

Attend the Church of Your Choice.

20th In A Series

—Photo by E. H. Olsen

OLD GREENWICH CHURCH. Presbyterians organized their congregation in 1810. On Rt. 295 near what is now Vint Hill, a brick edifice was erected, beside the original log church, in 1858 with the financial help of an Englishman, Charles Green, who loved the community. An iron fence was placed about the grounds in 1908.

Fauger Democrat 21 Feb 24