HISTORY

According to Mrs. Martha Leitch, ~~she~~ this was the home of Mr. Jimmy Hunton, who with his wife, the former Rose Love, ran the store in Mrs. Leitch's home, Deerlick, q.v., sometime before 1871.

Robert Edwards, the grandfather of neighboring property owner Hammett Gough, bought the house in 1916 from Hampton Butler. ~~Edwards~~ About 5 years later, Edwards resold the property to Hampton Butler. It passed to his son Wade Butler. In the 1950's Ford Griffith, the late brother of the present tenant, <sup>bought</sup> ~~ran~~ the property from the Butlers. Mrs. Herndon also recalls that at one time the Lillards owned the property.
