

221-4367 (home) photographed
Mrs. Anne Fuller Rd. Quantico. needs file

Gray Bldg in Quantico

Wall, Ann Moncure owns
253 Potomac Ave. 2-2-BLK 5 Lot 45

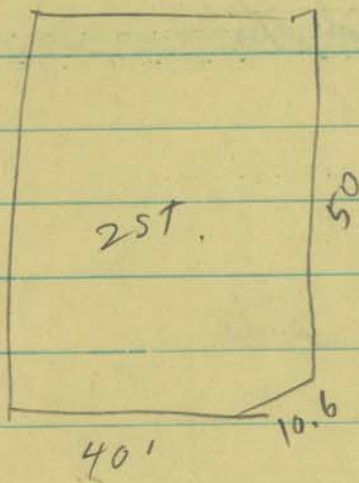

DB 260 P. 771 (1960)

1920+-

. 1263 A

Land 22,200

Bld. 33,300

former loc. WQVA RADIO STA. stucco. ext.

4 Apts.

tar-gravel roof.
plaster walls.
stone found.

from U.S. Govt. in 1960.

originally Lot 1 B. 5 Sec. 4 never used as such.

bldg. built by N. Carolina Firm, as a bank but possibly govt. took it when they came from Indian Head, c1918. First headquarters.

Captain Joyce was
ret. mayor of Ocoquan Director of Natl. Bank of Quantico.

has an orig. picture of it from a booklet put out by

had a store in it.

the corner entrance was supposed to have been a bank.

cement slab beneath it.

had store windows on Broadway side door

M.C. rebuilt it twice was bachelor flats, then headquarters
mil. families 4 apt. units then just civilian empl. civil service housing

also owns bldg to the left of the gray bldg.
place for a small specialty store.
was a store - per. above,
also built as a house.
w/ a later home
Quantico Town
Transport → - had a dog race
track

Mrs. Wall - wants to record rems. of 2 was platted by Lamsburg Co.

Mrs. Wall's husband built the temple.

It was a Methodist Ch. first.

was probably after 1923, because that was when Mr. Wall moved to area. see Buddy Abel rest. 5th Ave + Broadway.

Mr. Wall opened 1st Natl. Bank of Quantico.

M -

Ocoquan had a bank. -

Mr. Zinkle had a bank in Nokesville.