

A Quiet Refuge

A wreath over the Advent candles heralds the Christmas season inside Buckhall United Methodist Church, built in 1905 between Woodbridge and Manassas, at Davis Ford Road and Moore Drive. The windows came from a D.C. firehouse, and the original construction cost was $830. The 200-member congregation is building a new sanctuary nearby and will use this frame structure as a parish hall.

