure. Decoration Day ceremonies were held at the Bull Run battlefield in front of the flag staff at the 5th New York Monument. There were present Mr. and Mrs. Blakely, of Clifton Forge, Capt. and Mrs. C. Fauquhar, of Manassas; Mrs. George Fauquhar, of Washington; Mrs. Burke and son, of New York. Songs of various descriptions took place during the raising of a new flag on the seventy-five foot staff. A neat sum was realized at the German entertainment and debate held at the Green building last Friday evening for the benefit of the Manassas High School Athletic Association. The program was a very interesting one, composed of musical selections and recitations by students of the school, the entertainment terminating with a debate between the High School team, Roswell Round and Herndon State, and a chosen team from the Alumni of the institution, composed of Wheatly Johnson and Percy Haydon. The subject of debate was in regard to compulsory education, the High School taking the affirmative and the Alumni the negative. The outcome of the debate was left to the judgment of the audience. Ice cream and other refreshments were served in the school yard at the conclusion of the performance.

BIDS WANTED Sealed bids will be received by the undersigned committee until noon Monday, July 6, 1914, for the erection and completion of a Town Hall at Manassas, Va., in accordance with plans and specifications which may be seen at the office of the Town Clerk or Nash & Cannon's hardware store. Bids will be opened by the Town Council who reserve the right to reject any and all bids. Manassas, Va., June 3, 1914. ALBERT SPEDDEN, Chairman. C. E. NASH, Committee.
