In southern Fauquier is an owner-built solar home, contemporary in design and filled with luxurious amenities.

Freshly painted throughout, the home has new wool carpet, custom cabinets, and bookshelves and dressers made from oak, walnut, redwood and ash.

Because there is an extremely talented artist in residence, creative touches include a stunning hand-painted ceiling in the master suite.

This tri-level cedar and stone home sits on more than five acres that have been lovingly landscaped with railroad tie work and retaining walls.

The deck flows into a 16-by-32 pool with screened gazebo, hot tub and outdoor shower.

The garage, which has space for a workshop, also has a studio or office above.

There is a play fort and swing set, plus a stone barbecue pit in the back yard.
