

The Manassas Gazette
or possibly
The Manassas Journal

Between January 8 and February 12, 1891-1898
fragment

Based on Mrs. H. B. (Hattie B.) Lewis
Manassas business license for a millinery 1891-98
cf. Manassas Gazette 28 Feb. 1896.

offer

... received and of ...
... tic Line of Fall Millinery ... No-
... ns, embracing the latest ...
... which I am selling at the lowest prices.
... Below we mention and quote price on
... a few of the articles:

Hats, Germantown Yarn, Ladies' and Children's Vests, 25c. and 50c.
per pair, all wool Hose, Table Cloths, Napkins, Dress Trimmings
and Children's Cashmere
... Yarn Hoods, Caps,
... everything necessary to
... first class line of Mil-
... Drop in and see it.
... respectfully,

MRS. H. B. LEWIS

The Manassas Gazette
or possibly
The Manassas Journal

Between January 8 and February 12, 1891-1898
fragment

Based on Mrs. H. B. (Hattie B.) Lewis
Manassas business license for a millinery 1891-98
cf. Manassas Gazette 28 Feb. 1896.

SCOTT'S EMULSION OF PURE COD LIVER OIL
WITH Hypophosphites.
PALATABLE AS MILK.
Ask for Scott's Emulsion, and let us explain its medicinal value and scope of application.
Solely all Druggists
SCOTT'S

"In the game."
of the terms of a few of the more prom:
Black Dan—Daniel Wee
Black Jack—John A. Lo
Little Phil—Philip Sherida
The Silent Man—U. S. Grant
Old Hickory—Andrew Jack
The Honest Man—Jame
Poor Richard—Benjan
The Railsplitter—Abre
The Little Giant—Step.
Wizard of the North

Scott's
Old Rough and Ready

of Grant