It's Economy To Have Tires Repaired

Even though you can buy a new tire cheaner today than you could six months ago, you can save perfectly good money by having your blow-outs properly repaired.

It is extravagance and a pure waste of money to run a tire with a blow-out patch. If brought to us promptly, we can make your tire as good as new, and at a very slight cost.

We know HOW. Bring your tire work to us.

WORTHY OF THE READER'S CONSIDERATION.

NEWS should be of particular interest to the taxpavers of Manassas. Brentsville and Gainesville districts. If what Mr. Heuser claims is borne out by facts, and I would not suggest it is not, in the matter o expenditures of the taxpayers' money for road improvements in Prince William for the past few years, the districts of Occoquan, Dumfries and CHAS. H. ADAMS Coles have certainly profited unduly at the expense of the property owners in the other three districts.

Even though you may not be interested in what Mr. Heuser has to say about the decision recently made regarding the improvement the Carolina road in Gainesville district, which gets first attention in the Carolina road in Camesvine district, which gets hist attention in the last two paragraghs are reached. These Do. You Need two paragraphs deal with a matter that has been up for informa cussion for some little while—a matter that should receive the attention of all Prince William's citizens.

If the three districts of the lower part of the county have been getting more than their proper share of the road improvement tax money, the error should be corrected. Prince William should always be your tires begin to show considerlooked upon as a unit, not as six competitive districts, each trying to able wear, don't forget the oldest get the best of the other five, or three contriving to gain the advantage, established vulcanizing business in any way, over the other three.

To my personal knowledge, Mr. Heuser has given this expenditure of county money for the improvement of Prince William's roads, very close study. The statements made in his article and the conclusions reached, are worthy of the reader's careful consideration.

AM I RIGHT OR AM I WRONG?

A few Sundays back I had the pleasure of hearing a sermon that deserves comment—favorable comment. I will not attempt to repor this sermon in full or even give it in part, but the theme was cooperation and the crying need for members of each denomination to recognize that members of other denominations may be right, too.

Rev. A. Stuart Gibson has very ably compared the different churches to a big family where, while the individual members of this family may and are to be expected to differ on the best manner of accomplishing the details of the family work, the progress of the family is largely to be measured by the extent all work together, each member recognizing all the while that little differences of opinion are not of paramount importance, but can, if given free rein, cut down seri ously on the amount of good work the family would otherwise be pro-

In your church do you feel this way about it? If not why What are the churches trying to do anyway, if not to lead men to live better lives, and to learn to love their fellowmen? Can you expect to persuade a man with a head on his shoulders that your specific denomination has cornered all or nearly all of the religious thought that is correct? Can you afford, with men and women and boys and girls dairy, Washington, and resident of this going astray around you, to stand out and contend that your church county for many years, who died last IS alone right? How, do you imagine, does the "deeply-dyed" sinner month, has been filed in Washington feel about the churches as a whole, when there is not that unity of expression and work that there should be?

And just one more question—"What has kappened to the Minis- phew, Edward Thompson, and the terial Conference of Manassas?

THE ROAD WE NEVER TAKE I travel on the highway every day.

You do not have to come to our store in person to make sure of getting a cut of meat that will suit your fancy. Phone in or write what kind of meat you want and the quantity, and we will deliver it promptly and in splendid condition, if you live in Manassas. Or we can send it out by parpots, if cel you live out of town.

It is our constant aim to keep a nice variety of meats on hand, from which you can select the kind that appeals to your palate at any particular time. In butchering and in cold storing, care is given the carcasses that the meats retain their flavor and are most nutritions when cooked and placed on the family table.

And when you order any meats, remember, we have one of the most complete groceries in the county and that we can take care of your grocery needs at the same time—and to your satisfaction.

