Sketching For The Bazaar

Jacqueline Smith sketches historic Buckland Tavern for a watercolor painting which will be given away at the Haymarket Woman's Club bazaar on Election Day, Tuesday, Nov. 5. The bazaar will be held from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. in St. Paul's Parish Hall, and dinner will be served from 11:30 a.m. to 6:30 p.m.

Furniture Needs Special Polish Care

The absence of instruction often results in over-waxing and over-polishing of wood furniture, even to the extent of damaging the finish. Some new finishes are so need routine dusting.

Most woods come in a variety of finishes.

Usable Toys Collected

The Seventh Annual Toy Drive by the Engineer School Brigade at Fort Belvoir will take place through Dec. 10. Soldiers, volunteering their time, will collect, repair, and distribute toys to needy children in local homes and orphanages.

Area residents are asked to take discarded but repairable toys to one of the following fire houses: Manassas on Centreville Road, Woodbine on F St., and Lorton on Mt. Vernon Blvd.

Catholics Plan Bazaar

All Saints Catholic Church will host its annual fall bazaar this year on Nov. 15 and 16 in the Parish Hall located on the corner of Stonewall Road and Rt. 28. The hours will be from 5 until 9 p.m. on Friday, Nov. 15, and from 11 a.m. to 9 p.m. on Saturday, the 16th.

Proceeds from the bazaar will go toward the new church. Forty-two different booths will be set up, including children's booths, a doll booth, art booth, Christmas boutique, and parcel post booth. Pizza, cakes and cookies, and coffee and soft drinks will also be available.

An auction will be held on Saturday at 1 p.m.

Tickets are available ahead of time from children who attend All Saints School and will also be available the days of the event. Free
