UNMARKED GRAVES — Eleanor Lee Templeman, a Lee descendant, and local resident Don Curtis would like to see Prince William supervisors appropriate funds to the county's Bicentennial Commission this year to mark the graves of the Lee family on Freestone Point. Mrs. Templeman and Curtis are shown here at Leesylvania near the cemetery fence enclosing the unmarked graves of Henry and Lucy Lee. Henry Lee was county lieutenant and presiding justice of Prince William County, a Prince William representative to the Va. House of Burgesses and served as a state senator in the mid 1700s.
