

VIRGINIA DIVISION OF HISTORIC LANDMARKS SURVEY FORM

File no. 76-327

Negative no(s). no photos

Historic name Arrelton Site	Common name
County/Town/City Prince William County	and the second of the second o
Street address or route number
USGS Quad Nokesville Quad.	Date or period
Original owner	Architect/builder/craftsmen
Original use
Present owner	Source of name
Present owner address	Source of date
_	Stories
Present use	Foundation and wall const'n
Acreage	Roof type
	1001 type
State condition of structure and environs
State potential threats to structure
Note any archaeological interest
1000 dily dionacciogram morest
Should be investigated for possible register potential? y	yes 🗆 no 🗆
Architectural description (Note significant features of pla	in, structural system and interior and exterior decoration, taking care to point out aspects not visible or clear from photographs. Explain	n nature and period of all alterations and additions. List any outbuildings and their approximate ages, cemeteries, etc.)	s Jones are the Arrelton site. The surveyor their approximate ages, cemeteries, etc.)  None of the 4 sites marked by Frances  Spoke with several long-time residents of	s Jones are the Arrelton site. The surveyor Nokesville and none of them knew where the exact
None of the 4 sites marked by Frances spoke with several long-time residents of	Nokesville and none of them knew where the exact of an earlier house in the basement of Fred and
None of the 4 sites marked by Frances spoke with several long-time residents of location is. There is a stone foundation Tane Rhoads home at 11486 Bittle Lane. The	Nokesville and none of them knew where the exact of an earlier house in the basement of Fred and his is an old Meredith house but it could not be
None of the 4 sites marked by Frances spoke with several long-time residents of location is. There is a stone foundation Jane Rhoads home at 11486 Bittle Lane. The Arrelton house because their house was	Nokesville and none of them knew where the exact of an earlier house in the basement of Fred and his is an old Meredith house but it could not be s built circa 1910, and nothing was on the site when
None of the 4 sites marked by Frances spoke with several long-time residents of location is. There is a stone foundation Jane Rhoads home at 11486 Bittle Lane. The the Arrelton house because their house was it was first surveyed by the W. P. A. in	Nokesville and none of them knew where the exact of an earlier house in the basement of Fred and his is an old Meredith house but it could not be s built circa 1910, and nothing was on the site when
None of the 4 sites marked by Frances spoke with several long-time residents of location is. There is a stone foundation Jane Rhoads home at 11486 Bittle Lane. The Arrelton house because their house was	Nokesville and none of them knew where the exact of an earlier house in the basement of Fred and his is an old Meredith house but it could not be s built circa 1910, and nothing was on the site when
None of the 4 sites marked by Frances spoke with several long-time residents of location is. There is a stone foundation Jane Rhoads home at 11486 Bittle Lane. The the Arrelton house because their house was it was first surveyed by the W. P. A. in	Nokesville and none of them knew where the exact of an earlier house in the basement of Fred and his is an old Meredith house but it could not be s built circa 1910, and nothing was on the site when
None of the 4 sites marked by Frances spoke with several long-time residents of location is. There is a stone foundation Jane Rhoads home at 11486 Bittle Lane. The the Arrelton house because their house was it was first surveyed by the W. P. A. in	Nokesville and none of them knew where the exact of an earlier house in the basement of Fred and his is an old Meredith house but it could not be s built circa 1910, and nothing was on the site when
None of the 4 sites marked by Frances spoke with several long-time residents of location is. There is a stone foundation Jane Rhoads home at 11486 Bittle Lane. The the Arrelton house because their house was it was first surveyed by the W. P. A. in	Nokesville and none of them knew where the exact of an earlier house in the basement of Fred and his is an old Meredith house but it could not be s built circa 1910, and nothing was on the site when
None of the 4 sites marked by Frances spoke with several long-time residents of location is. There is a stone foundation Jane Rhoads home at 11486 Bittle Lane. The the Arrelton house because their house was it was first surveyed by the W. P. A. in	Nokesville and none of them knew where the exact of an earlier house in the basement of Fred and his is an old Meredith house but it could not be s built circa 1910, and nothing was on the site when
None of the 4 sites marked by Frances spoke with several long-time residents of location is. There is a stone foundation Jane Rhoads home at 11486 Bittle Lane. The the Arrelton house because their house was it was first surveyed by the W. P. A. in	Nokesville and none of them knew where the exact of an earlier house in the basement of Fred and his is an old Meredith house but it could not be s built circa 1910, and nothing was on the site when
None of the 4 sites marked by Frances spoke with several long-time residents of location is. There is a stone foundation Jane Rhoads home at 11486 Bittle Lane. The the Arrelton house because their house was it was first surveyed by the W. P. A. in	Nokesville and none of them knew where the exact of an earlier house in the basement of Fred and his is an old Meredith house but it could not be s built circa 1910, and nothing was on the site when
None of the 4 sites marked by Frances spoke with several long-time residents of location is. There is a stone foundation Jane Rhoads home at 11486 Bittle Lane. The the Arrelton house because their house was it was first surveyed by the W. P. A. in	Nokesville and none of them knew where the exact of an earlier house in the basement of Fred and his is an old Meredith house but it could not be s built circa 1910, and nothing was on the site when
None of the 4 sites marked by Frances spoke with several long-time residents of location is. There is a stone foundation Jane Rhoads home at 11486 Bittle Lane. The the Arrelton house because their house was it was first surveyed by the W. P. A. in	Nokesville and none of them knew where the exact of an earlier house in the basement of Fred and his is an old Meredith house but it could not be s built circa 1910, and nothing was on the site when
None of the 4 sites marked by Frances spoke with several long-time residents of location is. There is a stone foundation Jane Rhoads home at 11486 Bittle Lane. The the Arrelton house because their house was it was first surveyed by the W. P. A. in	Nokesville and none of them knew where the exact of an earlier house in the basement of Fred and his is an old Meredith house but it could not be s built circa 1910, and nothing was on the site when
None of the 4 sites marked by Frances spoke with several long-time residents of location is. There is a stone foundation Jane Rhoads home at 11486 Bittle Lane. The the Arrelton house because their house was it was first surveyed by the W. P. A. in	Nokesville and none of them knew where the exact of an earlier house in the basement of Fred and his is an old Meredith house but it could not be s built circa 1910, and nothing was on the site when
None of the 4 sites marked by Frances spoke with several long-time residents of location is. There is a stone foundation Jane Rhoads home at 11486 Bittle Lane. The the Arrelton house because their house was it was first surveyed by the W. P. A. in	Nokesville and none of them knew where the exact of an earlier house in the basement of Fred and his is an old Meredith house but it could not be s built circa 1910, and nothing was on the site when
None of the 4 sites marked by Frances spoke with several long-time residents of location is. There is a stone foundation Jane Rhoads home at 11486 Bittle Lane. The the Arrelton house because their house was it was first surveyed by the W. P. A. in	Nokesville and none of them knew where the exact of an earlier house in the basement of Fred and his is an old Meredith house but it could not be s built circa 1910, and nothing was on the site when
None of the 4 sites marked by Frances spoke with several long-time residents of location is. There is a stone foundation Jane Rhoads home at 11486 Bittle Lane. The the Arrelton house because their house was it was first surveyed by the W. P. A. in	Nokesville and none of them knew where the exact of an earlier house in the basement of Fred and his is an old Meredith house but it could not be s built circa 1910, and nothing was on the site when
None of the 4 sites marked by Frances spoke with several long-time residents of location is. There is a stone foundation Jane Rhoads home at 11486 Bittle Lane. The the Arrelton house because their house was it was first surveyed by the W. P. A. in	Nokesville and none of them knew where the exact of an earlier house in the basement of Fred and his is an old Meredith house but it could not be s built circa 1910, and nothing was on the site when
None of the 4 sites marked by Frances spoke with several long-time residents of location is. There is a stone foundation Jane Rhoads home at 11486 Bittle Lane. The the Arrelton house because their house was it was first surveyed by the W. P. A. in	Nokesville and none of them knew where the exact of an earlier house in the basement of Fred and his is an old Meredith house but it could not be s built circa 1910, and nothing was on the site when
None of the 4 sites marked by Frances spoke with several long-time residents of location is. There is a stone foundation Jane Rhoads home at 11486 Bittle Lane. The the Arrelton house because their house was it was first surveyed by the W. P. A. in	Nokesville and none of them knew where the exact of an earlier house in the basement of Fred and his is an old Meredith house but it could not be s built circa 1910, and nothing was on the site when
None of the 4 sites marked by Frances spoke with several long-time residents of location is. There is a stone foundation Jane Rhoads home at 11486 Bittle Lane. The Arrelton house because their house was it was first surveyed by the W. P. A. in Its People and Its Places. p. 151)	Nokesville and none of them knew where the exact of an earlier house in the basement of Fred and his is an old Meredith house but it could not be s built circa 1910, and nothing was on the site when
None of the 4 sites marked by Frances spoke with several long-time residents of location is. There is a stone foundation Jane Rhoads home at 11486 Bittle Lane. The the Arrelton house because their house was it was first surveyed by the W. P. A. in	Nokesville and none of them knew where the exact of an earlier house in the basement of Fred and his is an old Meredith house but it could not be s built circa 1910, and nothing was on the site when

