ARCHITECTURAL AND HISTORICAL STATEMENT

When initially constructed this building served the local community as a store and gas station. Between 1947 and 1959 it was converted into residential use. The interior and exterior changes have drastically altered the building's original character, integrity, form, and function. It is not eligible for individual listing in the National Register.

Tasee House (076-~~442~~)
Alterations/Additions

There are two rear frame additions. The earlier of the two might be the two story section which creates an ell. The roof is widely pitched and there is an exterior brick chimney. The single story frame section extends westward from the ell. The entire house is encased in aluminum siding. The flat-roofed front porch is enclosed and has ranks of single pane casement windows.

Architectural Description

This is a two story, frame, side-gable roofed dwelling with 3/1 double hung sash windows, aluminum siding, and a single interior brick chimney.

⁴⁸⁶
R. W. Brundt Store (076-~~443~~)
Alterations/Additions

All windows are modern replacement single pane, double hung sash units. Brick chimney has been enlarged and repointed. Single story, flat-roofed brick addition constructed in 1966. Sometime during the 1940s, the store was converted to residential use. Gas pump used to be located at front of store.

Architectural Description

This is a two-story, frame, hipped roof building with weatherboard siding, a three-bay-wide facade, and an interior brick chimney. A single-story, four-bay side porch lines the east elevation.

⁴⁸⁷
House (076-~~444~~)
Alterations/Additions

Two, single story, frame enclosed porches are on either three bay elevation. Both rest upon concrete block foundations and are covered with weatherboard siding.

Architectural Description

This is a two story, frame, gable sided dwelling with weatherboard siding. Three upper gables have ornamental wood shingles. Other features include 2/2 windows, an interior brick chimney, and two enclosed porches.