Watch Meats Carefully During the Summer Months

In the "good old summer time" you've got to watch your step in buying foods that contain protein in the raw state. Take fresh meats, for

The butchering and refrigeration of live stock is always a particular process, calling for the exercise of cleanliness and the placing of the meat in a cold, dry place at all times. But with the coming of warm weather, the need for such care becomes far more imperative—a prime necessity, if the family's health is regarded other than lightly.

Watch the meats you buy during the summer months. It is a duty you owe your family and yourself—to insist that every pound of meat you purchase is in a well preserved condition. And then it is your further duty to get the meat in your refrigerator as soon as you get home, and to keep it there until you cook it.

Buy good, clean, fresh meat to begin with, and then do your part—and all will be well.

Are You Profiting By the Exchange?

How do you, Mr. Farmer, look upon the "exchange," which was established with but one purpose--to serve the farming interests of Prince William?

Here you will find a selection of goods that are bought by the country trade. Good goods and priced most reasonably.

Not only do we carry implements, lime, all kinds of feed and other items the men folks need in the actual farming operations, but we have a complete grocery department and also a very nice assortment of notions.

If we do not happen to have in stock an article you want, we can order it for you promptly. We strive in every way we know how to please our patrons.

The next time you are in town, come and look our stock over. Give us an opportunity to prove to you that the "exchange" is a profitable place at which to deal.

> The Little Brown Pennies

This is a message to the little tots, but many a big one will do well to "listen in."

In the business world the smallest and least respected coin is the penny. It takes one hundred of these to equal in value a silver dollar. Because it takes so many pennies to make a dollar, many a boy and girl decide it is not worth while to save the little brown coins. They say to themselves, "It might be worth while io save the dimes and quarters, but not these insignificant pennies."

Do you know, dear little friends, that until you re spect the value of those pennies you are not on the road to a successful manhood or womanhood. Value the pennies and they will soon grow into dollars.

And as soon as you get one hundred of these pennies, open a savings account with this bank, if you haven't one here already. We are here to help you save and to learn the value of money. Start right now with the determination to be a saver of pennies—and before long you will have dollars to your credit.

Ask your father and mother about this. They will tell you we are right. And they will help you save, if you will show them that you are in earnest about it.

Further explorations showed that this territory held two important attractions for settlers. The first was the great fertility of what was called the Blue-Grass region. The so-called blue grass, from which this state is nicknamed the "Blue Grass State" is in no wise De culiar to Kentucky. The second inducement f settlers was the fact that there were no Indians living in this region. It was later found that

Carolina. It was not until 1779 that the first permanent settlement was made by James Robertson and this was sook followed by many other settlers from North Carolina. They formed what they called the Washington district, but this was short lived as it was promptly annexed to North Carolina. In 1784 the inhabitanta indignant over North Carplina's attitude toward them, declared their independence and formed the State of Franklin or Frankland. As this secossion was not countenanced by North Carolina, for a number of years a state of confusion existed with two sets of efficers trying to govern. Meanwhile the settlement suffered severely from hostile Indians and from the Spanish, who still held Louislann, and controlled the Mississippi river. In 1790 North Carolina finally coded this territory to the United States. By 1796 the population had increased to over 60,000, so Tesnessee was admitted as the sixteenth state of the Union. In the initial of the movement it is Fimportant, therefore, that all the people get a correct understanding of the status, purpose and source of this park. This importance is emphasized by the viact that though your paper containing this interesting article has been off the press only a few hours, three persons have phoned to me, and this is the substance of what each has said: "If the Gavernment is to build the park, why

The park, therefore, let it be understood, which the corporation which your article mentions will build, will be built by private donations and monumented, it is believed, by the Southern states in honor of their Confederate dead, and by such organizations as the Paughters of the Confederacy, the Conrederated Memorial Association, the United Confederate Veterans, the Sons of Confederate Veterans, and by all who honor valor and high motives and splendid patriotism. The corporation, as I have said-does not forget the heroism of the Federal units o those battles, or the bravery of its individual soldier: and the directors of the corporation will be glad to consider any monument which any Union unit or