Historical significance (Chain of title; individuals, families, events, etc., associated with the property.)

Sources and bibliography
Published sources (Books, articles, etc., with bibliographic data.)

Prince William: The Story of Its People & Its Places. Richmond, VA: Whittet & Shepperson, Bicentennial Edition, 1976.

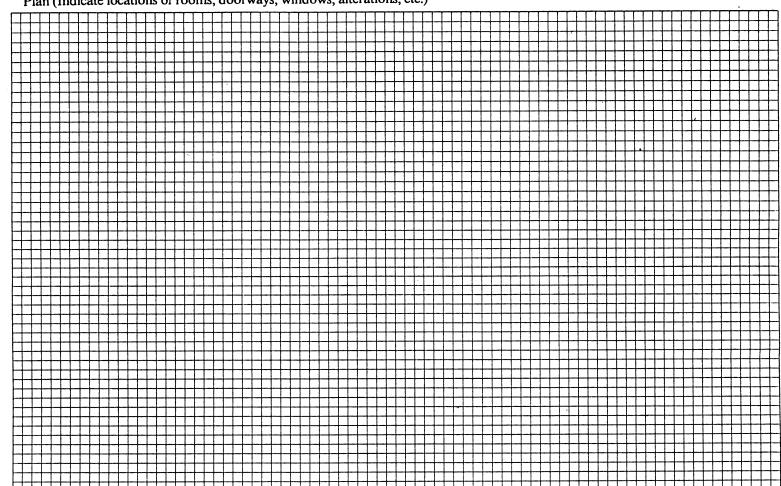

Primary sources (Manuscript documentary or graphic materials; give location.)

Names and addresses of persons interviewed

Mrs. James Rhoads 11486 Bittle Lane Nokesville, VA 22123

Mr. A. T. Flickinger 11404 Reed Lane Nokesville, VA 22123

Plan (Indicate locations of rooms, doorways, windows, alterations, etc.)

Site plan (Locate and identify outbuildings, dependencies and significant topographical features.)

