

A Clipping From
VPA NEWS-CLIP BUREAU

1 N. 5th St. Richmond 19, Va.

JOURNAL MESSENGER
Manassas, Va.

Date JUL 27 1967

BEING RESTORED — The old jail at Brentsville is currently being re-modeled for possible use as offices by Prince William governmental officials. The red brick box-like building was used as a jail when Brentsville served as the fourth county seat. The building was believed to have been erected about 1820. Children who participated in a 4-H Fun Day are shown playing a game of croquet on the jail's front lawn last week.