Washington Couple Buy Cerro Gordo, In Buckland Area

Special Dispatch to The Star

WARRENTON, Va., Oct. 29.—

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley H. Brewster of Washington have purchased from Mr. and Mrs. Philip H. Lee the historic old place known as Cerro Gordo, located near Buckland.

The property consists of 40 acres, but formerly was part of an estate owned by the Tyler family. The new home of Mr. and Mrs. Brewster was once the home of Grayson Tyler. It is of stone construction. The new owners will take possession immediately.
